City Budget Approved May 8

The change over in accounting practices, plus the necessity of the annual audit which was completed in April, were the reasons given for the delay. The auditors not only approved the change, but strongly recommended that the detail accounting procedures be adopted.

The budget, prepared by the City Manager, shows anticipated revenue from all sources to be $345,481. The expenditures are distributed to three major funds, then to various departments and further broken down to detail expenditures within the department.

CITY-WIDE CLEAN-UP SET FOR MONDAY-FRIDAY, MAY 22 - 26

Mayor George McClarty has proclaimed the week of May 22nd as "City Clean-up Week". An all out effort is to be made by city crews and Virgil Aarons Sanitation crews to assist the citizens in eliminating all rubbish, tree limbs and other debris.

Mayor McClarty called on all citizens to cooperate by cleaning up their premises and piling the debris in such a manner that it can easily be hauled by Sanitation crews. Although the City trucks will be put into service to assist Mr. Aarons' crews, it is still a big job to cover the city. All the crews can do is to pick up the rubbish that has been piled up for them.

Vacant lot owners are asked to get their vacant lots mowed and the weeds piled. There will be no extra charge for hauling during "Clean-up Week".

How working couple saves time and steps, gets more done with extension phones

By DON DAVIS,
Telephone News Writer

"My green kitchen phone comes in real handy while dinner is cooking," says Norma Treadway. "I can make and receive calls while keeping an eye on things."

Junna Lynn Treadway, a third-grader, likes the phone in an alcove because she can sit on the floor and talk with friends.

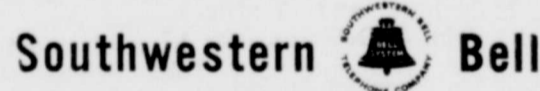

"My favorite phone is the Princess," says Ted Treadway. "The light-up dial's great. Also, the phone's handy for emergency calls."

What can extension telephones do for you? Perhaps you can get some ideas from Ted and Norma Treadway. A working couple, they both take part in a large number of outside activities.

They have three colorful extension phones in their five-room home. These phones save them time and effort and give them more privacy. And the Treadways' bedroom phone gives them a comfortable feeling of security at night.

Why don't you see what extension phones can do for you? Just call the telephone business office or ask any telephone serviceman. Cost is low.

Ask about new Bell Chime. It announces your calls with a pleasant musical tone.

TEXAS WILL HAVE A NEW U.S. SENATOR because

TEXANS WANT . . .

A VOICE AND A VOTE IN WASHINGTON. John Tower has demonstrated that he will stand up and speak up for the Texas viewpoint. He is absolutely free of political obligation to anyone. He has no influence whatsoever with "Lyndon and Mister Sam" . . . they have none with him either!!!

TEXANS DO NOT WANT . . .

A "RUBBER STAMP" FOR THE NEW FRONTIER. In 1957, Blakley voted with Lyndon Johnson 100% of the time and with Jack Kennedy 89% of the time. Last fall he endorsed the Kennedy-Johnson ticket and the socialist platform of the New Frontier. He is clearly a captive of the administration without a voice or a vote of his own.

Humble Introduces New Gasoline And Also New Trademark

Humble Oil and Refining Company has unveiled its new Enco trademark to motorists of Texas and the Southwest. Announcement of the new brand name was made last week.

Enco comes from the company's slogan, "America's Leading Energy Company," adopted after the merger last year of domestic affiliates of Standard Oil Company (New Jersey) into the new Humble Oil and Refining Company.

The new trademark will identify Humble gasolines, motor oils and other products throughout the West, middle West and Southwest. Except in Texas, Enco will also be used in the oval sign identifying service stations selling Humble products. In Texas, service stations will continue to be identified by an oval Humble sign.

By replacing 12 different brand names and four different service station identification signs established before the merger, Enco is expected to end a confusion of brand names among the company's customers as they travel from state to state.

