YOU BE THE JUDGE
BY J. M. RANKIN

FRIGHTENING TRIAL

It was gratifying indeed to hear that the jury in the case of the "Chicago Seven" found five of the defendants guilty and that Judge Hoffman assessed what, in his opinion was a penalty appropriate to the offense charged. Bail was set so he hoped, and so did millions of others, they could not make it and would be kept in prison as persons dangerous to our society and our government. At the same time reflecting on the trend of the times to give convicted criminals the benefit of doubt and coddle them along, it was hard to keep from thinking that some lawyers would come up invoking the Constitution, which some of the convicts declare they will destroy, and demanding the convicted enemies of our country released. And sure enough it happened.

A judge one step higher in our judiciary system had a different opinion and overruled the wise penalties imposed by Judge Hoffman, and now the lawbreakers are loose to go mouthing around and plotting what further they can do to undermine the authority of our government.

Reporters on the scenes of trials this year are commenting that the danger apparent that the courts will be utterly discredited, and when such time comes the collapse of our government and our country is at hand. The right of appeal should never be denied, but the release of admitted and convicted criminals to go and continue their devilian plottings for the destruction of our country can be fatal to our future.

Our American Government has been wise enough and strong enough to maintain our national existence nearly two hundred years. We hope it is still strong, but news from the nitty-gritty of the men under arms in Vietnam and rumblings and mumblings about the unwillingness to serve of the men of military age make us suspicious of the ability of our government to bring together the soldiers that might be necessary to preserve the nation. Our Courts are failing more flagrantly.

It is frightening to read of other jurists who criticize the opinions of Judge Hoffman and lawyers who would like to get into the squabble in order to share the enormous publicity given to the defense. There would be plenty willing to defend the convicted men for free if no funds were available to pay the fees required. But there are plenty of blind and stupid to join with those who hate our government, ready to raise huge sums of money to pay for the defense of those who make no denial of their guilt.

Another commentator who has, I believe, lost all his marbles, suggests that the ghastly mess of the trial of the Chicago Seven may mark the collapse of our judicial system. And can you imagine how many months and years the matter can be dragged on by appeals and appeals on this or that motion of the defense.

If a court is too weak to maintain order, or to punish those who try to break up the court, then indeed we are in deep and muddy water, and total chaos and anarchy looms nearby.

In modern France near the end of the nineteenth century, there was revolution and anarchy until Napoleon Bonaparte came along with his "Whiff of grapeshot," and put a stop to street rioting. He set up a strong government and then led France into wars from which the land did not recover for half a century. In 1917, the weak tyranny of the Czar brought on the Revolution in Russia. A strong government finally evolved out of bloody slaughtering. It was a strong government but despotic. There was rioting in Germany in 1939 until a strong man came into the picture. Hitler stopped the rioting and the anarchy. He saved them from the Communists we are told, but his government was despotic and tyrannical. If chaos and anarchy prevail, and our government is not wise enough and strong enough to protect itself, then indeed the USSR may have won as its masters have boasted they would--without firing a shot. Now I'm getting scared.

TEXAS CONSUMER PROTECTION came into the spotlight recently when Governor Preston Smith signed a proclamation for Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, (left), declaring March 1-7 as Texas Weights & Measures Week. Under Commissioner White, the Texas Department of Agriculture inspects all commercial scales and measuring devices to make certain that consumers receive "a dollar's worth of goods for a dollar spent". Attending the ceremony was R. T. Williams (right), director of the TDA Consumer Service and Protection Division.

Attend The Church of Your Choice

One of the earliest emotions a child experiences is fear. And from the first loud noise that awakens him until the moment of his death he knows no day without the recurrence of some foreboding danger.

From the beginning of time religion has been our tested antidote to the poison of fear. In the dark forests of antiquity, on the boiling seas of exploration, in the fox-holes of modern strife, men have calmed the body's trembling with the soul's faith. We have faced the unknown, the hostile, through trust in the Known, the Faithful; we have challenged the insurmountable, confident in the power of the Almighty.

How essential, though, that each generation passes on our Faith to the next! Who dares deprive a child of the chance to conquer fear? Who would rob his son's soul of the Christian heritage martyrs died to preserve?

Bring your children to God's House every Sunday.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Wedding Plans Are Told

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Neskorkik of Route One, Girard, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Linda Carol, to Billy M. Dawson, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Fred P. Dawson of Roaring Springs. A June wedding is planned.

