Kiddies Parade Friday 2:00 P. M.

Parade Prizes, Plus Free Entertainment Friday For All Area Kiddies Who Come to Burkburnett

Mayor H. D. Smith, chairman of the kiddies Parade, and all his workers have everything ready for the biggest kiddies parade ever held in Burkburnett. Kiddies will assemble at Second Street and Avenue D beginning at 1:30 P. M. Friday. They will be given arm band numbers and assigned to their place in the parade, which kicks off promptly at 2:00. Arm band numbers are necessary to assist the judges in making their selections, and to assure the judges' choice in getting the prize deserved. Consequently, those arriving late for the parade will miss out on the many prizes.

In the Unique Division, three prizes will be awarded. In all the other divisions, three prizes will be given to the girls and three prizes will be given the boys.

Immediately following the parade, Claude Thorp, owner of the Palace Theatre, will give all the kiddies a free picture show. It will be nice and cool in the theatre, and the show will be something the children will really like. Mr. Thorp will be waiting for you right after the parade. Go by to see him and enjoy the show.

Free Rides for Kiddies On Goble's Merry-Go-Round

A big treat is in store for all the kiddies who come to Burkburnett for the Kiddies Parade Friday, June 20th. Immediately after the parade, which begins at 2:00 P. M., Goble's Musical Merry-Go-Round will be set up next to White Auto Store and Gray's Shoe Shop to give the kiddies free rides. No tickets are necessary, though at times the waiting line may be long. All kiddies, everywhere are welcome. Get your parents to bring you to the parade, then take a ride on this beautiful musical merry-go-round.

Thursday night thirty-two patients from the State Hospital at Wichita Falls will be special guests at the rodeo. Also on that night a group of hospital patients from Sheppard Air Force Base Hospital will be guests. On Friday night a group of foreign students from SAFB will see their first rodeo. Each year a group of foreign students are guests at the Burk rodeo. One year 47 different nations were represented.

Burk Oilers Defeat Lobos

Burk's Oilers rambled on with their winning streak and trampled the Wichita Falls Lobos 14 to 1 last Sunday at Spudder Park. Sykes for the Oilers struck out 14 batters. Wendell for the Lobos struck out 3, walked 3, and hit 1. Burk got 11 hits, and no errors. The Lobos got 2 hits and two errors. This coming Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, the Burk team will meet Iowa Park on the local diamond.

Owen's Gassers Win Two More

Owen's Gassers, Little League players, journeyed to Electra and swamped the Electrans 19-2 last week end. Gary Owen and Don Overton were the big guns in the attack while Joe Montgomery pitched a very steady 8 hitter.

The Gassers continued to roll at Sheppard Field, routing the undefeated Cardinals 15-3. Don Overton pitched a 9 hit game and contributed a homer and 2 singles to the attack. Eddie Cerday also homered for the Gassers. The team goes on the road for a game at Duncan, Oklahoma to meet the undefeated Hillcrest nine this Thursday.

LIONS CLUB

Town Hall Each Tuesday 7:00 P. M.

Glenn Bangs and Deno Tufares were guests Tuesday night.

Roy Silkwood, in charge of the program, presented members of the High School Student Council, who talked on the purpose of the organization and how it functions. Reports were also made on district and state conventions attended by the local students.

Appearing on the program were Dan Fowler, immediate past president; Kenneth Estes, past vice-president; Kathleen Roark, and Verna Hoffman, new president for the 1958-59 term.

The students, making impromptu talks, did an excellent job. Members of the Lions Club appreciate the Council more, since they understand more about what it stands for. Roy Silkwood organized the local Council four years ago. Next year he will be one of the advisors of the Greenbelt District organization.

Floyd Marten, chairman of the rodeo committee, presented Senator Clem McSpadden of Nowata, Okla., announcer for the rodeo performances. McSpadden gave a short history of rodeo, stating that more than fifteen million people attended rodeo performances last year. Rodeo attendance is second to baseball.

Next Tuesday night Andrew Suttles has arranged for a very interesting and outstanding program.

Incoming president Ted Roark gave new committee chairman instructions concerning their duties, as outlined by Lions International.

SHERRI LE GRAGG IS QUEEN 13th ANNUAL RODEO CELEBRATION

Miss Sherri Le Gragg was declared winner of the rodeo Queen contest which ended Tuesday and has been reigning over the celebration which got under way Wednesday afternoon with the annual parade. Sherri is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Gragg of Burk.