The City of Mud

By R. D. LANEY

I read on the side of a service car,
And my heart gave a fiery thud,
"We are off" it said, "at half past three,
Bound for the 'City of Mud.'
O for an egg, a ripe, ripe egg,
A mellow tomato—or spud,
To fling at the thing
That honks and sings;
"Off to the City of Mud!
"The City of Mud!" Who cares for mud?
Forget it and pick your way—
Think of the snow that covered it all,
The beauty of yesterday,
Think of the bowl of flowing gold
Far 'neath this "City of Mud!"
And if they insist
To dub us this—
It's eggs, or an Irish spud!
— May Terry Gill

Flying sand in spring and summer; mud and slush in fall and winter, marked the seasons in the Burk Burnett land of derricks during the early '20's. The above poem has reference to the Burk Burnett oil boom of 1918 and to the subsequent years that followed in its wake. "The City of Mud" was not a mythical description of the actual conditions which existed at that time.

Sharing with Burk Burnett in the hectic days of 1918, 1919 and 1920, most of which are now termed as "Ghost Towns," were Bradley's Corner, Springtown, Bridgetown and Morgan City. They are concrete evidence of the daring courage, the filthy social conditions of the present and sordid realism of all oil booms.

On several occasions in recent years I have had the opportunity to view a screen production styled "Boom Town," that gave a hint of its glamour, its excitement, its color, but just what did happen during those exciting days, the production was no more than a hint.

The street scenes in the picture partook more of Waggoner City and Newtown, than of Burk Burnett, but they were not exaggerated. They emphasized the mud in a realistic manner, and there was plenty of it in boom-town Burk Burnett.

The anachronism and discrepancies in the screen production was ignored by most of the customers because of the manner in which the story itself held their interest. It wasn't as stories go, anything spectacular. But it came very close, again and again, to the lives of us who lived and survived through the real thing, and came out alive after having suffered the hardships of that exciting episode.

Those of us who remain alive and remember those hectic days of more than 40 years ago, sometime wonder if we did not get rich, and those who did get rich wonder what became of their riches.

There is something fascinating and tragic about those boom time days. They are real gloomy shadows of the past. To those of us who lived there during those wild days, there is still a pall of mystery about it all. Like a gigantic puzzle the memories still challenge the mind. No one seems to figure out just what happened and no one knows all that passed in the night.

Well, the above is all history. Within the past 45 years there has been packed scene upon scene of dramatic history that could not have taken place anywhere else except in this country and in this age. The fertile farming lands and industrious farmers, of whom many are left, were at first and remain a most important factor in its existence.

But it was oil, that gushed from the earth into huge storage tanks and from there into all parts of the world, that gave most to the City of Burk Burnett and exacted the greatest toll.

The world remembers Burk Burnett for its oil which gave wealth and comfort to some, suffering and poverty to others, and without which neither this community nor any other in the entire area could have reached the present stage of development. There are scars to be sure, born of the frenzy which accompanied the huge gusher which lifted the lid from conservation development and paved the way for the historical boom.

Niagara is an Indian word meaning "Thunder of Waters."

Firemen to Sell New Monitor Fire Extinguishers

A new fire extinguisher, weighing only 4 3/4 pounds, will be sold to homes and businesses by the Burk Burnett Volunteer firemen. The new fire extinguisher, called the Monitor has the highest fire killing rating ever awarded by Underwriters Laboratories for an extinguisher of its size. It has the equivalent fire killing power of 8 ordinary hand pump carbon tet units, or a 5 pound capacity carbon dioxide extinguisher. The extinguisher is filled with flame smothering dry chemical which is non toxic, non abrasive; completely safe for gasoline, oil or electrical fires.

The small extinguisher is only 8 inches high and 6 inches wide. It comes complete with mounting brackets, which also serves as a safety device to prevent accidental firing. It is backed by a five year written warranty, the only one provided in the industry. Its compactness makes it handy for the home, automobile or business. The Monitor will sell for $15.95. Refills will also be available from the Fire Department. Proceeds from the sales will be used for fire equipment purchase and maintenance.

Brownie Troop 3 On Imaginary Trip

Brownie Troop 3 went on an imaginary trip around the world during their meeting on May 9th. The Brownies met at the First Christian church where they tasted pecans from the Texas state tree, looked at a picture of a mockingbird, the state bird, and smelled of a bluebonnet, the state flower.

