

Patriots Take Big Victory Over Rivercrest

By Thomas Nichols

The Prairiland Patriots didn't just start their 1984 football season off on the right foot last Friday night...the foot and everything else was right as they defeated the Rivercrest Rebels 21-0 in an exciting game.

The Patriots traveled to Rivercrest for the season opener and gained confidence and victory.

New head coach Mike Allen said that "the defense looked pretty good...they (Rivercrest) had the ball on the three yard line and we held them out...that was the turning point of the game."

He continued, "The offense I was pleased with most of the time, we made some mistakes. I was pleased because we won, we could have played a little better."

The first quarter contained the only real Rebel threat of the evening...the above-mentioned three yard line threat.

Prairiland controlled the majority of the second quarter, and scored the first of three touchdowns with 1:02

Patriot Mike Connot carried the ball over for that score, and Rivercrest managed to block the point after attempt by Brent Franks. Prairiland played with few penalties, while the Rebels seemed plagued with them.

The second half ended on the 6-0 note.

The second half started with the Rivercrest team snapping the ball badly and ending their first march downfield almost immediately. Jay Ingram sacked Kyle Roland, and the Patriots put up their second score with a three yard run into the endzone by Mike Connot again. Connot carried the two-point conversion in to rack the score up to 14-0 with 3:59 left in the third stanza.

The Rebels fumbling set the Patriots up for their third touchdown as they capitalized on that mistake. With 8:13 left, Mike Connot again took the ball in for the score and Brent Franks capped it off with the extra point, making the score 21-0. The Rebels tried to rally on the next possession with a 12 yard run, but three consecutive incomplete passes turned the ball back to the victors once more.

The Prairiland tally for the night was 187 yards rushing, one out of four passes for 14 yards. They punted three times for 124 yards, fumbled the ball only once, and were penalized ten times for 75 yards. They made eleven first downs.

Coach Allen mentioned that he felt Ladd Davis did a good job after coming in for Dennis Rhodes when Rhodes suffered an injury. Davis played the whole game as fullback, which is not his usual position.

Rhodes has a hyperextended knee, and may be out for three weeks.

The Patriots will take on the Wolfe City Wolves this Friday night at Patriot stadium and fans are urged to come out.

It had to happen. Jewel decided that it was about time to go on strike...and that she did. Of course, she decided to do that on a Tuesday after a holiday...no worse time could be found.

She simply decided not to work all of a sudden. Her little red "busy" light popped on...but she refused to be busy!

Four phone calls to Massachusetts later we were no nearer to finding out what her problem was than before.

In desperation, we cranked up old (and we do mean old...his computer manual is chiseled on clay tablets) Arnold. Arnold is one of the first newspaper computers made...and he promptly decided to sulk up, too!

Whether it was because he didn't like being called out of his peaceful dreams in the corner of the room...or whether it was to repay us for ever retiring him at all wasn't quite clear...but he wouldn't work.

Finally we talked nicely to him...we cajoled him with promises of WD-40 and a nice all over cleaning. Nothing helped.

As a last resort we kicked him...and it worked! Honest...his little font strips just started to whirrrr...his continuous feed began to work, his ready light lit.

So we squeaked through with him. As we called the main hotline for continued work on Jewel, we discovered that it would sometimes take half an hour to even get the line open to the service center.

Finally, we asked about that...and the pattern became clear. The service center in Massachusetts serves the entire United States, and all over the country on the day after Labor Day, computers had rebelled.

Do they want a Labor Day for computers? Do they resent being left alone in their offices, what is it they want?

I don't know...but I'll say one thing...this isn't the first time this has happened. And no one will ever convince me that the machines of the world don't have some sort of conspiracy and grapevine network!

Prairiland Proposed Tax Hike

The Prairiland CISD school board held a meeting Monday night, September 10, and will be holding a hearing on September 20 to discuss the proposal to increase the tax levy by ten cents per $100 evaluation.

The hearing will be held on September 20 at 5 p.m. at the Prairiland High School library at Pattonville.

In other action, the board hired Linda Zant to teach fourth grade at Deport Elementary, since there were 38 students in that class, and it is being split into two classes.

They also voted to pay employee's health insurance, approved the minutes and payment of bills.

Band Boosters Make Plans

The Prairiland Band Boosters met Tuesday, September 4 and discussed various things. They were highly satisfied with the number of ads they sold for the football programs, and expressed appreciation to those who had supported them.