Miss Neskorkik is presently teaching art at Duncan Elementary School in Floydada.

She is a graduate of the Girard High School and a 1969 graduate of McMurry College in Abilene.

There she was a member of gamma Sigma Social Club.

Dawson is a 1966 graduate of Roaring Springs High School. He was recently discharged from active duty with the U. S. Army after serving in Korea. He is currently enrolled in the Department of Public Safety Academy in Austin.

pantry patter

By Pat Nilson, CHDA

Hippocrates (460-370 B.C.) The Father of Medicine, recognized the importance of certain foods to good eyesight. He recommended eating liver, a food high in Vitamin A, for the curing of night blindness. Vitamin A is needed for growth, normal vision, protection against night blindness, healthy skin and to help resist infection. Possible results of lack of Vitamin A include rough, dry, scaly skin; dull, lusterless hair; easily blinded by quick change of light; lowered resistance to respiratory infection; and slowed growth.

During World War I when Denmark had little whole milk, butter and meat, the death rate from TB was high. With the return of peace and better supplies of those foods high in Vitamin A, the death rate from TB declined sharply. Cases of Xerophthalmia, an eye disease that causes the eyeball to dry out and swollen, congested lids, and encourages growth of bacteria were also seen in many Danish children. They had a poor diet chiefly skim milk and cooked cereals. Eventually the cornea was completely destroyed. The addition of whole milk and butter and cod liver oil, good sources of Vitamin A resulted in disappearance of all these symptoms, unless destruction of cornea had gone too far.

Night blindness is the inability to see clearly in a dim light after being in a bright one. It is one of the earliest signs of a Vitamin A deficiency. Slaves in Brazil in 1883 were unable to see when returning from work after sunset, but could see fine when going to work before sunrise in the morning because of low Vitamin A.

The retina of the eye is rich in Vitamin A. If there is insufficient Vitamin A, the retina cannot quickly adapt to changes from light to dark. Vitamin A was first discovered in animal fats--butter, egg yolk, and cod liver oil and other fish oils. Other animal sources are whole milk and liver. Vegetables and fruit with high Vitamin A value are dark green, leafy vegetables as turnip greens, mustard greens and spinach; deep yellow vegetables as carrots, pumpkin, sweet potatoes, win-tersquash and yellow fruits as peaches, apricots and cantaloupes.

Today's recipe features Vitamin A. Be sure and send your recipes in to Pat Nilson, CHDA, Jayton, Texas. MOCK CHEESE CAKE

- 1 1/4 cups graham cracker crumbs
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1/4 cup melted butter or margarine
- 1 can (16 1/2 oz.) canned lemon creamy-type frosting
- 1 cup creamed cottage cheese (small curd)
- 1 cup sour cream

Combine crumbs, sugar and margarine. Reserve 2 tbs. for topping. Press into 9 x 9 x 2 inch pan. Bake in moderate oven 350 degrees for 10 minutes. Cool. Combine frosting mix, cottage cheese and sour cream in small bowl. Beat with mixer at high speed for one minute. Pour into crumb lined pan. Sprinkle with reserved crumbs. Freeze overnight. Garnish with fruit.

FASHIONS TO FIT YOUR WAY OF LIFE

Girls will be girls... and the new fashions are a fitting reminder of that pleasant fact. Cling is the thing—in slithery print dresses, lanky lowdown sweater jackets, slip little shirt and skirt combinations. Knits make the most of this flattery: knits that are delightful to wear and surprisingly easy to sew.

This McCall's coat and dress ensemble is created to win flowery compliments. The skinny sleeveless coat plays it straight over a billowy-sleeved shift that comes with its own dramatic scarf.

Think pink for extra fashion impact: a hot pink double-knit fabric for the coat, a garden of pink fantasy blooms for the jersey dress. McCall's Step-by-Step Pattern #2238, designed to make sewing easier, is for misses sizes 10-18.

Long, long jackets and short skirts are a very suitable combination for spring, as Misses Pattern #2276 reveals. A collarless sweater jacket, molded over a little slink of an A-line dress, pretty well sums up the shape of things to come this year.

The costume is especially prophetic—and pretty—in tones of pink. Choose a shocking-pink crepe for the dress, and add the excitement of print, in the form of a geometric-patterned knit for the jacket.

