Back Issues of Star Available Months Back

Back issues of the Star will be available—maybe—only two months back. Lack of proper storage and other considerations have made this move necessary. The Star keeps two complete copies of each issue, which are bound into permanent files at the end of each year.

Many of our advertisements come to us through advertising agency. We have one national representative, and probably fifteen more other agencies. All these agencies require tear sheets of ads run for them. We require as many as 600 sheets, which means six complete papers for one agency. We try to keep on hand enough back issues to satisfy our advertising agencies. Sometimes that isn't so. The tear sheets either get lost in the mail or they are misplaced in the agency file. That means we must get up more copies—if we will have them. If we are able to furnish tear sheets, we are not paid for such ad run.

The back issues are very valuable to us until all accounts are satisfied. After they are just in the way and will be hauled off with the other waste paper. Some energetic group might make some money by buying all the back issues of the Star. We charge fifty cents each when they are available.

RS. J. B. RILEY, JR., APPLIES TO BE IN RECITAL MONDAY, FEBRUARY 4th

It is with deepest gratitude that I extend this word of thanks for the many kindnesses shown me during my recent stay in the hospital. The cards, flowers and visits were especially appreciated. May God bless each of you.

3-Year Pact Given Coach By Bulldogs

Zac Henderson, head football coach at Breckenridge High School for the past two years, resigned Monday to become head coach at Burkburnett High School.

Henderson was given a three year contract at Burkburnett, a school which becomes Class AAA in 1962-63 but has been placed on probation in football for the same school year by the University Interscholastic League.

However, Henderson said that he was impressed with the school, which has possibilities of moving into Class AAAA in the not too far distant future.

Draws From Base
Burkburnett is 13 miles north of Wichita Falls, and Sheppard Field, which lies between the two cities, is in the Burkburnett School District.

Supt. John Culwell, to whom Henderson submitted his resignation, said of Henderson: "He is a fine man and has a good job. I respect Zac and have enjoyed working with him and I think he will do a good job for Burkburnett."

Culwell said that the Breckenridge School Board is open to applications. Henderson said that he will be given a free hand in choosing his assistants at Burkburnett, but that insofar as he knew, he did not plan to take any of the men who assisted him at Breckenridge with him.

A 1949 graduate of Texas Tech, the 38-year-old Henderson has produced a district football champion in six of the seven years he has been a head football coach.

These include three titles at Jena, La., two at Cisco and one at Breckenridge (the 1961 co-championship with Brownwood.)

Bow to Stamford
Both years at Cisco, his 10-boes bowed to Stamford in the regional round of the Class AA state playoffs and last season his Buckaroos fell to Dumas in the Class AAAA regional round. He was an assistant coach at Slaton and at Haynesville, La., before moving to Jena.

Henderson is married to the former Auline Harris of Homer, La., a Baylor graduate. They have two children, Carol 9, and Zac Jr., 6.

The contract with Burkburnett becomes effective at mid-term, Henderson said. A graduate of Quanah High School, where he lettered in football, basketball, track and tennis. Henderson lettered in football three years at Texas Tech and played golf the fourth year.

Purcell Announces Two Appointments For Office Staff

The new Congressman was assigned to room 1219 in the new House Office Building, Washington, D. C. Lucille Kinney will be manager of this office. She was formerly a member of Congressman Ikard's staff.

Mrs. Mary Brickell will manage Purcell's Wichita Falls office, 206 Federal Building.

M. L. Thompsons Move to Burk from Gorman, Texas

The Gorman Progress, Jan. 25.

Mr. M. L. Thompson left Sunday to accept his new duties as plant foreman of Mobil Oil Company at Burkburnett, Texas.

Mrs. Thompson, Danny and Patricia, will be leaving as soon as housing facilities are available.

The Thompsons regret very much leaving Gorman as Mrs. Thompson stated "it's home" and the children just don't want to leave Gorman at all.

As the saying goes, if you leave good friends you will make good friends wherever you go. And we know the Thompsons will be happy in Burkburnett, for they leave a host of friends in Gorman.

We hate to lose families like the Thompsons, but are happy for them getting the promotion. It speaks well for our town when folks hate to leave it, and consider it home after having lived here only two years.

