Bits Of THIS-N-THAT

By BETTY BOYD

The switch-hitter, a great in baseball, Mickey Mantle really drew everyone out to the Booster Club Banquet Monday, the 29th. Even the grown-up youngsters were asking him to autograph baseballs and other items. For their kids, I guess it was a sell-out affair. I have never seen one. Congratulations, Booster Club members. It was a job well done and should really contribute much to your generous efforts to provide a scholarship for one of Burk Burnett's athletes.

Leer Manufacturing Company, Burk Burnett's newest industry, will have its formal opening with ribbon cutting ceremonies Wednesday, January 7. A guided tour of the plant will be part of the days itinerary.

Help to welcome this new industry to our town. Be one of the attending welcoming crowd.

Read the Burk Burnett News Tuesday, for more information about this special affair.

There is bad news for some—good news for others, and for dogs who are not restrained; well, they would be shivering in their fur if they could read the following.

On Monday, February 5, according to Police Chief Abbott and City Manager Gary Egan, two policemen will be patrolling for the sole purpose of collecting and impounding, free-roaming dogs.

For an entire two weeks, this campaign to enforce the city ordinance prohibiting loose dogs, will be carried on in the forenoon.

Other than enforcing the law, the purpose is to protect the citizen and the animal; to prevent attacks on pedestrians; to prevent a driver from an accident while attempting to avoid hitting a dog; and to prevent over-turned garbage cans, which cause unsightly and unhealthy conditions. Therefore, dog owners, be forewarned. Don't let them take your pet to the pound. Keep him confined or leashed. Help protect your neighbor and his children.

Besides, if your pet goes to the dog jail, you will have to pay a fee to rescue him and he will be unhappy and so will you!

Have we had rain or have we had RAIN! Well, we need it and think of all the beautiful things it will cause to grow.

Have you read about the Marine from another country, who has given service over in Vietnam, and was wounded for our country, but cannot live here because his visa has expired?

Golly! It seems as though he should be allowed to stay if he loves the country enough to risk his life for it.

His Marine buddies aren't very happy about the situation, either.

What do you think about it? Are you helping Burk Burnett's part in Operation Sparkle or are you one of the inconsiderate citizens who toss refuse on the highways and streets?

Think about it next time you begin to toss an empty cigarette package or soda cup out of your car window.

Our new Chamber of Commerce Manager is a very busy man. He is a very nice man, too and he is really giving his all to doing a good job for Burk Burnett. There are some fine people cooperating with him in his efforts, also.

Don't forget the Talent Show to be produced by the Youth Center soon. If you can't contribute a talent, then

Lady Cagers Win Thriller, 36-35

The Burk Burnett First National Women's basketball team beat the Wichita Falls Trinettes in city league play last Wednesday night, Jan. 24, by a score of 36 to 35. With 3 seconds left to play, the Trinettes made a free throw, giving them a 35-34 lead and Burk Burnett First National Bank brought the ball in bounds. Guard, Janie Cox, threw a long pass to forward Doris Pollard who in turn fired a long shot as the buzzer sounded. The ball went perfectly through the net to give the First National girls their second win over the Trinettes in season play and assured them of at least a tie for the city league crown. First National Bank is now 6-0 for the season and the Trinettes are 4-2.

MICKEY MANTLE IS SPEAKER AT BOOSTER CLUB BANQUET

Mickey Mantle, one of baseball's greatest players, was the guest of honor at the Booster Club Banquet, Monday night, January 29, held in the high school cafeteria.

Nearly 500 people, including many youngsters, heard Mickey talk about the Yankees last season, saying, "You don't get invited to many banquets when you finish in 9th place."

He lauded the Booster Club for its efforts in trying to provide a scholarship for a deserving athlete from Burk Burnett. With him were his business partner, Floyd Smith and two companions, Eddie Hamilton and Duncan Spaulding, who he introduced to the audience.

In a question and answer session, he stated that his lifelong ambition was to meet and play on the same team as Joe DiMaggio.

He said his Dad taught him to play baseball at a very early age and that he always expected to be a professional.

'Mighty Mick' Answers Questions, Gives Views At Local Conference

By DEE UNDERWOOD

"The Mighty Mick," Mickey Mantle proved himself a capable fielder as well as a hitter, as he fielded question after question at the 1968 Booster Club Banquet Monday night, but proved just as impressive in an earlier personal interview at the T. M. Cornelius home.

