Jack Connell Asks Re-election As State Repr.

State Representative, Jack Connell, Jr., of Wichita Falls, Texas, announces his candidacy for re-election as State Representative, District 81, Place 2 Wichita County, in the May 5 Democratic Primary.

Connell was elected State Representative from Wichita County in 1958, after reaching the age of twenty-one by fourteen days, being the youngest person ever elected to the Legislature in the history of Texas.

The twenty-four year old legislator, now an experienced veteran of two regular sessions and six special sessions of the Texas Legislature, said he has commenced an active door-to-door campaign in his district.

Connell has served on ten legislative committees during his tenure in office, the most important being Water Conservation, Federal Relations, Common Carriers, Military and Veteran Affairs, and Livestock and Stock Raising.

Connell stated, "I have always been a staunch Democrat and will continually protect States' Rights as well as advocate States' Responsibilities. I firmly believe that the Democratic principle of free government is the agency of a free enterprising system."

Connell stated that he is seeking re-election to enable him to carry to the people of his District for their approval the following platform:

- I pledge to the people of my district strong lobby control laws for those certain lobbies in Austin which are collecting and spending huge sums of money influencing legislation, state officials and free elections.
 - I will sponsor legislation to require state officials to report under oath to the Comptroller all of their outside income so that the people of Texas will know which of their officials have conflicting interests.
 - I pledge to you that there will be more laws and investigations made where needed to check gangland violence, gambling, bribery and corruption in certain of Texas' metropolitan cities.
 - I pledge to you economy in state spending.
 - I pledge to you that I will do all in my power to see that no new or additional tax impositions are made on the people of this state.
 - If re-elected, I will sponsor continued investigation by the House Investigating Committee of the State Insurance Commission with regard to automobile insurance merit-rating of policy premiums to determine any inequities, and pledge to you that I will support the Committee's findings.
 - I pledge to you that I will be a "do something" Representative for the best interest of all the people of the district.
- Connell, a native of Wichita County, residing at 4619 Mistletow, Wichita Falls, is married to the former Nancy Breedlove of Midland, Texas. They have three sons, Mike, 3; David, 2; and Stuart, 1 year old. Connell is a member of the First Baptist Church, Hope Chapter of DeMolay and the Wichita Falls Junior Chamber of Commerce. He attended Midwestern University and the University of Texas where he is a member of the Phi Kappa Sigma Fraternity and Reserve Officers Training Corps.

BITTER WITH THE SWEET

The 15-man Presidential Commission which spent more than a year studying railroad work rules made its report a short time ago. It urges the elimination of totally obsolete rules which cost the railroads huge and needless sums of money each year. It also proposes other changes which would benefit great numbers of railroad employees, both in their pay and their working standards.

The unions have rejected the Commission's plan in every aspect. The railroads, on the other hand, accept it without qualification. They are, in the words of the Association of American Railroads, "... ready to start immediate collective bargaining with the railroad operating unions in conformity with the recommendations of this Commission. . . . In our complete acceptance of the report, we are taking the bitter with the sweet, recognizing that no subject as complicated as this can be settled to the entire satisfaction of everyone. The public interest demands a prompt solution to this problem, and there is no question that this report serves the national welfare."

There should be no question of public sentiment in this case. The balance of power on the Commission was held by the five public members—the other 10 being equally divided between representatives of management and labor. These public members owed allegiance to neither side. They consisted of educators and other leaders of the highest reputation and integrity. Their purpose was to serve the nation—nothing else. Legally speaking, their findings are only advisory—but the irresistible force of public opinion should give those findings a far greater potency.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" BY C. WILSON HARDER

There are several bills pending before Congress which are categorized, somewhat loosely, as fair trade bills. The nation's independent businessmen, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, approve, and support this legislation, although there has been no preference expressed for any particular bill.

All of these bills have a common objective. These are most interesting bills. Undoubtedly the writers of them have in mind the contemporary problems of the predatory type of discount house, plus the flood of cheap foreign imports.

The philosophy of these bills is based on a U.S. Supreme Court decision that a manufacturer's interest and property rights in his trademark do not diminish or extinguish on transfer of merchandise bearing such trademark.

They appear to be more designed for the protection of an adequate price level on manufactured goods, and one of the purposes is to protect those manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers who prefer to handle quality merchandise. In the long run, there is protection for the consumer built into these bills.

The principle is quite simple. There is nothing in any of these bills to stop the consumer from gambling on any inferior merchandise he so desires.

However, it is also believed that those consumers who want a quality item, guaranteed and backed up by reliability, it should be possible for them to purchase such items.

