FORMAL OPENING AND DEDICATION SUNDAY FOR CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH, 814 TIDAL

The public is cordially invited to attend the formal opening and dedication service for the new auditorium at Central Baptist Church, 814 Tidal Street. The service of dedication will begin at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, July 30, 1961. The main speaker will be Rev. Charles Priestler, Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Electra, Texas. Several of the former pastors of the church will be present for the important occasion.

Central Baptist Church is one of the fastest growing Southern Baptist Churches in this area of the state. The church was located in the Thrift Community northwest of the city of Burkburnett from 1924 until 1952 and was then the Thrift Baptist Church. In 1952 many of the members of the church moved to Burkburnett and those remaining at Thrift realized the future of their church was dependent upon relocation near the people. Thus the people agreed to move the church to Burkburnett. Three acres of property was secured near the corner of Berry and Tidal streets and three buildings were moved to this location and remodeled.

Growth of the church was gradual until 1958 when the people borrowed money to construct a new air conditioned educational unit with a capacity of 160. This building now provides space for children from nursery through 16 years. The church has made rapid gains in every area the last three years. Resident membership has increased to about 380. Sunday School average attendance has grown from 150 to over 200, and total receipts have increased from $260.00 to near $400.00 per week. The church now has a good music program under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Birdsong of Wichita Falls. The choir has an average attendance each Sunday of 16 and the church has purchased new Hymnals and robes to add to the music program. During the school months the church sponsors a junior choir.

The new auditorium being dedicated this Sunday is unusual in design and near perfection in structural quality. It not only provides beauty for the eye but creates an attitude of worship for all who enter. The building is constructed with a view to the future as it can be enlarged to a capacity of 600 at a minimum cost. At the present time the church has adequate space for 400 in Sunday school and is planning to add more buildings as the town grows.

The committees most active in the planning for the building were the Building and Finance committees. Those serving on these committees were Mr. O. E. Kinnard, Henry Hodges, Dee Hawkins, E. O. Mullins, Victor Fore, Bob Harris, Louise Clements, Mrs. Troy Miller, Doris Hodges, G. T.

Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Blackwell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harms, George Hodges, E. B. Owens, R. T. Shaw, O. D. Wortham, Mrs. P. L. Bryant and Mr. Bob Wilson.

Rev. Kenneth Bradshaw, pastor of Central has been in Burkburnett 18 months. He came to this church from pastorates in Oklahoma and Texas. Mr. Bradshaw is a graduate of Oklahoma State University. He holds a B. D. Degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas. At the present time he is continuing his study toward a Th. D. degree from this school. He commutes to Ft. Worth two days each week. Mr. Bradshaw is married to Miss Ruth Carey who is also a graduate of the Religious Education school of Southwestern. They have two children, Deborah and Sharon. Rev. Bradshaw is conservative in his theology and believes that a pastor should understand and preach the truths of the Bible. He also believes that the ministry of a church must remain personal and close to the people if it is to contribute to either individual or social development. These ideas are being woven into the life of Central Baptist Church.

There will be an open house before and after the dedication service for those who would like to see the facilities of the growing church.

Five Area Farmers Entered In Nat'l. Stubble Mulching Contest

City Offices To Be Combined

The Board of Commissioners in a special meeting Thursday, July 20, approved the consolidation of various city administrative facilities, to be coordinated as a Finance Department.

This action came after considerable study was made of the financial report made by H. A. Thomason of the Joe Ward Engineering Firm. The report suggested that consolidation of these services would facilitate better service to the citizenship and could be handled with less personnel than otherwise will be required if the services are maintained separately.

In order to carry out the proposal, the water office and the central office in the City Hall will be re-arranged, with a minimum of remodeling, to accommodate the finance activities.

These activities which will be coordinated by a director of finance will include purchasing and budget control, issuance of permits, water collections, accounting and bookkeeping, custodian of official records such as ordinances, minutes, deeds, contracts, accounts, etc., and tax assessing and collecting.

