Lutheran Church Kindergarten Enrollment Open

Kindergarten enrollment at Grace Lutheran Church is now open for the new school year which begins in September. Mrs. Clarence Koenig will be the new teacher for next year's kindergarten. Mrs. Koenig, a member of Grace Lutheran and a long time resident of Burkburnett, has had several years experience as a Sunday School and Vacation Bible School teacher at Grace Lutheran. A kindergarten is maintained at Grace Lutheran to provide for the children of the area training in Christian living and learning and also preparation for the important school years ahead. These purposes are accomplished through the curriculum which includes such things as Bible stories, growing through social experiences, exploring the world, enjoying the arts, (arts, music, crafts), getting ready to read, experiencing numbers, storybook and telling experiences, learning to play together, rest and refreshment time. Kindergarten enrollment is open to all children who will be five years of age by the first of September. Application forms for enrollment may be obtained from the church office or through the mail. For information parents may call the application forms and more information, Rev. Phil Otten at 569-2706 or 569-3164.

John Connally Proclaims June 'Opportunity' Month in Texas

John Connally this year proclaimed June to be 'Opportunity' Month in Texas. He urged Texas employers to utilize the facilities of the Youth Opportunity Commission to a minimum of 25,000 summer jobs for youth during the summer employment period. Connally urged employers to develop work opportunities for their young people not only because of the educational disadvantages that will not allow them to continue education and development, but also assure our state skilled manpower reserve must have if our state is to remain vigorous in the face of the rapid technological changes ahead. Connally last week proclaimed the Youth Opportunity Commission with a national 500,000 summer jobs program to be "over and over" those which would be offered. Slightly 10 million youth will enter the labor force this year as a result of the post-war baby boom of the Texas labor market. Estimated 110,000 youth with 55,000 youth who completed high school to fail to return to school unless vigorous action is taken this summer. Texas youth who have completed their education and need of the financial and personal encouragement that summer or part-time employment and contact with business and community can give them if they return to school next year. Governor's proclamation upon the President's declaration of 1 special week added by "at least" of the 28,000 Texas employees and one per cent of the 900,000 employees earning over 100 employees of the private

City Wide Revival Scheduled For July 11 Thru 18

Eight Churches of Burkburnett belonging to the Ministerial Alliance, have joined to share the expenses of a city-wide revival on July 11-18. Gene Robertson, chairman of the Budget committee, said his group has come up with a financial plan to bring Dr. Russell V. DeLong, evangelist, and Dale Coody, singer, to Burkburnett for the revival in the Burkburnett Junior High School Stadium. Assisting Robertson are Rev. Mike Barnard, Brack Preston, Ted Robertson and Jim Frye.

QUICK TIPS FOR SMOOTH TRIPS

Save Dimes—even dollars—over single admissions to national parks, the American Oil Company recommends. Annual car entry stickers are now available for $7.00 each—definitely an economy for campers. Send your request and your check to: Treasurer of the United States National Park Service, Interior Department, Washington, D. C. 20240.

employers of Texas would be approximately 24,000. Participation by state agencies would add some 600 jobs, or 1 percent of the 60,000 state employees, while cities over 10,000 and counties would add approximately 350 if each unit hired at least one trainee. The President has also urged smaller communities, churches, colleges, associations, labor unions, and individuals to join in this massive effort to provide jobs for youth.

"Texas Employment Commission offices throughout the state will make a concerted effort to bring employers supporting the Youth Opportunity Campaign and youth needing employment together," Governor Connally said.

