MU Homecoming November 21-22

According to announcement today by Homer Donohoo, Jr., co-president of the Ex-Students Association of Midwestern University, the dates for the 1958 homecoming have been set for November 21-22nd. All ex-students of Midwestern since 1922 are invited to participate in the two day celebration.

The University faculty committee headed by John Tower, the Student Government, headed by James Estes; and the ex-student officers have already begun plans for the largest homecoming in the history of the University.

Preliminary plans call for the homecoming celebration to get under way on Friday night, Nov. 21st, with a huge barbecue and bonfire on the M. U. campus. These events will be followed by a variety show in the Auditorium. The events on Saturday will include the homecoming parade, the ex-students luncheon, the homecoming basketball game and the homecoming dance following the game when the 1958 homecoming queen will be crowned.

AIM to live through 4-H safety

ALMOST ONE MILLION 4-H CLUB MEMBERS are aiming for safer living on highways and farms, in homes and communities. Their efforts are focused on the national 4-H Safety program directed by the Cooperative Extension Service and arranged by the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work.

Farm boys and girls enrolled in the program — and their city cousins as well — can take their share of credit for helping to decrease traffic deaths last year. Proof that they're on the job is the record high enrollment reached in 1957 when 815,000 club members between the ages of 10 and 21 took part in some form of safety activity, according to the National Committee.

And hard work does not go unrewarded. At the national level eight top ranking 4-H'ers will receive $400 college scholarships and an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next December. The state winner also will attend the Congress with all-expenses paid, and it is estimated that nearly 4,000 youngsters will merit the county safety medal. All awards are provided by General Motors which has supported the 4-H Safety program since 1944.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

ONTARIO, OREGON, ARGUS-OBSERVER: "Volumes have been written about the litterbug—and everyone is against him, of course. The thing that most of us don't realize, though, is that we all have a little of the litterbug in us. Most of us, without thinking, will drop a small piece of trash, like an empty cigarette package or ice cream bar wrapper, on the ground and walk away from it. It's not intentional, it's just done."

OLYMPIA, WASH., DAILY OLYMPIAN: "That now famous secret meeting of top national gangsters last Fall in Apalachin, New York, must have been the biggest mass gathering of criminal leaders in world history."

"The fellow didn't make the Apalachin guest list probably doesn't have much of a future in crookdom. He'd better look around for another game. He might even try going straight."

TERRE HAUTE, IND., TRIBUNE STAR: "James R. Hoffa's proposal to weld the nation's land, sea and air transport unions into a solid alliance is not going to encounter smooth sailing. Some indication of the difficulties ahead was contained in a statement by Guy L. Brown, grand chief engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. Brown told the 70,000 members of his union that he opposes joining any such amalgamation of organized labor strength. His fear of the consequences was summed up in a sentence that merits wide spread public attention: "I firmly believe that if this plan for organizing all the transport unions into one large group is adopted, the organization might become so powerful that it could result in the destruction of the nation."

The Fuse Burns Short

In what has been termed by some to be a strong policy statement, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles has said with the President's approval that the massive U. S. Forces whose gun muzzles point at Red China will take "timely and effective" action if and when President Eisenhower decides this is necessary for the defense of Formosa.

This, of course, has been the U. S. position and the U. S. responsibility since the signing of the Mutual Defense Treaty with Chiang Kai-shek in 1955. Since then U. S. spokesmen have remained coy on the subject of whether or not the Administration regarded Quemoy and the Matsus as part of Chiang's domain, and hence "Free China". Mr. Dulles' latest contribution appears to admit that they are. He says: "In this connection, we have recognized that the securing and protecting of Quemoy and Matsu have increasingly become related to the defense of Taiwan (Formosa). This is indeed also recognized by the Chinese Communists. Military dispositions have been made by the United States so that a Presidential determination, if made, would be followed by action both timely and effective."

A U. S. spokesman has interpreted the Dulles statement to mean that "a Presidential determination" has not yet been made; that the Secretary and the President hope Red China will not make an all out effort to take Formosa and the offshore islands which the Reds speciously claim belong to them; that Chaing may be able to handle the situation with the logistic support he is already receiving from us and without "shooting" help. Further, this unnamed "high American official" assumes that the U. S. will not withhold military assistance until the situation gets out of hand; and that, if action is ordered, the China shore will be no Yaloo River and American bombers will strafe China mainland airfields from which the Nationalists are attacked.

