CITY HALL

News and Notes

By Clovis D. Mann
City Manager

A surprise fire drill for the High School was held Wednesday, Oct. 13. High School was completely emptied in 2 minutes and Hardin Grade School in one minute. The primary school responded in record time. Nice going.

Complaints are being received that certain people are forgetting that Ave. F from N. Cottonwood and E. College, going south is a one way street. Also that speed limits on Ave. D in front of the school is 15 miles per hour. Police, please take note.

Engineering studies are now being made to determine the most feasible method to drain water from our city. Many ditches need to be opened or cleared out, but the water must have some place to go other than in some other neighbor's yard. The water Dept. and Street Dept. boys have been working day and night in doing everything they can to alleviate the more serious conditions—that is, if they can be alleviated. We ask for your patience. Engineering studies must be completed before a solution can be determined.

$562.50 was collected in fines during the month of September.

No fire runs were made during the past week.

Tax collections are coming in good. Incidentally, City Tax office is now in new quarters, located in the new, remodeled office at the Fire Station.

Chester Howard, resigned as Fire Maintenance man effective Oct. 31st. Mr. Jerry Kemp of Burkburnett has been employed to fill that position beginning Nov. 1st.

Receipts for the quarter ending Oct. 14, 1960 were $14,032.67 and for the three quarters of the year just completed $35,119.57 as against $31,110.58 for the same period in 1959, a gain of $4,008.99. Population is estimated to have increased in the city since the Census count, according to the number of electric meters that are in operation.

Texas Department Of Public Safety

The Highway Patrol investigated 17 rural accidents in Wichita County during the month of September, according to Sergeant F. E. Webster, Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks have accounted for no persons killed, 8 injured, and a property damage of $6,455.00.

This brings the total for the year in this county to 5 persons killed, 83 injured and a property damage of $70,703.00.

"Darkness hides danger," Sergeant Webster said. That is the reason traffic accidents increase during October's shorter days and longer nights. At sundown, long shadows and fading light make it increasingly difficult for drivers to spot traffic hazards and stop in time. Make it a habit to turn on your driving lights at the first hint of dusk and always use them properly.

With winter approaching, it is important that all owners of automobiles have their cars safety inspected at one of the approved inspection stations to determine that all parts are in top condition," the Sergeant stated.

True - If

Last year U. S. insurance company holdings of public utility bonds reached a total of $16.5 billion. That was more than double the 1947 figure. An analysis showed that 55% of the huge 1959 investment was in securities of light and power companies, with the remainder made up of gas utilities, natural gas pipelines, communications and so on.

Thus, a very important proportion of the assets that stand back of the millions of life insurance policies in force in this country depend on the future of electric utilities. The investments were made because the life insurance executives in charge were and are confident that these utilities constitute a stable and progressive industry, with a bright, expanding future. And there is no doubt that is true - if!

The "if" concerns the perennial efforts to socialize the utility business, and to turn it into a government monopoly. As of now, something like 20% of the electric power produced in this nation is socialized power. If the socialists and those who follow the socialized doctrine under other labels have their way, the proportion will ultimately reach 100%. And then the taxpaying, dividend-paying, interest-paying industry will be no more.

It's impossible to believe the American people want this. It would establish a rock-hard precedent for the socialization of other taxpaying enterprises, for the destruction of freedom, and for the ever tightening dictatorship that is an inevitable part of monolithic government. But organized minorities, which the socialized power groups are, have defeated unorganized majorities on many an occasion. Here's an urgent case where vigilance is truly the price of liberty.

Primrose Path To Perdition

Fifty years ago Woodrow Wilson said: "The history of liberty is the history of the limitation of government power not the increase of it."

If that statement is true—and it's pretty difficult, if not downright impossible, to refute, the American people are losing more and more of their liberty with every passing day. For the history of our country for the past quarter century has been a continuous record of increased governmental power.