I Am Sending This Money To Fix The Highways With

"I am sending this money to fix the highways with." That was the terse letter received recently in the Texas Highway Department main office in Austin. Enclosed was a one dollar bill in a separate envelope. The good roads writer is Kent Sojourner, age 8 of Abilene. His explanation of why he sent the money to "fix highways with" is simple. "We studied that a long time ago roads used to be just gravel and stuff like that," he said. "And there were Model T's instead of modern cars. Now the roads are made of thick cement and are pretty and real wide. And they are safer, with posts and guards and reflectors showing curves, and white lines." Kent said he wrote the Highway Department because he was studying roads and travel at school. The children wrote for the Department's travel map. "Texas roads are real good," said Kent. "They have roadside parks and all kinds of stuff. So I just wanted to help build some of the highways." State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer sent the dollar back to Kent expressing his appreciation for the boy's interest in better highways. Kent is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy W. Sojourner in Abilene. His mother teaches school and his father runs a drilling company. Kent has a 10 year old brother in the fourth grade. Kent's mother knew nothing of her son's gift to the Highway Department. "He's an extraordinary boy," Mrs. Sojourner said. "He's always sending off for various pamphlets and free travel literature. He uses his own allowance and money he earns from running errands, and he writes his own business letters and addresses his own envelopes. We are always getting all kinds of things in the mail that Kent has written for."

Ken and his family travel Texas highways quite a bit. "We went to the Sonora Caverns and to Dallas and Houston, and Aunt Barbara took us to Old Mexico," he said. "I like the pecan trees and bluebonnets along the roads, and the roadside parks."

Kent has no favorite subject in school. "But I do like working together in class projects—like the travel projects," he said.

P-R-O Scout Troop 155 Activities

Someone is looking through your window. Someone has been looking through your window. Someone will be looking through your window. No, we are not giving a lesson in the conjugation of verbs. We mean it literally. Someone is, has been, and will be peeking over your shoulder and you probably will never be aware of it. They are not spies, poll takers, or movie scouts. They are people who are looking over this community to consider locating here. They are many and varied in their purpose. During the past 18 months there has been no fewer than 6 industrial teams who have come to take a close look at Burkburnett for the purpose of locating here. Some of them contacted the Chamber in advance of their arrival. Some just dropped by unannounced. We have been visited by small groups and individuals from some of the military people who are moving to Sheppard. These potential residents like to talk to as many of the citizens of a community as they can. Who can give a better description of a town than the people who live there. If the people they talk to are pessimistic and overly critical of their own community, then why would someone else be persuaded to move to that town. First impression may be changed, but only if you have the chance to make a second impression. Now for the old patriotic lecture. We need to be optimistic about the future of our town. We need to sell others on our community by talking in positive terms to any and all. No doubt we will be having visitors from Stead Air Force Base in the near future who will be transferring to Sheppard. Some families have already settled here. The attitude of our people can play an important part in bringing more of these families to Burkburnett.

Sen. John Tower Working On Bill For Foreign Aid

The Senate has been working on a Foreign Aid bill authorizing money for many nations over the globe. Some of these nations are our friends; some are neutrals. And, I am pleased to report, for the first time in several years no taxpayer dollars are going to nations which oppose American interests—such as Indonesia. You may remember that last fall the Senate adopted an amendment I offered which cut aid to Dictator Sukarno and prohibited the training by Americans of Indonesian military men. Unfortunately, heavy Administration pressure forced the Senate's amendment out of the final 1964 Foreign Aid Bill. Subsequently, as we all can recall, Sukarno threw the Peace Corps out of his Red-leaning nation and allowed the burning and sacking of the John F. Kennedy memorial library in Indonesian capital city. These final indignities served to convince the Administration that the Senate's 1964 wisdom should become 1965's reality. Consequently there are no funds whatsoever provided for Indonesia in this year's Foreign Aid Bill. I am pleased that the Administration has accepted this position which, I think, a majority of Texans favored last year and continue to support. I find that three Indonesian military officers still are receiving training at the Corpus Christi Naval Air Station as a part of 26 Indonesian servicemen still remaining in this nation. But, this training of men, who could be used against our ally Malaysia will come to an end this October, and no more Indonesians will receive the benefit of American military instruction. This is as it should be. It was an impossible situation to have American money training both sides of a battle in which one side was friendly and the other antagonist to America. I believe that a number of the lesser developed countries they have to be informed that they have no inherent "right" to assistance from the United States and that any American aid depends upon the maintenance of a climate of mutual cooperation and civilized behavior. If America is to be a world leader, we must distinguish between right and wrong.

