Deserving Family Needs Assistance

It was brought to our attention this week that there is a very deserving family here that needs financial assistance at the present time. This family has a five months old baby who had brain surgery this week at the W. I. Cook Memorial Hospital for children in Ft. Worth.

Surgery of this kind is very expensive besides the hospital bill which is $100.00 a week. The father has not been steadily employed up until just two months ago and now he only makes a small salary. The family has Blue Cross insurance but did not have it long enough to pay for this surgery.

If anyone would like to make a contribution for this family, they may contact Mrs. Curley Bryant, Phone JO 9-2809, East College Street.

News From The County Agent

The need for summer temporary pastures is greater than usual because winter pastures gave so little grazing and because of the dry spring, says B. T. Haws, county agent.

Haws said summer temporary pastures are our most dependable source of summer grazing. They permit resting permanent pastures and give better quality grazing than permanent pastures.

For your temporary pastures Haws recommends Sudan grass or Sorghum alnum. Sorghum alnum has a larger stalk than sudan and is non-sweet. It gives more grazing in midsummer to fall than sudan but may give trouble from prussic acid. It will likely act as an annual when grazed heavily.

You can plant after danger of frost is past. You should plant in 36 to 42 inch rows to get the longest grazing period. Stock will not trample row planting as badly as drilled plantings.

The planting rate per acre for 36 to 42 inch rows is Sudan, 7-10 pounds, and Sorghum alnum 3 to 5 lbs. Stagger plantings at two to four week intervals to prevent all being ready to graze at the same time, suggests Haws. Put fertilizer down in a band as needed before or at the time of planting. A soil test is the best way to determine your soil needs, he says.

Sliding For Home

How to dramatize in a graphic way the distance required to stop a moving vehicle has been a problem with safety experts. Here is an idea suggested by researchers for the Murine Co.: Supposing a pitcher in a baseball park was summoned from the center field bull pen 400 ft. from home plate. He climbed into a car, used to bring in relief pitchers, and the driver gunned the car so that it was going 60 miles per hour as it passed the center fielder 300 feet out from the plate. At that moment the driver decided to jam on the brakes and he pressed hard on the brake pedal all the way home. Did he stop at the plate? No, he did not. The car traveled 60 feet between the time the driver thought of applying the brakes and his pushing down the pedal. It would require another 300 feet to stop the car if it were traveling on dry pavement. On the grass, who knows? But under the conditions related above, the car would surely plow into the screen behind home plate.

Former CAP Cadet Chas. R. Dean, Class of 1961 at the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colo., told Air Force officials, "I recommend CAP cadet training as a preparatory school for future pilots or other phases of Air Force career." It is also interesting to note that eighty-eight per cent of all former cadets enrolled in the Academy, graduate and this is the highest average of any youth group.

The Wichita Falls squadron of the CAP welcomes all interested young people to come to Sheppard Field on Tuesday nights at 7:30 at Ave. I and 2nd Street.

LIONS CLUB

Town Hall Each Tuesday 7:30 P. M.

Bill Wood was introduced as a Baby Lion.

James Pearson, in charge of the program had as the guest speaker, Chief of Police Homer Provence. The police officer brought a very earnest and sincere talk on Youth Problems in Burkburnett, and how citizens could aid the Police Department in coping with the problem. Provence stated the Department was inadequately equipped and short of men, but City Commissioners are trying to solve the problem. The Chief was very insistent that all citizens, including teenagers, observe the speed limits of 15 miles per hour around the schools. He intimated that a get tough policy will be inaugurated if necessary to control traffic near the schools.

Provence enlightened the group on what can be done with teenagers who break the law. Contrary to the belief of some, underage offenders CAN be put in jail. Furthermore, teenager can not make bond and be released from jail as can adults. The talk impressed those present that they, too, had a responsibility in helping enforce the law.

Next week J. M. Patterson will bring the program.

Oil Depletion Discussed At Burk Meeting

By STAN SHELTON State Editor

BURKBURNETT, Texas—Economic loss to the state and nation as a result of declining oil production and the favorable effect the oil depletion allowance has on the industry were aired at a meeting here Monday.

Jack D. Egloff, with the accounting firm of Peat Marwick, Mitchell and Co. of Dallas, told members of the North Texas Southern Oklahoma Development Association, they must work to keep the present depletion allowance.

"Deadline of oil production has cost the Texas economy 1.6 million dollars per day and a loss in taxes to the state of $22 million annually," Egloff told the group.

Egloff said the oil depletion allowance is responsible for spurring the search for new reservoirs of oil.