We hope the Thompsons will find time to visit Gorman from time to time.

Ed's Note: Mr. Thompson is a good Scoutmaster.

LIONS CLUB

Each Tuesday Night, 7:00

James Mason secured the speaker for Tuesday night's program. He asked Jerry Thomas to introduce Dr. Bill Rector, with the Medical and Surgical Clinic in Wichita Falls, who spoke on diseases of the heart. The program was very appropriate, since Heart Month begins February 1st.

Dr. Rector is a director of the area Heart Council. He explained the use of heart fund contributions: research and education.

Following the talk, Dr. Rector answered many questions from members of the club.

Announcement was made that the Lions and local Cub Scouts gathered 276 pair of glasses to be turned over to CARS. More than 11,000 pairs were contributed by Lions in Texas.

Next week Claude R. Meadows will bring the program.

HOLSTEIN ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES WINNERS

The Holstein-Friesian Association of America has announced the completion of outstanding official production records by registered Holstein cows in this area—Topsalo Pabst Felecia 3807764, a six-year-old owned by Billy Miller, Wichita Falls, produced 18,897 pounds of milk and 618 pounds of butterfat in 285 days.

Midside Sar Penny Ormsby 3617190, an eight-year-old owned by Gene Robertson, Burkburnett, produced 17,564 pounds milk and 625 pounds of butterfat in 336 days.

In contrast, the annual production of the average U. S. dairy cow is generally estimated at approximately 7,000 lbs. of milk containing 265 lbs. of butterfat.

Texas A. & M. College supervised the weighing and testing of the new Holstein records as part of the breed's official herd testing programs.

Congressman Purcell cast his first vote Tuesday—in favor of a $1.5 billion college classroom bill—although he says he is opposed to any federal aid to education legislation, which would deprive schools of local control.

Start An Honor Roll

There are still towns in the United States that object to being designated as "distressed areas" in order to get on the charity list of the federal government. Tyler, Texas, resented officialdom in Washington declaring it a "distressed area." Self help in Tyler refutes that tag. The Tyler Courier-Times wrote, "Who can we sue for slander?"

Baker County, Oregon, turned down the idea of asking the governor for aid in having the county declared a "disaster area" because of drought.

The Bisbee, Arizona, Brewery Gulch Gazette congratulated the town's city council and the Arizona Public Service Company for undertaking a "campaign to provide better street lighting, for reaching an equitable agreement, and for carrying it into effect with a well-planned program." Central government didn't hold the purse strings.

A national honor roll should be established for cities, counties and states that have the initiative and courage to take care of their own ups and downs, without running to a federal bureau for a public poultice every time they get a little economic knee skinning.

Commenting on the injection of the federal government into local affairs, Herschel D. Newsom, Master, National Grange says: "More and more the federal government is performing, directing, or financing services previously regarded as an exclusive responsibility of state or local groups. For years the Grange has been concerned by this trend. Our concern continues; it becomes increasingly intensified. However, the trend cannot be reversed—or even halted—by forces applied at the National or Washington level. The course has been, and will continue to be, determined by local decisions, backed by local

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Perhaps never in the history of the American Republic has there been such paradoxes.

Leaders of both major political parties have joined hands, or perhaps it is vocal chords, to decry and denounce the groundswell of conservatism in America, which is now labeled "extreme right radicalism."

To make the situation even more astounding, C. W. Harder joining with them in the loud and anguished outcry is Norman Thomas.

Norman Thomas, as many will recall, ran for president for many years as the candidate of the socialist party. A few years ago he retired from the hustings with the announcement there was no longer any use of him running, as all his objectives had been achieved.

Major attacks on the conservative groups seem to be based on their desire to cut non-essential government spending to permit tax reductions, to end the scandalous programs of the foreign give away programs which have cost the U.S. taxpayers $100 billion.

On several occasions, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, the nation's independent business and professional people have supported these aims.

The only substantial temporal force arrayed against the evil of Communism today is the United States of America. But U.S. strength depends on a healthy economy. It appears that the conservative viewpoint is that constant bureaucratic erosion of the U.S. economy is helping the Kremlin.

