Fire Demonstration Given Dec. 2 At The Burk Burnett High School

They don't just happen—they are caused, Joe Smetana, Safety Director of the Texas Farm Bureau, pointed out in a graphic demonstration held Dec. 2 at Burk Burnett High School. He went on to name three causes for most fires: (1) Women and children. (2) The 45 minute program was used a variety of demonstration equipment and materials placed on table 16 feet high to dramatize seven facts about fire, its use and control: (1) What fire is; (2) how to control fires (3) that nothing is fire proof (4) kitchen fires and their causes (5) fuel vapors (6) the power of petroleum products, and (7) household wiring and overloaded electrical circuits.

produce an explosion force equal to the power of at least 30 sticks of dynamite. After demonstrating how fires can be caused by overloaded electrical circuits and improper fusing, Smetana pointed out that many fires of this type are blamed on faulty wiring. He suggested that "faulty thinking" is involved more often than "faulty wiring."

This demonstration, which was brought to the Burk Burnett High School under the sponsorship of the Wichita County Farm Bureau, is part of a long range fire prevention program now being conducted by the Texas Farm Bureau Safety Department.

Harrelson Nursing Home News

Mrs. Pauline Morris, a beautician at the Burk Beauty Shop, visited with the patients at Harrelson Nursing Home Tuesday and treated the ladies to shampoos and hair sets. She also gave permanents to those who needed them. Mrs. Barbara Myers, owner of the beauty shop, donated the permanent waves and supplies for this project.

The patients and the staff of the nursing home sincerely wish to thank Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Myers for their contributions.

Elmer Klinkerman Farming Champ

Elmer Klinkerman, who lives west of the city, was named grand champion conservation farmer, at the Midwestern Soil Builders Awards banquet, held in Midwestern University's Clark Center. Founder of the Bridwell Soil Builders Awards program, J. S. Bridwell, made presentation of the beautiful plaque to Klinkerman, says it is one of his most cherished gifts.

Beautiful plaque, proclaiming grand champion conservation farmer of the Archer, and Wichita County area, presented to Elmer Klinkerman, recently, by J. S. Bridwell, founder of the Bridwell Soil Builders program, at the Midwestern University's Clark Center during a program sponsored by the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce. More than $5,400 was awarded by J. S. Bridwell during the ceremony.

Klinkerman expressed his appreciation to Mrs. Ann Vogel, from whom he rents his land, for her cooperation in making the land available for him to win this honor.

The champion, who has been farming for seventeen years, has been one of the Vogel family for following fertilization ing practice on all grain terracing and waterways built as part of the conservation program. He also sprayed in a mesquite control program.

Elmer Klinkerman grows small grain and tries to plant at least 75 acres of Austrian winter peas. Besides the Vogel land, he operates two other farms owned by Mr. J. D. Kennedy in the Thornberry Community and by Mr. Irvin Vogel near Iowa Park.

In March of last year, this champion won the Outstanding Young Farmer Award of Wichita County presented by the Wichita Falls Jaycees. He won a trip to Fredericksburg and a tour of the Johnson Ranch.

Elmer and his wife have five children and live on the farm which earned him the coveted plaque and awards, west of the city.

Local Police Officer Praised

Chief of Police
Burkburnett, Texas
Dear Chief:

I want to take this opportunity to write you and express my sincere thanks to your department and Officer Harsh.

On the night of November 27, 1964, while driving through your city on the way to Dallas to visit relatives, I had auto troubles. Due to the fact, this was during the night, I was quite concerned about changing the flat tire, which was facing the highway. Officer Harsh parked behind my car and assisted me during this time. I have been through several cities, but this has been the first time any police officer has taken time to stand out in the cold weather to assist me. I feel sincere if more officers of this type were available throughout the country, we would have a better place to live without fear.

Respectively Yours,
FRANK ZANBRANO
Lawton, Okla.

Background of Roger W. Babson

American business has no more inspiring personality than Roger W. Babson, internationally known commentator and investment advisor. An outstanding feature of his philosophy has been his life long insistence on the importance of both religion and advertising in business.

