He said that a certificate of title for the last year's registration is required for the tax collector in the home county. Penalty for failure to register a vehicle is as much as $200. Greer said that an illegal registration, such as a "ghost" registration, is a crime under the law. Greer said that a portion of the registration fees stays in the county to benefit the community.

Mrs. Newman Host Wed. Afternoon University Club

The University Study club met on Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Newman for a very informative and enjoyable program. After the club collect, a brief business session was held. The program chairman, Mrs. Newman was introduced and gave the commentary on the 57 colored slides of the 40 room settings featured in New World of Ideas, home decorating travelogue presented by the Celanese Corp. of America. Special new world colors were seen in the decorative fabrics ranging from printed gossmer sheers to home spun weaves, brilliantly printed antique satins and rich damasks sparked with metallic threads in gold and silver. In the pictures, the South American flavor was seen in beautifully textured rugs and carpets made of celanese caire the acetate with the permanent twist and celapern, the sealed in color acetate. Fortical plastic telephones were seen in the gayest colors in nearly all of the room settings. We viewed the capital cities of Equador, Peru, Bolivia, Argentina, Brazil and Venezuela. We imagined ourselves standing atop Mount Corcavalo in Brazil and seeing the famous sugar loaf mountain centered in the harbor. We visited Copacabana beach, saw Lake Titonica in Bolivia, the highest navigable lake in the world. In Peru, we saw Mochu Piccu, the lost city of the Incas. An added feature of the program, a dress length, was given as a door prize. Mrs. Ross Reagan drew the lucky number and was awarded the lovely gift. The club was grateful to Mrs. Newman for bringing us such a wonderful program. Help Firemen Get to The Fire

DON'T...

When the fire alarm goes off, don't call in to find out where the fire is. Firemen will be trying to get the same information. Don't make a dash for the fire station. The fire truck comes out fast, is heavily loaded and is not designed for quick stops. It also has the right-of-way. Don't follow the fire truck to the fire. You can only get in the way and delay some fireman who is risking his neck trying to get to the fire in time to save some body's life and property. Don't fail to pull to the side of the street and stop when you meet a fire truck or it overtakes you. Wait a few minutes after the truck goes by before resuming your journey. Don't turn into a street where firefighting equipment is busy. It may be necessary for the truck to make a fast dash after more water for the tank, or to lay lines to a hydrant. Don't gang around a fire or the equipment when firemen are fighting a fire. They are concerned only with the fire and don't have time to look out for the safety of spectators. Don't try to assist the firemen with hose or equipment at a fire. They are trained for their job and can do much better if left alone by amateurs. Minutes count in fighting fires. Usually the first five to ten minutes determines whether a building is saved or lost. DON'T interfere with those precious minutes. Bill S. Vann of Brownwood spent last weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Vann.

Jack Connell, Jr. Writes to Editor

Mr. Harry Dodson, Burkburnett, Texas Dear Mr. Dodson: Within the next few days you will be receiving, daily, the House Journal. Within this Journal you will be able to find reports of all the bills and resolutions introduced to the House, how each member voted, and whether the proposed piece of legislation passed the House or not. I am sending this to you, courtesy of the House of Representatives, because I know of your responsiveness in the field of good government. I hope you will use this journal daily to check upon the legislation you are interested in and to follow my voting record carefully. And, at any time, if you should find reason for constructive criticism, feel free to write or contact me. I have been elected to the sacred and trusted position of representing the people within the boundaries of Wichita County and to do so I must be able to feel the pulse of a cross-section of our economy. May I urge you once again, to use this Journal so as to become better informed on the day-to-day actions of your legislature. I am the people's servant and wish to do as they should have me. With high personal regards, I am, Respectively Yours, Jack Connell, Jr. Make it a habit to keep your feet on the ground and you will never have far to fall.

IMPORTANT ELECTIONS COMING UP

Some citizens don't understand the importance of obtaining a poll tax this year in order to be able to vote. The usual elections will be held. Selection of school board members and City councilmen. That alone is important enough to have a poll tax receipt. Without a doubt people of Burkburnett will vote on selling or keeping the City Light Plant. There is also a possibility that voters will be called on to decide whether or not the City should vote more bonds for improvements. It is very important that a good majority of people settle these questions, not a small minority. Pay your poll tax.

The Boy Scout movement has reached ripe middle age. Boy Scout Week, which will be observed during the February 7-13th period, will mark its 49th anniversary.

But the passage of time has certainly not dimmed Scouting's vigor. It is looking ahead to ever greater achievements, to an ever expanding influence. And in this age, with juvenile delinquency rampant, the movement deserves the active support of every decent and responsible citizen.

In its nearly half-century of existence, the organization has touched the lives of more than 28,500,000 Americans. Today there are more than 4,780,000 boys and leaders playing the "Game of Scouting." This works out to one of every four boys in the 8 to 16 year old groups, and the hope is that this proportion will be materially increased.

Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive, puts it this way: "Looking ahead for the next five years we must recognize that never has it been so important or imperative that the youth of our nation be trained to high idealism, acquired through unselfish service, by self-reliance, and co-operative effort."