"No other worthy system or counter program has been proposed," he said, "and if we are to keep the present system, we must urge everyone to work in that direction."

Hamilton Speaks

Following Egloff's talk, W. B. Hamilton, Wichita Falls oilman and rancher, told the group of his experiences during the Burkburnett oil boom days. Hamilton said obtaining supplies was the main problem during the boom.

"I once saw a mule down in the mud in downtown Burkburnett," Hamilton said.

During the business session of the meeting, J. W. Martin, president, called a meeting of the water committee of the NTSO ADA for 2:30 p. m. Thursday in Wichita Falls.

Discussion was held on a bill creating the Red River Valley Water Authority, now pending in the state legislature, and the group discussed endorsement of a $460,000 appropriation to the U. S. Health Service for a study of water pollution in the Red River watershed.

Also during the morning session Glenn MaGeek of Waurika reported on the Red River Valley Association meeting held last month at Shreveport and John Crow of Electra gave a report on the possibility of publishing a new area industrial brochure.

"Magic Barrel" Presented. R. W. Mannin and John Medder, both with Haliburton Oil Well Cementing Co. of Duncan, Okla., presented the "Magic Barrel," a demonstration designed to show many of the hundreds of products made from petroleum products.

The program here Monday was jointly presented for the NTSO ADA by the Oklahoma Petroleum Council and the Oil Information Committee of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association.

Next meeting of the Association will be held in Grandfield, Okla., in May.

FIGHTING EVERYBODY'S BATTLE

No one is the victim of more loose talk than the farmer. If you listen to one group you may be convinced that he is an abused, down trodden second class citizen whose day is done—unless and until he is rescued by something called Socialism that was a flop in America 350 years ago. And in the view of others he's the robber-baron of the space age.

The great American farmer (and he is great as is demonstrated by the fact that he is the world's most efficient producer) is merely an upstanding citizen who likes living on the land and enjoys his elbow room and a larger measure of independence than his fellows in town. He'd rather have a root cellar and shelves loaded with preserves than a delicatessen on the corner. But he is no isolationist since he understands full well his country's position of leadership in the free world.

As exemplified by the more than a million and a half farmers and their families who are members of the American Farm Bureau Federation, the farmer is as anxious as anyone to see the end of crop surpluses and to see subsidies reduced to the level of emergency allowances. He has made it clear through statements of Farm Bureau leaders that he is ready and willing to bear his share of the adjustments that must be made and will continue to press Congress for legislation that will ultimately free him from production allotments and government controls in general.

Unless Congressmen know it now, they will have to learn the hard way that the farmer believes as firmly in the law of supply and demand as in the laws of Nature that cause seeds to sprout and flourish, or to wither and die; and that he is up in arms over inflation, which has caught him (as well as the rest of us) in that price cost squeeze and demanding a balanced Federal budget as the first and foremost roadblock. He wants no lavish spending on such programs as artificial respiration for "depressed areas", urban renewal, public housing and fancy terminal building for airports.

Farm belt legislators should know from their Easter visit home as well as from their mail, the farmer's concern over inflation, and further spending of what we haven't got. But we "city folks" should not leave the fight to the farmers. We should all pitch in with letters to Washington.

WHERE WILL IT STOP?

For every gallon of gasoline your car consumes you now pay state and Federal taxes that average more than 40% of the retail price, less tax. Yet Congress is being asked to increase the Federal tax on gasoline from 3c to 4c. In addition to this, various states seek to increase their gas taxes.

Proponents of the increase argue that it is needed to prevent deficit from developing in the Federal Highway Trust Fund set up in 1956, to finance the network of interstate highway now under construction. The fact is there would be no deficit whatsoever in the Highway Trust Fund if Federal automotive taxes already being collected from vehicle owners were not being used to subsidize other governmental functions. In fiscal 1958, 42c out of every dollar in Federal automotive taxes went into the general fund of the Treasury instead of the Highway Trust Fund. These diverted automotive taxes would be more than sufficient to make up any anticipated deficits in the highway program.

The combined national average of state and Federal taxes on a gallon of gasoline now amount to 80% of refinery prices, 54% of the tank wagon price, and 41% of the retail price, less tax. Any further increase is unjustifiable.

BUT WHO WILL BOSS BERLIN?

"The need, as we reach for a lasting peace with Justice," President Eisenhower told the 10th anniversary meeting of NATO, "is the abandonment of the Communist purpose of world domination." This is a thought that has needed expression for all of NATO's ten years, but we can't think of a more unimpressive unemphatic, completely ho-hum way of putting it. Nor can NATO preen itself for resisting the Reds when it failed to secure the Hungarian victory after the freedom fighters had won it.