Exceptionally Good Parade Wed. Opened Thirteenth Annual Rodeo

One of the most colorful parades in the thirteen year history of the Boom Town Celebration Rodeo passed in review before several thousand spectators Wednesday at 5:00 o'clock. Wendell Goins, parade chairman, deserves a lion's share of the praise for his untiring efforts to get the parade lined up and in place on schedule. This is one of the most nerve wracking jobs of the whole show.

Color bearers from the local American Legion headed the hour-long procession, followed by Rodeo Queen Sherri Le Gragg and her attendant, Carolyn Clement. Next in line were Floyd Marten, rodeo chairman, C. A. "Buster" Morgan, with Beutler and Morgan, rodeo producers; then cars bearing officials of Burkburnett, the local Chamber of Commerce, sponsoring organization of the rodeo; officials of Sheppard Air Force Base and of Midwestern University.

A precision drill team from SAFB was especially effective.

Thirteen riding clubs, spaced with floats and other entries, boasted more than 600 horses. Members of these various riding clubs, dressed in their colorful garb, many riding matched horses, present a spectacle which could be seen only in a rodeo parade.

Many expressed the belief the floats were outstanding in their originality and decorative beauty.

No Gouging

"The Store Doesn't Gouge You." That is the headline of an editorial appearing in a recent issue of the Coatesville, Pa., Record. It points up the low margin of profit realized by the food chain industry in its effort to provide better living at a lesser cost. It observes: "With increased mechanization and better ways of manufacturing, prices have not increased as rapidly as have wages. Nor has the retailer taken advantage of the workers by attempting to get from them all the money they have received in increased pay."

Then the editorial deals with the annual financial report of a food chain operating markets in various parts of the country. The report, the Record says, "shows that out of a sale of $10.00 profit after taxes amounts to 18 cents or 1.8 percent of income. Of this the stockholders received six cents, and twelve cents was plowed back into the business for new stores, modernization, new equipment and job opportunities."

The situation is comparable in the other branches of retailing variety and department stores and the rest. Due to such factors as seasonal and style changes, profits must be somewhat higher than in the staple food business. But they are almost invariably less than most people believe, three or four cents out of each dollar received in sales.

Let The Full Congress Decide

The House Ways and Means Committee has a rare opportunity for public service of great magnitude. It can achieve this distinction by making it possible for the Congress to vote on the most critical domestic problem facing America today, the need for income tax rate reform.

The legislative instrument that could very well hold the key to economic wellbeing, the Sadlak-Herlong identical bills, has been before the Committee for 15 months. The measure needs only to be sent to the floor of the House and thence to the Senate to enable the members of both to register their views as the representatives of their constituencies.

These bills deserve this consideration because their merit has already been fully documented in the month-long Ways and Means Committee hearings. The highlight of this searching public probe of our tax laws was the enthusiastic endorsement given the bills by a large majority of witnesses who testified on general tax reduction.

This popularity is easy to understand when you consider that the bills' supporters demonstrated that prompt enactment would provide a sure means of stimulating recovery and bringing solid, non-inflationary economic growth.

In view of the irrevocable hearing record attesting to the sound and realistic nature of these bills, it seems to us that official attitudes on tax cuts should be adjusted to encourage a full Congressional vote on this vital income tax rate reform legislation which might well be called the "Job Creation Act of 1958."

There cannot be an acceptably conclusive decision until the people, through their legislative representatives, have had a chance to be heard.

Certainly, this is not too much to expect.

Act Before Its Too Late

The National Board of Fire Underwriters, with the full support of local insurance agents, throughout the country, has been carrying on a campaign urging people to review the extent of their insurance coverage and to make the proper adjustment when underinsurance is discovered. The personal economic interest of the insurance business and the agent in such undertaking is obvious. But this is one of those happy situations where the campaigns also serve the economic interest of everyone with a home or other kinds of property subject to destruction by fire and related hazards.

Most of us are underinsured, and for a reason that can largely be covered in a single word: inflation. Roughly speaking, the cost of just about everything in common use, homes included, has doubled since the end of World War II. Also, we have made material additions to our possessions like TV sets and appliances, of an expensive character.

The National Underwriter magazine has been printing actual examples of losses to policy holders resulting from underinsurance. A widow in Ohio sustained a $2,141 loss on household goods and had only $1,500 of insurance, so the difference of $641 came out of her pocket. A mercantile building in Maryland had a loss of $178,956 as against insurance coverage of $127,500, the insured thus was out $51,456. A home in Rhode Island sustained a loss of $15,812, and there was but $7,000 of insurance, so the owner had to produce $8,812.

In most cases, our insurance coverage has not kept pace with the increase in values or prices, or with our expanding list of personal possessions. The wise property owner will take the hint and see his local agent before it's too late.

The storekeeper couldn't gouge you if he wanted to, for his competitors would take his trade away.