Each Brownie, armed with a Texas flag, bought a ticket and boarded the magic Brownie airplane, piloted by Kay Zimmerman. First stop was the land of flowers and sunshine, our 50th state, Hawaii. A lady dressed in a brightly colored mau mau, greeted the group with shouts of "Aloha" and gave them leis to wear. The group enjoyed learning more about the newest state. After a refreshing drink of pineapple juice, Mrs. Worthington taught the Brownies how to hula.

Back to the Brownie plane and off to Africa where they stopped long enough to sample fresh fruit and coconut. They met a South African Brownie Wana who told them that Brownies in Africa are called Sunbeams. They went on a lion hunt but forgot to take their guns, so when they saw a lion they ran.

Next stop was Mexico. As they left the plane they were given a sombrero to keep the sun out of their eyes. A Mexican Brownie, called a Hadita, wished them buenas Dias. Her name was Carlotta. They were given Mexican flags and learned a little about the country and its people. Then they heard a story about how Carlotta helped to find a little Mexican baby. They enjoyed a complete Mexican meal before they left the beautiful land of Mexico.

A little Japanese man met them as the airplane landed in Japan, and let them ride in his rickasha. Mrs. Hought greeted

Scientists Working on Short Straw Variety of Wheat for Use in Texas

Good news for Texas wheat growers is in the making at the Denton Experiment Station according to B. T. Haws, county agricultural agent. Diligently working to produce a desirable short straw variety of wheat is Earl C. Gilmore, above. The USDA agronomist is engaged in a cooperative effort with Texas A and M College scientists headed by Station Superintendent, Dan Dudley. To date, no short straw wheat has been released in this state. Such a variety would be a real boon to Texas growers, Haws said. Commonly grown long straw wheats are more susceptible to lodging, especially under conditions of good moisture and heavy fertilization. A short straw variety would allow heavier use of fertilizer without greatly increasing loss from lodging. Many qualities must be incorporated into a variety before it can be approved for release, the agent pointed out. Not only must new variety be capable of producing high yields but it also must possess good milling and baking qualities as well as a desirable degree of natural resistance to diseases and insects. Visitors at the station's small grains field day on May 12th, will have an opportunity to discuss this important work with Mr. Gilmore, county agent B. T. Haws said. "Prima facie" means "on first appearance." Usual distance of a marathon race is 26 miles.

Be a Neatnik, Not a Litterbug

AUSTIN, Tex.—The Texas Highway Department today launched a new slogan in its anti-litter campaign: Be a neatnik, not a litterbug.

This plea comes from Texas Highway Department maintenance crews all over the state as they haul mountains of cans, bottles, paper, decaying food, and other litter from Texas highway right of way.

Spring houseclean our Texas highways all year long by fighting that urge to toss litter from your car, they recommend.

Throwing litter on highways and roadsides is prohibited by law. Last year 281 cases against litter throwing were completed in Texas courts. Of this number, 269 were found guilty and were fined or punished by other means.

Highway maintenance men point out that litter is local for the main part, coming from resident litterbugs and not from out of staters or from phantom travelers from up the road. Surveys reveal that the litterbug is a local person, possibly a civic minded citizen in all other phases of his life, but he fails to see the multiplication factor when he tosses out an empty cigarette package, wad of paper, or soft drink bottle. He would not toss these objects down in his own yard, or in a friends, but he will thoughtlessly take over the highway as his own private trashbasket.

Other evidence of the resident litterbug is sometimes a can and bottle trail. Maintenance foremen report that the biggest dead soldier tossouts are about a drink away (by car) from the nearest local emporium. Cost of removal has been estimated at one-half cent per can. Maintenance crews join poet Richard Armour in his hurry up order to science for and edible beer cans.

Maintenance men point out. No machine can pick up litter. It has to be hand-picked. That makes it an expensive operation. Last year the clean-up and mowing bill for 57,500 maintained miles of Texas highways totaled more than $7,000,000. This included picking up, hauling, and unloading rubbish. Another chore for maintenance men is removal of dead animals, removal of rocks and rock piles. Wrecked cars must be hauled off. Advertising signs in the right of way must be taken down. Maintenance crews are also responsible for mowing the green grass, removing brush, and keeping vegetation from the highway markers and guard posts.

