Guitar and Singing, Death and Sight

Guitar and singing? Gary Bean last Tuesday night displayed his talents to the local Lions Club. He sang two solos, and was then joined by C. J. Lippard who assisted Gary in singing "You Are My Sunshine" and other selections. Mr. Lippard was the program chairman for the meeting.

Death and sight? Dr. Davey who spoke during the latter half of the Lions meeting, presented several valid reasons why all citizens should consider donating their eye's cornea. First, he pointed out the need for people to donate their eyes. Many people, who are now blind, could see once again if someone would donate his eyes to be removed after death. Second, he explained that all competent morticians can easily restore the slight damage incurred with the removal of the cornea in order that the deceased might retain a natural appearance. Will you help some blind person see? If so, contact Janey Brown in Wichita Falls, Ph. 723-7543.

Bishop of Dallas Diocese Visits New Episcopal Church

The Right Reverend C. Avery Mason, Bishop of the Diocese of Dallas, spoke to the congregation of the Episcopal Church of St. John the Divine during the service of evening prayer. This was the occasion of Bishop Mason's annual pastoral visit October 19th at 7:30 p. m. Central to Bishop Mason's talk to the members and guests present was the statement that: "Man is living in the most exciting age since the beginning of creation. In order to receive God's many gifts of grace, men must first enter God's Kingdom. The Kingdom of God demands surrender to God's authority by the breaking of his self will. Once under God's direction, the great gifts of guidance thru Holy Spirit, fellowship and Communion are pre-eminent. The Bishop also expressed his excitement and approval of the new site and structure recently erected by the people of St. John the Divine, 1000 South Berry Street, Burkburnett. Prior to evening prayer Bishop and Mrs. Mason had dinner at the Town and Country Restaurant with Rev. R. E. McCray and officers of the Mission. Those present were Senior Warden, Junior Warden, Secretary of the Vestry, Treasurer of the Vestry, lay readers, President of the Women, Vice President of the Women, Secretary-Treasurer of the Women, Devotional Chairmen, Alter Guild Directress, Master of the Acolytes and Sunday School Superintendent. Discussion of immediate as well as far advanced plans for the congregation was conducted by the Bishop. Plans were discussed for the future main structure parochial school, and the possible sponsorship of a proposed institutional medical assistant to the community. The Bishop requested that there should first be open response from the community for such measures. A reception was held in honor of Bishop and Mrs. Mason at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold T. Sanders. Members of the Episcopal Church invite all people in this area to attend their services at 12:15 p. m. every Sunday at 1000 South Berry Street.

Bulldogs Move to Weatherford Friday Night For Not So Sure Victory Over Kangaroo Team

Humble Oil & Refining Company will sponsor the broadcast over radio this Saturday of four Southwest Conference football games. The Baylor-TCU game will be broadcast from Baylor Stadium in Waco by Ves Box and John Smith. Radio time will be 1:45 p. m. (CST). The SMU-Texas game will be broadcast from the Cotton Bowl in Dallas by Kern Tips and Alec Cheeser. Radio time will be 1:45 p. m. (CST). The Texas Tech-Rice game will be broadcast from Jones Stadium, Lubbock, by Connie Alexander and Jack Dale. Radio time will be 1:45 p. m. (CST). The Arkansas-Texas A&M game will be broadcast from War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock by Eddie Hill and Jim Wiggins. Radio time will be 7:15 p. m. (CST).

Weatherford has a halfback, who, last season, was one of the finest all-around ball carriers I was privileged to see in action. His name is Wayne Lamb, a 170-lb. lefthand. He has good balance and is hard to stop. Another bright prospect in the Kangaroo camp is a cool-headed sophomore quarterback, Ronnie Cauliflower. The Smith boys, Chris at left guard and Mac at right end, are also solid performers. Not too much can be said concerning last week's contest here in Burkburnett. The defense looked tough, but the offense couldn't find the range. Jackie Cornelius is proving himself to be a real fine linebacker, getting in on a lot of tackles. Big Pete Glover, Chuck Keathley, and Dana Matherly shore up the line, while Tommy Collins and Charlie Herring look good as defensive backs. This upcoming contest should be a good one. On the basis of Weatherford's play for the last two weeks and the Bulldog's play for that same period, I should pick Weatherford. However, one thing is in the Bulldog's favor. All of their victories have been on the road, so I'll take Burk — by two