The ideals and objectives of Scouting have remained unchanged since the movement's birth. But changes have been made in organization methods and operating techniques in order to meet the needs of the time. At this moment, if Scouting is to be brought to more of the boys who want it, there must be more trained leaders and more facilities including camps. Meeting this challenge should be regarded as a pleasure and a privilege.

Meanwhile—Happy Birthday, Boy Scouts!

May J. Roosevelt Fail Like His Father

After Congressman Martin Dies brought about the creation of the House un-American activities committee and became its first chairman in the 1930's, the committee began ferreting out a frightening degree of Communist infiltration into the federal government and almost all facets of American life. The Commiecrats, whose secret playhouse was penetrated, began screaming to the high heavens about violation of civil rights, witch hunting and persecution.

President Roosevelt took the side of the Commiecrats. He first tried to persuade Dies to lay off the Communists. But Dies, who has just retired as the congressman at large from Texas after the office was abolished, is a determined man. Then the President applied strong-arm tactics. He threatened and even tried to get Dies defeated in his Orange district. By this time, however, enough members of Congress and a large segment of the American public had been awakened to the Communist menace. The un-American activities committee survived.

There are many in high places who believe that this country might already have been subverted to a dangerous degree by the Communists had it not been for the work of the committee.

J. Edgar Hoover, head of the FBI and the symbol of security for the American people, recently said, "Your committee is safeguarding our freedom."

Comes now another Roosevelt, son of the late President, to try to achieve what his father failed to do. Rep. James Roosevelt (D., Calif.) has introduced a resolution in the House to kill the un-American activities committee.

For once, the Republicans in the House have shown a little collective fortitude. In an unprecedented action, Republican members of the House met Thursday and voted unanimously to oppose the Roosevelt resolution. The nation owes these GOP members a debt of gratitude.

If each GOP member sticks to his vote, the Roosevelt resolution is doomed. There are enough sane and patriotic Democrats to join the Republicans and defeat the resolution.

Not only should the committee be continued. It should have the strong backing of the House and, for that matter, of the entire American public.

It Happened In France

"President William A. McDonnell of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, served as a captain in the U. S. Army in France in 1918," writes Edson B. Smith in the Boston Herald. "His pay at that time was $200 a month. When exchanged this amounted to 1000 francs. Today $200 will buy 84,000 francs."

"Mr. McDonnell points out that if an equivalent depreciation had happened to the United States dollar, viz, if it had lost 83-84th of its value, a low priced car would now cost $250,000. A $100,000 life insurance policy would keep a widow in a second class boarding house for 10 months. A $100 Social Security check would buy two pounds of hamburger."

"The moral of the above is that Mr. McDonnell obviously is of the opinion that the American people are too smug about inflation, a point in which we heartily concur."

The Importance Of Newspapers

Last December a delivers' strike forced New York City's newspapers to suspend publication. Nothing has done more to point up the importance of the press to the community.

As editor and Publisher puts it, life in New York "did not grind to a halt." But almost everyone in the city was affected by the communications failure.

Thousands of non-strikers were thrown out of work. Some 10,000 of the city's 16,000 newsstands closed. The city government went into low gear because of the difficulty of getting information to the public. Even education was hit, as a majority of the students in the city's schools use newspapers in their curricula.

Businesses of many kinds—stores, amusement houses, automobile and real estate dealers and so on—slumped so badly that the City's Board of Trade said the strike produced irretrievable damage.

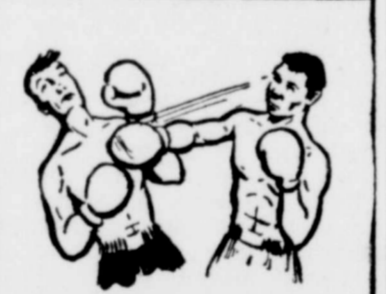

Editor and Publisher sums up: "The importance of newspapers in the daily life of a community is rarely known or appreciated until suddenly they fail to publish."

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

MINEOLA, N. Y. LILCO NEWS: "Something happened at Plymouth Colony in 1623 that ought to be enshrined in the memory of every American. It was the beginning of the American economic system based on private ownership of property and individual responsibility."

"At first, all food grown in the colony went into a central storehouse and equal shares were doled out. Within two years starvation threatened. There were too many shirkers, not enough food. Then colony leaders decided to give each family full rights to all it produced—The fields of Plymouth Colony blossomed."

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bailey and Floyd Wayne spent the weekend in Eunice, N. M. visiting Mr. and Mrs. K. O. Bailey.

Mrs. J. H. Brumley Honored Jan. 21st

On Wednesday, Jan. 21st, Mrs J. H. Brumley, 323 East 6th St., Burkburnett, was honored with a dinner for a rather unprecedented purpose. At the completion of the meal the hostess, Maj. Jane Sewell, announced to Mrs. Brumley and guests, Mesdames E. E. Clack, P. A. Wiggins, L. E. Harwell of Burk; Ora Udalie, Memphis, Tenn., that just one year ago Maj. Sewell moved to 323 East 6th St., from Wiesbaden, Germany, therefore this dinner had the unique distinction of a first anniversary.

