Annual Sale Of Christmas Seals To Continue

The 52nd annual Christmas seal sale officially got underway Friday, Nov. 14th when more than a ton of Christmas seals, 21,410 envelopes, were delivered to the Wichita Falls post office for mailing to thousands of homes and businesses in Wichita County. The traditional seal sale which will continue through December, is the only source of funds for the Tuberculosis fighting activities of Wichita County TB Assn.

82% of all funds contributed through the Christmas Seal Sale by people of Wichita County remain in Wichita County to help carry on local tuberculosis activities. 12% goes to the Texas Tuberculosis Association for state-wide programs; 6% to the National Tuberculosis Association for national programs and tuberculosis research.

Activities of the Wichita County TB Association are determined entirely by its local voluntary Board of Directors, who are responsible for the Associations policies.

Christmas seals help make the following services possible; education of the individual and the community to check the spread of TB and promote better community health; medical and social research assisting doctors, scientists, and social workers in the battle against disease; rehabilitation of the tuberculosis patient, helping to solve the complicated personal, family and economic problems which accompany TB; finding the unknown and unsuspected cases of TB by means of the tuberculosis test and the Chest X-ray.

Mrs. Phillip A. Carpenter, chairman of the seal sales in Burkburnett, reminds local residents that contributions should be returned in the envelope which was received with the Xmas Seals.

Burk Hit By Tornadic Winds Early Mon. Morn.

Burkburnett suffered damage estimated at $200,000.00 early Monday morning as tornadic winds ripped through the downtown & residential areas of the city. Grass Roots Opinion

CAMBRIA, CALIF., THE CAMBRIAN: "—Despite the Hoover Report and the warnings of so-called 'reactionaries,' the public has blithely continued on its merry way, trading its freedoms for inflated bucks and ignoring the primrose path they are taking toward bureaucratic domination."

OLD TOWN, ME., PENOBSCOT TIMES: "Hunters and lovers of the 'great outdoors' throng to the eighth annual Old Town Hunters Breakfast. This is a pleasant event each year, when local residents and visitors from near and far share the color and excitement of the last pre-dawn hours before the opening of the deer hunting season, while enjoying a bountiful meal and swapping stories of adventures in the Maine woods."

"But the main significance of the Old Town Hunters Breakfast—the big reason why the first Breakfast was planned eight years ago—is to remind hunters, before they set out into the woods after that big one, to use their wits while in the woods, so they will not become lost or have accidents to spoil their enjoyment, and, above all, to make sure that stir of motion, bit of color, or rustle of sound is a deer before they shoot at it."

CHEWELAH, WN., INDEPENDENT: "A welfare state is one run for the benefit of everyone but the taxpayer."

WALTERBORO, S. C. PRESS AND STANDARD: "In the past few weeks a rash of senseless bombings of houses of worship and schools has taken place throughout the South. Decent people should rise up and demand the culprits, when captured, should be severely punished for these unwarranted attacks. If allowed to go unchecked these groups may decide that the Methodist, Presbyterian or even the Rotary clubs, should be eliminated. Terror tactics are never good, and only prove the cowardice of the perpetrators."

ABILENE, KANS., REFLECTOR-CHRONICLE: "It may be unhappy news for taxpayers that of 18 state legislatures that met to approve budgets this year, two-thirds of them increased taxes or changed collection procedures to bring in more money."

Polio Still Powerful

The wide spread epidemic recently raging in Detroit served notice to a startled nation that polio has lost none of its powerful impact. The disease still strikes unpredictably and with savage force. It finds its victims among the unvaccinated.

In Michigan, during a brief few September weeks, large numbers of children and adults were stricken with polio. More than 500 cases were concentrated in the city of Detroit. There were 16 deaths.

The epidemic first hit the low income areas. Then it spread out, following its own shapeless pattern, striking without warning, hitting people of all ages. Pre-school age children and young adults were the principal victims. Fully half the cases were paralytic.

Emergency vaccination centers were opened by the Health Dept. when the National Foundation sent in 100,000 doses of vaccine to make shots available for people of all ages, and also provided needles, supplies and volunteers to staff the clinics, help parents with their children and distribute factual information to families and the entire community. People were frightened. There was a veritable stampede for Salk shots. Families, including babies and teenagers, as well as mothers and fathers, turned out by the thousandfold to get protected against paralytic polio before it was too late.