SUPPORTING YOUR TOWN

Merchants who do not advertise are invited to read the following from the American Bankers Magazine, as it might give you a new slant on business, your own business as well as the matter of building your town.

"No business man in town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned, if you do not use more than a two-line space.

"A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertising. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town, but refuses to advertise his own, is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising man."

BURKBURNETT... HISTORY

Revealed By The Star
Files 10 Years Ago . . .

That wheat piled on Ave B., which caused so much comment all over the United States, has all been moved out to elevators in Ft. Worth. Harlin Mills and Woodrow Fleming of the Mills and Fleming Elevator, who had stacked the wheat there when the elevator began to run over, had some exciting moments before all the grain was moved. Rain threatened two or three times while the street was full of $2.00 bushel wheat. Crews with two portable loaders worked two days and nights filling large trucks headed for Fort Worth. Surprising as it seems, when the last truck was loaded and weighed the weight tickets on the amount dumped into the street tallied to the bushel. Every last grain was swept up except the few birds devoured.

Mrs. G. D. Stacy of Burkburnett and Mrs. Hubert Thompson and daughter of Wichita Falls are visiting Mrs. Stacy's brother Dewey Chapin and wife Graham this week.

Mrs. Ivan Frields left last week for Eunice, N. M. to join her husband. They plan to make their home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Elliott Conroe, Tex., are visiting mother, Mrs. H. R. Garrett, and other relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey G. and son Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Gilbow and Billy are spending their vacation in Colorado.

Miss Ann Hauser—Hugh Richard Fewin Married June 14 in Cunningham, Kans.

Before an altar flanked by lighted white candles in hurricane lamps, arrangements of woodwardia fern and urns of white gladioli and pink majestic daisies, Miss Ann Hauser of Cunningham, Kans., became the bride of Hugh Richard Fewin of Galveston, Tex.

Scene of the 7 o'clock ceremony Saturday, June 14th was the First Christian Church of Cunningham. Rev. Doran Myers was the officiant in the double ring ceremony.

The former Miss Hauser is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hauser of Cunningham and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fewin of Carter Nine, Okla. Traditional wedding music was furnished by organist, Mrs. Iona Shaffer of Cunningham and soloist, Mr. Warren S. Allen of Bowling Green, Ohio.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of frost white imported handclipped Chantilly lace and crystal pleated tulle fashioned with Sabrina neckline delicately embroidered with sequins and pearls and long sleeves tapered to points over the hands. The lace skirt, over a dust ruffle of pleated tulle, extended into a full train. A finger tip veil of English illusion was held in place by a coronet of lace and sequins. She completed her ensemble with pearls and earrings a gift of the groom and carried a pearl prayer book crested with a white cattleya orchid and showers of stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Miss Nancy Baldwin of Wichita, Kans., and bridesmaids were Miss Donna Renner and Miss Sandra Dix, both of Cunningham.

The attendants dresses were fashioned of pink tissue taffeta featuring a molded bodice, V-necklines and bell shaped skirts. They wore coronets of hair braid and pearls with circular veils and carried white net fans with pink elf roses.

Miss Lisa Fewin of Lubbock, Tex., was flower girl and Mr. David Hummel of Middleburg, Penn., was ring bearer.

Best man was Mr. Fred Fewin Jr. of Lubbock and groomsmen were Mr. Jerry Johnson, Hereford, Texas, Dr. Luther Fewin, Sedgwick, Kans. Mr. Bobby Dix of Norman, Okla., was usher.

A reception was held in the bride's home following the ceremony. Members of the house party included Mrs. Donald Thompson, Mrs. Floren Rose, Cunningham, Mrs. Edith Haynes Medicine Lodge, Kans., Mrs. Wm D. Hummel, Middleburg, Penn., Mrs. Don Molden, Miss Gwen Blackman, Wichita, Kans., and Mrs. Mrs. Fred Fewin, Jr. of Lubbock. Mrs. Rosanne Sullivan of Cunningham presided at the guest book.

For a wedding trip to Galveston, Tex., the bride chose a Dior blue linen dress with white bolero, white accessories and a white orchid.

Burkburnett Star

Burkburnett, Texas

Dear Editor:

I would like to subscribe to the "Star" starting with your next publication. Please bill and send papers to this address:

V. L. Shaffer, Box, 412, San Anselmo, Calif.

In the event you might find it interesting to include this with news concerning Burk people who have moved away etc, I will include this information concerning my husband and I.