In all manufactured goods, regardless of the care taken in the factory, there is the possibility of defects. The responsibility for taking care of any such defects is usually borne by the retailer, the wholesaler and the factory, together. A certain part of the mark-up at each level is set up to take care of such costs. In other words, the insurance policy is paid for by these three.

And in order to minimize the cost of this insurance, the maker puts into the item the best labor and materials possible. Unless a fair price is maintained, it is not possible to pay for this consumer insurance.

A discounter can obviously, if he can get his hands on the trademarked item, advertise it for less as he is not backing it up. Neither does he tell the buyer, "Look, once you buy at my price, whether it works or not, that's your problem."

Usually the customer does not understand this background. In good faith the customer buys a quality trademarked item feeling it is backed up. If he has a sad experience, then he is inclined to blame the manufacturer, who is absolutely blameless.

It's a vicious circle. Unless there is some protection for a trademark, there is little use for any manufacturer to try and build quality. Eventually, the American consumer will have only a choice of cheaply made as possible junk, with no guarantees of any kind. When this inevitable and eventual result comes about, the Japs will take over the entire American market.

Have Car Safety Inspected for '62 By April 15th

Less than thirty per cent of the registered vehicles in this area have been safety inspected for 1962, according to Patrolman Harlan Eades, Motor Vehicle Inspection Service of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

With the April 15 deadline, for having the vehicles checked, rapidly approaching, this means there are approximately 37,900 vehicles in Wichita County remaining to be inspected by the 53 approved inspection stations available.

Many motorists are going to find long lines awaiting them as the deadline draws nearer, due to the inspection stations not being able to cope with this large number.

The patrolman urged drivers to have their vehicles inspected as soon as possible to avoid this last minute rush. In addition, he reminded drivers that this time of the year is noted for adverse weather conditions which prevent the inspection stations from checking the vehicles.

"Passenger cars are inspected for brakes, lights, reflectors, horn and windshield wipers; while commercial vehicles are inspected for the above plus additional items required by law," Patrolman Eades said. "All motorists not displaying a valid 1962 inspection sticker by April 15 will be in violation of state law."

Bibbers love to congregate and so do those who like enriched ice cream and deep-dish apple pie.

Ben Ramsey For Railroad Commissioner

Lower prices paid by Texas consumers for petroleum products point up that our state is traditionally and consistently ahead of others in safeguarding the rights of its people. Railroad Commissioner Ben Ramsey said in Austin last week.

Ramsey, appointed to the Railroad Commission last September, is a candidate for the unexpired term of the late Commissioner Olin Culberson.

"The primary function of the Railroad Commission," Ramsey said, "is to protect the interest of the public. Success in this responsibility under conservation laws and court decisions is clearly reflected in the lower prices Texans pay for petroleum products. A good example, he said, "is that the average price of regular gasoline, excluding taxes, in Texas is five cents per gallon lower than the average nationwide price for the same product. This adds up to a sizeable annual saving to the Texas consumer."

Ramsey noted that a survey of 32 cities in 26 states by the Oil and Gas Journal showed that as of March 20, the average price for the 32 cities was 19.2 cents per gallon as compared with the average price per gallon of gasoline in Texas of 14.2 cents.

Texas receives some $412,000,000 a year in taxes from the industries which the Railroad Commission regulates, Ramsey said, and therefore, the Commission "must fairly and judiciously administer the laws and court decisions affecting these industries—transportation and petroleum—so as to provide economical and efficient service to consumer and industry." Ramsey, the first Texan to be honored by the voters with six consecutive elective terms as lieutenant governor, said the job as Railroad Commissioner is one of the most important in state government. "It is a great responsibility and challenge," he said, "I feel my experience in law and government qualify me for the position."

Even if I seldom read them, I would subscribe to four or five magazines just to give the postman something to do, and to give me an excuse to look in my mail box.

TELEPHONE TALK

by C. A. Deuschle, Manager

TV BIRTHDAY

Just 35 years ago, on April 7, 1927, an epoch-making experiment was completed. Special equipment developed by Bell Telephone Laboratories flashed an image of Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover from Washington, D. C. to New York... television was born.

Today, Bell Labs' search for new knowledge continues with the transistor, the Bell solar battery, and Direct Distance Calling are three of its developments. Bell Laboratories' continuing research helps make your telephone service better all the time.

SPRING'S-A-RINGIN'

This year, Spring's-a-ringin' with more home telephone conveniences than ever before. Here are three:

HOME INTERPHONE — a home communications system that lets you talk throughout your home... and even answer the door... by telephone!

EXTENSION TELEPHONES — in a wide choice of spring-like colors to brighten your home. And in a wide choice of spring-like colors to brighten your home. And in a wide choice of spring-like colors to brighten your home.

