QUANAH, Texas — Led by hard-running fullback, Henry Bauch, the Burkburnett Bulldogs rolled over their first opposition, the Quanah Indians, in an official scrimmage held here Tuesday night, scoring seven touchdowns to three for the Indians.

However, Quanah didn't let their fans down,, as they threatened to make a rout of the contest in the opening moments. On their second play from scrimmage, a fine AA All-state quar-terback candidate, Ridley Gibson caught the Bulldogs napping and rolled out around left end for a 45-yard scoring run. Gibson also figured in Burk's first tally, later in the first quarter, as Jerry Gingham intercepted one of his passes and raced, un. touched, across the goal line. A flat pass netted Quanah another score and at the end of the first stanza, they led 12-6.

The second quarter was a different story as the Bulldogs began to buckle down. Hardrunning by Bauch, John Nyby, and Jackie Cornelius, along with some slick passing from Dale Lewis to Johnny Koller, gave the Bulldogs control of the situation and set them up for the tying marker. A 35-yard pass and run play from Lewis to Koller put them on the five yard line, where the power-driving Bauch fought his way across the double stripe.

The second half saw the Bulldogs taking command of the show and quickly taking the lead. Bauch once again toted the pigskin over, this time from the ten. A short time later, Bauch figured in another score. Carrying the ball from the three, he fumbled just before crossing into paydirt, and Jackie ball for the score. The third Bulldog TD in the third quarter came as little Mike Musick tossed to Jerry Bingham for a 20-yard scoring effort. The Indians hit first in the fourth, scoring on a 65-yard run, but their joy was shortlived. The ever present Bauch was once again the mail carrier, scoring from two yards

Another tough fullback, Perry Ellis, scored the final marker of the night for the Bulldogs from 25 yards away.

The scrimmage gave both teams an opportunity to find will operate on the same cal- their weak points and try to correct mistakes. And this early in the season, all teams will have mistakes.

Pete Glover, Dana Matherly, Sonny Bentley, and Barry Davey looked impressive on defonse, along with Larry Rearden who was in on a lot of yoeman jobs of blocking for the Bulldogs. Rusty Kinnett joined Bauch, Nyby, Cornelius, Ellis and Lewis in rolling up ground yardage.

In a nutshell, after setttling down, the Bulldogs began to look tough on defense and swift and powerful on offense. The opening game of the season will be September 13 at Bonham, at 8:00 p. m. In Junior Varsity Burk whipped Quanah 12-0, with Charlie Herring scoring

SCHOOL BELLS AGAIN

Everyone's view of summer is different depending on his responsibilities, opportunities and role in life. Many mothers very probably feel it has been long, noisy, busy and hot. But a good many million children and dogs probably find it hard to believe that three months could have sped so quickly and that the school doors are about to open once again.

The sounds and smells and experiences of summer vacation are still an important part of growing up. But there have been changes, the old swimming hole may have become a concrete line chlorinated pool. The automobile and airplane have vastly extended the scope of things that can be seen on a vacation trip. School has changed too, as the frontiers of man's knowledge have been pushed back so rapidly in recent years. The amount of knowledge that must be packed into the heads of children in grade school and high school has vastly increased.

As school bells ring again, let's salute our young people and those who guide them through ever more complicated fields of learning. In the great affairs of nations, in science, and in the complicated business of leading a good and worthwhile life, our need has never been greater for concerned, intelligent, educated men and women.

guage of the treaty is designed to keep the price of coffee going upward. Senator Paul ers, especially when many of Douglas who was among those opposing the deal said it will ultimately cost the American consumer hundreds of millions of dollars in increased coffee prices.

out that argument advanced for such a plan was the necessity for U.S. to support world coffee prices to give South Americans more money so they could avoid going communistic.

Leaving aside the tired old cry of "give us some U.S. mon-ey to put into our hands or we'll clinch them in the fist of a communist salute," Sen. Norris Cotton, talked about the fallacy of this argument.