TRICK-OR-TREATERS ARE GREETED BY WITCH WITH FLASHING EYES

When Halloween trick-or-treaters arrive at the home of Mary Jo Scruggs, left 741 West 3rd Street, they are greeted by a large witch with flashing eyes and a headless skeleton. On a flaming fire besides the witch is a black pot containing the head of the skelton. If the trick-or-treaters have enough courage to go past the spiders and bats and ring the doorbell, they are met by a "real live" witch who gives them a treat. Mrs. Scruggs said she started dressing as a witch on the Halloween her son, Joe Wayne, was three years old. He had been looking forward to seeing the spooks and goblins who came by for trick-or-treat but very few came that year. Mrs. Scruggs dressed in her costume to please him. The trick-or-treaters who did come by, came back three of four times "just to see the witch." Many of the residents who live near Mrs. Scruggs have expressed their appreciation for the Halloween display because it has brought so much enjoyment to their children.

Man And The Machine

The President's proposal that a commission be appointed to study the social and economic effects of automation has been generally well received. In the ranks of industry, government, and the labor organizations there is concern over the displacement of men by machines, and an awareness of the need for positive action.

The problem is a tough one. The goal is to make full and constructive use of the amazing technology that is developing, and at the same time to prevent it from destroying human values. If it is to be reached, a high degree of statesmanship must be provided by all concerned.

Management cannot ignore the problem and try to sweep it under the rug. Labor unions cannot hold tenaciously to ways of doing things that science is making obsolete. And government can't follow the always-futile path of passing more laws and imposing new and stultifying regulations on the economic life of the nation.

The material benefits that can stem from automation, using the word in the broadest sense, seem to be practically limitless. We, like the rest of the world, want and need them. And, at the same time, we must remember that the machine must remain the servant, not the master, of man.

Grass Roots Opinion

LENNOX, S. D., INDEPENDENT: "In observing some government officials' refusal to face reality in dealing with the adversaries of our system, we are reminded of the man who jumped out of a 40th story window, and when passing the fifth story called out to a friend, 'it has not hurt yet!'"

SANDUSKY, OHIO, REGISTER: "For weeks, the building trade unions in various parts of the country have been targets of demonstrations demanding preferential treatment for Negroes and Puerto Ricans applying for apprenticeship training. In New York, the issue came to a head when State Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz filed a bias complaint with the State Commission for Human Rights because the sheetmetal union would not jump

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" BY C. WILSON HARDER

This is a strange story. It is an unbelievable story. Yet, the facts are there.

While there are some in government who spend their waking hours assailing the "extreme right" of American political thought as the greatest danger to civilization since Ghengis Kahn, the United States Post Office through hall, sleet, snow, et al delivers...

C. W. Harder, Communist propaganda originating in communist nations, for free.

When the so-called radical right makes a flamboyant statement, it usually gets sufficient headlines so that all America knows what this element is espousing. But few know about the insidious foreign language communist propaganda deposited in mail boxes.

Rep. James Utt, Calif., has introduced a bill to stop it. In a nationwide vote conducted by the National Federation of Independent Business, 82% of independent business proprietors support the bill.

At one time, before the infection of communism, nations entered into an agreement whereby they would deliver inside their national territories second class mail free of charge.

Under the Truman administration, when it became known that millions of such pieces were being delivered by the U. S. Post Office, shipped in from Russia, with no charge whatsoever, an order was issued stopping this practice which continued through the Eisenhower administration.

Much of this material is printed in the native language of groups which immigrated to America. Some of it plays on the nostalgia which is natural to most people concerning things about the locale of their birth and childhood, larded with vicious attacks on America as "War mongers," "imperialistic" and all the other communist hate terms.

While none has been found to tell these new residents of America to start a revolution everything is done to create doubts in their minds about the American system.

At the start of the current administration, the long standing order was revoked on the basis it violated international courtesy.

Congress last year placed a restriction on this traffic in propaganda. It only got through because it was attached to a postal rate increase. Now post office must ask the addressee if the material is wanted. If answer is yes, post office must deliver free.

But now Rep. Utt wants this completely stopped.

Pornographic material is quite properly barred from the mails. Yet literature designed not only to destroy morals, but also the U. S. government as well as American lives, not only goes through the mails, but goes free as well. How far should "courtesy" go?

a Negro over 100 white applicants who applied ahead of him. So long as the unions treat all applicants the same, in order of application, they cannot be accused of discrimination either favoring white or Negroes."