We do not think that Comrade Khrushchev is yet pacing the Kremlin in the small hours and muttering to himself "Curses! The jig is up!"

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

TICONDEROGA, N. Y. SENTINEL: "It is high time that our legislators turned away from the blind mice status and openly admit what they and we all know—that there will always be gambling and lotteries, albeit hidden. Great Britain permits lotteries, do we consider then, that the British people are generally immoral? And do we honestly believe that because we do not permit lotteries that we have higher principles than those who

HOW BOUT THAT

DON'T LIKE US ABROAD

FROM THE HOUSTON CHRONICLE

Two men who have spent considerable time abroad told Houston audiences recently that the United States is disliked in other countries and that the sentiment is growing. Other well-informed persons have made similar statements. With the world situation as precarious as it is, certainly the time is past due for the United States to make the "agonizing reappraisal" of foreign policy which Secretary of State John Foster Dulles talked about four years ago.

Brig. Gen. Bonner Fellers, wartime aide to Gen. Douglas MacArthur, said at a Sons of the American Revolution banquet here that the United States is becoming one of the most disliked nations on earth. He said the foreign aid program, which has cost American taxpayers nearly $70,000,000,000, is largely responsible for our unpopularity. He contended that we can't buy friends with money.

There is much to be said for the argument that our foreign aid program has appealed to the greed, rather than to the minds of other peoples. Communism, on the other hand, appeals to the mind, with glowing but false promises for the improvement of human lives.

Bias Gibler, teacher of humanities at the Catholic University of Caracas, Venezuela, said in an interview in Houston that the United States is tolerated, but disliked, throughout Latin America. Gibler, a native of Houston who has spent much of his life in Latin America, said that Latin Americans may like individual Americans, but dislike the nation as a whole.

This anti-Americanism has erupted in Bolivia, Columbia, Venezuela, Cuba and other Latin American nations. It would be foolish to dismiss it as having been inspired by Communists. Perhaps Communists did take advantage of a situation, but there had to be an anti-American feeling present for them to exploit.

It is serious when we fail to have solidarity in our own hemisphere. As The Chronicle has stated editorially a number of times, the United States should stress in its foreign policy not a "big brother" attitude toward Latin America, but a sincere program of understanding, mutually beneficial trade and technical assistance where it is sought and welcomed.

Watch Those Back Roads

On those Sunday afternoon drives during the summer months, try some of the by-ways instead of the highways, for leisurely driving out of nerve jangling traffic. The scenic country routes make very pleasurable tours when you are just out for a drive. Be careful at all times, however, and keep your eyes open for cars darting out of side roads and driveways. Sometimes people who use the little traveled roads grow careless because they are not used to much traffic past their homes.

B. T. Haws, county agent says that late spring is the best time to use chemicals for mesquite control. For single stem plants, they recommend 1-3 pound of 2, 4, 5-T; 1-2 gallon of diesel oil and enough water to make 3 gallons of spray solution per acre. For multiple stem and sprouts and regrowth spraying, increase the 2, 4, 5-T to 1-2 pound. Aerial application is recommended with swaths no more than 60 ft. on single stem growth and no more than 42 feet for multiple stem, sprouts and regrowth.

Recent rains have improved agricultural prospects and will also cause a step-up in the tempo of farm and ranch activities. "Haste can make waste" reminds the Texas Farm and Ranch safety council, and suggests that all possible care be exercised so that human and other assets do not become waste due to an accident.

Cleo Played It Cool

Cleopatra, famous lady of the Nile, is said to be the first woman to wear sun protection for the eyes. This took the form of bamboo eyeshades set in emeralds, according to researchers for the Murine Company. It was probably a forerunner of modern sun glasses, but it indicates that eye care has been important for a long time.

Gov. Daniel Backs H. B. 32 Property Bill

Governor Price Daniel today issued the following statement: I congratulate those who fought so long and hard for endorsement of HB 32, the Abandoned Property Bill, in the House of Representatives.

This was and will continue to be one of the greatest fights for the people and for the State in recent legislative history.

As far as I am concerned, I have never felt stronger about the justice of any fight except the tidelands battle, and it is with the same spirit and determination that I shall fight for this money which belongs to the State under our present law of escheat.

The money covered by this bill is now being used free by banks, pipeline companies and other holders of funds which have had no known owners for seven years or longer. It does not belong to them. It should be reported and advertised so it will go to the rightful owners if they exist, or to the state in accordance with our present law of escheat, Article 3272, VCS.