Food Mart, Inc., Piggly Wiggly Proposes Merger

(Statement by Shop Rite, Inc., operating store under the name of Piggly Wiggly—and Food Mart, Inc., issued June 14, in Albuquerque, New Mexico, by J. S. Reinhart, president, Shop Rite Foods, Inc.)

Shop Rite Foods, Inc., and Food Mart, Inc., announced today that agreement in principle had been reached on the basic terms of the purchase by Shop Rite Foods of the assets of Food Mart for shares of a new $2.04 cumulative convertible preferred stock of Shop Rite Foods, at the rate of one share for each two shares of common stock of Food Mart, and the assumption by Shop Rite of all of Food Mart's liabilities in a tax-free reorganization. This will involve approximately 512,000 shares of the preferred stock.

It is contemplated that immediately after such transaction, Food Mart will be liquidated and the shares of Shop Rite's convertible preferred stock acquired by Food Mart will be distributed to Food Mart stockholders. Each Food Mart stockholder will receive one share of Shop Rite cumulative convertible preferred stock for each two shares of Food Mart common stock held. Legal and other details remain to be worked out.

The Shop Rite convertible preferred stock will be entitled to a cumulative annual dividend of $2.04 per share, payable quarterly, and will be non-callable for five years and thereafter will be redeemable by Shop Rite at $55 per share, plus accrued dividends, for five years; the redemption price decreasing $1 per share each five years until it reaches $50, plus accrued dividends.

SPEAKING OF AREA-DEPRESSORS

FOR BETTER VIEWING

As the travel season gains momentum and millions of families take to the highways, we should pause and consider how we may assist in retaining the natural beauty of the American countryside.

The President called a "White House Conference on Natural Beauty" in Washington. A program was suggested to bring about "citizen action and public education to stop the increasing ugliness of the American environment."

One of the major blights on the landscape is litter. Litterbugs cost Americans a billion dollars a year, according to Keep America Beautiful, Inc., the national anti-litter organization.

Taxpayers foot half this bill, through the cost of cleaning up streets, highways, beaches, parks and other public areas, while the other half is paid by business, industry and individuals in the form of losses and expenses attributable to litter.

"Property values decline in a littered neighborhood, and littered highways drive away tourists," Allen H. Seed, Jr., KAB's executive vice president stated. "Litter is not only an aesthetic offense and a menace to health and safety, but is also bad for business."

The prevention of litter to Keep America Beautiful should be the objective of all thinking Americans. One of the best ways to participate is to have a supply of litterbags handy—and use them.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

OCALA, FLA., STAR-BANNER: 'Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz says that the days of improving cut-rate Mexican farm labor in California are over. There is no question whatsoever that we can end the anomaly, the paradox, of there being 400,000 to 500,000 unemployed in California...' Okay. So we challenge our labor secretary to put the street corner bums and the other 'won't work' individuals to work harvesting crops in California, Florida and elsewhere. If he can perform such a miracle, maybe we ought to make him our president.'

HILLSBORO, ORE., ARGUS: "The financial health of the railroads is vital to the nation and its defense. Reports show many to be financially sick. This calls for efficiency and economy in operation. It seems that elimination of all forms of featherbedding, which increase costs in business and industry, would make for a more sound economy and in the long run more and better jobs."

WADENA, MINN., PIONEER JOURNAL: "The Institute for Home Fire Safety, a non-profit organization doing research on fire safety communications, estimates that approximately 1,800 American were injured and close to 12,000 killed in fires last year, most of which originated in the home. The problem, says the Institute, is due fundamentally to lack of awareness of the facts on how fires start and spread, and lack of knowledge about techniques and methods which would save lives."

