Burkburnett Kings Host Tulsa Saturday Night In Jr. Hi. Stadium

The Burk Kings team will host the Tulsa Tigers Saturday night in a game played at 7:30 p. m. at the Jr. High School stadium. The Kings won that game by a score of 49 to 19 after 40 points in the final minutes of the game. The game was a splendid football game and the final score was 49 to 19. The Kings were threatening until the 4th quarter when Tulsa scored a touchdown. Since that time Tulsa has scored the services of the Tulsa Tigers. The Tulsa Tigers are coached by Green Bay and 4 year coach in the league. Bill Van T. U. and O. Quarterback recently by the Dallas Cowboys. Two years ago where they are now sponsored by the Burk Burnett Chamber of Commerce and The Burk Jaycees. The team is composed of Boys from the Wichita Falls area (Electra, Burk, Wichita Falls, SAFB, Ft. Sill, Henrietta, Holliday, Seymour, and others.) Most all of these boys are excellent boys or service experienced. The Kings are the Defending State Champions of Semi-Pro Football in Texas and have a record of 2-0 so far this year, beating Tulsa 49-19, and the Richardson Rockets last Saturday, 28 to 18. We believe that Semi-Pro football is coming to Texas in a big way and anyone who attends just one game will believe will agree. Come out to the games, you will probably see several of your favorite high school stars of the past perform for the Kings.

Plenty Reserved Football Tickets For Home Games

Dow Estes says he still has plenty of choice football reserved seat tickets left for the remaining four home games. The seats are near the center of the playing field. A call at the tax office on Glendale Street will fix you up.

Bulldogs Journey To Electra Friday Night To Battle Tigers

By DEE UNDERWOOD

Contrary to popular opinion, all is not always as it seems.

One nearby football "expert" informed this reporter that Burk Burnett was in for another long, cold season, but Friday night in Electra's Tiger Stadium, the Burk Burnett Bulldogs take step number two to prove otherwise, as they tackle the hometown Tigers in an 8 p. m. encounter that should provide some of the area's top action. The Bulldog's stack their 1-0 credentials against Electra's 1-1 record. Last Friday night, the Bulldogs broke a 16 loss streak with a 34-7 pounding of Bowie, while Electra was whitewashing Archer City, 30-0. The Tigers lost their first outing, 14-6, to Haskell.

Neither team will be spotted a great weight advantage, but Electra has more uniform size on the forward wall, although giving a four pound per man edge. In the backfield, the Tigers have a 13-pound per man advantage.

According to scouting reports, the Tigers are real good hitters, with a tough defense, and good offensive punch. Eight starters are back from last season, led by Quarterback and Captain, Butch Kinder, 160. Right tackle Steve Blackburn, 170, spearheads a rugged little line, joined by tackle Ronnie Miller, Guards Dale Barker and Marvin Reis, center Billy Rodgers, and Ends Ricky Givens and Gary Whatley. In the backfield are Halfback Ronnie Parker, 170, Fullback Ricky Peters, 175, and Wingback Jim Gilbert, 150.

The Bulldog line did an outstanding job last Friday, both on offense and defense. The offensive line opened good holes and sprang runners loose for good yardage, as well as providing some fine pass protection. On defense, the line held Bowie to little yardage and kept pressure on the backfield. The linebackers and the secondary worked well in breaking up some key plays.

It would be hard to rate one back above another as they all played well. Hodges and Herring turned in fine performances, as did Thompson and Turner. Linebacker Butch Moore must be given credit for one of his finer jobs on defense, along with McDonald, Harsh, Johnson, Cozby, Roe, Hoffman, and Gray. This week should give fans a better indication of what the Bulldogs are in store for. Against a tough team, a former arch rival, and on the other fellow's home ground, the odds aren't so high as against Bowie. We'll take the Bulldogs—this time by 10 points.

NOTHING IS FREE

Numbers of people, apparently, believe the government gets it money out of thin air or from some mysterious source that has little to do with themselves.