The menu served the honoree and guests consisted of fried chicken "Sewell" style, green beans, creamed potatoes with gravy, black cherry jello salad, biscuits, fruit cake with whipped cream and coffee. A pink and white motif was the color scheme. The table was covered with pink linen cloth and white Japanese china. The centerpiece was composed of white candles and an arrangement of ivy and white carnations supported by pink ribbon bows combined in a pin porcelain flower pot.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wright and Gail and Mrs. W. J. Wright visited friends and relatives in Dallas and Seagoville over the weekend.

BURK HI SCHOOL STUDENT COUNCIL MET JAN. 27th

The Student Council of Burkburnett High School held its regular weekly meeting on Tuesday, Jan. 27th during activity period in room 4.

The meeting was called to order by vice president, Patsy McNeil. Kathy Roark, recording secretary, called the roll and read the minutes from the last meeting. Lee Bulla, chaplain, brought a word of prayer.

Projects that the council might undertake were discussed. Each member was asked to think about this subject and give any suggestions at the next meeting.

A committee of volunteers was then chosen to work in the concession stand at the basketball game Tuesday night. This committee consisted of Donna Gibson, Kathy Roark, John Cools, and Donny Culpepper.

The Student Council will attend the Greenbelt District Student Council meeting at Archer City on Feb. 14th. Officers for the coming year will be elected at this meeting.

On March 12th, the council will send four representatives and our sponsor, Mr. Silkwood, to the annual state convention which will be held at Brownsville. This meeting will begin on the 12th and continue through the 13th. Of the four representatives to be selected, there will be one freshman, one sophomore and two juniors. The representatives will be selected by the council at the next meeting.

Student council pins were then discussed. The motion was made and seconded that the council select a standard pin to be used by each council member in the future. This was voted upon and carried unanimously. The pin will be selected in the near future.

It was decided to sweep off the parking area north of the school so that lines would be more visible. Again, the council would like to ask the students to park within these lines to make it safer and more convenient to get in and out of the area.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Texas Safety Association

The Texas Dept. of Public Safety warned motorists of the inconveniences of a last minute rush at safety inspection stations before the deadline, April 15th.

More than 3,000,000 of the 4,000,000 Texas motor vehicles have yet to receive their 1959 safety inspection stickers.

In urging motorists to "do their safety shopping early" and avoid the rush at the 4,400 inspection stations, the safety department warned that those who fail to do so will be subject to traffic summons after April 15. The average cost of the safety inspection since the program began six years ago is $1.19 for needed repairs and $1 for the inspection fee.

The inspection stations check such items as brakes, lights, mirrors, horns, and windshield wipers and have found that 39 percent of the vehicles have needed some adjustment or repair.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the safety department, said this is an improvement over the general condition of motor vehicles six years ago when the inspection program began. At that time more than 50 percent needed repairs.

We hope that owners of motor vehicles will take advantage of the inspection facilities now and avoid the inconveniences of waiting in line as the April 15 deadline approaches," Col. Garrison said. This safety factor is important to safe driving on our streets and highways, and that is our goal.

What to Look for When Buying A New or Old House

Buying a good house is an art and you get better at it with practice. Unfortunately, say the editors of Changing Times, the Kiplinger Magazine, most families don't buy enough houses in a lifetime to get out of the amateur class.

In their January issue, the editors have listed 26 tips on fine points of the art. You may find a hint that will spare you a costly duffer's mistake.

1. Get A Lonely Look. Arrange for a private look at the house, with ample time to peer, poke and ponder, without conversing distractedly with the owner or agent.

2. Buy Up—Not Sideways. Do not limit your looking to houses that other people just like you are buying. Give serious thought to houses being bought by people you would like to be like. It may put you ahead of shifting tastes in houses.

3. Forget About Basements. Below ground level space is expensive. Equivalent space above ground is more usable, versatile more liveable and may well be cheaper.

4. Insist on Lots Of Storage. Ask where you would store all the paraphernalia that every family inevitably accumulates.

5. Don't Snub Dry Walls. Those walls of composition board are as serviceable as plaster, quicker to install and much cheaper.

6. Discount Giveaways. Draperies and wall to wall carpeting "thrown in" at the last minute to encourage you to buy should not sway you. You may tire of them.

7. Consider Prefab. Judge prefabs just the way you consider conventional houses.

8. Suspect Low Taxes. Look for good public services. Be willing to pay for them.

9. Don't Compare Tax rates. Compare tax bills, not tax rates.

10. Buy Privacy, Not acreage. A big lot does not necessarily guarantee the privacy most people want. It can be a burden and an expense.

11. Get more space per dollar. See what you pay for every square foot of usable interior. You stand to get most in a two story house or a one story basementless house.

12. Don't Buy Scared. People make bad buys through excessive caution. Be sensible, but have confidence in your ability to improve your future.

13. Shy Away from Crazy Quilts. Lean toward restraint in both colors and finishes. Look for houses that appear to be all one piece, not a jumble of parts.