Weekly Report Roger W. Babson

ROGER W. BABSON
MORTGAGING A HOME

Young couples today often feel that they are pouring money down the drain if they rent an apartment or a house. "Why support a landlord," they say, "when our monthly payments could be building up an equity in a home of our own?" There is, of course, logic in this attitude; hence millions of young people are now living in residences that they have bought or built themselves.

Look Before You Leap, In Home Buying

Many young husbands and wives today find it is not much more complicated to obtain a mortgage and arrange monthly payments than it is to move into a rented establishment and send regular checks to a landlord. However, they are often greenhorns in the matter of budgeting for a family, and do not give enough time to figuring out their income and deciding how it can be made to meet all their living requirements. That is why many counselors for young couples advise rental of a small, reasonable apartment for the beginning of their lives together.

In this way, the bride and groom can determine just how much they make, after all taxes, and how much they will have left over, after the essentials for living. If the girl works—as is so often the case today—an apartment is easier to maintain, demanding a minimum of upkeep and housekeeping during the early days of adjustment. This period also should provide time for building up a savings account, life insurance coverage, and house furnishings to be used when the couple move into their own place. Equally important, it will give the young people time to figure out what they most want when they go out to buy a home of their own.

Shop For Home Financing

When the time comes to go house-hunting, the young folk should also go shopping for the best place to obtain a mortgage. Possible lenders will include commercial banks, savings and loan associations, life insurance companies, and mortgage bankers. In some areas, institutions known as co-operative banks and homestead associations fall into the same category for mortgaging as do savings and loan associations.

Interest rates currently range from 5 1/4% to better than 6%. If an older house is under consideration, the down payment may constitute as much as 20 to 33 1/3% of the total cost. Under certain conditions a new house can be taken over with a down payment of 5% or even less. Loans backed by the VA or the FHA carry 5 1/4% interest, and usually include longer-term mortgages, if desired, and considerably lighter down payments. It is wise for couples in the market for a home to discuss such matters with several mortgage outlets before deciding on what steps to take. Advice from older, more experienced family members or friends should also be sought.

Long Time Financing
Often Preferable

The longer the mortgage, the more money is paid out in interest. Sometimes this prompts young people to attempt the shortest term financing possible. This, however, can be a heavy burden to a limited budget, and may soon become a bone of serious contention when the payments—along with the pressures of other purchases—intrude on regular living requirements. Most financing specifies monthly payments for 20, 25, or 30 years. Under particular conditions, shorter or longer periods are possible.

Generally, for young families of restricted means, a long-term mortgage is safest for the budget, despite the larger amount paid in interest. Another factor to keep in mind: If money is likely to be needed for repairs or child education, an open-end mortgage can ordinarily be extended or renewed after enough equity has been built up over the years. As a general rule, avoid second mortgages; they usually entail heavy interest and service expenses, in addition to the primary mortgage.

Policyholder Questions Answered by the Institute of Life Insurance 277 Park Ave., N.Y., N.Y., 10017

Q. Every time I put one of my life insurance premium checks into the mail I wonder just what happens to the money, I am confident that if anything happened to me my family would get the insurance, but just the same it seems like a big bite out of my checking account each time and I can't help asking this question that's on my mind.

A. We cannot offer a course on life insurance in this small space, but to answer briefly, let's say that your premium check is received at the home office. A small fraction of it is used to cover the expense of handling your policy. Most of the money goes right into "reserves" — that is, funds held to assure that the benefit money will be available at once when called for, either to you, the policyholder, or, in case of death, your beneficiary. The funds in those reserves are invested in a cross-section of the economy, earning money to cut the cost of your insurance and helping to keep the wheels of industry turning. Not only factories but also homes, water systems, schools, bridges, and even the goods you find on the shelves in your stores may be financed with the help of life insurance. (Incidentally, we speak of the "legal reserve life insurance companies" because of the statutory requirements that govern this setting aside of most of your premium money.)

Thus, while the premium money is doing its job and earning interest in this manner, it is also at work for you, not only insuring you and your family but also building up cash values on which, in later years, you can profitably exercise any one of several options.