Don Pemberton, who has been serving as City Clerk, and purchasing agent, has been designated to serve as the director of finance and will be responsible to the City Manager for the coordination of the finance activities. No changes have been made in department heads. The Tax-Assessor-Collector will move his office into the water office, so the citizenship will have only one place to pay their city accounts. The personnel will be used in any of the activities.

Five area farmers will be competing in the National Stubble Mulching Contest which began on the Skelton farm East of Burkburnett Wednesday.

Competing against twenty-six farmers from Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas will be J. C. Hinkle, Charles Ed Skelton, Ralph Swinford, Clinton Swinford and Fred Eastman.

Time To Ban The Ban

If we understand it correctly, Senator Hubert Humphrey would like to have this country ask the UN could we please do some nuclear testing—if it's done underground, for peaceful purposes only and under UN supervision.

The procedure would be for this country to offer a resolution in the up-coming UN General Assembly asking the establishment of a UN control system (implemented by teams made up of member nations) to monitor and inspect US research on underground explosions. The Senator thinks we should also "offer to . . . turn over the data and results of those tests to the United Nations."

The former test ban proponent makes the point that further such explosions are necessary before we can learn how to detect such blasts, and thus before an atomic test ban treaty can be monitored. This, certainly, no one can deny.

But over at the bogged-down test ban kaffee klatch in Geneva, Russia's Semyon K. Tsarapkin wanted no part of the Humphrey proposal declaring his conviction that it was a trick to resume weapons testing.

Being a Russian, he should understand trickery. But also being a Russian, he can hardly be expected to understand a Humphrey—even though the Senator insisted that, honest, he wasn't thinking of any such thing—and besides, he was asking the UN in on it so there couldn't be any shenanigans. So far as we know, however, he did not pound this point home with his shoe.

Mr. Tsarapkin, nevertheless, remained firm on the point that there could be no testing by the US, peaceful or otherwise, underground or elsewhere unless Russia says so.

We think he made it plain that the Soviets don't want us wising up on how to detect nuclear blasts—which also suggests that, as many experts think, they are blasting away to their heart's content in their own spacious backyard.

For once, we will have to agree with a Red—not that we agree that the Senator from Minnesota is capable of a trick—but rather that we shouldn't ask the UN to let us test. We should

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" By C. WILSON HARDER

As evidenced by voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, over 70% of the nation's independent businessmen, 74% to be exact, favor enactment of the bill presented by Sen. Kenneth Keating to tie import duties on foreign imports to the wages in the country such merchandise is made.

For just as it was once said that this nation cannot endure half slave and half free, it is becoming more apparent that 100 years later the nation's economy cannot endure with goods from free labor competing in marketplace against goods made by labor at near slave wages.

Aggressive Japanese businessmen realize fully the advantage they have in cheap labor and are exploiting it to the fullest in their bids for U. S. commercial connections.

For example, Japanese firms are carrying on direct mail campaigns to American merchandisers, asking for the opportunity of getting their merchandise requirements made for them in Asia.

One firm in Tokyo, is offering as bait, to send to the recipient of their letters a nine piece carving set which they say is available in Tokyo for $7.96.

As a matter of fact, they are using this offer to illustrate their sales "pitch." This carving set, they point out, was made at the request of an American firm to duplicate a set that they retailed at $104.35.

© National Federation of Independent Business

They claim the Japanese made set is not only less than 1/10th the cost of the American item, but due to the fact it was handmade by craftsmen long skilled in making Samurai swords it is quite superior to the American made article.

Interestingly enough, the Japanese do not claim to be in any way competitive with products where the principal cost is raw materials. But on the other hand, if the major cost is labor, they quite bluntly say their chief resource is cheap labor.

It is this cheap labor, they claim, which is causing major American firms to establish plants in the Orient, and which will account in 1961 for a per-capita purchase of $6.02 in Japanese made goods, or over a billion dollars.

And herein is highlighted the major fallacy committed by the internationalists when seeking to defend the lack of tariff protection for the U. S.