Asked by nearly every interviewer was the question, "When do you think the Yankees will return to their former prominence?"

"You must mean when we won five pennants in a row," said Mick. "Well, it'll be after my time, I'm afraid. We've got a good pitching staff and that's about it."

Mick feels that the Yankees will improve with the return, in a year or two, of shortstop Bobby Mercer from the army. Young outfielder Bill Robinson, who suffered from injuries most of last season, was cited as a potential great by Mick. "We miss guys like Roger Maris, Clete Boyer, and Elston Howard," Mick lamented.

Asked about Joe Pepitone, the fiery centerfielder of the Yanks, he said, "Peppy is capable of having as good a year as Yaztremski did last year, but who knows about Peppy?"

Asked about his favorite manager, he declined to distinguish one. Instead, he spoke of Harry Craft, Casey Stengel, Ralph Houk and Yogi Berra. "Craft, former Houston Astro manager, was Mick's first minor league manager, like a father to me," said Mick.

"Casey Stengel gave me my start in the majors," said Mick.

"Yogi Berra was like a brother to me, said the slugger. And, according to Mick, "Ralph is the one who says Mantle is the leader of the Yankees. He makes me feel like somebody."

BULLDOGS NEAR SEASON'S END; DEFEAT CHILDRESS IN DISTRICT 4-AAA CONTEST

By DEE UNDERWOOD

The Burk Burnett Bulldogs jumped to a 20-2 lead early in the game then fought off a spirited Childress Bobcat rally to take a well deserved 65-48 conference victory over their visitors in Bulldog Gym last Friday night.

Lanky John Edwards, who has been setting a torrid scoring pace in recent 4-AAA contests, ripped the twines for 29 points.

The Bulldog onslaught featured some fine dribbling and floorwork by playmaker Ken Curl and balanced overall team work.

The Bobcats' Evans led their scorers with 16 points.

Childress was the fourth team in a row to taste the Bulldogs' wrath at being eliminated from district contention with three losses. Hirschi fell, 63-47, Breckenridge was mauled, 65-38, Vernon gave out, 83-63, and of course came the Childress game.

Edwards played havoc with the Vernon Lion defense in that conquest. The highly respected 6'4" post man hit a high school career high of 35 points.

Edwards 29 points in the Breckenridge game, gained him a following in the Buckaroo camp, also.

However, Edwards is one of the first to admit scoring is not everything. The Bulldogs' measure of success leans on tight team play and a strong defense. Ken Curl and Kenny Young are two top guards, and forwards Jimmy Fleegar and Steve Cozy are steady performers, also.

Pointing to a shortage of personnel on his bench, Coach Stan Owen can call on Jack Tabor, Monty Ridgeway, Johnny Mitchell and of late Robby Young.

One of the finest basketball teams in the area, the Bulldogs lost back to back heartbreakers to district foes, Booker T. Washington and Brownwood. Then, while still in semi-shock they were upset by the Graham Steers. This combination of misfortune all but mathematically eliminated them from district contention. But through all this, the locals have rebounded, showing the fine caliber of young men they are.

The 1967-68 season is now drawing to a close. At press-time, the Bulldogs were engaging in the Leopards' den. Unofficial reports have it that they lost a real heartbreaker, 66-65.

Friday, February 2nd, they travel to Brownwood for another shot at the Lions.

Last Home Game The last home game of the season is Tuesday, Feb. 6, as the Bulldogs host Graham's Steers.

This should prove to be a most exciting contest. Everyone is urged to turn out and show these young men how well they are appreciated. Fill the gym for this last one.

Then, Friday, February 9, the season ends as the locals travel to Hirschi in Wichita Falls for a final joust with the Huskies.

Remember, the last home game is Feb. 6. Make plans to attend now.

Government Can't Build Character

Pessimists, who are inclined to think that all the answers to present day problems lie in more and more government direction of our lives, are failing to take into their reckoning what might be called almost a national movement to restore to its rightful position the leadership and initiative of private citizens. There are many things government cannot do and one of them is to build character. We are reminded of this with the coming observance of Boy Scout Week, February 7-13.