BELL CHIME — calls you to your phone in one of three ways: a loud bell, a soft bell, or a melodic chime. There are lots of others, too, and they're easy to order. Just call the Telephone Business Office or ask any telephone serviceman.

JUST IN CASE

To keep your telephone operating 'round the clock, we use special oversize batteries, much like the one in your car, to furnish the electricity. We keep them charged with generators which operate on commercial power. Should Burk Burnett's Commercial power fail, these generators can provide enough electricity to keep your phone operating for several hours.

In addition, we have stand-by generators which can provide service indefinitely, if necessary. Planning for emergencies is one way we assure you of dependable, uninterrupted telephone service.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

By E. J. BURKE, Jr., President, National Association of Home Builders

"A Better Home — A Better Life" is the theme of this year's National Home Week, which will be celebrated throughout the country from Sept. 23 to Oct. 1.

The most livable, enjoyable homes, in every price bracket, that the home-building industry has ever produced will be on exhibit during that week. It is the best time to see attractive new homes engineered to fit modern times within today's tight budgets.

Scientists Test Materials

The production of better homes for the lowest possible price has been for years a major objective of the National Association of Home Builders, which, with its local affiliates, sponsors National Home Week. Research into new and better materials is carried out through the NAHB Research Institute, which has a laboratory at Rockville, Md.

As part of its better homes program, the NAHB has built four research houses, where hundreds of new or improved building materials, from entire walls to glue, are being tested by scientists and by families who live in the homes. Many of the materials and products used are already on the market.

New Research Started

A new NAHB research project, started this summer at Berea, O., is expected to benefit home buyers further. It is a time-and-methods analysis, down to 1/100th of a minute, of every movement made in the construction of a house. Next year an identical house will be built at Berea using the improved techniques that result from this study. The NAHB will make the results of the study available to all builders.

In addition to contributing to better building methods and materials, NAHB is more than holding the line on prices, even in the face of rising land costs. A recent survey of our members revealed that the price of the typical home was $300 less this year than last. Last year the price was $15,200 for a typical home; this year it is $14,900.

It is in such ways that the NAHB is providing "A Better Home—A Better Life" for American families. National Home Week is the time to see for yourself the livability, convenience and comfort provided in 1961's homes.

Roger W. Babson Weekly Report

Roger W. Babson

Babson Discusses New Ways To Make a Million

When a young person has a really useful idea and takes it to a large concern to make and promote, he is often discouraged when it is turned down. This is because the head of the company asks only two questions: (1) Is it a new idea? (2) Will it sell? Unless it passes both tests, the big company will not bother with it. However, there is always an opportunity for a young person with selling ability and persistence to start his own business.

The Gerber Products Company
When I was a young man, my wife cooked certain foods which she gave to our baby daughter during the weaning period. Only within the last forty years has anyone manufactured "baby foods" to save the housewife work. A young man named Gerber, when graduating from Babson Institute, told me then his family was interested in this idea. Soon he went to Fremont, Michigan and developed the sales of the business.

The big food companies began to compete with him. He, however, with persistence and enthusiasm, kept ahead of them. Today "Gerber Baby Foods" are known all over the U. S. and in many European countries. The big food concerns had had generations to manufacture baby food, but it took Daniel F. Gerber to make a million from this idea.

A Fish Chowder Idea

Being a Gloucester boy, I always like a chowder every Friday made from haddock. Today, this haddock must be caught, iced, and brought into Gloucester. There it is filleted. These fillets contain only 40% of the food value; the head, skin, and bones made up the other 60%. These fillets are frozen or canned to sell for making fish chowder. Someday some young person will capitalize on the idea of grinding up the entire fish and making "condensed" fish, just as Mr. Borden made the first condensed milk. Instead of having only 40% of the nutrient it will have the entire 100%. When I speak to my Gloucester friends about this they reply: "We are too busy with frozen and canned fish; let some young person make this into a million-dollar business."

Every reader of this column should have a little stock in one of the drug companies which are working on two wonder chemicals — D. N. A. and R. N. A. Many chemists believe they will lengthen the normal life span many years and perhaps sometime create life itself. The drug companies are also working on a pill which will improve the intellect, the judgment, or the memory of a person. I am certain that our present methods of education will be revolutionized by these new drugs. Here is another opportunity for a young person to make a million.

I once asked Thomas A. Edison what he would like to do if he had all the time he needed. He replied: "Make a COLD light. My incandescent light consumes too much electricity as heat. I hate to think of the fire being able to do something that man cannot do." He was also much interested in birds. He said: "Birds are the only natural resource (other than gravity) that has not been harnessed. The land, water, sun, forests . . . all are the foundation of great industries." He believed that someday birds will be trained to forecast the weather and do other wonderful things. No large companies will bother with this, but it offers great opportunities for young people.