In fact, there appears no rhyme or reason in effort to contain communism.

For example, the Tito government of Yugoslavia is communist. But because the U.S. State Dept. considers him some sort of a "benevolent communist" U.S. gives him jet warplanes.

The U.S. has also given him in half million tons lots wheat to feed his people to keep them supporting his regime.

The present Chinese government is also communist. It is also having a tiff with the Kremlin. China has also been trying to buy wheat from the U.S. reportedly willing to exchange gold and silver for it.

The U.S. is not selling China, although allies such as Australia, Canada, France, and others are selling them millions of tons.

Three snakes, a rattler, water moccasin and a cobra probably would not get along together too well, but we betide the man who stumbled onto them while they were in argument among themselves.

Yet with one snake, Russia, the U.S. is permitting some trading. With another snake the U.S. is furnishing nourishment and the means of becoming even more deadly. But the third snake cannot even buy from the U.S. Is it any wonder there is confusion in the land as to how anti-communist the U.S. policy of the past few years really is?

action. It will be halted, or reversed, only if state and local groups fulfill legitimate responsibilities in problems involved."

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

ALTOONA, PA., MIRROR: "Washington, in its desire to attack business and impose wider government controls, tells citizens that prices are administered. Yet when Washington wants to lull the people about inflationary policies, they tell us that prices are, after all, still determined by the law of supply and demand."

FROM ONE GENERATION TO ANOTHER

Youth Activity Clinic Held Jan. 19

RALPH BRISCO

Principle Speaker of the Youth Activities Clinic Held Friday, January 19th.

"A high moral standard of conduct, as well as a good education, is necessary for our youth and the future of our country," declared Mr. Ralph Brisco of the State Public Safety Department at a Youth Activities Clinic held at the High School Auditorium Friday night, January 19th.

Others appearing on the panel were Kenneth Gage, Burkburnett Chief of Police; Dr. J. A. Davey, member of the City Planning Commission; Mr. Jack Robertson, High School Coach; Major Raymond L. Seidell, Public Information Officer of SAFB; Mr. I. C. Evans, Superintendent of Schools, and Clovis Mann, Burkburnett City Manager. Questions from the floor were allowed following each speaker in the informal clinic.

Mrs. W. T. Zimmerman, President of the Wichita-Archer Bi-County Council of the Parent-Teacher Association, served as Mistress of Ceremonies for the program. The clinic was sponsored by the Council. Mr. Brisco stated that with all the abundance with which our country is blessed, we are losing the most important phase of our American life—and that is the home and family relationship that must exist if we are to preserve our American way of life.

"We won the war with Germany and Japan in the early '40's, but at the same time, we lost a war at home," Mr. Brisco stated. "The all-out effort which was necessary to victory over the Axis powers necessitated the removal of both fathers and mothers from the home to work in defense efforts. As a result, the necessary close family relationship was broken. Juvenile delinquency reached high proportions. These same young people will be our leaders in the next five years," Mr. Brisco informed the very small audience that had gathered for the clinic.

Mr. Brisco stated that he regretted to say that conditions had not improved to any great extent. "Our young people have the greatest potential of any in the world," said Brisco, "but we as fathers and mothers fail them when we fail to give them a goal in life during their earlier years, and fail to consider them as an integral part of the family planning." Making a comparison with a bullet fired from a gun, Brisco said that a marksman that aims the gun accurately will hit the target. The parents that aim the child toward the proper moral standard will also hit the target.

"We are not aiming correctly when, as parents, we hold laws and law enforcement in contempt. We are aiming incorrectly when we, as parents, set such examples as running stop signs, speeding or the ignoring of other laws and rules that exist for our protection and benefit. We cannot, as parents, ignore and shun our duties as a citizen, and at the same time expect our young people to have respect for authority and the rules that govern a good society.

