Wheat Harvest To Be Underway This Weekend

Wheat prospects are probably the best in this area in ten years, according to men who have grown wheat over that period of time.

If the weather holds, most agree that by Saturday the combines will be running in the fields and grain will be flowing into the elevators with increasing volume until the peak is hit possibly next week.

General opinion seems to be that the average yield per acre for this vicinity will be above 20 bushels. That is quite a bit better than the usual 12 to 15 bushel average crop.

Quite a number of combines are waiting for the grain to ripen, but if all the fields are ready at about the same time, there may be a temporary shortage of machines to handle the crop at the most favorable time.

Local elevators are ready to receive grain and should be able to handle it just as fast as it comes in.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

WASHINGTON, IOWA, JOURNAL: "There is a modern parable about a troubled old king who summoned his wisest counselors and instructed them to prepare a simple text on economic principles, which the people might understand. The wise men came back in a year with 67 volumes, profusely illustrated with graphs and charts. But a venerable old patriarch came forward with his appraisal — eight little words: 'There ain't no such thing as a free lunch!'"

OLYMPIA, WASH., DAILY OLYMPIAN: "Canadian railroads have the same problems as US rails — 'feather-bedding'. Rail unions insist on assigning more men to trains than management regards as necessary. Far sighted union leaders have gone along with technological improvements in industry, confident they will provide more and better jobs in the long run. Certainly more jobs will not be created by rules freezing unneeded employees in obsolete tasks."

PHILLIPS, WIS., THE BEE: "We were greatly pleased when one of our readers challenged one of our editorials in a most vehement manner. That in our mind was the best recommendation we could have had for writing editorials."

CARLSBAD, N. M. CURRENT-ARGUS: "New Mexico and neighboring states may be in for an interesting experiment, and shocking results, in the drive to employ farm workers from hard pressed U. S. areas instead of importing Mexican labor."

"One of the first questions is: 'Will American laborers who have been employed at other off-the-farm jobs return to agricultural work?' Observers wonder if enough of them will seek farm work to meet the demand. Hiring of unemployed workers in this country for farm jobs is being attempted under a new policy laid down by the U. S. Labor Department."

BROWNSVILLE, PA., TELEGRAPH: "Government should be like your stomach: If it's working right you don't know that you have it."

IT'S ABOUT TIME

Now for the first time in the history of the automobile comes an organized nationwide campaign against "hot-weather pile-up", and elimination of one of the most common and most easily prevented causes of summer-time traffic accidents.

Our latest statistics show that 11.2 percent of all crashes resulting from miscellaneous highway obstructions are caused by stationary vehicles on the traveled road. The greatest number of these mishaps occur in warm weather, and the great majority of these are due to engine overheating, which in turn, is due to the car owner's failure to take reasonable care of his cooling system. And this same oversight is usually at the forefront of the long lines of stalled traffic that feature the approaches to our big cities on summer week-ends.

Wherefore, the nation observes "Cooling System Maintenance Week" from May 19th to 24th, which all good citizens, who have not already done so, will celebrate by draining, cleaning, flushing and generally insuring peak performance of the cooling system. Having made this notable contribution to the well-being of themselves, their families and the other fellow, to say nothing of the preservation of their property and the protection of their bankrolls, it will be a lot more fun to go places and there will be fewer steam-engines on the highway.

By now, of course, everybody guards against the danger of winter freeze-up, but it's still difficult to realize what a little sludge and gunk and rust can do to the cooling system in summer. If the radiator's full of water when we start out, we figure all is well in the cooling department. But hot weather, plus idling in waiting for lights or in stalled traffic, plus the slight restriction in water circulation add up to big trouble, fast. And more mysterious than a boiling engine, and equally disabling is "vapor-lock," which can set in without giving warning on the heat indicator. This is a condition in which engine heat evaporates the gasoline in the feed line to the carburetor. The result is the fuel can't flow to the carburetor and you're just a helpless as if the tank were empty.

Summer overheating, say the experts, can immobilize a vehicle quicker and more completely than most any engine component failure. And it can stall a vacation in its tracks, too and soak up all your fun money. That's reason enough for "Cooling System Maintenance Week."

We Take Better Care Of The Animals

Dr. J. W. McGinnis, of Ord, Nebraska, has retired after 48 years in the practice of veterinary medicine in and around that community. At least, he told the press he was retiring, except for consultation & occasional work at the animal hospital he founded.

On being interviewed, Dr. McGinnis spoke of many changes that had occurred in his profession and in the attitude of farmers and stockmen since 1909, when he hung up his first veterinarian diploma ever seen in those parts. In those days, he said, his job was to save the sick. But nowadays, and for some years, past, the vet's principal job is and has been the prevention of illness. You treat the animals who are well, so they won't get sick, he says. As a result, many animal diseases that once reached epidemic proportions are now extinct or nearly so. He also said it had been necessary to teach this idea to the public.