These people will invariably point to a set of figures which shows, for example, that while a billion dollars worth was imported from Japan, U. S. exported similar value to Japan.

This is not a proper measurement. While America's exports are valued in their U. S. production costs, the imports from Japan are valued in their cheap labor costs of production. Thus, every billion dollars worth of Jap goods flooding into this nation replaces in actuality somewhere around 10 billions of dollars in American production. It is estimated in many Jap plans the labor payroll in total is no higher than just the employee welfare assessments and taxes paid by U. S. plants of similar size.

just go ahead a test—as unobtrusively as possible, without foreign kibitzers and for the purpose of developing what the military calls the "deterrents" that will improve our chances of continuing other peaceful pursuits.

Nor should we continue paying those board bills in Geneva.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

House members tonight in an effort to get a tax bill to the floor the mid-point of the 30-day session.

Long, long sessions and endless succession of amendments, substitutes for the bill, it was often difficult to win down votes indicated still easier for members to agree on what they do.

At least for the time being a package bill recommended by the Revenue and Finance Committee. Its main feature was a sales tax, which also included taxes on items such as automobiles, natural gas, transfer of funds from one bank to another, and a franchise tax and a tax on the transfer of real property.

Down were proposed a 4 per cent corporate tax by Rep. Bob Eckhardt and a 1 per cent sales tax by Rep. Charles Ballman of Borger, chairman of revenue and taxation, was pushing for a package bill that closely tracked Gov. Daniel's recommendations at the beginning of the session. It differed from the committee-written package chiefly in that it included a Pennsylvania-type sales tax, applying only to items listed in the bill.

Despite the House problems, an August 8 finish may be still possible. Senate, generally, is swifter and more nearly of one mind on money matters. It agreed on a tax bill in the regular session in approximately one-third the time spent by the House.

Hardest part is getting agreement on one plan from both the House and Senate—and finally—from the Governor.

FUND BILL PROGRESSES—House has given second reading approval to a bill appropriating $2,527,000,000 for the next two years.

It is slightly higher than the bill passed earlier by the Senate, and eventually differences will have to be worked out by a conference committee of the two houses.

A group of conservatives in the House were foiled—at least temporarily—in an effort to cut the bill by $27,000,000 through economy measures. Among items they felt could be deleted or put off were recarpentering the House chamber and refinishing members' desks for $250,000, adding an office for the governor to the Governor's Mansion for $50,000, installation of a sprinkler system on the Capitol lawn for $20,000 and several other expenses of that nature.

Economy group also wanted to trim back some increases in the bill for salaries and travel expenses for state personnel and eliminate paying legislators a salary for the period between November, 1960, when the annual pay amendment was approved, and the start of the session in January.

SCHOOL BILLS MOVE—A bill to provide more liberal state aid for sparsely populated school districts has been approved by the House Education Committee.

Rep. Sam F. Collins of Newton is sponsor of the measure which would provide $378,000 to pay for 90 additional teachers in rural areas. Most of the extra teachers would be for Negro schools.

Objectors to the bill said it would perpetuate the problem of having school districts too small to provide a strong school district.

On the other side of the Capitol, the Senate Education Committee gave reluctant approval to a more economical teacher pay raise plan than the Hale-Aiken plan it already had approved. Sent to the floor was a bill by Sen. Bruce Reagan of Corpus Christi which would give teachers a $600 a year raise this year, $200 more in 1963 and $200 more in 1965. Hale-Aiken provides for $810 a year more immediately.

ANTI-POLLUTION PUSHED—A bill creating a board to control water pollution is under study by the House Conservation and Reclamation Committee.

Similar bill was passed by the House last session but died in the Senate. Rep. R. H. Cory of Victoria, sponsor of the measure, said that unless the state acts now to control pollution, the federal government will take over.

Under the Cory bill, a nine-member commission would be created with power to cancel an industrial firm's permit to operate if it persisted in activities causing water pollution.