Slaves Had Security

The following editorial is reprinted from the New Plymouth, Idaho, Valley Sentinel:

"We used to put a pretty high price on freedom in this country. As the settlers headed west for the privations and hardships of months of crawling, dusty travel, all they asked of government was to keep foreigners out of their hair while they fought off the Indians, starvation and any other obstacle to their freedom to make and build a life in a new land."

Today we seem to be willing to piddle away this freedom for security, security from hunger, want and hardships guaranteed by government.

We forget that the plantation slaves of the south had all these things we prize so highly today as long as they had kind, benevolent masters. The only price they paid for it was their freedom.

We, too, can have complete security at the same price but who can guarantee that our masters will always be kind and benevolent?"

HOW BOUT THAT BY RALPH TEE

When Jr. came home from college, he told his father (who did a very nice business) that bad times were coming. And so his father took down his signs, stopped ordering as much merchandise, stopped telling people what he had to sell and, sure enough—people slowly stopped coming to him for things to buy. After a few months, the father turned to his son and said, "You were right son—things are bad."

Cut Everywhere - Unless It Hurts

President Eisenhower told his post-election press conference: "We have got to stop spending if we are to keep further dilution of the dollar from taking place." The President went on to warn that our very liberty, political and economic freedom, the whole American system is at the mercy of the loose fiscal policies he fears from "the spending wing" of the Democratic party. Reckless spending, he said, "must stop or the United States is in the most serious trouble that we can think of."

The President's theme is, of course, similar to what was, perhaps, his major appeal for that "change" in 1952, and for his re-election in 1956. At both periods it was headed and acted on by the voters. But nothing impressive in the way of Federal economy followed either campaign. Instead, the national debt went through two ceilings.

Like the woodmen in the old fable, it appears that the voters failed to respond the third time to Mr. Eisenhower's cry of "Wolf!" As the President himself confessed "I did talk about the spending, and apparently that didn't make any great impression, for obviously, we didn't get enough Republican votes."

But there can be no doubt that the wolf is in our national parlor. To get him out, the President said spending must be cut in every area of Government where the law allowed, and perhaps some laws should be changed. Pinned down on whether he would cut foreign aid, housing and schools, Mr. Eisenhower declared that foreign aid was a part of defense, but that "you shouldn't spend money unnecessarily anywhere."

Somehow, we have the feeling that this is where we came in.

DAILY HISTORY OF THE BURKBURNETT PUBLIC SCHOOL

Early history of Burk Burnett, like that of all communities built more on fancy than on reality. The wild cattle could be seen roaming the prairies. Mr. McCracken settled in this area in 1867. Only a few years later, H. C. Askins, joined by a little colony, which developed into a tiny village known as Westerville.

Years after this permanent settlement, two families moved into this section, the ones from Rexford, and located near Gilbert Creek. More years after the growing industry of S. Burke Burnett, he became more powerful. The Burnett ranch instituted two enterprises in this area. The first was a ranch and second, a wild horse outfit. This was established in the summer of 1887, J. G. and S. P. Hawkins came to the country on an inventory. Since that time history of Burk Burnett has paralleled to the west of these families. After the death of these two men returned to the county and prepared to move to this community. Mr. A. J. Willis and his family moved here from Mt. Vernon and located next to the Burnett ranch. Mr. Hardin's first wife died in 1884 and their two children died a few years later. Westerville, George Darby built the first store. It housed the postoffice and

Mr. Hardin became the first postmaster.

The settlers managed to get a school started and a Baptist Church organized in 1884. The first school was in a dugout located on the property which is now the Jan-Lee Robertson farm. Classes were held three months out of each year with about thirty pupils. Two prominent Burk Burnett residents attended this first school. They are Mrs. O. B. Willis Wofford in 1890 and Mrs. J. W. Willis Allen in 1892. Among the applicants for the first teacher of this school was Miss Mary Funt. Her parents lived on a farm south of Iowa Park. She had had some schooling in Virginia and the trustees decided to hire her at $30.00 a month. In 1887 she gave up school teaching to become the wife of J. G. Hardin. They were known to those who loved them as Uncle Gash and Aunt Molly. Oren Clark came to live with them in 1891 and was raised as their son. A small frame one-room school was later erected and in 1890, 1891, and 1892, Mr. Thompson, Mr. Maysfield and Miss Nora Livingston, each taught for a three-month period each year. The school was moved to the location of the present cemetery in 1893 and was called Gilbert School. Sunday School and church were also held in this building.