Dr. McGinnis is too kind to the "public," and too flattering to the mental stature of the genus homo. The Chinese started teaching this philosophy a few thousand years ago, but man hasn't learned it yet. In spite of the best efforts of our medical profession, it is still an uphill struggle to get even a few people to protect their health through regular annual check-up. Health agencies everywhere have been working with radiologists, the X-ray physicians, for many years at what they call "mass" chest X-ray screening in a valiant effort to find and stamp out tuberculosis. But they are still a long, long way from reaching all the people who actually see and walk past their mobile units.

The achievements of medical science, including such diagnostic marvels as the cardiograph and the X-ray, are ready and waiting, to meet the challenge of prevention on a nationwide front. But too often they are just waiting on unthinking humans who have their fancy livestock vaccinated, inoculated, fumigated, castrated and impregnated just so nothing untoward will happen, but who refuse to act on their own health until they hurt.

Know A Teen-Age Boy Driver? Better Show Him These Facts

(From the Lakeville, Conn., Journal for every junior and senior high school and every college student.)

The facts are in boys and you just don't make the grade. As a group between the ages of 16 and 25, you think you're the world's best drivers. But the low down is this—you are the country's worst. The facts are in and your insurance rate has gone up anywhere from 20 to 25 percent. (Actually 300 to 400 percent.)

Think it over, lads—and dads. The insurance people are no dopes. They don't care whether you are handsome and have the females in a dither, they do not care whether you have a piece of junk lovingly tuned to a raceway song. All they care about is poor performance on the road.

Frankly, sons, your performance as a group is a menace to society—and to yourselves. Who says so? Not us. The insurance companies say so, & they know; they don't know your name and address. They don't know if you own a Ferrari or a Ford. All they care about is facts. The fact is you have the worst road record of any age group in the country. And getting worse.

You are still boys, boys. You aren't men unless you can handle cars, among other things and you aren't handling them properly though you have plenty of know-how to do so. It isn't only you who gets killed or hurt. It's the girl with you, it's the guy down the street or the lady in the next county who trusted you to act like a man.

You wouldn't let a guy hit you over the head with a hammer; why let him drive you into a post? You wouldn't let him steal 50 bucks out of your pocket. Yet he's already done that this year, boosting your own cost of driving a car. And you, the worst offender—you spoiled brats thinking you can handle 200 horsepower when you can't handle one boy-power, what are you going to do about it?

Brother, get the low down—the girls in your age group have it all over you. Not only in looks, but in intelligence, in self-control, in fair play, and in their ability to handle those horsepower you can't handle. That's not our opinion; it's the considered opinion of the insurance companies. The rates for girls in your own age group have gone down, not up. They are getting to be better drivers, not worse.

You haven't yet learned that champs are not chumps. And if you don't believe the insurance companies about what lousy drivers you are, ask a champ some day, if you can face it. Do not fool yourself about the cheap adulation of the kids around you who don't know any better. And don't think your girl is impressed by your hot-shot antics the next time you take her out. She, and most of your buddies, have you tabbed for just what you are, a chump. They're just too polite or too scared or disgusted to tell you.

Nobody else will tell you, so we're telling you. We'll take it back when the insurance rates go back down.

YOUR NEW Social Security

Some aged wives and widows who are separated but not divorced from their husbands could be receiving monthly social security benefits on the basis of their husband's work, if they would come in and file application, Erton F. Tate, district social security manager said today.

A 1957 change in the law did away with the requirement that a wife must be living with or supported by her husband when she files application, and that a widow must have been living with or supported by her husband at the time of his death. Now, a 62 year old wife or widow may be eligible for a monthly benefit merely on the basis of a legal marriage that is still in existence, even though they may have been separated for many years and are at opposite ends of the country. There has been no change in the law with respect to the provision that a wife can receive monthly benefits only if her husband is also receiving his benefit.

Aged wives and widows who believe they can qualify for benefits as a result of this change in the law should contact us promptly to determine what their rights are, Tate concluded.

A representative from the social security office will be in Burkburnett June 31st at the city Hall, Tuesday at 2:00 p. m.

Uni. Study Club Installs Officers

The University Study club closed the season Wednesday, May 21st with a lovely noon luncheon in the home of Mrs. R. C. Tevis. Co-hostesses serving with her were Mesdames J. H. Rigby, W. H. Holt, Oscar Melton, Blake Browning and O. E. Melton. The large dining table where ten members found their place cards, was beautiful with its pink linen cloth and china. A large arrangement of pink roses and peonies decorated the center. There were two other tables in the living room with six at each table, also decorated with lovely flower arrangements and place cards. An outstanding arrangement on the television was made of peonies and roses in a large black fan shaped container. The meal was served cafeteria style. Mrs. O. E. Melton gave the invocation and after the guests were seated, Miss Tevis (Sadie Beth as we call her) made the meal more enjoyable as she played some beautiful numbers on her lovely new organ.