This trend toward "centralism," or reliance upon the Federal Government to solve all domestic and local problems, is dangerous. It's a threat to defense, to national economic well being, as well as to states rights and individual liberty.

The most serious consequence to centralism is one which has received little attention. It is the diversion of the time and energy of Federal officials, the President, his administrative officers, and the Congress, into so many byways of purpose that efficient discharge of those duties and functions which ONLY the Federal Government can carry out has suffered.

Today the President and his advisors spend a vast amount of time and effort on a thousand and one issues, ranging from tobacco and wheat plantings to juvenile delinquency; from college curricula to community sewage problem. The talents and capacities for competent national leadership are available and should be conserved for that purpose, not frittered away on matters that are not genuine Federal business.

The extent to which national leadership has been dissipated since the Federal Government has become involved in every detail of the life and work of its citizens is detailed in a new study just released by the National Association of Manufacturers. Entitled "The Primrose Path of Centralism", the study urges the American people to "bring government back home", that is, see to it that community, county and state governments assume their rightful responsibilities and leave to the Federal Government only those functions which it alone can properly perform.

The need of the nation, as the study points out, is growth of the private economy, not growth of the Government. Government growth impedes economic growth.

TV And The Printed Word

Competition for shares of the advertising dollar gets tougher all the time. Television has seen to that. Television people have, on occasion, attempted to sell the idea that their media is a far more effective way of interesting the potential consumer than any other way—including newspapers. So a survey made in Richmond, Virginia, is of unusual interest.

Editor and Publisher reports: "An independent research organization found that of more than 41,000 telephone calls only about one-fifth of them had the TV set turned on. Of that number 81% were able to identify the program turned on but 71% could not name any sponsor or product or type of product being advertised on that program. And even if the respondent said 'soap' instead of giving a brand name it was counted as sponsor identification, which seems like to us like leaning over backward to be fair."

No—the printed word isn't obsolete yet!

AUTUMN

By R. D. LANEY

In the early 80's at which time I was just a sprout of a kid, it was my want to roam at will in the environs of Morris and Cass counties located in the wooded area of East Texas. The tall stately pines arising majestically above the surrounding forest was something to look at. Moaning sounds of a foreboding nature, would be produced when gusts of wind caressed the dense foliage of the tall pines, being just the usual phenomena produced by nature in the still forest.

Following the many streams prevalent near my home with a can of fish bait in one hand, a fishing pole in the other, followed by a rabbit chasing mut, I made the best of a situation now seldom enjoyed by the kids living in this day and time. All of which produces fond memories of the many happy boyhood days spent by me in that beautiful wooded area of East Texas.

It is good that one is spared to live to an advanced age and to be able to remember such frivolous things of our boyhood days such as exploring a singing stream dancing in the summer sun, watching the billowy clouds lazily across an azure sky listening to the chatter of squirrels, the songs of birds and the communion with nature, observing all of God's creatures & marveling at his handiwork. The big white clouds would make mottled patterns on the hills & the water and in the clear running streams I would watch the fish worrying at the bait.

The arrival of autumn in those days was a welcome event and animated by the changes made in nature's handiwork. There were no forecasts predicted by the Government of things to come and sudden changes came without warning and which some times produced much discomfort as well as property loss to these areas affected.

The arrival of autumn was manifested then as now when nature slows down and begins to relax, the growing season ceases and the countryside prepares the groundwork for nature's spectacle, the panorama of autumn coloration. The deep green foliage burst into red and bright yellows, interspersed with scarlet gold and brown.

In my days the arrival of Autumn was an unpredictable event, arriving sometimes almost shyly, there being no sudden transition, just a growing awareness, blessed with crisp nights, the heavens studded with myriads of twinkling stars and an unbelievably silver and mellow moon, followed with bone-warming balmy noons. Frequently the first winter's touch caused by an early freeze would not let autumn's color remain in evidence for long. But a long and beautiful fall was usually in the offering, with the leaves lingering on the trees and shrubs because of the gentleness of the forest.