Near the turning of the century, Mr. Frank Kell built a railroad into Oklahoma. When it came time to decide on a site for the depot, a spot beside the track near the present depot was chosen. The first train stopped at the wooden shack depot on Sept. 6, 1906. The following year, on June 6th, a public auction was held for the sale of town site lots. The first two lots were bought by S. Burke Burnett. For a time, the town was called by a double name, Burke Burnett. To appease postal authorities who objected to the double name, the "e" in Burk was dropped and the name of our city became one word, Burk Burnett.

The first teacher after the town was named Burk Burnett, was Mr. J. P. Hill. He taught only three months out of the year, which was a full school term at that time, in the years of 1907 and 1908.

The city grew rapidly for the next few years. Despite severe drought and panic in 1911, the site of the first oil well was staked on Dec. 25th, southwest of town. The well blew in on July 1, 1912, known as Smoker No. 1. The schools were not forgotten. Mr. John T. Finney served as superintendent from 1909 to 1910. Mr. Willingham, 1910, 1911, 1912. Mr. Perkins 1912-1914. Mr. E. C. Hall was a teacher in the school in 1909-10. He became principal of the school in 1912 and served in this capacity until he was elected superintendent in 1914. He was superintendent through 1916.

When World War I started, oil production became extremely important. Mr. Burl Bryant was superintendent in 1917 but resigned at the end of that year to serve in the armed forces.

The Fowler wildcat well opened a new era for Burk Burnett in 1918 and led to its nickname of Boomtown. Oil derricks went up over night and most of them produced good wells. The school was taxed to limit. The great upheaval in the community left the schools relatively small. Most citizens were adults, working in the oil fields, and leaving their families elsewhere. Mr. Burl Bryant was a member of the State Board.

The people voted $18,000.00 for a new building but Mr. Bryant entered the service before the year was over and Mr. E. J. Woodard served as superintendent from 1918 to 1925. During his administration, our high school was built. Mr. W. B. Hogg served from 1925-28. Two brick structures were now on our school ground. Mr. Butler Westerfield served from 1928-36. He also faced problems of raising funds for more schools in the face of economic chaos, but the academic and athletic programs continued to grow rapidly. During this time, a new football field was built and named in his honor, Wester Field.

Mr. C. J. Duncan was principal of the grade school from 1924-27, principal of the high school from 1927-36 and superintendent from 1936-42. During this period, the new Hardin Grade School was built and student activities were expanded until every phase of school life was taken care of.

Mr. Ralph Davis came to the Burk Schools from the Clara Community and served as principal of the grade school from 1938-42. In 1942 he became superintendent of the schools and served in that capacity until 1958. During his tenure as superintendent, the schools saw one of its periods of greatest expansion, both in physical assets and scholastic standing. The Jr. high, a new primary building and a new cafeteria were completed. In June 1958 a new band hall was started and was completed in September of this year.

A summer expansion program included remodeling of the high school auditorium, the addition of three class rooms to the primary building and the new band hall at a cost of about $78,000. Mr. I. C. Evans became principal of the grade school in 1942 and served in this capacity until 1958, at which time he was elected superintendent of the schools.

Burk Burnett has applied for a 15 class room elementary school in the Capehart Housing Project at Sheppard Air Force Base. The 15 class rooms would be designed for 450 students.

Our present enrollment is 1,542 students. We now have 63 white teachers and 3 colored teachers.

With Mr. Evan's leadership and the present day rate of growth of our city, the school system should be assured of a successful future.

Big stories have been told, books have been written and motion pictures have been made about our city of Flowing Gold, but none of these could ever depict the important role played by the Burk Burnett Public Schools.

When a lad starts the study of Latin and algebra he says good bye to his boyhood and also, to any help on his homework from dear old dad.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

It is hard to find a Texan who hasn't been involved in a discussion recently as to what the next Legislature should do about the state income tax or income tax next year.

Legislators are pretty strongly of the opinion that the state income tax is no luke warm feeling.

People may gripe about the tax but they don't often get up about them.

