Films to Be Shown Next Tuesday On Lions Club Children's Camp

The Texas Lions Camp for Crippled Children at Kerrville, Texas, will be the program subject of Walter H. Coleman, guest speaker of Wichita Falls, when the Burk Burnett Lions Club holds its regular meeting at 7:00 P. M. Tuesday, Nov. 17 in the Town Hall.

The Lions of Texas have set aside November in honor of the camp, which has allowed 4,284 handicapped youngsters to enjoy the thrill of camping life since it was opened in 1953.

The camp is free to the blind and mute, deaf and crippled children of Texas between the age of 7 and 16. Growing steadily, the camp now has 16 permanent buildings perched on the brow of a hill and valued at $600,000. Each summer for two weeks, 720 youngsters learn to swim, camp outdoors under the stars and develop new skills by learning various handicrafts.

Originally, the camp was in use only in the summer. Now it is being used the year around. During the other months, the camp serves as a training center for the adult blind—one of the thirteen recognized centers of its kind in the nation.

Applications to the summer camp are handled only by local Lions Clubs.

The films, taken at the camp, will be shown at 7:30. Any one interested in seeing them is invited by the local Lions members.

SPORTS BITS

By NORMAN WILSON

Friday night, the Burk Burnett Bulldogs journey to Wise County for an encounter with the Decatur Eagles. The game, which is of no consequence as far as the championship is concerned, will be a battle for third place. The Eagles, coached by Bill Lalicker, have the best team in the last 20 years. In fact, it has been exactly 20 years since the Eagles annexed a district championship.

Inexperience has been one of the biggest problems for the Eagles this year, having only 4 seniors and 5 juniors on a squad that numbers 26 boys. Inexperience not withstanding, the Eagles have proven that they are able to hold their own with the best. They played Bowie to a standstill before bowing 22-16. Olney beat them 22-6. It should be evident then what the Bulldogs are up against. In the backfield big Ronnie Elliott is the man to watch. He is one of the leading scorers in the district, with 118 points. He runs very hard from his fullback position. Backing up Elliott, Butch Shaw at 195 and David Burton form the rest of the Eagle triumvirate that gives their opponents the most trouble.

In the line, Orville Conway and Coley Holmes provide a lot of the heft that has made the Eagle line tough to run through this year. They weigh 185 and 195 respectively. Duane Lasater, Mike Manning and Royce Simpson make it even tougher to make rushing yardage. Manning incidentally is one of the fastest men on the entire Eagle squad, even though he tips the scales at a hefty 230. Rounding out the men up front, Cecil Wood and Travis King play a lot of end. It might be noteworthy that the Lowly Jacksboro Tigers scored 22 points on the boys from the county seat of Wise before losing 46-22.

The Bulldogs are expected to be at full strength for the Decatur game. Carlos Ramsey came off the bench against Jacksboro to give the Bulldogs a hand in the linebacking department. It wasn't thought that Carlos would be ready. Tommy Six, another of the Bulldogs stalwarts in the line, also played a fine game from his tackle post, and Mike Hilburn gave his usual fine performance. All three boys are starters and were not expected to be ready for the game. Larry Elliott, another of the injured Bulldogs is not expected to be able to play for the rest of the season. Larry had a shoulder dislocated in the Bowie game and has had his arm in a sling for the past two weeks.

Lee Coleman, somewhat of a slow comer this year, played his best game of the year against Jacksboro. Lee, though rather small as football players go, ran with the determination of a 200 pounder. It will be a big temptation for some of the fans to stop off in Bowie for the Bowie-Olney clash. In fact, this writer has heard remarks that many were going to develop car trouble about the time they pull into Bowie. But remember that the Decatur game is just as important to the Bulldogs as any of the rest of the games. Let's go all the way and give them the support they need.

"Content" Adds Years

After 100 years of living, Mrs. Addie Tedrick says she is convinced the world is just as good now as it was the day she was born.

Mrs. Tedrick, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Otis McDow, 215 E. Park in Oklahoma City, passed her 100th birthday Monday, Sept. 7th.

She credited her long life to "being content with my lot. No matter what position I was in, I have always made the best of it," Mrs. Tedrick said.

Born in Bloomfield, Mo. in 1859, Mrs. Tedrick vaguely recalls the latter Civil War years. Though she admitted she was too young to recall many events during the war, she did recall northern soldiers ransacking her home on several occasions.