They were also pleased with their band cleaner sales, which has been going on for some time.

Starting in the last of September, donations will be accepted, and donors will have a chance to win a three wheeler. The tickets will be sold at home football games and the three-wheeler will be given away before Christmas.

The next meeting will be October 1 at 7 p.m. at the band hall at Prairiland. Everyone interested is urged very strongly to come out for this meeting, as attendance at the band boosters meetings needs to be increased.

Lyles, Guest, Davidson Win Football Contest

Paul Lyles of Paris started off the football contest with a first place win, winning seven games and predicting Prairiland to win 19-13. He won $12 for his efforts.

In second place was Bill Guest of Deport, who missed seven games and predicted Prairiland to win 23-20. He received $7 for his football savvy.

Mike Davidson of Pattonville missed eight games and came close to predicting the score for Prairiland 20-0. He received $5 for his knowledge of the game.

In close behind, but not winning any money was Joe Kelsey of Bogata who missed eight games but thought Prairiland would defeat Rivercrest 20-12.

Archie Jackson of Paris missed eight games, predicted a 17-10 win for Prairiland, and C.A. Sparks of Pattonville missed eight games with Prairiland winning 12-7.

Purna Haydock of Deport also missed eight, but had Rivercrest picked to win.

Nobody guessed the tie between North Lamar and Commerce.

Winners of the games listed in the contest were: Prairiland 21-Rivercrest 0; Detroit; L.A. Raiders; Colts, L.A. Rams; San Francisco; N.Y. Giants; Kansas City; Miami; Seattle; Chicago; St. Louis; Clemson; Purdue; USC; UCLA; Minnesota; Brigham Young; Oklahoma State; Cameron; Pittsburg.

Questions On Changes In Tax Laws Can Be Answered

State Comptroller Bob Bullock recently stated that Red River and Lamar County residents will have changes in State tax laws and can get the answers in a special seminar to be held in the Chamber of Commerce office in Clarksville for Red River County residents; and at the Lamar County Courtroom on Sept. 14 at 12 p.m. for Lamar County residents. State sales tax is going up on a number of items and services will be taxable for the first time beginning October 2, Bullock said, "We are holding seminars across Texas so that these changes will not come as a surprise to anybody. Representatives from the Comptroller's office will explain the changes and answer questions during the seminars."

Red River County and Lamar County residents who cannot attend the seminar should contact the Comptroller's Field Office in Sherman at 214-893-0179 or the Comptroller's office toll free hot line 1-800-255-5555.

PREVIEW—Members of the First United Presbyterian Church in Deport previewed some of the wide variety of crafts, canned goodies, Christmas items and other things already prepared for their upcoming bazaar. The Presbyterians are planning to hold their bazaar at the church from 9:30 until 2, and the meal will be served from the school cafeteria from 11 until one. (Staff Photo)

AROUND for a few more yards is Mike Connot, who was finally tackled by a Rivercrest Rebel in the season opener for the

People and Things

The DEPORT PTA will begin their meetings for the new school year next WEDNESDAY, September 19 at 3 p.m....all interested parents and people are URGED TO ATTEND.... CHEESE and other COMMODITIES will be DISTRIBUTED at the First United Methodist Church in Bogata on September 18....

Local Sales Tax Figures Released

State Comptroller Bob Bullock today sent checks totaling $52.4 million in local sales tax payments to the 990 cities that levy the one-percent sales tax. "I don't know if a city official in Texas who doesn't lick his lips this time of the month," Bullock said. Houston received the largest check, $8.6 million. Locally, Deport's yearly total to date is $6,233.42, for a 13.32 percent increase over last year. Blossom's yearly total amounts to $8,216.39, or a 6.90 percent decrease from last year. Talco received $595.38 this period, compared to $990.94 last year, marking a 0.81 percent decrease of the yearly total to date.

Bogata received $738.73 this period, compared to $542.49 last year, marking a 0.94 percent decrease over last year.

Deport UMW Holds Meeting

The regular meeting of the Deport United Methodist Women was held in the fellowship hall of the church on Tuesday, September 4.

The meeting was called to order with prayer by the president, Mrs. Juanita Sparks. Roll call showed seven members with two new members present.

Following routine business, the program leader, Mrs. Martha Glover, presented an informative summary of the history of the Methodist Church in America, including northeast Texas and into Deport. Information was taken from a book entitled Bicentennial Moments by Robert L. Hunt, et al.