Ever and anon or at least once a year the calendar reminds me that autumn is in the offing. All autumns for a greater part of my life meant nothing to me, but just happened along as a factor in cooperation with the calendar and to keep it in balance with the seasons. But as I grow older and note the regularity of the changing season, the coming of autumn slips upon me with an unawareness not anticipated, but it is never the less a welcomed event not as an intruder but rather a delightful relief from the long summer heat. So many new things appear to delight me as the appearance of autumn advances and becomes a reality.

Unity Club Welcomes 3 New Members At October 12th Meeting

Mesdames Kenneth Catlege, C. L. Simmons and John G. Lauer were welcomed as new members in the Unity Garden club at the meeting Wednesday, Oct. 12th in the home of Mrs. Troy Miller. Mrs. Neal Hall was co-hostess.

Mrs. A. L. Gilbow and Mrs. B. T. Maben were instructors for the Junior Unity Garden club Tuesday, Oct. 11th. Mrs. Gilbow reported. The study was on shrub identification. They studied the plants in Mrs. Gilbow's garden and those in Mrs. Carl Morrison's garden. Both women gave the girls cuttings to be rooted and planted in their own gardens.

Mrs. W. B. Short, librarian reported 13 books, 3 club histories and a handbook in the library. They are catalogued and ready for use. Among the books are Easy Guide to Color for Flower Arrangers; A Joy of Gardening by V. Sackville West; The Book of Birds, which is a study of birds in their native haunts; and an encyclopedia of fruit, berries and nuts and how to grow them by Albert E. Wilkinson, and others. Mrs. J. D. Riddle reported on the meeting of the Council of Garden Clubs where plans for aiding in the Christmas Ideas Tea at the Woman's Forum in Wichita Falls were discussed. This tea is to be held Dec. 8th from 2:00 to 4:00 p. m. One of the exhibits the Unity Garden club plans for this show will be a table of a variety of Christmas trees.

Since gardens of the various members are not up to par in horticultural specimens, the club voted to not have the fall placement flower show that had been planned for Nov. 3rd in the home of Mrs. R. C. Gilbow.

Names of new roses were given in answer to roll call. Many gave the rose type, the color, the hybridizer and showed a colored picture of the rose named.

Mrs. Roy T. Magers gave a talk on growing roses. She stressed now is the time for planting. Buy plants with strong root systems. Use plenty of peat moss and well rooted manure worked in with the soil in a place where drainage is good. Keep well watered. Feed with any good fertilizer. The gardener may make his own inexpensively buy using & mixing 8 lbs cottonseed meal, 8 lbs fish meal, 2 lbs epsom salts, 2 lbs iron sulphate, 2 lbs soil sulphur.

Showing and Judging Roses was discussed by Mrs. B. T. Maben, Sr., with Mrs. A. L. Gilbow demonstrating the points she presented. Tea and hybrid tea roses should be disbudded of extra buds for show purposes. This should be done as early as possible and very neatly and expertly. The five points considered in judging roses are form, shape of bloom & arrangement of petals; substance, firmness & crispness of petals; color, clear tones; stem and foliage, healthy and in proportion to size of flower; size, normal and perfect in preference to large size.

Mrs. A. L. Gilbow presented a paper for Mrs. T. J. Campbell who was called away. The paper was arranging Roses. She said it was well to keep a variety of containers in order to have one that harmonizes with the roses. The flowers should be one and one half times as tall as the container with the dark ones at the lower center. Pictures showing various types of arrangements for roses were passed among the members.

The Lone Star Gardeners were passed out. A delicious refreshment plate of chicken salad sandwiches, Yeager Torte and coffee were served.

Those present were Mesdames Kenneth Catlege, C. L. Simmons, John G. Lauer, B. H. Alexander, Sr., T. J. Campbell, A. L. Gilbow, R. C. Gilbow, H. C. Gilbert, Roy T. Magers, B. T. Maben, Sr., O. E. Melton, Clyde Peed, J. D. Riddle, Paul Schroeder, W. B. Short, J. S. Vanderburg, Troy Mills and the hostesses Mesdames Neal Hall and Troy J. Miller.