The latest report by the State Tax Study Commission on Property Taxes, underlines the importance of this as the state's biggest money source.

In 1958 property taxes will bring in an estimated $1,000,000,000 to the state and all local taxing units.

Interesting, the Tax Commission study of assessment practices and procedures indicates that this figure is probably only a fraction of what is legally due.

Large of personnel plus continuous difficulties of evaluating and all the involved add up to ineffectiveness and haphazard methods.

Under Texas law, individuals and businesses are supposed to pay taxes on all real estate and buildings. In both businesses and individuals are liable for taxes on automobiles, boats, fur, jewelry, business equipment, inventories, etc.

In all intangible personal property—money, bonds, stocks, etc.

Many of these are ignored by officials and citizens alike. Many cities are making an effort to collect taxes on cars. As to money in the bank, the commission report shows that on January 1st, there were $1,132 in Harris County and $1,132 in Travis County.

Other areas where more efforts are made at collections are in the cities. Results are spotty. Reports found that the same amount of property would net wide variations in different areas. On one example the tax was from $616 in Harris County to $1,132 in Travis County.

Also found that some homestead exemptions are more than one house. $1,000 each, these add up to thousands in uncollected taxes.

Plus low assessments take a big bite from the possible tax collections. The study of 3,037 house sales, the commission's staff found that the tax due to be $95,019.

Actual taxes levied were $2,706, only 3 percent of what strict application of the law would have produced.

Even though many tax offices are undermanned, Texas has 1,500 assessor-collectors. Sometimes a county, city and school district each will have an official doing the same job in the same area. Result: total cost of property tax administration in Texas exceeds $15,000,000 a year.

City Recommendations—

Texas League of Municipalities has a series of recommendations mostly in regard to money, for the next Legislature.

Topping the list was an appeal to the lawmakers to authorize cities to raise money thru some new tax sources. League also asked for thorough study of inequities in the property tax laws and revision where needed. It suggested that payment of property taxes on motor vehicles be required before issuance of new license tags.

Cities also asked the Legislature to step out of the field of regulating pay, pensions, and hours of city employees. Local citizens have to pay the bill, said the League, and ought to have the say-so.

Cost of High Living—

It's not the income: it's the outgo that has put Texas treasury in the red, says State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert.

Calvert told Gov. Price Daniels Executive Study Committee that all tax sources except oil are expected to bring in some $74,646,044 more revenue in the 1960-61 biennium than for 1958-59.

But, he pointed out, inescapable increase of needs in just one area—public schools—will just about absorb all this extra money.

Some Changes Made—

Final outcome from unofficial returns, of voting on proposed constitutional amendments resulted in these changes:

1. Appointees to vacated county judge and justice of the peace posts may serve only until the next general election, not for the remainder of a four year term.
2. Precinct, county and district office holders may not announce for another office without resigning the office they hold.
3. Cities may elect their officials for four-year, instead of two year terms.
4. Former Texas Rangers or their wives may receive pensions up to $80 a month.
5. State funds may be spent to advertise Texas outside the state.
6. Legislature may pass a law providing medical care assistance for people receiving old

American Motors Adds New Economy Wagon

A new two-door station wagon has been added to the 1959 Rambler American series, due to public demand for such a vehicle. The 109-inch wheelbase five-passenger wagon is an addition to the two-door Rambler American sedan introduced in 1958. Both the station wagon and the sedan provide numerous consumer benefits, according to American Motors, including low purchase price, top operating economy, handling ease, ease of parking and outstanding maneuverability. Both models, powered by an economical six-cylinder L-head engine developing 90 horsepower, will go on sale at Rambler dealerships on October 8. American bodies are dipped in a rust-preventing primer during manufacturing for longer car life.

12 Master Farm Family Winners To Be Honored

Twelve Texas "Master Farm Family" winners named by the Progressive Farmer Magazine will be honored at a State Award Dinner in College Station on Monday, Nov. 24th. The highest honor yet conferred in America upon working farm families, the award is based on distinguished accomplishments in farming, homemaking and community service.

For a great many years The Progressive Farmer has had the conviction that we could give no greater service to Texas agriculture than to seek out and honor farm families of outstanding merit, says Eugene Butler, president and editor. In almost every line of human endeavor distinguished accomplishments are recognized and publicly honored. This has not always been the reward of farmers. Many notable farm families have gone unnoticed, unhonored regardless of their splendid records. It was to honor at least a few of our finest farmers that inspired the Progressive Farmer to make the Master Farm Family Award.

