Kite Flyers Show Talent In Jaycee Sponsored Event

The wind blew, the kites flew and the sky was blue last Saturday afternoon as some thirty kite-flyers showed their skill. It was the first Jaycee Kite Contest ever held in Burkburnett. Everyone was busy making last minute changes in their kites due to the strong wind. Several kites had to be admitted to the Jaycee Kite Hospital for repair. We are happy to say we didn't lose a single patient.

After two hours of judging the winners were selected and trophies presented. First place for the smallest kite went to Dennis Ravard. His kite was barely 4-inches high and he flew it with thread. Second place went to Chris Riska. First place winner for the largest kite was Joel Rupard, whose kite measured nearly seven feet. Second place winner was Jerry Harrel, who had a large kite also. The most unusual kite award went to Jimmy Clouse who flew a star shaped kite. His kite was destroyed by the wind after it flew for nearly an hour. David Harris won the second place honors in this division with his butterfly kite. The kite that best promoted Burkburnett was built by Miss Dianna Aley. She had done a very fine job building and flying her kite. The following poem was painted on the kite:

Burkburnett is fine to me,
Horses and cattle, I love to see,
Oil pumps klunk, and the wind I like,
Because its great to fly my kite.

Dianna had also painted a picture of a bulldog, a horse, a cow and an oil derrick on the kite. On the bottom was printed Burkburnett, Boomtown, U.S.A.

Second place in this division went to Curtis Mize for his kite. It had, Burkburnett, Gateway to North Texas, printed on it. Congratulations boys and girls for doing such a fine job. There were very many deserving kites, but everyone couldn't be a winner.

them and all had Sunday dinner at Mrs. Goodwin's daughters home, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Pearson in Wichita Falls.

Mrs. H. A. Goodwin received word of the sudden death of Edwin T. Crowder, 56, of Hollis, Okla. His wife found his body in a field where he had been working, apparently death was caused by a heart attack. He was a very prominent business man and farmer both in Hollis and Dodson, Okla. Mrs. Goodwin was unable to attend the funeral Wednesday. Crowder was the late Harliss Goodwin's cousin.

City Council Members Receive Copies Of Proposed City Budget For Study At Monday Night Meet

Copies of Burkburnett's proposed $406,000 budget for the next fiscal year were distributed to City Council members, Monday night, for their review prior to a special budget meeting, which is set for March 31. This total does not include any funds for the Library or the recently created parks and recreation division of the city.

A proposed budget of $7,750 for seven months operation of the Library was submitted to the Council, Monday night, by Claude Adams, Library Board Chairman. This amount covers salaries of a Librarian and helpers, supplies and maintenance.

The Library will need to have on hand 3,000 books by the time construction of the building is completed. Mr. Adams told Council members. The average cost of library books is $6, indicating that the Library Book Fund will need a minimum of $18,000. The Library will not be eligible to apply for state funds for the purchase of books until after it is in actual operation.

Bailey - Meissner Company, Wichita Falls, was the low bidder at $4356.21 for water pipe and fittings to put into operation Burkburnett's three new water wells.

The City Council voted to pay the balance of $321.75 due on the shrubs and trees recently planted at the new cemetery, following a report from the Cemetery Association that all work had been completed there.

Joining of the two parts of South Avenue B will soon be underway, Jess Whatley, City Manager, reported to the Council. Rights of way through the Westbrook property have been completed and the position of curbs and gutters have been staked out.

Mr. Whatley was authorized by the Council to complete the construction of the Hood house and to advertise for bids on contract mowing of city property during the summer months.

The City Budget for the fiscal year which will end on March 31 totalled $413,655.52. Tax revenues as projected in this budget would have been $99,900.00, or 85 per cent of those assessed. However, tax collections for the year reached $104,225.00, according to Dick Chambers, City Tax Collector.

BUILDERS ON THE MOVE

The contributions of the investor owned electric utilities to the economic growth and well-being of this country would be difficult to exaggerate — and those contributions continue to increase. Take an example, eight utilities which comprise the Northwest Electric Light and Power Association and serve a sparsely settled six-state region.