Automation and Electronics?

I have discussed these two subjects because they are so publicized in magazines and on the stock exchange. I am interested only in new ideas which will develop into "big money" for those with courage and ability. I like to call them our "sleeping giants."

It would be unfair for me to close without referring (again) to a book entitled "IDEAS" by Clinton Woods of 2803 Goodwood Rd., Baltimore, Md. Cost: $5.75 postpaid. He describes over 200 ideas which some young person has had the initiative to develop into big business.

START CARPING

Smart, cantankerous, slippery-lipped, cunning old carp this time of year GO CRAZY. Love is their undoing the gay devils. When you see them rolling close to shore, try this trick. Popcorn is the key. Fling a few handfuls of it over the water and retreat until the carp begin to feed. Bait a tiny (No. 8 but strong) hook on an equally tiny monofilament leader. Let the Judas popcorn float out where you saw the fish . . . and WATCH OUT. They will fight like demons. Ain't love grand!

Nobody, least of all our public officials, is quite sure where he's going or what he's going to do when he gets there.

THEY MUST BE WRAITHS

By Robert Morris
(Editor's Note: Robert Morris, President of the University of Dallas, was formerly chief counsel of the Senate's Subcommittee on Internal Security.)

Even though the damage wrought by Khrushchev's fifth column here among us has been monumental with our paralysis with respect to nuclear testing in the atmosphere putting it now again in sharp focus, the powerful campaign to minimize or deny its existence continues to flourish.

Every day's press gives prominent space to those "experts" who contend that there is no danger to our survival as a free nation from within. People who have had no experience whatever in the highly technical area of internal security are being heralded as authoritative voices swelling the chorus that tells us all is well in this vital area.

Seven hundred million Chinese are in bondage largely because of what our Communists and fellow travelers accomplished here. Cuba is Soviet today because of pressures within the United States. In the Congo, where there are no indigenous Communists, Soviet power has been imported by Rajeshwar Dayal and a clique of U. N. officials, with our support, who have fashioned a classical Communist coalition government.

Espionage, according to our Attorney General is now more extensive than ever. Soviet intelligence, downgrading its Communist party here, has been putting stress instead on its underground apparatus, its U. N. delegations and representatives, and its blackmailing and its pressuring of officials with past indiscretions and deviations of character.

As J. Edgar Hoover keeps warning us, the Communists in the United States are stronger than ever because external Soviet power behind them is stronger than ever. The external and internal threats are not mutually exclusive. The internal threat is greater than ever because the external threat is greater.

One of the poorest gauges of Soviet power within the United States is the numerical strength of the American Communist Party. After the Internal Security Act of 1950 was passed, Soviet Intelligence began to dismantle the CPUSA. It became the target of the law and emphasis was put elsewhere.

Yet, people who proved themselves competent in assessing the progress of the Communists up until then, kept their eyes on that ball, on the erroneous assumption that that was still the prime Soviet instrumentality. Meanwhile, particularly after Khrushchev's ascent to power, Soviet tactics changed and entirely new stratagems were employed.

Khrushchev's weapon "peaceful coexistence" which calls for our neutrality while Soviet aggressions continue, is highly successful today because the leaders of our society do not even understand it. Obliviously, Americans of good reputation are stepping forth and are taking upon themselves the task of neutralizing our churches, our educational structures, our powerful foundations and our mass communications media. Under "peaceful coexistence" it is literally true that evil men will triumph if only good men do nothing and remain neutral in man's greatest struggle.

Castro is assembling a powerful arsenal. He is building missile launching pads and has the rockets and missiles. He is assembling thousands of MIG planes and Soviet tanks—all directed against our land. Yet the Committee for Fair Play of Cuba, Soviet financed and directed, moves among us and is attempting to paralyze us from counter action against this obvious menace.

We are losing our lead in nuclear weapons principally because this same advance guard of Khrushchev has successfully maintained its campaign over the last five years and induced us to assume the fatuous posture of refusing to test in the atmosphere, even at random, our existing stockpiles or our new weapons.

When one observes the spectacular successes of the Soviets here in the United States in the last few years and then hears over and over that there are virtually no Communists here, he can only conclude that Soviet forces must be wraiths.

CITY GARBAGE REGULATIONS

The city-wide garbage pickup service and the elimination of wholesale trash burning has cut down our fire runs by 95%. This undoubtedly will eventually reflect it self in our key rate and effect a substantial savings in the insurance rates.