In addition to free use of the money, many national banks are eating up and converting these funds to their own use through monthly service charges, despite the fact that these accounts are dormant and no checks whatever are being written on them.

The fact that similar bills have been adopted in 36 states and are recommended by the American Bar Association and the Council of State Governments should be proof enough that this bill is fair and proper legislation.

This bill would bring at least $20 million into the State Treasury each year of the next biennium.

If it is defeated, the final effect will be an additional $25 million in taxes imposed upon the people just so some of the banks can continue to use the money free and devour it thru monthly service charges.

I suggest that every member of the Legislature who is called by an officer or attorney or a national bank and asked to vote against this bill should ask in turn how much of this money the bank is converting to its ownership thru monthly service charges on these dormant accounts.

If the ugly word of "steal" spoken by opponents yesterday is to be used in this fight, it would apply more properly to banks which know they hold money that belongs to unknown heirs or to the State under present laws but which they are gradually gobbling up through service charges. And all this while rendering no services but using the money interest free.

If that is what opponents of this bill call proper protection of funds of unknown depositors, and the funds which would go to the State after seven years if there are no owners, then it is the type of protection which should be outlawed in this State just as has been done in 36 other States.

Under this bill, abandoned funds delivered to the State would be advertised and if any owners turn up at any time, they can get their money. If, as the opponents of the bill suggest, the property should be escheated through court or by changing the bill to straight escheat any rightful owners appearing later would never get their property back.

I wish every person in Texas could have heard the attorney for the Texas Bankers Association testify in the hearing on this bill that he would not object if the bill provided for outright escheat, whereby all rights of depositors would be cut off after deposit with the State.

That testimony shows that the selfish interests and lobbyists who are putting pressure against this bill are not interested in their depositors as much as they are interested in defeating the bill so they can continue to use

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" By C. WILSON HARDER

According to all official estimates, the Federal government will have a deficit in the 1959 fiscal year of $12 billion.

Since World War II only one year has the deficit been higher, and that was in 1946 when the war costs had not yet been stopped.

In fact, the 1959 deficit promises to be at least 20% higher than the deficit in peak year of Korean War.

This situation has prompted government on several occasions recently to caution business to hold a price line. Part of these statements are due to the fact that the value of the dollar, in terms of what it will buy, has shrunk from a little over 71 cents in 1946 to 48 cents in 1958.

Yet, in all these official pronouncements, no mention is made of the fact that taxes have been the greatest factor in the devaluation of the dollar.

It is more than of passing significance that the dollar was at its highest value in 1946, the year the foreign give away programs started, and that every year since then, as the tills along the nation's Main Street have been tapped for more than $50 billion to throw away around the world, the value of the dollar has constantly declined.

It still seems obvious that you can't rob Peter to pay Paul.

While as it is argued, it may be to the American interests to have everybody fat, sassy and happy, 170,000,000 Americans cannot provide Utopia for almost 3 billion people and remain solvent.

© National Federation of Independent Business

And while it may be true that if the U. S. taxpayers provide flush toilets to every Hindu family, the Indians may have a happier outlook on life, it does not necessarily follow that unless after 6,000 years or so, they have modern plumbing all of a sudden, they are going to go communist.

And every dollar diverted to such high-sounding projects just reduces by that much the capital needed to start, or expand fresh American independent enterprise.

The nationwide membership of the National Federation of Independent Business has on several occasions gone on record as favoring the ending of the foreign give away programs.

These expressions have not been based on a lack of knowledge of the poverty existing in many parts of the world.

But as businessmen, they know that no family, no business, no nation, can long survive on a system whereby continuously more is spent than is taken in.

And as businessmen, they also know that even if they are running in the red at the present, if they take a plan to the bank showing how they plan to get back into the black again in the near future, they will get sympathetic interest and attention.

In addition, as evidenced by the current news, 12 years of paying blackmail have done little to insure peace and security.

Instead, judging by recent events at the North Pole, it appears American security rests with men of ingenuity and courage such as Admiral Rickover, supported by the resources of a free enterprise system, rather than relying on prevailing whims of some desert Bedouin.

this money free until it has been completely converted to their ownership thru service charges.

Another thing Texans should know is that under the national banking laws, if these abandoned accounts have not been turned over to the State under a law of this nature, they are divided up among the creditors and stockholders in the event a national bank goes into liquidation.

Again I say the big question is: Shall the people of Texas be taxed $25 million just so the banks, pipeline companies and other holders can use this money free?