She remembers too, her father's death during the Civil War. The most important thing in her life, Mrs. Tedrick admitted, is her family. Her daughter is the only survivor in the immediate family. Three sons and her husband have preceded her in death.

The greatest blessing, admits Mrs. Tedrick, is having a long and full life.

She advises younger persons to accept what is ahead and don't worry.

She has been a life long member of the Methodist church, most of that time as a member of St. Luke's Methodist church in Oklahoma City.

She moved to Oklahoma City in about 1915. We came here at the same time they were building the state capitol building, she explained.

Reflecting on her younger days in Missouri, Mrs. Tedrick vividly recalls the day she had to give up driving her horse and buggy. A car came up behind the buggy and the horse became frightened. "The horse just couldn't get used to cars," she added.

Besides being a member of St. Luke's Methodist Church, she is a life member of the Women's Circle, and a member of the war Mothers Club.

Besides her daughter, there are five grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

As to the future, Mrs. Tedrick sticks to her advice against worrying. She says simply that everything will "go along as I would want it to do."

Besides raising four children of her own, she raised two nieces and a foster son, the late Louis Cashwheeler of Burk Burnett.

Scout Workers Urged to Speed Prospect Cards

Floyd Marten, chairman of the Boy Scout annual fund raising campaign, urges captains and workers to get their prospect cards worked just as soon as possible and turn them in. Collections may be left at the Texas Electric Service Co. office for deposit in the bank.

The first workers to report have shown good results. With the large number of solicitors helping on the drive, a sizeable amount should be raised before the campaign is finished.

Workers who have not had time to work their cards, or who could not make their contacts for any reason, are asked to turn in the cards so that other works can process them.

Fulbright Attitude Insult To America

Sen. William Fulbright (D. Ark.) seems to believe that the American people do not have sense enough to think for themselves & should never dare question the wisdom of their betters. Fulbright's attitude is an insult to the intelligence of the American people.

In a speech prepared for delivery on the senate floor during the foreign aid bill debate this week, Fulbright denounced the authors of the best-selling "The Ugly American," which paints a dismal picture of our foreign aid operations abroad.

Said Fulbright: "The mischief of 'The Ugly American' is that it caters to the parochialism and the frustration of the American people. A perfectly natural reaction to reading the book—a reaction which is greatly encouraged by such things as the President's veto of the public works bill—is to ask why we must build dams abroad when we cannot build them at home."

Louis XIV of France, Sun-King absolute and author of the historic "I am the state," could not have done better.

So the people are parochial—the pedant's diplomatic synonym for isolationist—because they are sick of having heavy taxes squeezed from them and squandered abroad. If they could see where the foreign aid has done any good they might be willing to sacrifice to maintain the program, but the average citizen knows that Communists have made their greatest gains while our foreign aid program has been at its peak. Look at Laos today. We have poured millions into the country, Congress itself has uncovered the scandalous way much of the money was misused and now the Communists are taking over Laos. This is the type of mirage Sen. Fulbright wants the American people to chase.

The senator said it is fallacious to ask about the dams at home. "We are rich enough to have both," he said. Hasn't the senator heard about the $290,000,000 national debt, or doesn't he care?

He said if our foreign policy fails, we will have to build missiles, not dams at home. Can the senator show that foreign aid has accomplished enough good to justify the expenditures? He starts with a mighty obstacle. How can he explain away the fact that while we were pouring out $70,000,000,000 in foreign aid the number of people brought under the Communist yoke has increased from two-hundred thousand to 1 million?

Unfortunately, the Fulbright attitude is all too prevalent in Washington. He is correct in saying that the American people are frustrated; it is people like Fulbright who have done the frustrating.

As for his attack on "The Ugly American," he apparently is advocating censorship to keep the people from finding out what representatives abroad are doing. Wouldn't he be rendering a greater service to the people if he devoted his energies to cleaning up the mess?

What Did We Get For Laos's Aid

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D. Mont.) asked the question in the Senate Monday which thousands of Americans have asked:

"How is it, that after spending $250,000,000 on aid in Laos, including the training of 250,000 regular troops and 16,000 militia, 2400 to 4000 Communist troops can undermine the defense of the entire country?"

How, indeed? In the absence of a detailed answer from the proper authorities—an answer we are not likely to get any time soon—one can supply his own, based on what he has read of aid to Laos and to other nations.