14. Avoid flashy eye catchers. Cuteness or bizarre design may make the house hard to sell.

15. House should fit the Lot. Butchering the natural grade of the land is expensive, and causes problems later.

16. Figure on air conditioning. Look for houses that can be air conditioned easily.

17. Don't Skimp in Kitchen. It should be well equipped, pleasant and conveniently arranged.

18. Don't guess remodeling costs. They usually run higher than you anticipate.

19. Save cash for closing. Get a line on closing costs before buying—they can total up.

20. Rate sewers over Septic Tanks. If you have to have a septic tank, make certain it follows standards recommended by the local health dept.

21. Get a Prepayable mortgage. In many mortgages, there are heavy cash penalties for making payment ahead of schedule.

22. Steer clear of derelicts. If you are tempted to buy a run down property and fix it up, go slow. Remodeling is tricky and full of pitfalls that have trapped experts.

23. Check for Moisture damage. Stains on plaster, rot in sills, raised grain on woodwork, and seepage in basements can tip you off to serious condensation problem of weather leaks.

24. Look at Windows & doors. In a new house, windows and doors that fit poorly are signs of sloppy construction. In an old house, they may signify poor construction, settling or both.

25. Shop for mortgage money. You may find a longer loan, a larger one, or lower interest.

26. Count the cost of owning. Add 1 percent of the selling price for annual upkeep if the house is new, 2 percent if it is old. The cost of buying plus the cost of owning determines what you can afford.

Six Wichita County Youths Enter Exhibits In Fat Stock Show

Wichita County will have six exhibitors entered in the Junior Steer show at the 1959 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth, Jan. 30th through Feb. 8th.

Their entries will be among 285 animals competing for premiums totaling $4,731 in the junior steer department, $1,000 more than was offered in the same show last year. Cash awards of about $195,000 will be offered in the other livestock, rodeo and horse show events at the show.

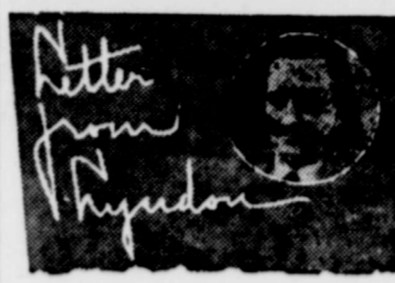

Wichita County exhibitors are Willie Cornelison, William Morton and Connie Swinford, all of Wichita Falls, Henry and Karen Bentley of Burkburnett, and Charles Webb of Electra.

A special feature of the 1959 Fort Worth Show will be the appearance of movie and television star Dale Robertson in all 20 rodeo performances. Star of the TV-western series, "Tales of Wells Fargo," Robertson recently was labeled "TV's real cowboy" by Life Magazine because of his ranch background and his interest in training and racing Quarter horses.

The young actor is a native Oklahoman and raises horses on a ranch he owns in the Sooner State. One of his prize Quarter horses has been entered in the horse show at the Southwestern Exposition.

An accomplished singer, Robertson was featured on the Perry Como Show several months ago. In his rodeo appearances, he will present a musical act especially created for the Ft. Worth show.

The rodeo offers about $65,000 in prizes and is the nation's second highest paying rodeo, topped only by the annual Madison Square Garden show. The Fort Worth exposition is the oldest major livestock show in the nation.

A new Congress, confronted by new problems, convened one week ago tomorrow. Important work has been accomplished. But the major tasks are ahead. Overriding all issues is the problem facing all the people of the world—peace.

At home we face the challenge and opportunities of a growing population's ever increasing need for homes, schools, medical facilities and food.

These challenges must be met the opportunities seized. I am confident they will be.

But the attack must be based on bold thinking and creative ideas.

This calls for knowledge, based on intensive studies, that need to be started now. But these studies should be in the true meaning of an inventory, not in the sense of an investigation. We must determine what we have.

This calls for searching examination of such possible fields as natural, human, cultural and scientific resources; cities and the scope of urban renewal; educational opportunities disease and care of our senior citizens. The list is long. Some studies are underway. This includes gaining and maintaining the nation's lead in the race for outer space. This we cannot now claim. But it must be achieved. I am confident it will be.

It was one year ago this month that the Senate Preparedness Subcommittee concluded its hearings into the satellite and missile program. The final act of that bi-partisan group was unanimous adoption of a statement. It urged decisive action by the military on 17 specific points.

Prof. K. T. Goetze Reports on His Recent Trip to Europe

By K. T. KOETZE

This is a true story by K. T. Goetze after cruising around half the world, U. S. A., Canada, Mexico, Ireland, Scotland, Denmark, Holland, Belgium, Germany, Italy, France and England. I am sorry to say the love for the Almighty Dollar destroyed from the beginning the finest Nations, and the finest, richest people. I'm sorry to say that in a few more years it will destroy our good USA. Germany and France are already out. If it was not for Canada and Australia that are feeding her, England would also be out. We, the USA, are yet blessed with large resources: so are Canada and the Republic of Mexico. I traveled through these countries, not to spend my hard earned money just for fun, but because I really wanted to see just what condition this world really was in.