The meeting adjourned with the praying of the Mizpah. A sandwich and dessert plate was served by the hostess, Mrs. Regina Webb. The next meeting will be held on Monday night, September 17 in the home of Mrs. Christine Skaggs in Mt. Pleasant.

FOOTBALL CONTEST

WIN FIRST PRIZE $12
WIN SECOND PRIZE $7
WIN THIRD PRIZE $5

RULES OF THE GAME

CLIP OUT THIS PAGE AND MARK YOUR CHOICE OF WINNERS OF THE GAME THAT APPEARS IN EACH OF THE ADS ON THIS PAGE.

Do not guess the score, just the winner. If you predict a tie, so indicate with the word "Tie" written across the ad.

GUESS BOTH THE WINNER AND THE SCORE FOR THE GAME MARKED "TIE-BREAKER", THAT APPEARS ON THIS PAGE.

Tie-breaker game winner will be counted with other games but tie-breaker game score will be used only to break ties among contestants, with the game winner first, margin of victory second, total game points third and total points by winner fourth. If still tied, the prize money will be divided equally.

Fill in your name, address and phone number (if any) and either mail or bring this page, or a reasonable facsimile of the list of games, to either The Deport Times or The Bogata News.

Entries brought to either of the newspaper offices, must be in that office no later than 5 p.m. Friday of this week. If mailed, entries must be mailed to either The Deport Times, P.O. Box 98, Deport, Tex., 75435; or The Bogata News, P.O. Box 306, Bogata, Tex., 75417. All mailed entries must be mailed in time to arrive with the Saturday morning mail.

It is requested that only one entry per person be submitted. In event of more than one entry from a contestant, that person will be eligible for only one prize in that contest week.

Everyone eligible except employees of The News-Times newspapers and their families. Decision of judges will be final.

PJC To Present Theatre

For the children's theatre production this year, Paris Junior College's drama club, Le Troupe, will present "A Sound for a Shilling, A Wish for a Pound," an original script by John Presley Wright of the PJC speech and drama faculty.
The play will be presented for area school children, and a public performance is scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 20 in the Theater for the Performing Arts at PJC. Tickets are $1.00 and curtain time is 7 p.m. said Ray Karrer, chairman of the fine arts division.
The original play, which will be presented for the first time during the children's theatre, concerns individual relationships in everyday life with the central character, Pushy, the talking bear. It shows children of all ages how thank you, I'm sorry and please help to make life more pleasant.

DESTROYED—The Blossom school burned in 1923, while folks could only watch. The limited fire fighting resources of the time made it impossible to do much to save the big building, and the cause of the fire is still unknown.

Blossom Bits From The Past

By Sue Clarkson
No one knows for sure when the first schools were organized in Blossom Prairie. At one time, Blossom boasted three academies offering many fine academic courses. In earlier days, children came from miles around, boarded in homes in town during school months, just to take advantage of the educational programs offered in Blossom schools. According to old records, the Blossom Methodist congregation held their first worship services in the Blossom Prairie Schoolhouse as early as 1840.

The schools have been in several different locations around town. The present location being the longest, Lamar College was first erected on the site in the late 1800's. In the early 1900's the location became a regular elementary and high school. A very modern brick structure was erected about 1918. It was destroyed by fire, origin still unknown, in the spring of 1923. Classes were held in churches until the present building was built in 1924.

The earlier schools had very strict discipline and dress codes for students as well as teachers. No teacher was hired unless they were of highest moral character.

The school with its "Freaky Food Factory" has come a long way. The first hot lunches were served in the school's basement, beginning about 1940, at the cost of $.15 cents, if you could afford it, a week. The dress codes are almost non-existent and discipline is not as strict as it was in earlier days. The educational opportunities are better today just waiting to be taken advantage of by a bright young mind.

Varsity Volleyball Girls Have High Hopes

By Kim Allen
Four experienced senior players, six competent starters, and a team entering into a very tough district will need strength and ability to pull out a much deserved district championship.

Varsity volleyball members such as Donna Vaughn, Paula Farmer and Tonya Burdine think that they are in a strong contention for second. They all feel that if the team pulls together then the chances of winning are excellent. Younger team members Mandy Graves, Deana

Detroit Announces Plans For New Bank

Joe B. Grizzle, a member of the organizers group for the Proposed Community National Bank of Detroit, today announced a public meeting scheduled for Tuesday, September 18 at 7 p.m. to be held in the Cafetorium of the Detroit High School. The meeting is open to the public and is for the express purpose of giving area residents an opportunity to ask questions and provide suggestions for the operation and proposed services of the new bank.