A bill to reorganize the State Board of Water Engineers some, what along the lines of the state Highway Commission, is also under study by the same committee. Under the proposal by Rep. Franklin Spears of San Antonio, a chief engineer would be in charge of administrative and technical functions and a board would make policy.

LOBBY BILL DEBATED—A bill to provide additional lobby regulation attracted neither friends nor enemies to a hearing before the House State Affairs Committee.

Pro and con views were presented solely by members of the House before the measure was sent to subcommittee for study. Proposed bill would require lobbyists to file a report showing who received any amount above $50 to influence legislation. It would also prohibit a lobbyist's calling a member off the floor during session without advance permission.

Critics declared the legislators didn't need a law to enable them to stay put at their desks if they wanted to.

BEST TAX IS NO TAX—Citizens for Fair Taxation, an anti-sales tax committee, announced, as expected, that its poll showed a majority against a retail sales tax.

It also seemed to show that people polled were not very much in favor of any kind of new tax. CFT announced that 78 per cent of those opposed were against a retail sales tax on items of 25 cents or more, and 61 per cent were against selective excise or sales taxes if they hit any of the necessities. Eighty per cent were against a personal income tax.

A majority in the CFT poll favored the abandoned property bill, raising franchise taxes on interstate corporations and a corporation income tax.

Mrs. Joe F. Anthony Honored With Coffee

Mrs. Ray Mills and co-hostess, Mrs. Don Mills, entertained with a coffee this week honoring Mrs. Joe F. Anthony of Tulsa, Okla., who is moving to Alexandria, La., late in August. Mr. Anthony is chief accountant for Manning, Maxwell and Moore, Inc., who are moving their offices from Tulsa to Alexandria. Mrs. Anthony will be remembered as Betty J. Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mills.

The refreshment table was covered with a white cut work cloth over pink satin and featured a floral arrangement of pale pink roses. Mrs. Alfred Buddecke and Mrs. Don R. Mills alternated at the silver coffee service. Mrs. Pat Mills and Mrs. A. H. Lohofener registered the guests as they arrived. The guest book was made made of blue print sketches of homes.

Twenty-five guests called during the morning to wish the Anthonys happiness in their new home.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. H. R. Garrett of Seminole, Tex., (Grandmother of Mrs. Anthony); Mrs. J. A. Miller and Mrs. V. C. Miller of Wichita Falls; and Mrs. Garland Johnston of Vernon.

There are only four perceptible tastes; sweet, salt, bitter and sour.

BIG ELECTRIC "TIE-LINE" TO BE POWER-ful PARTNER IN PROGRESS

Customers of the Texas Electric Service Company power system will benefit by construction of a strong electric power "tie-line", which will extend from the Permian Basin area through the Fort Worth-Dallas area and to Houston. This will bring about one of the nation's largest and strongest reservoirs of power.

The new "tie-line"—a 345,000-volt transmission line nearly 800 miles long and six times greater in electric power capacity than any other line now operating in the Southwest—is to tie together more firmly the power systems of Texas Electric Service Company, Houston Lighting and Power Company, Dallas Power and Light Company, and Texas Power and Light Company.

Added efficiency and economy of operation will be possible for each of the companies when the line is completed, and it will mean that, in the event of an emergency in any of the four utility systems, much larger blocks of power will be available from the other areas than through present interconnections.

Texas Electric now is building its part of the line from Fort Worth to the Permian Basin area in West Texas. It will be part of the company's integrated power system and operated initially at 138,000 volts.

The section of the "tie-line" from Houston to the Fort Worth-Dallas area will be started in 1962 and will be pushed to early completion.

This new transmission "tie-line" is another example of planning and building ahead to assure plenty of dependable, low-cost electric power for continued progress of the more than 100 cities, towns and rural communities served by the power system of Texas Electric in The Opportunity Frontier of Texas.

Marine Fuel Offered by Rock Oil Co.