"The greatest, and almost the most costliest, investment a parent makes is in their children. We are very cautious and prudent in our other investments, and at the same time often ignore this most important investment of all. Young people need access to wholesome entertainment in the community, and above all, they need the close relationship of a family—the togetherness as a part of the family. Making a child a part of the family in reality—showing your interest in the child which will cause him to be interested in you, will go a long way toward preventing trouble later on." Mr. Brisco concluded his remarks by stressing to the young people the fact that the record they now make, whether good or bad, will face them the rest of their life. Kenneth Gage, Chief of Police, stated that during the past year the police department handled 50 juvenile cases of various offenses. The 50 cases included repeaters and a few others from surrounding areas. Chief Gage pointed out that experience here showed that Burkburnett did not have very much of a juvenile problem as such, but that the 50 cases could be reduced considerably with the cooperation of parents. Chief Gage also deplored the lack of respect for laws and policemen as exhibited by some parents when infractions have to be dealt with.

I. C. Evans, School Superintendent, stated that a problem too often encountered in school is that many youngsters do not know the difference in "yes" and "no". Lack of respect for discipline is one of the greatest problems encountered, Evans said. Pointing out the need for early training, Evans stated that school authorities cannot within so short a time, undo the damage done by parents in the first 6 years of a child's life in the failure to give proper guidance and control.

Dr. J. A. Davey, member of the City Planning Commission, stated that he had been asked by the Commission to survey the young people to determine their desires and their thoughts on the subject. The matter was presented to the High School Student Council. With the assistance of Mr. Jack Robertson, school coach, a cross-section of students with varied backgrounds were asked to present an unsigned paper giving their desires and thoughts. A summation of the papers included, among other things, a desire for stricter enforcement of the Curfew Law, and more places of wholesome entertainment in Burkburnett. They also wanted the Youth Center managed by an adult with a Board of Directors composed of students, with the Center being a place they could go and get a coke, sandwich, play games, etc., patterned after Student Centers on Campuses. They would also like this Student Center under the control of the City if possible.

Dr. Davey invited Mr. Robertson to present the summation to the City Planning Commission at its next meeting.

Major Raymond L. Seidell discussed the process by which Airmen are sent to Sheppard Air Force Base, showing that they come from different parts of the United States, and therefore have different and varied backgrounds. He explained that although they have a goal and purpose in life by virtue of being in the military service, they are actually the same as our own youngsters, with the same desires.

The evening program was concluded with some brief remarks by Clovis Mann, Burkburnett City Manager. Mann stated that it is not necessarily the function of a municipal government to initiate community programs, however, the City would certainly sanction and cooperate to the extent of its ability with any community effort that would be toward the benefit of the citizenship as a whole. "Your city officials have great interest and a great respect for our young people. We feel they are as much a part of our local government as any adult, and we hope that in our service to our community we can merit their respect," Mann said.

Current Literature Club Met in Home of Mrs. John Brookman

The Current Literature Club met at the home of Mrs. John Brookman, January 25 for a luncheon and Club Report Workshop. Mrs. Brookman, the president had charge of the business meeting. Plans were made for the food to be furnished by the club at the Chicken Noodle meals, served by the Council of Federated Clubs. Twenty dollars was given to the Santa Rosa District Scholarship Fund. Luncheon was served to fifteen members, and the afternoon was spent by working on reports to be sent to the Santa Rosa District.

EAGER PARTNERS

A heartening step in CARE's experience has been the effort of foreign nations, as soon as possible, to help feed their own people. Of 27 countries receiving CARE food aids as 1962 began, 19 pay all or part of the distribution costs under "partnership" contracts. Contributions to CARE's Food Crusade help needy families and groups not covered by such plans.

Contemporary Study Club Held Meeting Monday, January 22

Mrs. Eugene Griffin was hostess, when the Contemporary Study Club met January 22nd. During the business meeting plans were completed to cooperate with the other Federated Clubs in serving the Chicken Noodle lunch and dinner, February 3rd.

Mrs. Melvin Bailey, Santa Rosa District Press Book Chairman appointed members of the club to assist in judging the books: Mesdames Irvin Smith, Oran Wilson and H. S. Thaxton.

Mrs. Jim Maag, program chairman, presented Mr. James B. Foyce as guest speaker. Mr. Foyce gave a very educational program on Social Security. A question and answer period was most ably handled by Mr. Foyce. The members were clearly straightened out on numerous "I Have Heard" problems.

