Tornado Left Wide Path Damage In Sheppard Air Force Base Area

Hundreds of pictures were taken of damaged areas in Sheppard Air Force Base and the area to the southwest. There is not much to distinguish one picture from another. They all tell about the same story— complete destruction. Our photographer, Betty Boyd, was on the scene minutes after the tornado passed through.

Debris lodged on a portion of the fence left standing on the west side of Sheppard Air Force Base.

The remains of a trailer house in the El Rey Trailer Court. Many others were demolished.

Once rows and rows of houses were lined upon this debris covered acreage. In the path of the storm, only the concrete slabs were left.

The tornado had one peculiarity. It liked to stack automobiles on top of each other. In several places two, three or more automobiles were piled one on the other.

Two Nice Letters Complimented Burk Star on Special Edition 50th Anniversary Exten. Service

Mr. Harry Dodson, Publisher Burk Burnett Star
Burkburnett, Texas
Dear Mr. Dodson:
I read the March 26 Burk Burnett Star Edition on the Extension Service and the 4-H program. I thought the edition was real good and I have had lots of nice compliments from farmers and businessmen throughout the county.

Mr. Dodson, we do appreciate the support your paper has given the Extension Service and the 4-H program. We appreciate the special edition. Without the support of the press, our program would be lacking since we are set up as an educational tool for agriculture.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Dodson:
Through the thoughtfulness of Mr. B. T. Haws, County Agricultural Agent, Wichita Falls, Texas, I received a copy of the Burk Burnett Star giving special edition on the 50th anniversary of Extension Service.

This is one of the nicest special editions I have ever seen. You have certainly covered the program in a most interesting and pleasing manner. We shall make this special edition a part of our 4-H archives here at Texas A&M University.

Again thank you for your interest and support of the 4-H Club program in Texas.

The Different Times

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of light, it was the season of darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair."

These are the famous opening lines of Dickens' "Tale of Two Cities." Recently they were quoted as the lead to a release of the American Meat Institute. And they can be applied, in a certain amount—an encouraging outlook for the coming livestock supply; an improving economy; record employment of some 70 million people; along with record wages, business income, and gross national product. "yet," the release observes, "these over-all favorable circumstances are no guarantee of profitable operations in our industry. We have had record beef production in 1963, but cattle have been handled at little or net return. The problem for the industry is one of margins, and neither abundant livestock nor high consumer purchasing power is any necessary guarantee that the margins will take care of themselves."

The margins, in this industry's case, amount to the return for the service it provides. They have, more often than not, been inadequate, judged by general business standards. And this is not of real and lasting benefit to anyone—for a profitless or near profitless enterprise is incapable of the maximum progress the nation wants.

There is hope that the packers' economic picture will brighten. This is important if consumers everywhere are to get the kind of meat they want when they want it at an extremely modest profit to those who produce, process, and sell it.

The American Medical Association recommends that some applicants for drivers licenses be given medical examinations by physicians. This would be done when an applicant displays an obviously impaired physical function; when a driver has been involved in multiple accidents within a short calendar period, and when a driver must be placed on the "assigned risk" pool for insurance underwriting because of refusal by various commercial insurance carriers to assume the risk.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Inasmuch as automation, removal of production facilities to cheap labor countries abroad, and State Dept. policies of scuttling U. S. protective tariffs have resulted in unemployment, the taxpayers are being tapped for quite elaborate programs to "retrain" workers. This is largely resulting in some people learning new skills for which there are no jobs, either. But in all this flurry of "retraining," a major item has been overlooked.

C. W. Harder

In fact, some thought should be given, probably to the establishment of a new government agency to be known as BFRFPDE, or Bureau For Retraining Bulls For Different Purposes. In time, for headline purposes, this could become known as the Bureau of Bull.

The bulls of the nation, both Hereford and Angus, by following their natural bent, have aggravated problems brought about by flooding U. S. with imported meat.

Rep. E. V. Berry of South Dakota states that in 1962 more beef was imported than was produced and marketed in the entire states of Wyoming and South Dakota, plus six counties in North Dakota.