We married at the Baptist Church in Burkburnett on April 21, 1956. We moved from Burk in August, 1956 to San Rafael, Calif., where we have resided since that time. Vernon L. Shaffer is better known in Burk as "Red" Shaffer, worked for Hendon's Cleaners; is brother to Webber Shaffer and Vivian Lilly. Has quite a few friends residing in Burk and surrounding territories.

Vernon Shaffer now works and has since our arrival here, for Marin Drive-In Cleaners, the largest in this county. My Daughter, Mary Elizabeth Oakley went to school in Burk and will be in the 6th grade in the fall. I also have a 3 1/2 year old daughter, Jacqueline Annette Oakley, which of course both girls are Vernon's step-daughters, and reside with us.

I was Wanda Oakley prior to my marriage to Mr. Shaffer, worked at Sheppard Air Force base. I am now bookkeeper and secretary for the Pelican Publishing Company in San Anselmo and we publish 4 weekly papers. Mr. Shaffer celebrated a birthday on May 30th and I on May 31st. We spent the weekend in Reno, and no, we did not hit the jackpot, but the contrary. We are in the process of trying to find a home to buy in Marin County, Calif., and plan to make this our home for at least the next few years.

In the event you might be interested in short articles concerning San Francisco or Marin County, I would certainly like to discuss this further with you. We live about 15 miles from San Francisco and as you know, there are many interesting sights out here.

Will be looking forward to receiving the Star and news concerning home and the many friends we still have in Texas.

Thank you so very much.

Mrs. Wanda Shaffer

P. S. I am better known as PeeWee to our friends in Burk.

European School System Is Not Comparable, So Mag. Editors Say To American Education Plan make general comparisons between the European and American educational systems is difficult, say the editors of Change, the Kiplinger Magazine. Each is based on a different concept of education. European systems are for the intellectual elite where testing programs tend to be children from upper social classes. The American educational system, on the other hand, is geared to educating every child.

Only fair comparison between the two systems, say the editors, is with our bright students who may attend our best schools or make honor societies. In case, they say U. S. students compare very well. At the secondary level, training here is good as it is abroad, often better. Witness the fact that we enroll more foreign students than Europe does America over 40,000 a year.

At the age of 16, less than 20 percent of Europe youths are in school, while in the U. S. 70 percent are studying. In the ages of 18 to 20, about 90 percent of our boys and girls are in school. In Europe, fewer than 10 percent are receiving secondary training.

Political supervision and indoctrination permeate all schooling. Boys get regular military instructions; 10th graders practice with live ammunition. School and home assignments are so heavy that physicians complained publicly that students were suffering from chronic overexhaustion.

Relations between teacher and student are easier in America. European schools are more formal and discipline in lower grades is tougher. We train our children more conscientiously than Europeans do on nonacademic things, how to understand and get along with people, how to take an active part in the political and economic world in which they live. Our students can develop special talents through extracurricular activities such as student government, dramatics publications.

Although the European educational standards are high, it does not automatically follow that their school systems are better than ours. There is no doubt that our schools need improvement, say the editors, and could pick up a few pointers from the Europeans. But quite a few people over there are dissatisfied with their schools, too. As for the Russian educational system, that is something else again. Everyone hears how efficient the Russian schooling is supposed to be. But remember that all USSR students take rigid national exams in order to pass the 4th, 7th and 10th grades. Above the secondary level, the government fixes quotas for enrollment in various fields and assigns graduates to jobs in industry.

Political supervision and indoctrination permeate all schooling. Boys get regular military instructions; 10th graders practice with live ammunition. School and home assignments are so heavy that physicians complained publicly that students were suffering from chronic overexhaustion.

News From The Congress

By Congressman Frank Ikard

Last week the House acted on the Defense Appropriation Bill which is the largest appropriation that is made by Congress.

This week consideration will be given to the President's recommendations for the unification of the Department of Defense. A great deal of controversy has developed over just how the Department should be unified and reorganized. Everyone agrees that more unity and better management are needed; however, the Congress has developed a plan under which it would retain substantial powers over the military. The president's plan calls for broad delegations to the Executive Branch in the operation of the military. It seems to me that Congress should keep as much control as possible. We have all seen in France what can happen when the Army gets control of a country.

Last week the President of the German Republic addressed a Joint Session of the Congress and gave strong assurance that Germany would remain free and that the United States and Germany would never fight again. The accomplishments of the German Republic since World War II have really been phenomenal. West Germany is made up of some 52 million who are among the most highly educated, energetic, and productive people in the world who, since 1948, have increased their production by over 40%. In 1948, they produced only 5.7 million tons of steel as against 24.5 million tons today. In 1948, they made 24 thousand automobiles. Today their production exceeds 950 thousand and is continually growing. Today West Germany is the strongest Nation in Continental Europe outside of the Iron Curtain and is the strongest anchor of the NATO Alliance. If the Germans continue their present free form of government they will remain among our most reliable Allies in Europe.