After a brief business session, Mr. Deuchle of the Bell Telephone Co., gave a 5 minute informative talk on dialing to Wichita Falls. He assured us this was possible if the Burk citizens wanted it.

Mrs. Melton, the retiring president, welcomed two guests, Mrs. Paul Browning of this city and Mrs. Leslie Finnell, an ex-member of the club from Holliday.

Mrs. Finnell installed the new officers for the coming year. In this ceremony, she compared the officers and members of the club to the sympathy, beauty, strength, growth, durability and productivity of a tree. It was a beautiful installation. Mrs. Melton presented her with a corsage and gift of appreciation.

The club presented Mrs. Melton with a lovely gift and 5 door prizes were awarded by the hostesses.

After the retiring president had presented the gavel to the new president, Mrs. Crosley announced her committees and a short business session was held.

Phil Seay, Keeper of the buckskin.

According to Miss Thelma Wirges, county HD agent, the garden committee for the Bridwell Program has started their judging. They find that families have excellent gardens and are requesting that they be judged earlier this year. Garden committee members are John Sibley, Misses Emily Moore, Ethel Lynn Geeslin, Thelma Wirges.

Gardens are judge on selection of plot, preparation, care, results, planting or cultivation of orchards or vineyards and records.

The committee would like to urge everyone to keep a good record. The records are what made the difference last year.

Gardens already judged belong to Mesdames E. J. Simons, Bee Bryant, Leroy Stone, John Berry, Joe McNeil, L. L. McHugh, Hubert Miller W. P. Rogers and Pat Pruett.

Freezing is a quick, easy way to preserve fresh greens, asparagus and other spring vegetables. Thelma Wirges, county HD agent says that freezing keeps the natural color, fresh flavor and food values of most vegetables and fruits better than other methods of food preparation.

For best result, select fresh, tender vegetables right from the garden while they are at the right stage of maturity for eating.

Other factors that influence quality are preparation, packaging, freezer loading and length of storage.

Latest information on how to freeze and how to cook frozen foods is given in extension bulletin, Frozen Foods. Get a copy from your county HD agent's office.

Information will also be given in food preservation workshops, this month. These workshops were planned by the foods and nutrition committee. Members of this committee are Mesdames L. L. McHugh, Solon Downing, Guy Ragland and E. F. Pfluger.

Spring may call for a fresh-up paint job for kitchen or bathroom walls or woodwork. The right paint will make your job a great deal easier and more satisfactory, reminds Thelma Wirges, county HD agent.

Paints today flow on smoothly and dry quickly. They are designed for specific purposes, for ease of maintenance and years of lasting attractiveness.

Some paints are even resistant to heat. For where moisture is present much of the time, such as bath and kitchen, an alkyd semi-gloss or alkyd gloss enamel is recommended. Both of these are designed to resist moisture and abrasion so they can be scrubbed.

Color is no problem since the new paints come in many tints and shades. For areas where white is desired, there are non-yellowing white alkyd flat, semi gloss and gloss enamels available.

There is one thing about paint that hasn't changed. That's the fact that it must be applied to a clean, smooth surface for best results. If you plan to paint over old paint, examine it closely. If it is not chipped, you can wash it down with a solvent before applying your new coat. Study the label on the container and be sure to follow directions carefully.

Mrs. Joe Sloma, kitchen demonstrator for the Hardin HD club, has just completed a paint job. She planned a new color scheme, then finished walls, woodwork and cabinets.

Mrs. William Fisher, another kitchen demonstrator, has this among her goals.

Note of Appreciation

Current Literature Club Officers Installed May 22

Members of the Current Literature club finished their 1957-58 term with an installation ceremony Thursday, May 22nd at the home of Mrs. D. H. Smith. The house was lovely with its profusion of flowers, arrangements of which were placed at vantage points throughout the party rooms. Preceding the installation, Mrs. Ralph White, retiring president, gave her annual report and presided over a business session in which reports of committee chairmen were given. She expressed her appreciation and thanks to the outgoing officers for their cooperation throughout the year. The resignation of Mrs. D. H. Smith was accepted with regret. The poetry contest in the schools under the direction of Mrs. F. G. Jeffers, Fine Arts chairman, and sponsored by the club was reported on by Miss Ella Billingslea. Charlene Preston was awarded the first prize, a $5.00 cash award. Mrs. C. M. Archer, treasurer, gave a comprehensive financial report for the year. Mrs. E. B. McCabe, therapy chairman reported the gifts of flower pin holders for SAFB. A white elephant sale was conducted from which $93.10 was netted. Mrs. Fred Hunt, program leader presented Miss Ella Billingslea who gave an interesting report. Mrs. F. G. Jeffers gave the club history a resume of the clubs activities, topics studied, projects attained, social functions & attended achievements accomplished during the year. She began with a beautiful inspirational poem she wrote around which she created the setting for the history. The installation ceremony under the direction of Mrs. J. N. Hicks was impressive and beautiful. She used the star as her symbol for guidance, together with candles tied with different colored ribbons. As she presented each officer in turn with a star, she gave the challenge as to their responsibility in performance of duty. She admonished to occasionally "Catch a falling star and put it your pocket as a test of strength, cooperation and other factors." The following officers were installed: Mesdames C. M. She also presented a gift to Mrs. White, retiring president in appreciation of the capable leadership during the year. Pictures were made of the outgoing and incoming officers after which delicious refreshments were served to eighteen members and one guest, Mrs. Hicks.