Rep. Berry points out that in negotiating with cattle farmers by European Common Market, State Dept. opened gates to U. S. market for foreign produced meat.

This has been done, he points out, because of the free nations for the goods in the United States is the only one which does not put up rigid barriers and control to protect the domestic meat producers.

Rep. Berry believes what is a cause for the goods is also cause for the gender and the American livestock producer should have at least equality with his foreign competition. This illustrates how far behind the times the Congressman has fallen.

Rather, he should be thinking of some other solution. After all, the reason for the existence of Hereford and Angus is to increase the beef production of this nation. Now if foreign beef is being dumped in U. S. market, then there should be restraints placed on American bulls, but never on the foreigners.

Now, of course, it is difficult to teach an old bull new tricks, but with enough tax money and a sufficient number of young theorists recruited, there is no doubt that sufficient bull retraining programs could be developed to make BFRFPDE the biggest Bureau of Bull history has known.

Perhaps these bulls could be retrained as fighting bulls, and then mark the introduction of bull fighting in American life. The Bureau of Bulls could then, with matching funds, encourage cities to build modern bull fighting arenas, which would furnish more employment, government employed press agents by the thousands could write about the drama of bull fighting, and in due time the American people would get their fill of bull.

A bulletin issued by the Public Service Company of Colorado reports that a time lock cigarette case is among the new crop of ideas aimed at the bemused cigarette smoker. It will help the too frequent puffler to go anywhere from 10 minutes to two hours between smokes. The case is preset from the inside and, when closed, will not open again before the preset time. The bulletin observes that hammers are effective, however, for those who overestimate their will power.

Senator Strom Thurmond says: "Khrushchev's wars of subversion take numerous forms, of course, but in Africa particularly, the first phase of such wars is to 'free' the colonies, possessions, and trusteeship from the influence and control of western powers, and make these countries 'neutralists.' Obviously, the more unstable the newly 'independent' country, the easier is the second phase of such wars, which consists of overthrowing the government and installing communists in control."

IT'S UP TO YOU

By

ABOUT two years ago a distinguished Presidential commission submitted its recommendations for eliminating unnecessary jobs in railroading.

Secretary of Labor Wirtz, suggested a formula which management likewise accepted but the unions rejected.

Faced with the necessity of a showdown, former President Kennedy retreated into another time-wasting study by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Finally Congress authorized an arbitration board to solve the difficulties. Meanwhile the railroads sustained a continuing loss of about $60 million a year for unnecessary featherbedding that brings many of them nearer and nearer bankruptcy.

This board finally decided that firemen are not needed on diesel locomotives and that some 40,000 firemen should not be replaced, since death, retirement, and resignations in order to take other jobs, reduce their numbers. This is a very mild and humane way of handling the problem and would not displace any worker. Nevertheless the unions refused to accept it and are expected to resort to every legal maneuver to delay or postpone it.

The arbitration award said nothing about the size of train crews in other respects, nor about the iniquitous and wasteful practice of featherbedding. The writer rides in and out of New York on a short four-coach commuter train which carries two conductors. One could easily take the tickets of the conductor.

Not long ago we completed a 60-mile railway journey in a little more than 8 hours. Three full train crews were each paid a full day's wages to get that 8 hours of work done. This cost the railroad three times as much as might be considered fair, normal and reasonable. Good wages are desirable but payment for work not done is un-American, uneconomic, and unless the practice is stopped, will continue to be a heavy drag on our economy, possibly to the point of destroying it.

Don't forget that the community property tax law in Texas requires you to either file a joint income tax return with your spouse or split the income and deductions earned by each spouse. The community property law also allows you to claim additional credits—such as dividend exclusion credit and retirement income credit. If you do not understand the instructions, ask Internal Revenue or a good tax practitioner.

For Summer, Too

Unlike clothing, a home has need of an ample "lining" in summer as well as winter. The Southern Pine Association suggests a "lining" of solid boards applied to the house framework beneath surfacing material. The high insulation value of this one-inch thickness of wood makes the home cooler during the summer months. It also increases the efficiency and economy of air conditioning.

