

Prairiland Patriots Lose One, Take One

By James VanDeaver
The Patriots got back on the winning track Tuesday night as they defeated Mt. Vernon 52-30. Prairiland jumped ahead to leads of 12-0 and 20-2 in the first half and never trailed. Scott Scudder scored eight points in the first half as Prairiland led 27-14.

The second half of the game was filled with fouls and turnovers. Joel Ballard scored twelve points in the first half and Prairiland went on to win. Ballard's points came mostly from the free shot line as he sank ten out of ten from the line.

The Patriot victory gives Prairiland a 7-1 record in district. The next Patriot game will be in Prairiland as they will host the Daingerfield Tigers Friday night.

The Prairiland Patriots district winning streak fell at six Friday night as they lost to Clarksville 42-37 in Clarksville.

The Patriots got off to a good start in the game as they showed patience on offense and blocked out well. With every starting Patriot scoring in the first quarter, Prairiland led 12-9.

The second quarter of the game was a disaster for the Patriots. After Kyle Martin and Scott Scudder put Prairiland on top 15-11, Prairiland went without scoring for six minutes. The last point of the quarter was a freeshot by Calvin Williams as Prairiland fell behind 16-20 at the half.

Prairiland played great basketball in the third quarter as they got running on all cylinders. Kyle Martin put Prairiland on top 26-25 with a field goal with 26 seconds left in the quarter. Then after a Tiger turnover, Scott Scudder made two free shots with Prairiland in front 28-25 with six seconds left on the clock. Clarksville got lucky and made a half court prayer with no seconds left in the quarter, as they cut the Patriot lead to 28-27.

The final quarter was a loud one as the filled to capacity Clarksville gym began to take on a college atmosphere. Each move of the players were cheered by one side or the other. Unfortunately, Clarksville found more to cheer about as the Tigers offense could not be stopped. Although Prairiland did not play bad basketball, they went on to lose 42-37.

The game was the last for the Patriots in the first half of district play. The loss puts Clarksville and Prairiland each with 6-1 records.

It's been quite a while since the old soap box was dragged out. So long, in fact, that it took a little while to find it, and then it required a thorough dusting before I climbed (alas, no longer can I leap) up on it.

But now I am poised to lambast a subject that has been shoved to the forefront by numerous overheard rumours. GOSSIP is the title of this little lecture.

Gossip is something everyone disapproves of...and only people other than ourselves do. Truth to tell, each and every one of us is guilty in a more or less degree. Anyone who thinks gossip is something only women do has never spent the afternoon sitting around a feed store or barber shop!

Mostly, talk is simply the very real and good concern of people in a small community about these others in their town.

But, every now and then, a tale gets to flying that is vicious, and cruel. The damage such stories do is often irreparable.

What has prompted this oration is that over the past three months, gossip has come to my ears of no less than SEVEN local businesses failing!

The stores have become so prevalent that several advertisers have resorted to statements in their advertising that they are NOT going out of business. One very large institution has even had articles printed in daily newspapers trying to straighten facts out.

When gossip reaches this point it becomes a harmful, wrong thing. Stories of local businesses going out of business frighten the elderly, shake the faith of all who hear them, and encourage young people to move away from a "dying" town. The facts are often a whole lot harder to get people to accept than the falsehoods!

Of all the seven businesses, only one has actually closed, and it only after clearly stating intentions to do so. Because of a lack of time, not business!

Why, oh why, had we rather hear bad things than good? Why is it that tales of misery and woe are more fun to spread than joy and happiness and success? It frankly bewilders me.

It seems we have enough bad news around that is true without fabricating more.

All of us are guilty of repeating things without making sure of the facts. But come on, folks, let's give it a let up for a while now...let's tell only what we know is true!

Patriot Girls Back On Winning Track

By James VanDeaver
The Prairiland Lady Patriots got back on the winning track Friday night at Clarksville as they defeated the Clarksville Tigerettes 55-43.

The first quarter of play was a close one as Prairiland could not stop Clarksville from breaking their pressing defense. Donna Vaughn had eight points in the first quarter as Prairiland led after the first quarter 16-11.

Prairiland widened their lead considerably in the second quarter due to their improved defense. Vaughn kept up her scoring in the quarter as she made seven points and Nita Jaynes controlled the rebounding as she grabbed five in the quarter. Prairiland led at the half 31-19.

The third quarter was another good one for the Patriots. The highlight of the quarter was a fine display of long-range shooting exhibited by Tonya Burdine. As Clarksville sagged back their defense daring Burdine to shoot, she made three consecutive shots from very long range. Prairiland led at the end of three quarters 42-33.

