

Heard Electro Chemical Sprayer Vital To Agriculture Industry

The HEC Sprayer may be a first for the agriculture industry as it was the first sprayer to be developed that can accurately detect weeds with an electronic eye and effectively spray them on contact.

The sprayers developed prior to the HEC weed sprayer could not effectively perform. The electronic eye in these sprayers did not achieve the degree of efficiency most farmers were seeking.

An electronic eye, which could detect and effectively kill weeds on contact, was not developed until local farmer Perry Heard stepped in. Heard has been experimenting with electronic spraying devices since 1981, and in August 1982, the first Heard Electro Chemical (HEC) Sprayer was Developed by Heard and two associates, Charles Wilson and Jerry Madden.

Heard Tried Everything

It all started in 1981, when Heard tried everything available on the market to kill weeds in his fields. He could not find anything that could efficiently control weeds.

Heard tried using a recirculating sprayer, a spray buggy, an easy hoe, a rope wick, as well as other equipment to try to put an end to his weed problems, but all of these sprayers had their shortcomings.

The HEC Sprayer Developed

In 1981, Heard started thinking along the lines of developing a trouble-free spraying device that would effectively kill weeds. A sprayer that would only have one working part, a solenoid, which would automatically activate the valve which cuts the weed spray off and on.

Up until then, an electronic eye had not been developed which could effectively detect a weed and activate the solenoid, which would in turn open the valve to spray the weeds. These electronic eyes were faulty in that they sometimes caused the sprayer to go off at times when a weed was not detected, or when they did detect weeds, the electronic eye did not spray the weed on contact because it was too slow.

Heard knew that he could develop a sprayer with an electronic eye that could get the job done, and to reinforce his theory, he visited his nephew, Pat Acker, who was a research scientist at West Texas State University. Heard explained to Pat what it would take to develop an electronic eye which would do the job, and his nephew agreed that it would work.

Heard hired Wilson Engineering to help him develop a circuit board for an electronic eye. Later, the circuit board was used to develop the electronic eye.

Heard made Charles Wilson and Jerry Madden, both of Lubbock, his partners. After about three months of extensive research (August 1982), Heard and his two associates had developed and tested the first HEC Sprayer.

Sprayer Manufactured

The success of the first HEC Sprayer encouraged the three men to start manufacturing The Heard Electro Chemical Sprayer. Their distributor, Wilke and Associates, signed a contract to purchase several hundred 8-row rigs, to be delivered by September 1983.

Heard turned control of HEC over to his partners and now receives royalties from his project. His partners and the distributor assured Heard that HEC is in good hands.

Why The HEC Sprayer?

Why the HEC Sprayer? Heard explained that ten years ago, farmers could afford hoe hands and other more expensive methods for controlling weeds. "Now farmers don't have much money to spend for weed control."

"Therefore, it was necessary to develop a sprayer which saves chemical, time and labor," Heard said. "The HEC Sprayer can spray 200 acres of Johnson grass in one day, using the eight-row rig." "Farmers can also save up to 50 percent on chemical costs with our sprayer. The sprayer doesn't drip, and is accurate up to four miles per hour," Heard added.

Heard ended by saying that farmers should incorporate electronics more with farming. "Eventually every farmer will have sprayers with electronic eyes," Heard ended.

ON THE COUNTY LINE

BY KEITH TOOLEY

I WAS READING in the Moral Majority Report, that a soviet newscaster was fired for "telling it like it is."

The soviet newscaster said in one of three bulletins, "The population of Afghanistan plays an increasing role in defending the country's territory against Soviet occupants."

According to the Moral Majority Report, Danchev, the Soviet newscaster later said in another bulletin that a meeting of Afghanistan tribal elders had claimed "the activity carried out from Soviet territory endangers the security of the population of Afghanistan."

Danchev continued his attack on Soviet policy when he said in a third bulletin that the Afghan population was playing an increasing role in defending the country "against bands infiltrated from the Soviet Union."

He said the Afghan population was taking an "increasing active part in action against the Soviet forces."

Danchev was said to have told investigators that he was opposed to the role the Soviet Union had in Afghanistan and intended to make his views known through Radio Moscow.

Several other Moscow radio executives have been officially reprimanded and are being investigated at this time, according to the Moral Majority Report. It is this type of activity that makes you appreciate the United States, a country in which freedom of speech and press are guaranteed under the constitution.