It's The Law In Texas

Amateur Advice Dangerous

You don't have to be a lawyer in order to form an opinion on a legal subject. However, it is bad business for a laymen to pass such an opinion to others to guide their actions. He may cause them to suffer substantial losses.

Because of the vast intricacies of the law, a simple set of facts often gives rise to difficult legal problems. In spite of this, there are many persons who persist in passing out legal advice on all problems, pounding the table, quoting rules, and loudly expounding opinions. Beware of those persons, because their free opinions are usually worth what they cost, and often can be the unintended cause of harm to those who rely on them.

For example, George Jones owned a small drug store. He agreed to sell the store to Harry White at a time when he still owed $1,000 to various creditors for merchandise he had bought for the store. George and Harry were in the back room one night discussing who would pay these debts. George suggested that they talk to a lawyer.

Just then Wilbur Knowall came into the room and heard the discussion. He assured them that there was no necessity to see a lawyer. He told George to keep the debts, to avoid complications. As to telling George's creditors of the sale, Wilbur said that was unnecessary because George was still liable to pay them. George and Harry decided to follow Wilbur's advice.

Several weeks later, after Harry had taken over the store, a representative of one of George's creditors came in and demanded that Harry pay the debt that George had incurred. Harry refused but went to see a lawyer to make certain. Harry was surprised to learn that he had failed to comply with a Texas Statute in buying the store without giving notice of the sale to George's creditors. He further learned that the sale was void as to them and that he was liable for George's debt.

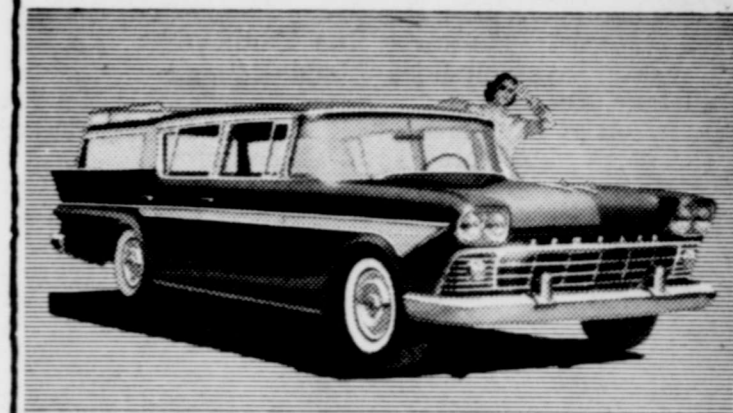

This is a commonplace example of the trouble you can get into

Is a gas hog keeping you broke?

Switch to Rambler

Be money ahead every mile!

Rambler's first in sales gains—up 70% over last year—because it's first in economy (official NASCAR economy record, less than a penny a mile for gasoline, by a Rambler 6 with overdrive), highest in resale value, smartest in style. Only Rambler gives you the best of both: American big car room and comfort, plus European small car handling ease and economy.

when toying with the law. Experienced lawyers often must spend many hours researching a problem before advising their clients as to the best course of action to follow. It is therefore hazardous to rely on the legal advice of well-meaning friends. As in the case of Harry White, that is often the beginning of many headaches.

A Message For Memorial Day

We Will Not Forget
by His Eminence, Francis Cardinal Spellman

MEMORIAL DAY! Our prayers of gratitude incense the heavens for those whose lives have bought our freedom upon the altar of war's cruel sacrifice. Forget the valiant dead? We can not breathe one breath or live one moment which has not been bought by their heroic blood. We can not, we will not forget.

But what of the living heroes, the four million who wear the wounds of selfless struggle, the living veterans disabled for our sake, who daily die the living death of pain? Shall they have no part in our remembrance on this hallowed day? These are they who with virile valor faced the advancing foe, with calm courage stood their ground, with forthright fortitude bore the wracking wounds—and won the victory that America might live in the wholeness and unity of freedom's peace. These are the four million who rode into the valley of death and endured the maiming blows of bitter conflict that the wounded world might be healed by the blessed balm of liberty.