Major Gen Robert M. Stillman assumed command July 26, 1963, to become the 21st commander and the 10th since the base's reactivation.

Jesse Owens Candidate For Texas Railroad Commission, Place 1

State headquarters for Judge Jesse Owens, candidate for Place 1, Texas Railroad Commission, released the text of the Owens campaign ballad which is being sung enthusiastically at numerous rallies being held on behalf of the Vernon jurist.

Owens' spokesmen state that a spirit similar to that engendered by the campaign of former Governor W. Lee O'Daniel has been noted for Owens "across the length and breadth of Texas."

Lyrics of the ballad, sung to the tune of "Deep In the Heart of Texas," are as follows:

"To set things right Stand Up and Fight And vote for Jesse Owens We must arrange To make a change So vote for Jesse Owens 'The little man

Needs a helping hand That hand is Jesse Owens So if you have been wishin' For a good Railroad Commission Just elect Jesse Owens

McLendon Candidate For Senate

McLendon gave special attention to civil rights and domestic issues this week in a moving campaign for the U. S. Senatorial race in the May 2 primary.

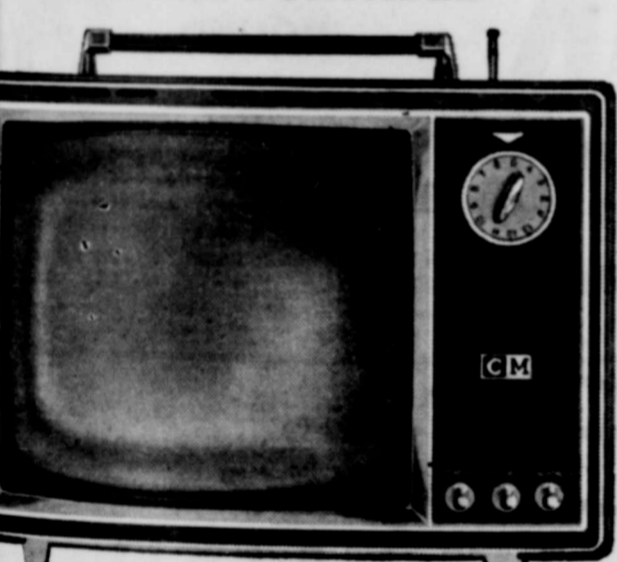

His radio executive emphasized his support of equal educational rights but elaborated on his support of provisions of the civil rights bill which would deprive of all ethnic groups the right of trial by jury, property and civil liberties.

present form the so-called rights bill posed the threat to our constitutional liberties since the Supreme Court overthrew an act in 1883," McLendon declared.

He asserted that increased opportunities a problem in both the civil rights and the administration of the "war on poverty," can be solved only by freeing business from bureaucratic red tape to promote business expansion.

Burkburnett Man Designs Helicopter

Above is the Higgins H-2, an original design helicopter which sits in the back lot of 703 Meadow Drive, address of its inventor, Mr. James H. Higgins.

Mr. James H. Higgins of 703 Meadow Drive, a retired Federal Service employee for 21 years, has been building and developed the Higgins H-2, an original design helicopter, since 1959.

The engine is an 85-hp Continental C-8-12. Length of the fuselage is 17 ft., height is 6 ft. 6 ins. Empty, the craft weighs 740 lbs and 80-mph is its estimated top speed. The main rotor blade is constructed of aircraft plywood with a steel spar and the airframe is composed of steel tubing.

The H-2 has made two test hops since October 12, 1962, which totaled 1 hour and 35 minutes.

Approximate cost of the craft is $3,000 to date.

A copyright design and drawing, simple enough for an amateur and home builder to use, is Mr. Higgins' final ambition.

Of his wife, Rosa, who works right along with him, Higgins had this to say: "Without her help, it would have been almost impossible to build the H-2. She deserves much of the credit."

Mr. Higgins and his wife, formerly of Nebraska, have resided in Burkburnett for more than 13 years. He worked at Sheppard Air Force Base approximately 12 years before retiring.

Terry L., a son, and their only child, is married and makes his home in Dallas.