A maintenance foreman explains, we could do our own mowing job so much quicker and save money if we didn't have to pick up all the cans, bottles, and litter before we start. A heap of litter hidden in the green grass can wreck an expensive machine or an automobile. Cutting grass is more than just trying to keep a neat highway yard. Mowing reduces fire and prevents spreading of weed seed to nearby farms. Tall grass and brush can also distort sight distances and result in expensive and tragic automobile smashups. Take a count of the litter objects you see the next time you are on the road. Even though we have regular maintenance crews making periodic litter pickups, that busy litterbug is still way ahead of us. Help us out. Be a neatnik. Litter? Don't throw it; stow it—till you get to a proper disposal unit.

Blakley Supports Kennedy Views

Senator William A. Blakley has thrown his runoff drive in high gear with a powerful call for U. S. action in the spirit and meaning of the Monroe Doctrine.

Pledging complete support to President Kennedy in his study resistance to aggression, Blakley called for an arms blockade against Communist military supplies to Cuba and elsewhere in the western hemisphere. He warned America had better start placing their own country's safety first in an imperiled world, and said the time may come when free elections in this nation are endangered. His views, presented at a rip-roaring All Texas Democratic rally, will be stated in plain language throughout the state prior to the May 27th senatorial election, the Democratic nominee promised. He is waging a vigorous campaign reaching all sections.

"As long I represent you, the people of Texas, in the United States Senate, my purpose will be to uphold the Texas viewpoint in Washington," Blakley asserted. "It is needed there."

He said the Texas viewpoint includes curtailing powers of the U. S. Supreme Court, restraints on imports of foreign oil, textiles and many manufactured products and the end of deficit financing. Blakley criticized the minimum wage law on grounds that it writes an interstate commerce clause into the Constitution.

Blakley's runoff campaign against his Republican opponent, John Tower, has the concerted backing of Texas Democratic leaders. A huge audience cheered his opening, statewide television address in Waco's Heart o' Texas Coliseum, interrupting Blakley with applause at 36 different times during the speech.

Referring to the death of free elections in Cuba, Blakley said "this is incredible, shocking" to Americans born to freedom.

"And yet, unless certain trends are reversed, the time may come when some man will say to us, and have the power to enforce his words, 'You will not vote again.'"

"That time is not yet and it must never come. Whether it comes or not will depend on all of us."

It is about 232 miles shorter from Chicago to New York by air than by automobile.

Burk Ambassadors Meet Satch Mo

The renowned trumpet player and performer, Louie (Satchmo) Armstrong, shown entertaining army troops at Ft. Sill, Okla., Sunday afternoon, May 7th. Guests from Burkburnett included Johnny Cools and Dutch Kepler. Both Johnny and Dutch enjoyed a visit with Armstrong after the performance.

Johnny: "Dutch! Guess what?"
Dutch: "We've got a place to play?"
Johnny: "No. Guess who's playing at Fort Sill tonight?"
Dutch: "Louis Armstrong."
Johnny: "Right."
Dutch: "Oh man, let's go."
Johnny: "OK."
Dutch: "Ma, we're going to Ft Sill to hear Louis Armstrong!"
Mrs. Kepler: "Wanna bet?"
Both boys: "Yeah!"
Mrs. Kepler: "Well boys, the floors need waxing!"
Johnny: "It's a deal!"

Johnny Cools and myself, Dutch Kepler, members of the Ambassadors, a local combo, journeyed thru Lawton, Okla., to Fort Sill, Sunday, May 7th to hear our idol "Satchmo" Armstrong.

All the way to Lawton we worried about getting on base and we were even more concerned about getting in to see Ambassador Satch, so named because of his world wide travels to play for foreign audiences and spreading good will for the United States.

We were waved through the main gate with not a question asked, but getting into the Artillery Bowl, where the performance was scheduled for 6:00 p. m. was another question since Johnny didn't have a military ID card. We had an hour to kill so we went to the Mess Kit, a small cafe on base, to eat and consider all the angles. After we had eaten and were walking back to bowl we spotted a barracks with "Satch Tonight poster all over the wall we went to the door and I yelled 'Is this place off limits?'" A little voice answered "No. Come on in. Inside were pictures and posters all over the walls of famous entertainers. There was a private inside who said that if we would help him, he would in turn help us.