In speaking to the annual meeting of the Boy Scouts of America, Mr. James M. Patterson, an oil company executive, declared, "Youth movements in many other lands have lacked voluntary action. They have discounted the importance of individual initiative and self-reliance, and have substituted blind obedience to a central authority. We have in Scouting and in other voluntary youth movements the American answer to Communism and dictatorships. Scouting is working to tip the scales in the direction of liberty—it is the American way." Mr. Patterson said Scout leaders are helping develop character and effective citizenship at the time it is needed most. "With more than 3 million boys and girls coming to voting age every year," he said, "our hope for a better future is in their hands. . . . More than 40 million men and boys have taken part in Boy Scout work since it was started 67 years ago."

Boy Scout Week is worthy of observation by youth and adults alike. Scouting typifies the kind of voluntary character-building action that accompanies responsible citizenship.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

NEW BERN, N. C., SUN-JOURNAL: "The superintendent of schools in a small mountain town in North Carolina made a . . . plea for more financial help for the high school student who isn't a scholastic hot-shot. . . . Most scholarship programs are aimed at top ranking high school seniors who are headed for college. . . . But how about the senior who isn't top ranked and who needs, say, $250 upon graduation to take a machine course in a technical school, or to learn how to become a painter, or to become skilled at some other job? Wouldn't it be better to help this boy than to have him panic and drop out of school to take an unskilled job in the belief that this is his best bet to make a living? . . . There is no better investment for banks, businessmen or educators than to develop a future taxpaying average citizen instead of a future welfare client. Think it over!"

COVINGTON, LA., TAMMANY FARMER: "There are many ways to devalue money. In Great Britain, they did it deliberately and openly. Here in the United States, we are doing it subtly and insidiously, but every bit as damaging. . . . In effect, devaluation — or inflation — means simply that your dollar buys less. It means your savings account lying in the bank may grow with interest, but it actually diminishes in value. It means that a $3,600 car last year cost $4,000 this year. . . . Is the fate of America like that of 'Great Britain'? Will federal waste and deficit spending finally and completely ruin the already devaluated dollar? It's your decision, in many ways. It's your dollar, in every way."

FINDLAY, OHIO, REPUBLICAN-COURIER: "President Johnson predicts that the American people 'are going to rise up and revolt' against the lawbreaker in this country. The nation, he concludes, has reached the limit of its patience with lawlessness and crime. . . . Millions do not break the law even though they are poor and many crimes — among them embezzlement, forgery and fraud — are not usually committed by slum dwellers. Moreover, crime is increasing in the slum-free suburbs."

ALAMOSA, COLO., VALLEY COURIER: "Disrespect for the Flag . . . has angered many . . . veterans and all other patriots. Our Flag represents the greatest country on earth. It represents our freedom won and preserved with the blood of many good men. And many good men are still sacrificing their lives — proudly so — in the name of the United States and freedom."

FOR SAFER TIRES
TIRE TESTING CENTER

Did you know that before you buy your new tire the product line has been subjected to rigorous testing? Armstrong and Owens-Corning Fiberglas engineers tested a new wide track tire thousands of times for strength at various loads and speeds.

The pace of the testing increased. On the largest closed test track in the world, near Pecos, Texas, racers drove the tire at speeds up to 120 m. p. h.—on a nine-mile long black top strip.

The result of all this careful testing will soon be available at your Armstrong tire dealer. The new cooler riding Fiberglas belted wide track tire passed its tests with flying colors and will give you many more miles of carefree driving.

SENSING THE NEWS

REAL STATE OF THE UNION

The U. S. Constitution requires that the President give Congress a report on the State of the Union. And President Lyndon B. Johnson lived up to the letter of the law when he recently appeared before Congress to give his presentation. But the spirit of the law was far from being fulfilled in that address. The American people simply didn't get the needed data on the state of the nation's affairs.

As we move into 1968, the country is confronted with many grim problems, and the President did not delineate them with sufficient force and candor. Referring to the war in Vietnam, Mr. Johnson said the American will to persevere will not be broken. But that's not really the point. What he failed to say is that the United States will move with determination to win a victory over the forces of communism that are taking so many American lives and so much of our national wealth. Missing from the address was a clear-cut statement of a victory goal—the goal that would make the war effort truly worthwhile.