I say "no" and I hope a majority of the House and Senate will say "no." But this may very well depend upon what people at home do about this matter. Those who favor this legislation should express their sentiments just as strongly as the powerful opponents are doing thru telegraph, telephone and letters.

The pressure is great every hour from these interests, and the people should rally behind and support those members of the Legislature who are fighting for what rightfully belong to our state.

I want to acknowledge, and hope every news media will carry this acknowledgement, that the opposition by banks is not unanimous. In fact, I have heard from more who are unselfish enough to recognize the justice of the measure and who do not oppose it. It is a fight strictly of a selfish few who have led others to oppose the bill who do not know its purpose or terms. Neither have I heard any opposition expressed from any pipeline or oil company except Phillips Petroleum.

The Wichita County Home Demonstration club women will join HD club women from all over the nation, in observing National Home Demonstration Week, April 26-May 2nd. This is the time, HD club women wish to tell the nation of their many and varied accomplishments.

As a county celebration, The Wichita County women will have a luncheon, Thursday, April 30, in the First Methodist church in Iowa Park. Each club will report on their observance of the week. Mr. Earl Sargent, Farm Director for station KWFT in Wichita Falls, will be the guest speaker. Members of the commissioners court, legislators, representatives of the radio and press will be special guests.

According to Thelma Wirges, county HD agent, home demonstration clubs center their work on better methods of homemaking. Their study includes such things as clothing, foods and nutrition, home management, homestead improvement and organization. These things will form the theme for some 14 educational exhibits. These exhibits will be put in each town in the county, during National Home Demonstration Week. Look for the exhibit in your community.

Other methods of observing this special week will be seen as each of the 14 HD clubs have special meetings. Honor outstanding members, have special news articles and take part in special radio programs. Mr. Glenn Shelton and Mr. Earl Sargent have given special radio time for this the Fourteenth National Home Demonstration week. Mrs. V. C. Lamb, chairman of the Wichita County HD Council will represent the council, Officers and members of the radio programs. The council has 33 members and serves as the connecting link between all the clubs in the county. Other officers are Mesdames, T. C. Barwise, Raymond Krull, A. L. Dowden.

During this week, special recognition is given to demonstrators. These demonstrators establish goals, with the help of the county HD agent, and then work toward their completion. At this time 28 demonstrators have established goals for kitchen improvement, foods and nutrition and landscape improvement. Mrs. Gale Lowrance landscape demonstrator, will represent the group of demonstrators on the radio programs.

HD clubs depend on their own members to serve as leaders. Over 75 women are serving as leaders in subject matter and organization. These leaders are trained by the agent and in turn teach others will represent the radio HD and in practical THDA change the state women week.

Mesdames Ralph Huggins kin served to plan the demonstration.

Get Stuck-- Not Struck

By Jeanne Smith, Dodge Safety Consultant

USE CARE and caution when you stop your car along the highway during winter—or else you'll invite a rear-end collision.

This warning comes from the Institute for Safer Living which suggests "risk getting stuck instead of struck!"

Many motorists, who must stop to change a tire, clean windshields or adjust a tire chain, are reluctant to pull off the road, say Institute officials. They fear getting stuck in banked snow or soft shoulders.

What they forget, when they stop in traffic lanes, is that visibility is now at its worst and slippery road surfaces make it nearly impossible for oncoming traffic to make emergency stops or quick shifts in direction.

If you must stop, the Institute's safety advice is wait until you can pull entirely off the road, out of the line of traffic. Then be sure to use only the right hand door for getting in and out of your car and, at night, always leave your headlights on!

The story of

WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE and The Church Bell

"I don't need to advertise," an established merchant in Kansas once told William Allen White, renowned publisher of The Emporia Gazette. "Everybody knows me and knows what I sell."

"In that event," replied the thoughtful publisher, "we can dispense with the oldest advertising medium for the oldest institution in the world. See that church down the street," continued Mr. White, pointing to one of Emporia's oldest and most beautiful structures, "That church has been established here for many years. Everyone knows what it is and what it does. In the tower of the church is a bell and every Sunday it rings out to remind folks to come to church.

"Shoppers go where they are invited and stay where they are well treated," concluded the publisher.

"Regardless of how well established a firm may be, newspaper advertising is a repeated invitation and a reminder to come and do business with that store."

Building a Bridge

We drive across a bridge spanning a rushing river and seldom think about what has made it possible for us to do so. Yet, years ago, someone dreamed of the bridge, some engineer drew up the plans, some builder constructed it.