In the past ten years, Association members have spent more than $2 billion on construction and expansion. The 1965 figure was $160 million and that of 1964 $135 million. The 1966 programs are estimated at $174 million.

These systems now serve more than 1.5 million electric customers. Ever-growing construction and improvement programs will assure these customers, along with those who will be added to the lines in the future, still more efficient and dependable service.

Of outstanding importance is the fact that the investor-owned electric companies belonging to the Association currently pay a tax bill of $100 million a year. Every unit of government shares in that payment.

This is typical of the investor-owned utility story everywhere in the country. And a point which needs to be continually emphasized and repeated is that all of the money comes from private savings and earnings — and none of it from taxes.

Earning The Customers' Choice

What can an enterprise do when it finds itself in economic troubles?

It can give up. Or it can seek new ways of bettering its service. REA, Express provides an outstanding example of the second course. Five years ago, it was in the fiscal doldrums. Then management decided on a top-to-bottom overhaul. In the ensuing five years, at a cost of some $100 million it has, among other things, constructed or completely renovated 90 up-to-the-minute terminals, utilizing the most modern materials handling equipment; purchased 11,200 trucks to bring its automotive fleet to more than 14,000 units; acquired thousands of newtype containers which greatly expedite the handling of shipments; completed more than half of a nation-wide electronic data processing and communications system which reduces paper work tremendously, speeds tracing of shipments and eliminates almost all chances of pricing error and expanded its international operations to include container service direct from a number of major American cities to various foreign countries.

The whole purpose has been to bring the standards of services offered up to the highest level and to hold charges to a minimum. Shippers, naturally, have responded with enthusiasm and consumers everywhere have benefited. Spark and drive, the dynamic forces in any successful free enterprise, overcome adversity. This is the way in a "free choice" economy. The business which earns the customer's free choice prospers.

When The People Get Soaked

In one of his recent Newsweek columns, Henry C. Wallich deals with the surging problem of inflation. And what he has to say should send shudders up the spine of everyone who is concerned with what remains of the dollar's value.

Washington, he observes, "... seems to be raising its inflation tolerance." In other words, it seems to have drifted into an attitude where steady inflation is more or less calmly accepted as a fact of life.

At the end, Mr. Wallich makes this point: "Is there anything the saver can do to protect himself. . . . The fact is that the great majority of people are defenseless against inflation, if the government will not protect them. Inflation, it has been said, is the time when people who have saved for a rainy day get soaked. That soaking seems about to begin."

All that can save us, apparently, is an assumption of fiscal responsibility on the part of Congress — a responsibility that will take the form of drastic cuts in every nonessential expenditure. We cannot fight a major and extending war and create an incredibly expensive welfare state at the same time without eating away the dollar's value at a dismaying rate. This is the most critical of the domestic issues the country faces.

During 1965, drug firms spent $351 million on new drug research and development, a 10 per cent increase over the preceding year. The average cost of bringing a new drug to market was $5 million.

ISTANBUL the FABULOUS

THE FABULOUS CITY of Istanbul, a blend of antiquity and modernity, sits astride the continents of Europe and Asia. The famed Turkish Bazaar is here; there are palaces and towers; the Sea of Marmara to the south and the shores of the Bosphorus. Mosques, some 500 of them, with cascading domes and tall, slender minarets, make the city picturesque. On the tenth anniversary of the Istanbul Hilton this year, this hotel has added a new 140-room air conditioned wing.

FOREIGN TOURISTS in Istanbul increased in number from just over 150,000 in 1956 to a little under 200,000 in 1963. Since almost a quarter of all visitors to Turkey stay at the Istanbul Hilton, the new wing was an absolute necessity.