We hope that this spokesman knows whereof he speaks, and that the Reds' intelligence is good enough to comprehend the still growing assault capabilities of the mighty forces arrayed against them, and the attitude of top U. S. military leaders who are still burning over the Korea fiasco. In this case the Chinese Communists just may, as Mr. Dulles hopes "stop short of defying the will of mankind for peace."

Alaska By Chair

"Some day," millions of us in the other 48 states have said, "I'd like to go to Alaska."

And for these Americans, "some day" will be Wednesday, October 8th. From eight to nine P. M. eastern daylight time, they can go adventuring with the greatest guide of them all, Lowell Thomas. In a single hour they will be able to make an exploration of our last frontier, to range with the Thomas party northward from the Canadian border to Point Barrow, high above the Arctic Circle, and from the eastern wilderness, accessible only through the skill of daring bush pilots, far out into the Pacific along the lonely Aleutian Island chain.

HOW BOUT THAT

By WILLY & RALPH

In one fascinating hour, viewers will see in full color, highlights of our new 49th state that Mr. Thomas, his son, Lowell, Jr., and their camera crews spent two solid months in filming. They will see the modern cities of Alaska as well as the wilderness and Artic wastes; how the people live, the natives (don't call them "eskimos", they don't like that) up where it's walking-distance to Siberia, and the city slickers, too.

The Alaskan report on modern pioneering will be the first of the new Lowell Thomas series of colorcasts, again under General Motors sponsorship and presented over the CBS network, and with the Territory now in the process of adopting statehood, with the blessing of Congress, is probably the most timely of all the "High Adventures" to date.

The soundboughs who have been to this land of Robert W. Service and Rex Beach and Bret Harte will all be watching, we know. But it may be even more important for the rest of us to receive this indoctrination, after which, when we get to Alaska, we can hardly be considered cheechakos (native, of course, for tenderfeet).

Salvation Pays Off

Alcoholism is a problem, not only to its victims but equally to those who would rescue them. A fresh reminder of this frequently tragic dilemma comes from the New Mexico Commission on Alcoholism. Since the Commission began its human reclamation work in Sept., 1955, some 2,000 alcoholics have received medical help and advice, and more than 1,250 of them have been treated at its two rehabilitation centers. Its success in restoring these derelicts to usefulness and self respect has been phenomenal since all of them "hit bottom" and the majority have returned to long lost productivity and happiness. But the Commission itself is now close to the rocks.

In a frank statement of its situation, the Commission admits, "we underestimated our expenses and overestimated our potential income," and announces sadly the curtailment of its facilities. It reminds New Mexicans of its only source of income "the infinitesimal (state) tax on alcoholic beverages and the payments made by patients for part of the cost of treatment." Further, it suggests that "an appropriation of funds by the legislature would be the soundest kind of investment in both economic and human terms". The Commission believes it has saved the taxpayers many times what it has spent in reducing the cost of "police, jail, penitentiary, hospital for the insane and welfare services."

We suspect that similar Good Samaritan efforts in other states find themselves in similar difficulties. And certainly where these institutions have dealt as effectively as New Mexico's Commission with this heart-breaking problem, it is of dollars and cents importance to the states not only to provide for their needs, but to see that their ministrations are expanded to the limit. Here is human alchemy that turns dross into gold.

Wichita Sand & Gravel Company

It isn't the size or volume of a man's business which determines its value to the community in which he makes his living, but rather by the manner in which it is conducted. This to a greater or lesser degree, reflects the personality and character of the individual. The value of Wichita Sand and Gravel Company's business to this city is a reflection of its progressiveness and a determination to render the utmost in service, a policy which has caused the Wichita Sand and Gravel Co. of Wichita Falls to be so well thought of and so widely patronized by the people of Wichita Falls.

That same progressiveness and ability which has made Mr. John Gavin so successful in his own business has also fitted him to be of assistance on community projects and public drives.

And he takes pleasure in helping in one way or another, whenever he can on such projects. Furthermore, he does so cheerfully and with a friendly spirit of cooperation that is always more than welcome.