ISLE, MINN., MESSENGER: "Spending by the Federal government for interest on the public debt will reach $10 billion in 1964—or $213 for each American family. How long can we continue spending more money than we have?"

WHAT COULD YOU DO WITH $8,000?

"A dozen things!" you say. But with most of us, the only way we ever get extra money is to save it. So put part of your income in Series E Bonds. For in just 7 years and 9 months, $6,000 grows into $8,000.

The time of year can almost be told by the food appearing on the table. And, what says Fall faster than a spicy Pumpkin Pie? Its rich, golden brown color complements the turning leaves and the hearty flavor is just right with the crisp autumn air.

Pumpkin Pie made with milk is as nutritious as it is delicious. Children and teenagers need 4 or more glasses of milk daily; adults 2 or more glasses. By using milk in cooking, you can help make sure your family will get the recommended daily requirement.

Serve Pumpkin Pie soon and bring Fall and good eating to your dinner table.

Pumpkin Pie

1 unbaked 9-inch pie shell	1/4 teaspoon cloves
3/4 cup granulated or brown sugar, firmly packed	2 cups cooked or canned pumpkin (1 No. 308 can)
1/2 teaspoon salt	2 eggs, slightly beaten
1 teaspoon cinnamon	1-1/2 cups half and half cereal cream or whole milk
1/2 teaspoon ginger

Whipped Cream

Measure sugar; blend in salt and spices thoroughly. Add pumpkin and eggs; stir to blend. Add milk and stir until the mixture is smooth. Pour into unbaked pie shell and bake in a hot oven, 425°, for 15 minutes. Reduce heat to 350° and bake 40 to 45 minutes, or until a thin-bladed knife inserted midway between the crust and center comes out clean. (Center will still be soft.) Remove from oven and cool on a wire rack. Serve with slightly sweetened whipped cream. Makes 6 servings.

By Cora Lee Harmon

After roll call of officers and minutes of the last session read and approved, members who were sick were reported on. Mrs. Peed reported that Brother and Sister Wofford were ill and had been for quite some time. Sister Skipwith as well as several others, were reported as being ill, also.

This is our first meeting night of that month. Edna Peed is chairman of the refreshment committee. All members are requested to be present for Sister Wakely's visit.

Sister Jean McPhail was back after having returned from McAllister, Oklahoma where Bob was buried.

There being no further business, the lodge closed in form. Refreshments were served.

Cora Lee played for this drill; she also, played for the Theta Rho's drill team of Wichita Falls. Sister Kathleen Moore was in charge of this team. Sister Pat Wales was in charge of 236's drill team. Just as the bus was about ready to depart from Dallas, Sister Nora Gulley had a slight heart attack and was taken to Baylor Hospital. The doctor released her about three hours later for the return trip.

Janlee Baptist Church To Present A "Budget Fair", Wed., Nov. 6th

A "Budget Fair" will be held Wednesday evening, November 6, at Janlee Baptist Church. The "Budget Fair" is a unique presentation of the church budget by means of booths and personal demonstration. It is an attempt to educate the church member in the world missions activity of his own church.

The motif is "country fair." The decorated midway, many beautiful booths, hot dogs, clowns and balloons will make the budget fair an informative and warm church fellowship.

The booths, set up in tents on the parking lot, will depict each expenditure of the church budget. "Barkers" will form tours and lead them through the fair area explaining exhibits. The tours will end at the refreshment area. Here the members may visit and eat until they are ready to go to the auditorium for the music and devotional program.

During the devotional program a Children's Party is planned for Beginner and Primary children. "Mother Goose at the Fair" will be the theme for the party.

All interested persons are invited to attend the Janlee "Budget Fair".

Pastor of Janlee Baptist Church is Rev. Travis McMinn. A. O. Heintz is the Chairman of the Budget Planning Committee and Mrs. Wallace Landrum is the Budget Fair Chairman.

THE SEASON FOR . . .

COLDS AND FEVER

THE COMMON COLD . . . one of the few viruses that man has not conquered with a cure. The only thing that we have come up with so far, are medicines to give us relief. Perhaps, some day, someone will come up with the solution.

There are many spiritual things that we do not know the answers to. These things we must accept on faith.