The door prize was won by Mrs. Cliff Wampler. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Oran Wilson, co-hostess, to two guests, Mr. James B. Foyce, guest speaker, and Mrs. E. D. Potter, also to the following Mesdames: Melvin Bailey, Joe Crowley, J. F. Eastman, Harry Elliott, Leo Evans, A. B. Fields, Eugene Griffin, Jim Maag, Joe Parsons, Irvin Smith, Chas. Schumann, H. S. Thaxton, Cliff Wampler and Oran Wilson.

Roger W. Babson Weekly Report

Roger W. Babson

Babson Discusses Retail Buying Patterns for 1962

In my 1962 annual forecast I predicted that retail trade will set fresh records during the new year. Not all economists are of the same mind on this matter, so I would like to point out my reasons for expecting historic highs in retail buying in 1962. Retailers from the largest to the smallest, from the big cities to the tiny hamlets, could be affected by a developing trend.

Money in Buyers' Hands
First off, it should be emphasized that workers earnings have been climbing steadily since the depression of the 30's, with only an occasional temporary correction. The gains over the past ten years have been continuously gratifying, bringing up the standard of living for the country as a whole. More and more people have had enough money to put aside in bank accounts, insurance, mutual funds and other forms of investment.

Since the beginning of 1952, average weekly earnings as well as average hourly earnings have risen over 40%. Even after tax deduction, the basic condition and morale of the wage earner has been steadily on the rise. To demonstrate that the uptrend is still strong, it should be noted that over the past twelve months hourly earnings have gone up 4%, and weekly earnings 7%. The rate, as you can see, is still very healthy.

Earnings vs. Living Costs

The importance of the great boost in earnings is highlighted by the fact that, during the same period of time, the retail price of goods and services has edged upward at a far less rapid pace. The consumer price index of the Labor Department has, in fact, risen only a moderate 13% during the past ten years. Over the past twelve months the gain has amounted to only 1%, a far cry from the 7% rise in weekly earnings mentioned above.

I am proud indeed of our manufacturers and merchants who have thus succeeded in holding prices down while wages have been soaring ever higher. This is not an easy thing for them to do at a time, when the squeeze on profits is ever tighter, and when labor unions are persistently seeking new raises and more costly fringe benefits. But I am confident that astute tradesmen will be able to hold their heads above water successfully in 1962, at least partly because of the tremendous retail turnover that I anticipate.

Labor Force Expanding

The labor force has been growing steadily, and the families of that force are the nation's buyers. While the unemployment problem has been a serious headache for the administration, it has not affected selling seriously, except in a few one-industry localities such as, for instance, coal mining centers. Detroit can be badly hurt during a recession or at model changing times, but employees laid off over the longer term can gradually be absorbed by other industries spreading out into previously all-auto sections.

I look for a continuing expansion of the working force and of employment generally in 1962. Even the jobless rate, which has been hovering around 7% for a about a year, has suddenly begun to move lower, and now stands, seasonally corrected, at 6.1%. Government economists are reflecting more optimism. One insider, in fact recently estimated that the unemployment rate may be down to 4.5% or even less by year's end. At any rate, the current course of employment is now strongly upward, the trend for

A group of boys and girls who will participate in the "Hardin Varieties for 1962," a musical program under the direction of Mrs. Anne Paul Ragan. Students from the 4th, 5th, and 6th grades of Hardin Grade Schools will participate. The program will be held in the High School Auditorium February 9th, at 7:30 p. m. Admission will be 50c for adults and 25c for children.

Buying Psychology Powerful
The nervousness and doubt evident during the recession now seem to have given way, in considerable degree, to renewed courage and confidence with regard to domestic prospects. Buying psychology in 1962 will be far less cautious, and even luxuries will be a good deal easier to move.

Babson Discusses Automation: Promise of the Future.

Only a few years ago automation was little more than a trickle within the economy, but today it is a river and tomorrow it will be a flood. The great question is whether its obvious benefits will be outweighed by the problems that it raises—such as mass unemployment.

Automation's Problems Will Be Solved

I have said before and I will say again that there has never been any indication that more machinery means fewer workers. Look back over the industrial history of this country, and you will find that there has been an unending outflow of more efficient machines and yet employment has soared from one new height to another simultaneously.