It is a pleasure to include Mr. Gavin in this review and to wish him further success in his line of endeavor.

Your New Social Security

The new amendments to the social security law make it possible for the first time for dependents of disabled workers to get social security benefits.

Disability insurance benefits have been payable to disabled workers 50 to 65 years of age since July 1957. These disability insurance payments are equal in amount to the monthly old age insurance benefit the worker would receive if he were already 65 years of age.

Under the new amendments, the disabled person's dependents will also be paid the same benefits they would receive if he were 65 and drawing benefits as a retired worker. Payments can be made to any of his children who are under age 18, or who have been totally disabled since before their 18th birthday; and to his wife, regardless of her age, if she has in her care children who are eligible for these dependents' benefits. If there is no child in the family eligible for benefits, the wife of a disabled person can qualify for benefits when she reaches 62.

More than 200,000 disabled workers aged 50 to 65 are now receiving monthly disability insurance benefits. It is estimated that about 180,000 dependents of disabled workers will be eligible for the new dependents' payments beginning with the month of September, 1958. Before these payments can start, however, applications for the dependents' benefits must be filed with the social security district office at 432 Post Office Bldg. in Wichita Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Childress will leave this weekend for Graham, Texas to make their home. Mr. Childress is employed by the J. W. Hastings Co. there. Mrs. Childress has been employed by the Lone Star Gas Co. here for several years and will work for the Chamber of Commerce in Graham.

The number of layers on Aug. 1, 1958 was up 1 percent from last year for the United States. However, the south central states which include Texas was down 3 percent, but egg production was down only 1 percent due to the high rate of lay.

According to the Agricultural Marketing Service Crop Production report for Aug. 1958, Texas had 11,780,000 layers on hand during July in 1957 and 11,612,000 layers for the same month in 1958. Eggs produced per 100 layers during July in 1957 was 1,547 compared to 1,621, in 1958.

The heavy stubble from last year's wheat crop is responsible for a situation which makes the use of nitrogen fertilizer more important for this year's crop, says B. T. Haws, county agent. The situation means that more of the soil nitrogen will be tied up in decomposing the heavy stubble and will not be available for plant use.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights
by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Teacher pay raises, an issue that has packed legislative galleries in past years, will probably return next session.

Base pay raises of almost $600 a year will be recommended to the Legislature by the Hale-Aikin Committee. This group of 24 lawmakers and private citizens has spent almost two years in a massive study of ways to improve Texas' public school program.

Its recommendations, now being readied for final presentation, would for the most part, involve extra spending running into the millions. Cost of moving up the floor on teacher salaries is estimated at $70,000,000 a year.

Advocates say better salaries are necessary to attract and hold enough good teachers. But even within the committee there was objections.

Rep. L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi, co-chairman, voted against the raise recommendation. He said this, plus other proposals would mean about a quarter of a billion dollar tax bill.

Other committee members said they felt the problem was not a shortage of teachers, but unequal distribution. While small districts may have trouble filling faculties, they said, some cities have a surplus.

Many legislators, elected on "economy in government" platforms, can be expected to echo Hale's sentiments. Since a huge state deficit is foreseen without raising the cost of anything, the squeeze could be especially acute.

Teachers, always a potent force because of their number, might be substantially reinforced by the current concern to "catch up with the Russians" in education. A head on clash between these groups and the economy forces might well provide the flashiest fireworks on the next session.

NO THANKS—

Another Hale-Aikin Committee suggestion: Texas should quit accepting federal money for the school lunch program and vocational education.

Federal funds now received are estimated at $9,000,000 a year. Committee said local districts and parents should pay for these services.

It did recommend, however, that federal aid be continued to districts where military installations bring in a large non-tax paying attendance.

Other committee recommendations:

1. State should quit levying property tax, leave this source to local districts.

2. Permanent School Fund should be kept as an endowment not spent for current needs.

3. Counties, not state, should bear the cost of maintaining county school superintendents' offices.

Brighter Weather—

Texas Securities Board reviewed its first year as a separate state agency and declared the investment climate had improved under tougher regulation.

Securities Board was set up by the last Legislature by combining functions formerly handled partly by the Secretary of State office, partly by the Insurance Dept.

