IS THE LAW IN TEXAS

As in the pioneer times forefathers found they keep track of the family pretty well with a few lines on the flyleaf of the Bible. But life's not quite simple any more. Great-grandpa wasn't covered by security or workmen's compensation. He didn't have an account or safe deposit box and a dozen home furnishings being bought on payment, or a half-dozen insurance policies. We have great-grandpa never of and wouldn't have been if he had. And had you him for a certificate to his birth, he'd have it you'd taken leave of senses.

One point of this is that the American boy has a many important papers to track of. There are birth certificates, receipts, copies of returns, sales contracts, and other papers. With a tidy record keeping, you make life easier for yourself and your family when you die.

Why not make a New Year resolution to follow suggestions:

Get a heavily bound notebook or the folder as a central collecting point for records of your affairs. Put your especially important papers in your safe deposit box, but make a list of papers and a brief summary of their contents to put in your home file.

Get your files copies with certificates for all members of the family, and them to the file. Add your age license or at least a list as to when and how you were married and when you died.

Insert your will or a copy of your will is kept elsewhere, include a note telling where it may be found.

During the year, put into your income tax with statements and receipts expenditures which may be deductible. Then keep a copy of each year's tax return in the file.

Make a list of all the bonds and bonds you own and where they are.

List all the places you have worked and the names of persons there who know. Include and the names of those you have attended and those you left or were graduated from.

You may have benefits under a profit-sharing plan where you work, make a list of that too.

If you're in doubt about an item should be included, put it in. This takes

County Pioneer Dies At Age 88 In Hospital

A pioneer resident of Wichita County and mother of the county sheriff, Mrs. W. T. Vance, 88, died Tuesday in an Electra Hospital following a lengthy illness.

A native of Johnson County, she was born Della Blair, May 8, 1873 near Cleburne and was reared in Hood County near Lipan, Texas.

While a housewife and mother herself, she had always been associated with the official life of the communities in which she lived.

Her father, Robert Blair, had been a Texas Ranger, a deputy sheriff, a sheriff and a justice of the peace; her husband, who died in 1942, had been a deputy U. S. marshal, a deputy sheriff, a policeman in Burkburnett and a justice of the peace; and her son, Hammett Vance, has been a Texas Highway patrolman and is now sheriff of Wichita County.

Married more than 72 years ago, the Vances lived for a time at Duke, Oklahoma in a dugout while her husband farmed and later became a deputy sheriff. They later lived near Randlett, Oklahoma before moving to Burkburnett in 1914.

Mrs. Vance was a member of the First Methodist Church of Burkburnett.

In addition to Sheriff Vance, survivors include three daughters, Mrs. E. E. McNeill of Fort Worth, Mrs. Edith Goodlett of Dallas and Mrs. Nita Pettyjohn of 1003 Thirteenth, Wichita Falls; 10 grandchildren and 11 great-grand children.

Funeral arrangements are pending with Owens & Brumley Funeral Home at Burkburnett.

UNTIL A SALE IS MADE

An advertisement of the Oregon Newspaper Publishers Association carries this heading: "Nothing Happens Until A Sale Is Made." The text adds, "But when sales are made, things happen. America lives, breathes, creates. There is accomplishment, pride. There is progress.

"Where are most sales made? In ads, of course. Ads that tell you what you want to know, about what you want to buy. Ads that guide you in fulfilling needs and wants. Ads that stimulate competition, help keep prices down. Ads that keep America rolling ahead."

These statements come close to being truisms. And they underline two facts of importance to everyone. In our kind of economy, advertising is a basic essential. Through their ads producers and sellers of a thousand and one kinds of goods and services compete for public favor—and, if they are to be successful, they must back up their statements by trying to give the best possible quality for the price.

Secondly, the Association's statement points up the role of retailing in this country. All the productive facilities on earth would be useless if there were no comparable mechanism for moving products into the hands of the people who want and use them. Mass distribution, pioneered long ago by the chains and subsequently adopted by other kinds of retailers, is the full and equal partner of mass production.

Yes—nothing happens until a sale is made.

The power generated by a hurricane like Carla is almost beyond the grasp of a man's mind. The chief electrical engineer of the Central Louisiana Electric Company finds that Carla produced enough power to meet his company's production need for 8,000 years. The company's power stations have a capacity of 315,000 kilowatts and can generate 800 million kilowatt hours a year.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

While it did not get to vote in the past session, it is quite certain that the proposal to expand Social Security to provide medical care for the aged will again be introduced in Congress in January.

It is significant that in a nationwide poll of the nation's independent businessmen conducted by the National Federation of Independent Business, almost three-fourths of them are opposed to this measure.

There is an old Arab proverb to the effect that once the camel gets his nose into the tent, he soon takes over the tent. And it is proved time and time again that once a bureaucracy gets into a free institution, that institution is gone.