"The secret things belong unto the Lord our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law."
 Deuteronomy 29:29

God has revealed himself, his son, and his commandments, these are the major things. Attend church Sunday, learn more of God's will for your life.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

has an appeal to people living in rented houses or who are remodeling. It is not vented to the outside and requires no ducts. It is easy to install, but it does not do all the vented hood does, the agent reminds.

Miss Wirges points out that the exhaust hoods help to keep the kitchen comfortable by getting rid of the heat and moisture produced in cooking. The non-vented range hood filters the air and discharges it back into the kitchen and does nothing to reduce heat and humidity in the kitchen.

The new range and improved storage at the home of Mrs. J. A. Fouts was seen, as a part of the annual Home Demonstration Tour. The tour was held Tuesday. Other remodeling work was displayed by Mrs. Pete Wyatt, Mrs. Charles Norstrom, Mrs. Sidney Smith and Mrs. W. R. Stimpson.

Shopping for a clothes dryer? If you are considering a clothes dryer in the low to medium price range — from about $140 to $250 — here are some features you will find, according to Thelma Wirges.

Special features include:

- A timer you set according to the size of the load. Some provide up to two hours or more for heavy items. All turn off the dryer automatically when selected time is up.
- Limited temperature selection offer a single heat level to dry practically any fabric safely. Many budget models have, in addition to a single heat level, an "air only" setting for fluffing pillows or dusting draperies without heat. Some have two or three temperature settings for delicate fabrics, regular, and wash-and-wear loads. Even on a single-heat dryer you may find an end-of-cycle cooling period that helps keep heat-set wrinkles out of wash-and-wear fabrics.

A safety thermostat that cuts off heat before temperature gets too high.

A safety door switch that stops heat and tumbling when the door is opened, then resumes automatically when closed. Some have a separate start switch for added safety.

An automatic pilot on gas dryers to ignite the burner without lighting it manually each time.

A lint filter or screen designed and located for easy removal, cleaning, and replacement.

A push-button door latch for easy opening when your arms are full.

Possibly a sound signal to announce that it's time to remove dried clothes. This is essential for keeping wash-and-wear smooth, handy for any load if your dryer is in the basement.

In some, a choice of direction for venting to permit flush-to-wall installation in any room arrangement.

Roger W. Babson Weekly Report

ROGER W. BABSON

Babson Discusses Modern Schools

Everywhere I go I see spectacular new schools. I am reminded of the time my late cousin, the distinguished Major Elmer Babson, shocked the people of Gloucester about ten years ago by building a "modern" school.

New School Architecture

The local taxpayers immediately dubbed it the "New Factory," and they did not intend this as a compliment. But my cousin realized long before most of his contemporaries that the day of the old schoolhouse — built as an architectural addition to a city, with fancy columns and elaborate stone trimmings — was definitely over. He had the vision and the courage to make a radical change and to provide space for the most efficient teaching conditions possible.

We are in the day of "brain factories," — and rightly so. This is the time when every school house should be built as an efficient plant, with teachers being paid to be efficient managers, experts and foremen. Even the most backward school committees and taxpayers are adopting this "factory" idea with their cities and town the better off for it. The hope of every community is its children, provided they are properly taught the right things. (I think some of the things taught today are silly and pointless. And too many of the new school buildings are wastefully fancy and expensive.)

Automation Here To Stay

Every day students hear talk about AUTOMATION. This is another way of saying "automatic factories." Raw materials are fed into one end and the finished products come out the other. Such factories are worth what it costs to construct them, because they will turn out the same volume of shoes, cloth, candy, etc., with 50 employees that factories used to produce with, say, 500.

Let me say here that automation depends almost entirely on electronics which I trust is being taught in all high schools by now. Electronics makes possible two key things: (1) the turning of a very faint electric current into a powerful current, as illustrated by loud speakers and TV; and (2), the turning on or off of an electric current by light, sound, or temperature instead of by hand. This is seen in the "electric eye" which opens the door for you when you go into the supermarket.

Our Own Personal Factories

I desire to point out to teachers, ministers, and parents that their young charges already

100 Per Cent In P.-T.A. Membership

Ken Blankenship, President of Southside P.-T.A. presented a check to Mrs. I. C. Evans, center, at the October P.-T.A. meeting for having the first room to become one hundred per cent in P.-T.A. membership. Mrs. JoAnn Thomas, right, served as Membership Chairman for Mrs. Evans' first grade room.

Guest speakers at the meeting were I. C. Evans, Superintendent of Schools, and Mr. Maroney, Construction Engineer for the new expressway.

