

Rolling Plains Relays To Be Run Here Saturday

As It Looks From Here

By Rep. Omar Burleson
Member of Congress, Texas

WASHINGTON, D. C.—THE SECOND OF THE FIGHT TO CONTINUE THE INTERSTATE Highway Program awaiting the bell which is about to ring. In fact, it is already raining but the match is still in its short jobs stage. A knock-down-and-drag-out fight in prospect.

IN THE CLOSING DAYS OF THE LAST CONGRESS, legislation to extend the Highway Program for the next three years hopelessly bogged down over the issue of diverting monies from the Trust Fund to aid cities in their transportation projects.

IN THE WEEKS AHEAD WILL BECOME ONE OF THE MAJOR BATTLES OF 1973. There is little doubt that a bill will be passed. It is a matter of whether the Trust Fund, which is used by gasoline and excise taxes, will be diverted for purposes other than that for which the tax was imposed. The Fund is an important target for the simple reason that it has the money. It is not necessary for the Congress to appropriate to the Fund but only to authorize an extension of the Highway Program and set the rate of tax on the items which support it. States themselves are not in a bind since they were not Gary Hogan past legislation.

THERE IS NO QUESTION OF OUR MAJOR CITIES ARE IN TROUBLE with transit systems. Public transit systems all over the Nation are mired in debt and for the most part are hopelessly inadequate, intensified over concerns over air pollution, traffic congestion, and a host of other worries.

STRONG FORCES, INCLUDING RECOMMENDATION BY THE PRESIDENT to divert over $1 billion to urban funds are at work. In recent weeks they have gained support in both the United States Senate and in the Public Works Committee of the House of Representatives. Strong opposition, however, is in the house.

THE COURT HAS A BUSY DAY

In the regular Second Monday meeting of the Kent County Commissioners Court today, the group attended to a number of important matters. The minutes were the following:

A motion was made by W. H. Parks and seconded by Donnie Carriker to approve a trap lease on the East County School Land located in Dawson County with the Texas-New Mexico

4-H CLUB MEETING HERE MARCH 19

COTTON MEETING PLANNED

A meeting to discuss cotton production insect control, and the 1973, disease, boll weevil control program will be held on Friday night, March 16, in the East County Community Center in Jayton, at 7:30 p. m. You are urged to attend this educational meeting.

A team of specialists from the Agricultural Extension Service and from the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers Association will present the program.

NUMEROUS PROPOSALS ARE BEING ADVANCED as a compromise between those who support the proposition that the cities share in the Highway Trust Fund and those who believe that to do so violates the purposes for which taxes were levied and collected. ANY DIVERSION OF ANY AMOUNT OF FUNDS IS A FOOT IN THE DOOR for the future, not only to build streets, roads, railroads, subways, in cities, but also to permit operating only to build streets, roads, railways, subways, in cities, but also to permit subsidies. At least the Administration opposes the use of funds for this latter purpose.

THE GOAL FOR THE COMPLETION OF OUR INTERSTATE HIGHWAY SYSTEMS will likely be extended to 1980. This of course won't be the end of financing Federal highways. It is estimated that as much as $30 billion will be needed just to maintain and improve interstate roads already built. By 1980 huge sums will be required to improve safety and make repairs. Though it is reasonable to believe that unless additional mileage is authorized between now and 1980, as much money will not be needed which could mean one of two things. Either the tax on fuels and excise taxes to build highways could be reduced or new legislation be enacted to create a transit trust fund to help public transportation in populous areas. Of course, a separate trust fund could be established now, but that is not likely. It would require additional gasoline and excise taxes which no one wants. As a matter of fact mass transit is already assisted by funds from general revenues and these could be increased as an alternative to tapping the Highway Trust Fund for this purpose. This could be an area on which a compromise may be based.

WHATEVER MAY BE DONE, THE INTEGRITY OF THE Highway Trust Fund should be maintained.

Pipe Line Company, vote was unanimous.

A motion was made by W. H. Parks and seconded by Donnie Carriker to pay all bills presented before the Court. Vote was unanimous.

A motion was made by Sarah Byrd and seconded by Donnie Carriker to approve the County Depository Pledge Contract with the Kent County State Bank. Vote was unanimous.