It is not necessary to go further than the British Isles to see this principle at work. After nibbling away at what was once a fine system of medicine, bureaucracy came into full bloom with the National Health Service.

Today, more British taxes go to support this welfare medical scheme than is devoted to supporting the national defense of the country. It is estimated today that the average British wage earner pays out in taxes for this system two or three times the cost of good private medical insurance.

And what does he get? Very little evening or Sunday aid for one thing. And in addition, according to reports, the quality of men entering British medicine is deteriorating.

As British medicine has now become a civil service function, with automatic pay raises according to time served, and all the other stultifying aspects of civil service work, British medicine is attracting a different type of person.

While there are some imperfections in the American system, any one who wants to practice medicine must have a spirit of dedication to carry him through the long rigorous schooling and training program, knowing at the end of it, there is no automatic income guaranteed. It is in some aspects a most brutal system of selection, yet usually only those the fittest to practice medicine survive.

However, under the British system, anybody who can manage to keep up the minimum grades is guaranteed immediate rewards, a lifetime of security, with automatic income increases.

It also seems significant that when former Prime Minister Anthony Eden became ill, he was first operated on in Britain, but was finally sent to America for surgery and recovery to health.

In Britain it all started innocently enough. The government got into the practice of medicine in just a small way. Then it got in a little more. The next thing, medical practice became government.

For never in the history of mankind has any bureaucracy, once started, stayed static, let alone shrunk, for the unspoken motto on every bureaucrats desk is "Every day and in every way, this bureau must get bigger and bigger."

Grass Roots Opinion

BRADDOCK, PA., FREE PRESS: "J. C. Penny looked back on nearly 60 years in the business world . . . and pronounced businessmen now more ethical than ever before.

"This despite charges of collusive bidding, price fixing and deteriorating morals in the business world, says the famed merchandiser, whose name adorns nearly 1,700 stores . . . What about opportunity today? (he was asked) "It was never better. No boy left home with less bright prospects than I. I was sickly. I had no money. But, he'll tell you, he recognized opportunity.

"I believe opportunity is greater today than in my day," he said. "But you must prepare for it and recognize it."

SANDERSVILLE, GA., PROGRESS: "J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI states: 'We complain about high taxes, but last year crime cost every man, woman and child in the United $122.00, or a staggering estimate total of twenty billions of dollars. Perhaps this figure could become more meaningful if we realize that for every $1.00 spent on education, crime cost $1.45; and for every $1.00 which went to the churches of the nation, $13.00 went to crime.'"

Santa Claus was busy in downtown Burkburnett all day Saturday, taking all the youngsters for a ride on his Jeepsleigh. It was estimated that hundreds of young-uns from tiny tots on up, took advantage of the generosity of St. Nick. Even though he was kept very busy, he always had time to talk to the real young tiny tots—too young to ride with him, but not too young to stare at him with wide-eyed amazement. A good time was had by all.

Santa Claus doesn't forget City Hall. He is shown here with everyone in singing Christmas carols at the em-annual get-together on Friday, December 23rd.

Also Mrs. Wilma Thaxton gave a talk on "How We Can Grow Like the Lilies Grow," using reference and quotations from the scriptures of the Bible, showing us how we can wax strong and stand tall in grace and beauty as the Lily. Few, if any of the banks, have ever advertised to find the rightful owners.

Governor Daniel feels that the banks should exert every effort possible to locate the owners, including advertising, or turn the funds over to the state for the protection of the depositors. Such steps have been taken in a number of other states.

Hopeful Sign—Texas Commission on Alcoholism reports good results in its six-year-old program of rehabilitation for alcoholics in state hospitals, and progress with prison system inmates. But it is still concerned about the estimated 250,000 drinkers in Texas who need treatment.

Commission says 2,334 patients were treated for alcoholism in six state hospitals during fiscal 1961.

Improvement after six months from date of discharge was reported by about 500 out of 1,600 patients released last year.

In less than 18 months, the number of alcoholics participating in prison rehabilitation programs has grown from 800 to 3,000.

Commission now lists councils on alcoholism in 29 Texas cities, working to educate the public to recognize alcoholism as a disease. Their attempts are aimed at the 250,000 ailing alcoholics and their families—as well as the 4,000,000 Texans who use alcohol.

Chairman Challenged—Gubernatorial candidate Will Wilson has charged State Democratic Executive Committee Chairman J. Ed Connally with reserving the committee's mailing list of 20,000 Democrats for incumbent governors, "to the exclusion of other Democrats outside the Executive Committee itself."

Wilson contended that the list is the property of all Texas Democrats. He asked the committee to adopt a resolution making the mailing list available to all Democratic candidates, for use in party primaries.