Texas' investment climate was very poor, when the new law went into effect, said Board chairman Maurice Bullock. Score for the tightening up years: (1) a drop of 37 percent in the number of licensed securities dealers, (2) investigation under way in 215 cases of possible securities law violation and (3) 75 cases referred to district attorneys over the state.

Bullock said the Board's aim was to weed out the wild promotion schemes so as to restore confidence in Texas securities, but not to be so zealous as to discourage legitimate offerings.

Local Parks Urged —

Several parks now under the administration of the State Park Board should logically be in the hands of local communities, according to State Auditor C. H. Cavness.

Cavness' audit report on the Parks Board noted that Gonzales State Park had been turned over to the city of Gonzales. Others used on a community basis also could be community operated, he said.

Cavness also noted the addition of six new parks to the state system.

College Building Advanced—
Twelve state colleges have sold $12,375,948 in building bonds, after adjusting to buyers market difficulties.

Representatives of the schools meeting in Austin, first offered $17,500,000 worth of bonds on

Water Needs Forecast—
Demand for Texas surface water is expected to triple in the next 50 years. Prediction is by Harry P. Burleigh, area engineer for the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation.

Where will it all come from? Burleigh says enough water is now being wasted to meet that demand. Problems of saving it is up to engineers to solve. Needed is a simple, low cost means of capturing run-off water now flowing into the Gulf of Mexico.

Burleigh was one of 10 speakers at a water conference sponsored by Texas A-M College. Gov. Price Daniel praised the recently adopted statewide water pro-

Wallace Sales & Engineering Co.

Mr. C. W. Wallace, Jr., and Mr. Russell Robinson of Wallace Sales and Engineering Co. of Wichita Falls have won the universal respect and good will of the citizens of Wichita Falls and the surrounding country for the progressive manner in which they have kept their company in the forefront of the business and civic life of the entire district. Also for the efficient and friendly willingness they have displayed in accepting their share of responsibility in aiding civic projects.

Mr. Wallace and Mr. Robinson aren't the kind of men who make themselves conspicuous by the manner in which they conduct themselves, either in business or other matters. Their quiet reserve and air of confidence marks them as men of sound judgement whose opinions and advice are sought after and listened to with respect.

We compliment Mr. Wallace and Mr. Robinson for their constructive advice and help in those civic affairs in which they have taken interest.

construction, feeling sure the bonds would sell.

Bonds then were reoffered on gram and urged against sliding back into apathy as a result of recent drought breaking rains.

Revision in the rate structure for city water users was proposed as one means of conservation. Lubbock hydrologist W. L. Broadhurst said that increasing the rate instead of decreasing it as more water is used would cut down household waste.

Highway Work at Peak—
Two thirds the way through 1958 the State Highway Dept. already has placed as much highway construction work under contract as in the entire record setting year of 1957.

Total for this year reached $224,000,000 this month. Low bids opened in a two day tabulation for this month's proposed projects amounted to $28,669,

432. Department spending on Texas roads in the next three years is expected to reach one billion dollars, Highway Commission chairman Marshall Formby said.

Mel Grau, one of the West Coast's leading color-stylists, says a trend toward "low key" colors means that the nation's tastes are improving.

"Low key," says Grau, who color-styles thousands of new development homes in California every year, "means soft pastels in a monochromatic scheme, such as an asphalt shingle roof in a quiet brown, with harmonizing beige or gentle yellow siding and trim."

Kirk Eldridge of Skaggs Drug

In mentioning some of those men who are taking a progressive part in the evolution of business and civic life of Wichita Falls we would be failing in our duty if we failed to include Mr. Kirk Eldridge, able manager of Skaggs Drug Center in Wichita Falls., recognized as one of the leading businesses in Wichita Falls.

Mr. Eldridge is the type of citizen whose fairness and friendliness and sincere desire to be of service are accountable for a large measure of his success. As time goes on his personal interests have become more closely interwoven with the business and civic affairs of the city. As a result he has, quite naturally, become accepted as a man who can be called upon and who will cheerfully do his part to further the development of those community activities to which he is best fitted to lend assistance.

Mr. Eldridge has, by the conduct to his business and his attention to civic affairs earned the friendship and good will of his fellow citizens.