This, basically, was the thought of Congressman Lipscomb of California when he said: "It should come as no surprise to anyone that the money the federal government spends must ultimately come from the people, though all too often it seems that this fact is overlooked or ignored."

One reason for this is that except for income and property levies, most of the taxes we pay are hidden. Everything we buy, from an article so small as a loaf of bread to one so large as an automobile, carries a multitude of taxes levied at the raw material, manufacturing, processing, transporting, retailing and other levels. And those taxes, like all the other costs that enter into the production of goods and services, must be paid by the consumer.

These are truisms that should be known to every schoolchild. But they tend to become lost in the face of the widespread belief that government "gives" us things. The truth is that government can "give" nothing. It can only take the money from the people, now or on some future date, to pay the costs—and, also, it tacks on handsome sums to cover the administrative and bureaucratic overhead.

Nothing material in this world is free—government least of all.

THE OVERRIDING QUESTION

The extended controversy over opposed means of providing medical care for the aged—a controversy which has an extremely high emotional content—has undoubtedly led to misapprehension and misconception in the minds of many.

Some, for instance, are convinced that the medical profession generally has small concern for the problems of this or any other population group and is primarily concerned with making as much money as possible.

Nothing could be farther from the truth—and nothing could represent a greater injustice to a profession whose membership, in an overwhelming majority, is made up of dedicated men and women.

The profession, the American Medical Association being its principal spokesman, is unequivocally on record as pledging that all who need medical attention will be given it, regardless of the ability to pay. Virtually all doctors contribute time and attention to indigent patients who can pay nothing or only part of a bill.

What the medical profession does oppose is the creation of a situation where the traditional doctor-patient relationship is undermined, and where bureaucratic controls limit the doctor's freedom to provide what he regards as the best treatment. It opposes this because of the knowledge that the result would be a dismal decline in the standards of care.

At the same time, and for the same reason, it opposes trends which could lead to socialized medicine on a broad and perhaps total scale—a kind of medicine which has been a tragic failure wherever it has been established.

And it does this, to repeat, because its overriding interest is to keep on providing a quality of medicine which is unsurpassed anywhere.

According to the Association of American Railroads, piggyback service is headed for its first million-carload year on the nation's railroads. During the first half of 1965, the railroads moved an average of 19,000 flatcars loaded with highway trailers each week—an increase of nearly 16 per cent over the comparable period in 1964.

Representative Cederberg of Michigan says: "The theme now seems to be: Ask what your country can do for you—not what you can do for your country. The federal government of course has responsibilities to its citizens and we are all aware that many of our citizens, through no fault of their own, need assistance. This assistance should be and will be provided, but it must be done in a manner that will not in any way lessen an individual's personal initiative and make him forever dependent upon his government."

According to the Pharmaceutical Manufacturer's Association, the time spent on developing just one new, efficient drug product—if only one person were involved in all the study and research—would require 19 working years, or 58,000 hours, of a research chemist's life.

COMMUNISM: THE ABOLITION OF PROPERTY
By TOM ANDERSON
Editor
Farm and Ranch Magazine
Nashville, Tenn

Karl Marx said: "The theory of the Communists may be summed up in a single sentence: Abolish all private property... must be swept out of the way and made impossible." Our leaders have taken the first necessary steps. If one can't hire, fire, buy from and sell to only those people he chooses, then he doesn't really own his business or his property. Once they have destroyed our property rights, our Power Elite will unfold the master plan to destroy human rights. Anybody with sittin' up sense should know that human rights can't exist without property rights.

Among the many Livid Leftists pushing "Civil Rights" is Arthur Waskow of the Peace Research Institute. He is also a pusher for complete American disarmament, including our local police forces which would be subjugated to an international police force under the United Nations. If the U.N. had handled the Los Angeles rioting, the Communists would now have the city. Another extreme civil rightist is Jack Greenbelt, counsel for the NAACP's Legal Defense and Education Fund, who is pushing precedence over national law. In other words, the program of these collectivists calls for using "Civil Rights" as a wedge to further subordinate America law to the Atheistic, Communist, and Cannibal Club on the East River.