So, too, someone dreamed of the churches in our community. Architects planned them. We use them. Worship in your church at least once a week. Let your church dispel your fears. Let your church strengthen you for the experiences of life. Remember—for all your needs—the Answer Is God. Worship Him . . . in church every week . . . at home every day.

OUR BABY

(By Nolandene Walker Arndt in memory of their baby who died recently).

She was the light of our lives,
Our dream of perfection.
We loved her so much,
From the day of conception.

We wanted to keep her,
Our needs to satisfy.
But God had his reason,
We cannot question why.

We wanted to see her
With red hair flying,
With dark eyes smiling
and sweet lips sighing.

We wanted to hear her tell us her cares,
Tell us "I Love You,"
Saying her prayers.

We wanted to give her
The things of this life.
Unfailing health,
Joy without strife.

She wanted our loving care
And we did our best.
She wanted to live,
But God gave her rest.

God wanted her with him
To give direction.
She was the light of our lives,
Our dream of perfection.

Why Electric Cooking is ACCURATE

An electric range cooks with accurately controlled and measured heat. Whether you're cooking on surface units or in the oven, you just set the controls for the heat you want and you get exactly the same even heat every time. There's no guesswork . . . no need for constant oven peeking and pot-watching.

Only an electric oven can be installed including the bottom, for economical and accurate heat control. Since it needs no flow of air into and out of the oven while it is in operation, heat is retained in the oven and the temperature remains throughout the cooking operation. This gives you uniformly excellent results.

Electric cooking also is clean, fast, cool and economical. Select your new electric range now and enjoy all these benefits . . . at an average cost of only about 3c a meal for electricity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ave C was the reunion and reunion held Sunday in memory of Mrs. Stegall's Mrs. Rita Taylor, now

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor of Tipton and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dunn of Randlett were unable to attend.

Reaction Time

The time it takes for your eyes to flash a warning signal to your brain, then for your brain to transmit the signal to the part of the body that must act, upon the signal, plus the time required to complete the action, is known as "reaction time." Stated this way, it may seem like a long time. It can be an awful moment in an emergency. Tests indicated that reaction time among motorists (in applying brakes) varies from as little as three-quarters of a second to as much as one and a half seconds.

Check Those Glasses

A recent survey by the Murine Company indicated that 80 percent of the people interviewed who wear glasses are placing an abnormal burden on their eyes, because the glasses were so dirty or dusty they put a strain on the eyes.

STATE CAPITAL
Highlights
AND Sidelights
by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

With just about three weeks left in the regular session, legislators will be under much pressure to do many things and do them fast.
Each day that passes without agreement on financial matters heightens the possibility of a special session as soon as this one ends.
Many measures will be trampled under or pushed aside until '61. But as Speaker Waggoner Carr told the House, the problem of raising some new money won't go away. It has to be faced.

No Easy Way Out—
Like every other tax proposal made this session, the huge "something for everybody" omnibus tax bill recommended by the House Tax Committee brought howls of protest.
It would raise an estimated $151,000,000 a year by raising some old taxes and placing new taxes on hundreds of items.

Tabbed for increases are natural gas, motor vehicles, cigarettes, liquor, wine, beer licenses.
New targets include hotel rooms, restaurant meals, cigars, chewing tobacco, snuff, aircraft, and auto parts, dozens of luxury items (jewelry, furs, cameras, watches, silver, etc.) radio and TV parts, business machines, commercial rentals, club dues, construction materials, dance studios, reducing salons. Officially, the bill is known as the Tax Committee substitutes for HB 727. Unofficially, it's called a lot of other things.
House members showed no more eagerness to rally behind this broad based approach than they had for Gov. Price Daniel's less "spread out" plan.

Give Little, Take Little—
Two appropriations bills of varying sizes have been passed by the House and Senate. Differences will be adjusted by a conference committee of members from the two houses.
Both bills call for spending nearly $2,500,000,000 during the next two years. House bill is slightly larger. It calls for approximately $333,000,000 from general revenue. Senate would spend only $307,000,000 in general revenue.

To satisfy both houses, the conference committee will try to reach a compromise between these two figures. However it's worked out, it's already clear that spending will considerably exceed the $281,000,000 spent from general fund for 1958-59.

Rough Sledding—
Gov. Daniel's "abandoned property act" barely squeaked by its first test on the House floor by a 71-69 vote. Measure would allow the state to take over money and property unclaimed for seven years or more. Estimates of how much it would bring in immediately range from $20,000,000 to $50,000,000.