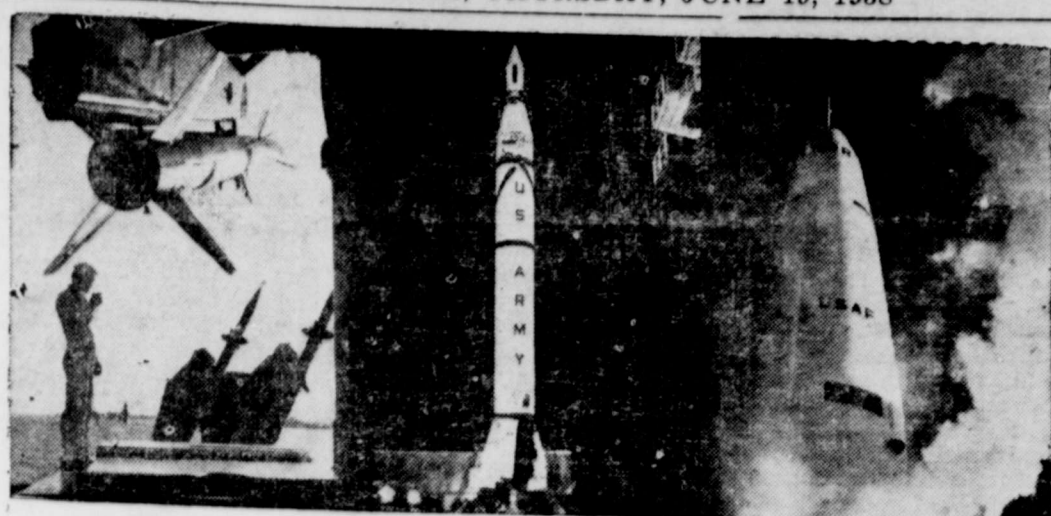

Miss Ethel Lynn Geeslin Assistant County HD agent and Miss Shirley VanHuss have attended 4-H Roundup at College Station this week. Shirley represented Wichita County and District III in the state dairy foods contest.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mills the past week were their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Anthony and Dick and Sara Jane, and Miss Sharon Gaddis of Tulsa, Okla., Mrs. H. R. Garrett, Seminole, Texas, Rev. and Mrs. V. C. Miller, Jim and Jean, of Mexia, Texas, Mrs. C. W. Byers and Jimmy and David of Olney. Mrs. Anthony and children plan to return home Sunday. She is the former Betty Mills of this city.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Harris last week were Mrs. N. E. Wilson of Abilene, and Mrs. Josie York of Bogota, Texas. An average of 950 rotary drilling rigs operated in Texas during 1957.

SLOW DOWN ... AND LIVE

'Keep off the Gas'

This is not a typographical error, but a life line of advice from J. O. Musick, general manager of the Texas Safety Association, whose organization is sponsoring the current Slow Down and Live program being conducted throughout the state.

Summertime—like any other season, means safety time, but a lot of Texans forget this," Musick said. They let the warm days and balmy nights detract from their driving responsibility as they hurry from one cool spot to another.

They step on the gas and rush to vacation spots, picnic areas or a day at the water's edge, forgetting to ask themselves: How much time do I really gain by speeding. If I get there.

Musick pointed out that traffic engineering and enforcement are important in public speed control, but that the final answer lies with the individual driver.

Every driver on our streets and highways must initiate his own personal campaign to obey all the traffic signs and signals and to regulate his speed so that it is neither too fast or slow," Musick said.

The TSA general manager said the purpose of the Slow Down and Live campaign is to simply draw the public's attention to the fact that speed is dangerous anytime, but especially now, during peak vacation months, through Labor Day.

YOUR NEW Social Security

Many workers who died between June 1940 and Sept. 1950, had not worked long enough under social security to provide benefits for their widows and children, or for their aged parents. Under the new social security law, benefits can now be paid to these surviving families if they worked under social security credit for as little as a year and a half of work. So, if you are the widow of a worker who died between June 1940 and Sept. 1950, and if you are now over 62, or have children still under 18 years of age, be sure to get in touch with your nearest social security office now.

Mr. Joe A. Nesbitt, field representative from the Wichita Falls Social Security office will be in Burkburnett on July 1, at the City Hall to give information and assistance on matters pertaining to social security.

To an undertermined number of long-time disabled workers under age 50, June 30th will mean much more than the end of one month and the beginning of another, even with Independence Day itself in the offing. So said Erton F. Tate, district manager of the Wichita Falls Texas social security office.