More Slavery Promoted
The collectivists thus plan to destroy not only state sovereignty but our national sovereignty. A recent "Look" article bemoans the fact that the school superintendent in Chicago "hasn't come up with one single plan to promote integration and prevent the flight of white people into the suburbs." That's simple. All we have to do is become more like Russia, as an article in "The Saturday Evening Post" suggests we should. People in Russia can't move anywhere without government permission. Or, if we don't want to become more like Russia, one answer to that is to move "Look" and the "Post" there.

What are "civil rights"? They are definitely now what NAACP would have you believe. The man who introduced the "civil rights" bill in the Senate nearly 100 years ago (Senator Lyman Trumbull of Illinois) defined "civil rights" as: "The right to make and enforce contracts, to sue and be sued, to give evidence, to inherit, purchase, sell, lease and hold property and to convey real and personal property." Senator Trumbull and his bill had nothing to do with social or political rights.

The Awakening
One worthwhile accomplishment of the "civil rights" bill, the "voting rights" bill, and the Communist-infiltrated Negro Revolution is that many people of the South and elsewhere now understand that we now live under an unconstitutional, socialist-labor-welfare dictatorship. This dictatorship would not have been fastened upon us had we not sold out our freedoms for a mess of pottage.

United States Commissioner of Education Francis Koppel

has decreed: "No federal aid to any school where fraternities or sororities discriminate because of race, creed or color." Of course, He who pays the fiddler calls the tune. 'Twas ever thus and always will be. Do you give money to your children without knowing and approving or thinking you know how it is to be spent?

It does get exasperating sometimes the way forecasters of the United States Weather Bureau miss the mark on predictions.

Just think of what could happen if the government stopped trying to predict the weather and started regulating it.

The bank robber shoved a note across to the teller which read: "Put the money in a bag, sucker, and don't make a move."

The teller pushed back another note: "Straighten your tie, stupid. They're taking your picture."

It is true that the life insurance companies are adopting new tables based on the new rates of recent years? If it would reduce the cost of my insurance? How soon can I get it?
It is true that the states have adopted a new standard table for the companies in designing policy plans. The new legal table is based, as a result, on a much lower death rate than that used in the tables in vogue. However, this will not necessarily bring any change in policy costs. For one thing, it does not affect existing policies, which are legal contracts, only new ones. Since policy costs reflect improved death rates, it probably will not materially change future costs of new policies.
The life insurance companies are adopting this new standard mortality table as a basis for establishing the rates required by law to assure protection to policyholders and beneficiaries. Premiums, on the other hand, are based on the company's own mortality tables, as well as its foreseeable investment earnings and expenses.

Storm Warnings

April showers bring May flowers—but they also herald the season of severe storms. And, while springtime blossoms are one legacy of these rains so too is the extensive loss of life and property.

Such losses can be cut sharply—and danger diminished—with a few routine precautions, says Sentry Insurance. Just the simple procedure of keeping an ear turned to the weather report on the radio can provide you with the extra time necessary to forestall a potential disaster. When threatened, suggests Sentry:

- Secure awnings, shutters, close garage door. Stow away loose objects which may become lethal missiles if blown about by a heavy windstorm.
 - Stay indoors. If a tornado is forecast settle in basement during the danger period. To equalize atmosphere pressure open windows on the side of your house opposite from wind direction.
 - If driving, pull over to the side of the road and park, lights on, during the danger period. Do not park near a tree or other objects which could fall on your car.
 - Have emergency provisions—flashlight, water supply, canned goods, first aid kit—ready for use if necessary.
- One of the most important things to do is stay calm—often easier said than done. Consider a few simple family games to keep the children safely occupied during the time when the storm is at its most severe peak.

Western Party Held For FSA Sorority Saturday Evening

Things were really popping Saturday evening Sept. 11th at the Eatons "Dude Ranch." Rushes of Theta Epsilon Sorority and members, with their husbands were entertained in true western fashion with a chuck wagon barbecue. An original Western skit was presented by Evelyn Farris, Helen Eaton, LaDonna Sheperd, Bobbye Slusher, Clodilla Bridges and Pat Adams. The group sang a song dedicated to husbands of members. Games were enjoyed following members Messrs and Messrs. Sheperd, Elmer, Clyde Slusher, Aderan Dunn, Cecil Curtis, Jack Barrow, Joseph Jancke, Wayne Johnson, Eatons.