Q. What is the meaning of level-premium life insurance? Should I have some?

A. Level-premium life insurance is the most common kind, and you are probably paying your life policy or policies that way. It simply means you pay the same amount each year, rather than pay more as you get older (you would ordinarily expect to pay more because of the increasing risk of death), which you would have to do if you were buying the insurance at that time. In other words, "level-premium" provides an averaging, or spreading out of your costs.

Because milk is so valuable a food, its one of the first foods to jot down shopping lists. However, closely your food money must be budgeted, your spending wisely when you get enough milk for your family.

What is the caloric value of milk? An 8 ounce glass of whole milk gives 165 calories; skim milk, 90 calories; buttermilk, when made from skim milk with no butter granules added, 90 calories. And milk's calories are accompanied by a goodly assortment of nutrients. Here's an example: Two glasses of whole milk furnished only about 15 percent of the calories a woman 25 to 45 years of age needs every day; at the same time, those same two glasses supply over 70 percent of the calcium, nearly 60 percent of the riboflavin, 30 percent of the protein, 26 percent of the niacin equivalents and 15 percent of the vitamin A recommended daily. Because of its high nutritive value, milk does belong in the sensible and satisfying selecting of food for weight control.

Homogenized milk is a pasteurized, fluid whole milk in which the fat globules have been broken down by a mechanical process into many minute droplets and evenly distributed throughout the milk. Its a soft-cured type of milk with a smooth, rich flavor and every drop containing the same kind and amounts of nutrients. It has no cream line.

Frozen desserts on the market today are water ices, fruit sherberts, French ice cream or

With the large numbers of requests for information on freezing potatoes, Miss Thelma Wirges, county home demonstration agent, offers the following instructions:

Freezing New Potatoes: Select potatoes the size of walnuts. Scrub well in cold water to remove skins, or wash and scrape. Preheat in boiling water 5 to 8 minutes, depending on size. Cool in cold water 5 to 8 minutes. Pack dry without water.

Preparation of French Fried potatoes for freezing: Use mature potatoes suitable for French frying. Wash, peel and cut into sticks one fourth inch square. Fry until tender but not browned. Take out of fat and drain. Package and freeze at 0 degrees. When ready to eat, place potatoes on baking pan and brown in an extremely hot oven.

"Frozen Food" bulletins are available from the local county home demonstration agent's office, 305 Federal Building in Wichita Falls. The publications give instructions for freezing, storage and preparation of foods.

Card games are popular any time — on trips, on vacations or at home.

Children's card games can be counted on to keep youngsters of any age amused. There are special juvenile decks for them such as Authors, Hearts, Old Maid, Crazy Eights and Animal Rummy. The cards have colorful designs and are, luckily, low priced and widely available at variety stores.

Then too, there are many children's games that can be played with regular decks.

"In most cases, parents can teach the children some basic rules," points out Mary Hill, a game expert at Whitman Publishing Company of Racine, Wisconsin. "Some children and parents also like to make up their own rules for games. There are books of card rules available at many stores. And when buying decks of children's cards you'll usually find the rules printed on the package or included on a card with the deck."

Some games are as simple as dividing up the cards, and matching pairs, the higher card taking both. The winner is the player who gets the most cards.

Even solitaire is fun when a child learns a few simple ways to play it — and makes up his own ways.

For adults there is a handy manual called "150 Ways to Play Solitaire" certain to fascinate any card buff.

Card playing goes far back into history. The Chinese claim that their ancient sailors carried card games to many parts of Asia. Back in the 11th century, the Crusaders found the Saracens playing cards, and the Crusaders themselves carried the custom back to Europe.

In America, we're told, Spanish explorers brought some of their favorite card games to Mexico. Some scholars think that Columbus' men may also have had primitive decks of cards to help pass away the long days on ship.

At any rate, cards are established as a favorite American pastime. Even young children, who can't follow the rules, enjoy building card houses and blowing them down!

