MAY SET AS 'BEEF MONTH"

May has been declared Beef Month... a month to buy beef and boost the economy of the Panhandle-South Plains area. Everyone in this part of Texas depends to a certain extent on the beef industry, whether he be a laborer, businessman, farmer or rancher.

TEXAS COWBELLES STATE MEETING

The first statewide meeting of Texas CowBelles was held Wednesday at the Lubbock Country Club. Approximately 250 members were in attendance. The largest group was represented by the Caprock CowBelles from the Lubbock vicinity.

Miss Bonita Bonsack from 6 the National Livestock & Meat Board in Chicago was the featured speaker after a morning of business and a tasty meal of beef tips.

CowBelles is an organization dedicated to the promotion of the beef industry. Membership is open to any women interested in this purpose.

BEEFMOBILE TO BE HERE SOON

A Beefmobile sponsored by the Texas CowBelles and Radio KGNC will be visiting our town soon. LOOK FOR IT!

Rightly proud of their position, the proprietors of such brand must also be deeply aware of the responsibility.

Every unit of their classic product must be the essence of perfection in all, and every detail. It must stand comparison to the utmost if necessary, and yet by itself should be so completely proficient that the suggestion of making any comparison is never broached.

The modern Beef industry strives to make sure they give only the best. It is a many-faceted operation that plays a major part in the nation's economy. Aside from the production of large quantities of food it provides jobs for millions, starting with the farmer all the way to the retailer. Everyone involved is working to improve even more the production and quality of better beef and cattle.

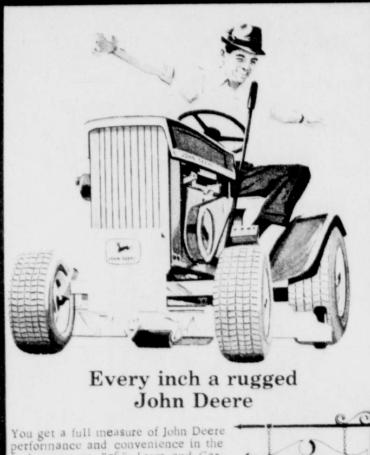

Beef has long been a symbol of good eating. Today, when the American consumer buys a steak, he gets more quality and more meat for his money than ever before. How is this possible? For one thing, scientific methods of breeding and feeding produce carcasses yielding a higher percentage of quality lean. Modern refrigeration and feeding programs have a hand in