CONSULTANT TO FASHION TRESS INC.

Every year the fashion world awaits the Paris showings with bated breath. For months preceding, designers and everyone connected with their salons habitually assume an air of furtive secrecy reminiscent of a spy picture. As a result, when the showings do take place, the reaction (whether favorable or no) is invariably one of surprise.

But back in 1958, the fashion world was really knocked for a loop! That was the year Givenchy, the noted Parisien couturier, had his mannikin model in exotically styled wigs! According to Givenchy, his motive was merely to save time and to complement his collection. But the fashion world was all abuzz! Little did Givenchy realize that he had sparked a trend that was to lead to the revival of the wig as a fashion accessory.

Actually, wigs have been around for a long time. A look at history shows that they date back as far as 4,000 B.C. to the land of the Pharaohs. In more modern times, wigs were in common use in this country during colonial times. From that period until just recently, however, they had been used in this country mainly by actresses (Zsa Zsa Gabor, Jill St. John, Carol Channing, Lena Horne, Betty Furness, to name a few) and by those women who needed wigs because of loss or damage to their hair.

Today an estimated 4 1/2 million women in the United States own wigs—and the number is growing every day. Now, it is customary for most of the name couturiers to have a wig or hairpiece specially designed for every model showing his clothes. More significant, however, is the fact that with the price of wigs now within reach of every woman's pocket book hundreds of thousands of housewives, career girls, society figures—fashion conscious women of all ages and walks of life are enjoying the convenience and practicality of owning a wig.

Wigs are of two basic types—synthetic and human hair, which is the more desirable. Fashion Tress, the leading company in the wig field, uses only the highest quality human hair which is purchased from peasant girls in European countries. The girls under contract to sell their hair protect the quality by wearing kerchiefs to avoid the sun's rays. They never use lacquer or other chemicals. Consequently, the hair in a Fashion Tress hairpiece is the strongest, softest and most lustrous in the world. The average wig represents a three year growth of hair.

After the hair is cut, it is shipped to a factory where a master wig craftsman takes over. The wig making profession is the second oldest in the world and its craftsmen jealously guard the secret of wig making. The method is carefully passed on from one generation to the next, so there are whole families that engage in the art. It usually takes from one to three months to make a Fashion Tress wig.

The fashion world has now fully assimilated the wig. What is interesting to see is how other areas are adapting to it. For example, in financial circles, there are some places where a woman can finance a wardrobe of wigs or get a loan from a bank to buy them. Wigs can also be bought through Diner's Club, American Express or Uni-Card in some cities. If a woman can prove she needs a wig for cosmetic purposes, she can even deduct the cost from her income tax!

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Attend Church Sunday

Burk Boys Are Honor Students At Midwestern

A total of 43 students will participate in the Midwestern University Honors Program this fall, according to Dr. Henry Barton, chairman of the Honors Committee.

William R. Byars, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Byars, 316 Hayworth, will be a participating Sophomore.

Freshmen participating include: James H. Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Foster, 303 South Holly and Ernest Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gerome Harris, 408 Park.

Instituted at Midwestern last year, the Honors Program is composed of students who graduated in the top quarter of their high school classes. On the American College Test, the students must have scored at or above the 95th percentile of those planning to attend college. They also must have achieved the 75th percentile or higher on every part of the test.

All 43 students will be on scholarship this fall. Donors for the funds are W. P. Killingsworth, J. S. Bridwell, S. H. Lowder, Wichita County Medical Association, and the Priddy Foundation. In order to maintain these scholarships, the students are required to make a grade point average of at least 2.0 (straight B).

"The intent of the program," said Dr. Barton "is to give a group of students who have demonstrated exceptional ability the opportunity to pit their skills against more challenging courses than can be offered to students at large."