Want a little suit that isn't a cliché? Make the same jacket in solid pink cotton or synthetic knit, add a matching A-skirt, and coordinated polka-dot blouse with flyaway scarf. Pure pizzazz! This pattern offers still another exciting way to suit yourself: a coat and skirt combination with princess flare.

Depending on your choice of fabrics, these designs could be worn almost anywhere: Easter Parade, PTA meeting or even cocktail party. But why shouldn't they be as practical as they are pretty?

After all, it's only fitting!

Spotlight on HEALTH

Bathing baby can help to keep his skin infection free--when the cleanser contains an effective antibacterial agent.

Controlling skin infections, particularly "staph" infections, is a constant problem in hospital nurseries. A recom-mote coordination of the arms and legs and "those coordinated movements that require a child to think through the performance patterns before execution" appear most valuable.

Ask Amy

BY AMY ADAMS

WHAT'S YOUR SOLUTION

Amy: I will be everlastingly grateful if you will be most appreciative if you or any of your readers can tell me how to get the price tags off plastic cartons, glass boxes, clothes, etc., etc.

I have tried about everything. I can get the paper part off but the sticky, gummy stuff. I have tried an eraser, salt, vinegar, baking soda, detergents, oil, cubes, etc., but to no avail. Some keepers say they don't come either.

There must be some way to get it off... but how? I sincerely hope you have the solution.

Mrs. M.

Let me say I am not jealous. I give to them myself but I have a family of my own to support. I want to know if there is a law that will make this man support his family? Also, can it be determined if he is mentally and physically able to work, because everytime someone finds an opening for him, he conveniently has a headache, sore arm, or a cold. He says he will go see about it tomorrow, but tomorrow never comes.

What can be done to get him to support his wife and children so they won't suffer for the want of food and clothes?

Contributor

Dear Contributor: There are laws to deal with men who refuse to support their families. But it's up to their families to exercise the law. If they haven't done anything about the situation up to now, they must be satisfied with things as they are. And people who offer their unsolicited advice are usually told to mind their own business.

Dear Amy:

My fiance and I became engaged when he entered his freshman year at college. We had planned to marry after his graduation. But now after being engaged for so long, we want to be married as soon as possible.

If we do get married and he stays out a semester a year, he will be drafted into the army, and if this happens, he says he will refuse to marry until he gets out because he would have to leave his wife behind.

If he stays in college, he can't hold down a full-time job, since I'm still in school, I couldn't either.

I am 17 and he will soon be 21. Please, Amy, what should we do? The years ahead seem so very long knowing we might not be together.

MOD MOMS HAVE MEETING

A very interesting and enjoyable demonstration on the making of burlap, feather and chenille flowers was given by Mrs. Royce Stalaland and Mrs. Zany Chisum. After which, the time was spent in visiting and enjoying refreshments provided by Mrs. Edd Hilton and Mrs. Don Trammel.

In the coming months, Mod Moms will present varied programs including bread making, decoupage, a fashion tour to Lane-Felkers in Haskell, and hair styling plus many others.

Anyone interested in joining the club or just sitting in on any demonstration, is asked to call Pat Nilson CHDA, for information as to time and meeting place.

Crochet Class Is Planned

Mrs. Les Mathews will teach crochet classes in Jayton every Tuesday and Thursday evening beginning March 10th. The free classes, sponsored by the Extension Service will begin at 7:30 p. m. in the Extension office in Jayton. Anyone interested in learning to crochet or in receiving extra help is invited to come.

The first article to be made will be a crocheted long vest. Needed for this will be 3 skeins of 4 ply knitting worsted wool (4 oz.) and a size J crochet hook. Or, you may make something else if you wish.

Girard Potshots

Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Hart from Hereford visited the Hugh Turners Sunday, the 22nd.

Funeral services were held in Spur last Wednesday for Pete Hager, who was killed when a horse dragged him to his death on the Beggs Ranch last Monday, Feb. 23rd. Pete was a graduate of Girard High School and for several years has been employed on the Beggs Ranch. He is survived by his wife and three children and his parents, who reside in this community. The citizens of this community extend deepest sympathy.

The George Dardens visited with kinsmen and attended to business in Rotan last Tuesday.

While in Rotan last Tuesday, met up with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Evers in a store in downtown Rotan. Evers is a former high school principal in Girard school and now teaching in the Roby schools. He has had the 'flu and was in Rotan to see his doctor.