The meeting for Nov. 9th will feature Mrs. Carl Morrison as guest speaker. The theme for the meeting is Key to Garden Design. Mrs. Morrison is a graduate of schools One and Two of Landscape Design at A and M College and is a very capable speaker.

H. L. RICE

WRITE-IN CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY TREASURER

In previous ads we probably have said plenty about cronic office seekers.

Speaking of salaries of deputies, I spent 8 years in your County Tax office at about 30 per cent of what the deputy in the Treasurer's office draws now, $13,200.00 for 8 years work.

I don't make this statement to gain your sympathy but to keep others from making a race on sympathy.

If the party who has been deputy in the Treasurer's office should be elected to the office on Nov. 8, the combined salaries of husband and wife would be near $18,000.00 per year. Nuf-Sed.

My granddaughter has composed a verse which sounds like a pledge. I would like you to clip this ad and attach to your voting receipt and have at the polls.

Here's a Story I shall relate
I shall rise early November 8
I'll cast my vote for H. L. Rice
Because I think he's very nice
And if he doesn't win the race
He'll take his medicine with no hate.

THANKS

The Opportunity Frontier OF TEXAS

SHE'S ONE IN A MILLION IN

450 MILES LONG
120 MILES WIDE
RICH IN RESOURCES

In fact, she's one of the 1,127,650 citizens served by the Texas Electric Service Company in THE OPPORTUNITY FRONTIER OF TEXAS—America's most exciting growth market today.

Here is a land rich in resources. The area's more than $1-billion annual production of oil and natural gas brings basic prosperity. Cattle ranches, cotton and chemicals, gypsum and grain sorghum, packing and canning, automotive, aircraft and electronics—all contribute to the growth future of THE OPPORTUNITY FRONTIER, much of which is served by Texas Electric Service Company.

But the greatest asset of all is the area-building Texans with their energy and buying power. Within the past 20 years, population in our service area has tripled. And there's room for a lot more. Economic progress has been equally impressive. For example, in the past 12 years retail sales in the area have nearly doubled.

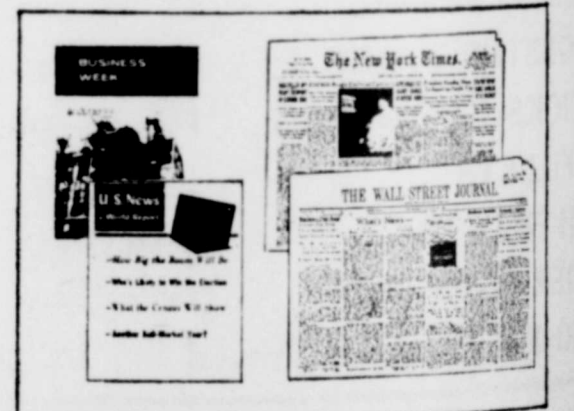

Genial climate, rich soil, mineral wealth—THE OPPORTUNITY FRONTIER OF TEXAS has these natural advantages—plus water, excellent transportation, and a cooperative, friendly Texas attitude toward industry.

If reaching a growing market is in your future plans, consider a site for a new plant, warehouse or branch office in THE OPPORTUNITY FRONTIER OF TEXAS.

Our Area Development Department will gladly supply plant site information to fit your specific needs.

WE'RE TELLING THEM ABOUT THIS MILLION-MAN MARKET

Among the readers of the ad reproduced at left will be company board chairmen, presidents, executive vice-presidents, and general managers throughout the nation. These are the men who decide where to build new plants or relocate... where to establish important branch offices or key warehouses.

To these executives we are telling the facts about THE OPPORTUNITY FRONTIER OF TEXAS—its industries, its growth, its people, its natural advantages.