Born and reared in an old fashioned atmosphere of hard work and hustle on a farm in Gloucester, Mr. Babson went to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Upon graduating he turned instinctively to financial and business activities in which his father was engaged.

His exertions, however, undermined his health; he contracted tuberculosis and he was sent West "as good as dead!" It was while he was convalescing from this dread malady that he worked out some of the possibilities and problems of business forecasting. His weekly releases are used by over 400 newspapers and his financial reports by 20,000 corporations and estates. His research work is carried on by a large staff of experts.

Mr. Babson founded Babson Institute for Men; and in co-operation with the late Mrs. Babson, developed Webber College for Women — both nationally-known educational institutions. Here young men and women may concentrate on fundamentals of honest and efficient business administration. Later, he founded a Midwest Institute of Business administration, located in Eureka, Kansas, the center of the United States. He has been active also in the establishment of other mediums of service to the public, such as the Gravity Research Foundation, located at New Boston, New Hampshire.

Mr. Babson has probably done more than any other man to create among his millions of newspaper readers an interest in simple business problems, and to instill a broader vision in businessmen, enabling them to meet the ups and downs of the business cycle.

THANK YOU

— We would like to express our deep gratitude and appreciation to the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion and to the many kind people of Burk Burnett who helped replace our belongings which were lost by fire. Thank each and everyone of you.

Sunday Dec. 13, Safety Sunday OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM

By JOHN CONNALLY
Governor of Texas

GREETINGS:

Highway accidents in our Nation continue to take more than 40,000 lives annually. 2,729 persons were killed and 161,543 were injured on Texas streets and highways in 1963 despite an intensive and continuing campaign by both official State agencies and citizen — support groups.

The experience of the Texas Department of Public Safety, the Governor's Office, the Texas Safety Association, local safety councils and thousands of law enforcement officials indicate that the solution to this critical problem lies in the hands of the individual driver.

It is essential that every Texas driver realize that safety for himself, his loved ones and his friends, as well as other drivers and passengers is a matter of moral responsibility, and the useless infliction of human injury is an abuse of God's most precious gift—life itself.

Tip, to keep cuffs on white blouses clean — Cut the toes out of men's sox (boss, husband, brother) and wear the remainder of sox over your sleeves. (It might be advisable to get permission from the owner of the sox.) One other thing, try to remember to remove sox from arms before going out in public!

HALF-SLAVE, HALF-FREE

Federal control of the entire petroleum industry — "down to the last drill bit" — is threatened in "an over-reach of power" through unchecked policy-making never intended by Congress.

That is the view of the president of the Independent Petroleum Association of America. And he bases it on a hard foundation — federal regulation of natural gas at the wellhead.

This resulted from a Supreme Court decision which necessitated regulation by the Federal Trade Commission. The result, long years later, can fairly be described as chaotic. Gas production, as distinct from gas distribution, has none of the characteristics of a public utility operation. It is intensely and directly competitive. Each well and each producing area has different problems and requirements. The Commission has tried and is trying varied regulatory systems, and all have been failures. That is not the Commission's fault — it was simply given a task that it should not, and cannot handle.

Of all the fuels, as the Association spokesman also pointed out, only gas is subject to federal price fixing. The consequence is that the petroleum industry is "half-slave of the price fixers, and temporarily half-free . . ." And "temporarily" is the operative word there. For regulation of the gas producers could very well prove to be the foot in one door that would lead to centralized control over all our sources of energy.

A strong movement is afoot for Congress to change the law and let free competition play its logical and rightful role in the production and sale of gas at the wellhead. May it prove successful.

The Hardin PTA held its Fun Night recently in the Hardin and Primary buildings. Activities began at 6:00 p. m. with the different rooms having various booths, such as grab bag, beauty shop, fish pond, wet sponge throw and many others. After the booths were closed about 8 o'clock, most everyone assembled in the auditorium for a talent show presented by volunteers from grades one thru five. The talent included two groups imitating the Beatles, piano and vocal solos, pantomimes, twirling and others. Everyone had an enjoyable time. The president wishes to thank the other officers, teachers, parents and everyone who helped to make the Fun Night a success. Proceeds from the Fun Night will be used to meet the budget adopted earlier this year.