A meeting of all 4-H Club parents interested in the Kent County Livestock Show and the 4-H livestock project program will be held Monday night March 19th in the Kent County Community Center in Jayton, at 7:45 p. m. All 4-H Club parents and other leaders are invited to attend. Discussions for improvement of the 4-H club program will be held. Tour offices for 1973-74 Livestock Committee will be elected. Colored slide pictures of the 1973 Stock Show will be shown.

Saturday is the big day that a lot of school boys in the area have been looking forward to, the Rolling Plains Relays.

To get underway at 9 Saturday morning, the participants are going to have some pretty good records to shoot at, and the new medals to be given to winners are very beautiful.

Coach Bruce Land said Monday there are already 20 Class B teams entered with prospects of a number of others. Eleven Class A teams have entered, the possibility of more coming in before the deadline.

He says some of these teams have some real good talent, and the prospects are for one of the best days in the history of the event. He said "We want to take this opportunity to extend a very special invitation to all the people of Jayton to come out and enjoy a very fine track meet, plus giving the boys on the track team your support."

MOD MOMS TOUR REHAB CENTER

Thursday, March 8, the Mod Moms toured the West Texas Rehabilitation Center in Abilene. The tour was followed by a luncheon at the new Westwood Inn and a film presented by James Hallmark.

Other club members from the surrounding area were also there. The purpose of the luncheon was to initiate the Easter Seals Campaign in the Abilene area. Shelly Smith, director of the Rehab Center, was Master of Ceremonies for the occasion. Also in attendance was the head of the Easter Seals Campaign for the Abilene area.

The Rehabilitation Center gets every penny donated to the Easter Seals campaign in nine county area. However, Kent County is not one of the nine counties. Money can be collected in Kent county for the Easter Seals and sent to the Abilene area in order for Rehab Center to benefit from the collections in this area. Because so many people in Kent County benefit from the services of the Rehab Center, several people have expressed the opinion that Easter Seals money from Kent County should be sent to Abilene.

Beryle Murdoch is head of the Kent County Easter Seals, and he will help collect money to be sent to Abilene. Mr. Pierce has offered his services in collecting from the school for the same purpose.

There are other ways that the Rehab center obtains its funds. One is the Memorial donations sent in lieu of flowers for a deceased friend or relative. Another is the L. B. J. Memorial Fund. Donors to this fund will have their names written on parchment paper, to be added to an L. B. J. Memorial Fund book, and the book will be placed in the L. B. J. Library in Austin.

GIRARD HD CLUB HOLDS MEETING

The Girard H. D. Club met at the Community Center, Mar. 7. Mrs. Turner presided for the meeting in the absence of Mrs. Jim Wyatt. Several statements were read and discussed on the subjects of poisonous plants, especially mentioning house and yard plants. Roll call was answered with miscellaneous ideas. Mrs. Turner reported on the Favorite Food Show. We are to bring program plans for the year books by June 1st. Mrs. Roy Nance gave a report on the trip to the Lubbock Museum, 14 members of the Jayton and Girard Club went on the trip. Due to rainy weather they did not see all the Museum. Plans for another trip will be made later. Mrs. Bobby Stanaland gave the program "nutrition in the food we eat." She has been teaching nutrition in foods, through the year. This program was a high light of the last programs. If you can group the four nutrition groups, meat, milk, vegetables, and fruits correctly, you may substitute one food for another and get the correct food values you need to maintain a health standard. This requires a close study of food value. The Club members have appreciated this study of food values. A film was shown on how a balanced meal should be planned 9 members and 2 visitors were present. Mrs. T. C. Sandlin was hostess for the meeting. The next meeting will be March 21st. Mrs. Simpson will be hostess come, meet with the Club.

1973 Baseball Season Predictions

BY HENRY D. TAYLOR, Jr.

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE-- Right now it looks like the Cincinnati Reds will repeat and again be the National League champions of the Western Division.

The Reds have speed on the bases, plus a good defense, and air-tight pitching.

The Houston Astros lack good relief pitching, and will probably finish second in the division.

The Los Angeles Dodgers will probably be in third place.

The Atlanta Braves have plenty of power hitting, but are insufficient in defense, and pitching. Atlanta will finish fourth in the division.

San Francisco is still rebuilding, and will hold down the fifth place slot.