With sorrowful heart often have I seen them—those once crushed upon the battlefields of Europe, broken upon the broad Pacific's isles, torn asunder on Korea's heart-breaking hills. Proudly they will carry their scars of battle to the grave, yet wonder they must at our unmindfulness. Shall they, then, be forgotten on this day of memories? Shall they who bled to save us all not know the thanks and help of those they saved?

America, God-blessed land, embrace your injured soldier sons. In the blessed Name of Christ, whose wounds were borne for us, hold out your hands to console, to strengthen, and to heal our veterans disabled by the brutal strokes of war. Take to your heart those whose hearts poured out their purple blood for us, for peace, that freedom's holy light might never dim.

(Written especially for the D.A.V.—the Ident-a-Tag organization)

IT'S THE LAW
In Texas

Automobile Accident Rules
Should Be Memorized

Vacation time is near. Soon millions of people will be driving about the country and automobile accidents will occur with increasing frequency. What should a person do when involved in an accident?
At such times it is hard to keep your wits about you and know just what to do. It is therefore a good idea to plan in advance just what you would do in event of a smash-up. Here are a few simple rules that every driver should commit to memory:

- 1. Stop. Failure to stop can result in serious criminal consequences.
  - 2. Render Aid. If anyone is injured render first aid, stop bleeding, call a doctor or an ambulance or both, do not move an injured person in any way that may cause further injury.
  - 3. Protect the scene from further damage. You may be liable for damages to approaching drivers, unless they are properly warned. If the highway is obstructed at night, have someone turn his headlights on the wrecked vehicles.
  - 4. Call an Officer. Policemen, Highway Patrolmen, Sheriffs, and their deputies are trained accident investigators whose testimony may be invaluable in establishing your civil claim for damages.
  - 5. Gather information, write it down. Don't trust your memory. Don't guess, be specific. Measure skids marks. Step off distances. Be sure to obtain names and addresses of witnesses. You are required by law to exhibit your driver's license to the other driver and he must do the same.
  - 6. Be careful What you say. Even if you feel you probably are to blame, it is best to make no admission. You may learn later that the other driver was equally at fault, or more so. Emotional comments can be misconstrued by others, or may be misquoted. Whatever you say, make it factual.
  - 7. See your Doctor if there is the slightest chance you may be injured. Serious injuries do not always result in immediate pain or bloodshed.
  - 8. Consult Your Lawyer Immediately. The sooner your Lawyer is brought into the matter, the better he can advise you and protect your rights. He can obtain statements from the witnesses while their memories are fresh and do many other things to insure that the true facts are preserved. Get your investigators or adjusters for any interviews or statements to the other side.
  - 9. Inform your Insurance Co. promptly. Failure to do so may void your policy.
  - 10. Report the accident to the Department of Public Safety. This is required by law if there is any injury, death, or total damages exceed $25.
- An official accident report form may be procured from the Police, Sheriff's Dept., Highway Patrol or State Dept. of Public Safety.
- Week-end visitors in the home of Mrs. B. H. Preston were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Brown of Ackerly, Texas, and Mrs. Shelby Reed of Big Spring, Texas.

News From The County Agent

The following 4-H boys and girls received Duroc gilts this week: Karen Bentley, Burkburnett; Olen Baley, Friberg-Cooper; Rogers Johnson, Wichita Falls; Joe Propps, Electra; Bentley Harwell, Friberg-Cooper and Billy Baxter, Reagan Jr. High.
Pecan producers in Wichita County have started their control program for the pecan nut casebearer. B. T. Haws, county agent, urges other growers in every section of the county to check their orchards daily for signs of the casebearer. To control the casebearer you can spray with 3 lbs. 50% wettable DDT, or 3 lbs 25% wettable Malathion or 5 lbs. 40% wettable toxaphene to 100 gallons of water.

Fifty years of 4-H progress in Texas will be presented as a gram of the annual Texas 4-H club roundup, Texas A and M College, June 10th. From the corn and tomato clubs of 50 yrs. ago to the present day 4-H clubs will be reviewed by a fast moving pageant.

Rearing pullet on a range requires constant and unceasing watchfulness and close adherence to a few points of good management says B. T. Haws, county agent.

Don't fail to follow manufacturer's direction when handling and using highly toxic insecticides, warns the county agent. Weather conditions continue to favor heavy insect infestations and this means farmers will be handling large quantities of materials which can kill humans as well as bugs.

Are you working to build up your soil? Do you try to maintain high fertility in your soil? If you fit into either of these categories you might be interested in just which nutrients and how much are removed from the soil by certain crops.
Some of the more important field, forage and vegetable crops are listed with the amounts of nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium and calcium each removes from the soil in a new leaflet, Soil Nutrients Removed by Crops. This information can help you what to expect in the way of fertilizing. Get a copy from your local county agent.

Reports from the three Texas Agricultural Experiment Station Poultry Diagnostic Laboratories indicate that the incidence of pullorum and typhoid are definitely on the increase in Texas. And this, warns B. T. Haws, County agent, can mean trouble for the State's broiler growers. The industry is urged to take the steps needed to restore an effective program which has existed in Texas for many years.