Nor did Mr. Johnson deal frankly with the crisis of confidence concerning the American dollar. He put the blame on U.S. tourists for a big chunk of the nation's balance of payments deficit. But he didn't put a finger on the real source of trouble—American giveaways and wasteful spending programs abroad. On the contrary, he indicated that he will continue to pour out American money overseas for "The Food for Freedom Program" and expansion of the International Development Association. Clearly, the balance of payments problem cannot be ended by stopping teachers from taking a summer holiday. Washington is the root of the fiscal evil that results in balance of payments problem.

Though he admitted that the U. S. faces some financial problems, Mr. Johnson showed not the slightest intention of returning government spending to a reasonable level. Instead, he proposes that the government spend more than $10 billion above what it spent last year. What sense is there for Mr. Johnson to say he is against inflation when he pumps fuel into the engine of inflation by increasing federal expenditures?

Nor will many fair-minded citizens be fooled by Mr. Johnson's statement that the increases are necessary. Certainly, it isn't necessary to spend $2.1 billion this year on a federal "manpower program," as the President announced in his speech. Nor is there any sign of economizing in Mr. Johnson's appeal that Congress provide $1 billion for his "model cities program." Why should the taxpayers, at a time when financial retrenchment is in order, favor his plan to build "six million new housing units for low and middle-income families?"

By proposing a federal budget of almost $190 billion, Mr. Johnson is further endangering the financial stability of the United States and the integrity of the U.S. dollar. He is recommending an even bigger deficit that will place a crippling load on the rising generation of young Americans.

The State of the Union address gave ample evidence that Mr. Johnson is unwilling to face or even discuss with candor the nation's realities in this election year. His address was more of the same "spend and elect" talk that was favored when he entered politics in the New Deal era.

The truth is that the country is in deep trouble, spending vast sums on a war that the administration gives little or no sign of determining to win. America's cities are plagued with street revolutionaries who want to burn down the nation. Radicals are trying to foment draft resistance and otherwise spread anarchist ideas among the young people of this country. Welfareism is out of hand and has become a career for many thousand of free loaders. Free enterprise is caught between oppressive Big government and Big Unionism that is pressing for wage increases that are not related to real increases in productivity.

The American people desperately need genuine leadership from the White House. They aren't getting it, however. Instead, they are getting words and an endless stream of proposals for heavier federal spending, as though that were a cure-all.

The President's speech plainly indicated that he intends to run the giveaway system at full tilt even when the nation's problems are piling up in dangerous fashion.

All candidates for president in 1968 should be measured with these same yardsticks.

FORMER PASTOR SUFFERS HEART ATTACK

Rev. E. G. Gregory, former pastor of the Thrift Baptist Church, has suffered an extensive heart attack and is in Room 450, Mother Frances Hospital, Tyler, Texas. Reports indicate that he is recuperating and will, perhaps, be out of the hospital and in his home at Van Alstyne, Texas, within three weeks. He would be happy to receive a card from his friends in this section.

MANTLE-

ted to become a professional. He plans for the future are to continue playing with the Yankees and he expects the team to do much better in the standings next season.

Mickey is married and has four sons. The Mantles live in Dallas.

Other highlights of the occasion were words of praise for the activities of the Booster Club by Don Alexander, of KFDX-TV Channel 3, who was master of ceremonies; the presentation of an award of appreciation for bringing honor to his home town, to John Koller, by Jack Aaron, president of the Booster Club, who pointed out that Koller is an Honorable-Mention All-American football player at the University of Oklahoma; to Dow Estes, public announcer at all Burkburnett High School activities in sports; and to E. J. Tatum, for many movies he has taken at the games.

Bill Froman, head coach, presented award of appreciation to Jack Aaron and T. M. Cornelius for their work with the Booster Club and bringing Mickey Mantle to Burkburnett.

Rev. Don Youngblood, pastor of the First Methodist Church gave the invocation.

Jack Aaron ended the program by thanking the ladies who decorated the cafeteria; Mrs. Norman Roberts, Mrs. Bill Leasoner, Mrs. Gary Owen, Mrs. Rudy Robinson and Mrs. Jack Aaron.

The affair was catered by Youngbloods of Wichita Falls.

INTERVIEW-

He says he really likes playing first base now. At first, when he heard he was making the move from the outfield, he said "I thought it was some kind of publicity stunt."