Many bankers fear such a law would cause people to be afraid to put their money in banks and decide to stick it in a sock instead.
Backers of the measure say the banks and other businesses are holding and getting the benefit of property that does not belong to them, should be used to benefit all the people.

Co-op Bill Shunted Aside—
A bill to allow rural electric coops more "elbow room" has been sent to the Attorney Gen. for an opinion. Rep. Alonzo Jamieson, Denton, sponsor, protested to the House State Affairs Committee that this would kill the bill. This late in the session, delay is usually fatal. Highly controversial, the bill would allow coops to add new customers after the area of their lines is annexed to a city.

Advertising Bill Advances—
A state financed advertising program for Texas moved close to final enactment despite heated opposition from an advertising man in the Senate. Proposed bill would create the Texas Development Board to supervise tourist advertising by the Highway Dept. and industry advertising by the Texas Industrial Commission.

Sen. George Parkhouse, an advertising man from Dallas, objected, not to the idea of state advertising, but to the way it would be handled. He declared the suggested $100,000 approriation would be wasted. But the bill gained final approval in the Senate and next to final passage in the House.

Fire-Police Bill Gains—
A shorter work week for many city firemen and policemen is near to legislative approval.
Senate has passed the bill finally, and a House Committee has recommended passage.

Bill limits firemen's working hours to 72 in cities of 10,000 to 60,000 population, 63 hours in cities of 60,000 to 125,000 and 60 hrs for all larger than 125,000. Policemen would work the same hours as other city employees. City officials have protested the measure would raise local expenses and aggravate an already acute revenue raising problem.

Texas Derby?—
Not given much chance of passing, but exciting some interest is a proposal to legalize horse racing and betting in Texas.

Rep. Homer Koliba of Columbus introduced the measure which was sent to a House subcommittee. Thoroughbred horse breeders pointed out that legalized pari-mutual betting could bring in a lot of tax money.

Opponents, including Dr. W. R. White, president of Baylor University, charged it would bring on crime, poverty and immorality.

Pari-mutual betting was outlawed in Texas in the thirties but proposals to return it come up frequently, always giving rise to lively legislative debate.

Short Snorts—
A youth vs age battle was abandoned when the House failed to give enough votes to a proposed constitutional amendment to raise minimum age for Senators from 26 to 30, House members from 21 to 25. Opponents countered with a measure to set maximum age for legislators at 60. Guards are needed by the Texas Dept. of Corrections, according to Director O. B. Ellis. Men interested in permanent employment should contact J. F. Heard, assistant director in charge of business and custody, Box 32, Huntsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Fite and children of Dallas visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Chambers, over the weekend.

Monroe Ridings Mrs. Inez Thorp Married Recently

Announcement has been made of the recent marriage of Mr. Monroe Ridings, son of Mrs. Ollie Ridings and the late Mr. Ridings of Devol, and Mrs. Inez Thorp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Stubbs of Seminole, Okla. The nuptials were performed in the First Presbyterian church, Grandfield, Okla. by Rev. Campbell Long. The couple was attended by Mrs. Ruth Thompson, Burkburnett and J. V. Landers, Devol, Okla.

The bride was attired in a blue nylon lace dress with a portrait neckline. Her jewelry consisted of a blue sapphire pin, a gift from her great grandmother. She wore white accessories and a white orchid corsage.
Mrs. Thompson also wore a dress of blue with white accessories and a yellow orchid corsage.

The bride is a member of a pioneer Oklahoma family.

Mr. Ridings is a brother of Mrs. Joe Burns and an uncle of Mrs. Johnny Larson of Burk.

Seen and Not Hurt

Children should be seen and not hurt is another way of reminding motorists to use their eyes to prevent tragedy. Spring and summer release children from indoors and often turn sidewalks into playgrounds. A child at play has no thought of safety. It's up to the driver to be alert to save a child who dashes blindly into a street from becoming a twisted traffic victim.

Co-op Bill Shunted Aside—
A bill to allow rural electric coops more "elbow room" has been sent to the Attorney Gen. for an opinion. Rep. Alonzo Jamieson, Denton, sponsor, protested to the House State Affairs Committee that this would kill the bill. This late in the session, delay is usually fatal. Highly controversial, the bill would allow coops to add new customers after the area of their lines is annexed to a city.

Advertising Bill Advances—
A state financed advertising program for Texas moved close to final enactment despite heated opposition from an advertising man in the Senate. Proposed bill would create the Texas Development Board to supervise tourist advertising by the Highway Dept. and industry advertising by the Texas Industrial Commission.