The public meeting is the latest in a series of developments concerning the banking group. In July, Larry R. Ellington was hired to act as President and CEO of the new bank scheduled to open in January, 1985. Mr. Ellington was formerly president, CEO and director at the First Midwest Bank of Gower, Gower, MO. He has been active in banking for the last eleven years and holds a Business Degree from the University of Missouri as well as having graduated from the Graduate School of Banking, University of Wisconsin in Madison.

Mr. Ellington, 33 is married to Dayna Loyd Ellington, formerly of Sulphur Springs. They have two children, Jason aged 4 and Lacey, aged 2.

In August, the organizers placed a temporary office on the bank site and established office hours at 9 a.m. to 12 and 12:30 to 4:30 p.m. Larry Ellington is available at the office site to answer questions as well as Trina Bland, who has been hired as secretary to the new bank. Area residents wishing to buy stock in the proposed Community National Bank of Detroit, are welcome to come by the office or checks will be accepted at the public meeting. Additional organizers in the Detroit Banking Group are J.R. Gatlin, B.D. Nation, Seneca Cowan, Jay R. Ray, Frank Coffman and George Pyron, Jr.

Current activities for the bank group include finalizing construction plans and continuing sales of the remaining bank stock. The organizers hope to finalize local sales of the bank stock on Sept. 24, so construction of the permanent bank building may begin on schedule in the latter part of October, with hopes of a January opening. In keeping with the community goals of the new bank, the organizers wish to make the bank stock available to residents within their expected trade area before outside investors checks will be accepted.

Employment applications or offering circulars may be picked up at the temporary office or at the public meeting, September 18.

Jr. Volleyball Season Off To Good Start

By Kim Allen
The Prairiland Junior Varsity Volleyball girls' team is off to a good start this season.

With seven competent players on the team, opponents will have to be at their best to undertake this team.

However, to win this season, the girls will have to become a team with discipline and more control in keeping the ball alive during play. The serving of the team is very good with sophomores Marci Nations, LeAnn Anderson and Karen Burdine leading the way.

These girls, along with Jana Pomroy, all hope and feel that the team has a good chance of winning district. With the experience of playing such teams as Mt. Vernon, North Lamar, and Clarksville last year, and new teams such as Daingerfield, Paul Pewitt and DeKalb coming into the scene this year, the young team will have to pull out more game winning plays than has so far been seen.

PUBLIC NOTICE

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS GENERAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 6, 1984

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 29 proposes a constitutional amendment that provides to state-chartered banks the same rights and privileges that are or may be granted to national banks of the United States domiciled in this state. For example, if national banks become authorized to maintain branch offices, this amendment would extend the same privilege to state banks.

The proposed constitutional amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to provide state banks the same rights and privileges as national banks."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 19 proposes a constitutional amendment that restructures the Permanent University Fund to provide: (1) for the expansion of the institutions eligible to participate in the bonding capacity of the fund to include the components of The University of Texas and Texas A&M University systems that have been added to those two systems of higher education since the Permanent University Fund was last restructured by constitutional amendment; (2) for the expansion of the purposes for which bond proceeds can be expended from new construction to include major repair and rehabilitation projects and the acquisition of major capital equipment (e.g., computers and laboratory equipment) and library books and materials; (3) for an increase in the bonding capacity from 20% (2/3 for The University of Texas System and 1/3 for the Texas A&M University System) to 30% (20% for The University of Texas System and 10% for Texas A&M University System) of the value of the assets (exclusive of real estate) in the Permanent University Fund in order to provide sufficient bond proceeds to care for the addition of 10 new institutions to those authorized to participate in the Permanent University Fund bonding program and to care for the expanded purposes for which the bond proceeds can be spent; and (4) for the dedication of the dividends, interest, and other income from the Permanent University Fund remaining after payment of principal and interest due on bonds and notes issued, to the provision of support and maintenance (over and above normal legislative appropriations) for Texas A&M University in Brazos County, Prairie View A&M University, and The University of Texas at Austin.