TURKISH DOLLS, jewelry, pottery are on display in New York at the Waldorf-Astoria in honor of this tenth anniversary. Aziza, the Turkish coffee girl, will be on hand in her authentic costume to brew the thick, sweet coffee to order at each table. And among the traditional Turkish dishes will be roast leg of lamb, strudel and Baklava, a rich pastry.

Roger W. Babson Weekly Report

BABSON ELECTIONS AND THE POUND

Babson Park, Mass., March 24 — Prime Minister Wilson of England has been staggering from vote to vote in Parliament on the thinnest of margins. Success by Labor in recent by-elections has encouraged him to call for general voting on March 31. Contacts say there is an excellent chance that Mr. Wilson's Labor party will be returned to power by a fairly comfortable edge. He will then not have to fear being thrown out of office every time he asks for support from the House of Commons.

Heart and Core
However, there is grave doubt in financial London that — even with a strong majority — Mr. Wilson will be able to pull England out of the economic swamp into which it has fallen. The whole Free World is chasing after the rainbow of inflation. Among the front runners in Europe is England. We fear that her people have been enjoying a standard of living far beyond their financial means. With smaller resources than some other nations, and heavily dependent on foreign raw materials, the "tight little isle" may find that the piper's bill may be presented early.

Signs of defeatism are seen in recent political developments. The Labor government has moved to pull back from once-vaunted naval bases in the East. The decision to buy military superplanes from the U.S. — rather than to expand Her Majesty's air arm — is the clearest signal of all that John Bull is willing to become more and more a protectorate of Uncle Sam. No appeals to glory can persuade a tightening of belts. This seems to be the heart and core of the drift in England . . . both economical and political.

On Borrowed Time
Last year the pound was saved from devaluation by massive financial help from the Free World, especially the U.S. Foreign money speculators — then called the "Gnomes of Zurich" — were beaten back. But the feeling is now growing in responsible money circles, both here and abroad, that the pound will be in deep trouble again during the months ahead. It is openly said that the present $2.80 parity of the pound with the dollar is now on borrowed time.

Fact is that Great Britain has been and still is enjoying a boom at home. Both prices and wages have been climbing. Mr. Wilson had to sit hard on labor recently to avoid a crippling rail strike. The government even had to invoke fines against both unions and management to dampen inflation trends. Such high good times might be all right . . . if it were not for the fact that England must export heavily to pay for needed raw materials. Anything that raises the prices of British goods makes it more difficult for England to sell in foreign markets and brings closer the day of reckoning.

DECOY ANCHORS
Fill hole in a small flower pot and pour lead into the pot 3/4 inch high. Before it cools, drop in a 2 inch wire loop made from a coat hanger. Lead makes the best decoy anchor as it won't rust and discolor decoy sides.

Burden to Fall on U.S.
When the current wave of trouble for the pound started in 1964, the government moved to check imports by placing a 10% tariff on them. Surprisingly, this does not seem to have caused any big slowdown in consumption. Evidently things have been too prosperous. Trade figures for January were disturbing, with imports running $110 million ahead of exports. Many more months life this and no amount of financial rescue operations could save the pound.

New moves are starting in England to raise "user taxes" . . . to dampen the consumer boom. At the same time, spokesmen are warning the U.S. that if the British balance of payments does not improve by the end of 1966, England will have to cut back on her foreign aid and defense spending. Since chances of a large payments gain by the British are small, it is becoming apparent that the U.S. may have to bear the burden of defense and aid cuts.

Fading Hope
At the moment, the Labor party is saying very little about the pound. Every effort is directed at keeping infalton from bursting its bounds before the elections. Financial circles in London, however, know the problem will not be cured by wage and price reins. Greater productive efficiency, not higher tariffs on imports, may be needed to do the job. Hope is fast fading that production can be expanded and exports increased in time to save the pound. But the winners on March 31 will find the conundrum right on their doorstep. And this time it will not be easy to brush it under the rug.

You think you have problems... EVERYONE HAS PROBLEMS

"Boy, take it from me, leading a dog's life ain't no bowl of cherries. It's always get offa this and that, and boy, what happened to me, when I turned over the lamp!"