Wilson has accepted an invitation to face opponent John Connally in a debate.

Weslaco attorney Jon Dee Lawrence extended the invitation to both gubernatorial candidates on behalf of the Weslaco Jaycees, but Connally has not replied.

Principal issues of the debate would be: "Is the Governor of Texas to Be a Number One Chief Executive—or Somebody Else's Agent?"

The Business at Hand—The Attorney General's assistants have been busy writing opinions on everything from a major gas company dispute to a matter of land willed to the Baptist General Convention.

The Attorney General intervened in a case in the 43rd District Court at Parker County, making a motion to set aside a default judgment voiding conveyance of 1,000 acres of land to the Baptist General Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stocks, Sr., willed the land in Parker and Hood Counties to the Baptists in 1955, but their son, John Stocks alleges his parents were not legally competent at the time.

Wilson made his motion under a statute which said the Attorney General may be made a party to any suit to annul or impair any instrument creating or affecting a charitable trust.

As representative of the Texas Railroad Commission, the City of San Antonio, the City Public Service Board and Alamo Gas Supply Company, the Attorney General filed a motion with the Supreme Court asking it to compel 126 District Judge Jack Roberts of Austin to enter judgment in San Antonio's gas contract dispute.

Motion arises from a suit filed by United Gas, which is contracted to supply gas for San Antonio until April 1, when Alamo Gas is scheduled to take over.

Judge Roberts has said the case was out of his court's jurisdiction. Railroad Commission ruled that it has no jurisdiction in the dispute.

The Attorney General also has ruled that:

1. Failure to possess a valid poll tax does not disqualify a juror in any criminal case.

2. It's unconstitutional for a court to authorize a sheriff to destroy property seized from arrested persons in county jail, even if property is unclaimed for 90 days.

3. State Education Commission has the right to audit state funds in county administration and school transportation funds.

After one year's operation of the Kellers Sportswear store in Burkburnett, the Don Mapes family have moved from Wichita Falls to their new home located at 601 Oak Street.

Mapes is co-owner and manager of Kellers, 312 E. 3rd St. He opened the attractive and convenient store on November 21, 1960, but waited until his new house was completed before moving his family over to Burk.

His family consists of his wife, Jean, and their three children; Judy, 10; Vickie, 9; and Cindy, 4. They are members of the First Baptist Church.

They all love Burkburnett and are very happy to become permanent residents. Don, however, did not wait until he moved his family over to become a part of the community. He was immediately accepted in the Lions Club, and is a member of the Chamber of Commerce. He has already worked on various community activities. Don believes that Burkburnett is an "up-and-coming little city of friendly people," and believes that the fast

Speaker James A. Turman says the "staggering costs of government" could be reduced if qualified voters would take an active interest.

He estimates spending in local, state and national government has risen 153 per cent since 1950, and points to the fact that recently two representatives were elected by less than six per cent of the qualified voters in their areas.

Capitol hostess Mrs. J. W. Beck will resign on February 1. The senator's widow, who has talked to hundreds of thousands of tourists in her 14 years at the Capitol, is staying through the special session at the Governor's request.

State Securities Commission issued permits to sell more than $49,000,000 worth of securities during November.

Welfare Commissioner John H. Winters says the Aid to Dependent Children program is "charged with aiding immorality," but that only 20 per cent of the 59,809 Texas children receiving ADC are illegitimate.

On the other hand, there are 131,133 illegitimate children in the eligible age bracket (under 14) in Texas today, he states.

U. S. Senator Ralph Yarborough called on Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman to act immediately to establish a price support program on some 10,600 tons of peanuts damaged in a freeze in Texas.

Yarborough, in his Austin office, also asked Freeman to support the use of cotton wrapping for cotton bales.

Miss Patsy Ruth Sanders of Burk Became Bride of Gary Lynn Jennings In Nuptials Saturday, Dec. 23

Miss Patsy Ruth Sanders of Burkburnett became the bride of Gary Lynn Jennings in nuptials performed Saturday, December 23 at 7:00 p. m. in the First Baptist Church of this city. Officiating in the double-ring ceremony was Rev. Leroy Meyer, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sanders, 605 Cottonwood and Mr. and Mrs. George Jennings, 307 Hayworth, both of Burkburnett.

An archway of greenery flanked by baskets of white gladioli entwined with holly was the focal point of the altar background.

Traditional wedding selections were presented by Mrs. Dorothy Duke, organist and Mrs. Hazel Meyer, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white peau de soie, fashioned with scalloped neckline appliqued with re-embroidered Alencon lace trimmed in seed pearls. Lace appliques were featured on the softly pleated bouffant skirt which was accented by a large bow in back and extended into a chapel train. The brides fingertip veil of silk illusion cascaded from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white orchid atop her white lace-covered Bible.