Prospects appear bright for pecan crop at the present time. Pecans over the county are about two to three weeks late due to the late spring, but continued good growing conditions and proper insect control does look like a good pecan year.

With respect to insect control surveys just completed by extension entomologists show heavy infestation of the pecan nut casebearer. This is the insect that destroys a good portion of our pecan crop each year, much in fact that it is called the number one enemy of pecans.

Spring time brings an assessment of hungry insects to attack ornamental plants. Determining the kind and amount of insecticide to use on the different insects becomes a problem. To answer these and other questions, extension entomologists have prepared a leaflet titled Texas Guide for Controlling Insects on Ornamental Plants. The leaflet defines most common insect pests, describes the type of damage they give directions for treatment complete with dilution chart, mixing sprays. Copies are available from your county extension agent's office.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Leaders of the Texas cotton farming industry, long plagued by regional feuding have joined hands. Object: to try to stave off a drastic cut in the 1959 acreage allotments.

Unless the present farm law is amended by Congress this session, the national cotton acreage allotment would drop automatically from the presently authorized national quota of 17,500,000 acres to approximately 14,200,000 acres in 1959.

Spokesman from all the States cotton producing areas met in Austin to hammer out an alternate proposal. Their plan:

- (1) Retain the 17,500,000 national acreage allotment.
- (2) Give farmers a choice between planting higher acreage at lower price supports or lower acreage with higher supports.
- (3) Abolish the present Soil Bank program.

It was the first time, said leaders, that this Texas industry had been so well unified behind a program. In previous years, East and West Texas growers have been at loggerheads over quotas.

Texas cotton men say that neither they nor the economy as a whole can stand the threatened 20 to 25 percent slash.

Of the 17,500,000 acres now allotted to cotton over the nation Texas has 7,474,000 giving the state a hefty stake in the future of the industry.

A Stitch in Time—Thrifty farm families who can a good portion of their yearly produce will probably have best chances of survival if nuclear bombs ever should fall on Texas.

These and other facts bearing on the key role of rural and small town citizens in civil defense were pointed up as Texans participated in the nationwide practice exercise, Operation Alert.

For two days officials and representatives of agencies making up the State Civil Defense Council sat in the map-lined, bomb-proof Disaster Control Center in the Department of Public Safety building. Pretending five cities had been hit, they practiced coping with the gigantic problems that would arise maintaining government, re-establishing transportation, communication and power facilities, providing food, shelter and medical attention for victims, escaping radioactive fallout.

Small towns and rural areas would serve as reception centers for evacuees from target cities.

Providing food is regarded as especially crucial. If all transportation were knocked out, Texas would have only 14 days supply of food, says State Defense Coordinator William L. McGill. Garden plots and crops in the field might be ruined by fallout. Frozen foods might spoil for lack of electricity.

Hence, if worst comes to worst a well-stocked pantry is seen as an ace in the hole.

Living Within Means—Texas Government should try to make spending fit income rather than vice versa, says a spokesman for the Retail Merchants Assn of Texas.

Charles J. Lux of Austin, executive vice president of the Retail Merchants, said his organization is opposed to any new tax, whether on sales, income or gross receipts.

He suggests the State Study Commission and Texas Research League concentrate on finding ways to economize rather than hunting a new source of state revenue.

Economy Study—Along this line an interim legislative committee is searching into higher education expenses.

Sen. Crawford Martin of Hillsboro, chairman, said the study is directed toward achieving maximum efficiency and possible savings.

Specifications to be considered: (1) how many college classes are below recommended size (2) how much public money is required to subsidize athletics and health services and (3) cost of college presidents' homes.

Lost Oil Foreseen—If Texas continues to limit oil production to market demand, the state may lose permanently some of its underground oil resources.

Railroad Commission Chairman Olin Culberson told a group of some 600 Southwestern oil men that if present trends continue, development of secondary recovery programs will not be justified. In short, going after the last drop available from a pool is hardly worthwhile when production is stringently limited.

Culberson suggested to the Texas Petroleum Research committee's Oil Recovery Conference that a new approach might be needed to conserve Texas' prime resource. Alternative, he said, might be the loss of well over half the oil under Texas.

Still Here—Texas business reports at the end of the first quarter, '58 show that the recession is still very much with us.

University of Texas Bureau of Business Research said recovery is generally expected during the last quarter (October 1- Dec. 31st.).

BBR tied Texas' troubles directly to the massive drop in crude oil production, said recovery of the state economy hinges on restoring the oil industry to health.

Overall the March 30th business index was a modest 2 percent below March, 57. Bright spots were construction, up 17 percent, and farm cash income, up 12%. Crude oil production was down 32%.