For relaxation, this creative man watches television and plans further construction on the helicopter and other projects in progress.

First patients were moved into the ultra-modern regional medical facility October 28, 1963.

A DAILY INCIDENT!

Hardly a day passes without the newspapers reporting an automobile accident. Lives are lost and bodies maimed due to careless driving on our streets and highways.

Another daily incident which the newspapers often do not report, and to which others are indifferent, is the ruining of lives and character in the wretched, uneducated, and poverty-stricken parts of the great cities in our land. There are those who despair of ever getting out of their situation and as dependency sets in and a lack of desire to strive for worthy goals enters the spirit.

A loving God would have us aware of these whose lives, self-respect and character could be saved — if we were interested enough.

God often impresses the needs of His children upon those who attend His church. It is His will that we should show forth the love of God for mankind by helping all who are suffering. Attend the church of your choice this Sunday.

THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE

The Church of God's appointed agency in His work for reaching the thousands of His love for men and of His demand for men to respond to that love by every day neighbor. Without the grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will ever prevail and the freedom which we seek as men will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, we should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and to family beyond that, however, every person should support and participate in the Church because it sets the truth about man: his, both and before, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

News from Nat'l. Rifle Association

FIRST PRACTICAL BREECH-LOADING FLINTLOCK
The first practical breechloading flintlock rifle used by organized troops in any country was invented in 1776 by Patrick Ferguson (1744-1780), who came to America with British troops in 1777, according to the National Rifle Association, a non-profit membership organization recognized as the governing body for shooting in the U. S. Ferguson's gun was simple swift and accurate — years ahead of its time. One company of British light infantry was armed with it and, in 1777, Ferguson led them in action at the Battle of Brandywine. Later, at the Battle of King's Mountain, an American rifle ball ended his life at the age of 33.

MUZZLE LOADERS CAN BE DANGEROUS

A muzzle loader can look like a prime shooter in all respects and have a breech rusted paper-thin warns the National Rifle Association, a non-profit membership organization recognized as the governing body for shooting in the U. S. Always pull the breechplug on an untried muzzle-loading rifle or shotgun. This automatically reveals two hazards — a dangerously rusted breech and an old load. Guns can be fun, properly handled. And also deadly. That's true of any gun, but in particular, watch out for the old ones.

Dine On Duck Orientale

FROZEN MIXED FRUIT AND FROZEN PEACHES combine in an exotic sauce that is marvelous with roast duck or other fowl. A rice stuffing for the duck would carry on the oriental theme. When it comes to the accompanying vegetable, go modern with one of the new combinations. Frozen peas with pearl onions is an excellent choice.

CURRIED FRUITS

- 1 package (12 ounces) frozen mixed fruit, thawed
 - 1/2 teaspoon curry powder
 - 2 tablespoons brown sugar
 - 1 package (12 ounces) frozen sliced peaches, thawed
 - 1 tablespoon vinegar
 - 4 teaspoons cornstarch
 - 2 teaspoons butter
- Place fruits, curry powder, brown sugar, and vinegar in saucepan. Blend cornstarch with a little of the fruit liquid to form a smooth paste. Stir into fruit mixture. Cook and stir over medium heat until thickened and clear. Stir in butter until melted. Serve hot as an accompaniment to duck, roast pork, or beef. Makes 3 cups.

Farm "Produce" For Building

Thousands of Southern farmers who are making trees their principal crop, are deriving double dividends from the timber harvest. Aside from the income they're earning from timber sales to lumber companies, many farmers are using the end products of their "tree farms" to fulfill their own building needs. Seasoned Southern Pine lumber is well suited for trussed rafters and other modern devices which have brought simplicity and economy to the construction of farm buildings.

Nail Holding

While nailing lumber is no novelty to the average person, he doesn't always think of the other side of the coin — the ability of the lumber to grip nails firmly and lastingly.

According to the Southern Pine Association, this quality is essential to the security of structures and to the continuing snugness and smoothness of surfaces. For nails to stay tight, lumber should be properly seasoned and "pre-shrunk". Proper seasoning gives an advantage of as much as 400 per cent in the nail holding power of a structure.