The courses provided specifically for honor students are chosen by the MU Honors Committee, consisting of representative professors for varied fields. The committee this year is composed of Mr. Barton, chairman; James Burpee, art; Dr. John Carson, history and philosophy; Dr. Patricia Ingle, English; Dr. John Meux, math; Douglas Sharp, business; and Dr. Joseph Ross, science.

Two courses will be mandatory for honors freshmen. English will be taught by Daniel Peterson; history will be taught by Dr. Floyd Ewing. An optional humanities course will be taught by Dr. Walter Wehner.

Two courses will be mandatory for honors sophomores. Government will be taught by Dr. Jhang Moon and Dr. Isabelle Hunt, each teaching the class one semester. English will be taught by Dr. Juanita Lyons. The second semester, a colloquium will also be mandatory.

Both freshmen and sophomores will have an opportunity to enroll in a math course, taught by Charles Williams, and a speech course taught by Mrs. Vicki Stupp.

CARD OF THANKS

You poured the fountains of love Upon our anguished hearts, And we can never find the word That gratitude imparts, But we are overcome with thanks And pray that God above Will bless you for your thoughtfulness, Because you came with love.

STUDY CLUB HOLDS BUFFET BREAKFAST

The Burkburnett Study Club began its 36th year of Federation work with a buffet breakfast in the Mirror Room of the Marchant Hotel, September 11th. Hostesses for the breakfast were the yearbook committee: Mmes. Harold Van Loh, W. G. Mayberry, James Bohner and Jack Smith, President.

After the invocation by Mrs. W. T. Zimmerman, the President opened the business with this inspirational thought: "There is unconquerable strength in being identified with some worthy cause and in belonging to some purposeful group."

Mrs. James Bohner presented the year books with the theme "Clubwomen Inspire Progress" containing the year's course of study on Public Affairs. The aim of the Public Affairs Department is to revitalize volunteer Service for Freedom and Growth, observing the GFWC Diamond Jubilee with greater efforts toward an informed citizenry, safety, community progress, publicity, and prestige.

A donation was given by the club to the Congressional Medal of Honor Grove, Valley Forge, Pa., a national shrine honoring our country's heroes. This is one of the major G.F.W.C. projects and the money contributed in this national effort will provide for the clearing and landscaping of this fifty-two acre area and for the construction of the central building for this facility.

Mrs. James Frye passed to each member a printed report of the Library Project covering the period of February through June, 1965. Establishing a library is the Community Improvement Project now in progress in cooperation with other Burkburnett Federated Clubs and sponsored by the Sears - Roebuck Foundation. Mrs. Frye was voted "Outstanding Club Woman of the Year" nominee for her complete devotion to her club and her community. She is now giving distinguished service as Chairman of the Federated Council's Steering Committee.

SOME FASHIONS OF THE PAST HAVE BEEN REMARKABLE FOR THEIR EXTREME. THE FRENCH REVOLUTION WAS A PERIOD OF GARMENTS OF UNUSUAL PROPORTION. THE MORE IMPORTANT THE WOMAN WAS, TINY JACKETS OF 'SPENCERS' PROVIDED SUCH LITTLE PROTECTION THAT THE REGENT WAS HIGH MORTALITY FROM PNEUMONIA.

THE RIDICULOUS FARTHINGALE REACHED ITS LIMIT WITH A WIDTH OF SIX OR EIGHT FEET AND A CIRCUMFERENCE OF 18 FEET.

THE WOMEN OF THE EMPIRE PERIOD DOED TO HARMONIZE WITH THE ROOMS IN WHICH THEY WERE TO RECEIVE THEIR GUESTS. THERE IS A STORY THAT A CERTAIN HOSTESS KNOWING WHAT HER RIVAL WAS GOING TO WEAR TO HER HOME FOR A PARTY, HAD THE ROOM PAPERED IN A COLOR THAT MADE THE GUEST LOOK LESS THAN ELEGANT.