The sheer volume of machines is today almost incredible, and still employment keeps reaching ever higher. For the most part, our joblessness is due to an exploding population, a rather impressive group of people who would rather live on charity or unemployment insurance than work, and a reluctance to develop swiftly-paced programs to retrain and relocate workers displaced by the advance of technological improvements.

We Are Moving Rapidly

The influx of automation has been so unexpectedly rapid that many have been badly frightened; they think we are moving too fast for our own good. Some wish they were living back a hundred years ago so they would have fewer complications; others say they wouldn't want to be around a hundreds years from now with things changing at such a pace. Even the labor movement—which has some pretty fast moving men—is frightened by automation, and some laborites are crying aloud that there may not be any jobs in a few years. Let them be assured that there will be plenty of jobs—but many workers will have to move jobs.

They are led by an All-American O'Neil Weaver and Roger Morgan 6-8, Wayne Davis 6-7, Jamie Cone 6-4, John Guice 5-4, Jamie Cone 6-4, John Guice 6-4, and Dan Owen and Stanley Owen both Burk graduates also Bob Cash.

Facing Up To Changes

The change over to automated production is going to spread on and on, and certainly nobody will deny that a great many workers will have to move to other jobs. This is a fact and must be faced. Farsighted experts have often warned that, without automation, we would soon find we would not have a sufficiently large labor force to accomplish our work, introduce new products, and maintain our prosperous standard of living.

I noticed that a good deal of human effort is still needed even in industries and offices where the most completely automatic processes have been installed. It is said that a factory could be built so that every step from raw material to final product could be turned out by a handful of people at push-buttons. Keep in mind, however: Human brains must still work out the entire scheme, and human hands must build, set up, start, tend, repair, and maintain—and sometimes even stop—these "automatic" machines.

Automation Means More Spare Time

It doesn't seem to me that we are going too fast, everything considered. It cannot be denied that we in America are materially and spiritually better off than the people of the backward nations who have not yet had any such machines. It might also be said that no workers in the world's history ever had more healthful and attractive working conditions or received better pay than our workers today. It is the machine that has helped to bring about this prosperity, and newer and more amazing machines will bring still more in the years to come.

I am particularly impressed by the fact that high velocity and machinery and all forms of automation mean—and will continue to mean—steadily more spare time for workers. There will be a greater opportunity for enjoyment of the home and the family, for pleasant and healthy do-it-yourself pursuits. Even more important: Perhaps we can all employ some of this increasing spare time to cultivate the spiritual values which we may have been neglecting while building up purely material prosperity.

Only persons who have been dead for ten years can qualify for election to the Hall of Fame.

Weekly Report County HD Agent

Home Demonstration Club leaders received training for demonstrations they will be giving on "Shopping for Food." Thelma Home demonstration clubs will welcome visitors for this demonstration.

Americans will continue to live and eat well in 1962, with meat supplies abundant as they have been in 1961, according to Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, specialist in consumer marketing information with the Texas A & M College Extension Service.

The supply of beef will be about the same or slightly larger during the coming year, and pork is expected to be more plentiful than last year. Lamb, on the other hand, will not be as abundant in 1962, Mrs. Clyatt predicted.

Little change is expected in retail prices for meat in comparison with 1961 prices. Although there will be a slightly larger supply, the increase in demand will keep prices up.

Fryers will be plentiful as they have been for the past several years. Turkeys, which reached a tremendous level of supply this past year, may be down somewhat in quantity produced but in the first half of 1962 are expected to equal last year's supply because of a carry-over of frozen birds.

Miss Thelma Wirges reminds you of other outlook information for 1962. In case you are interested in eggs, egg prices for 1962 may be somewhat lower than the past year's prices. Egg production will exceed that of a year ago for a few months at least.

Modern Study Club Tours City Jail

The Modern Study Club journeyed to the City Jail Monday night where Mr. Kenneth Gage, Chief of Police, gave the group a tour of the jail. The group, along with Mr. Gage then went to the home of Mrs. Cleo Askins where Mr. Gage gave a very interesting talk on our juvenile problems. It was a surprise to our group to know that in our city alone for the year 1961, there were 51 cases of juvenile delinquency. The club then had a round table discussion of the causes of this problem and what we could do about it. We think this is a very serious problem confronting the parents of Burkburnett and one that the parents should be thinking and doing something about.