Truman Pennell American Trust Life Insurance Company

Performing an outstanding service for the people of Wichita Falls and surrounding area, Mr. Truman Pennell, president of the American Trust Life Insurance Company with home offices in Wichita Falls has achieved an enviable reputation for his progressive policies of business administration. The establishment is a complete credit to expanding Wichita Falls. Mr. Pennell's ability to foretell the directional growth of the city have been important factors in his outstanding success.

Mr. Pennell is a man of ideas and he is as practical as he is aggressive in putting those ideas to beneficial use in furthering the services he renders to the people of this area. His sound business judgment and unwavering honesty are characteristics which place him in the front rank of the business leaders of Wichita Falls. Yet, he is unassuming and modest in his personal contact with people; always ready and willing to listen to their ideas and desires.

J. K. Estes
North Texas Federal Savings and Loan

There are many men who in their chosen field are prominent but who will not permit much to be said of their achievements. It is, however, only proper that when a man reaches a position in any community where he is generally recognized as a leader, something should be said. Such a man is Mr. J. K. Estes, President of North Texas Federal Savings and Loan Association of Wichita Falls. Mr. Estes has done his work effectively, accomplishing it in an unobstructive manner.

Mr. Estes, busy as he always is, manages to do his share in any movement calculated to benefit the community as a whole. His modesty will not permit him to say the things about himself which are said by his countless friends, who do not hesitate to recommend Mr. Estes as civic and business leader who at all times is ready to work to the advantage of the people of Wichita Falls and vicinity.

Foster Cathead Company

Because this is a period of expansion and growth of Wichita Falls, the progressive business men who have had the foresight and ability to lay their plans so as to be able to take advantage of these conditions are entitled to more than ordinary acclaim.

We are therefore glad to pay tribute to Mr. W. W. Foster, of the Foster Cathead Company of Wichita Falls, manufacturers of Foster Catheads and Power Tongs. This man has become a well known figure in the area for his interest in its growth and development.

Mr. Foster's persistent optimism and steadfast belief in the continued prosperity of the area is characteristic and merits our highest praise. He's always shown a willingness to do his part in civic betterment and advancement and has always contributed his share in one form or another to projects for the welfare of the area.

University Study
Club Met Sept. 17
In Bunstine Home

Mrs. A. R. Bunstine was hostess for the University Study Club on Sept. 17th with the president, Mrs. Crosley, presiding over the brief business session. She greeted the members and welcomed the visitors for the afternoon. Then she presented the program leader, Mrs. A. W. Newman, who graciously introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Paul Schroeder. Mrs. Schroeder brought us a colorful film of foreign travel. She was her own narrator and held the group spellbound as we in our imagination took this European trip with her.

After this most interesting hour long program, Mrs. Newman presented the speaker with a beautiful white ceramic bowl she had made herself.

Mrs. Bunstine served the group with a delicious plate as she always does.

The members present were Mesdames Lewis Brocker, E. R. Burns, B. N. Cauthorn, Bill Crosley, I. E. Harwell, J. D. Majors, O. E. Melton, A. W. Newman, R. P. Reagan, S. S. Reger, J. H. Rigby, R. C. Tevis, Marshall Young. The guests were Mesdames Witherspoon, King, Scruggs and Schroeder.

Mac's Trailer Repair

It is no coincidence that more frequently than not the people who take a progressive part in the business and civic life of their city are the same ones who are prominent and successful in conducting their own private affairs. In connection with this statement we wish to pay tribute to Mac, of Mac's Trailer Homes and Repair located in Wichita Falls.

Mac has proved very ably that he is of more than average ability, for it is largely due to his progressiveness coupled with his sound and practical ideas that his company holds its high position in the public's opinion in this area.

It is also true that Mac contributes largely toward community improvement & gives freely of his time and energy to the promotion of those enterprises which benefit the community at large.

Mr. Carl Anderson of the Anderson Petroleum Co. in Wichita Falls is a successful businessman who has played a significant part in maintaining the prestige of the Wichita Falls area as one of the leading communities of this section of the state, has always worked for the development of the community and his many services are sincerely appreciated.