Her attendants were Miss Doris Sites, maid of honor, and Miss Sharon Stevens, bridesmaid. Their dresses were identical of emerald green satin with bouffant skirts and a high plain neck. They carried bouquets of red carnations.

The bridegroom's best man was Mike Lacy and groomsmen were Ronnie Moulder both of Burkburnett. Phil Norman of Athens, Texas and Richard Hinkle of this city were ushers.

LEADER PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin, Texas — "Operation Deathwatch," which began Saturday midnight and ends at midnight New Year's Day, is the most urgent business of the Governor's office today.

Gov. Price Daniel has written every Texas sheriff and chief of police, asking each law officer in Texas to help make the State's streets and highways safer for Texas drivers during the ten-day holiday season.

Governor Daniel said the anticipated toll of 88 holiday traffic deaths is the lowest estimate ever made, and stated "it pinpoints the progress of recent years in reducing Texas traffic tragedies during the year-end holiday. However, even more lives can be saved this year if the people obey the laws and drive safely.

Newspaper publishers, the Texas Press Association, broadcasters and billboard owners are cooperating in the campaign urging Texans to take individual responsibility for traffic safety, and asking drivers to keep headlights burning during daylight hours as a reminder that safe and legal driving is the best way to avoid holiday crashes.

Banks Still Balk—Most Texas banks balked at the Legislative committee's request that they make their dormant accounts public.

Five of the 38 banks subpoenaed to appear before the committee filled out questionnaires by deadline time. Twenty-two banks were represented at the hearing. Eleven failed to show up.

Houston's City National Bank attorney Raybourne Thompson, speaking on behalf of all 22 banks present, and two others, requested that the committee get an opinion from the Attorney General as to whether it has the power to force testimony "that would destroy banker-depositors confidences."

Thompson said if the committee refused, the bank would testify "under protest."

Committee had sent questionnaires to 469 national banks in Texas. Only 66 gave some or all information about the number of dormant accounts they hold and the amounts in these accounts.

Out of the 536 state banks queried by the committee, only 100 furnished the information.

Prime reason for the specially called session by Gov. Price Daniel is the enactment of laws to force banks to locate the owners or heirs of unclaimed depositors.

Governor Daniel feels that little effort is being made by the banks to find the rightful owners. He says that more than $3,000,000 is being held unlawfully by the financial institutions. Some banks are even levying charges against the accounts even though the accounts are inactive, he reports.

Babson's 1962 Business and Financial Forecast Is Optimistic

I am hopeful for 1962; it would be a better year for my industry than 1961. Industrial production will exceed that of 1961.

There will be neither a clear war nor total disarmament in 1962. Considerable progress may be made toward disarmament on atomic weapons.

Some thirty stocks may show an average of 1000 during 1962, although these will not necessarily be the thirty stocks of the Jones.

Retail trade will make new records during 1962. Increased newspaper advertising, especially in colors, will be a great boon to merchandising.

Commodity prices will act erratic during 1962. Agricultural prices will be held up by inflation, but many metals will sell for less.

The official cost-of-living index will rise slightly in 1962, but there may be a scandal in Washington over how this figure is calculated or adjusted. A real increase in the cost-of-living will be due to increased wages demanded.

The only certain shortages during 1962 will be in land available for parking places and waterfront property readily accessible to building lots; also automobile "graveyards" in cities which have been abandoned.

The building of shelters will look silly before the end of 1962. Certainly the Federal Government will not underwrite the building of private shelters for individual families.

Good real estate must rise in price as the population increases. Elementary mathematics determine the price for suburban real estate. This is notwithstanding the claim of the "space companies" which are said to be interested in selling plots on the moon. There probably are crazier speculations.

While the land on which our home now stands should increase in value during 1962, the building itself depreciates from the moment when it is occupied. A possible exception would be certain very attractive ranch houses painted in color.

Automobile production will be the most important statistical indicator during 1962. This applies to both the number of automobiles and their value. We now have no reliable figures for the latter.

We will gradually approach an average of two cars per every family. The life of automobiles should gradually increase. The percentage of automobiles annually destroyed will decrease in 1962.

Automobiles and gasoline will be increasingly, sources for raising money by taxation. These means will be extended to include an additional assessment on the manufacturers of automobiles.

Taxes, as a whole, will continue to increase in 1962 for every family. Business net taxes, however, will decrease in 1962 through the granting of appreciation refunds which can be done by Executive Order. A manufacturer may greatly increase his deductions for past investments and new machinery, plant, and equipment. Douglas Dillon feels that such tax reductions will increase the purchase of new equipment, develop greater efficiency, and result in the net improvement in the employment situation. This is good news for 1962.