The Christmas Gift

Often in the Christmas present under the tree is a gun for a boy and it is good for our boys to understand the use of firearms.

However, this places upon the parents or guardian, the responsibility of seeing that he learns the proper care and use of his new weapon (B-B Guns as well as other kinds). Failure to do this may result in accident, to himself or others.

One lad here in Burk, delights in coming out of his house and taking a pot shot at something then dashing back in the house before someone sees him. At one time he threatened my wife because she got after him for shooting at the birds. One report has it tho not verified that one of his shots with a pellet gun had injured a man walking along the street.

Gun clubs are usually more than ready to teach gun safety to young hunters. The Gun Shop in Burkburnett I'm sure will be able to tell you when and where they meet.

The right to have and bear arms shall not be denied, true! But with that right goes the responsibility of the lawful and proper use.

Guns do not kill people, it is people who kill people!

Policyholder Questions Answered by the Institute of Life Insurance 277 Park Ave., N.Y., N.Y., 10017

Q. Twenty years ago, when I was 35 years old, I took out a $10,000 ordinary life insurance policy with — Insurance Company, and have paid a $222.40 premium each year, or a total of $4,448.00. So the company now has at risk only $5,552, less whatever it has earned by investing my money all these years. Yet I am still being charged a $222.40 premium. Is this fair?

A. It sounds like someone has badly misinformed you about your life insurance. When your policy was issued, the company guaranteed to cover you with $10,000 of protection for the rest of your life, regardless of how long you might live. Part of each premium payment has been used to provide this protection for you during the past 20 years. Furthermore, the company guaranteed never to raise your premium, regardless of the increasing mortality risk each year as you get older. The death rate at your present age (presumably 55 years) runs about 400% to 500% higher than at age 35, when you took out your policy. Yet your premium remains $222.40.

The only way the company can do this is to build up a reserve fund to meet its future obligations under your policy. Part of your premium payments go into this fund. A large part of the company's investment earnings also are used to build up the fund (so that you receive the major benefit of what the company earns from investing your money).

If you keep your policy in force long enough, it is absolutely certain that someday your life insurance company will have to pay you or your family $10,000, much of which must come from this reserve fund. Or, if you should decide to give up your protection, the company will pay you the cash value of your policy — now about $3,380 — which equals your share of the reserve fund. Could anything be fairer than that?

THE NATIONAL OUTLOOK

THE RIGHT TO QUIT

By GEORGE HAGEDORN

In our private enterprise system economic growth depends obviously on the freedom of individuals and corporations to establish new enterprises and expand old ones. It depends just as truly, but perhaps not so obviously, on the freedom to go out of business when the owners decide that is the best thing to do.

The reason is that every business operation involves risk, and few would be ready to undertake such risks in the knowledge that they might forever be denied the opportunity of calling it a day and cutting their losses. You might be willing to walk down a path even if you weren't absolutely sure where it was leading, but not if you were told in advance that you could never turn back.

Long Controversy

Yet there have been attempts on the part of federal regulatory bodies to limit or deny the right to go out of business—or to impose penalties that make business termination an ineffective way of cutting losses. One instance is the controversy between the National Labor Relations Board and the Darlington Manufacturing Company.

Darlington was a manufacturer of textiles which, after a series of difficulties, went out of business in 1956.

One of the factors, although only one, in the decision of the stockholders to liquidate was the fact that the Textile workers Union had won a representation election in the same year. The union had made promises to the employees involving demands that would have been very costly to the company.

After a long process of hearings, the National Labor Relations Board decided that Darlington was guilty of an unfair labor practice in closing down its plant. The Board then imposed the penalty on another corporation, Deering Miliken, Inc., which was part owner and sales representative for Darlington. Deering Miliken and certain other corporations for which it was also sales agent were held liable for paying wages or providing jobs for the displaced employees from the time of Darlington's termination. Although this group had stockholders in common with Darlington, it also had stockholders who did not own shares in the liquidated company.