PROF. K. T. GOETZE

The above picture was made several years ago. The Prof. will be 75 years old this coming June

It is most pitiful for all Nations, small as well as large, are unhappy. Russia, one of the largest, has its people very unhappy. I made it a business to get acquainted with higher ups of Russian Generals and Scientists. Most of the Russians are good. The two Generals and Scientists told me they love each other, love their country too; yet the Imperialist Ruling makes them most miserable. They are hoping and praying that we Americans could bring them out of the Hellish way they are ruled by.

The truth should be interesting for any good American to learn, for if you boys have to go fight them sooner or later, do not hate these good people, for they love us. Remember boys, these Wise men I talked to for hours tell me the only hope for freedom is USA. It might be of interest to you to know I have the names of these great men. When I returned home I hid the names (can't let even my own children see them) for I promised no one in USA would ever learn who told me these things. This great world is in a awful mess.

Another great nation is China. Most of the people get only one meal a day, and some days none. Millions of the poor people starve. When you get on the inside of things it makes your hair stand on end.

Poor Japan! After they tried to get more land with bitter war and failed, they have made a Law to operate on men and women so there will be no children. At times they operate on hundreds a day! Now is that not something, almost too hard to believe? Yet it's so.

Now I will talk more about my trip through Europe. I left the States the first of July and returned in September. I stopped at all points along the way long enough to get a good view of it. I left New York on a Holland ship carrying about 1100 passengers. We arrived at Rotterdam. Holland in fine shape and enjoyed the trip. I got acquainted with the Captain who was born five miles north of Brussels. When asked about the Worlds Fair, he knew all about everything and told us much of interest. It was unusual how I became acquainted with him. Some of us spotted a big whale floating on the water and called to him about it. He said, "That poor devil is dying. Some body crippled him and now he is committing suicide. When a whale gets sick he comes on top of the water, and if it rains as it is, the sweet water kills the pain but paralyzes his flesh; when he comes back to the salt water it kills him for the salt and sweet water are poison." Someone said, "Poor Fish!" The Captain told us it was not a fish but a mammal. Some one asked how big an egg did it lay, but was told it did not lay eggs but hatched its young. Well! Well! Also we were told that it carries its young in pockets and feeds them until they can take care of themselves. A mammal is the only thing that sleeps on the bottom of the ocean. She teaches her young how to get deep into the water and then come up. We watched the Mothers turn the young loose, they are as little birds, they keep going down and die. The mother or Papa goes down and gets the little devils up, and in a few days they know their business. It is entertaining to watch. This Captain was so interesting to listen to. He also told us all other fish are limited to the top part of the water; few go quite deep, but most stay near the surface.

Now off to the World's Fair. I did as he told me—take a bus six miles from the heart of the City—there I found the nicest place to stay for only $2.80 with breakfast included. I stayed 11 days, enjoying every single thing. A fellow passenger from the ship, a Methodist Preacher going to China as a Missionary with his wife and children, was staying up town in a Hotel in Brussels having to pay $20 a night. Needless to say, he could not hang around long at those prices. We met next morning at a pre-arranged place at the Fair and took everything in. He was such a swell fellow, interested in all nice things. He came from Canada. He only had two days before having to leave for China so we spent that time enjoying the sights together.

We came to the Sputnik at the Russian end of the Fair. A fine man came out on the platform asking how many could understand English, German, etc. There were 20 Americans so he lectured in English. His speech was interesting. He said some people are not High Cultured and make out like we are trying to show off with this Sputnik. They are doing us wrong for we only have something new. I tell you Americans, at one time you had a man Benjamin Franklin who caught on a kite something different, yet he knew not what it was. Well later it proved to be electricity. Now we send this thing up and all we learned to our knowledge was that electricity runs out after going some distance into space. A wonderful speech he made, saying if we could help him solve the Sputnik he would be very happy. He also told us one of his best friends kills every whale he can catch, cuts him into pieces to see why they can go to the bottom of the sea when none of us can go any depth into the water. Another friend is trying to find out what causes earthquakes, it's not the gas fumes from the big old fields, not the hot water steam, what is it? A swell talk on these three subjects we knew so little about. He also stated all this Moon going is Bologny, blah, blah, etc.

After that, my friend, the Missionary Methodist preacher and I went to get a drink or soda pop 30c a bottle. OK let's go eat. You can pay for the drinks and I will buy the dinner. It was a nice dinner, mostly dishes and rags to wipe our nose, I think. While he went to get our hats the waitress gave me the bill of $14. I almost passed out. We hurried out as he had to catch his train in two hours. He insisted we ride the ferris wheel at his expense. Way up there I think we scratched the moon. He talked about how beautiful the sights were from there but I don't remember saying yes or no. I did not see a darn thing for I was still thinking about that $14 dinner. I could have eaten a week on that in American, darn the luck.

I stayed 5 more days, then went to Berlin, Germany 150 miles through the Russian zone. Most people told me I would never get to Berlin that way. I met lots of Russian Officers showing them my passport. All were friendly to me. Seems all spoke two or three languages. We came to Berlin OK. There I met Mt Hans Hungar, my mother's nephew, a high German Officer. His father was Postmaster General in Berlin over 31 years. In World War II they bombed his Post Office, covering him with 30 or 40 feet of debris. His son showed me the place. In Berlin I learned from him and the fine Russian Officers what I said in the beginning of this story.