Sen. George Parkhouse, an advertising man from Dallas, objected, not to the idea of state advertising, but to the way it would be handled. He declared the suggested $100,000 appro-

Power Mowers Are Handy... But Dangerous

"For a boy, the power mower is probably the smartest thing to appear on the American scene since Tom Sawyer finagled his friends to pay him for white washing Aunt Polly's fence. J. O. Musick general manager of the Texas Safety Association, made the above statement today as he cautioned Texans to take "extra care" when using power mowers, edgers and clippers.

"Handy as the mechanization of lawn tools may be, they also have at least one disadvantage; that is that they can be extremely dangerous when handled by an inexperienced or careless worker," he said. Musick stated that one study of power mower accidents revealed that one injury in every seven results in a permanent disability; that 70 percent of injuries came about through direct contact with the mower; and that 30 percent were caused by shrapnel like objects thrown from mowers.

"This, of course, does not mean that we should condemn all power lawn tools," Musick said. It means that the operator must be aware of the tool's inherent dangers and know how to counteract them.

The safety expert offered the following safety suggestions as an aid to reducing hazards when working with power lawn equipment:

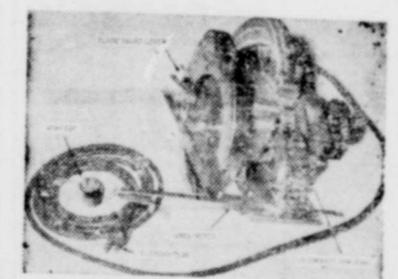

Never permit small children to operate any kind of power mower, edger or clipper. Know how to throw tool out

A Service Of The Thor Research Center For Better Farm Living

Many persons shy away from the portable electric saw (the kind with the circular blade) because they don't know how to use it properly. Actually, for any kind of remodeling or new construction job around the home or farm, there isn't a handier tool—for this portable saw will cut through existing floors, walls and ceilings as well as through new wood.

If you observe a few simple rules for proper use of a portable saw, you not only won't shy away from it—you'll use it more and more every week. For with it, you can make miter, bevel, dado, plunge, and straight cuts, both in ripping and crosscutting jobs.

Portable electric saw handiest construction tool.

Quality portable saws are equipped with a calibrated quadrant for tilting the saw blade at angles up to 45 degrees. This tilting is easily accomplished by loosening a wing nut and tilting the saw shoe to the proper angle, then tightening the nut.

Be sure the power plug is grounded—either with a three-prong plug or an adaptor with grounding wire attached to the outlet screw—and be sure to grasp the saw handle behind the switch. Hold the saw firmly during all cutting. There's no need to look under the saw to watch the line of cut—the guide notch in the front shoe of the saw serves this purpose.

Adjust the blade so it protrudes only 1/16-inch through the wood to reduce heat and blade friction. When setting up plunge or dado cuts, move the blade guard out of the way by means of its lever. And be sure to use the right blade for the cutting job you're doing. Happy sawing!

(If you have any questions about the use of power tools or other workshop projects, send them to the Thor Research Center, Marenco, Ill. They will be answered by letter and in this column.)

of gear quickly. Know how to stop engine or motor immediately, and never leave the tool unattended when running.

Allow for gas expansion when filling tank and be sure engine is turned off and cool before refueling. Always refuel out of doors. Use approved fuels and store them in safe containers. Clear yard of debris before mowing; i. e., sticks, bones, rocks, etc.

When starting a mower, maintain your balance and have solid footing. Do not allow pets, children or other bystanders near mower during operation. This will prevent their injury by objects thrown from the mower blades.

If using electric equipment, be sure motor is grounded and wiring is in perfect condition. Never mow or clip when grass and shrubs are wet. Maintain firm control of mower. Mow hills sideways, not up and down. Disconnect spark plug, or electric plug, before working on power tool parts or while oiling. Always keep hands and loose clothing away from blades or other moving parts.

Be afraid of all power mowers and other tools, you are not as apt to become careless.

Keep Your Head After Accident

By Martha Johnson Dodge Safety Consultant

REMEMBER these important rules if you're ever involved in a traffic mishap:

Notify police or highway patrol. Don't panic. Keep calm. It will help set the pattern for others involved.

Give first aid to the injured. Don't move them. If your car can be moved, drive it off the highway, but don't leave the scene.

Exchange name and address, license number and name of insurance company with the other driver.

Get names and addresses of witnesses. Make notes of pertinent details that may be useful later.

Don't admit liability to anyone. Don't sign anything. Leave it to the legal authorities to decide who is at fault.

When released by the police, have your car towed to a garage if repairs are necessary. Call your insurance company and give them the facts.