In addition he announced June 30th of this year is the very last day on which applications to protect earnings can cover the full period of a disability that began before July of 1957. If these severely disabled workers don't file their claims on or before that day, they may forfeit disability benefits at age 50, and the loss of or reduction in their retirement benefits at age 65 and the death benefits to survivors.

To avoid future losses of monthly benefits that could seriously reduce purchasing power at a time when it will be badly needed, Mr. Tate urges all disabled workers under age 50 who (1) have worked under social security, (2) became disabled at any time prior to July of 1957 and (3) have not already made inquiry as to their social security rights, to get in touch with their social security office promptly.

Home gardeners are reminded by B. T. Haws, county agent, that a new guide for controlling garden insects is now available from the offices of local county extension agents.

The level of price support for the 1959 wheat crop along with whether or not marketing quotas will be in effect will be decided by wheat producers when they vote in a special referendum on June 20th.

Reduced cold storage holdings and fewer layers on farms points to favorable egg prices until the latter part of 1958, says B. T. Haws, county agent.

The National 4-H Foundation is completing its 10th year of service to the 4-H clubs of America. The 4-H Center, a part of the total program of the Foundation, will open in early 1959. It is located just outside the District of Columbia.

News From The County Agent

Garland Weeks, Jackie Wisdom, Pat Pruett, Jimmy Colbourn, 4-H clubbers from Wichita County will attend the 4-H Leadership camp this week at Buffalo Gap. They will participate in Farm Safety, Leadership, Crafts, Citizenship at the camp

All of the cotton in the county has been planted with most farmers receiving good stands. Farmers are urged to check their cotton for thrips and fleahoppers and spray if necessary. Begin treatment when cotton is in the 4 leaf stage, or earlier if necessary. Two to four applications may be needed, but regardless of number, stop treatment at least 30 days before the bollworm usually appears. The 1958 Guide for Controlling Cotton Insects may be picked up at the County Agent's office.

The cotton in the county is looking good. Farmers are urged to check their cotton closely for thrips and grasshoppers. Grasshoppers are doing some damage to cotton fields in the county. Dieldrin, aldrin, toxaphene insecticides are recommended to control the grasshopper.

In order to market the kind of broilers that attract the consumer week after week, and help boost the per capita consumption, producers have certain on the farm responsibilities. B. T. Haws, county agent, says that the production of good, uniform high quality broilers is not just an accident but requires know-how, desire and effort on the part of the producer. He says, too, that high quality production is a must if consumption is to increase or maintain at its present level.

A few of the quality variables the producer has control over that County Agent Haws points out are:

Fleshing, the relation of the amount of meat to the amount of bone.

Finish—the yellow skin and fat a consumer looks for when she buys a broiler.

No pin feathers—the breast and legs must be free of pin feathers.

No defects—such as breast blister, callouses, insect blemishes or bruises.

Only birds that are full of vitality and produce the finish and tender fleshing that are associated with high quality in broilers.

It is the responsibility of the producer to be on the lookout for these variables and to do his best to market high quality broilers.

June, Dairy Month, got its start back in 1938 when the National Dairy Council sponsored a Dairy week. Many organizations now cooperate in sponsoring this activity which is for educational purposes. Emphasized is the importance of milk and other dairy products in the daily diet.

Home gardeners are reminded by B. T. Haws, county agent, that a new guide for controlling garden insects is now available from the offices of local county extension agents.

The level of price support for the 1959 wheat crop along with whether or not marketing quotas will be in effect will be decided by wheat producers when they vote in a special referendum on June 20th.

Reduced cold storage holdings and fewer layers on farms points to favorable egg prices until the latter part of 1958, says B. T. Haws, county agent.

The National 4-H Foundation is completing its 10th year of service to the 4-H clubs of America. The 4-H Center, a part of the total program of the Foundation, will open in early 1959. It is located just outside the District of Columbia.

Texas has 182,932 oil wells in 6,169 fields

Texas Board for State Hospitals and special Schools is working toward getting a gold star when an economy minded Legislature hits Austin next year.

Launching a new tight-purse policy, the Board voted to prohibit superintendents of individual state institutions from (1) using leftover funds without Board permission and (2) making any expenditure of more than $1,000 without Board approval. Sometimes individual hospitals develop surplus funds resulting from smaller patient loads than had been expected, or other reduced costs. New rule puts an end to non-strings attached spending of such surpluses. These lapsed funds could amount to as much as one million dollars, according to Board member W. G. Kirklind of Odessa.

CHILL WIND—Hospital Boards move pinpointed the spot where the state's money shortage is expected to pinch hardest, administration of state's services.