The Master Farmer Award was first made in Texas in 1926. A total of 90 Texas families have been placed on the Master Farm Family Honor Roll through the years.

The Master Farm Family program is not a contest, Butler declared. Families compete only against the Master Farm family standard. There are certain minimum requirements. The family must take good care of the land while making it pay a reasonable profit on farming operations. There must be a good house with attractive surroundings. The family must take an active part in the community life. And they must show interest and leadership in good schools, farm organizations, Vocational agriculture, 4-H clubs, soil conservation and all those group activities that are so vital to a happy, prosperous farm life.

To find these outstanding families, The Progressive Farmer is aided by the Extension Service, Soil Conservation Service, Commodity Stabilization Service, Voc. Ag. teachers, Farmers Home Administration, local Farm Bureaus and Granges, HD clubs, Soil Conservation districts, Master Farmers of former years and others.

Progressive Farmer editors traveled over 6,000 miles visiting Master Farm Family nominees. They found no section had a monopoly on good farming and home living. All larger areas of Texas are represented by these twelve families.

CHRISTMAS GIFT SERVICE

We at the Telephone Company have many suggestions for that perfect Christmas gift. In fact, we have as many as there are types of service and colors of telephones.

To make it easier to give telephone service, we have a special gift plan which permits the donor to be billed for the charges. This gift service can be applied to our many services — color extension telephones, wall sets, illuminated dial sets, amplifying sets, and many others.

A telephone gift is one that lasts and lasts and gives constant service, benefit, and pleasure to its user. Don't delay — call the Business Office, JO 9-2291, today, and order your Christmas telephone gift now.

Holiday Get-Together By Phone

With Thanksgiving at hand, many people I know are planning a long distance call to family members living out of town.

If all the people in your family won't be with you in person for turkey and all the trimmings, let a telephone call wipe away the miles and still make it a "family day."

After all, a long distance "voice visit" is the next best thing to being together. Why not plan now to make your call Thanksgiving Day?

"Strange Case of the Cosmic Rays"

The fascinating story of how scientists tracked down the mysterious cosmic rays will be told in a Bell System science show coming your way on TV on Sunday, November 23.

"The Strange Case of the Cosmic Rays" was first telecast last year. Today, this program should be even more timely with television viewers, since one of America's satellites spinning around the earth carries special sensitive devices to record these cosmic rays.

Starring Dr. Frank Baxter in the role of the "Scientist" and Richard Carlson as the "Writer", this Bell System science program is another in the series designed for family entertainment.

"The Strange Case of the Cosmic Rays" will be telecast over Channel 3 at 5:00 P. M., November 23rd, Sunday.

The autumn cleanup of the "home grounds" becomes a breeze (even a lot of fun) when the whole family gets together on it. Same thing goes for saving. When everybody helps save for something that everybody wants, it's almost like a game in which the home team is pretty sure to win. Especially when the savings go here . . . where they grow so much faster.

D. 1958, in this cause, numbered 62,156-C on the docket of said court and styled EDWARD SCHLAFFKE, Plaintiff, vs All those persons first named in this writ and to whom the same is directed, Defendants,

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit: This is a trespass suit to try title wherein plaintiff alleges that on or about September 1st, 1958, he was lawfully seized and possessed of the following described tract or parcel of land located in Wichita County, Texas, to-wit:

The Northwest Quarter (NW 1/4) of Block No. Nineteen (19) of the A. A. Honaker et al Subdivision of a part of the A. B. & M. Survey No. 12, Abstract No. 737, patented to A. A. Four big reasons why
FORD
IS OUTSELLING
ALL OTHER '59 CARS

AT THE BRUSSELS WORLD'S FAIR, the '59 Fords were awarded the Gold Medal for handsome new styling elegance by the Comité Français de l'Élégance.

The world's best-selling car is the car with Thunderbird elegance

In the greatest styling decision of the year, the American public has already shown a clear preference for the new Ford. Ford sales are way ahead of all competition. Why? One reason is the classic simplicity of their Thunderbird-inspired design—clean, crisp lines that are pure automobile! And Fords are built for people—to sit in, to drive, to ride in—with comfort.