Decision Awaited

The Board's decision was overruled by the U. S. Court of Appeals which decided that Darlington had an absolute right to go out of business and that the NLRB could not impose damages against other corporations. The union has appealed this decision to the U. S. Supreme Court which will consider it shortly.

If the Board's original ruling is reinstated the immediate consequence for Deering Miliken and the other companies involved will be serious. Since eight years have elapsed, the cost of making up wages for unemployed workers would be huge. Persons who never owned any shares in Darlington, but who happen to be stockholders in the other companies would have

HOLIDAY BRIEFS

Treat family and guests to something different—a holiday barbecue! A closed kettle barbecue that fits into a fireplace is made by Weber; the device can turn routine meals into feasts.

Like to get Old Spice—or new toys—for Christmas? Happy parents and kids owe a vote of thanks to Henry VII of England; he popularized the giving of Christmas gifts in his country.

A gift the whole family can enjoy is something to make camping trips more fun. Consider a camp-stove, cooler, portable oven—or a Coleman lantern which gives up to ten hours of light on one filling of white, unleaded fuel.

The first decorated Christmas tree is credited to Martin Luther, according to Dr. Oswald Hoffman of radio's The Lutheran Hour. A lovely starry night inspired Luther to put lighted candles on his tree.

A holiday reserve will let you serve a royal spread no matter how many unexpected guests drop in. Stock a pantry shelf with liver spread, ham, crackers; keep Schenley Reserve on hand for holiday toasts.

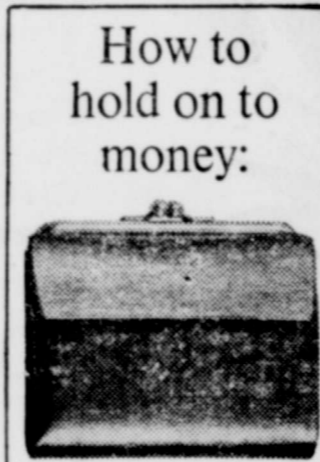

At midnight on New Year's Eve, Russians douse the lights, while Spaniards drink sherry and nibble grapes. Spanish folklore says that anyone who eats grapes at this time will have money all year long!

to bear part of this burden.

The ultimate consequences for the economy generally would also be serious. Investors could not be sure that, if losses developed, the alternative of going out of business would always be open to them. They would also have to face the fact that they might be required to pay penalties assessed because of the shutdown of some other firm in which they had never been stockholders. This would hardly be the kind of atmosphere that encourages the new investment essential to economic growth.

Death Never Takes A Holiday

Traffic Safety!
With millions of cars on our highways, traffic safety is a continuous problem.

Too often traffic lights and other safety features are put in only after the loss of several lives in a given area. These things cost money that is not always available. A little extra care on the part of motorists could reduce the accident toll. The too, slow driver, the speeder who winds in and out of heavy traffic, contribute nothing to safety. Increase in downtown traffic during the holiday season makes the need for caution in driving.

Coming home on the bus from Wichita Falls Wednesday we passed the Sheppard Air Force Base. There were three cars ahead of us. When the last of the three attempted to pass, the second driver dashed out in front of him and attempted to pass at the same time. Alertness on the part of the first car that had started to pass prevented what could have been a very bad accident, involving all three cars and probably the bus too.

Where's the fire? Why do people have to be in such a heck of a hurry? Give the other driver a break too, it won't hurt you too much, and you might get home alive! Drive as if your life depended on it. It does!

Post Office Department Predicts Biggest Jump In Christmas Mail

Postmaster W. T. Zimmerman reports that the Post Office Department is confidently predicting that the volume of mail during this year's Christmas rush will hit a record high. "Actually," he says, "it's an easy prediction because mail volume has been rising at a rate of nearly three percent a year for the past several years and this is most strongly reflected around the holiday season."

Well over twelve billion pieces of incoming and outgoing mail are expected to move thru the system during December—with about ten percent of the year's mail moving in less than three weeks.

The Burkburnett postmaster reports that public cooperation is one important reason that post offices around the country are able to handle this huge mountain of mail in such a short period.