First, much perhaps most of the money was wasted in various ways. Much of it probably went into official pockets, graft being an old story throughout Southeast Asia and being not exactly unknown elsewhere.

Second, $250,000,000 in aid to that tiny country of somewhere near 1,700,000 people is too much for the country's economy. It could not help but cause inflation and consequent suffering and unrest.

Third, we apparently have had too many people in little Laos administering aid. The "hundreds" that Mansfield mentions, living on a standard so much above the native level, have generated envy and resentment on the part of the people who can see little tangible benefit from the aid they are distributing.

Fourth, the efficiency of the military training missions in Laos is severely indicted by the fact that the 25,000 regulars and 16,000 militiamen they have trained cannot cope with a small fraction of their number of irregulars augmented by some trained soldiers from North Viet Nam.

If 41,000 men cannot handle 2400 to 4,000 rebels and invaders the will to fight must not be there. And if Laos won't help herself perhaps nothing we or our Allies could do would help her enough.

As Mansfield told the Senate, the Laotian crisis raises grave questions about the entire foreign aid program and the administration of foreign policy. How are we to know that there has not been waste and inefficient aid to other countries as well?

The American people want no white-washing of the foreign aid program such as Sen. Fulbright of Arkansas attempted Sunday. They want efficiency in the operation, and a drastic reduction of the cost.

Speaking of Laos, the Russians, who have used the veto 87 times in the security council, got a surprise Tuesday. The 10 other members voted that the Western proposal to send a fact-finding subcommittee to Laos was a procedural and not a substantive matter. Under security council rules, the Russians "no" vote does not amount to a veto.

When the four nation subcommittee, Argentina, Italy, Japan and Tunisia reports its findings, Russia no doubt will veto a resolution declaring North Viet Nam an aggressor.

But at least, the security council has discovered that it can put the facts before the world and Russia can't stop that action with a veto.

"Temporary" Gas Tax Increase

Since Oct. 1st., when the increased federal gasoline tax went into effect, total gas taxes have just about doubled the price the motorist pays for his fuel. In other words, combined state and federal gas taxes come to approximately 50% of gasoline's cost to the consumer.

The higher federal tax is called temporary. The law provides that it will expire in 1961. But our experience with "temporary" tax laws of this kind has been a sorry one. "Temporary" periods have been extended again and again. To all intents and purposes they have become permanent.

Now the president of one of our oil companies makes an important proposal. He calls upon the petroleum industry to "start right now—to prepare for the hard fight we will inevitably face in 1961, when the 'temporary' tax is due to expire." He adds: We owe it to our customers to keep the temporary tax temporary.

This proposal will surely have the wholehearted support of all gasoline-using citizens, which means practically all of us. The gas tax, remember, is a sales tax, which is paid entirely by the consumer. The oil companies simply act as tax collectors for the states and the federal government. And even though gasoline is an absolute necessity, it is now taxed much more heavily than most of the absolute luxuries, including mink coats & diamonds.

Mrs. Leslie Finnell Guest Speaker Of University Club

The University Study club met in the home of Mrs. A. W. Newman. Mrs. Lewis Brocker was hostess.

Lovely fall flowers decorated the house.

Mrs. A. W. Newman, vice president, had charge of the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. E. R. Burns. During the business session, names were drawn for exchange of gifts for the Christmas party. A gift box will be taken to the State Hospital at Christmas.

Mrs. S. S. Reger, program leader, announced the program.

Mrs. B. N. Cauthorn, Federation counselor, brought a topic, Count Your Blessings. Mrs. O. E. Melton presented Mrs. Leslie Finnell of Holliday, Tex., who reviewed the book, The Ugly American. She quoted, "When Homer Atkins, American engineer was assigned to the U. S. Foreign aid program in Southeast Asia, he found that the high flow language of the conference tables was not for him. It was Jeppo, a native mechanic from the backwoods of Sarkhan, who spoke his language." In the world of bolts and nuts, pistons and leathers and good black grease, these two understood each other. This brief, deeply human chapter from The Ugly American, is the account of what they achieved together and how Homer's devoted wife, Emma, carved her own lasting place in the affections of the villagers. It is a little story but its message is big. This was wonderfully given by Mrs. Finnell and our club says thanks for being with us.