I took an Air Ship to the beautiful country of Switzerland. The country never had a war in 400 years. It's hardly believable that a small nation can keep peace when her neighbor nations are always fighting. I ate dinner in Geneva, the place most nations meet, settle their troubles. It's a lovely city. I learned there nobody is allowed to drive over 10 or 15 miles per hour. Well I decided I would not last long in Switzerland with my wild driving. I flew through this very beautiful country to Rome, Italy for I wanted to see the largest church in the world. The one I saw in Montreal, Canada was larger than any in United States; and the one in Mexico City was the largest in North and South America. So I still wanted to see the largest place of worship in the world.

In this Cathedral I saw more gold and silver than in any other church. I saw the poor people crawl up these golden steps with babies in their arms, then when they got up to the Holy Idols they loved and kissed them. I really do not approve of that, yet I admire these loving people being so faithful. When we came to the outskirts of Rome, the poor people have no doors or windows in their houses and the roofs are all weathered out. It makes you think.

I came back to my city of Berlin. I went to one of the oldest churches in Germany, 960 years it used to be Catholic before the great Reformer Dr. Martin Luther came. He preached in that church and it was taken over by the Lutherans. At that time they used on the organ the so called untempered Keyboard. It was tuned in 4th and 5th, and they could only use half the keys; when John C. Bach came he showed the world how to play in all 7 tones—a perfect scale. They showed me where they used 20 foot beams 3 and 4 men on each side pumped the bellows to get wind for the reeds and pipes to play. Grandfather told the true story about the boys going driving all of Saturday night, then go to church Sunday to pump the bellows for the organ. While the preacher gave his sermon the boys would go to sleep and the organ player would have to go around and wake them up and crush them out. Phew. I have the picture of that church. It looks like the wars missed it in the bombings.

Now I went to Paris, France, a beautiful place with the Highest Culture in the World. I still used the systems the Holland Captain taught me (go to outskirts to find living quarters with reasonable cost). I found a clean neat place with the poor people for $1.80 a night with breakfast. Living there were an old man 86 years of age, a widowed mother with a 17 year old daughter, all born and raised in France. They were most kind and friendly. The old father said he used to have a nice farm, years ago. He got it as we do here in America; borrowed a little money from a Loan company. Wars came along and the Loan Co. and Bankers left him penniless. His daughter married a nice man, they killed him in World War I. Then in World War II her son was also killed. Seems the remaining family has been leading a "Cats Life" since. This mother has lost all faith. She said she used to pray day and night to let her husband come home. She had been a good Catholic. Then she thought surely the creator would save her son, but he also stayed in the battlefield. Now that she has given up hope it's most pitiful, but that is just how it goes. The grandfather and the young daughter still have faith in the Lord and are happy. When I tried to console the mother it seemed a hopeless cause, so when I left I gave her another couple of dollars. The grandfather said now he could buy tobacco for his 3 pipes for he had none in months I saw tears in his eyes so I went up to him and gave him a $5 bill saying now you can enjoy smoking for a long time. I never saw anyone so happy as these lovely people. Every time I see things like that I wonder myself why these good people suffer so? Then I think back a few years when I myself was heading for the breadline if it had not been for a few men that helped me after the dollar loving Bankers and Loan Companies took all my early belongings and hard earned money.

I saw what I so often heard: Paris, one of the most sinful cities on earth. The glittering of the fine streets and buildings in the center of Paris is most extravagant. All are busy on each side of the square—3 or 4 beer and whiskey joints, and eats of all kinds all open till midnight; some all night. When most joints close everyone is invited to go upstairs where all highest gambling and dancing and follies are going on. It's just what the drinking people want and look for.

When people with plenty of money stay a week or more go home and tells others what a wonderful time they had. It's too bad; yet it's true. I stayed a week and saw nearly everything of interest. I went to the Eiffel Tower and learned all about the Art Exposition. I came to where they took the bones of Napoleon. A 20 ton rock covers that wonderful monument. A story they told me proved to be the truth: When Hitler conquered France and saw war coming with Russia, he had this rock lifted. He took with him two of best Spiritualists as he was a strong believer in Spirits. He talked into that grave asking Napoleon about Russia. The voice came up as his Spiritualists tells it, Forget Russia; The man you think a best friend will help Russia. You will lose all! Forget it! This they say was our President Roosevelt and it happened just that way. The people who believe in Spirits also say it is true.