Your electric service company has scheduled this advertisement in Business Week and U.S. News & World Report in The New York Times and Wall Street Journal. This is an investment in area progress.

We are doing this because each new business or industry added will benefit us all. It will bring new customers to THE OPPORTUNITY FRONTIER OF TEXAS. It will bring added tax revenues. It will bring new job opportunities.

Vanderburg Game Birds

Vanderburg, a retired employee, who with his wife lives about 3 miles west of Burk Burnett, is an expert on raising and raising of game birds, Ring-necked pheasants and Redlegs.

"Sandy" as he is known to his many friends, holds the record for raising and raising of game birds and is an authority in this country. He says that the pheasants that he raises are easier to handle but both are raised in captivity and handled very carefully to insure they do not injure themselves.

hatching period is over by about the middle of May.

The birds reach frying size, about one to one three-fourths pounds in about sixteen weeks and from five to six months or more make good bakers. A fully matured male bird will dress out to about three pounds or more and the female about two pounds.

Chuker Quail a somewhat smaller bird and unlike the pheasant, hatch and raise their own young quite readily in captivity. They are a native bird of Asia and not so widely known in this country but no less interesting. Sandy says they are very good layers and nest on the ground. Last Spring one little chuker hen sat on 18 eggs, hatched 15 and raised 14 to eating size.

Both pheasants and chukers are very heavily feathered and stand a lot of very cold weather without much protection and neither do they seem to be affected by the heat.

Vanderburg says he gets much pleasure from his hobby and could if he wished, sell the products of his work for a handsome figure but he says he enjoys it far about price, the pleasure of giving a pheasant or chuker Quail feed for his friends on occasions. The birds are always dressed out and put in the deep freeze when they reach the proper eating stages.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Northcott and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bailey and Floyd Wayne were Sunday visitors at the State Fair in Dallas.

Constitutional Amendment No. 2

By GEORGE MOFFETT

Four proposed Amendments to the Texas Constitution will be on the bottom of the ballot in the November General Election this year. All of them are important, and Amendment No. 2 is of special importance to Veterans of World War II. The State Constitution sets out what the Legislature and other State officials can and cannot do. It is the source of power and authority by which Public Officials, including the Legislature and other State officials, carry out their duties. The only way by which the Constitution may be changed is by placing a proposed Amendment before the people for their approval or disapproval. This is usually done by putting the Amendment on the ballot at the General Election every two years.

Amendment No. 2 this year is necessary to carry out the Veterans' Land Program, which has already been approved three times by a vote of the people of this state. The need for Amendment No. 2 comes about because when the previous votes were taken, the interest rate on Veterans' Bonds was placed at not more than 3%. Interest rates over the Nation have increased so that the bonds which pay only 3% cannot be sold. Investors can buy other bonds which now pay a higher interest rate. Therefore, in order that the last group of Veterans Bonds may be sold, it is necessary that the interest rate on these bonds be raised to 3 1/2% annually, otherwise, the Veterans' Land Program will come to a halt. This is all that is involved in Amendment No. 2 on the ballot this year.

It is proper to state at this time that no Texas taxpayer has ever had to dig up one penny out of his pocket for the Veterans' Land Program, and will not do so in the future. This is true in spite of the veterans' Land scandals which occurred about five years ago. Most of the money was recovered from those who defaulted at that time. The small amount which has not been recovered will be taken care of by a small surplus in the Veterans Land Fund. This surplus comes about because the Veteran pays a little bit more on the loans which they receive from the State than the interest which the State pays on the bonds which it sells to get the money to lend to Veterans. This surplus will take care of any defaults past, present or future, and the taxpayer will never be out anything on account of the Veterans' Land Program. Therefore, it is earnestly hoped that the people will approve Amendment No. 2, so that the Veterans' Land Program can continue to its final conclusion about four years from now.