We then loaded chairs into the back of his pickup truck and when we finished he drove us to the Artillery Bowl entrance. Let these guys in, he told the attendant. Inside the Artillery Bowl there was already a huge crowd gathered to hear Satch and his five musicians. The first to appear was Mort Herbert, carrying his bass fiddle to the small stage. Next came young Danny Barcelona to set up his trap set, after which he immediately disappeared behind the stadium. Louis could be heard warming up in the chartered Greyhound bus and as the first majestic notes of his trumpet pierced the air the crowd could sense that this was jazz in its true form.

Finally, at the top of the stairs appeared Louis and his Five Dixielanders: Billy Kyle, piano; Danny Barcelona, drums; Mort Herbert, bass fiddle; Trummy Young, trombone and Barney Bigard, clarinet.

They opened with their theme song 'Sleepy Time Down South' and approximately a dozen photographers began to congregate at the bottom of the stage. Since I had my camera and Johnny was carrying my flash bulbs we joined the shutter bugs and watched the performance about ten feet from the bell of Louis' trumpet.

We listened patiently to a few numbers and when Louis went to the rear of the stage to sit down, we made a bee line for him and asked him to play him and asked if he would play a request. He said yes and we asked him to play the Ambassadors theme song, Do You Know what it Means to Miss New Orleans?, to which he replied in his usual low pitched gravel voice, Yeah, we'll do it later on.

We thanked him and returned to the ground in front of the stage, after a brief chat with Satchmo. Then numerous numbers later, 2 booming voices could be heard, yelling and clapping as the introductory notes of the theme song flowed from Louis' trumpet. After the terrific performance the crowd swarmed around Louis and his musicians, and before we could get to him Louis Armstrong was already on a Greyhound bus. Although we didn't get Satchmo's autographs, however, we did manage to get 14 pictures of the group. While talking to my young, his trombone, we learned that just come from Dallas, it Falls and Burkburnett. It was a thrill for us and actually talk to our idols and a true Am of Jazz.

This is an unusual situation in a family where there are 35 sets of brothers with as many different interests as there are different types of boys. Monroe is 12 years old and in the 7th grade. Ronnie is 14 and in the 8th grade. The boys have lived at the Ranch almost two years. Monroe and Ronnie were among the 47 students of the elementary and high school grade so to achieve this honor. The honor roll students represent 15% of the total enrollment and is the largest number of boys ever to make all A's and B's during one semester. Much credit for this large number of honor students must be given to the teachers and dorm parents of the boys. Cal Farley, Ranch founder and president, said. These men and

TEXAS WILL HAVE A NEW U. S. SENATOR because:

TEXANS WANT . . . A STAKE IN THE FUTURE. John Tower, by virtue of his youth and dynamic personality has a brilliant political career before him. He is destined to lead Texas into a new chapter of political history. He has already been assured of important committee assignments in the United States Senate where his qualities of leadership and knowledge of government will bring him to the fore in short order.

TEXANS DO NOT WANT . . . AN HONORARY SENATOR. Blakley himself has said: "I don't assume to have the qualifications of the office and I have no interest in a political life." He is presently on only two committees of the Senate and is the lowest ranking member of each.

The custom built vehicle they pull is an authentic five-eighths scale model of an old time steam pumper fire engine.

Joe Janeke Member USO Committee

Approximately a year ago the USO formed a committee made up of a person from each of 6 area towns.

This committee became an area USO committee which is responsible for the operation of USO throughout the area.

One of the men who has served on this committee over a year, is Joseph A. Janeke, a Burkburnett Attorney.

Janeke, his wife and three children, Joseph Jr., 17; Margaret, 12 and Tracy 4, came to Burkburnett six years ago from Austin. He is a graduate of the University of Texas Law School.

Members of the committee are appointed by the USO for a period of one year and can be reappointed at that time.

Duties of the committee are to represent their communities in the interest of USO and to appraise their towns of USO and the needs of USO.