Our life may not be a dog's life, but everyone does have problems and always will. God does not promise that even his good and faithful children would be without problems, but He does promise strength to bear our problems. Attend church Sunday, renew and strengthen your life by leaning on the Lord.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Local's Daughter Is President Of Zebra Wives Club

Fort Campbell, Ky. — Mrs. William H. Stanyer has been elected to direct the activities of the Fort Campbell Zebra Wives Club for the next six months.

The new president is faced with an ambitious program recently initiated by the group. Their plans include the purchasing of full-length mirrors for the hospital, magazine subscriptions for the children's ward and eye glasses for a Fort Campbell family. These projects and the many social functions of the club will keep the vivacious president and her executive board busy during their tenure of office.

Barbara Stanyer, welcomes her new position, for she believes that a day with nothing to do is worst fate possible. "I've been an Army brat for 31 years," laughs Barbara, "and I just don't know anything else."

She is the daughter of a retired Army Colonel and Mrs. E. L. Roy of Burkburnett.

The wife of Staff Sergeant William H. Stanyer and mother of two children, Cindy 5, and Kurt 4, she and her family have lived in Japan, Germany, Alaska and many of the States.

Barbara attended Boston University and the University of Heidelberg, she was a legal secretary for the Army when she met her husband.

The Stanyer's reside on post at Fort Campbell.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank each of you who visited me while I was in the hospital and since my return home. I also want to express my appreciation for the prayers, lovely cards, flowers, phone calls and other kindnesses during my recent illness. May God bless each of you in my prayer.

Letter From An Old Church

Dear Readers:
 Again Spring is here. The trees are budding, fruit trees are blooming, crocuses and daffodils are blooming. Yes, spring always comes just as the sun and moon comes up in the east and sets in the west. Such an orderly universe does prove the presence of God, creator of all.

The regular monthly Pot Luck held by the members of St. John the Divine, March 13, was changed to a Barn Barbecue. The Sturdavants invited everyone to come out to their ranch to eat, ride horses, and go for a buggy ride. The Lewises were co-hosts. There was good, old home-made ice cream to top off all the good food. We really had a good time. I do wish you could have been with us. Many of our friends were there.

By the way, last week I told about the beginnings of the Church of Jesus Christ and how this was done through the Apostles of Christ. Today, I would like to tell you about the coming of the Holy Ghost at Pentecost.

Many groups today claim that this was a speaking in many tongues. And they claim that this part of Scripture gives them license to speak in tongues today. We in the Episcopal Church, which is a part of the true Church of Christ, saying that this is not necessarily true. In the 12th Chapter of St. Paul's Epistle to the Corinthians he says, "...to another divers kinds of tongues, to another interpretation of tongues." This means that if we speak in tongues, and no one can understand us, we are not communicating to other people, and therefore it is worthless.

Let us honestly look at what the Scripture says: In the Book of Acts the 2nd Chapter the 4th Verse we find, "And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance." What does this truly mean? Well, it simply means that all the people, "Parthians and Medes, and Elafites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, in Judea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes," all these people were able to understand each other in their own language. It also means that this was the beginning of the One, Holy Catholic, (Universal) Apostolic Church. The Christians at last were one, through the operation of the Holy Ghost, on the Day of Pentecost, which has always been a special Feast Day in the One True Church. From that day forward, the Holy Ghost has been with the Church of Jesus Christ, and will always remain with it until the day of Final Judgement by Christ Himself. It is also a known Scriptural fact that St. Paul was added as an Apostle through the operation of the Holy Ghost, and became the first Bishop of the Church of Jesus Christ; when Judas took his life after betraying Jesus, the Apostles elected Matthias to take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place." therefore St. Paul became the 13th Apostle, the first Bishop of the Church of Jesus Christ of which we in the Episcopal Church claim to be a part. The Holy Ghost works in all our lives, but lets not be so near sighted that we think we are the only ones who have access to the Holy Ghost, for this means that only a few of us will ever reach the Kingdom of God.