The San Diego Padres look no better than last in the division.

This looks like the year for the New York Mets in the N. L. East division.

Pittsburg lost their super-star Roberto Clemente and will probably finish second in the division.

The St. Louis Cardinals will have to wait one or two more years. They are good enough for a third place finish.

The Chicago Cubs can not come up with the key players. They will probably finish fourth. Philadelphia has the winningest pitcher in baseball in the name of Steve Carlton, but nothing else; so they will finish in fifth place.

The Montreal Expos simply cannot get out of sixth place.

Johnny Bench and company of the Reds will beat the Mets in the National League Playoffs.

THE AMERICAN LEAGUE

The Oakland A's seem to have everything and will repeat as A. L. Western Division Champions.

The Chicago White Sox look good enough to take second place.

The Minnesota Twins have power hitting, but don't have the pitching and defense and will probably finish in third place.

The California Angels will finish in fourth place.

The Kansas City Royals will finish in the fifth place slot.

The Texas Rangers have some young ball players that have not developed, so they will finish in sixth place.

The Baltimore Orioles will bounce back this year and will win the A. L. Eastern Division.

Norm Cash and the Detroit Tigers will finish in second place.

The New York Yankees will hold down the third place slot.

The Cleveland Indians appear to be good enough for the fourth place slot.

The Boston Red Sox will finish in the fifth place position.

The Milwaukee Brewers will finish no better than sixth.

The Oakland A's will beat the Baltimore Orioles in the American League playoffs.

The Cincinnati Reds will beat the Oakland A's in the World Series.

-- This is the way I have them sized up. You watch the results, and at the end of the season, see how I have made out.

SOME FUN!

"THEY ALWAYS HOLD HANDS IN PUBLIC TO AVOID SOCKIN' EACH OTHER"

Asian War News

One reason it's gratifying to see the U.S. combat role in Indochina reduced is because it has been almost impossible to know what was going on there for years.

Pronouncements from the Saigon regime have long been suspect and often false. Even Washington's tone was often off the mark and some claims of years ago have proven false. As to the fighting, it has often been hard to know whether any really determined, hard fighting was going on, as reported, or whether one side (often the non-Communists) simply laid down their arms and fled.

Too often the American people were fed a propaganda line by Asians to prepare them for a certain event, or to justify policy change. Reporting was, unfortunately, not always reliable.

As a result, more than once the American people and government made decisions based on inaccurate information. That, added to the many other unfortunate aspects of the killing, rightly made millions of Americans eager to get done with it.

3-Year Degrees

Though some colleges and universities offer students degrees in three years, most remain committed to four-year programs--as if all students required that much time to earn degrees.

Because of the growing cost of a college education, such an unrealistic system is a luxury many cannot afford. It has been estimated that as many as twenty per cent of the students at higher education institutions are capable of earning a degree in three years. Not all wish to do this but those who do should have that opportunity, which not only lowers their cost but also helps ease the current classroom shortage.

More colleges, also, should open their doors to students who haven't graduated from high school, if they qualify in tests for entry. The traditional four-year requirement for a degree and a high school diploma for college entry are broad, rigid rules which cannot logically or equitably be applied to everyone.

Get Back At Him

Mrs. Gray--And did you enjoy your camping trip, my dear?

Mrs. Young--Immensely. It was the first chance I had to complain of my husband's cooking.

The Bare Facts

A young woman took a job as a governess, then suddenly left it. Asked why she resigned, she said: "Had to. Backward child, forward father."

Accident

"Poor old Bill. He got fired for taking out his employer's car without permission."

"But how did his boss find out?"
"Bill ran over him."

The Modern Way

He--It will be real simple for us to get married, darling. My father is a minister. She--Okey, let's give it a whirl. Mine's an attorney.

Rivals

Old Lady (in New York)--Isn't it wonderful how a single policeman can dam the flow of traffic?
Boy--Yes, grannie, but you should hear the bus drivers.

Worthwhile

"What do you take for your insomnia?"

"A glass of wine at regular intervals."

"Does that make you sleep?"

"No, but it makes me satisfied to stay awake."

ON FARM PRODUCTS

The Agriculture Department has reported that prices of raw farm products went up 3 per cent in February, for cattle and hogs. Farm prices of meat animals as a group rose 9 per cent in February and averaged 27 per cent more than a year ago.