Soviet newscasters are being prevented from "telling it like it is" to the Soviet public. This is a great injustice to citizens within that country.

I would much rather live in a country where the people know what their government is up to through the press, even with all the sensationalism, rather than not knowing anything at all. The government has got to be kept honest and the press should make it their responsibility to do so.

School Board Discusses Budget, Other Business

Other Business

The Abernathy School Board discussed the proposed 1983-84 school budget and many other business items at the August meeting held Monday night.

The proposed budget amounts to $3,130,000, up 1.2 percent from last year's budget. The effective tax rate is 63.05 cents per $100 valuation. This is a rate that is derived from a formula set by the state and is not necessarily the rate to be used in the coming year. The tax rate last year was .56 cents per $100 valuation.

One school administrator stated that the board would have to set the tax rate at .66 cents if they wanted to take in the same amount as last year. This is due primarily, to a decrease in the value of mineral properties within the school district.

A budget hearing has been set for August 18th and the tax rate will be set at that time.

Gas, Fleet Insurance and Milk Bids

Gasoline bids submitted by two local companies were read. Consumers Fuel gave a bid of $1.01 8/10 per gallon, plus or minus any increases, and Phillips 66 Sixty-Six Butane and Fertilizer gave a bid of $1.07 per gallon, plus or minus any increases.

Consumers fuel was awarded the school gas contract for having the low bid of $1.01 8/10 per gallon.

The only fleet insurance bid was submitted by local insurance company Burl Hubbard Insurance. Hubbard gave a bid of $4,584 to cover school vehicles, which includes 10 buses, 5 pickups, 2 cars and 2 vans. Hubbard had the school fleet insurance contract last year, as well.

Milk bids were opened at the meeting. Borden and Bell both submitted milk bids. Bell was 1/2 cent cheaper on 1/2 pint of homogenized milk at 16 cents. Borden gave a bid of 16-1/2 cents.

The board rejected both bids because of a difference of opinion between board members on what company should get the bid. New bids submitted will be discussed again at the special school board meeting slated for August 18.

Tickets On Sale For Wedding

Tickets are now on sale for the Chamber of Commerce sponsored "Womanless Wedding."

Tommye Lane, chairman of ticket sales, has announced tickets may be purchased at the following Abernathy businesses: First Federal Savings & Loan from Tommye Lane; The First State Bank from Jimmy Gragg; Pinson Pharmacy from David Pinson; Struve's Department Store from Alice Selke; and Plains Grain from Shelton Hardin. Tickets to the wedding are $3.50 and include not only the wedding, but also the reception following. Proceeds from this event will be used to help finance the Abernathy 75th anniversary celebration.

and reduced price meals at school. This verification of income procedure will be held in order to make sure only those who need assistance are getting it.

The board also appointed Gid Adkisson to hear appeals of free and reduced price application denials.

Band director George Riddell asked that the band be permitted to have three fund raising projects this year in order to attend the Blossom Festival at Canon City, Colorado the first weekend in May. The band needs to raise $11,563 for the trip. The three money raising projects Riddell suggested were: a magazine sale, pizza sale and a slave day. George Riddell also stated

Other area banks were notified that the school depository contract would need to be renewed, but none of them responded except for Hale County State Bank. This bank wrote a note to the school board stating that they thought the Abernathy School Board should keep their depository contract with a bank in the Abernathy School District.

The school maintenance department's 1973 Chevrolet pickup needs lots of work as the transmission, engine and front end have about had it. Adkisson suggested that the school purchase another used pickup and let the power mechanics department rebuild the 1973 Chevrolet. This was approved by the board.

The September school board meeting was set for Monday, September 12, one week later than usual, since labor day falls on Monday, September 5.

A change on the school calendar was made. The inservice day will be August 22, instead of August 24, and the work days will follow August 23 and 24.

School cafeteria reduced price meals were increased. Reduced price meal rates were at 10 cents for breakfast, 20 cents for lunch and 15 cents for milk. These rates were increased to 20 cents for breakfast, 30 cents for lunch and 20 cents for milk.

Families will also be picked at random in order to verify that their children are eligible to receive free that parents would be asked to volunteer to help the band students with these projects.