CHURCH OF THE VALLEY Located in East Berlin, Germany This structure is 964 years old. Formerly it was a Catholic church. It is now Lutheran

We saw so much it is impossible to relate it all, but another tale you will enjoy as we did. A very beautiful lady told us a man here in the next room had a cow to milk. Since it would be interesting for others to see you milk the cow we will give $5 to the first one to finish. Some nice fellows were all dressed in white suits with a stool strapped to them. As I had grown up milking 21 cows morning and night I volunteered with two other men to try the milking stunt. I knew I could beat them but did not want to spoil the fun by telling them I was an Old Milk Maid. We got dressed for the chore and were taken into a room where we saw they were fooling us, for the "Cow" was a big cat strapped and tied on all four feet. All had a big laugh on us and we sure felt cheap. A real Goat we made out of ourselves. As everyone got to laughing at us Goats, a fine fellow got up in his chair and told us he had worked out this joke. He had lost both hands and arms clear to his shoulder. It seems that when his hands were blown off in a battle, he developed cancer of the bone; in order to live, he had to lose the remainder of his arms. He told how sad it was to be like that and wished they had let him die. I saw the girls and mothers eyes get full of tears. One of his legs was no longer any use to him. He told us his government was giving him more than he needed, yet there are so many in my country just like me. I would thank you most sincerely if you would drop a penny or two in the basket at the door for me. I give it to the Salvation Army every Saturday night. There was not a dry eye in the house when he left. I saw some drop $20 in the basket; also one of my Goated Milk Maids dropped in a $20 bill. I only had $3, and felt more Goaty than ever.

That night I attended a Follies Show after spending $6 for a ticket. For three hours I sat there and saw more naked men and girls than I ever saw before. Some of the better seats were $10 and $12, but from my cheaper seat I could see some of the most Hellish stuff ever. The Show seats 3,000 and is full every night, teenagers and old alike. Yes, its Paris, all interesting.

Now to London, a city as large as Paris, only the inside is beautiful. All the outside or outskirts is still old houses three and four stories high, every 16 or 20 ft. comes out an old time smokestack. Not good looking at all. When traveling at night you still see flickering oil lamps. No lights in the smaller cities, and only an electric light at the depot and one at the best Hotels. No electric lines are in the country, not many phones, and you see only a small cement or gravel road near a city and it is only wide enough for one car. Seems they are 100 years behind us, just as is France.

I noticed where the largest passenger ship was leaving England in a day or two, so I headed for it. Since I came on a small-ship I wanted to go home on the largest afloat. We had 3,645 passengers, 2,000 employees. I had traveled nearly two weeks going on an 18 knot ship when going to Europe, but reached home in two days and one right on the large one. It traveled as a Cadillac, no bumps, no shake-ups and when windy it was smooth as silk.

When we arrived at New York it never looked so beautiful with all the glitter and tall skyscrapers. I felt proud of my home's largest city. When I was talking with a Policeman he said yes, it was a beautiful place outside, but rotten on the inside. I've been a Policeman for 20 years and it gets worse every year. We have 15,000 illegitimate children every year. I told him it was just as bad in Paris where I had been visiting. I stayed a couple of days and went on to Cornell where I had gone to school in the Twenties. I enjoyed the time spent there immensely.

Texas was my next destination, but due to heavy rain I stayed in Buffalo, New York all night. There was a Follies Show across from my Hotel room so I went to see it. I only had to pay $1.00 for my ticket, but am ashamed to say it was even more vulgar than the one in Paris. I was shocked at the number of young teenagers there. I'm sure the Devil got them before they got home and could see why the good Policeman was so concerned about the Sin in the Cities.

While in Niagara Falls I went on into Canada and came out at Detroit, Mich. I knew they were making a big road machine where 12 men could make a mile or two a day. They showed me the picture of how it is going to work. It was very interesting. I asked the Designer what became of the other 100 men that could work as it was. "Let them get another job" was his reply! The more one man can do, the better money a few can make. I got the same answer in Russia when they showed us the 20 to 24 foot Combines. A few make all the money and many have to starve. All for the love of MONEY.

A friendly Catholic Priest from Detroit sat by me and we talked about the Sins of the World. "Yes," he said, "We have tried everything. On the doors of all the Hellish Places they say 'We Reserve the Right to Turn Away that What We Do Not Like.' Their Hell holes as we call them pay heavy licenses to their cities then ask police to protect them. Such great evangelists as Billy Graham have to sit in the streets and preach. The poor and weaklings come to hear him but you never hear of a millionaire coming. It's as in the beginning it's Easier For A Hand to Pass Through the Eye of a Needle Than To Hear Graham in New York Square. Seems as all us clergymen are lost out.

When we came to St. Louis, another large city, we had to wait to leave for Oklahoma City. On the Southwest corner of the Depot I saw a cafe. I stepped in and sat down at a table asking for a cup of coffee or a beer and sandwich. A lady sat by me and asked me to buy her a beer. OK I looked at her and smelled a rat. When the waiter asked $4 I said I would not pay that much as it was robbing a poor man. I got up thinking I would go out and not come back. As I got to the door a fellow caught me by the arm saying 'Mister, you got to pay the lady her $4 or I pull in! I gave him $5 telling him I had the stomach ache and had to go out, but to save me the $ change. Now imagine this right here in the USA. It's as bad as France. I'm sure he is still waiting for me with the $1.

I tell you it's just as bad here as elsewhere. If things do not change we will land where other nations landed! Some have all, while most of us have nothing. I'd rather talk about myself than about others for I too have almost made the "Breadline." The moral is: don't give up!