House Joint Resolution 19 also annually appropriates $100 million in each fiscal year, beginning September 1, 1985 (from the first money coming into the state treasury that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution) for the use of those education which are not included in The University of Texas or Texas A&M University Systems and, therefore, not eligible to participate in the Permanent University Fund bonding program. The amount of this appropriation could be adjusted every five years by a 2/3 vote of the Legislature, but could not be adjusted in such a way as to affect outstanding bonding indebtedness. Each institution of higher education that is eligible to participate (i.e., those institutions of higher education outside The University of Texas and Texas A&M University Systems) would be authorized to expend directly its share (such share to be determined pursuant to an equitable formula) of the $100 million appropriation for the purposes of acquiring land, constructing and equipping buildings or other permanent improvements, major repair and rehabilitation of other permanent buildings or improvements, and acquisition of major capital equipment (e.g., computers and laboratory equipment) and library books and materials. Additionally, each institution would be authorized to issue bonds backed by a pledge of up to 50% of its share of the $100 million annual appropriation for the purpose of land acquisition, new construction, and major repair and rehabilitation projects.

Except in the case of fire or natural disaster and in other extraordinary cases, verified by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature, all institutions of higher education would be precluded from receiving appropriations of general revenue funds for the purposes of land acquisition, new construction, and major repair and rehabilitation projects.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to create from general revenue a special higher education assistance fund for construction and related activities, to restructure the Permanent University Fund, and to increase the number of institutions eligible to benefit from the Permanent University Fund."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 65 proposes a constitutional amendment that authorizes the legislature to provide for the payment of assistance to the surviving dependent parents, brothers, and sisters of officers, employees and agents of the state or its political subdivisions, including members of organized volunteer fire departments and members of organized police reserve or auxiliary units authorized to make arrests, who die in the course of performing hazardous official duties. Payments to surviving spouses and dependent children of agencies and institutions of higher such officers, employees, and agents are already authorized by the Constitution.

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 20 proposes a constitutional amendment which abolishes the office of county treasurer in Bexar and Collin counties if a majority of the voters in each of those counties vote in favor of abolishing the office of county treasurer in a local election to be held on the issue. All the powers, duties, and functions of the office of county treasurer in each of these counties would be transferred to the county clerk.

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 22 proposes a constitutional amendment which provides a new method of filling a vacancy in the office of Lieutenant Governor. The amendment requires the President pro tempore of the Senate to call together the committee of the whole Senate within 30 days after a vacancy occurs in the office of Lieutenant Governor. The committee would be required to elect one of its members to perform the duties of the Lieutenant Governor until the next general election. This individual would continue his duties as Senator at the same time that he performs the Lieutenant Governor's duties. If the Senator who is elected ceases to be a Senator before the next general election, another Senator must be elected according to the above procedure to perform the Lieutenant Governor's duties. The President pro tempore would be required to perform the Lieutenant Governor's duties pending the election of one of its members by the committee of the whole Senate.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the state senate to fill a vacancy in the office of lieutenant governor."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 73 proposes a constitutional amendment that permits the use of public funds and credit for payment of premiums on non-assessable life, health, or accident insurance policies and annuity contracts issued by a mutual insurance company authorized to do business in this state. The constitutional prohibition against a grant of public money to an individual, association, or corporation or against becoming a stockholder in a corporation, association, or company has limited life and health group policies of political subdivisions to non-mutual insurance companies. The amendment would permit mutual insurance companies to bid for those policies.

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment to change the membership of the State Commission on Judicial Conduct to include one Judge of a Municipal Court and one Judge of a County Court at Law, who shall be selected at large and appointed by the Supreme Court with the advice and consent of the Senate.

The amendment also provides additional grounds for removal from office of judges or justices of Texas courts, and provides additional disciplinary actions that could be taken in lieu of removal or censure. The amendment would extend the Commission's disciplinary authority to masters, magistrates, and retired or former judges who hear cases by designation. The amendment creates a tribunal to review recommendations of the State Commission on Judicial Conduct for removal or retirement of a judge or justice. The review tribunal would be composed of seven (7) Justices or Judges of the Courts of Appeals selected by lot, by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. The amendment also provides for appeal of the review tribunal's decision to the Supreme Court of Texas and grants an accused judge the right to discovery of evidence.

The proposition will appear on the ballot as follows: The constitutional amendment relating to the membership of the State Commission on Judicial Conduct and the authority and procedure to discipline active judges, certain retired and former judges, and certain masters and magistrates of the courts."

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 22 proposes a constitutional amendment which increases the per diem of members of the Legislature. The amount of per diem allowed during a calendar year would be equal to the maximum amount set in federal income tax statutes as of January 1 of that same year as a deduction for ordinary and necessary business expenses incurred by a state legislator. Current per diem is $30; the maximum deduction is now $75.