Under correspondence, the school board received letters from Gerald Kelley, school ag instructor, and ag students Randal Stillwell, Tanya Gist Mary O'Neil, Jim Bob Carver, Melanie Parks and ReGina Powell. The vocational ag instructor and students each thanked the school board for its support last year.

Executive Session

The board went into executive session to discuss personnel. They accepted the resignation of Marie Riddell, school nurse, as she has accepted a position at Methodist Hospital, in Lubbock, to teach at the nursing school.

The resignation of Shelly Coburn, Special Education teacher at New Deal, was also accepted by the board. The meeting adjourned.

Another Poem By W.C. Clement Published

Local poet W. C. Clement recently had another one of his poems published. It was put in one of the latest poetry publications, "Today's Greatest Poems." To have his poem published in this huge anthology of over 7,000 poems, Clement was picked from many entries in a previous poetry contest.

The poem, which won the honor of being selected for the book, was "Angel-Nurse."

Clement wrote this poem some 10 years ago, when he was in a Lubbock hospital recuperating from an operation. A nurse instructor visited him in the hospital and gave him some insight on nurses in general. He used the information she gave him to write this poem.

"Today's Greatest Poems" was published by World of Poetry Press in Sacramento, California.

John Campbell was the editor and publisher. This anthology of poems sells for $59.95.

Clement's poem is on page 591 of this book of poems and the poem is as follows:

ANGEL-NURSE
by W. C. Clement

Were You the "Angel-Nurse"
Who Came to Me last night,
And with Your Touch of Healing,
Made this Day So Bright?
Were You the Angelic Nightingale,
Who Traced that Mercy Hall,
And with Your Unselfish Devotion,
Responded to My Every Call?
Shadow Those Who Walk Before You
In Service, Age or Honored Name,
Carry High the Torch They Hand You,
Lit at Christ's Immortal Flame,
Sister to Sister the Torch should Pass,
This is the Historic Proven Plan,
Keeping Warm Christ's Deep Compassion
For the Healing Needs of Suffering Man.
We Pray for Miracles of Healing and Comfort,
As We Observe Our pains and griefs not few,
But These Miracles seldom are Felt,
Unless Administered by "Angel-Nurses" like You.

"A Little Shaking Up"

The owner of a greenhouse engaged a young gardener who was careful and methodical. In spite of this, the plants did not prosper under his care. As a result, the owner hired a more experienced gardener. Immediately, the plants began to thrive.

The success of the second gardener was explained by the first as follows: "When I transplanted flowers, I removed the plants very carefully from their pots. I disturbed them as little as possible. The new gardener handled them roughly. He didn't care how much he disturbed their roots. I thought he would ruin the lot!" The young man was silent a moment, and then added: "But they are growing!"

The roots of the plants in the pots were packed tight. The experienced gardener, apparently by his roughness, loosened the soil and gave the roots a chance to breath and stretch. He made growing easier for them by handling them roughly at the start.

Christians handled too gently often fail to fully develop. Praise is effective. Gentleness is effective. But there are times when a little shaking up will jar them out of their complacency, and will challenge them to look into God's Word of answers instead of depending upon other Christians.

Area Youth Compete At State 4-H Horse Show

THIS GRAY GELDING shown by Steven Cooper at the State 4-H Horse Show won second place in its halter class. (Review Photo)

Steven Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Cooper of New Deal, and Dusty Greaves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Greaves of Shallowater, had a very successful trip to the twenty-first annual Texas State 4-H Horse Show in Waco held July 26-30.

Steven and Dusty were among the contestants who qualified at the District 2 Horse Show to advance to state, where they competed with 280 top contestants from throughout the state.

Steven showed his gray gelding and won 2nd place in his halter class. Both young men competed in Western Pleasure, Western Horsemanship and Showmanship classes.

The Western Pleasure Class was designed to give recognition to those horses which exhibit characteristics associated with horses that are a pleasure to ride. The horses are shown at a walk, trot and lope, using the proper leads. They must have smooth gaits, be alert and responsive to commands. Exhibiting pleasure horses requires high standards of horsemanship ability and many hours of disciplined practice on the part of the rider.

The Western Horsemanship class recognizes a rider's ability to ride a horse correctly and to cause his horse to perform basic maneuvers. Riders are judged on basic position in the saddle, position and use of the hands, legs and feet positions and ability to control and show a horse. The rider works individually completing the horsemanship pattern, which includes maneuvers designed to determine the horsemanship ability of the rider.