A Revenue shortage in excess of $100,000,000 by next year has been freely predicted by various authorities for months.

A survey of the platforms of legislative candidates over the state shows a fairly consistent approach by those making statements on revenue dilemma. General pattern of promises to voters:

(1) Continuation or, often, increase in state obligation for education, welfare payments, road building, soil and water conservation, etc.

(2) Opposition to certain new taxes or sometimes new taxes in general.

(3) Cuts in state spending by elimination of waste, duplication and needless services by state agencies.

Actual achievement or near achievement of this fiscal magic will put a real squeeze on every state department.

NOT ME—Likelihood that someone may draw the "black bean" of new state taxes has group after group telling the State Tax study Commission how overburdened they are already.

A spokesman for the Texas Motor Bus Association told the Commission taxes on that industry are heavy and discriminatory. He said many smaller lines were having to go out of business.

A representative of retired people asked tax relief for people living on pensions.

We are no longer concerned with saving the goose that lays the golden eggs. Our goose was cooked when we lost our ability to work and earn, said W. B. Wood of Port Arthur.

On behalf of the Texas Association for Tax Relief for Texans over 65, Wood asked for a tax exemption for the first $3,000 of property owned by oldsters. He also opposed a sales tax.

Discrimination is charged because the law applies to wholesalers but not to producers who sell only the output of their own flocks. Suit also objects to the provision that makes violations a criminal offense and the requirement that eggs kept under refrigeration for 30 days or more be labeled cold storage eggs.

REPUBLICRAT—Texas Supreme Court is considering the question of whether a former Democratic candidate is entitled to a position on the Republican primary ballot.

Grover Cantrell, Dallas Labor leader and one time Democratic candidate for the Legislature attempted to file against Texas' only Republican congressman, Bruce Alger. He called himself a "Stevenson Republican," an apparent parody of Eisenhower Democrats.

A lower court ruled that Cantrell, as a member of one party was not entitled to seek nomination in another party's primary. Cantrell appealed to the high court.

Since there is usually only one nominee for each office, Republican primaries do not ordinarily attract a heavy vote. It is widely assumed that many Republicans cross party lines to vote in Democratic primaries where most state offices are decided.

Cantrell's candidacy is generally interpreted as a move to force Republicans to stay in their own primary.

Diesel Tax Change—Proposed revisions in the diesel fuel tax law are being planned by the State Comptroller's Dept.

Next Legislature will be asked to change the law so diesel fuel taxes would be collected from the wholesale distributor rather than the user, said a Dept official. This is expected to make it easier for tax agents to keep track of consumption and purchases.

Comptroller's Department staffers admit that there are some evasion of the state motor fuels tax, but contend that Texas collects more per vehicle than any other major state. They discount as too large Sen. Charles Herring's guess that some $25,000,000 in fuel taxes went uncollected.

Senate investigating committee looked into records in the Houston area to discover if small staffs, vague laws or insufficient penalties were causing the state to lose revenue.

OVER THE HUMP—Texas' general revenue fund is back in the black, according to State Comptroller Robert Calvert.

During the spring state expenditures got ahead of tax receipts. A month ago the fund was in the red by some $1,250,000. But collection of corporation franchise taxes and insurance company occupation taxes during the month put finances back on schedule.

Now there's more than $12,000,000 in the fund said Calvert.

THINNING RANKS—Withdrawal of Joe Booker of Orange reduced to four the number in the governor's race.

Texas Highway Patrol News

Lieut. W. J. White, commanding officer of the Wichita Falls Sub-District of the Texas Highway Patrol said today that patrolmen of his area contacted 3,502 traffic law violators during the month of May 1958. Lt. White reported that 708 of those were arrested while 2,794 were warned for violation of the State Traffic Laws. Speeding was the leading cause of arrest with defective equipment second, improper passing ranking third. This is for the entire Sub-District comprised of Archer, Clay, Jack, Montague, Palo Pinto, Parker, Wichita and Wise Counties.

Lieut. White said that in Wichita county during the month of May, 1958 the Highway Patrol investigated a total of 43 accidents of the following types: 1 fatal, 13 injury and 29 property damage. These accidents resulted in a total property damage loss of $19,345.00 plus 1 person killed and 17 injured. Compared with the same month last year this is an increase of 10 accidents. This is a decrease of 1 death. Wichita County also spent $1,465.00 more than for the same month in 1957.

Wichita Falls Area Is First For Petrofina Reidentification Program

New sign standards bearing the name Fina will soon identify service stations in the Wichita Falls area which were formerly identified Panhandle or Amlico.