ON HANOI AID

President Nixon has promised that postwar aid to North Vietnam, if approved by Congress, would be financed from existing defense and foreign aid funds, not from further slashes in "the domestic side of the budget."

PLANES APPROVED

The Air Force has announced it has received approval for the first 30 production models of its new F15 air superiority jet fighter.

What actually happens on March 20th--the day that spring arrives?

The sun shines exactly half of the 24-hour day and the other half is night. Generally speaking, on that day the earth's axis is perpendicular to the plane of the earth's orbit.

The tilt of the earth moving from one area to another is caught when the earth's axis stands perpendicular to the plane of its orbit around the sun--and if the earth did not lean, or tilt, then there would be no seasons. Night and day would be of equal length and our weather would be affected.

Winters would not be as cold and summers not as hot, if indeed there was much of what we know as seasonal weather at all.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Notice is hereby given by the Parks and Wildlife Department that a public hearing will be held at 2 p. m. on March 26, 1973, at the County Court house at Jayton for the purpose of gathering information concerning proposed hunting, fishing, and trapping regulations for Kent County.

As a result of action by the Texas legislature, the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission is responsible for the setting of seasons, bag limits, and means and methods of taking the wildlife resources in Kent County. All interested persons are urged to attend and comment upon the proposed regulations.

Freedom with an If

"I will suspend your jail sentence and let you go free on one condition," said the judge to a teenager found guilty of malicious mischief. "You will have to go to church every Sunday for a year."

But on appeal to a higher court, the go-to-church requirement was thrown out. The court said forcing anyone to attend services was a violation of the religious freedom guaranteed by the federal Constitution.

Probation--that is, letting a prisoner go free "on condition"--is a common method of dealing with lesser lawbreakers. Judges do have a right to put reasonable limits on the person's activities, such as not leaving the county without the permission of his probation officer.

But, as the above case shows, the judge cannot use probation to take away basic constitutional rights. In another case, a requirement that the probationer would have to donate a pint of blood to the Red Cross was also held unconstitutional as a "cruel and unusual" penalty.

Nevertheless, special restrictions may make sense in the context of a particular situation. Another case involved a woman who had twice been convicted of unlawful conduct during anti-war demonstrations.

The judge granted probation on condition that she not take an activist part in any more such demonstrations. And this restriction was duly upheld on appeal.

"The conduct it forbids," said the appellate court, "even if lawful in itself, is conducive to future criminal activity of the same kind of which (she) was convicted."

The court added: "The granting of probation is within the sound discretion of the trial court. A defendant has the right, if he feels that the terms of probation are more harsh than the sentence, to refuse probation and undergo such sentence."

TIME and TIDE

Curious, isn't it, how people look at life so differently? To some there is an irresistible desire to cope with the tides of life by escaping from dullness to new lands and faces. To others the answer seems to lie in the foaming breakers, with the sinister desire to end existence completely. And yet to others the waves of life speak of plan and order and a sureness and perfection in creation.

And so it is with time! One person begrudges every second as a relentless march toward the end of life. Another sees the sands of time as a slow and painful journey. And to still another, it is the golden passing of each day ordered and well-planned.

What shapes these different viewpoints? The Christian sees, in the certainty of seconds and the regularity of tides, a revelation of the order and beauty that God perfects in His works.

Every man needs God and His Church to give his life its noblest point of view.

LOUISA'S LETTER

To C. B. in Woodward, Okla.

I've had five letters from widows who would like to get in touch with you but I am very sorry that I cannot send their names or letters to you as I am not allowed to do this.

The reason for this is that there are so many greedy irresponsible people who will take advantage of lonely, elderly citizens that we cannot run the risk of being go-betweens for men and women.

Louisa.

One reader from Ohio has written me a most confusing letter about men and women opening doors. I have no recollection of having written an article claiming that men have better coordination than women and are able to do such a task better than the opposite sex.

As a matter of fact, opening a door is usually a very simple task unless the door is locked and one hasn't the key.

However, I am still old fashioned enough to appreciate a man, who is with me, opening a door for me. This is merely a courteous gesture and a mark of good manners on the gentleman's part. It certainly does not mean that his companion is too weak to turn a door knob or pull open the door.