In considering the garbage pickup service your city council is certainly interested in your getting good service. We have discovered, however, that in many cases the ordinance is not being followed. As you know, the garbage service is contracted on the basis of the ordinance requirements. When there are those who don't comply with the ordinance, such as improper containers, or keeping the garbage where it is almost inaccessible to the garbage crews; such things make it difficult for the crews to stay on schedule and give the service that they could otherwise give.

You are asked to cooperate by following the ordinance in having the garbage in proper containers and easily accessible to the crews.

If the men have to walk more than 20 feet to pickup the garbage, the monthly service charge is $2.50. If the containers are within 20 feet of the truck route, and otherwise easily accessible, the rate is $1.50 per month.

Spot checking has revealed that in many cases residents have claimed the $1.50 rate when it should have been $2.50. A system has now been provided where there will be a constant check of rates by the contractor. Any rate changes will be made by the contractor, and not by the water office. Service charge to mercantile establishments depends upon the time required to pick up the trash, and the charge is based on $6.00 per hour.

There will be times when, with the best of efforts, the men will miss or skip a pickup. When such things happens, a call to the contractor, Virgil Aaron, 569-2522, will bring special pickup services to you. In bad weather, when trucks have difficulty in making the alleys, they naturally will be thrown off schedule. When such happens, we can certainly understand and have patience, realizing they are doing the best they can.

Little League Baseball Plans Announced

Little League Baseball of Burk Burnett under leadership of Commissioner John Larson has made plans for the coming year. There will be a Pee Wee League at Pee Wee Park (the swimming pool) at 7:30 p. m. on Friday, April 13. Requested parents and managers to play Pee Wee League must not have reached their 10th birthday before 1962. The other leagues will be Midget and Babe Ruth and their meetings will be at a later date. The season for little league is scheduled to open on 1962.

Corse Speaks

GEORGE CORSE, Jr. Candidate for STATE SENATE Station KWFT-620 Monday, April 14 11:50 A. M.

All interested persons are requested to attend a baseball meeting at the Youth Center at 7:30 p. m. on Monday April 16. So come on out all you baseball fans and help us get the program going in high gear as enthusiasm is running high. A Big Button Sale and Cake Sales are to be scheduled to help finance the program. There is a real need for help in this field. It is hard to realize just how much a program of this nature costs. Unlike other towns, Burk Burnett has no paid people in this program.

It is carried on completely through volunteer workers and voluntary contributions and profits made at the concession stands. In the past few years the voluntary effort has succeeded in acquiring three of the finest baseball fields anywhere for its use. There is a very small indebtedness on the program at this time, so anyone caring to make a financial contribution may do so by contacting either John Larson (Commissioner), Jerry Thomas at First National Bank, or Johnnie Herring, Secretary, at Herring's Hardware.

The teams are individually sponsored by local merchants who bear the expense of putting the boys in uniforms and supplying the practice equipment. Last years sponsors were happy to support the program and without them, the organized program would not be possible.

This year more sponsors are needed, so if you would like to sponsor a team, please contact John Larson, Jerry Thomas or Johnnie Herring or come out to the meeting Monday night, April 16, or send your representative.

This year when the first scheduled games start around May 1, we will be joined by our neighbor towns of Randlett and Grandfield, Oklahoma, who will play scheduled games with us both in Burk Burnett and Grandfield.

Remember, when youth activities are organized, juvenile delinquency goes down, Burk Burnett is proud of its youths. Lets all support them and all can by either contributing of our time, money or attendance at the games. So let's go Burk Burnett parents, let's all back Kid Baseball.

A reminder that we are invited to join Wichita Falls in a carp and gar bow fish shoot, this Sunday the 15th of April at Lake Wichita.

Those wishing to join a very popular up and coming sport of archery are invited to visit our club, the members and friends at the meetings, discuss business and retire to discuss and study archery and tackle. Current Literature Club Met In Home Of Mrs. Ted Roark

The Current Literature Study Club met in the home of Mrs. Ted Roark, April 5, at 2:30 p. m. for the regular meeting, with Mrs. Roy T. Magers as co-hostess.

Mrs. Fred Hunt, leader of the program on "Mexico, the Land of Manana," told about Mexico in Motion.

"Holidays and Festivals of Mexico," was brought by Mrs. Ralph White, who said, "Mexico is the year-round vacation land, the tourist trade being the main interest, plus bull fights. Tourists should remember that colors are used for traffic directions instead of arrows."

"Each village holds its own Festivals, and there is always a religious meaning behind the dance at the Festivals."

Mrs. White also told about Christmas in Mexico, and gave the Legend of the Mexican Flag.

Mrs. A. H. Lohoeferer spoke on "Mexican Folklore." She said, "Mexico is a mixture of races with Indian predominating though Spanish is the official language."