Dink Hunnicut of Midland and the son of the Tom Hunnicuts of this community is in New York City for three months. He is employed by a telephone company. Dink writes his parents that he has been in New York for two weeks now and has spent a big part of that time looking for a Baptist Church to attend. Maybe he has found one by now.

Carlos Dickerson and A. B. Simpson made a trip to Junction last week and A. B. said that you can't make that trip in a couple of hours.

M. H. Galbreath, school superintendent for many years at Girard attended funeral services last Wednesday in Spur for Pete Hager, a former pupil. The Galbreaths now live in Anson.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brooks and Mrs. T. A. Bailey visited Mrs. Bailey's nephew in a Big Spring Hospital on Wednesday of last week.

Girard received a half-inch of rain on Sunday and Monday of last week. We are in need of a "gulley washer".

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Hodges spent Thursday and Friday of last week in Abilene with son, Ernie Jo and family. A grand daughter of the Hodges underwent minor surgery on Friday in an Abilene hospital, but now doing fine.

Mrs. Hugh Turner will be spending all this week in Lubbock with daughter and grandchildren.

Moody Galbreath down Anson way says: the first thing he turns to when the Chronicle arrives at his house is the Girard Pot-Shots. In addition to the local news he says he gets a kick out of the "quips and digs" that often appear in the column. "Thanks, Moody".

The local "Quilting Bee" at the community center is still running in high gear. We are informed as of this date that the ladies have quilted nine quilts and have two more up and in the making.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Thompson were in Abilene on business last Thursday.

Clifford Scott was making the rounds last week in behalf of his candidacy for Commissioner.

H. H. Hamilton has a big school bus and expects to make a deal with the five candidates for Commissioner of Precinct 2. to bus 'em over the Precinct for a nominal fee that will include a hot-string band. Ham says the candidates could save money by all-traveling together, and to, provide entertainment for the voters.

Mrs. Pete Sherer calls to get her address changed for the local newspapers. In case you are interested, the Sherers' address now is: c/o Spuckeys No. 132, Box 2., La Marque, Texas.

Joy Rich was getting flower and garden seed together last Friday and planned to do a lot of gardening, that is---if she gets Fletcher in the notion.

Since all folks are in Clairemont this Saturday morning--attending the Kent County Livestock Show, guess I had better get the cows milked, the hogs slopped and be off to the former Capital.

Monday morning after the stock show: Folks, it was a real good show, and a real good sale of the kids livestock. Thanks to the many buyers from out of the county, who purchased the cattle, sheep and hogs. Also to home buyers.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Kilpatrick and children from Lamesa visited his parents, the Virgil Kilpatricks last Sunday.

Funeral arrangements are pending in Wilson, Oklahoma for Mrs. Erman Bural, who died last Sunday, March 31st. Burial will be in the Girard Cemetery. Mrs. Bural is a sister of Mrs. George Willis of this community.

A. B. Ellison Succumbs

ASPERMONT (RNS) -- Allen Brooks Ellison, 71, former Stonewall County Sheriff and retired farmer, died at 5:20 p.m. Sunday in Hamlin Memorial Hospital following an apparent heart attack.

Funeral will be at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday at the First Baptist Church here with the Rev. Clyde Cook and the Rev. James Woods, pastor of the Central Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Aspermont Cemetery under the direction of Littlepage Funeral Home.

Mr. Ellison was born May 4, 1898, in Comanche County and married the former Clara Martin Jan. 3, 1919. She died in 1934. He then married Mattie Metcalf on July 22, 1935, in Anson.

A resident of the county since 1907, he was elected sheriff in 1936 and served until 1941. He was a member of the First

The new Maverick Grabber is at your Ford Dealer's now.

Here's what you get:
• 200-cubic-inch Six engine • Bodyside tape stripes, black-painted hood and grille • Whitewalls, 14" wheels and wire rings • Deck lid spoiler, dual racing mirrors • 3-spoke wood-tone steering wheel, black all-vinyl seat trim • Choice of five hot Grabber colors

Plus all this:
• No big price tag • No high insurance rates • No hard-to-tune engine • No hard, stiff ride • No high maintenance costs

For more information about Maverick, see your Ford Dealer or write: Maverick Catalog, Dept. H-20, P.O. Box 1500, Dearborn, Michigan 48121.