"Without the assistance of the public, we'd be in a jam. People who shop early and get their cards and parcels into the mails early make it possible for the holiday mail to be delivered on time. Imagine what it would be like if we were to get all the holiday mails the last week before Christmas?"

In addition to early mailing, the postmaster has several other suggestions which will help the hard-working employees move this avalanche of mail. First, he recommends using ZIP Codes which help handle the mails faster because of a new transportation and distribution set-up. ZIP Code also helps clerks to identify receiving post offices when addresses are hard to read. During this time of the year, the faster mail is processed the better chance it has to make connections with outgoing trains, planes and trucks.

The Post Office Department also recommends that all parcels be wrapped securely, packed tightly and that the address be included inside the package as well as on the outside. This helps assure delivery even if the outer wrapping comes loose. The Postmaster points out that "because ZIP Code on parcels usually means a more direct routing and less handlings, the chance of damage is drastically reduced."

Finally, Postmaster Zimmerman says that the use of the new Christmas stamps helps brighten up envelopes and packages.

There are 14 postal employees working night and day in the Burkburnett Post Office to assure you a Merry Christmas. By following this advice, you can help them and yourself to a more relaxed, happier holiday.

Monticello was the name of Thomas Jefferson's home.

C. R. Boucher World's Champion Bulldogger for 1964 Contests Other Burkburnett Boys Also Win

C. R. BOUCHER

C. R. Boucher of Burkburnett was declared the World's Champion Bulldogger for 1964 at the Rodeo National Finals held in Los Angeles, December 1-6.

Boucher was using the famous team of dogging horses trained by Aubrey Rankin, also of Burkburnett. Rankin was killed while attempting to dog a steer at Fort Worth this summer.

Boucher did this year what the steer wrestling fraternity has been forecasting for several years, jump off to a fair start and keep right on. When C. R. was third in the event last year, and second in '61, he'd already established himself as being just as tough as any man in the event. And then when he won the Finals average in '61 he proved that he was as steady as anyone else in the event. The Finals' average winner earns a special place in cowboys' opinions as the cattle are carefully picked to eliminate the luck of the draw.

Two other Burkburnett rodeo contestants placed in the National Finals.

Dewey Dunaway won 10th place in steer wrestling.

Clyde Vamvoras was 14th in bareback bronc riding.

Dewey is the Steer Wrestling Director on the R.C.A. Board, a time consuming job. 1063 was the first time Dewey spent a full season at rodeoing.

Last year, Vamvoras, a fine bareback rider came from nowhere to be a serious threat. He has fine rhythm and a world of try. He goes after every horse he's on, regardless of his chances of winning.

A Good Work

John Fair, the poet who wrote the very excellent poem in the Nov. 26th issue of the Star is to be congratulated.

Good work!

We are so ready to blame the kids.

One noted lecturer some years ago said: "The education of children should begin with their grandparents."

Some of the TV programs should be put in file 13 or wrapped in the Sunday funnies and put into the International Waste Basket (Ocean), then given the deep six.

Will Orphan Annie get murdered? Will Dick Tracy find who murdered the iceman? Will Winnie Winkle get shot? Will Terry and his girl friend get shot in the jungle? Will Donnie's friend burn down the town?

No wonder the kids want to murder their grandpa. Or are these crazy sheets just for adult education? Screech! Head for the hills so you can smoke.

Now that the turkey is down the hatch, we can pull up the hook and head for Christmas.

There was the story of the Scotchman who went out on the night of Dec. 24th. Fired a shot in the air and then told the kids that Santa Claus committed suicide. Yuk. My Scotch ancestors will love me for that one, Hoot mon.

John Fair got in a good lick for the kids anyway. There are some parents that try and care for their kids.

Picture of policemen shooting out the town lights for practice. Don't seem to me a good way of teaching law and order. Nuff said for now.

Optimist Honor Local BHS Youth

President Jam's Spinks, of the Boomtown Optimist Club, speaking to the outstanding youth of our community, encouraged them to remain active and interested in all phases of their community. Spinks further pointed out that with youth such as those present, leadership for our future was assured.