"Education is spreading in Mexico today, however, boys have always been taught a trade by their fathers. Handcraft is observed in the small villages. Cemeteries are really kept up-to-date, well-kept, with beautiful flowers and shrubs."

The speaker told about the Floating Gardens at Mexico City, where orchids grow wild, and the Legend of the Love Apple, or tomato.

Mrs. Hugh Jones brought a paper on "Cookery and Food in Mexico."

"Mexican cookery is always highly seasoned," she said. "And most dishes contain a paste of maize or corn, these being the staff of life in Mexico, together with beans, peppers, beef and chicken."

"Turkey is the favorite holiday dish in Mexico, cooked with a chocolate sauce, and seasoned with spices."

Roll call was answered with the name of a Spanish Song. Mrs. John Brookman, president, presided over the business session.

A letter from Mrs. Phil A. Carpenter, president of Santa Rosa District, was read.

Mrs. Ralph White, Scholarship Chairman of the Current Literature local Scholarship, recommended that the scholarship be a memorial, in honor of F. M. McMurry, Jr. The motion carried.

Eight members turned in reservations for the Santa Rosa District Convention to be held in Childress April 12 and 13. Mrs. Brookman was voted delegate, with Mrs. McMurry as alternate.

Library Week was to be observed with a Tea Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church Library, with the Current Literature Club as hostess.

Mrs. C. E. Lundberg reported that the Cancer Crusade would be held April 17.

Federated Missionary Society Met in Home Of Mrs. Minnick

The Federated Missionary Society met in the W. A. Minnick home, Mrs. Van Deren, vice president called the meeting to order. "Blessed Assurance was the opening song. Prayer was by Mrs. Knight. Roll call was answered by scripture verses. Welfare Chairman, Mrs. Haley reported on things sent to the State Hospital and their appreciation which makes the Federated Missionary Society happy we have a small part in helping. In May we will meet with Mrs. R. Kent, and for our program, Mrs. Johnson from the hospital will be our speaker. A note of thanks was received from Mrs. Maloney for a gift given her for making the Year Books. Mrs. Turner told of the box and money given the Roberts family. Mrs. H. Gilbert brought the Devotional from the 91st Psalms. Mrs. W. B. Short brought a very beautiful program. She quoted, To all Christians Easter has become the day of days. The observance of the greatest victory of all time, a victory over death; The assurance that for us also the tomb has been unlocked and we too shall be raised. For as in Adam all die even so in Christ shall be made alive. When one thinks of Palestine or the Holy Land, it is always in connection with the life of Jesus who spent His earthly years entirely within its borders. His wonderful life is the crowning glory and chief distinction of this small country. She said, "I feel like it would be a privilege to visit the scenes of Jesus life here on earth to walk where he walked to look upon the hills and valleys on which His eyes so often rested. No cry sounds from the wayside Jesus of Nazareth passeth by, yet this word is true to day. He walks unseen through our streets with messages of mercy. He cometh into our homes, is in our midst. The great lover of all souls to heal our minds and bodies, and to bless if we will receive Him. Jesus is the one hope of the world. Mrs. Raymond Scruggs sang two beautiful numbers with Mrs. Vann at the piano. "No One Ever Cared for Me Like Jesus," and "Jesus the Sweetest Name I Know. Mrs. Turner gave the closing prayer. A nice refreshment plate was served to the following Mesdames Miller, Gage, Morris, Bunstine, Gilbert, Jones, Minnick, Turner, Sloan, Ady, Vann, Haley, Kent, Knight, Short, Van Deren, aCntwell, Hall and visitors, Mrs. Raymond Scruggs, Joe Wayne Scruggs, Mrs. Lena Hinkle and Mrs. Beasley.

CAUGHT SHORT

A Washington matron once boasted she could make President Coolidge talk. Cornering him at a dinner, she sought to make good her boast. "Oh, Mr. President," she said, trying to disarm him with frankness, "I have made a bet that I can make you say at least three words." "You lose," Coolidge replied.

NEW WAY TO LACE BOOTS

Here's an interesting wrinkle on keeping laces tied in boots as you plow through briars and brush: Lace up to the last hole in conventional manner. Then push a loop through the top eye, instead of lace end. Do the same on the other side and pull the ends through the opposite loops. Tighten to conform then tie in back. Never come loose, yet unties in a jiffy.

Did you ever cut anything out of the paper without wrecking something on the other side that was worth more than your clipping, plus arousing the fury of the next reader?