Speculation in real estate securities will be active during 1962; but good children will gradually be recognized as the best investment. Young people will be married earlier and will want to have large families.

Public education will gradually be reorganized during the years ahead. Schoolhouses will be built as places to "park the kids" while the parents are at work. New schoolhouses will be built so as not to be over the story high, with lots of sunshine.

Owing to the lack of airport facilities and to inadequate equipment, there will be increasing airplane accidents during 1962.

With all the above changes, plus increased public improvements and longer vacation periods, families must save somehow and cut somewhere. I think it will begin in 1962 with clothing. This will gradually become cheaper and more attention will be paid to color.

The time is approaching when the weaving of cloth will be greatly curtailed. Clothes will be made like paper. Plastic coats are already on the market. These are produced by feeding the cellophane into a machine which cuts to desired lengths and bonds (not sews) the material into beautifully finished good of different colors.

We will hear more about automation during 1962. But the cost of building automatic factories is so great that the change is coming slowly. Even electronics has been overemphasized.

There need be no unemployment among steel workers during 1962. But government unemployment figures will remain high. Foreign competition due to low wages abroad, will be an important factor. Women will prefer to work in air-conditioned factories and have their home pantries filled with precooked foods.

Labor unrest will grow in extent and power. The Kennedy Administration is friendly to union leaders and their demands. There will be demands for more "fringes" in 1962. A steel strike is possible.

This means that with increased taxes, prices of retail products will be higher. This will be blamed on "inflation" of money; but it will be due to inflation of living standards.

The real value of the dollar will decline slightly during 1962, due to the decrease in the productivity of labor. The electronics industry will temporarily suffer in 1962 if atomic warfare is outlawed. But otherwise the electronics industry will increase for some years to come and hold up the dollar value. Watch polymer chemicals and "epoxy" cements.

There will be enough money for mortgages insured by the Federal Housing Administration in 1962. Plenty of money will be available for mortgages guaranteed by the Veterans Administration, although this supply varies with different sections of the country. Interest rates on conventional loans not having government guarantees will be a little higher. Real estate people will worry about the public's desire to build, rather than about their obtaining mortgage money.

The kilowatt hours of electricity produced in 1962 will exceed the total of any previous year. This is favorable to utility preferences.

Steel production in 1962 will exceed this year's 100 million tons, but the increase will come from producing steel in color.

Cement production will be about the same in 1962 as in 1961, but the industry's capacity to produce is increasing too rapidly in view of the demand. The cement manufacturers must give more attention to colors.

Expenditures for plant and equipment in 1962 will increase, supplemented by large appropriations for repainting factories and offices in many colors.

Newsprint production depends upon the number of newspapers and the amount of advertising sold. I forecast a decline in the amount of newsprint sold during 1962, but advertising receipts may increase through the better use of colors. This may result in the increased use of coated paper to better take color printing—with a 50 per cent increase in advertising rates.

Furniture manufacturers are marking up prices so that young couples will buy furniture in the raw and paint same themselves.

There will be some increases in color TV sales in 1962. I fact, I think the present TV market is far from being saturated.

First-class postage rates will not be increased during 1962. Hence, more money will be spent on direct mail selling. This should help job printers in 1962, as their present margin of profit is very small. Bill-board advertising will increase during 1962, due to a new kind of paint.

Lumber will do well to hold its own in 1962 and much of it will be sold colored. Wall-to-wall carpeting will become even more popular, reducing the price of the best hardwood floors.

Fewer "seater rugs" will be sold in 1962. Rug dealers must go to brighter colors, even for "orientals."

One of the greatest developments during 1962 will be the increased use of color in home, offices, stores, and factories. This should increase both the demand for and the price of good paint.

Exports will probably increase during 1962, but the surplus of trade in favor of the United States is constantly decreasing.

President Kennedy is encouraged by the recent elections in New York, New Jersey and Texas. This Democratic trend will continue during 1962, notwithstanding former President Eisenhower's campaign speeches.

President Kennedy will be more favorable to "big business" in 1962 only when he is able to use big business to increase employment. Profit margins will not improve during 1962, although most industries will do better in terms of gross and volume.

Bond prices will not change much during 1962, except in the case of "non-taxables." European investors are buying American stocks and bonds feeling that their money is safer in United States industries and real estate. Even the first mortgage bonds of transcontinental railroads are being bought by Europeans. The manufacturers of West Germany are making huge profits thru the use of new machinery and low wages. They are sending their money to the United States to be invested. They seem to prefer suburban real estate, shopping centers, and electric utilities. I hope they are not buying into too many "fly-by-night" new electronic companies.

Buying of Mutual Funds will continue to exceed selling in 1962. Considering that brokers make much more profit by selling Mutual Funds than by selling shares of individual stocks—and considering the thousands of salesmen selling Mutual Funds—this should help stocks prices during 1962. Remember that the Mutual Fund operators must go to the New York Stock Exchange to purchase stock to support these Mutual Funds which salesmen are selling in the field.