ANYONE CAN FIT IN A FORD: Our cars are built for people—full-size people who want space to stretch out. And all passengers ride in deep-cushion comfort.

The car in hottest demand across the land has greater roominess and comfort

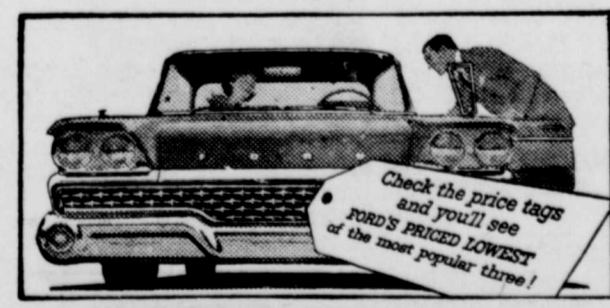

Thousands of customers have bought the new Ford over all competition for another compelling reason—it's a true six-passenger car. (The only four-passenger car we recommend is the Thunderbird!) All six Ford passengers get plenty of every kind of room—room for leg and head to elbow and hip. Rear seat passengers don't feel like they're riding with their feet in a bucket!

YOU'LL BE THANKFUL EVERY TANKFUL if you buy the new Ford, for you'll save up to a dollar a tankful with new engines that run superbly on regular gas.

The No. 1 car in sales saves money on gas, on oil, on maintenance bills

A new Ford will save you up to 5¢ a gallon on gas. That's because both standard engines—Six or Thunderbird V-8—thrive on regular gas. And Ford saves on oil, too, with a Full-Flow Oil Filter as standard equipment. Drive 4000 miles between oil changes! And you can forget about waxing your car. Ford's Diamond Lustre Finish stays gleaming bright without waxing—ever!

THE FAMOUS FORD LOW PRICES have already made a hit, because only in Fords will you find value and beauty coming together at down-to-earth prices!

The most popular American car is priced as much as $102.75 lower

Ford costs you less right down the line than the competition. Compare price tags and you'll see that the manufacturer's suggested retail price of a Ford, equipped with radio, heater and automatic transmission, is as much as $102.75 less than the major competition! And on an air-conditioned car, you can save up to $219.85. So compare and save on a 1959 Ford!

False Fronts Leave Much to Be Desired

Bargains frequently depend on your point of view.

Take a look at "bargain" insurance from all angles and make certain you know exactly what you're buying.

The morning after your home has burned to the ground is no time to learn all insurance is not the same.

Buy YOUR insurance from a local, independent capital stock agent. He is a neighbor of yours and has made the insurance business his career. He stands ready 24 hours a day with the vast resources of the capital stock insurance industry at his call to provide you with prompt service.

Mrs. Orla Doty and Mrs. Nora Wood were hostesses Thursday when the Devol HD club met in the club room of the community building. Club opened with Mrs. W. C. Charboneau reading the devotional from Romans 12:1-8. The Lords Prayer was repeated in unison. Mrs. Jack McCasland and Mrs. C. O. Woodley served as president and secretary in the absence of Mrs. Lucille Morrow and Mrs. Eunice LeMond. It was decided to omit the 4th Thursday meeting as it falls on Thanksgiving Day. The next regular meeting will be the Christmas party Dec. 11th with Mrs. C. O. Woodley hostess in her home. Refreshments were served to those mentioned above and Mesdames Pearl Coker, Lillian Hutson, Beulah Miracle, Luella Odum, Minnie Smith Amanda Warren and Verta Stevens.

The Devol Community was visited by a heavy wind and rain storm early Monday morning. We feel very grateful however that no great damage has been reported here as there was in nearby communities.

The Devol HD club will sponsor a Thanksgiving supper Tuesday evening, Nov. 25th at 6:30 p. m. in the community building. Each member will bring enough food for their family and any guests they may invite.

News From The County Agent

The Sixth annual Wichita County 4-H achievement Banquet will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 25th. It will be at Midwestern University Student Center, Wichita Falls at 7 p. m. The banquet is sponsored annually by the First National Bank of Wichita Falls under the supervision of Mr. J. C. Porter, Agri Director of the bank. The main speaker will be Mr. Nolan Williamson, Assistant Director of the Extension Service, A-M College, College Station.