The Marvels of God's Creations

WHY DO FISH LIVE IN WATER? We can answer this question partially by saying: that their lungs were created to draw oxygen from the water. However, to know how and why, we must look to God's word. "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth."... "And God said, let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life..." Attend Church and worship the one who created these marvels.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

ROLLING TIRE GATHERS NO HITS

That is, it won't gather any hits the first few times you try it. But paste a sheet of cardboard over the center of an old rubber bicycle tire and try rolling it down a hill across your shooting field. It duplicates an old buck on the lam.

Policyholder Questions Answered by the Institute of Life Insurance

Q. I have been told that I could make a good "profit" by paying some premiums in advance on my life policy. Is this true and how does it work?

A. It is not a "profit" but a simple matter of discounting the premiums you pay in advance. Most companies will now discount these at 3 1/2% to 4% and, as no income tax applies to this, it is the equivalent to an investment earning of 4 1/2% to 6% or even more, depending on your tax bracket. Meantime, you are in a very sound financial position with your insurance paid up for several years in advance.

Q. Women live a lot longer than men, according to the statistics, but they don't get any advantage on their life insurance premium. My husband and I (same age) have policies taken out at the same time with the same premium. Why?

A. Life insurance premiums are not based on the population mortality statistics, but on the actual experience within the companies. Many years ago, when relatively few women bought life insurance and there was a big "selection against the company" as it was called—that is a higher proportion of poorer risks buying than better risks—the companies had to charge a larger premium for women policyholders than for men. Then, as women bought policies more frequently, and the experience improved, the rates levelled off the same for men and women. Now, with women even more widely insured, the experience currently is reflecting more closely the actual mortality differences. This is reflected in the new mortality table legislation now going the rounds of the state legislatures for approval, under which companies may establish policy reserves for women on the basis of mortality rates three years younger than those for men of the same age. Three-fourths of the states have adopted the new law and the rest are expected to not this coming legislative season. When it is law in all the states, it should facilitate adoption by companies of the three year differential for all policies.

Vases With Versatility

Vases and flowers are, of course, natural companions but because of their elliptical shape, these star-studded vases lend themselves to other uses . . . as candleholders; or to hold the summer's collection of small shells or bright pebbles; or filled with scented potpourri. They even look pretty when empty because of their coloring—Ruby, Amber or Gold Lustre. An attractive arrangement for a table would be to use them grouped, some with flowers, some with candles. They come in 4, 5 and 7 inch heights, at approximately 39¢ to 69¢ each, in variety stores throughout the country. By Bartlett-Collins.

FFA NEWS

Look out rats and mice! The Burkburnett FFAA Chapter of Burkburnett High School has just launched their Vo-Ag Rat and Mice control program. Vo-Ag, the bait being used by the Chapter was developed by Harry Luck a Wisconsin dairy farmer. Mr. Luck learned that any rat bait will kill rats if you can get them to eat the bait. Most methods of baiting give no credit to the rat for being smart. Mr. Luck discovered from his experiments that in self preservation and food selection rats are smarter than humans. He devised a bait that outsmarts the rat.

The Burkburnett FFA Chapter is selling Vo-Ag Rat Bait as a fund raising project. The bait is packed in 4-oz cellophane bags. There are four of these little bags in a one pound sack. Rats are thieves by nature so they "steal" the little bags and take them to their dens. The whole rat colony is destroyed. The cellophane bags keep the bait fresh also. This allows continuous control for months. Other bait put in open bait pans becomes rancid and stale. No messy bait pans are needed with Vo-Ag Bait. The bait contains a mixture that attracts the rats and mice.

FFA Chapters all over the nation sell Vo-Ag Bait. The Burkburnett Chapter has been trained to apply the bait. If you would like an FFA member to come to your home or farm and put out Vo-Ag Bait, call the Chapter advisor, B. H. Farris at 569-3131 during school hours and 569-3240 at night. It should be noted that Vo-Ag Bait is 100% guaranteed. Also it is harmless to pets and children if properly put out. The Burkburnett FFA Chapter needs your support on this project. Call them and you will be more than pleased.

The winners were Weldon Nix with 351 votes; J. L. Mitchell polling 237 for second high and Hugh Veach retaining his position with 208 votes.

A total of 543 votes were cast in the election, which was way below expected turn-out.

GARDENING FOR BEAUTY AND PLEASURE

MRS. ROY MAGERS

A series of articles on "Gardening for Beauty and Pleasure" by Mrs. Roy Magers, will be a weekly feature in the Burk Burnett Star. Mrs. Magers, whose home address is on Shannon Road, is chairman for the Wichita Falls Garden Club.

Mrs. Magers is one of three accredited flower show judges in Burk Burnett. She has been very active in Burk Burnett and Wichita Falls in various club activities for several years. Among her many club activities she has devoted a considerable amount of time and effort to the Garden clubs. Her articles on "Gardening for Beauty and Pleasure" are of an informative nature, backed by experience and knowledge of the work.