The Senator points out that pears, the House fails to pass coffee in Brazil is exported at the necessary implementing 34 cents per pound. He says "When we pay them nore, their governments take more." He then quotes from the argument advanced for the treaty, "the income from the export of coffee could be progressively increased to support their programs for social and ecnomic progress."

The Senator further claims, that means government programs. When will we learn that you don't win friends or inthese rulers are nothing but dictators. As a matter of fact, Castro will be a recipient."

It is strange U.S. government would again fall into the trap of a worldwide monopoly Senator Norris Cotton, who agreement after its experience also opposed the idea, points with Mr. Castro and sugar.

At a time when the world price on sugar was 21/2 cents was pegged at around 8 cents. In addition, the taxpayers also paid around $80 million per year to help this cause along, besides paying more for sugar than the rest of the world.

All this has led some wit to wonder why special men were picked for U.S. space rockets.

He said out that the money that will be extracted from the family food budget will not go to the people.

All astronauts, according to this version, should have been picked from the State Dept. because those people have been out of this world for years.

own dollars have been used to strengthen our enemiesand even to buy them advanced weapons of war.

One can understand that foreign aid distributions of billions of dollars are often wasteful and misdirected. That is inevitable in so vast an undertaking. But there can be no excuse for employing it to our own disadvantage and danger. A drastic change in policy has long been in order. Let us aid our friends, and stop right there.

ISTHE TIME TO CHECK THE LIGHT YOUR CHILDREN USE FOR HOME STUDY

Even children who pass the eye chart test with ease need special light for home study. Reading and other close visual tasks require plenty of good light to make seeing easier and to prevent eyestrain and fatigue. For best light from a table lamp, use at least 150-watt illumination. The lamp should be tall enough to spread light evenly over the work area and properly shaded to shield the light source from the eyes. A diffusing bowl is recommended to soften the light and prevent glare. Check your children's study light now. Better light means better sight and better grades.

1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar 42 vanilla wafers (about 1-3/4 inch diameter)

1 (1-lb. 14-oz. can) apricot halves, drained and finely chopped*

Line bottom of a 9-1/2 x 5-1/4 x 2-3/4 inch loaf pan with waxed paper. In large mixing bowl combine sweetened condensed milk, lemon juice and egg yolks. Blend well. Add chopped apricots, mixing thoroughly. Add cream of tartar to egg whites and beat until stiff peaks form. Gently fold into apricot mixture. Cover bottom of prepared pan with mixture, to 1/2-inch depth. Arrange 14 wafers (5 lengthwise on each side and 4 in center) on top of apricot layer. Repeat layers until there is a total of 3 layers each of apricot mixture and of wafers, ending with wafers on top. Place in freezer 4 hours, or until firm. To serve, turn out on platter and carefully remove waxed paper. If mixture sticks to pan in removing, first loosen sides with a knife. Cut into slices for individual servings after removing from pan. If desired, dessert may be ganished with extra apricot halves and sweetened whipped cream, Makes 1-1/2 cups chopped apricots. Line bottom of a 9-1/2 x 5-1/4 x 2-3/4 inch loaf pan with waxed *Makes 1-1/2 cups chopped apricots.

Hurrah! New Cereal "Animals"!

"Look! Little animals!" is a child's delighted response to the new animal-shaped oat cereal—Crispy Critters. This exciting menagerie of tiny lions, horses, elephants, camels, and others, promises a real breakfast treat for all children. And for a pleasant surprise ong with a big bowl of this new cereal, in place of toast serve breakfast sandwiches with a filling of cream cheese and jam. SERVING SUGGESTIONS:

1. Make a circle on the top of a frosted birthday cake and place animal-shaped oat cereal outside it, with all the animals standing up. Put the birthday candles inside the circle.

2. For a special breakfast surprise, instead of serving cereal with milk and sugar, use a scoop of vanilla ice cream. Top the ice cream with several of the little cereal animals.

3. Mix animal-shaped oat cereal with miniature marshmallows, raisins and peanuts for a lunch-box surprise . . . or use the mixture for a delicious between-meal snack.