Mrs. Collier received checks for having the most parents present at the September and October meetings. Serving on the program committee are Mrs. Ruby Wooten, chairman; Mrs. Pat Adams, and Mrs. Robbie Hancock. Mrs. Wanda Pierce is Membership Chairman.

possess the most wonderful "automatic factory" of them all. All young people should realize that they own and control such an efficient factory within their heads. Show them how — with a good working knowledge of reading, writing, and arithmetic — this brain can make every student healthy, prosperous, and happy.

Water, air and proper foods are fed in as raw materials. These move along through conveyors and "cooking systems" not unlike those found within the most up-to-date electronic factory. The raw materials are magically changed into muscle and cultural "gifts." And there is far more. Students can turn an "electric knob" and find out whether his or her automatic factory will produce physical force of the sort used by common labor, brain power such as that required by executives and other leaders, or a cultural product such as music, painting, and poetry.

Use Your Factory Fully

I think it is time for school committees to wake up, and to tell students to do likewise. Automation has already caught up with us. You have probably seen one of the more fascinating results of electronics: Cordless remote control. You can turn radios and TV sets on or off without getting up from your chair, with just a flash of light. Darkness can turn on your burglar light, daylight turn it off.

TV channels can be changed without wires or cords, commercials can be shut off. This power of remote control all students have had from babyhood on. But are they using it to best advantage? It should surely be one of the great responsibilities of the public schools and of the parents to teach students their capabilities in time for them to use them early and completely.

TIP OFF

"Wife home from the mountains, Jim?"
 "Just got back."
 "Didn't she stay longer than usual?"
 "Yes. Couldn't afford to leave there while there were so many servants to tip. She had to stay until most of them were gone."

Modern Study Club Had Halloween Party Saturday, Oct. 26th

Pumpkins, black cats and spooks set the scene for a Halloween Party for the Modern Study Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dillard, Saturday, October 26th.

The beautiful Indian Summer evening provided the perfect setting for a cook-out. Hot dogs with all the trimmings were enjoyed by one and all.

Kile Bearden, Jr. High football coach, entertained the group with two of his skits and later the group moved inside for Forty-two and other games.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames Cleo Askins, Robert Case, Charles Griffith, Cliff Hagstrom, Ted Harris, Alton Lockett, Jerry McClure, Ted Pierce, Bill Reasoner, Gail Rhine, Jerry Thomas, Mrs. Darrell Nichols, Mrs. Vernon Smith and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Kile Bearden.

Kathy Ross Wright Honored With Wedding Shower

Kathy Ross Wright was honored with a lovely wedding shower Tuesday evening, October 15 at the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. B. L. Turner presented Mrs. Eldon Chapman who sang, "Bless Be the Tie that Binds" and "Always," accompanied by Maxine Bronson. Mrs. Turner then presented Kathy with a lovely assortment of useful gifts with "Cupid's Little Secret," written by Alma Knight.

Frances England and Lila Clemmer served refreshments to approximately thirty guests.

Hostesses were: Mesdames Frances England, B. L. Turner, Paula Roberts, Joyce Gill, Wanda Davis, Jeanine Fox, John Music, Hester Archer, Juanita McDonnell, Jean Ruther, Alma Mullins, Lila Clemmer, Maxine Thaxton, Ruth Beldon, Miles B. Hayes, Dorothy Duke, Josie Burk and Myrtle Hennis.

TEEN TALK

GET YOUR QUICK-COLLEGE-PICKER HERE!
By Mergie Blake, Carnation Teen Committee

It's hard enough to get into college these days—but it's even harder to pick one. Think about it: there are thousands of schools to choose from, and you'll spend the next 4 years of your life there (and pay for it, too). It's often a $12,500 investment!

When you want to pick a college, the ideal person to consult is a guidance counselor and a parent. Lacking this, try our Seven Serious Questions. The only test where all the answers are correct (if you're honest) and where you can't make a perfect score.

Should the college be coed? If you're a woman, do you want to go to a women's college? If you're a man, do you want to go to a men's college? Or do you want to go to a large university? Or a liberal arts or professional school? Or a specialized school? Or a small school? Or a large school? Or a school with a good reputation? Or a school with a good location? Or a school with a good faculty? Or a school with a good library? Or a school with a good sports program? Or a school with a good social life? Or a school with a good campus? Or a school with a good name? Or a school with a good history? Or a school with a good future? Or a school with a good present? Or a school with a good past? Or a school with a good everything?