I do wish you'd come and learn about the Church of Jesus Christ at the Forum discussion groups every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at 1000 S. Berry St. God Bless You, The Scribe

Monsieur Jean Bauchet is an art collector and a connoisseur of two automobiles. He understands that quiet in a car means quality. After driving a '66 Ford XL, he said, "They would not have to make Paris streets so smooth if all cars rode like this."

Who says a '66 Ford rides quieter than Jean Bauchet's $12,000 Facel Vega?

Jean Bauchet!

Ford's Quiet Man, who recently toured Europe demonstrating the exceptional quality of the '66 Ford to owners of some of the world's most expensive cars, here discusses a '66 Ford XL with Monsieur Bauchet outside of Monsieur Bauchet's Paris home.

"Such smoothness, such silence," says Jean Bauchet. "Your Ford is quieter, M'sieu."

Ford's quiet quality is the result of advanced engineering features like a revolutionary new frame that "tunes out" road vibrations... the strongest body ever on a Ford. But the quiet ride is just one of many reasons why you're ahead in a Ford all the way. Only Ford in its class offers a Stereo-Sonic Tape Player option that brings you over an hour of uninterrupted music of your choice, on each self-threading, snap-in tape cartridge. Magic Doorgate for wagons (standard equipment) that opens out like a door and down like a tailgate, depending on whether you are loading kids or cargo. Silent-Flo Ventilation (on 4-door hardtops) that brings in fresh air and gets rid of smoke and stale air with the windows closed. Even Ford's keys are special—they're double-edged so they fit in locks either side up. Visit your Ford Dealer and test-drive a '66 from Ford. See how many ways Ford can put you ahead in '66.

You're ahead in a FORD all the way!

Youths Are Participating In Honors Program

Forty-six students are participating in the Midwestern Honors Program according to Henry Barton, chairman of the honors committee. The courses provided specifically for honor students are chosen by the MU Honors Committee, consisting of representative professors from varied fields. The committee this year is composed of Barton, chairman; James Burpee, art; Dr. John Carsin, history and philosophy; Dr. Patricia Ingle, English; Dr. John Meux, mathematics; Douglas Sharv, accounting; and Dr. Joseph Rose, science.

Two courses will be mandatory for honors freshmen. English will be taught by Daniel Peterson; history by Dr. Floyd Ewing. An optional humanities course will be taught by Dr. Walter Wehner.

Two courses will be mandatory for honors sophomores. Government will be taught by Dr. Jhang Moon and Dr. Isabelle Hunt; English by Dr. Juanita Lyons. A colloquium, taught by Dr. Grover C. Richards, chairman of the department of psychology and sociology, will also be mandatory.

Plans for continuing the program on a four-year basis are being considered by the honors committee.

B). "The intent of the program," said Barton, "is to give a group of students who have demonstrated exceptional ability the opportunity to pit their skills against more challenging courses than can be offered to students at large."

Growth Of Texas Cities Increases Libraries Demand

The growth of Texas cities is an index to the increased demand being placed on public libraries. Texas cities are growing faster than the larger U.S. cities. In the past century, the nation's five largest cities didn't quite double in population. But the five largest cities in Texas multiplied sevenfold.

The school age population is mushrooming so rapidly that schools are hardpressed to provide minimum physical facilities and have virtually by-passed provision of adequate libraries. The school age population in Texas increased 44 per cent from 1950 to 1960 while the total population in Texas increased in that time was only 24 per cent.

Turner Catledge, famed editor of the New York Times stated publicly several years ago that man's ability to transmit knowledge in this highly skilled technological age has exceeded his ability to assimilate that knowledge.

We are not handicapped with a dilapidated library building which must be repaired or replaced, filled with out of date books and operating system. In some communities these obstacles must be overcome before progress can begin.

The proposed Burkburnett Library will be housed in a modern functional building which will house the latest educational aids.