The proposed constitutional amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to provide a per diem for members of the legislature equal to the maximum daily amount allowed by federal law as a deduction for ordinary and necessary business expenses incurred by a state legislator."

About Bulls & Bears & Savings Bonds.

The stock market says that bulls are good and bears are bad. But if you buy U.S. Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan, you can get the most out of both markets.

Rates are high during bull markets, so the variable interest rate you get on Bonds lets you share in those higher returns.

But if the bear takes over and rates fall, don't panic; you're protected by a guaranteed minimum of 7.5%.

Just hold your Bonds 5 years or more, and you can ride the bull and beat the bear.

Millard-Lee House

Log House and fence TTDA photos by Richard McCune

★ "Oldest town," Nacogdoches is rich in Texas history by Richard McCune, chief of media relations, Texas Tourist Development Agency

It is a cool, bright morning in Nacogdoches and the grass is still moist with the morning dew.

A few caretakers have arrived to maintain the grounds of what is obviously a village of homes, a church, parsonage, school and store, dating back to the 1830s to the turn of the century. Only a vermilion-red caboose is an anachronism of the present century, attracting youngsters to clamber up its stairs and peek in.

This is Millard's Crossing, fondly known in the East Texas city as the "Little Williamsburg" of the area, located at the city limits on North Highway 59.

It is the work of Mrs. Albert (Lera) Thomas, widow of the late U.S. Congressman from Texas. In fact, she served briefly in his stead as the first Congresswoman from Texas.

Alas, she is not here today to charm our tour group with witty stories about travel with her husband during their 30 years in Washington. Now 84, she has turned her full attention to the procreation of Millard's Crossing, perhaps to travel in quest of a "find" to add to her village.

The figurative cornerstone is the Millard-Lee House, built around 1837 and once owned by her family (she was born Lera Millard), a showcase for many of the antique furnishings she has collected over the years.

It is flanked by a 100-year-old corn crib, still intact, which houses early tools and implements of pioneer settlers.

Nearby is the log house, like the others, reconstructed on the property which once was a part of the Millard Plantation. Dating back to 1830, the structure was moved to the site from the nearby Watkins farm. Surrounding the house is a split-rail zigzag fence, thus supported without need of fence posts, an early Texas style popular for keeping livestock out of the yard.

The roomy structure with its traditional roofed porch is popular with family members who occupy the place when visiting and have lent it the title "Grandchildren's House."

Just across the street is the restored First Methodist Parsonage, and down the way is a schoolhouse dating to the early 1800s, its windows high on the gable sides ostensibly to prevent intrusion by hostile Indians.

Counterpart to the Parsonage is the Free Methodist Chapel, now popular for weddings. Pews of several descriptions acquired piecemeal add to Mrs. Thomas' reputation as a rescuer of nostalgia.

Two other notable historic homes are the Adolphus Sterne House (Sterne-Hoya House) and the Tol Barret House.

The first is a virtual shrine of the emerging Republic of Texas. Practically all of the principals, from Sam Houston to Davy Crockett, visited there, met in meetings and charted the events which led to independence. It was built in 1828 and has been restored as a museum and Texana library. It is the last house on the southeast side of South Lanana Street.

The other is a restored homestead which was built by pioneer oil driller Lyne Taliaferro (To) Barret to replace a prior home burned in the late 1860s. It has since been purchased and moved eight miles to the pine plantation of Capt. and Mrs. Charles K. Phillips, who restored it authentically through Barret family photographs. It is located three miles down Press Road, off South Loop 224.

Recently, it has become popular with visitors who spend a weekend or a week in charming detail of early pioneer ambience (except for electricity and plumbing).

While Nacogdoches, "The Oldest Town in Texas," has many attractions matching its longevity, the presence of the Stone Fort has particular significance.

It began as a stone house around 1778, probably built by trader Gil Y'Barbo for his operations along the Camino Real, the Spanish-built road from the Rio Grande to the Sabine River. It soon became a gathering place for the town's activities, and, during the years was the scene of major historical events through several transitions to its final role as the Old Stone Fort, serving under eight Texas flags.

At one time it fell into disrepair and disrepair and was torn down, the stones moved to a new site and rebuilt in 1907. The Texas Centennial Commission of 1936 gave it new purposes when it was reconstructed at its present site on the Stephen F. Austin State University campus.