Now Mick feels that the new position will add another two or three years to the life of his career.

Upon retirement, Mick plans to open a string of restaurants known as "Mantle's Country Kitchens." If they succeed, he doubts if he will ever become a baseball manager, says Mick. "I'm tired of traveling."

He hasn't set a definite time for retirement, but said "before much longer, I'm getting where I can't take it like I used to."

Although suffering many serious and discouraging injuries, and being the victim of osteomyelitis as a youth, Mick won't use these alibies. No one would blame him if he did.

Mick says Joe DiMaggio is the best all around baseball player he ever saw, but speaks well of Ted Williams and Willie Mays.

Mick tabbed Carl Yaz庄renski of the American League Boston Red Sox and Rusty Staub of the National League Houston Astros as coming super stars. Both have often been compared with Mantle.

He feels someone will break Babe Ruth's 154-game record of 60 homers, possibly Yaz庄renski.

Some of Mickey's personal credentials, which make him a sure bet for the Hall of Fame, include:

518 lifetime homeruns, a 300 plus lifetime batting average, and three times as American League Most Valuable Player.

He was the Triple Crown winner in 1956 with a 353 batting average, 52 homeruns, 130 runs batted in, 132 runs, and 376 total bases.

Mick led the league in homers in 1955, 58 and 60.

He hit his 500th career homer off Stu Miller, the famous slow baller. His longest homer was a 565 footed at the old stadium in Washington, D. C.

Born October 20, 1931, Mick starts his eighteenth season as a major leaguer this spring.

As a boy, this reporter once traded a Harvey Kuenn, a Lew Burdett, and two Billy Martins for one Mantle trading card. One can easily imagine the thrill I felt shaking the hand of the man who drew this word of praise from Yankee Manager Ralph Houk.

"As long as Mickey wears a Yankee uniform and plays at all, he will be a 100,000 dollar a year man. You don't cut an immortal's salary!"

Mrs. Bill Hutchison, standing front, and Mrs. Archie Faulk, standing rear, instruct beginners in the sewing class being held at the Community Service Center. Both ladies volunteer their time, free, to teach other ladies to sew. The class is part of the OEO program. Florida Dickerson has her black to the camera and the other seamstress is Juanita Broadnax.

Volunteers Instruct Sewing Class At Community Service Center

Mrs. Archie Faulk and Mrs. Bill Hutchison, volunteers, who give of their time free, are instructing sewing classes at the Community Service Center. The classes last from 8 to 10 weeks. They are assisted by another such volunteer, Mrs. Luther Magee.

The class in progress now was started three weeks ago. The members of the class are making shift dresses for themselves, while they learn the basics of sewing.

The machines which they use belong to the OEO program and are passed from class to class in the Wichita area.

If you are interested in joining one of the sewing classes, call 569-1831 for further information.

Burk Woman To Try For Third Win On Amateur Hour Sunday

Burkburnett housewife, Mrs. Carol Zeiss, who plays a musical instrument called the dulcimer, will try for her third win when she appears on Ted Mack's Original Amateur Hour in color Feb. 4.

Mrs. Zeiss scored winning votes from the network viewing audience when she first appeared on the Amateur Hour in June, 1967. A second performance on the program in September pushed her a step nearer to the special telecast of competing three-time winners and the National Amateur Championships.

Mrs. Zeiss' father and a friend made the dulcimer in 1920. She began playing it during high school days in Smith Center, Kan.

Mrs. Zeiss and her husband, Alvin, were in Miami Beach recently where her performance was taped in a special series of a dozen broadcasts to be seen through March.

Ted Mack's talent scouts audition an average of 27,000 acts annually, with nine appearing in each show.

Retarded Council Group Meets

The Burkburnett Council for Retarded Children met Thursday, Jan. 25, in the Special Education Room at Hardin Primary School.

After the business meeting, Mrs. Letha Moore, school nurse gave an informative talk about the care the school exercises to maintain the health and physical fitness of the children. She also demonstrated some of the machines she uses to check eyesight and hearing.

Mr. Geo. Bryant lectured about Tiawan and Mr. Adams ran the projector showing films of the island.