Shamrock Oil and Gas Co. announced in Ames that a new product, marine fuel, will soon be available to its dealers. The company recognized that the booming boom which is sweeping the country, there are many locations where outboard motors are used. Shamrock's new marine fuel is designed for marine outboard motors and contains no tetraethyl lead. Lead is normal in both regular and aviation gasolines to raise the octane. Many outboard motors are designed to run on regular gasolines and lead additives which lead to their engines. Marine fuel is designed for engines which require unleaded fuel, and it performs well in those engines. This high octane fuel requires lead additives for regular facilities, and blends it from high octane stocks at their refinery near Dumas, Texas. The new product will be reinforced 55-gal-

PICNIC HELD FOR SWIMMERS

A picnic honoring instructors and Water Safety Aids and others who helped with the swimming classes conducted this summer, was given Friday, July 21, in the swimming pool park area. 180 children attended the 3 swimming courses, including 65 Scouts who are due to finish their course this week. Among those honored were instructors and Aids from Wichita Falls and Burkburnett. Directing the course was Daisy Sligar from the Red Cross in Wichita Falls. Instructors and Aids were Judy Pemberton, Penny Bowman, Lillian Delzell, Sylvia Ayers, Johnny Koller, Mickey Cornelius, Jackie Cornelius, Maxie Mathis, Frank Hodges, Ronnie Evans, Gene Pace, Janie Mitchell, Shirley Bosquet, Michelle Mastin, Cecelia Jorens, Martel McAdams and Pat Harris. Hostesses for the event were Winnie Freeman, Reba McLean, Mrs. D. C. Dodson, Mrs. Earl D. Martin, Sylvia Lohofener, Mrs. Joe Viavattene, Betty Davey, Melba Brady and Mrs. James Brady, Sr.

Shamrock has been test marketing marine fuel since last summer, 1960. Now it will be marketed through the company's entire laboratory, which includes Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Wyoming, Colorado, Nebraska, Arizona and New Mexico. There is a high concentration of boat owners in the Texas-based company's marketing area, and the boom in pleasure boating is just starting. Shamrock officials feel they expect the demand for marine fuel to increase sharply within the next few years.

YE ARE WITNESSES

Sometimes it takes so little to encourage another to attend the Lord's house.

Through these ads we invite you to attend worship services, and now we would encourage you to take advantage of your opportunities to invite someone to church this Sunday.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"
By C. WILSON HARDER

Of more than passing interest is some of the testimony being taken in the hearings by a Federal examiner of the affairs of Fox Markets, now operating under Chapter XI of the Bankruptcy Act.

This 45 unit food chain in Los Angeles recently found itself unable to pay more than $10 million owed, principally to packers and wholesalers.

Two items especially, C. W. Harder so far, are of great interest as a comment on contemporary times and business mores.

Edwin J. Fox has already testified that one of the nation's largest dairy operations made it possible for him to get a half million dollar bank loan.

Asked why the dairy company "cooperated" to make it possible for him to get this loan, Mr. Fox said "I was able to put their products into Fox Markets."

Thus, it is established, that until the dairy company "cooperated" it was seemingly impossible for Mr. Fox to stock their products in Fox Markets.

Mr. Fox himself testifies in his opinion that the biggest factor in the chain getting into distress was trading stamps. His markets handed out the oldest nationally known trading stamps, while most of his competitors give out Blue Chip stamps.

Blue Chip stamps are owned and controlled by a number of market operators in California and was presumably set up to drive other trading stamps out of the market and eventually eliminate trading stamps. As Blue Chip stamps are operated without any desire for a profit, it is reputed they give more value per stamp than their competitors.

Mr. Fox said he underestimated the power that Blue Chip stamps would have in the Los Angeles market, with the result that his markets did not draw the volume of patronage he had projected.

It is interesting to note in the list of published creditors that the largest creditor, by a substantial margin, with the exception of a bank loan, is the trading stamps company with which Fox Markets did business.

The records show that this stamp company alone is owed more than $800 thousand.

This then shows up one of the merchandising fallacies of the times. One is the widespread feeling spread among consumers that trading stamps are a "something for nothing" device.

As illustrated by the Fox example, when stamps are given out, they are a major part of store overhead and must be passed on to the consumer in some manner.