Short Snorts—Atty. Gen. Will Wilson named Sam Blackman of El Paso as an assistant attorney to serve in the state and county affairs division. . . Thus far this year, emphasis on safe driving has saved 70 lives, according to Brad Smith, Gov. Daniel's Traffic Safety director. Highway deaths for the first 4 months of this year totaled 618 compared to 688 a year ago. . . Don Wooten of Abilene has been appointed to the Merit System Council to replace Ike Ashburn of Austin who retired for health reasons. . . Texas 137 draft boards are being asked to forward 519 men for induction into the armed forces during June. At the same time, State Selective Service Headquarters announced the boards would be asked to send 3,410 men to take pre-induction physicals. Both examination and draft quotas are slightly lower than for May. Report of the Senate's contingent expense committee showed widely varying amounts spent by various senators for such items as telephone, telegraph, postage and office supplies. Examples, all from the same two-year period: Sen. Jimmy Philips of Angleton, $5,490.86; Sen. Geo. Parkhouse of Dallas, $2,686.04; Sen. R. A. Weinert of Seguin, $398.95. State franchise tax collections to date for 1958 total $37,141,213, which is $2,249,838 more than for all of 1957. Sec'y of State Zollie Steakley announced.

Constant care and attention are necessary for the maintenance of a beautiful lawn. One of the basic factors involved, says B. T. Haws, county agent, is mowing. Improper mowing, too high or too close, is responsible for the deterioration of many lawns. He suggests that a copy of B-203, Home Lawns, be obtained from the local extension agent for detailed information on lawn care and maintenance.

News From The County Agent

The Wichita County 4-H and FFA broiler show, sponsored by the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce, will be held at the 4-H barn on Saturday, May 10. One hundred and twenty-five club boys and girls will participate in the program. Each entry will consist of 6 birds, 3 pullets and 3 cockrels.

A grass variety test was planted on the Ralph Swinford farm last week. 25 different varieties of grasses were planted by Fred Parks and Lloyd Ladd, SCS, Mike McDonald, ASC and B. T. Haws, county agent.

Some rust is showing up in the grain fields in the county.

Every year the question comes up as to which is the cheapest and best nitrogen to buy. Nitrogen fertilizer comes in three different forms, solid, liquid, and gas, each of which may contain varying percentages of nitrogen, depending on the material from which it is made.

B. T. Haws, county agent, says the important question is to agree that one source is as good as another as long as they are used on an equivalent basis. So what you do is to decide how much nitrogen to use per acre, then apply that amount from the different sources of nitrogen, use the nitrogen that will give you the lowest cost per acre. ## Burkburnett Twins Touched Often By Historical Events

Being identical twins at 91 years old is an advantage to the birthday dinner apart until after Mrs. Eva Cunningham and Mrs. Evie Barnes, whose maiden name was Woodruff, talk of the past, read and entertain each other to while away the time.

They live with Mrs. Cunningham's daughter, Mrs. Preston Johnson, on Sycamore Road in Burk Burnett.

Their mother was in Ford's Theatre in Washington City the night Lincoln was shot and their father, a Union soldier was on guard duty in the city that famous night.

History touched their lives again on May 31, 1889, when they lived in Weston's Mills, N. Y. The town is only 150 miles from Johnstown flood which drowned more than 2,000 persons.

Their home was flooded and they can remember their father moving all the furniture to the second floor.

The twins, who will be 92 next October, spend a lot of their time talking about past and future fishing trips. Both are avid fishermen and in 1953 Mrs. Cunningham caught her first fish from the Pacific Ocean.

They both went fishing in the Gulf of Mexico two years ago at the age of 90—and may go back this summer.

Their mother's sister Married Henry Mill, a nephew of Robert

E. Lee, who fought for the North in the Civil War. He was the son of Nancy Lee.

One of their fondest memories is of 1903 when they saw Queen Victoria's jewel box at the world's fair in Toronto, Canada.

Reading is also a favorite past-time. Mrs. Barnes is no longer able to read, but Mrs. Cunningham reads to her. They like religious books and novels. Mrs. Cunningham also sews.

Both of the sisters opposed women's suffrage, but they both vote regularly — Republican.

Inseparable most of their lives, they were born in Weston's Mills, N. Y. Oct. 21, 1866. They later moved to Pennsylvania where their father was interested in oil. The twins never ate a Woodruff sisters of Burk Burnett they were 50 years old.

He brought his family to Tulsa during oil boom days and on to Burk Burnett during the boom of 1910. They have lived in Burk Burnett since. Their father died here in 1950.

Mrs. Barnes is a baseball fan. She enjoyed going to games when she was younger and watched wrestling and baseball on television before her eyesight began to fail.

Modern women's fashions draw criticism from the two ladies. Mrs. Barnes thinks women who wear shorts should be arrested and put in jail. "I can just imagine what my mother would have said."