Outstanding youth honored at the Optimist meeting were selected by the Burkburnett High school administration and faculty. These youth have not only shown superior academic achievement but have been leaders in school sports, clubs, student council; every youth attended church regularly and actively participated in church youth organizations. Each one had mastered at least one musical instrument and each belonged to Boy Scouts or Girl Scouts.

Those honored were: Jody Hargis, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Troy A. Hargis; Jean Page, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Page; Johnnie Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mitchell; Kenneth Siber, son of Mrs. Walter Siber; and Jimmy Creel, son of Mrs. Maxine Creel.

The Boomtown Optimist salute these outstanding youth and their parents and faculty for the excellent job they are doing for our community.

Arm
of God

There may be times when your church seems to be growing slowly, when you become discouraged because your work seems to bear no fruit. Don't be discouraged. The Lord would say to you in Deut. 1:21. "Fear not, neither be discouraged," for I am with you.

During the very time you are discouraged, the Lord may have good news for you. This period of time may be more spring than winter. It is an open secret that God's arm is not shortened that he cannot save; neither is his ear heavy that He cannot hear.

Therefore, let us keep on working and praying that we may in our hearts possess the land of rest and comfort and peace with God. "The glory of the Lord shall be thy reward." He tells us in Isaiah 58:9. "Then thou shalt call, and the Lord shall answer; thou shalt cry, and He shall say, Here I Am."

We pray that the church and its fellowship will be your dearest treasure. May the church be the place where your "heart interest" lies. We invite you to attend services this week.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Merry Christmas!
It should be merry, tho often it is marred by sadness. Starting with the tree which if put in to a bucket of wet sand or soil which will keep it green longer and reduce the fire danger. Fire retardant decorations should be used. Look for the UL Seal on the Christmas tree lights you use. The Underwriters Laboratory seal is your protection of approved electrical equipment made by American workers.

At the risk of repeating myself, large gatherings, should have some one appointed as a fire warden to be on the lookout for fires or ecidents. Pick someone who doesn't drink, a sober responsible person should have this job. The life saved by this might be yours.

The CAPITOL CHRONICLE OF FREEDOM

DESIGNED IN 1792 THE CAPITOL WAS STILL UNDER CONSTRUCTION SOME 21 YEARS LATER WHEN ON AUGUST 24, 1814 THE BRITISH PUT IT TO THE TORCH...

REBUILDING TIME WAS ESTIMATED AT 2 YEARS... PRESIDENT MADISON WAS AUTHORIZED TO BORROW 500 THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR THE JOB... IT ACTUALLY TOOK 14 YEARS!

AT NOON ON DECEMBER 2, 1845, THE CAPITOL WAS FOR THE TIME FINISHED AND THE NOW FAMOUS STATUE CALLED "FREEDOM" WAS PUT IN PLACE. ALMOST AT ONCE THE CAPITOL BECAME A CAITHEL OF FREEDOM. UNION TROOPS WERE HOUSED THERE DURING THE CIVIL WAR AND THE VAULTS BENEATH THE BUILDING WERE USED AS OVENS TO BAKE BREAD FOR THEM.

THE BUILDING OF THE CAPITOL TOOK SOME 70 YEARS. IT IS STILL BEING WORKED ON TODAY. THOUGH DESIGNED BY A SCORE OF ARCHITECTS UNDER A DOZEN PRESIDENTS, THE CAPITOL HAS BECOME THE UNIVERSAL SYMBOL OF OUR GOVERNMENT AND OUR WAY OF LIFE.

SEE A TRIBUTE TO THIS GREAT BUILDING ON TUESDAY JAN. 12, 1965 WHEN THE SAVINGS AND LOAN FOUNDATION WILL PRESENT "THE CAPITOL—CHRONICLE OF FREEDOM" A TELEVISION DOCUMENTARY PREPARED BY NBC'S AWARDS WINNING LOU HAZAM. RAYMOND MASSEY WILL NARRATE. "THE CAPITOL" TRACES THE HISTORY AND SIGNIFICANCE OF A BUILDING THAT HAS BECOME A LIVING AMERICAN SYMBOL.