The so-called "service industries"—including education, beauty parlors, travel, entertainment and government positions—should prosper in 1962.

Among the fastest growing industries in 1962 will be the plastic and glass industries. These materials will gradually take the place of wood, stone, cement, and even some metals—except as these are colored. Plastics and glass will become more important building materials and perhaps be used more for automobiles.

Some unexpected event or discovery will cause the Dow Jones Industrial Average to sell much higher during the next few years. As an illustration of what one of these unexpected events will be, I mention the polymer developments in chemistry, including "DNA" and "RNA", which may provide the sources of life and extend it—yes, perhaps restore it, in special cases.

I am bullish on Canada for safe investments during 1962. Canada has a small population of only about 18,000,000, but it is rich in natural resources and has a sound progressive government. I do not expect a nuclear war to be started by Russia; but if it comes, Canada will be a good place to live and to have your money invested.

South and Central America also have great natural resources; but most of their countries are ruled by selfish dictators. I believe most of our southern neighbors will suffer from serious inflation during 1962 and become a great problem for the United States.

Although the countries of Europe could be the greatest sufferers in case of World War III, the people I meet in Europe fail to recognize this. I forecast that they will look at the situation more realistically during 1962.

West Germany is very prosperous; East Germany is in terrible condition. Much unemployment exists in Italy, France and even Great Britain. I advise against investing money in Europe during 1962.

I am uncertain how to advise about Africa. But it is very rich in natural resources—including gold, diamonds and almost every metal—as well as having the greatest undeveloped waterpower in the world. Barclays Bank I am personally acquainted with and recommend. Both Barclays and the Standard Bank are owned in England and have a great many branches; the latter has over 850 branch offices in Africa. Readers who are interested in keeping in touch with Africa may secure free of charge the Standard Bank Monthly Review by writing the Standard Bank of South Africa, 10 Clement Lane, London, EC 4. The banking of Northern Africa is controlled by the French. I would advise against putting money into Northern Africa during 1962.

The final result of 1962

—whether it will make us a stronger or a softer nation—spiritually, physically and mentally—depends upon our parents, teachers, preachers and newspaper publishers. These and not Russia, hold the future of the United States in their hands.

BABSON DISCUSSES INTANGIBLES

As the last weekly column which I shall write you before my "BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL FORECAST FOR 1962," appears in this newspaper, I wish to say an important word to you. In short, your future as an investor or businessman—especially as a manufacturer or retailer—depends upon certain intangibles which cannot be reduced to statistics. Let me mention four of these.

Personal Relations and Dealing With Others

From year to year, the labor situation will become more difficult. Firms which do not deal with labor unions will ultimately have to come to it, while those which already are dealing with labor unions will be subject to more and more demands. In order to be successful, you must be able to deal with employees successfully.

Some people naturally can do this, while others naturally cannot. This means that you must meet every employee with a smile, and must always take some time to talk with employees personally. It absolutely requires a sunny disposition and considerable patience.

Importance of Judgment

In studying the history of a corporation—in terms of employment or the purchase or sale of its stock—you cannot depend on statistics or on any of the other guides which I have mentioned in earlier columns. People succeeded and failed in business before there were any such things as statistics, or credit reports, or any other form of printed information. My grandfather actually kept his accounts on his shirt-sleeves during the week and they were copied by one of his daughters in a rough notebook on Sundays. The various manuals and financial services now available are of help, but you must determine how they are to be used.

I have a great respect for accountants. The President of the Babson Institute is an accountant. The work of the accountant, however, is largely that of a doctor making a "post-mortem" examination. Very seldom is an accountant able to forecast the future any more than a doctor can. He compares more to one who dissects or analyzes a man after death. The beginning of each year starts a new life for the accountant.

Courage Most Important

Going back to the days of Venice and Athens, when trading first started, courage was the main asset a successful man had to have. This applied to trading by sea in small vessels without chart or compass, and by pack caravans which went over the mountains with valuable goods. Courage was indispensable, and it still is.

Today, the businessman has the advantage of telephones, airplanes, and even stockbrokers' tickets; but none of these things take the place of courage. The reason is obvious; namely, that all his competitors have the same advantages. All have telephones; all can use airplanes, all can subscribe to Dun & Bradstreet or Moody's reports or any other business aids. Hence, it all comes down to the fact that it is the one having the best judgment plus the best courage who will be the successful man.

Religion and Prayer

By religion, I do not mean theology. It does not interest me how old a denomination is, or how large is its membership. Many religious people do not attend Church, except at Christmas and Easter. Throughout history, people have been religious and non-religious. I even feel that some who call themselves atheists may be truly religious.