For all other age groups there are numbers of lively card games to suit each age and interest.

"The Chalk Garden" To Be Presented June 17th and 18th

"The Chalk Garden," a play by Enid Bagnold, will open Texas Woman's University summer round of theatrical productions on June 17th and 18th at 8 p. m. in Redbud Auditorium.

The play tells of a governess who finds as her charge, a young girl pampered by her grandmother. The story attempts to point out that children as flowers in a garden require loving care and attention if they are to grow into maturity.

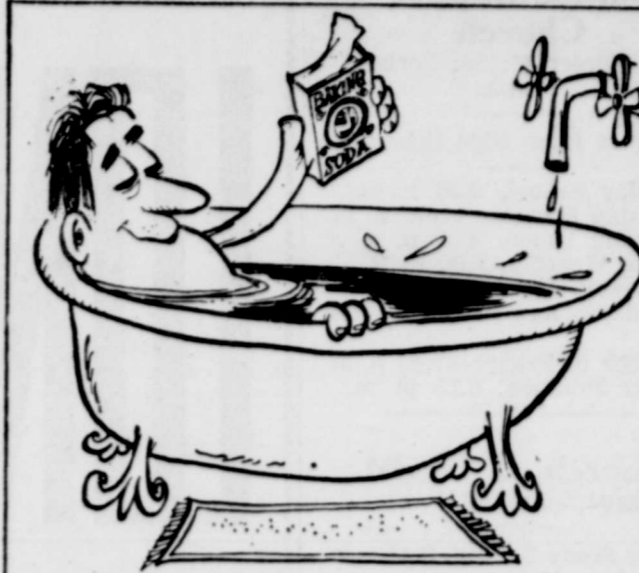

Dr. Josh Roach, chairman of the Department of Speech is the director and Mr. Ralph Carter, instructor in the department, is supervising the staging. Miss Nancy Haynes, guest professor in costuming from Indiana University, is designing and supervising the costumes.

The play was first presented on Broadway in 1955 and has been a popular favorite with Community Theatre groups since that time.

Cast for the production includes Barrie Tolson, Ft. Worth; Loretta Brocker, Burkburnett; Sara Potts, Denison; Flora Johnson, Denton; Mary Pat Kreisler, Dallas; Wanda Thompson, Floydada; Jerri Wallace, Perryton; Terri Amos, Ft. Worth and Melanie McCoy, Denison.

TRAVEL TIME FASHIONS

On summer vacation, who wants to spend precious time worrying about wrinkles in her travel wardrobe? A girl can find better things to do on holiday. Knowing this, Douglas Marc has designed two perfect travel dresses in permanently pleated fabrics of Eastman Kodak polyester and cotton. The permanent pleating gives with body movements just as a stretch fabric does. As a matter of fact, both fashions give you a performance similar to that of most knits and are machine-washable-and-dryable. The floral print (left) has a shallow neckline with shoulder ties and low, loose belting. A slender shift (right) in solid color bypasses the waistline, has a loose tie belt and a band of pleating at the hemline. Colors include turquoise, white and black.

is in charge of properties, Marcia Holcomb of Aubrey is working on costumes, and Sylvia Salinas of Falfurrias is stage manager.

Other attractions to be presented by the TWU Speech Department include "Wilbur and the Giant," a puppet show by the nationally known puppeteer George Latshaw which will be presented in the TWU main Auditorium June 22nd.

"The Innocents," a play by William Archibald, will be presented July 1st and 2nd in Redbud Auditorium, under the direction of Mr. Carter.

LONGING

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

To every child there comes a time when they begin to wonder . . . Where did I come from? Who made the trees? Who made the mountains? EVERYONE has a desire to know their creator. "O GOD, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee..." This longing for knowledge of God should be satisfied at an early age. "Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it." Plan NOW to attend church with your family.