The Wichita Falls area is the first selected for the reidentification program, according to J. M. Shea, Jr., vice president, of American Petrofina Company of Tex. "We hope to start this re-identification program within the next few weeks," Mr. Shea said, "and it is only natural that we want to begin in the area where Fina is refined."

The initial reidentification program will begin in Wichita Falls proper and will extend over a large surrounding area. It is estimated that more than 50 stations will be involved in the first phase of the program.

How to Drive Safely at Night

Accidents occur at three times more often, miles driven than during daylight hours, say the editors of Change, the Kiplinger Magazine, even though traffic is a third to a fourth lighter that period.

The main reason for the high rate of accidents at night is that people try to drive just as they would in daylight. Night driving has extra hazards requires special techniques. The editors suggest these suggestions to help you drive safely at night.

At night, turn your head to see objects in the distance often become clear if you do this way. If you are blinded by oncoming headlights, use the right side of the road as a guide. If it is distinguishable from the rest, use the oil slick in the center of your lane. Have a clean cloth handy to wipe your windshield clear of visibility.

Before starting on a long trip, check tailights, stop lights and indicators. Headlights should be properly aimed. Those that are too high or too low are hazardous.

In case of trouble, get off the road quickly. Use a flashlight on approaching motorists. Warning devices should be placed well behind and ahead of your car.

Slow down after dark so you don't overdrive your headlights. That means at least 15 miles per hour below your daytime rate of speed. Watch your gasoline gauge and refill when the quarter full mark is out of gas at night is most convenient—it can save lives.

U. S. ARMY

RECRUITING SERVICE

Army Recruiting Officer In Burk Each Wednesday

Young men who have recently graduated from high school and are interested in developing their technical skills are invited to visit Sfc. Edmund G. Zakrzewski, U. S. Army Recruiter, to discuss the many opportunities available in the U. S. Army.

Sfc. Zakrzewski will explain the "Choice, Not Chance" enlistment program that offers a choice of technical training, overseas duty station or branch assignment. Applicants may select one of these options and are guaranteed their choice before enlistment.

Technical training courses such as electronics, radar, radio, guided missiles, photography, medical, and mechanics, are available to qualified applicants. Selection may be made from a list of over 127 courses. The training received in the U. S. Army will be of the highest quality, and can be the beginning of a rewarding career.

Overseas stations are also available in Europe with designated "Operation Gyroscope" units. Applicants may also choose a tour of duty in the Far East. This affords an opportunity to visit Europe or the Far East—a chance of a lifetime.

Those who select a branch assignment may choose Airborne, Medical, Signal, Infantry, Armor, Artillery, Chemical or one of the many others of the Army.

Visit with Sfc. Zakrzewski at 1007 Lamar St. in Wichita Falls or call collect 723-5976. He will be glad to explain the "Choice, Not Chance" program. He also has a "buddy enlistment" plan for young men who desire to enter the service with a friend or friends.

Sfc. Zakrzewski will be in Burkburnett every Wednesday morning in the Post Office to interview applicants.

Fred Key and family of Colorado Spring, Colo., visited in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Key, last week.

News From The County Agent

It is now time to apply control measures to ornamental plants infested with bagworms. The worms are now small and can be effectively controlled, says B. T. Haws, county agent. He suggests that a copy of L-199, Texas Guide for Controlling Insects on Ornamental Plants be obtained from the local county agent.

Haying and early harvests increases the chances for farm accidents. While Farm Safety Week will not be observed until July, the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council reminds that the safe family is one that observes farm safety week 52 weeks out of the year. "Farm is safe by avoiding mistakes, says the council.

Here's a suggestion from B. T. Haws, county agent, that can save you valuable time and possible repair bills on your farm equipment. He says the instruction books that come with the tractor or other farm equipment can be a valuable tool to lengthen the life of the machine. They also help prevent breakdowns and are useful in reconditioning equipment. So his suggestion is to store those books in a safe place where they will be handy so you can refer to them. Haws suggests that you use the books to become better acquainted with the machines and the parts you may need.

Most insecticides are poisonous to people and to animals. Keep insecticides where children and pets cannot reach them. When applying them, do not contaminate food, dishes or kitchen utensils. Do not store them with food. Do not breathe the too much of the spray mist or the dust. If insecticide is spilled on the skin wash it off promptly. Change your clothes if you spill insecticide on them. Keep children and pets off sprayed surfaces that have not dried.

When you finish applying an insecticide, empty unused material into the original container, clean the sprayer or duster, and wash all exposed surfaces of the body with soap and water.

The Fruit Field Day at the Montague Experiment Station will be held on Friday, June 20, beginning at 8:00 a. m. All interested farmers are invited to attend.