On the wall surrounding the Great World Globe on the campus of the Babson Institute are those words in large letters, "FOR WHAT IS A MAN PROFITED, IF HE SHALL GAIN THE WHOLE WORLD AND LOSE HIS OWN SOUL?" The greatest intangible of all is a sane religion. A man may accumulate property without religion; but he is successful

ESTEP, LINDSEY WED IN JAN LEE BAPTIST CHURCH

The Jan Lee Baptist Church was the scene of the Saturday evening candlelight wedding of Miss Carolyn Estep, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Estep of Garland, and Harold Lindsey, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lindsey of Burk Burnett.

Performing the double-ring ceremony, December 23rd was Rev. Travis McMinn, pastor of the Jan Lee Baptist Church. The altar was decorated with a mass of greenery, candelabras and baskets of white gladioli.

Furnishing the music were Karen Burton, vocalist, and Mrs. Donald Lindsey, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length gown of Metallic Brocade Satin. It was decorated with a scoop neckline, coming to a tiny V-shape in front, a tight bodice with a full skirt and three quarter length sleeves. Her head piece was a tiny white Satin Pill Box hat with a veil of Chantilly lace. Complementing her gown were her white long gloves and shoes of white satin. She carried a white Bible topped with a white Gardenia with Satin Streamers.

Judy Brister, maid of honor, wore a beige street length dress with a scoop neckline and three quarter length sleeves. The tight fitting bodice with a pleated skirt was accented with her pink-feather hat and bone shoes. She wore a pink carnation corsage.

Attending the groom was Jerry Berry as Best Man. Ushers and candlelighters were Rodney Taylor and Tom Reed.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. A three tiered cake topped with a miniature bride and groom centered the table covered with an imported white lace over light green cloth. In charge of the table were Mrs. R. H. Brister and Mrs. Jimmie Hammond. In charge of the guest book was Jane Ellen Yarbrough.

The bride attended High School in Garland, Texas, where she was active in various school activities.

The groom is a senior in Burk Burnett High School and has taken an active part in school activities. He is employed part time with the Jiffy Food Store.

Following a brief honeymoon, the couple will make their home in Burk Burnett.

He is a naive widower who doesn't realize that somewhere on this earth is a forlorn female who regards him as a desirable meal ticket.

Dorcas Class Held
Christmas Party
Monday, Dec. 18

The Dorcas Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church held its Christmas party in the home of Mrs. C. W. Boyd Monday night, December 18th. The house was beautifully decorated in Yuletide colors.

Mrs. Ray Mills, president conducted the business meeting. Mrs. John Brookman announced the program.

Mrs. Claude Reed brought an inspiring devotional in a story "No Room at the Inn," in a very pleasing manner. Each one present gave a Christmas Custom. Much reminiscing of childhood customs, experiences and beliefs were enjoyed.

The attractive laden tree was the focal point. Lottie Moon Christmas Missionary Offering envelopes adorned the tree amid the gifts.

Mrs. Brookman distributed the gaily wrapped packages.

Group Three served spiced tea, cakes and dainties from a lovely red net covered table to Mesdames Roy Anderson, Claude Bowman, W. W. Browning, C. W. Boyd, W. C. Davis, Leo ofster, A. C. Houser, L. B. Horr, C. F. Johnson, Al Lohoefer, B. T. Maher, Ray Mills, F. A. Wilkinson, Artie Whiteside, John Brookman and Claude Reed.

PROPERTIES OF WOOD

Working with wood is fun. Wood has many properties with which most of us are familiar. It has color, lustre, grain, texture, hardness and weight. The variation in these properties vary between any two trees of the same species and even within in any one tree. The greatest variation, of course, is evident between trees of different species. Consequently, it is important to use the proper wood for a specific purpose.

One example of variation may be seen by examining the weights of wood from various common tree species. The weight of wood is a good indication of its strength. The following values represent pounds per cubic foot of the dry wood.

Kinds of Wood	Weight
Oaks and hickories	48
Longleaf pine	40
Sweetgum and maple	37
Loblolly and shortleaf pine	35
Douglas fir	31
Redwood	27

Telephone service never stops improving

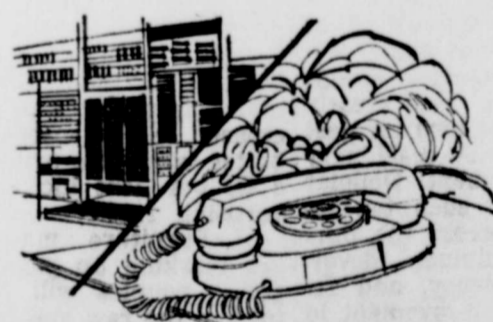

These 6 communications improvements, now in effect in many communities, are some of the hundreds being made each day — to give you the best possible telephone service at the lowest possible cost.