A business depending on a build up there is being given something for nothing is built on shifting sands, as it will collapse when anyone comes along and sells the idea they will give even more for nothing. Perhaps it could be said that Fox was out-foxed.

Regular Meeting of Alma Jackson Circle Was Held July 18

The Alma Jackson Circle of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday, July 18th in the home of Mrs. Fred Hunt.

Meeting was opened by singing, Rescue the Perishing. Prayer by Hazel Wagoner. A short business meeting was held. Mrs. Frank Hunt had charge of the program on Rescue Missions. Mrs. Kelley brought a good devotional using Rom. 5:8 brought a good devotional and James 5:20. Mrs. Belden read an article written by Clovis A. Brantley who is superintendent of Mission Centers and made us feel we need to pray more for our Southern Baptist Rescue Mission Work. Many are unable to help themselves.

Mrs. Hunt brought two chapters from the book, Interspersory Prayer. This was also very interesting. Bessie McKnight dismissed with prayer.

Rebekah Lodge Meets

The Burkburnett Rebekah Lodge met in usual form last Monday night with the following officers in the chairs: Eva Bingham, Noble Grand; Edna Reed, Vice-Grand, pro-tem; Jean McPhail, Chaplain; Cora Lee Harmon, musician; Bessie McKnight, Warden; and Mary Cecil, Secretary. After the roll call of officers the sick members were visited.

The members voted to find a good used refrigerator to use in the lodge hall and also discussed means of raising funds for this as well as other necessities for the lodge. Jean McPhail, Lodge Deputy, held an interesting school of instruction.

After the meeting closed in the usual form, a social, honoring the Noble Grand's birthday, was enjoyed. Refreshments of cake, lemonade and tea were served by Jean McPhail and her committee.

Social Security News

The new amendments to the social security law, signed by President Kennedy recently, give men benefit rights similar to those women have had since 1956.

The change applies to men between 62 and 65 years of age, and is designed especially to help those who are unable to find employment because of their age or poor health.

A man now 62 to 65 years of age can start receiving benefits with the month of August. But if he retires before he reaches age 65, the monthly amount of benefit paid to him is reduced. He will continue to be paid the reduced amount even after he reaches 65.

Dependent widowers and the dependent fathers of workers who have died also can get benefits at age 62. Their benefits, like those of widows and dependent mothers, are not reduced.

For men who retire early, the amount by which their benefits will be reduced depends on the number of months they will receive benefits while still under 65. A worker who retires and claims his benefits as soon as he reaches 62 will qualify for 60 per cent of the amount that would be payable to him at age 65, based on his average earnings up until his retirement. If he waits until he is 63, he will get 86 2/3 per cent of his full benefit, and if he waits until 64, the amount will be 93 1/3 per cent.

The reductions are figured so that a person may expect to receive, on the average, about the same amount if he takes reduced benefits beginning before he is 65, or waits until 65.

Members of the immediate family of a retired worker can get a dependents' benefits if the worker retires at 62 or if he waits. Eligible dependents include a wife 62 or older, or a wife at any age if she has in her care children who are eligible for benefits. The child of a retired worker is eligible if he is under 18, or if he has been totally disabled since childhood.

The Committee on Finance of the Senate, in recommending this change in the law, said, "The provision of benefits at age 62 for men who will help to alleviate the hardships faced by that group of men, who, because of ill health, automation, or other technological change, are forced into premature retirement before age 65."

For more information about this change in the law and other changes made by the new amendments to the law, ask your nearest social security office for your free copy of Leaflet No. 1. Men 62 to 65 years old who decide to take their social security benefits now instead of waiting can also apply for those benefits at their social security office.

M. O. W. CLUB

Refreshments were served to the following members: Ruth Britton, June Lewis, Dorothy Cole, Barbara Williams, Lillian White, Bertha McCafferty, Elsie Messner, Alice Smith, Helen Schuman, Terry Thompson and Katherine Korman, and one visitor, Lucille Edwards.