The Showmanship class is judged on the contestant's method of showing, personal grooming and equipment used, and the grooming of the horse. Many hours of hard work are required to properly fit a horse for show and to train the horse to perform in the halter.

Plainview Young Farmers To Host Ag Commissioner

Tickets are now available for a Plainview Young Farmers-sponsored program featuring Texas Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower.

The program will be Thursday, Aug. 11, in the Hale County Agriculture Center in Plainview. Tickets are priced at $5 each, which includes a barbecue meal. Serving will begin at 6 p.m. with the program starting at 7 p.m.

A press conference with Hightower will be held prior to the program.

Hightower will be speaking on "Current Agricultural Issues Facing West Texas" with a question and answer session to follow his presentation.

In addition, a benefit drawing for a three-wheel motorized spray rig will be held immediately after the program.

Tickets for the banquet are available from the three Plainview banks, City National Bank, First National Bank and Hale County Bank, or by writing Plainview Young Farmers, Box 1180, Plainview, Texas, 79072. A limited number of banquet tickets will also be available at the door.

Tickets for the benefit drawing on the spray rig are priced at $2 each and are available from any Plainview Young Farmer.

Land Heritage Registration Deadline Extended

Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower announced today that the deadline for registration for the 1983 Family Land Heritage Program has been extended to September 16.

"Already, nearly fifty agricultural properties have qualified for this year's program," said Hightower, "but we want to find all of the farms and ranches that should be honored by this program."

The Family Land Heritage Program was created by the Texas Department of Agriculture to honor families who own land which has been maintained in agricultural production for 100 years or more by the members of that family. Since 1974, when the program began, 1558 properties in Texas have qualified for the program.

The basic requirements of the Program are: continuous agricultural production on the farm/ranch for 100 years, land ownership within the family, complete operation or supervision of the farm/ranch production by family members who are Texas residents, and a size of at least 10 acres with a minimum of $50 income from farm or ranch products or if less than 10 acres, sales of at least $250 a year.

Honorees in the program receive certificates of recognition during a ceremony at the State Capitol in November, and histories of each property are included in the Texas Family Land Heritage Registry published by the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Families who may be eligible for the Program may obtain an application from their county judges, county Historical Commission chairperson, or by writing the Texas Department of Agriculture, P. O. Box 12847, Austin, Texas, 78711. Once the completed forms have been certified by the county judge, they should then be mailed to the TDA Austin office for final consideration.

Dr. Wayland Bennett, Associate Dean of Agriculture at Texas Tech, will serve as Master of Ceremonies for this important gathering.

Awards will honor outstanding persons in this region in various sectors of agri-business. Named will be the top crop producer, the top livestock producer, and top agriculture lenders and suppliers. ## COTTON TODAY

SBA PROPOSAL OPPOSED: A proposal to eliminate all agriculture-related lending programs of the Small Business Administration is drawing opposition from the National Cotton Council.

In a letter to a Senate committee, Council President Gerald Brewer said such action "would not only adversely affect many agribusinesses, but it would also be inherently unfair."

He noted that many agribusinesses, such as cotton gins, are by definition "small businesses" and thus may apply for needed assistance under SBA's programs if they meet all other requirements.

Brewer pointed out that under the bill, these same small businesses, even though otherwise eligible, would be denied such assistance, simply on the basis they are engaged in agricultural processing or handling.

PUBLIC NOTICE
Abernathy Independent School District offers vocational programs in Production Ag, Power Mechanics, Homemaking, Upholstery, Farm and Ranch Maintenance, and CVAE Home-making. Admission to these programs is based on prerequisites as outlined in school policy.

ABERNATHY I.S.D. Equal Opportunity Statement
In compliance with Title VI, Title IX, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, this Educational Agency upholds the following policy:

This is an equal opportunity school, and is dedicated to a policy of non-discrimination in employment or training. Qualified students, applicants, or employees will not be excluded from any course or activity because of age, race, creed, color, sex, religion, national origin or qualified handicap. All students have equal rights to counseling and training.