A letter was read to the club from Mrs. Philip Carpenter, Santa Rosa District President, stating that the District Convention would be held in Childress on April 12th and 13th. In this letter Mrs. Carpenter urged the club women to again enter the Vogue Sewing Contest. Five of our club women are currently making plans to enter this contest and also to sponsor a high school student in this contest. Mrs. Askins served delicious refreshments to 14 members and one new club member Mrs. Kenneth Palmer. The door prize was won by Mrs. Bill Reasoner. The next meeting is to be in the home of Mrs. Martin Wright.

Begin Food Shopping At Home . . .

You can save money, time, energy and sometimes your temper by beginning your shopping trips at home. Thelma Wirges, County home demonstration agent, says this is another way of saying that it pays to do some careful planning before you dash off to the store.

For example, in shopping for the food for the family, you can do these things at home while sitting in your favorite easy chair.

* Plan menus for a week or more in advance . . . This will save time in actual shopping, and in meal preparation later because the decision of "what to fix for supper is already made, and supplies are on hand."

* Study food ads in the local papers . . . Comparing food costs "before" marketing is both economical and time-saving.

* Make shopping list according to menu, plans and food on hand . . . Knowing what you need before you leave home will save time and energy. It will also help you avoid costly "impulse buying."

* "Time" your buying . . . Whenever possible avoiding rush hours will help save time and energy.

* Use store services, such as telephone and delivery services, in shopping for food when time is at a premium.

* Consider using milk and bread routes . . . This will save time and energy spent in extra trips to store and added cost may not be more than added cost of extra trips.

* Keep pads of paper and pencil handy for making a "want list." Add to list as you use up some item so you won't forget to get it. This may save a trip to the neighbor's or to store.

These are only a few points, Miss Wirges will use in training food leaders for Wichita Coun-

Soil Management Is Important For Good Production

Good soil management practices and well adapted cropping systems are the basis for a long continued and prosperous agriculture. These who depend on the soil for livelihood are likely to become too careless with this main resource, and this can prove costly, says B. T. Haws, county agent.

The physical condition of soil is of much importance in crop production, says Haws. Physical properties can be controlled by good use of crop residues, crop rotations, green manure and cover crops and barnyard manure. A deep, moderately porous soil should be maintained, rather than one that is too tight and hard to work or the other extreme, too porous.

Organic matter is of prime importance in keeping soil in good physical condition, points out the county agent. It insures a good population of beneficial soil bacteria, aids in water penetration, increases the water-holding capacity of the soil, improves soil structure and adds nitrogen and humus.

Wichita County soils are likely to be deficient in nitrogen and phosphorus, so in many instances fertilization is necessary to insure maximum yields. The addition of these essential plant nutrients can result in much higher production. A soil test is helpful in determining the proper amounts that are needed, says Haws.

Crop rotations can play an important role in improving soil productivity.

Wichita County Home Demonstration Clubs. These leaders will receive training Tuesday, January 23 in the Wichita Falls Texas Electric Auditorium. The leaders will then give demonstrations to all Wichita County Home Demonstration Clubs.

PARTNERS

A woman shot and killed her husband as the climax of a quarrel, and it came out in her trial that the couple had been punching and calling each other vile names all through their seventeen years of married life.

I mentioned this to a venerable lawyer, adding that quarreling was seemingly resisted by many married couples.

The lawyer confirmed the observation. He said he could mention two couples who fought for fifty years. In each instance, the survivors, after the death of their partners, went into a sorrowful decline because, without the daily bickering, life lost all its savor.

The club's budget for the new year was presented and accepted. Each club in the county helps with the County Council $10 plus helping with the Dr. Pepper booth at the Texas-Oklahoma Fair, with the proceeds going to County Council. The proceeds from the sales of cakes and pies goes to the club's treasury.

The Hardin clubs County Council representatives are Mrs. W. Roderick and our president Mrs. W. E. Goins. They will be to council what Hardin club is doing and bring back to the club what work we are doing.