Legion Notes

Billy Goen, Commander
F. L. Perry, Service Officer

There will be a dance Saturday night, May 20th beginning at 8 p. m. at the Legion hall. Music will be furnished by a local group called the Boom Towners. And by the way it is not just a couple of boys beating out tempo, these boys have a good beat and I predict that if they stay together they'll soon be on T.V.

Every Friday is still Bingo night at 8 p. m.

There will be a meeting Thursday night, May 18th. Membership is jumping by leaps and bounds as was predicted. The boys have been planting some shrubs around the post and getting things in shape. The pool table is at last in top shape. It was completely reconditioned but take it easy boys, that cover cost $47.50, so don't set Cokes on it, sit on it and no sleeping on the pool table.

Boys, the Dudley shows will be here the week of the 28th. There will have to be lots of you boys out to take up tickets, so get lined up with the commander.

Our Buddy, Tom Arms has changed the old Sinclair Station to Texaco and re-opened it. He leased it from our Buddy, J. C. Adams. So it looks like he'll be around for awhile. Our buddy, Robert Martin, is running it during the day.

F. L. Perry resigned as service officer and Neal Tullis was elected to fill the position and was sworn in.

F. K. Reynolds did not take office as historian but volunteered his services to continue the paper write-ups until someone could be secured for the job.

There has been a lot of talk about forming a USO Club here in Burkburnett. There will be a meeting May 25th to see what can be done about getting one started here. I would like to say that a USO is good for the business of Burkburnett. We are a military town without entertainment for our military guests and that alone is the intent of the USO. Mr. Joe Janeke is on the board of directors of the USO in Wichita Falls and with his help I am sure we can find a building or build a building for a USO. Anyone interested in the USO, please meet at the front of the Legion hall at 8 p. m. Thursday, May 25th.

The Wichita County celebration of National Home Demonstration Week came to a close, after a county luncheon, club and community events, exhibits in all sections of the county and visits to demonstrators.

Volunteer local leaders play a very important role in the home demonstration club program. They were especially recognized during this observance of National Home Demonstration Week.

They are the officers of our clubs, the women who attend special training schools to learn and then teach new and better methods of homemaking to club members, neighbors and friends. This year the leaders in our county helped teach club and non club members how to semi tailor garments, upholster furniture, improve home landscape, custom made draperies, plan and care for home improvements and foods and nutrition.

For many years home demonstration club leaders have been trained to use home freezers to the best advantage. These leaders are so well trained they can provide information for interested homemakers in all sections of Wichita County.

Some of these leaders trained in previous years and still well informed are: Mesdames A. A. Brockreide, W. P. Wyatt, R. J. Ring, P. S. Swinford, Ray Culpipher, Jessie Nixon, Claude Taylor, F. R. Midcaff, W. O. Wall, E. J. Simons, E. E. Terrill, L. E. Brooks, Alex Kozlawski and T. C. Adams.

Thelma Wirges county HD agent gave a few tips helpful to all homemakers interested in taking advantage of her home freezer. For example, when cooking beans, roast, pies, cakes, cookies, bread, casseroles and churning butter, prepare more than immediate needs, prepare 2 roasts and freeze one bake 2 pies and when cool, freeze one. Cook in quantity instead of separate bakings, conserves fuel too.

Miss Wirges emphasizes importance of proper packaging for satisfactory results. Then too, harvest and prepare food quickly to retain freshness. Speed in preparation is necessary. Promptness in handling, chilling and freezing any product helps retain quality.

One of our biggest problems is to get women to follow instructions carefully. Because freezing is so simple, women tend to skip over or be careless about the few essential steps.

When food specialists speak of directions, they mean the ones which have been scientifically tested and proven. Too often women follow suggestions of the man at the market or the lady at the store, then come to grief.

Like the woman who froze 3 bushels of peas without washing, shelling of blanching, because a friend told her she heard you could. All vegetables must be blanched before packaging, insisted Miss Wirges. This is essential to stop the enzyme action. Until vegetables are ready to pick, enzymes help them to grow and mature. After that they cause loss of flavor and color. If vegetables are not heated enough, enzymes continue to be active during frozen storage. They then develop off flavors in a few months and may discolor or toughen. Heating also softens of wilts vegetables and makes them easier to pack. Too long heating period results in softening of texture and unnecessary loss of minerals and vitamins.