See the value of asking questions? And here's an answer to what to eat while discussing Western Civilization I—the Dorm's Delight—made in minutes in an electric fry pan. Mix ¼ cup undiluted Carnation evaporated milk, 1-½ cup sugar and ½ tsp. salt in saucepan over low heat. Heat to boiling; cook 5 minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add 1½ cups diced marshmallows, 1½ cups semi-sweet chocolate chips, 1 tsp. vanilla and ½ cup cubed candied pineapple (1 4-oz. jar). Stir until marshmallows melt. Pour into buttered 9-inch square pan. Makes 2 lbs.

AD AND PLINKEY TOEPPERWEIN

At San Antonio recently a bronze plaque was unveiled. The sight of it brings back many memories to most old timers.

The plaque honored the Toepperweins — Ad and Plinkey. They are without a doubt two of the greatest shooters who ever lived. With this plaque their memories will live far beyond the story of William Tell.

The Toepperweins were a husband and wife team, unexcelled with both rifle and shotgun.

It is not too unusual for a man to develop high proficiency in marksmanship. But Elizabeth Toepperwein, better known as Plinkey, did. She was the only woman ever to shoot in the Seagart, N. J. national matches and win over the military. She required the personal approval of Teddy Roosevelt before she could collect the trophy.

The San Antonio plaque is recognition in itself. It recounts: "In December, 1907, at the San Antonio Fair Grounds, in ten consecutive days of shooting at 2½-inch wooden blocks thrown into the air at a distance of 25 feet, Ad Toepperwein missed only 19 out of 72,500, setting a world's rifle record which has never been excelled. During this exhibition which was a public one witnessed by a large number of people, he made straight runs of 13,219, 13,292, 13,399 and 14,340.

Of Plinkey the plaque says: "On November 11, 1916, at the Montgomery, Alabama Country Club in three hours and fifteen minutes of actual shooting time, using the same shotgun throughout the performance, Mrs. Toepperwein set a new world's trap shooting record for men and women, breaking 1952 out of 2000 targets. These targets were thrown from a regulation trap before a large audience, the longest runs being 289, 139, 111 and 106."

The Toepperweins traveled all over the world for Winchester, as a shooting team, putting on free exhibitions. One of the top acts was shooting the outline of an Indian head on a square of tin. The Indian heads always were left in the town where the demonstration took place and today they represent great collector items among gun lovers.

The memorial plaque, installed on the property of the San Antonio Gun Club, was erected by the Winchester Western Division of the Olin Mathieson Corp. Several high Winchester officials were present and took part in the ceremonies. They were officially welcomed by Mayor Walter McAllister of San Antonio, himself a shooter and a long-time friend of the Toepperweins.

Plinkey Toepperwein was born Elizabeth Servaty, January 23, 1882. She died January 28, 1945.

Ad Toepperwein was born October 18, 1869 and lived until March 4, 1962.

Fred Toepperwein, a surviving brother, was present at the unveiling of the plaque. To the Winchester group he presented a trophy that had been given to Ad Toepperwein, to be added to the collection in the Winchester museum in New Haven.

It was fitting that the bronze plaque presentation be made at the San Antonio Gun Club, where the Toepperweins had shot many times. This is one of the top clubs of the country, with military and civilian teams shooting every day, and even under the light at night.

The bronze statue will be where it can be viewed anytime by the general public, in recognition of the shooting ability of this remarkable couple.

They were an inspiration to many people who took up shooting seriously after watching one of their performances.

Ease Of Addition

One reason for the popularity of "H" and "U" shaped floor plans is ease of addition.

Extra rooms may be provided — as family growth requires — simply by enclosing the open ends of the "H" or "U".

According to the Southern Pine Association, such additions are further simplified when wood plank-and-beam construction is used in building the home. The wood decking of the roof system can be extended at comparatively small cost to bring new area under cover.

With a chauffeur at the wheel of a long car a woman feels safe, secure and important, and so does a man.

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D.
Commissioner of Health

Common colds and influenza cases increase during the fall, reaching a winter peak. Underlying causes pose a perplexing problem for scientists.

One thing they have determined is that a high standard of health promotes disease resistance.

With this in mind and a look at the calendar we are reminded that it's time to take an individual fall health inventory.

Inseparable elements of a healthy life are a balanced diet, plenty of sleep and adequate exercise. Persons who have chronic diseases or other health problems are exceptions to the rule and should — of course — be advised by a physician.