Let's Go Fishin'

FASHIONS FOR FISHING. Clothes don't make the fisherman. Or, do they? If, under identical conditions, two differently attired anglers—possessing equal skill and using similar techniques—end the day with vastly different scores, perhaps there is something to the idea that fishing apparel can be either a help or hindrance.

While no one's concerned about the "Beau Brummell" look, comment the fishing authorities at Mercury outboards, clothing does play a role in fishing success under certain conditions.

Comfort is the primary reason any angler dons his favorite apparel, despite its possible threadbare and faded appearance. This is the way it should be.

But in achieving this aim, one may overlook the attitude and reaction of the fish he seeks.

Water conditions play an important role in determining whether or not clothing affects fishing. When the water is shallow, fish are extremely wary and frightened by any suspicious movement above the surface. Likewise, the water's clarity, even at considerable depths, enables the quarry to see the world above its liquid environment.

"See-ability" of clothes, then, is the crucial issue. And certain colors are more visible than others.

The bright, light shades attract a great deal more attention than dark ones and should be avoided. The Mercury folks say to choose darker materials such as soft plaids that blend rather than contrast with the background. The question of hue comes up in other ways:

In some regions where mosquitos are a serious problem, it is believed these pests are attracted to blue clothing. Though the idea is without scientific basis, many outdoorsmen shun this color.

Clothes do make a difference.

A Glimpse of India

Even a glimpse of India, Mark Twain wrote, is worth "the shows of all the rest of the globe combined." And so it is at the New York World's Fair, where millions of visitors to the India Pavilion have described their glimpse of India as "enchanting," "exotic" and "irresistible." The Pavilion, pictured above with the circular India Restaurant, is a seemingly floating structure, half-hidden by a screen of falling water. A whole panorama of India—past, present and future—is inside it. In the Restaurant, Indian dancing is offered daily.

Skilled artisans, flown from India especially for the Fair, demonstrate at first hand the exquisite craftsmanship which has fashioned through centuries India's legendary wares. Stone and bronze sculptures, wood carvings, murals and paintings, all bear eloquent testimony to an undying art. Examples of superb craftsmanship pictured here are (left) a decorative head of Durga as worn at the annual Bengal Festival, and (right) a jeweled carpet studded with 18,000 choice stone in floral patterns with gold and silver threads.

Several "get-acquainted" games were played, and the officers and sponsors answered any questions the girls asked.

The officers for the coming year are: President, Genny Mayberry; Vice-President, Susan Leitner; Secretary, Donna Greer; Treasurer, Nancy Walker; Reporter, Kathy Reed; Parliamentarian, Adrienne Davey. The chapter-advisors are Mrs. Archie Faulk, Mrs. Bill Hutchinson, and Miss Tanya Stapp. After the meeting, refreshments were served.

Pretty Clothes and Pretty 4-H Girls Go Together

PRETTY clothes on pretty girls are a common sight in 4-H circles, particularly among the more than three-quarter million girls from 9 to 19 enrolled in the national 4-H Clothing program, observes Miss Mamie Hardy, head of educational field activities for Coats & Clark Inc., sponsor for 25 years of the clothing program.

Sketched here are some of the fashions that 4-H girls are putting into their fall and winter wardrobes. In their clothing projects they learn how to sew on and care for new fabrics, and to choose color, line and design. The "learning-by-doing" is guided by local volunteer clothing leaders and extension home economists.

Miss Hardy conducts numerous workshops for extension personnel. Her newest is called "The Shape of Things" which teaches how to get different shapes in garments by use of various interfacings, backings and linings.

One member admitted: "I wanted to quit several times as junior clothing leader, especially when a girl came to club with a zipper in wrong for the thousandth time. But with a little more patience and one last explanation that finally hit home, we both scored a victory." Something "extra" is offered the young seamstresses by Coats & Clark. Awards consisting of medals, educational trips to the National 4-H Club Congress and a dozen scholarships of $500 each will be claimed this fall by top-ranking 4-H Clothing program members.

"Several generations ago," said Miss Hardy, "stiffeners used in garment construction gave exaggerated shaping and made the garment uncomfortable. Today's inner fabrics have changed to keep pace with the many new types of outer fabrics designed for contemporary living.