For this reason, follow time charts and instructions. Quick cooling after blanching is equally important. Fruit in general, is prepared for freezing as for eating. Wash in cold water but do not allow fruit to stand in it. Some fruit losses food value and flavor and some gets water soaked. Sound, ripe fruit is best for freezing, slightly ripener than for canning, but not soft or mushy. It is best to prepare only enough for a few containers at a time.

TEXAS WILL HAVE A NEW U. S. SENATOR because:

TEXANS WANT . . .

A SENATOR "OF THE PEOPLE". John Tower, a native Texan, is not a wealthy man. He understands fully the struggle of the average man to educate himself and to raise a family, for he has first-hand experience in both.

TEXANS DO NOT WANT . . .

A "MILLIONAIRE" SENATOR. Wm. Blakley, native Missourian, is reputedly one of the nation's richest men. He is a heavy contributor to political parties and candidates. In 1952 he gave $16,000 to Adlai Stevenson's campaign. Columnist Doris Fleeson reported recently that he was "possibly the nation's largest contributor" to the campaign of Lyndon Johnson and Jack Kennedy.

Two From Burkburnett To Attend Texas Nuclear Sciences Symposium

These two persons from Burkburnett plan to attend the Texas Nuclear Sciences Symposium for High School science students and teachers to be held in Austin on June 11-14th.

H. D. Mabry, 302 Hayworth, teacher.

Kim McClain, Capehart — SAFFB, student.

Some 400 selected high school science students and teachers from all over Texas will attend a nuclear science symposium in Austin June 11-14th under the sponsorship of the University of Texas and the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation. The Foundation is a non-profit organization whose members are 11 investor-owned electric utility companies operating in Texas.

The high school students and teachers will attend the symposium as guests of the 11 electric utility companies. They will come from schools selected by the University of Texas.

In announcing the symposium the two sponsors declared, The Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation and the University of Texas are cooperating to give our high school teachers and science students a front seat to the drama of the atom and a realization of the privileges, responsibilities and opportunities which scientific discoveries in this field present.

The Foundation is co-sponsoring with the General Atomic Division of General Dynamics Corporation a research program in controlled nuclear fusion, through which it is hoped to harness the power of the hydrogen bomb for the eventual economical generation of electric power. TEXAS WILL HAVE A NEW U.S. SENATOR because:

TEXANS WANT . . . COURAGEOUS SPOKESMAN. John Tower, a highly articulate conservative, rallied the support of almost a million Texans who applauded his courage with their votes to back his stand against the liberalism of the "New Frontier." He has captured the fancy of Texas and the nation with the velocity and quality of his campaigning.

TEXANS DO NOT WANT . . . "PHANTOM" SENATOR. Although twice "appointed" to temporary office, the interim senator failed to win support of the people of Texas when his candidacy was tested in a competitive election. He is seldom present and more seldom heard from in Washington. Many Texans have never seen him or heard him speak.

NOT THE CULPRIT

Are you one of the people who think that profits represent a very big price of what we pay for commodities? If so, a statement taken from a publication of the Merchants and Manufacturers Association will prove enlightening: "According to Internal Revenue statistics, business generally, in the United States, makes three cents profit on every sales dollar after taxes. The percentage of profit varies somewhat from industry. According to the Harvard Business School Division of Research, in 1959 the net profits for food chains worked out to about 1.4 percent of the sales dollar. That means that it came to 14 cents on a typical $10 bag of groceries. "In other words, the profit on food is so small, that if it were entirely eliminated the average customer wouldn't recognize the fact that it was gone." "In other words, if we're looking for a culprit to blame for inflated prices, the profit item simply won't fit. It would be an extremely minor factor in the overall price picture.