Mr. Anderson's well earned success as a business man is attributed as people well know to his wide spread reputation for the honesty and integrity which distinguishes all of his business transactions. A combination of professional skill and business ability has elevated Mr. Anderson to the position of leadership in his line.

To become accepted as one of those business men who can always be depended upon to recognize his responsibilities to the home community and one who will readily back up his sense of duty by active participation in or the support of worthwhile civic movements is an enviable position. Such a person is Mr. Buck Greever.

Myrna Hoffman gave a report on the plans for Glorietta next summer. There were fifteen members present and one visitor.

Jackson Oil Co.
J. W. Jackson

To those progressive business men who have also taken a part in civic affairs we owe a debt of gratitude that we often find difficult to repay. However, we can do so in part by publicly acknowledging their many services and we take this opportunity to pay brief tribute to Mr. J. W. Jackson of Jackson Oil Company in Wichita Falls.

In doing so we express the sentiment and feeling not only of the community, but also of those people who have been actively associated with him in business or civic affairs.

Mr. Jackson's time is almost wholly occupied by his own affairs. Yet there has seldom been an occasion when he has been called upon by the people of Wichita Falls and the vicinity to assist in some civic projects, that he has not responded and helped to the fullest extent of his ability to further the project.

The Big Pasture Rangers will play Lone Grove Thursday, Sept. 25th at Randlett. The kickoff time will be at 8:00 p. m.

Big Pasture squared their seasonal record at one win and a loss with an 18 to 6 victory over Duncan "B" last Thursday night.

R. B. Nelson opened the scoring for the Rangers in the first quarter going over for a touchdown from 4 yards out. Halfback, Lee Jones, skirted left for 20 yards and the second Ranger tally in the third quarter. Duncan then scored on long pass from quarterback Mike Dixon to end Don Ruff. Big Pasture halfback, Paul Zweiacker ended the games scoring with a 35 yard sprint.

Outstanding line play by Lynn Postelwait, Kenneth Wilkins, Tommy Antwine and Harry Shaw enabled the Rangers hold on defense.

Ed, Jack and Mike Kadane

In singling out some of the progressive business and professional men of this area we would be censured should we fail to include Messrs. Ed, Jack and Mike Kadane, associated in the operation of the oil producing firm of Kadane, Griffith Co. in Wichita Falls, men who have never spared themselves in their participation in both the business and civic activities of the area.

The Kadanes have always been conscious of their civic responsibilities and are ever ready and willing to meet in every detail those opportunities which come to their attention to further their civic enterprise. We may well be proud of their achievements along these lines.

The Kadanes are worthy of a great deal of credit for the honest and successful manner in which they have conducted their business affairs. Their friendly and likeable personality whose sincere desire to be of service has gained for them a host of friends and acquaintances in and around Wichita Falls.

They operate their firm in the states of Colorado, California, Oklahoma and Texas.

Lowder, president of the Jiffy Food Stores of Wichita Falls and Burkburnett, has won the respect and good will of the people of Wichita Falls and the surrounding country for the progressive manner in which he has kept his company in the forefront of this entire district. Also for the efficient and friendly willingness he has displayed in accepting his responsibility in aiding civic undertakings.

Mr. Lowder does not make himself conspicuous by the manner in which he runs or conducts himself either in business or other matters. His quiet reserve and his confidence marks him as a man of good judgement whose opinions and advice are sought and listened to with respect.

Mr. Lowder is indeed worthy of congratulations on his successful business and also for his constructive advice and help on civic affairs in which he has found time to participate.

We are proud to call him a friend.

Mr. Razzell's persistent optimism and steadfast belief in the continued prosperity of Wichita Falls is characteristic and merits the highest praise.

Mr. Razzell has always shown a willingness to contribute to the civic betterment and advancement projects for the welfare of the area.

BEWARE Of Rattlesnakes

Another warning is given everybody to be on the lookout for rattlesnakes. They are beginning to creep out earlier in the afternoon, now that cooler weather is here. Perhaps your premises have been harboring a rattlesnake all summer and you didn't know it because he came out to feed only in the coolest part of the night.

Any sheltered place, tall grass and weeds, piles of lumber or rocks, is a very likely place for one of the ugly, dangerous reptiles.

And, don't expect to be warned every time by his rattling. If surprised, he'll strike first then rattle.