Panaceas proclaimed by health and food faddists vacillate from vegetarian to carnivorous diets — from taking an early morning swim to drinking warm mineral water. The list is vast, but a balanced plan for daily living, boasts modern health authorities' stamp of approval.

A balanced diet, according to nutritionists, includes daily consumption of the basic four: protein, green and yellow vegetables, milk and eggs, bread or other wheat products. Contrary to some popular theories, an inadequate diet supplemented with vitamin pills does not satisfy body needs.

The average person spends over 8,000 24-hour days, or between a quarter to a third of his life, in sleep. Physiologists are still trying to formulate a scientific definition of sleep. The need for sleep, however, is apparent. Fatigue forces the body to work harder performing tasks than it would during ordinary circumstances.

Physical exercise — a change-of-pace activity or recreation — is the most frequently overlooked aspect of personal health. Regular, temperate exercising enhances bodily functions.

Persons who consistently stay indoors in cold weather are most susceptible, statistics show, to the common cold. Modern scientific research has provided man with vaccines for such diseases as smallpox, polio, diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus and influenza. The individual bears the responsibility of keeping his immunizations up-to-date.

A final vital element in a personal inventory of health consists of a yearly check-up by the family physician and dentist. Physical examinations for persons middle-aged or older are recommended every six months.

Best Line For Bass
Puzzled as to which weight line is best for bass fishing? The heavier line is hard to cast.
Consensus of opinion leans toward the 12-pound line as the heaviest to use for good casting. The lighter your line, the easier and farther you cast, all else being equal.

FEVER IN CHILDREN

Q. Is sponge bathing recommended for reducing fever in children? Should water or alcohol be used?

A. There is probably no better way to reduce fever than to sponge the child with slightly warm (never cold) water or alcohol and promote evaporation by gentle fanning.

OBESITY AND SINGERS

Q. It is true that some degree of obesity is necessary in order to acquire a strong singing voice?

A. No. In fact, excess weight may actually interfere with the powerful movements of abdominal respiration that are necessary for proper "breath support."

CONTACT LENSES

Q. Is there greater risk of injury to the eye in the event of an accident when contact lenses rather than ordinary glasses are worn?

A. No, contact lenses do not entail any greater risk than do spectacles in the event of an accident.

Burk Garden Club Met October 23rd In Reddy Room

Burkburnett Garden Club met in the Reddy Room October 23 with Mrs. John Herring as hostess.

Mrs. Walter Riley was leader for the day.

The President, Mrs. J. B. Riley, presided. Reports on the past months business were given including the successful outcome of the finances of the Council Smorgasbord on October 3rd. A short talk was also given on the bus trip to Texas Garden Club Day at the State Fair of Texas.

The program included the setting of seven tables by appointed members. Mrs. Carl Morrison had the patio table. She used a round one with beige terry cloth cover and an orange and green color scheme which was carried out with orange and green enamel ware and an arrangement of persimmons and tall greenery to match the outdoor look. Mrs. D. C. Dodson had the breakfast table. It was most attractive in black and white Dansk ware, also had place mats of Dansk. To add color, small cereal boxes were wrapped in colors of green and orange in a black basket. Mrs. Taliaferro had the brides table. A white cloth on a small round table was used with silver appointments, silver candelabras, and an arrangement of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her china and crystal were from Japan.

Mrs. Grady Fuqua set a tea table. It was an extended drop leaf with linen cloth. The service was of 22 K. gold, china was Castleton and silver was Chantilly by Gorham. An arrangement of gold flowers with silver sprays made it very lovely. Mrs. Glen Bear had the luncheon table. She used an all white color scheme including the Rice imported hand made cloth, antique china and crystal that had been in the family a long time. The floral arrangement was "Iced Flower." Mrs. Virgil Mills had "After game." The table cloth was heavy green paper over the brass coal skettel was with ice and Cokes. The arrangement was a football in the midst of brown gold chrysanthemums and leaves.

Mrs. Walter Riley discussed the tables and their use. "present day trends influence the way we serve," discussed the use of china, crystal and linens. A member explained why used the arrangement on table.

Mrs. Herring, the hostess had a lovely table of gold and yellow punch in a bowl and tiny sandwiches cookies with the same motif. Also a lovely arrangement of gold and yellow. Fifteen members and the cious hostess were served this appointed board.