"The secret of good lines is knowing which type to use to achieve a softer and more comfortable effect," Miss Hardy added.

Workshop techniques will in turn reach local 4-H leaders who will pass them on to the girls.

Patience, persistence and pride in workmanship are three essential requisites for getting ahead in the clothing project, according to the 4-H'ers.

Latest innovation in car keys has just been introduced by Cole National Corporation—featherweight, colorful anodized aluminum car keys that complement cars' interiors, add dash to dashboards and zing to key rings. Available in blue, red, green or orange, the keys are easy to identify, end fumbling and guessing, even at night—a boon to the nation's more than 10,000,000 two-or-more car families. Lightweight, the new keys weigh almost four times less than their conventional brass counterparts, they help eliminate pocket sag, torn linings and they won't scratch doors or dashboards. Made of a superstrong, space-age aluminum alloy, they'll last the life of your car—or longer.

Burk Kings Top Rockets, 28-18 Saturday Night

By DEE UNDERWOOD

The Burkburnett Kings unleashed a powerful offensive, spurred by a highly potent passing attack, to down a bigger Dallas Richardson team, 28-18, in semi-pro action here last Saturday night.

The Kings' hard-throwing Quarterback, Eugene Guthrie, paced the attack as he passed for 212 yards and three touchdowns. His understudy, Rip Smith, completed one pass for 40 yards.

Guthrie's first touchdown pass was to Ron Duke in the first quarter, on a play that went 33 yards. Phil Fancher kicked the extra point to make it 7-0.

In the same quarter, the whole Burk line zeroed in on Rocket punter, Joe Wyatt, in the end zone for a two-point safety.

With the score 9-0, Wyatt got a little revenge as he put Richardson on the board with a 17-yard pass to Jeff McLemore. The kick failed and the scoreboard read 9-6.

Jerry Bettis carried on the Kings' second T.D., going two yards in the second quarter. Fancher kicked the point that made it 16-6.

Guthrie and Bettis combined talent for another tally just before the half. The golden arm hit the speedy halfback for 19 yards. The kick failed and at halftime it was 22-6.

Richardson punched across a score in the third period as Will Davis passed to Joe Wyatt on a 24-yard play. The kick failed and it was 22-12.

Guthrie threw a 14 yarder to Link Regis in the fourth quarter to score again. With no conversion, it made the score, 28-12.

Still trying to make a game of it, the Rockets sent Wyatt over from five yards out to make the final score 28-18.

Bob Laurick and Carlos Ramsey were outstanding on defense for the Kings. Next opponents for the Kings are the Tulsa Oilers, who move into town this Saturday night for an 8 p.m. encounter at Burk's Jr. High Stadium. For some good "head knocking" football, go out to see the boys.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bohne; and Mrs. L. O. Campbell of Burkburnett attended a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Kuntz in San Antonio, Texas, over the Labor Day weekend. Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell and children of Duncan, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. John Turner of Midland, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Campbell and family of Duncan were unable to attend.

Snack Snubbers Hold Meeting Recently

The Burkburnett Snack Snubbers met Tuesday night at 7:00 p. m. in the Scout Hut. Eight members under the leadership of Mrs. Mickie Beasley joined in the "weekly weigh-in" although the group did have four "naughty little pigs," they were over-joyed at their Ex-pig, Mr. Herbertine Olson became the club's first KIOWA (KOPS in waiting) If in three months she has not gained any weight, she will be graduated a KOPS member. This means Keep Off Pounds Sensibly. Mrs. Olson has lost over 60 pounds in the past 13 months. Says Mrs. Olson, "Since I joined TOPS, (one year ago last July) I have gained weight at only one meeting." At that meeting she gained 1-4 pound.

Needless to say, Mrs. Olson was the topic of discussion at Tuesday night's meeting. But there were other topics of discussion. It was decided by all to start meeting again on Monday nights. Also it was noted that there were quite a few "old" members who were not attending at present. It was decided by all to try to contact them this week.

The group then rose to say their pledge and Mickey Beasley closed the meeting.
