Worth

By Nanalee Nichols
Being fat is not fun... that's just as blunt as it can be stated...but one thing that is even less fun is being on a diet!

Everyone out there who is overweight and struggles against the fact, whether it be ten pounds of fifty, knows exactly what I'm talking about.

As Garfield the cat says, "Everything tastes good when you're on a diet". On a diet it is hard to find anything to do that isn't related to food. Try watching TV. Just as you are absorbed in the program, on will come a commercial...for food. Fantastic looking food...desserts...snacks...restaurant s...you get the picture!

So, taking refuge in books isn't much better. The characters invariably sit down to a three course meal and the author sees fit to describe every detail of every dish!

Shopping for food isn't too easy either. Your stomach is gnawing on your backbone and emitting growls worthy of a wounded tiger. And the lettuce, tomatoes and clear soups that have been so much a part of life lately look absolutely disgusting!

The fresh breads, however, are another matter. All around, piled up higher than the head, are delicious looking...and fattening foods. So, grab the lettuce and run!

Going out with friends can become a nightmare. The friends aren't on a diet. They want something good...like pizza. And while you nibble desperately on your salad, they dig in. They wave dripping, hot, cheesy pizza by your nose. And you're sure that they are going to notice that you are drooling!

Now, I know, there are a lot of folks out there who are smugly thinking "If you just exercise a little self control". Well, most of those folks have never stood in our shoes!

But anyway, for all those folks out there who know exactly what I'm talking about, for all who struggle, strive and starve...this one's for you!

School Board Seats Officers

The main issue of business on the agenda of the Prairiland School Board Monday night was the reorganization of the board after the April 2 elections.

Bobby Kennedy was put in the president's chair, with vice-president being Leon Anderson and secretary Harold Morrison.

Donald Crawford was administered the oath of office as the newly elected board member for Place 4.

In other business, the board hired the Title I teacher, Title I aides, Plan A Teachers and Plan A Aides.

They also approved the five-year renovation plans for the schools, and heard the financial report.

Show, Pig Wrestling, Stew, Entertainment And Auction Prairiland FFA Has Full Day Of Events

By Nanalee Nichols
This Saturday, April 9, is the annual Prairiland Livestock Show, Stew Supper, Pig Wrestling and Auction.

This all day series of events obviously offers something to fit anyone's "tastes".

The day will begin with the Livestock Show, held at Prairiland High School. Swine will be the first class judged, starting at 10 a.m. Next will be lambs, miscellaneous animals, breeding beef and steers. A large number of entries is expected in the categories.

Judging is expected to be finished by around 2 p.m. and the stew judging will take place at 3 p.m. Stews concocted of "secret" ingredients by a number of stew cooking teams will have been simmering since early morning in closely guarded wash pots on the school grounds. Several prominent businessmen will be judging the stew.

At 4 p.m. the ever popular Pig Wrestling will begin. Prairiland Ag teachers have rounded up every bleacher available in the country to provide seating for this event.

Ag teacher Bobby Winters says that "Whooooo do we have some BIG pigs this year!" The Bonham porkers are wild and wooly and promise to provide some real challenge to capture. Eighteen teams will attempt to wade through the deep, goopy mud, capture a pig and stuff it into a fifty-gallon barrel.

Six women's teams and twelve men's teams are entered so far, including those from Delmar, Paris and West Lamar. Three trophies will be awarded in the men's category and in the women's category.

At 5 p.m. the Stew Supper will begin with all-you-can-eat stew, selling for only $2. Proceeds will go towards FFA Chapter projects.

Teams named for competition in the Championship Stew Cook Off are defending champions, the Blossom Lions Club, with Troyal Barker heading the team; the team of Vaughn, Gibson and James; the team of Hevron and Newman; a team consisting of Kenneth Allen, John Roach and Phillip Roach; a team of Paul Keys, K.T. Thomas and Curtis Elmore; a team from Pattonville, made up of Regina McDowra, A.B. Spann, Bill Blevins, Royce Vickers and Jerry Richey; a team of John Gifford, Gene Cavender and Charles Harvey; Max Ballard will lead a team; Liz Irwin will command a team; and the Blossom Cooks, Laura Duncan, Linda McLaughlin and Mrs. McNabb will form a team for the cook-off.

From 6 to 7 p.m. the renowned Prairiland Talent Team, which won regional in FFA competition this year, will play. These youngsters can really put on a show and it's worth the trip out just to hear them.