Several City officials and Library Board members, in Burkburnett, have received invitations to attend the Governor's Conference on Libraries to be held in Austin, Texas, March 23.

The purpose of the conference is to strengthen the prime requisite for improved library service for Texans: dependable, influential, and enduring grassroots support of long-range plans for library excellence.

The problem of library development is as close to each individual citizen as his dream that his child may some day be admitted to a university. Good library facilities can determine whether that dream comes true.

Mrs. Harold aVn Loh, member of the Burkburnett Library Board of Trustees, has been appointed by Heartsill Young, president of the Texas Library Association and assistant director of the University of Texas Library, to act as representative and organize a post-conference meeting in our community. The date of this meeting will be announced at a later date.

Hardin HD Club Has Fried Chicken On Family Night

Members of the Hardin Demonstration and the families enjoyed a family night at the National Room of the First National Bank, Friday night, March 18. Main attraction of the evening was a delicious meal of fried chicken and plenty of accompanying vegetables, salads, desserts, and coffee and tea.

Following the meal the spacious recreational area was enjoyed by various groups of men playing 42, and women and children, trying their luck at b-ngo. Prizes were given and then the children enjoyed their books that they received.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Roderick, Mr. and Mrs. James Roderick and Larry and Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mahaffey, David, Alan, and John E.; Mrs. Cordie Lawrence, Mrs. A. A. Jacobs, Mrs. W. E. Howard, Mr. M. L. Hillis, Mrs. M. R. Hewell, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Buck, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hageman and Mrs. Minnie Singleton; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Goins, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gage and son; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Enderli, and Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Askins.

Members of the club would like to express their appreciation to the First National Bank for the use of their very nice entertaining facilities.

Sheppard Training Center Mission Is Explained To German Airmen

Lt. Col. R. L. Walker, chief of the Department of Missile and Space Training, conducted them on a tour of his department. The morning's itinerary was concluded with the shift change ceremony at 3750th Technical School Review stand. Brig. Gen. Edward H. Nigro, Center Commander, joined the group for this ceremony.

In the afternoon, the group visited the helicopter area where training is given in the helicopter flying training program. Col. J. W. Hamill, commander of 3637th Flying Training Squadron, conducted a tour through the helicopter school.

Following a drive through the Strategic Air Command area, home of the 492nd Bombardment Wing, and future area of the Germany pilot training at Sheppard, the group returned to Fort Sill.

The mission and operation of Sheppard Technical Training Center and the 3630th Flying Training Wing were explained for some 40 members of the German Air Force during their orientation tour of Sheppard Technical Training Center Thursday.

This group of allied students including both officers and non-commissioned officers came from Fort Sill, Okla., where they are to train on the Pershing Missile.

Lt. Horst Pinzler, German liaison officer accompanied the 20 officers and 21 NCOs who arrived by bus at Sheppard early that morning. Maj. Robert W. Stephenson, Sheppard's chief of information, was escort officer for the group during the one-day visit.

In the opening session in Sheppard's Neel Kearby Hall, the visiting students learned about Sheppard Technical Training Center in a briefing by Col. Alfred E. Ireland Jr., chief of Programming Division, Center Operations, and about 3630th Flying Training Wing which encompasses the German Air Force pilot training program in a briefing by Col. F. L. Gailer, Jr., wing commander.

Industrial prospects visit the library in local communities and use it as an index to the community's cultural level. They are also interested in what kind of library facilities are available to their employees. The library and research facilities in many cities have influenced the location of technical industry.

The old image of the library as the place where you check out books only has changed. It's now a place where you: borrow paintings—famed reproductions of the finest art in the world; borrow 16 millimeter films on everything from Aardvarks to Zuni Indians; borrow sound recordings—both musical and non-musical, using them to learn a language, enjoy an opera or a reading of the Bible; borrow sound tapes, study newspapers and magazines on microfilm. In one American library, it is possible to borrow an umbrella on a rainy day!

The citizens of the Burkburnett area are fortunate indeed.