With Easter just around the corner spring is busting out all over in the living plant departments of flower shops, garden centers and supermarkets.

So this is a good time to start thinking of those Easter plants you intend to buy. Azaleas, hydrangeas, gardenias, hyacinths, daffodils, lilies, all in clay pots, decked out with colorful bows and paper wrappings expectantly awaiting your selections as gifts for family and friends.

You can make your plants look sparkingly different, by giving them seasonal, personal touches. A trip to the dime store will turn up delightful decorations you can use—cotton chickens with feathered and flowered hats, some of them only an inch or two high—just the right size to roost on a plant stake among the branches. Or, you might try fastening several small chickens in a row on a branch with a larger Mama chicken offering a tempting worm (a bit of wool).

How about using a plastic egg tray, the kind that holds eggs in the refrigerator to hold egg shells dipped in Easter egg dye each shell holding a miniature cactus or succulent in a clay pot? You might accompany a bright hyacinth—which not only looks like spring but smells like spring—with a stuffed bunny or a couple of ceramic chickens. Slip the clay pot into a small basket or a flowered doll's hat lined with plastic film—and you'll have a unique gift all will admire.

Most house plant enthusiasts welcome plants for Easter even though they already have a generous supply. The thing is to hunt for something different and attach some information about the plant and its culture, typed on paper cut in the shape of a rabbit. Tie this on the plant with a colorful ribbon for a novel and welcome Easter gift. An unusual self-heading philodendron, gesneriad, or primrose would be ideal for this purpose.

Small plants in clay pots make charming gifts when presented in cup-cake baking tins lined with fluted cup-cake papers in pastel colors. Tie a pastel ribbon bow in the hole at the edge of the tin for an Easter look. The clay pots can be watered right in the tin for they will soak up moisture through their porous sides.

Fewer, better and smaller shrubs and trees in a foundation planting are the order of the day for making modern, low houses attractive. But for big or small, two-story or ranch houses, you can scale the height and the width of planting to make a beautiful setting.

The first rule of attractive landscaping is: Don't let all the advise confuse you. Get a piece of graph paper, so you can easily lay out house and planting to scale.

Things to remember: Use shrubs, trees and low, green ground covers such as myrtle, pachysandra, ivy and ajuga. Keep plants in proportion to the size and height of the house. To make a house look longer, plant well out from the ends as well as in front. If the foundation is high, mask it well with shrubs. If it is low, let the foundation show in some spots, above the ground cover. Use evergreens liberally. They look good both in winter and summer. Include some plants, especially trees, that drop their leaves in winter you'll get more shade in summer, more winter sun.

Use larger accent shrubs at corners and by the doorway. Plant low shrubs beneath windows, and make sure they won't grow, too tall. Your nursery can give you a chart of plant heights, widths, and preferred planting distances.

When you are tempted to plant "just a few more" remember that a huge mass of shrubs will over-power anything but a large house.

Remember: you aren't starting a botanical garden. It isn't practical, or pleasing to the eye, to set one plant each of 20 or 40 different sizes, colors and shapes. Pick several kinds that you like. Mark all plants on your graph paper chart, if you like, and move them around on the chart, before making your final decision.

When you have selected the plants you want, you have four choices. Plant full size shrubs right where they belong—plants that won't grow much bigger. This is ideal; also the most costly.

Or you can pick these same shrubs in smaller sizes, and fill in between with flowers, until the shrubs grow. Also you can plant more small shrubs, and move out some of them as they grow. Also you can fill in spots with temporary quick-growing shrubs, but you'll have to dig them out in a few years.

Rounded corner planting give "settling" to home and mask hard angles. Match shrubs for harmony, avoid conglomerate appearance.

The tailor looks at your clothes, the dentist at your teeth, the bootblack at your shoes, the barber at your scalp, and the girls look at your girth, your smile, your generosity, and your exploitable stupidity.

Ministerial Alliance To Sponsor Good Friday Service

The Ministerial Alliance of Burk Burnett will sponsor a special Good Friday Service on April 20 at 7:30 p. m. The service will be held in First Methodist Church with the combined choirs of the participating churches under the direction of Mr. Roy Harris, minister of Music and Education at First Baptist Church furnishing the special music. Mr. P. K. Wiley will lead the congregational hymns. The service will be based on the seven last sayings of Jesus that were uttered from the cross. The ministers from the churches of our city will give a short interpretation of each saying.

The Burk Burnett Ministerial Alliance extends a cordial invitation to everyone in Burk Burnett and surrounding area to come and be a part of this inspiring service. A nursery will be provided at First Methodist Church.