I think this reader must have me confused with some other writer.

Louisa.

INTERESTING TRIP

To the editor of the Jayton Chronicle:
I see by an old writeup that the junior class trip to Cratorville, Okla. in 1947, written by R. A. Moreland, Jr. that they had a big time. The junior class left Thursday, May 1, at 8 for Craterville, Okla. where they stayed until Sunday, May 4th. The first day we stopped at Seymour and went to the park there and ate lunch, then we started on. As no one knew where Craterville was, we really did not know where we were going. Finally, outside Cache, Okla. we came to a sign that said "Monkey Zoo." Mr. Hinds started to turn off and every one laughed at him. So we drove on for about 30 miles, and then we decided we were on the wrong road. We went back to the sign, and sure enough there was Craterville. Everyone was glad to see the place. So we could get some rest, but did not. We had to cook our supper, outside and serve it on some long tables, the way we ate, the room mothers thought they could never fill us up.

Thursday morning some of the boys went to Medicine Park, and the rest of the boys and girls climbed the big mountain near Cache. On Thursday night some of the boys were surprised to find their beds filled with salt water rocks.

Friday morning everyone went up Mt. Scott which is a very tall mountain. Then we went to Medicine Park. Some of us went boat riding.

Friday night we went swimming, and others went skating, motor car riding, or ferris wheel riding, while others looked at the monkeys. Saturday morning we went back to Mt. Scott and then on to Medicine Park. Some went to the skating rink and swimming pool. While there, on our way back to Craterville, we saw Buffalo, longhorn cattle, and also the place where they have the Easter pageant, which is a very beautiful place.

Then came the dreaded day to go again back home. We packed our suitcases and started on the way back to Jayton. We stopped at Lawton and attended the Central Baptist Church service we ate lunch, and at one o'clock we were on the road for Jayton.

With only a little car trouble, we arrived in Jayton at about midnight.

Those going on the trip were Marie Smith, Joyce Brantner, Norma Turner, Bert Sartain, Finney P. Derden, Melvin Florence, Reuben Capps, Delton Fisher, Ray Culver, R. A. Moreland Jr. Glendell Englewood, E. W. Cade, Mr. Hinds, Mrs. Fisher, and Mrs. Brantner.

Everyone enjoyed the trip very much, and already are looking forward to our trip next year as seniors.

E. W. Cade is the only class member living in Kent County now, 1973.

HOW TO GROW EARLIER TOMATOES

For early tomatoes it's important to start with early-maturing varieties like these big early hybrids which mature in just 60 days from setting out plants.

For early tomatoes it's important to start with early-maturing varieties like these big early hybrids which mature in just 60 days from setting out plants.

Choosing the right varieties is important, since tomatoes are generally classified as early, midseason or late. When buying seed, read the color packet or the catalog description to see how many days are required to reach maturity. An early variety will average 60 days from setting out foot-high plants -- and that means starting the seed indoors another 45 days ahead of transplanting to get the required size plants -- preferably with flowers already blooming.

Of course, tomatoes are very sensitive to frost, and they should not be put into the garden until danger of frost is over, but if you're tempted to risk an earlier start, peach baskets will afford some protection from cold nights.

Hybrids will also give you a better chance of reaching that early-ripening date, since they have stronger vigor and greater productivity.

Another booster is to use black plastic as mulch. It keeps the soil warm, maintains an even soil temperature. It also conserves water and keeps down weeds. Once you've tried black plastic you'll never raise tomatoes without it.

A fertile soil is another must, and a general-purpose fertilizer should be applied at least twice during the growing season -- when the plants are first set outside; and when the fruit has started to form.

Disease-resistant tomatoes are also more likely to produce early results, and these are identified by the initials, VF, meaning Verticillium and Fusarium Wilt resistant, the most common tomato diseases.

Follow these guidelines, and there's a good chance you will be the first on your block to pick ripe fruit.

WOMEN & HEART ATTACK
DALLAS -- Dr. Donald M. Spain, Brookdale Hospital Medical Center in Brooklyn, N.Y., says an increasing number of young women, who are heavy smokers, are dying from heart attacks.

An adult, without self-control, illustrates the differences between ages when measured by maturity instead of years.