Mrs. Barnes recalls the lamp-lighters and the first electricity that came to Olean, N. Y., when they lived there as girls.

Mrs. Cunningham says she can remember back to the age of four when Mrs. Barnes caught her dress on fire from the family stove. Mrs. Cunningham says she grabbed her twin sister and went running down the street holding her sister's hand until their mother put out the fire with her hands.

Mrs. Barnes recalls "Pete's gas wagon," the first automobile she ever saw. It belonged to the mayor of Olean. They also remember seeing the first Pennsylvania Railroad engine make the trip from Bullafo to Philadelphia.

They visited the fair in Buffalo the day after McKinley was shot.

News From The HD Agent

Do you know what would happen to your property if you died tomorrow? Would the settlement of your financial affairs cause family quarrels or disharmony?

Besides avoiding quarrels and reducing the cost and time for settling financial affairs, a will has other advantages, according to Thelma Wirges, county HD agent. It means that an executor can be named, a guardian designated if necessary, and testamentary trust created if needed. It means, too, that your property can be distributed in line with your wishes.

Making a valid will is not difficult, but it must be drawn to comply with the requirements of the law. For example, two witnesses are necessary. They must be more than 14 years of age and should not be beneficiaries.

Important questions and answers concerning wills are discussed in the new extension publication, Why Make A Will. Ask for a copy from your county HD agent.

The study of wills has been a part of the study of family economics made by HD clubs.

While making this study of family economics, some 16 demonstrators have completed work in their own homes. This work has been centered around business procedures of the home. These demonstrators select goals and then work toward their completion. Mrs. Ross Allen is a demonstrator and has made a family file, completed a business information sheet, secured a birth certificate, took a household inventory and is now keeping a health record.

In addition to these demonstrators, some 200 others have completed some part of the economics work, in their homes.

Miss Thelma Wirges, county HD agent, reports that she has had numerous calls regarding mildew in homes. Recent hot humid and rainy weather conditions in some areas of the State offer excellent growing conditions for the molds that cause mildew.

Clothes and house fabrics, especially cotton, linen, silk and wool, are favorite camping grounds for mildew. Quick treatment of the stains is important, according to Miss Wirges.

First, brush off the surface growth of mildew. Do this outdoors, not in the house where the spores might scatter over other materials and produce a new growth of mildew.

Soap and water will take care of fresh mildew stains on washable fabrics. If the stains are stubborn, they may be treated with a bleach. Sodium perborate is a mild bleach that is safe for washable fabrics. It's a good idea to test colored fabrics with the bleach first to be sure it's color fast.

Sponge the mildew stain with a solution of one tablespoon of sodium perborate in one pint of lukewarm water. Leave for a minute or two. Then rinse well. Dry cleaning is recommended for fabrics that can't be washed.

Wichita County clothing workshops will come to an end next Monday, May 19th when the third and last dress revue will be held at the Wichita Valley Farms at 11:00 a. m.

These workshops were planned by the Wichita County Program building sub-committee on clothing. Mrs. Gail Mitchell serves as chairman. Mrs. E. J. Simons & Mrs. Bill Mitchell served with Mrs. Mitchell.

These workshops were held in Electra, Burk Burnett and at the Wichita Valley Farms. Each group held a style show following the workshop meeting. There were 96 garments completed and modeled. 33 of these were completed by women not belonging to HD clubs.

Plans will soon be made by the clothing committee to include more advanced work for a new year.

Texas Families Get Big Amount From Insurance

Texas families received $28,013,000 in life insurance death benefit payments under 15,248 policies during the first three months of this year, compared with $24,677,000 under 13,045 policies in the corresponding period of last year, the Institute of Life Insurance reports.

This first quarter total compares with $11,139,000 under 8,186 policies in the corresponding period ten years ago, the Institute commented. The 151 percent rise in amount paid in the decades is a reflection of the widened and increased ownership of life insurance, however, and not an increase in mortality, as the death rate among policyholders is today below that of a decade ago. For the nation as a whole, the ten year rise in death benefit payments has been 102 percent, while the death rate among policyholders is some 4% less than 10 years ago.

Of the aggregate first quarter payments in this state this year, $16,358,000 was under 5,499 ordinary policies; $9,521,000 was under 3,125,000 group life insurance certificates; and $2,134,000 was under 6,624 industrial insurance policies.

For the nation as a whole, $760,528,000 was paid as death claims under 513,369 policies in the first quarter of 1958, compared with $688,134,000 under 461,431 policies in the corresponding period of last year. Of this year's first quarter payments $444,349,000 was under 153,106 ordinary policies; $233,524,000 was under 85,947 group certificates; and $82,655,000 was under 274,316 industrial policies.

For the nation as a whole, the quarter's death benefit payments were 14 percent larger than a year ago and the payments to living policyholders were 10 percent greater. The living payments comprised 59 percent of total payments to policyholders and beneficiaries.