After refreshments and an informal social period, the meeting was adjourned. They will meet again on February 15 at 7:30 p.m. Do come and help make this effort a success.

be sure to contribute the price of a ticket and attend.

For more information, contact the director, Darlene Mitchell at the Center and I am certain she will be happy to help you. It is for a very worthy cause — to pay a remodeling debt of $7,000. Give 'em a hand—uh, dollar!

That old Flu bug is still getting to friends of mine. Be wary it doesn't catch up with you. It got my boys and had a go at two other employees of the Star. I have been lucky thus far. My fingers are still crossed, though.

LAUGH. It's good for you—

In Opelousas, La., a truck driver went to the hospital and received a ticket for careless driving after his vehicle—

—Went off the road and hit a fence;

—Took the fence down, and carried it a block;

—Crashed into a garage;

—Picked up a car on the way through the garage;

—Hauled the car and part of the garage into another car;

—Slammed into a house, while carrying the original car, knocking it four feet off its blocks, and knocked a man and his wife and their two children out of bed. They were not seriously injured.

A ticket for reckless driving? Ridiculous!

Money Spent In Search For Oil On Sharp Decline

New York — A new study by the Chase Manhattan Bank shows that U. S. oil companies' spending for exploration and production has declined sharply in recent years, while demand has continued to rise.

The share of total capital outlay and exploration expense devoted to finding and producing petroleum in this country dropped from 77 per cent in 1956 to 57 per cent in 1966.

Oil Facts, published by the American Petroleum Institute, notes that the bank attributes the cutback to the erosion of the incentive to take the risks involved in searching for oil and gas. Industry leaders are quoted as saying a cost-price squeeze is the principal reason for the 30 per cent drop in exploratory drilling in the past decade.

Demand for petroleum in this country is expected to increase nearly 50 per cent by 1980. Frank N. Icard, president of the Institute, says it has been conservatively estimated that U. S. oil companies will have to spend $115 billion worldwide between now and 1980, to meet the demand. The job cannot be done, Icard added, without adequate incentive.

DRIVER EDUCATION REDUCES INSURANCE RATES

Insurance records and reports of police, drivers license authorities and safety educators show that driver education graduates are involved in fewer accidents and violations than the untrained driver, points out the Association of Texas Fire and Casualty Companies. That is why insurance companies charge a lower rate for young men who successfully complete driver education courses meeting national standards.

During the past fiscal year an average 113,000 volunteers served 8.8 million hours each month in the 166 VA hospitals from coast to coast, according to the Veterans Administration Voluntary Service Director.

Tourist Promotion Committee Meets To Discuss Oil Patch Growth Plans

The Tourist Promotion Committee of the Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday, January 30, in the Texas Electric Reddy Room to discuss further plans for the continued growth of Boomtown Oil Patch.

A site was selected for the building which will become the General Store. Funds for creating a new front for it are available and the construction will begin when the weather permits unloading of lumber on the ground. The labor will be supplied by volunteers.

Tentative plans have been made for the locations of other buildings to be secured and remodeled in keeping with the theme of the project.

Proofs of postcards depicting the old boomtown days, a picture of city hall and the library, were received for selection, reported Gene Allen, manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting was conducted by Tom Nicklas, chairman, who noted that playground equipment for the Oil Patch is needed. Anyone having such equipment available, contact Nicklas or the Chamber of Commerce.

Thus Burkburnett's tourist attraction continues to grow from the hard work of many people.

LIBRARY CORNER

Variety is the spice of library life and our new nonfiction choices this week have something for everyone. If you enjoy behind-the-scenes information read The Orient Express by Michael Eversley, the story of the Paris to Istanbul train which served as the setting for many romantic novels and movies of international intrigue. Another true tale, Finders Losers is one of fabulous treasure and the horror that accompanied its recovery from the bottom of the sea.

Norman Vincent Peale's new book Enthusiasm Makes the Difference is here. In a different vein is Happiness Is A Stock That Doubles in a Year or "how to play the stock market."

New fiction includes Rumer Godden's The Kitchen Madonna, Catherine Marshall's first novel Christy and The Year of The Horsetails, a story of nomadic warriors and plunderers set in the period from Attila the Hun to Genghis Khan. L.S.

ROARKS HAVE GUESTS

House guests of the Rosy Roarks this past week are "The Ford Family," Elmer L. (Larry), Marty, children Donna, Darlene and Drew.