The final quarter was the best of the game for the Patriots. With the crowd at standing on the front steps room only, the Patriots went on to win 55-43 as Deana Watson scored seven points in the final quarter.

Donna Vaughn paced the scoring for the Patriots as she contributed 21 points. Crashing the boards with a vengeance were Nita Jaynes and Kristi Bankhead as they pulled down ten and seven rebounds respectively.

Vernon as they defeated the Tigers 58-37.

The Patriots hushed all thoughts of being upset by the Tigers as they got off to a convincing start in the first half. With Nita Jaynes and Kristi Bankhead controlling the boards and Donna Vaughn pouring in eleven points, the Patriots led at the half 33-21.

The second half of the game was dominated by the Patriots even more so. Donna Vaughn kept her hot hand in the second half as she scored thirteen points and Prairiland's lead was never threatened.

Prairiland went on to win with a 58-37 score as Vaughn made two freeshots in the final second.

The Patriot victory gave Prairiland an 8-2 record in district play. The next Patriot game will be at Prairiland as they will host Daingerfield Friday night.

JV Boys Lose Game

By Jeff Morrison
The Patriots Junior Varsity lost a close game to the Clarksville Tigers, but they showed great determination throughout the game.

The Patriots held a slight 9-7 lead at the end of the first quarter but by half time the Tigers had cut it to 21-20. In the third quarter, a combination of the Tigers getting hot and the Patriots going cold, allowed Clarksville to take a nine point, 38-29 lead into the final period of play.

The Patriots fought back hard but fell short by a score of 44-39.

Craig Burns and Robbie Fuels led the Patriots with 12 points each while Benji Gooding and Richard Eatherly had six each. Alan Dale Huddleston also chipped in three points for the Pats. Dillard of Clarksville led all players with 15 points.

Jack Fell In The Creek!

By Wm. C. Barnard
I think it was about 1915, there was a big rain storm and Mustang Creek came up to flood stage as usual. There was a family named Fredenburgh farming on Grandpa's place. They had a couple of boys about our age, one named Jack and the other named Oliver.

As soon as the rain was over, we all went down to the bridge to watch the creek rise. The water was soon up to the floor and pouring through the cracks.

There was all kinds of stuff drifting down on the surface. We were ganged up on the upstream edge of the bridge grabbing for bottles, bois d'arc apples, boxes, etc. when Jack, while holding on with one hand, and reaching a way out for a choice piece of flotsam, lost his hold and fell in the water.

The current instantly carried him under the bridge. We all immediately ran to the downstream side. The top of Jack's head came to the surface, and before it floated out of reach, Arthur grabbed him by the hair and raised him high enough that some of the rest of us caught him under the arms and pulled him out on the bridge deck.

After he coughed and spit and rested a while, he was able to get on his feet.

We were afraid he might catch cold from getting wet, so we walked him home for a change to dry clothing.

Smith-Nance Exchange Wedding Vows

Miss Melette Smith became the bride of Michael Robert Nance in a semi-formal, candlelight ceremony at 7 p.m. Friday, Dec. 14 at the Seventh Street Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Smith of Blossom. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nance of Ft. Worth. Mrs. Alice Adkins of Paris, organist, presented pre-nuptial selections. She accompanied Fred Fungio as he sang "You Light Up My Life" and "We've Only Just Begun." She also presented the traditional wedding marches.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a satin and lace gown fashioned with a full skirt with lace motifs. The gown had a modified empire waistline and fitted bodice with lace and pearl trim. The low neckline was accented with lace and seed pearls and the lace sleeves ended in fitted cuffs. The skirt formed a chapel length train. The bride's illusion veiling was accented with lace. She carried a cascade of royal blue, baby blue and white carnations and greenery with matching streamers tied in love knots.

Mrs. Debera Nance of Blossom was matron of honor. Bridesmaid was Michele Nance, sister of the bridegroom of Ft. Worth.

The attendants wore full length royal blue satin gowns with low necklines and fitted bodices. The gowns had puffed sleeves and full skirts with a wide belt. Each carried a nosegay of royal blue, baby blue and white carnations with streamers tied in love knots.

Christine Nance of Blossom was flower girl. She wore a long white lace gown and carried a basket of blue and white carnations with a lace umbrella trimmed with blue flowers and bows.

The best man was Robert Nance, father of the bridegroom. Groomsmen were Tim Mullens of Paris. Wesley Nance of Blossom was ringbearer.

Candlelighters and ushers were Larry Wadford of Paris and Charles Ausmus of Powderly.

Becky Edwards of Paris presided at the register.

The bride's parents were hosts for a reception at the Washington Street Pecan and Music Center following the ceremony.