Current Literature Club Met In L. O. Campbell Home

"The 69th Annual GFWC Convention in Washington in June at the Sheraton Park Hotel was a thrilling and inspirational experience," Mrs. Ralph White said in her talk, "Mrs. Texas Goes to Washington," when the Current Literature Club met in the home of Mrs. L. O. Campbell Thursday, with Mrs. Sandy Vanderburg as co-hostess.

"Salute to Women," honoring seven outstanding women in various fields was one of the highlights of the opening banquet. Each honoree was presented with a gold medalion by Miss Chloe Gifford, GFWC President.

Mrs. White reported that several Texans received awards for outstanding work. A citation in crime prevention in Texas was awarded to TFWC, with Mrs. Ben W. Boyd receiving the award.

Mrs. Texas Clubwoman showed colored slides of her trip, and played a recording of the convention, as she talked. She also displayed pictures, news items, and folders of special events. She stated that the decorations throughout were especially colorful and unusual.

"Most problems and issues that arise today are due to the lack of education," Mrs. W. C. Vann said in her talk in "Challenge to Christianity."

For the Future

SAVINGS

Americans take seriously the Boy Scout motto, "Be Prepared." We believe in insurance, Social Security and bank accounts. This person is planning for the future with savings.

There is another way to prepare to meet the future, and that is to learn to trust in Him who gives the future—Eternal God. Unless we learn to trust Him, our earthly security leaves us fearful still. If we learn to trust Him, our fear falls away and vanishes, though we know not what the future will bring, we know Who brings the future. The true preparedness for the future is faith in God.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH IS EVERYONE IN THE FUTURE

Is something wrong with you? —an inner restless dissatisfaction comes only from God and reassurance. Through the church God's revelation of His forgiveness and redemption love. Without a relation to God, everyone should be in the church and the church should be in everyone!

McDonald Student Scholarship Test

Burkburnett has been honored for performance on the National Merit Scholarship (NMSQT) given that student who is school receives of Commendation principal and of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. The school's announced that student is: child son of Mr. McDonald of Baker, president Merit Scholarship, stated: commendation are to some 28,000 about the United States of their excellence on the National Merit Scholarship Qualification Test. Bright young men and women reach the status of Merit Scholar in the 1960-61 year. They are so outstanding in their ability to single out to single special attention. Their merit and commendation constitute a percentage of all Merit Scholars, and this percentage is noteworthy. Merit Scholarship recognition of students who scores on the Merit Scholarship Qualification Test is the highest score each state and in United States territories. Some 10,000 semi-finalists will take a second examination in December to establish further their eligibility to receive Merit Scholarships.

"The Letters of Commendation provide tangible recognition of the commended students' high ability," Mr. Stalnaker continued. "It is out earnest hope that the recipients will continue their education and thus benefit not only themselves but also the nation."

"The Merit program has several objectives. One is the selection of Merit Scholars from among the semi-finalists. However, we also strive to foster the pursuit of excellence among all highly able students. We urge the students honored today to make every effort to attend college, and to develop to the fullest their promise of achievement."

The commended students were among the high school juniors in more than 15,000 schools who took the NMSQT last spring. The test is a three-hour examination which covers five separate areas of educational development. It was the first step in the sixth annual Merit Program.

This year's program will conclude about May 1, 1961 with the naming of students who will receive four year Merit Scholarships to the colleges of their choice.

The commended students and the semi-finalists, who do not win Merit Scholarships are considered for certain other scholarships which are offered through the facilities of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. The annual Merit Scholarship competition is open to all high schools in the United States and its territories. Approximately 3-

Mickey Simmons of Burkburnett, Don Rogers, Jack Hill and Charles Robb of Electra, and B. A. Farris, Burkburnett FFA Advisor, attended the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Oct. 10 to 14th.

On Saturday, Oct. 15th, the Burkburnett chapter will attend the State Fair at Dallas. Entering the grass judging contest will be Perry Hoover, Melvin Lindley, Jackie Northrip and Bud Kennedy.