A museum in the building contains a fascinating collection of memorabilia embracing local history from prehistoric to present times.

For more information about Nacogdoches, contact the Nacogdoches County Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 974, Nacogdoches, TX 75961; tel. 409/564-7351.

Time For An Armyworm Watch

By Paul D. Payne

Farmers and ranchers need to keep on the lookout for Armyworms which have appeared in county pastures and meadows over the weekend. An outbreak of these forage feeders could be devastating to pastures, meadows and yards in the area.

Individuals should inspect grass areas around trees and buildings and this is the area that the worms are likely to first appear. The grass will have a silver cast when viewed from a distance. The silver appearance is due to the feeding of the worms on the blades of the grass. When the number of worms builds up in an area, the grass is completely stripped of foliage.

The worms are easily identified. They will be a dark green to black worm with three yellowish-white stripes down the back. A conspicuous identification mark is a "Y" on the head. The moths which were very active last week depositing eggs have a wing span of about one and one half inches.

When the temperatures are hot as they were last week, the eggs can take as few as two to four days to hatch. Therefore, it appears that we could be in for a seige of this pest this fall.

There are two chemicals that will do an effective job controlling the worms, Dylox and Sevin. Either will do the job and a good supply of both chemicals was available the first of the week.

Individuals with highly fertilized pasture and meadows should check them daily for signs of damage.

Footprints From The Past

By Worth Hood
 Listening to the thunder last night made me think of when I was growing up and had to go to the storm house to keep from getting blown away when it came a tornado, or as they were known then, a cyclone.
 Nearly every home had a storm house back then and believe me we did use ours. Back in the early 1900's they had a very bad cyclone in Deport where my parents lived at the time and my mom was at home with my sister and brother. She had to hold both of them in her arms and hold one of the doors to keep it from blowing down. Of course she was scared almost to death and she never got over being afraid of a bad looking cloud. She would always insist that we go to the storm house, and to tell the truth, it was never a big job to get me and my sister to go, but my younger brother never did care too much about going. We have spent many days and nights in the storm house, more so at night, for then we could not see the cloud too good and with all the thunder and lightning they had a tendency to look worse than they were. Mom always said it was better to be safe than sorry.
 I can still remember having to get up all hours of the night and stumble to the storm house. I was always scared of the snakes and spiders that lived in the storm house. It seemed to me that they were just waiting for you to enter so they could bite you, but in all the times I went to the storm house, I never was snake bitten nor did I get a spider bite, but just the thought of it was enough to make the cold chills run up and down my spine.

 I remember one time when we had just moved to a different farm and had no storm house, one of the first things that mom and dad did. But as I said, we had just moved and so when the cloud came boiling in around 10 o'clock, mom got us all bundled up and away we went across the plowed field to the storm house of our neighbor. Mom tried to get dad to come with us but he was not as scared of the storms as mom was and he would not go. We got in the storm house and got the door almost tied down when the man who lived there began hollering for someone to come and help him hold the door down as he could not do it by himself. Well, me and my younger brother went to help, but with all of us holding with all our might, the door kept coming up and we could not stop it. Just as we were going up and knew that we were all going to be blown away, the man heard someone hollering so we were all as quiet as we could be and it turned out that it was dad trying to get in the storm house.
 It was quite a storm that night and a lot of the houses and barns got their roof blown off and the man where we were in the storm house lost a barn full of corn and hay that he had put up to feed his stock the coming winter with. He also lost three killing hogs as the barn that they were in got struck by lightning and when it burned, it also burned the hogs.

 So, as you can see, Mom was right, some of the time it is better to be safe than sorry.
Weekly Agricultural Update
 Small grain winter pastures should be planted by September 15 on a prepared seedbed to get good fall growth, says Dr. Sim A. Reeves, Jr. Good fall growth gives a head-start on winter, plus producers can begin grazing earlier.
 If a sod seeder is used, wait until about October 1 to plant in order to reduce competition from warm season grasses. Competition can choke out the small seedlings if temperature and moisture are favorable to the growth of warm season plants.
 Small grain can be sod seeded in mid-September if a desiccant is used to retard the growth of warm season plants. Many pastures in East Texas are short enough that a desiccant will not be required unless additional rain is received and warm season grasses begin to grow again.
 If a producer is putting in small grain pastures for cow-calf operations, he must use rotational or limited grazing to make it economical, Reeves says.