There will be approximately 75 boys and girls that will receive County, District and State Awards.

If you farm in one of the highly mechanized areas of the state, your chances of benefiting from the care and not repaired 4-H Tractor maintenance program has been increased.

B. T. Haws, Co. agent, says the program this year's designed to train more adult leaders in the areas where more tractors and other farm equipment is concentrated. Leaders trained in some 30 schools will train 4-H club members in the communities and counties in approved maintenance procedures.

Haws points out that this program offers an opportunity for 4-H clubs to make a real contribution toward increasing the efficiency of farm machinery and the same time, develop leadership and citizenship abilities of the youngsters. A school will be held in Wichita Falls at International Harvester Co., on Shepard Field Access Road.

Anyone can grow roses, according to B. T. Haws, county agent. They may be planted in the fall or spring. In Texas, fall planting is generally preferred.

Essential for success with roses are: proper planting, a sunny location and well drained soil. Start with No. 1 grade plants, and have the ground ready when the plants arrive. Make sure roots are never exposed to sunlight or drying winds.

Cotton producers on Dec. 15, by referendum, will determine whether marketing quotas will continue in operation, the kind of allotment program and the level of price support for the 1959 cotton crop. The referendum is of vital concern to every cotton grower, says B. T. Haws

The 24th annual Dairyman's short course will be held in Texas A-M's Memorial Student Center, Dec. 4-5th. The short course program will feature discussion on mastitis, leptospirosis and brucellosis.

Better care and maintenance for Texas' 300,000 farm tractors and the 215 million pieces of allied equipment is the aim of the 4-H tractor program which gets underway next week. Local county agent can supply detailed information on the program.

The week of Dec. 1-6 has been designated as National Animal Science Week and gov. Price Daniel has issued a proclamation to that effect. The week is a part of the 50th anniversary observance of the American Society of animal production, and organization of some 3,000 professional workers in the animal production field.

The Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council reminds rural residents that safety isn't an accident but that accidents happen when safety isn't practiced. Many rural residents have become statistics since the fall harvest rush began. The list will continue to grow unless the rules of safety are observed.

Mrs. Gale Lowrance and Mrs. Raymond Krull have recently enrolled as landscape demonstrators. They have started by drawing a plan of their house and yard. They are now placing flowers, trees and shrubs. The secret of any good landscape, is a good plan. These demonstrators will have their plans made by the time it is time to plant these trees and shrubs. They are also making a compost and started cuttings.

Some eighty HD club members met together for their Achievement Day Luncheon and Annual Council meeting this last week. The meeting was held at the Valley Farms Community house. Mrs. J. L. Graham, Council chairman presided. Annual reports were given from all HD clubs, council officers and council committee chairman.

Committee chairmen making reports were: Mesdames Raymond Krull, exhibit, Tom Witherspoon, citizenship; W. E. Karstetter, expansion; Alton Holbrook, education; R. J. Ring, yearbook; E. J. Simons, 4-H; W. P. Wyatt, health and safety; and Woodrow Harris, civil defense. These reports included regular club and council meetings, recreation, attendance at district and state meetings, parliamentary training, special meetings to study health, safety and civil defense, first aid and home nurse training. The reports also included exhibits, National HD Week celebration and work with radio, TV and papers. An addition of more young homemakers was reported. Club projects including picnic grounds, convalescent home, exceptional children's centers, state hospital, Mexican day nursery, help for needy families and help for Fowler home. One new club was added this year. It's the Dittoe club where Mrs. E. A. Litten is president.

At this annual meeting, clubs also reported on participation in food preservation and clothing workshops. They also gave reports of work completed for their homes and families as a result of the home demonstration program on family economics and kitchen improvement. These reports show some 96 members improved their kitchens by work on cabinet arrangement, purchasing equipment and changing kitchen color schemes. 136 families improved their family business in one or more of the following ways; improved management of the bank account, worked on a family security plan, improved the family insurance program, improved use of credit and do a better job of planning.

Plans are now under way for the new year which starts December 1st. The Christmas party for Wichita County HD clubs will be Tuesday, Dec. 9th at the Wichita Valley Farms Community House. Reservations must be made by December 1st. Write or call Mrs. V. C. Lamb, 17 Manchester, Wichita Falls. All club members are invited.

Miss Brenda Bankhead is on the sick list this week.