Direct Distance Dialing permits you to dial your own Long Distance calls as quickly and easily as you do local calls. This service improvement is spreading rapidly. By the end of the year, one fourth of our telephone customers will be able to call Long Distance this faster, easier way.

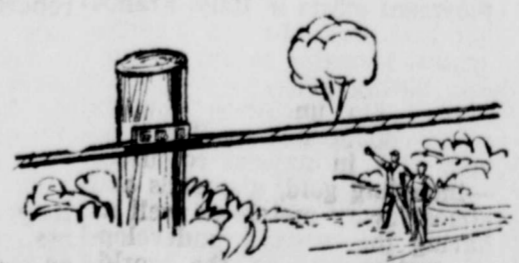

Recorded Announcement helps prevent lost calls. Should someone forget to hang up an extension or accidentally knock the receiver off the hook, a recording reminds you to hang up the receiver. This enables you to be reached once again by those trying to call you.

Automatic Line Test is made periodically on most telephone lines. This equipment tests your line and your telephone for electrical defects. If it locates trouble, information is recorded so that the trouble can be promptly fixed and disruption of service prevented.

Electronic Voice Boosters keep your voice at a strong, clear conversational level, prevent fade-out caused by distance. Loss in transmission has been cut nearly in half in the last five years. Today, you hear better than ever.

Pumping Air in Cables helps keep your telephone trouble free. Air pressure in the cable holds out moisture should a small leak occur. Reduced pressure as air escapes provides warning of leak so it can be repaired before it affects your service.

Burying Telephone Cables makes them weatherproof, gives you more trouble-free service. Today, 55 percent of telephone wire is underground, providing stormproofed express routes for your local and Long Distance calls.

VETERANS Questions & Answers

Q—May creditors seize proceeds of a GI insurance policy if the insured dies? My husband owed a few dollars at death which I fully intend to pay.

A—Proceeds of GI insurance are exempt by law from claims of private creditors, but may not be seized nor attached to pay your husband's debts.

Q—Does the Veterans Administration administer the unemployment pay program?

A—No, unemployment benefits are administered by the U. S. Department of Labor through its offices in each of the 50 states. In addition, state offices of the U. S. Employment Service offer job finding assistance including counseling and placement where employment is available.

Q—My father, a World War II veteran, died recently from nonservice connected causes. Since I am not 18, what service requirement must my father have met to make me eligible for pension?

A—Your father must have had at least 90 days service, part of which was between December 7, 1941, and December 31, 1946. He must have been discharged under conditions other than dishonorable. In addition, you must be unmarried as well as under 18.

Q—I was divorced from a veteran a short time ago. He is now in the hospital and is unable to make his payments to support our two children. Can I get VA payments toward the support of these children.

A—If your husband has more than a 30 per cent service-connected disability, and if he is receiving compensation payments because of it, you should contact the nearest Veterans Administration office and discuss your case with representatives there.

News From The County Agent

There will be a livestock meeting at the Valley Farms Community House on Tuesday, January 8th, 1962, beginning at 7:30 p. m. The purpose of the meeting will be to discuss the Southwest Animal Health Foundation drive to do something about controlling the bothersome and costly screw-worm. Dick Wilson, associate editor of the Cattleman from Ft. Worth, will be the principal speaker. All livestock producers in the county are urged to attend the meeting.

After midsummer, egg supply will be increasingly affected by new pullets which are likely to be raised in larger numbers than in 1961.

According to Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, Texas hatcheries hatched 20 per cent more egg-type chicks in October 1961 than in October 1960 and 24 per cent more than in September 1961.

The demand for broiler meat will probably continue strong in 1962. Estimates of per capita consumption in 1961 indicated a new all time high of 225 pounds. This represents a 1.5 pound increase over 1960. Broilers may face stronger competition from increased marketing of turkeys, hogs, and cattle. However, demand will probably not be influenced much by this competition in 1962. Somewhere in the state is a person the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council would like to honor for his or her contribution to farm and home safety during the past year. The Council will again present its Texas Rural Heroism Award to an individual for exceptional bravery at a time of crisis or disaster. Nominations must be made by March 1, 1962 to Rural Heroism Award, 546 Rio Grande Building, Dallas 2, Texas.

TAKE YOUR PROBLEMS TO CHURCH -- MILLIONS LEAVE THEM THERE

Ring out the Old Ring in the NEW

Another year has passed, and things gone by, we cannot change. So ring out the old year and ring in the new with high resolutions. These bells, which have long been used by churches as a call to worship, are ringing an opportunity for you to begin the new year at worship with the Lord in His house. Start now and be faithful throughout this year. Attend Church regularly.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