ANYBODY LISTENING

While our legislators in Austin were busy hunting ways to finance our state government, the House of Ways and Means Committee in Congress last week adopted a policy that will cost Texans about $38 million a year if congressmen approve it when it comes up for a floor vote. The tax committee decided that the "temporary" 1c a gallon federal gasoline tax, which was supposed to end July 1, would be extended to pay for the federal highway construction program. Meanwhile, the committee decided to continue diverting millions of dollars in other taxes paid by motorists, such as excise taxes on tires and other automotive supplies, to general government expenses rather than highway programs. Thousands of Texans last fall told their congressmen thru petitions that they want 1c of the 4c a gallon federal tax to be "temporary"—as promised. Was anyone listening? We'll know in a few days when the vote is taken.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

There is being quite a war fought between those who would like to stamp out the economic cancer of the times, trading stamps, and the big stamp issuing companies which know they have a very good thing going for them. In Los Angeles, there has long been any number of food stores that would like to abandon stamps. C. W. Harder with purchases, and presumably they have discussed this among themselves.

But the major trading stamp companies have apparently also heard about this matter, with the result U. S. Justice Dept. has been looking askance at merchants talking to one another about this matter.

So far in Washington, Justice Dept. theory appears to be that giving trading stamps is one way of competing price-wise, thus any agreement to eliminate trading stamps is in restraint of trade.

This, of course, is a theory this is subject to review.

Retailers pay good cash for these stamps, and give them out to the customers usually at the rate of 2% on the purchases of the customer. He makes nothing on the stamps.

Neither does the consumer make anything on the stamps. The money the retailer paid out for stamps has to come from some place, so in a market where everybody is giving stamps, the price of merchandise is merely marked up to cover the cost of the stamps.

Thus, the housewife who redeems her stamps doesn't really get much. She is in effect, cashing in the money she has already deposited with the stamp-giving retailer in the form of higher prices she paid, to obtain merchandise on which the stamp company makes a profit. As a matter of fact, if she had the equivalent amount in cash, instead of in stamps which forces her to deal with one outfit, she could undoubtedly make much better deals on merchandise.

Of course, the stamp companies not only make money on the forced sale of merchandise through them, but they also reap as pure profit the many, many stamps that are lost, forgotten about, destroyed, or otherwise never redeemed.

Thus, while Justice Dept. is technically correct in frowning on grocers talking together to eliminate stamps it would also appear that trading stamps themselves are in restraint of trade.

Thus it would seem quite logical for Justice Dept. to either demand, or if it does not have the legal power to do so now, to ask Congress for the power, to demand that every retailer offering stamps also be required to give the cash in lieu of stamps.

Thus, the consumer could accumulate the cash, if she so desired, and when sufficient was accumulated, use it to buy merchandise of her choice at the place she chooses to buy it. As it stands now, when she gets stamps, she is actually getting back her own money, but forced to spend it in one specified place. This, of course, is really restraint of trade.

FLAMELESS ELECTRIC COOKING IS

WOMEN WHO COOK ELECTRICALLY KNOW!

Flameless electric cooking is cool cooking because an electric range keeps heat waste to a minimum. Electric range surface units transfer heat to utensil bottoms by direct metal-to-metal contact. The heat goes into the utensils and the food, not into the kitchen air. And because the electric oven requires no oxygen to operate, it is insulated on all four sides, top and bottom, keeping heat locked inside where it belongs. See your electric range dealer soon. Cook the clean, cool, electric way and Live Better . . . Electrically!

TAKE YOUR PROBLEMS TO CHURCH -- MILLIONS LEAVE THEM THERE

Putting forth a Real effort

A child's first attempts at printing require deep concentration and great effort. However, with patience and practice he becomes more adept and lettering is easier. Then he is ready for the next step, learning to write.

The Lord expects us to put forth an effort to improve ourselves.

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God

DON'T DO IT YOURSELF

There's a saying among lawyers that the man who serves as his own lawyer has a fool for a client.

Likewise, the man who serves as his own insurance counselor may end up with a confused mind and a hazardous program which is far short of meeting his needs.

The only basis on which to build a sound program is by taking advantage of years of study, constant evaluation of new policies, personal experience, and the ability to meet all needs.

Take your problems to your local Capital Stock agent. He knows his job and he represents only SOUND, RELIABLE Capital Stock Insurance companies.