A nice refreshment plate was served to the following: Mesdames Bill Crosley, Luke Warren, Blake Browning, B. N. Cauthorn, I. N. Witherspoon, S. S. Reger, R. P. Reagan, O. E. Melton, Joy Sessums, A. R. Buntine, A. W. Newman, Lewis Brocker and visitor, Mrs. Leslie Finnell.

One Million Man Hours Without Lost Time Injury

Some 563 employees of Lone Star Gas Company's West Texas distribution region, with headquarters in Abilene, completed one million man hours without a lost time injury during the 10 months period between Dec. 6, 1958 and Oct. 16, 1959.

Their achievement marks the first time in Company history that a major field distribution unit has attained such a record. It also marks the seventh million hour record by individual units in the Company's 50 years three of them held by districts within the West Texas region.

The region comprises 108 towns in 15 districts. Three of these, Vernon, San Angelo and Abilene have also completed one million hour safety records on their own with Abilene already boasting more than 1 1/2 million.

What does it take to reach that million mark? Planned safety and diligent effort on the part of supervisors and employees, says the men who directed this particular project.

The results proved effective not only in accident prevention but also in other phases of work. While making its safety goal, the region as a whole also increased in efficiency and economy of operation.

They will be recommended for both Southern Gas Association and American Gas Association awards.

Bowie Clips Burk 35-0 Friday Night

The Burk Burnett Bulldogs looked like a team inspired for a brief moment Friday night, but eventually bowed to the strong Bowie Jackrabbits 35-0. The Jackrabbits led by the running of Glen Chokas and Jerry Miller fumbled in the first quarter after taking the kickoff. The Bulldogs drove to the Bowie 5, but were unable to penetrate the tough Bowie line and the ball went over on downs. The Rabbits scored late in the first quarter on a jump pass from Jerry Cantwell to Jerry Miller. The try for conversion was no good.

From then on it was Bowie's ball game all the way. In the 2nd quarter, it was Chokas going over the middle of the Burk line for the score from the 7. Weir attempted to kick the extra points but it was blocked. The next score came with 37 seconds left in the first half which indicates that the Bulldogs didn't give up with out a fight. Halftime score 12-0.

The scoring started in earnest in the second half, with a Cantwell to Bradfield pass good for the T. D., with Jerry Miller running for the conversion. Cantwell again threw to Miller for the 4th Bowie score, with Tiny Tim Hall running for the next conversion. Bowie got the ball next on a Burk fumble on their own 44 and Cordell carried over from the Burk Burnett 15 with the Jackrabbits moving the ball nicely after the fumble. Dudley Weir, all-district guard and kicking specialist came in and kicked the extra point. Final score, 35-0.

The Bulldogs were not without its heroes though. Tommy Six played an outstanding game in both offense and defense before being helped from the field just before the half. He was unable to return for the rest of the game, which definitely had a bearing on the outcome of the game.

Rotary Foundation Week Nov. 15-21 To Be Observed Here

Burkburnett Rotarians will join nearly half a million Rotarians in 114 countries next week for a special observance of "The Rotary Foundation Week," it was announced today by Floyd Marten, president of the Rotary club.

The Rotary Foundation seeks to promote understanding and friendly relations between the peoples of different nations. Its major activity is granting Rotary Foundation Fellowships for International Understanding to outstanding graduate students for one year of study abroad as Rotary Ambassadors of good will.

Since this program was established in 1947, as a memorial to Paul P. Harris, the founder of Rotary, 1,199 young men and women from 67 countries have received Rotary Foundation Fellowships for study in 44 countries, with grants averaging over $2,500. Total grants by The Rotary Foundation for this activity now exceed $3,000,000.

Rotary Fellowships are unique in that, with more than 10,300 Rotary clubs throughout the world, the students is in direct contact with Rotarians and their families wherever he is studying. He attends their Rotary club meetings, visits in their homes and places of business, and travels as much as possible during his school holidays. In this way, he sees how the people in his host country live and he lays the foundation for increased international understanding, which is one of Rotary's principal objectives.

Forum Study Club Enters Community Achievement Contest

The Forum Study club this week received acknowledgement from Washington, D. C. of its official entry in the 1959-1960 Community Achievement Contest, co-sponsored by the General Federation of Women's clubs and the Sears Roebuck Foundation.

The club will compete with thousands of other federated women's clubs throughout the country for $65,000 in prizes, including a top national prize of $10,000. All cash awards won by clubs must be spent for the benefit of the community, according to contest rules.