Corn Remedies

Ancient Spells to Modern Science,

"Ha' ye any corns on your feet or toes?" With this cry, the itinerant corn-cutter plied his trade in the streets of Elizabethan

Although foot ailments have plagued man throughout history, and fully 80 per cent of our population at one time or another suffers from corns or calluses, no scientific treatment of foot problems was available until the turn [ of the century. What exactly is a corn? "When there is unequal pressureon certain parts of the feet," explains William O. Elson, Ched medical research director for Bauer & Black, manufacturers of Blue Jay foot products, "the body, in self defense, sends more blood to these afflicted areas. The added nutrition builds up new cells faster than the skin can throw them off. "The result is a tough, horny substance known as 'keratin', in the form of a cone-shaped plug or corn, or a thick layer of skin which we call a callus.

Plasters and Spell-Casters The battle with corns stretches to ancient Greek times. Hikesios of Smyrna writes that he prepared what was probably the first corn plaster in about 100

But apparently this noble art died aborning, since a Roman scholar, Marcus Terentius Varro (116-27 B.C.) urges the following spell as a remedy -"Touch the earth, spit down-ward and repeat 27 times: 'O Earth, keep the pain, and health with me remain, in my feet". A thousand years later, in the heyday of witchcraft, even more potent curses were the vogue. Albert Magnus, a German sage, recommends the following cure to remove a corn."

"When they bury an old man and the funeral bells are ringing, the following should be spoken: 'They are sounding the funeral bell, And what I grasp for use "when a person desires may soon be well, And v till I grasp do take away, Like the dead one in the grave does Applying the Acid Test

Although a few scattered scientific works on the subject appeared during the next centuries, the majority of works were in the nature of the do-it-yourself "doctor books". Our Family Physician by H. R. Stout, M.D., for example, suggests a hair-raising mixture of "Nitric Acid and Muriatic Acid, of each, half an ounce; Red Sanders, Opi-um, and Muri-ate of Ammonia" to banish corns. Early in this century, corn remedies containing salicylic acid became popular. These act like all acidic keratolytic agents: the acid penetrates through the horny keratin to normal tissue, causing the live cells to multiply and pushing the corn up and out. Salicylic compounds, however, work slowly, and in many cases were not completely effective.

Research Finds An Answer In 1948, beta-phenoxethanoic acid, or Phenylium — the first significant improvement in corn removal in over 50 years - was developed. The product of Blue Jay research, this substance affects only the corn, and has no harmful effects on surrounding live tissue. Clinical and consumer tests have shown it to be about one-third faster, more ef-fective and safer than salicylic

"Recurring foot trouble, how. ever, requires the services of a podiatrist," Elson warns. "Failure to consult one may result in permanent damage.'

and into the game on the winning side!

Why "sit it out" on the sidelines, wishfully waiting for the "break" that will put you on the winning side in the "game of life?"

You can make your own "break" by lining up with the team of purposeful people who know that the difference between wishing and having, between dreaming and doing...is systematic saving!

Money in a savings account is basic to the achievement of most of the worthwhile goals in life. . . including yours!

The way to GET it there is to PUT it there on an every-payday schedule.

NURSING MOTHER Q. Is it possible for harm/ul agents in to-bacco to reach the milk of nursing mothen who smoke and thus harm the baby?

SMOKING AND THE

A. Most doctors would prefer that the expectant mother and the nursing mother not smoke. Many substances to which the nursing mother may be exposed enter breast milk. This might apply to certain constituents of tobacco, to drugs, and to various other substances. Whether the nursing infant is actually harmed is somewhat beside the point . . . it just seems wise for the mother to provide the infant with food or care of the highest possible quality.

HOOKWORM vs. RINGWORM

O. What is hookworm? Is it the same as ringworm?

A. No, the two are quite dissimilar. Ringworm is an infection of the skin, hair or nails caused by various fungi. Hookworm disease is an intetinal infestation due to a species of round worms.

The parasites are called hookworms because they are armed with ventral teeth or cutting plates used to attach themselves to the intesting