A food workshop which was held on Jan. 30th has been postponed to Feb. 2nd at 2 p. m. Mrs. M. L. Hillis and Mrs. W. Roderick attending.

The program for the day Cutting Bees and Flower Gardens, was brought to us by Altha Hillis. Roma was an example of Mrs. Hillis. Take a cutting from 8 to 10 inches long and put it in sandy soil mixed with compost. Cover the cutting with a jar. This should be done in November. Leave the jar on until warmer weather sets in, the go out and just turn the jar enough to break the soil so the rose may get a little air. As it begins to grow raise the jar just a little every day being sure to pull the dirt back to the opening at night. Then as the plant gets used to the air you may remove the jar completely in the day time but covering it at night until the plant is toughened to the weather.

For the Flower Gardens be sure you know what plants go where. The tender plants should be set on the north or east. The hardy plants that need more sun should be set on the south or west. Just a sample or two on our more popular flowers.

Canna—plant roots in open, sunny enriched soil and water generously all summer. Cannas are a tender plant so lift the roots in the fall and store.

Chrysanthemums. Mainstay of fall gardens, best planted in spring. Blossoms in late summer and early fall.

Our next meeting will be with Mrs. A. A. Evert, 730 West 3rd at 2:00 p. m. Our program will be Taxes and Freedom. Have or did you pay your Poll Tax? Refreshments were served to one guest, Mrs. Peggy Ferrea and the following members, Lila Jacobs, Lillie Simons, Jewel Goins, Lillian Gage, Lena Cools, Alice Enderil, Nellie Askins, Altha Hillis, Dovie Evert, Julia Roderick, Carol Roderick, Larry and Gary Roderick, Veda Mae Krusemark and the hostess Grace Markum.

The Final Planning Committee of the Council of Federated Study Clubs meets to make final plans for the Chicken Noodle Dinner to be held at the Town Hall, Saturday, February 3. All proceeds of the dinner will go toward eliminating the indebtedness of the Swimming Pool. The above are representatives of various Study Clubs participating in the project.

Murtry, Mrs. Alvin Hill, Mrs. Floyd Marten, Mrs. Harold Van Loh and Mrs. Ralph White, Chairman of the Community Achievement Project.

GREAT VALLEY MILLS

Occasionally I buy such Pennsylvania Dutch products as bacon, cheese, and stone-ground buck wheat flour from Great Valley Mills, Kellers Church, Bucks County, Pa., which was established in 1710, twenty-two years before George Washington was born. This year, so the current catalogue says, is the Mills' 250th continuous year in business. Certainly it is the oldest business house that I patronize, and it must be about the oldest in America although it does not make the claim.

Burk Garden Club Holds Luncheon

One of the most beautiful parties of the new year season was the annual luncheon of the Burkburnett Garden Club. It was held in the home of Mrs. Brack Preston, Jr., Wednesday, Jan. 24th. Mrs. Jude Willingham and Mrs. A. H. Lohofener were co-hostesses.

One large table was beautifully set for the club officers and hostesses, with a pink linen cloth and napkins, lovely china, crystal and a centerpiece of white mums with a tint of pink in them. The other tables were set with pink and green place mats, green china trimmed with pink and pink centerpiece of carnations.

The yearly business meeting was conducted by Mrs. J. C.

Adams. Then a discussion followed on our project of the landscape work we are helping with at Hardin Park. We have a large number of trees to put out just as soon as the weather permits.

The highlight of this meeting is always the election of the new officers, which this club has always done by secret ballot and we as a club have always been real pleased with the officers that each member has a part in selecting.

The officers to serve during the 1962-63 Garden Club season will be: President, Mrs. J. L. Caffee; Vice president, Mrs. J. B. Riley; Secretary, Mrs. H. G. Williams and Treasurer, Mrs. C. F. Johnson.

There were seventeen members present and one of our honorary members, Mrs. P. A. Wiggins.

DIE-HARD

I wouldn't give up either for a year in Paris, but if I had to choose between television and radio I'd take radio provided it lived up to its potentialities.

When television came in, radio almost went down the drain. It's a shame.

I could elaborate my thoughts but few would be interested, and fewer would agree with me. It's like arguing whether it's better to be deaf than blind.