The contest is an incentive for all GFWC Women's clubs to provide leadership in meeting community needs. It places great emphasis on working with the community, through cooperation with local civic, governmental and social groups in all phases of planning and executing community projects.

In the last contest, completed in June, 1958, 5,500 women's clubs reported successful action to meet local community needs, with achievements including improved education, health and recreation facilities, formation of community councils and many others.

As the basis for judging, every club must submit a written report by March 1, 1960, detailing its community achievement between the dates of June 1, 1958 and June 1, 1960.

Mrs. B. H. Preston, Jr., is Community Achievement Contest chairman for the Forum Study club.

What Do You Know About Bread?

In recent years much has been said and written about bread, particularly by food faddists, and much of it is false. Here are some questions and answers to set the record straight. They present facts obtained from authoritative sources.

Does bread belong in the reducing diet?—Definitely. Almost all professionally prescribed reducing diets include bread. It is a food for energy and health and supplies vitamins and minerals necessary for proper nutrition.

Is white bread low in nutrition?—No. Any elements lost in milling are replaced through the enrichment process. Because of enrichment with essential vitamins, white bread is equal in nutritional value with whole wheat bread, according to leading authorities.

Is Bread Important In A balanced diet?—The United States Department of Agriculture in developing the "seven basic food groups" essential to a balanced diet gives bread a prominent place.

The contribution of enriched white bread to the nutritional health of America was well summed up by Dr. W. W. Bauer, Director of Health Education for the American Medical Association. "Recent years have seen a remarkable improvement in the nutritional health of Americans," Dr. Bauer said. "Much of this improvement has been credited to the enrichment of white bread, that tasty, beautifully textured bread on every table in America at every meal. Before this enrichment, nutritional deficiencies were widespread among our people. Today, physicians do not see them any more.

Is bread a good calcium source?—Yes. Bread is second only to milk among common foods as a source of calcium, the mineral so vital for bone strength and so valuable to general well being.

Do Growing Children Need Bread?—Yes. They need it for its calcium; for its tissue-building protein; for its important vitamins and minerals. Children's frequent requests for bread are a natural expression of this need for their bodies.

Is Bread A Good Food Bargain?—Yes. At current prices, ten cents worth of bread daily supplies about one third of the daily needs for protein, one-fourth of an office worker's daily calorie needs, a good percentage of the daily requirements of thiamine, riboflavin, niacin and iron, and traces of other vitamins and minerals. How Does Today's Bread Compare With The Bread Grandma Made?—The one big advantage of grandma's bread was that you could smell it baking. But bread baked at home did not provide as much nutrition as modern baker's bread. Today's loaf contains more milk, more vitamins, more shortening and yeast, and more calcium and iron.

YOUR NEW Social Security

Three moves are worse than a fire, according to an old saying, but one move can lead to trouble for people getting social security checks, unless they notify the social security office of their new address.

Seeing that each of the 13 million people on social security in the country get their checks on time is a very important part of our job. Erton F. Tate, manager of the Wichita Falls, Texas District Office states, and it can be made easier if we get prompt notices of a change of address.

If you move after you start getting social security benefits, you should notify the Social Security Administration either in person or by mail, Tate said. Beneficiaries were given post-cards for this purpose when they filed their claims, and additional cards are available at the local office at 421 Post Office Bldg. in Wichita Falls, Texas.

"If we get the notice early in a month," Tate stated, "the next month's check can be sent to the new address with little or no delay."

Area Farm Census Questionnaires In Mail for Farmers

Questionnaires for the 1959 Census of Agriculture are now in the hands of local farmers within a few days, it was announced today by Field Director James W. Stroud of the Census Bureau's regional office at Dallas.

The farm census questionnaires are being mailed from Chicago, Ill., with the distribution timed so that the report forms will reach farmers about a week ahead of the date when census takers will begin the field census. The advance mailing is for the purpose of giving farm operators time to consult their records before filling in the answers required by the questionnaires and getting them ready for the census takers to pick up. This procedure is designed to insure greater accuracy of reporting and to save time both for the farmer and the census taker when the latter calls at the farm.

The 1969 Census of Agriculture questionnaire is designed to provide information on the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock production and inventories, selected farm facilities and equipment, selected farm expenditures, farm values and mortgage debt. On the average, each farmer is asked about 100 questions, many of which can be answered by simply checking "yes" or "no".