At around 7 p.m. the auction will begin. The FFA chapter has heavy-duty, handy barbecue pits, large mineral feeders, mineral troughs, tool boxes, picnic tables, round bale movers, post drivers and other items they have built to be auctioned, plus a large and varied selection of donated items to be auctioned.

A better way to spend a day, or even part of a day can be found around this neck of the woods right now!

Easter Egg Hunt Is Big Success

The First Annual Deport American Legion Egg Hunt was a huge success, if success can be judged by bright, excited faces and enthusiasm.

Although the weather was so wet, windy and rainy that an outdoor event wasn't possible, the youngsters enjoyed drawing names for prizes, receiving their eggs and generally having a good time.

An astonishing array of "Easter Bonnets" were entered into competition, with $25, $15 and $10 going to the three winners. Judges had a difficult decision in picking the winners from among the entries.

Prizes, all purchased with money donated by Deport and Paris merchants, ranged from baseball gloves, balls and kites.

Three categories were eligible for prizes, ages 0-4, ages 5-7 and ages 8-10. Sixty-three youngsters were in attendance and the sponsors of the egg hunt are already planning on a bigger and better community Easter egg hunt next year!

Local Elections Present Few Surprises

There were few surprises in local elections, as voters turned out in a generally low voting average for two city council elections and the Prairiland School Board election last Saturday.

Donald Crawford captured the Place 4 on the school board with 143 votes to Terry Adams' 112.

Incumbent Leon Anderson easily carried Place 1 with 197 votes against write-in candidate, Liz Irwin with 53 votes. Place 1 is a Blossom seat on the Prairiland School Board.

Place 4 is a Deport seat, vacated by board president, Ernest Stinson, who did not file for re-election.

The Blossom City Council election had no contested seats. Ann Thompson received 58 votes; Kenneth Proctor 53 votes; and James Williams received 46 votes. Four write-in votes were cast.

The Deport City Council race had three seats up for election, and four candidates running.

Incumbent John Lee Roach retained his seat with 73 votes. Gordon Isbell and Paul R. Keys were placed on the council with 69 and 65 votes respectively. Jim Short received 51 votes.

A total of 92 votes were cast in that election.

McCarty Sentenced 35 Years For Harris Murder

Christopher McCarty of Deport received a sentence of 35 years for the murder of James Harris of Fulbright as McCarty's request for probation was denied last Thursday.

The nine woman, three man jury heard closing arguments from the seventeen witnesses presented by the state on Wednesday, and spent around four hours considering punishment on Thursday.

The case was heard in Sixth District Court with Judge David Moore presiding in the absence of Judge Henry Braswell, recuperating from surgery.

Assistant County Attorney Ed Ellis called a number of witnesses to reconstruct the events of Friday, November 26, 1982. The state contended that these events led to the arrival of James Harris at the McCarty residence.

Harris was found face down in a water-filled ditch in front of the McCarty home on Highway 271, Deport on Saturday morning.

Dr. Marshall K. Dougherty, local pathologist, testified that Harris died as a result of suffocation and or drowning. Dougherty said that during an autopsy several bruises on Harris' neck were discovered, and that the autopsy indicated that he had been deprived of oxygen for a period of time. That, he told the jury, could have caused unconsciousness which resulted in death if the man was lying with his nose and mouth restricted.

Harris had gone, according to the testimony of relatives, to the McCarty residence looking for his cousin, Dorothy Smith, after a disturbance at the McCarty home.

Mrs. Smith is the sister of Mrs. McCarty.

Charlene Harris, the dead man's wife, testified that he failed to come home Friday night after leaving around 10 p.m. to go and find Mrs. Smith.

The defense presented no witnesses in the case. McCarty's attorney, after the verdict of guilty was returned, asked that McCarty be granted a 10 year or less sentence and receive probation.

Lamar County Attorney Tom Wells, presenting the closing argument in the case, said that probation would be "a slap on the wrist" for such an offense.

McCarty took the stand Thursday morning as a character witness in his own behalf and professed his innocence in the matter and asked for probation.

Leslie Echols of Paris served as counsel for McCarty.

The jury denied the plea for probation and sentenced him to 35 years in the Texas Department of Corrections for the murder.

McCarty is currently in custody at Lamar County Jail, and, according to Chief Deputy Gibson, will

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT
Dr. Harry Evans
OPTOMETRIST

THE SINGLE VISION LENS
When most people get their first pair of eyeglasses or contact lenses, more often than not they're made with single-vision lenses. This doesn't mean they can see only in one direction. Nor at only one distance. The "single" stands for just one set of optical corrections in the lens.