The farm I owned made no crop in 1927 or '28. I let the Loan Company talk me into taking a loan. In '30 and '31 we had a nice crop. My renter put $750 in Electra Bank when he sold his crop, seed wheat and 300 bushels of oats in Elevator. I was so happy for now I could pay the interest and buy clothes for my two daughters. In a few days I went to Electra to get my money to pay off. Bank was closed. All said we had lost our money. I could hardly believe it, yet it was true. I sent to the elevator to sell my oats for whatever it would bring, and take my seed wheat out as it was now sowing time. The man working in elevator said we've had no wheat or oats in here for months I never got one red cent for all this nor did any other man. Is that nice?

Two men in between that time got good oil wells. I knew they now were Bankers. I also learned they saved their money. I could ask them for help as we were raised together. My daughters now made highest grades in school and wanted to go to college. But both fellows turned me down, not one cent for me yet they loaned money every day to good people and crooks. It was a hard shock for me and my daughters. I had lots of music pupils but they could not pay either. I showed $240 worth to my good lawyer, C. C. McDonald. He said he was sorry he could not collect a cent of it for it was over two years past. Well, that's enough to cry over he thought. I walked from one side the street to the other like a drunk man. A fellow tapped me on the shoulder. Asked what was wrong. I told him I guess I'd go have a good cry as I lost all my money in the Bank all grain in the elevator, my Banker friends refused to loan me money, my girls are ready for college and now look! How much do you need? he asked. I told him $200 would take care of college. He handed me a check for $200 saying if I needed more to let him hear from me. It was Ben Schulz. Now how do you like that? A friend in need is a friend indeed! when I returned home to Iowa Park the good Supt. Bradford and newspaperman C. C. Hudson also made arrangements for money. These three men I will not forget as long as I live.

Soon the time came when the Bankers could now take over my farm. That is what they and the Loan Company were waiting for. A good neighbor with a large family, C. Hopson, joining on south of our farm, these same Bankers took his farm. He died on the Breadline, 57 years ago. Then there was this other neighbor, Mr. Rufus Edds on the west side, they took his farm too. He also discovered oil on his farm in 1910. He died on the breadline 47 years ago. Rufus was our County Commissioner 4 years. The Loan Company and Bankers finished him too. Back to me: I knew now that Ben Schulz would not let them take my nice farm. In between time a man named G. Mogreen made an oil lease with me. I told him my troubles and he said he would bring me a man that would take care of me, David Erickson. He loaned me $10,000, paid all my debts for only a small interest per year. These men saved me and my daughters from starvation as so many good families had to suffer through. I will always in my heart think of David Erickson, Ben Schultz, C. C. Hudson, Supt. Bradford and G. Mogreen. If it had not been for them I could not have traveled over two thirds of the world. If men are this good, then all the world should know their names as well as how their kindness affected me.

CHARLEY HALE MONDAY EVE DIES CLUB

The Ladies Garden club day evening in the new Mrs. Charley Hale. Meeting was called to order by president, Mrs. Sims, welcomed two guests, Frank Metcalf and Mrs. Finis Taylor.

DEN 6—Pack 156

Den 6 held their weekly meeting Thursday, Jan. 22nd. The boys made wolf, bear and lion molds and plaques to put on the den. The den also made two similar plaques which were smaller than the other plaques, and put stain and varnish over mahogany wood. The first plaques were to put the molds on, the second for the Cub Scout name and the third for the arrows that the cub scouts earned.

Mrs. H. F. Cook, Den Mother. Floyd Tuttle, Keeper of the Buckskin

DEN THREE, PACK 155

The Cub Scouts of Den 3 pack 155 met at Mrs. Blacks home Tuesday, Jan. 20th for a regular meeting. First we worked on a den yell, then we checked our books.

John Page, Keeper of the Buckskin

SP4 ARNOLD W. OLIVER COMMENDED OUTSTANDING SOLDIER, FT. LEWIS, WASH.

SP4 Arnold W. Oliver, US 25 866 312 Hq. Co. 35th Engineer Bat. Fort Lewis, Washington

As you are about to depart active duty and return to your home and civilian occupation I wish to take this opportunity to express my thanks and appreciation for a job well done.

Our Army is made up in a large part of men like yourself who have been called upon to serve only a short time and too often the case is one of only marking time until discharge. This definitely has been so in your case. You have many times demonstrated the willingness to put in the extra bit that goes to make a better soldier, unit and Army. You demonstrated your willingness and superior ability while a member of Co. C. of this Battalion, the 116th Engineer Group and the 4th Infantry Div. to become the Post Soldier of the month and the only one to gain that honor since the 35th has been on this post.

The fine results of the Annual IG inspection on administration that has just finished are due in large part to your efforts.

It has come to my attention that you have been considering taking part in some active reserve program. I sincerely hope you give this serious consideration. Even though the material reward may not seem high, I believe you would gain a great self satisfaction in knowing that through the training and information you received through an active reserve program you would be an even more reliable soldier in the event of a recall than you are now.

What ever you do I'm sure you will put forth the effort to make a success. It has been a pleasure having you in my command and again thanks for a job well done.

James G. Peura, Capt., CE Commanding