The Ford family lived in Burkburnett before, while Larry was station at Sheppard.

Marty was associated with one of our local beauty shops. Larry was a charter member of the Jaycees.

WOOTENS RETURN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Reavis Wooten have returned from a visit to Gulfport, Mississippi. They met their son, Norman, there on his return from a deployment in Viet Nam. Petty Officer Wooten is a heavy equipment operator in the U.S. Navy Seabees. The Wootens and Norman report an enjoyable visit with sightseeing in the surrounding area.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McDonald of 305 S. Harwell received a call Sunday morning, Jan. 21 from San Benito, Texas, in the Rio Grande Valley, informing them that Mrs. McDonald's sister, Mrs. Dorothy Pinkston, had passed away. The funeral was held Tuesday at Mont Meta Memorial Park in San Benito. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald returned home late Thursday night after attending the funeral.

Calendar of Events

"YOU TOOK MY PICTURE... AND I WASN'T READY!"

How concerned we are with the image we present to others! And it is right that we should be. How mightily we influence others. It is so important that the self we present is one that will influence others for good.

With guidance from God we will be ready to present ourselves to the world in such a manner as to sway others toward God and all that is worthwhile and good.

"That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God," come to His Church.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

RANDLETT NEWS

By MRS. MARY RHOADES

New officers of the Randlett Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, were installed at the regular meeting, January 8.

New Milk Is Extra Nutritive

The milk with a difference that is now being introduced by Fairmont Foods will give the young lady above lots of extra "go". Called "Mighty", each quart of the low fat, fortified 2% milk product provides 100% of the adult requirement of all essential vitamins and minerals, as well as a full 400% of the Vitamin C requirement. Fairmont spent more than two years of intensive research and development to perfect this new product's exclusive formula, which combines an extra creamy taste with extra nutrients.

Mighty is available in half gallons at grocery stores and supermarkets or, in some areas, through Fairmont home delivery. Usually priced the same as regular, homogenized, Vitamin D milk, Mighty makes milk a new product.

The Home As God Would Have It

Ephesians 5:22-6:4

Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is head of the church; and he is the saviour of the body. Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

Husbands love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word. That he might present it to himself a glorious church not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church; For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery; but I speak concerning Christ and the church. Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

Children obey your parents in the Lord; for this is right. Honour your father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise. That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath; but bring them up in the nurture admonition of the Lord.

News From The County Agent

January and February is a good time to topdress your small grain. The moisture conditions are good all over the country.

The agricultural situation in 1967 turned out to be one of record farm output and declining prices. Net farm income probably was reduced by about 10 per cent from the near-record of 1966 level. The net effect of larger marketings and lower prices was to reduce cash receipts from marketings only slightly. However, the uptrend in production expenses continued in 1967 and realized net income of farm operators dropped to $14.8 billion annual rate in January-September, down from $16.6 billion a year earlier.

Tax reporting time for some farmers and fishermen is just around the corner, reminds B.
T. Haws, county agent.

Farm and ranch operators and fishermen who have not filed a declaration of estimated tax during 1967 must either file an estimate by January 15 to file a final report by February 15.

Farm taxpayers electing to file a declaration of estimated tax by January 15, will have until April 15 to file a final report. Taxpayers whose income is subject to tax with-holdings, or who filed a declaration of estimated tax during the 1967 tax year also have until April 15 to file their final report.

Taxpayers who do not file on a calendar year basis have the same number of days and months from the end of their next tax year to file their reports as do taxpayers reporting on a calendar year basis, says Haws.

It is more important than ever with increasing competition to produce on a more efficient basis, says county agent
E. T. Haws. Keeping a close check on operations and making adjustments as new situations and conditions arise will result in profitable decisions and intelligent actions in the Haws says. These decisions and actions should be based on facts derived from good records and accounts, he says.

Complete and accurate accounting of income and expen-

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES
IN AGRICULTURE

Too often there are more good employment openings than qualified people to fill them.
In addition to farming and ranching, job opportunities in agribusiness include research, conservation, industry, business, and education and communication. There are more in 8 major fields of agricultur than 500 distinct occupations in 8 major fields of agriculture.
There are opportunities also for young people whose background does not include extensive farm or ranch experience.