Roilene Silkwood-Thomas H. Blackburn Married Fri., June 11 in Home Ceremony

Miss Roilene Silkwood became the bride of Mr. Thomas Morrison Blackburn in an impressive ceremony Friday night, June 11th at 8 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents, Mr.
and Mrs. Roy L. Silkwood, 514 Magnolia, Burkburnett.

Parents of the groom are Mr.
and Mrs. T. W. Blackburn of Electra, Texas.
Rev. Theo Wright, pastor of the First Methodist Church officiated.
Vows were performed in front of the mantle which was decorated with a large spray of gladiolas and 7 branch candelabra entwined with white flowers on either side.
Terry Key furnished traditional wedding selections on the organ.
The bride, given in marriage
by her father, wore a ballarina length gown of white chiffon over satin featuring a scoop neck, wrist length sleeves and an elbow length veil attached to a pearl tiara. The tiara was made by the groom's mother. The bride's bouquet was white feathered mums surrounding a cambium orchid.

Janet Vowell of Oklahoma City, Okla., served as Maid of Honor. She wore a street length dress of pastel pink silk and a corsage of white carnations trimmed in pink.
Bridesmaids were Cheryl Pierce of Midwest City, Okla., and Vicki Williams of Comanche, Okla. They wore dresses of pastel blue silk and pastel yellow silk, respectively. Their corsages were the same as the maid of honor.

Billy Jacobs of Electra served as best man. Groomsmen were Steve Blackburn, brother of the groom, Electra, and Gene Klinkerman of Burkburnett.

Candlelighters were Lola Ann Silkwood, sister of the bride, and Becky Kennedy, both of Burkburnett. They wore dresses of pink and blue, respectively.

Judy Kauer attended the guest book.

The bride's mother wore a two piece suit with white lace over blue satin with white accessories and the groom's mother wore a dress of blue lace over blue satin with white accessories.

A reception was held immediately following the wedding in the dining room. The table was covered with a white lace cloth over pink with a large wedding bell centerpiece flanked on each side by pink candles.
Vicki Turner and Marilyn Greenewold, both of Burkburnett, presided at the refreshment table.

The bride's going-away dress was a two piece white dress with blue and gold satin embroidery.
Following a wedding trip to Oklahoma City, the couple will reside on Park St., in Burkburnett.

Dead Deer

Here's an old rule deer hunters use to determine if downed deer is safe to approach. If eyes are closed, be ready for another bullet. If eyes are open, you've got him.

IT'S THAT TIME AGAIN!

With school out, and the kids wondering what to do with themselves. The birds and the animals better take to their holes. B B Gun season is on and anything that moves is a likly target for the young hunter.

Four or five times our fine
white tom cat has been the victim of their weapons. Once with a pellet gun. One older citizen, a resident of Burkburnett
for many years, complained that the boys shot the robbins and doves around his place.
But explained he was afraid to complain because they might come back and damage his car.

I know what he means, we have a hole in the glass of our car from a BB Gun.

Why not start a BB Gun club for the kids. Teach them the proper use of weapons, have a target shooting contest seeing who the best BB shot of Burk-burnett is. Maybe Hot dogs and a cool drink afterward.

We're getting just a little tired of having our animals shot at.

A Burk Citizen.

Thinking about central air conditioning
for your home?

Here are 3 good reasons for installing ELECTRIC central air conditioning now!

LOW INITIAL INSTALLED COST. Installed cost of electric central air conditioning systems today is about one-third lower than it was 10 years ago. One reason for this is that widespread demand for electric central systems has made possible money-saving volume production by manufacturers.

LOW OPERATING COST. Our new low rate for residential electric service has substantially reduced the operating cost of electric central air conditioning.

PROVED DEPENDABILITY. Electric central air conditioning operates on the same simple, ruggedly dependable principle as your electric refrigerator — which means long life and low maintenance cost. Thousands of installations throughout this area are proof of the efficiency, economy and dependability of electric air conditioning.

Our air conditioning advisors will be glad to show you how you will save money when you choose electric central air conditioning. Call our office about it soon.