The single-vision lens can be for reading or for seeing at a distance. It all depends on the problem that needs correcting.

Nearsighted people need help in seeing things at a distance. Farsighted people may need help seeing objects near-by. People who have an astigmatism need help in both directions. Their eyes have two points of focus instead of one. This gives them blurred vision no matter how close or far away an object may be. Corrective glasses or contact lenses clear things up so they can see as well as people with normal vision.

No matter what the vision problem, it can usually be solved with the right kind of glasses or contact lenses

Carter-James Exchange Wedding Vows

Miss Melissa Carter and Chester LeRoy James were married in a semi-formal ceremony at 7:30 p.m. Friday evening at the Immanuel Baptist Church. The pastor, the Rev. Charles Higgs, heard their double-ring vows.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Carter of Paris and Mr. and Mrs. C.L. James of Beaumont, California.

Miss Lana Norwood, organist, presented favorite selections of the couple prior to the ceremony. The traditional wedding march was played for the bride's entrance. Mark Hardy accompanied Christi Hardy as they sang "You and I", and Mr. Hardy sang "I Could Never Promise You." Mr. and Mrs. Hardy sang "With This Ring" after the vows were exchanged and "Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us" as the recessional.

Guests were registered in the foyer of the church by Miss Marla Wilson of Powderly. Aisles were marked at the family pews with hurricane lamps holding tapers garnished with English ivy, fern and mixed spring flowers in shades of pink and lavender.

The ceremony was performed before the altar lighted with five seven-branched candelabras flanked by spiral candelabras. The candelabras held votives and were entwined with garlands of ivy and lillies of the valley. The brick walls of each instrument loft was topped with ivy and 14 graduated candlesticks holding votives. Each window of the sanctuary held a trio arrangement of candlesticks containing votives.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. For her wedding, she chose a designed gown by Zurec for Joelle. The white satin gown was overlaid with Schiffl lace and fashioned with a high Victorian neckline accented with a sheer yoke of Schiffl embroidery which complimented the ruffled bodice embellished with seed pearls. Lace covered buttons fastened the back bodice. The bouffant sheer sleeves were enhanced with Schiffl embroidered flowers and fitted cuffs, which were also embroidered and accented with tiny seed pearls and formed petal points. The natural waistline was banded with a wide satin ribbon covered with scalloped lace. The A-line skirt flowed into a chapel length train and was trimmed with a ruffle of Chantilly lace. She wore a white picture hat covered with Schiffl lace that scalloped over the brim. The upturned side of the hat was accented with a cluster of white roses and stephanotis and the hat was banded at the crown with a satin ribbon. The bride's blusher veil was created from the veiling gathered at the back brim. She carried a silk cascade of lavender cymbidium orchids accented with stephanotis, pink baby's breath and pink sweetheart roses. Polished English ivy completed the cascade which was tied with streamers in love knots.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Chris Read of Arlington and bridesmaids were Lisa Mayfield of Greenville and Glenda Bible of Garland. Sabra Lands of Paris was junior bridesmaid.

The flower girl, Kristi Dewese of Mesquite, wore a ballerina length dress of white taffeta fashioned with a gathered skirt with a wide ruffle at the hemline. Jack Hoskins of Paris was ringbearer.

Larry Kennemer of Paris served the bridegroom as best man. Groomsmen were Dick Dunham of Paris and Tim Billings of Norman, Okla.

Ushers were Stephen Carter, brother of the bride, Chris Read of Arlington, William Newman and Todd Davis of Paris.

The bride's parents were hosts for a reception in the fellowship hall of the church following the ceremony.

Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Boyce Fleniken, Mrs. J.D. Lands, Mrs. Thomas Tomblin, Mrs. Bonnie Taylor, Mrs. Larry Kennemer, Mrs. Jack Wilson, Jo Ann Rollins and Mrs. Gerri Merritt.

The bride is a 1975 graduate of North Lamar High School and a 1977 graduate of Baptist Bible College in Springfield, Mo. She is employed at UARCO, Inc.

Her fiancé, a graduate of Beaumont High School and Southeastern State University, is employed by the Prairiland Independent School District.

Following a wedding trip to California, the couple will make their home at Paris.

Chocolate is cheering

Chocolate not only tastes good, it can help make you happy. The happiness element in it is phenylethylamine, a mood-elevating chemical. Supposedly the brain produces this chemical naturally, but depression can reduce production of it. Eating chocolate can produce a scientifically documented euphoria.