HYPERTENSION, OR HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE, has long been recognized as a serious health threat to adults, but only recently has its occurrence in children been noted, says Dr. Mary Ann Shirer, a health education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. For years hypertension was thought to occur in children only as the secondary result of other diseases, such as heart disorders. However, recent research reported by the Texas Department of Health stresses that primary hypertension, or high blood pressure with no obvious cause, is probably the most common type of hypertension in children, as well as adults, and affects about 2.4 percent of children ages 3-15, says Shirer.

Regional Postmaster General Jackie A. Strange today announced the appointment of Francis A. Sutton to the position of Sectional Center Manager/Postmaster of Lubbock, Texas. The appointment was effective Saturday, July 23, 1983.

Sutton, 56, a career postal employee, served as sectional center manager/postmaster at Atlanta, Ga., for five years before assuming a special position in the Southern Regional Office in Memphis, Tenn., coordinating ZIP+4 Automation Planning in August 1981.

Gregory Accepted Into Occupational Therapy Program At Tech

Nineteen third-year students have been accepted into the occupational and physical therapy programs in the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center School of Allied Health.

In June the Department of Occupational Therapy admitted five junior-level students, while 14 were admitted in the Department of Physical Therapy.

In the Department of Occupational Therapy from Abernathy is Randy Gregory, son of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gregory of 407 North Drive, Abernathy.

These students have completed two years of study in natural and behavioral sciences and the humanities. They will spend two years in professional courses in their respective disciplines as they complete the requirements for a bachelor of science degree.

Each program will admit students at the freshman level this fall. Junior students who have completed required pre-clinical course work at other institutions may be admitted to clinical courses at the Health Sciences Center.

The School of Allied Health admitted its first students in 1982. The Department of Medical Technology will accept its first freshman class this fall.

so much time waiting for late stragglers at every stop. They stress that we must be back at the bus at a certain time, but almost always the same ones pay no attention.

We passed Caesaria, along the Mediterranean, where Paul was in prison for two years. He appeared before Nero for his release, but instead, his head was cut off on the Appian Way.

The Holy Land covers 15,000 square miles. Desert covers about 60 percent of the land. This is the area of the tribe of Dan. There are 6 universities in Israel, but only one religious one, which is in Tel Aviv. 50,000,000 boxes of oranges are shipped each year. By the coast there is about 32 inches of rain a year. Solar heat units are seen on top of all the homes and apartment buildings. 150,000,000 trees have been planted since the 50's. Boys and girls are both compelled to serve in the army or service at the age of 18.

In Caesaria we saw the Roman theatre, which was unearthed not too many years ago, as well as the original city with its moat. We passed the authentic aqueduct, which was covered with sand for centuries. The water in Israel comes from the Sea of Galilee. We were told that Bethlehem was the best place for shopping.

Israel is No. 1 in the world for diamonds. They import them from South Africa. The bananas here are very small, but tasty. The Arabs living in Israel are free of active military duty.

We had lunch at Gan-Rimon restaurant. Haifa is a very lovely modern city with lots of lovely trees and sidewalks, like American cities.

Post cards and postal cards are not the same thing. A postal card is one that has a stamp already printed on it.

County Line Chit Chats

by Fave Ann Nelson

The County Line Community club extends their deepest sympathy to Jack Connell, husband of Pam Connell and children Sally Barrick, Carol Halford and Mannie Connell.

Pam was one of the most faithful members of the County Line Community Club and was always willing to do more than her share in keeping the club going. She served as president, secretary and treasurer through the years. She was always willing to help with any project that the club sponsored.

She was on the committee to secure a building for the club to meet in and was always willing to help with furnishing it and trying to hold the club together. She will be missed very much for her community work and her faithfulness in all the meetings.

The program for the County Line reunion August 14 is as follows:

Registration . . . . . 10:00 a.m.
Music by Marvin Stephens

Catered Lunch . . . . . 1:00 p.m.

TRIP CONTINUES...April 20th.

It only took an hour to get to Tel Aviv, but so much time was spent going through customs (they opened our luggage), getting boarding passes, etc. We arrived at the Aviation Hotel in Tel Aviv at 5 a.m. We had to make sure our own luggage got to our room. We were so exhausted that we went to bed without washing or cleaning our teeth, for the first time in our lives.

April 21:

We were awakened at 9:30 a.m., after 4 hours sleep, for breakfast and to get going on a tour. So many were ill, as well as angry, because we hadn't had enough rest. We waste
