Prairiland Blasts Tigers In 30-6 Win

By Thomas Nichols

It was homecoming for the Clarksville Tigers in Clarksville last Friday night, but it was the Prairiland Patriot's football game all the way as they posted a decisive win) over the Tigers, 30 to 6.

The Patriots won the coin toss to start the game, and elected to kickoff rather than receive. Three fumbles later, two by the Tigers and one for the Patriots, all recovered by the Patriots, the Patriots had first and ten on the Tiger 30-yard line. It was the start of the second quarter of play. Big Mike Connot barrelled downfield for a good gain and a Patriot first down. Quarterback Scott Scudder pitched out to Connot again for a short gain. On the second down, Scudder with a quarterback keeper, raced to the Tiger 15-yard line. On the third down, Ronnie Bridges was stopped two yards short of a first down, bringing up a fourth and one for the first on the Tiger 14-yard line.

Patriot Tony Duncan carried down to the Clarksville 10-yard line, setting up a first and ten from that point. The next play, halfback Mike Connot zigzagged his way through the Tiger line untouched for the TD. Shawn Philpot drilled the uprights for the point after. giving the Patriots a 7 to zip lead.

The Tigers however fought back running of Ronnie Eridges, Mike Conimmediately. On the kickoff return, Tiger Mike Nickerson raced down the right sideline for a one-way trip to the Patriot goal line, giving the Tigers a six point sure. The Tigers failed, however, to execute the point after attempt, leaving the Patriots a onepoint advantage.

It was late in the first half with just over one minute to play, when Patriot Jeff Morrison intercepted a Paul Taylor pass to set up the Patriot second scoring drive of the evening. The Patriots moved the ball from the Tigers own 20-yard line down to just inches short of the goal line in the fine not, Craig Burns and Scott Scudder with Ronnie Bridges finally plunging over for the TD! Shawn Philpot kicked the point after, giving the Patriots a 14 to 6 lead.

The Tigers were denied the goal line for the rest of the night, but the Patriots were far from finished as they came right back in the third quarter and drove from their own 30-yard line for their third TD. The score came on a 45-yard pass play from quarterback Scott Scudder to tightend Eric Stewart. Shawn Philpot, on a kicking spree, tacked on the extra point, giving the Patriots a 21 to TD!

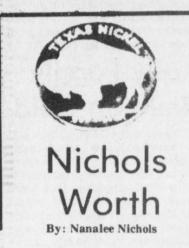

6 lead with 8 minutes and 52 seconds left in the third quarter.

The Patriots fourth TD of the night was set up when Tiger quarterback Scotty Conway fumbled the hand-off and Patriot Kevin Pasley came up with the ball on the Clarksville 32-yard line. THe Patriots moved all the way down to the three yard line but were unable to get into the endzone on a fourth and third to go. The Tigers took over and moved back out to their own 20-yard lline. Tiger quarterback Scotty Conways pass was picked off by a very alert George Shirley who raced for another Patriot

With nine minutes and 38 seconds in the game, sure-footed Shawn Philpot kept a perfect record on the night and drilled the uprights for the extra point, giving the Patriots a 28 to 6 advantage.

With just over six minutes in the game, faced with fourth and saven yards to go for a first down on the Tiger 37-yard line, Patriot Scott Scudder punted to Tiger Mike Nickerson, who fumbled the ball into the endzone. Patriot Tony Duncan covered for the safety, giving the Patriots their final sure of the evening.

Next week it's on to Mt. Vernon.

The portable office was really bulging this week. My portable office is, like many women, my purse.

Now, I am not one of those women who totes around a giant bag. I have a friend who could, I am convinced, live out of her suitcase sized handbag for at least a month.

But, because there is usually a note pad and a camera also to be juggled, my shoulder bag is not really big.

However, it will, after a football game, a couple of trips to Deport, Bogata, Blossom, etc. be bulging with bits of information.

Stories, obituaries, mini-ads, cards of thanks, information to go with pictures, subscription renewals, all collect in it until Monday morning, when I trek back to the office, unload and sort them into logical order, hopefully.

The problem lies within me for the chaos though. I NEVER seem to have a pencil and note pad handy. Although I treasure images of the professional reporter with the leather bound notebook, the row of ready to write pens (mine usually have something like chewing gum stuck to the writing Notebooks seem like charms...if I have one, nothing happens! No one EVER gives me a news item when I am properly equipped.

So this morning I pulled out one crumpled bit of newspaper with notes scribbled in the margin...one note written on the back of a football program, a news item carefully written on a paper napkin. A story folded into tiny squares completed the notations.

I ordered them, retyped them, put headlines on them, and turned them in to the typesetter.

Then, I gave serious consideration to putting a note pad into my purse...but no, as sure as I do, nobody will give me anything for the paper!

The Old House

of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thronton of Odessa, wrote this essay on "The Old House" remembering the pleasures of spending time at her grandparents' home as a youngster. Effie Thornton, her grandmother, has treasured it for years, and it expresses the way many youngsters feel about those visits to "grandma's and grandpa's" in the country.

The Old House

I was only there for holidays or summer visits and even then just for Finney, daughter a few days, but I feel that I did some of my best living in and around that old house. The most beautiful thing about it was its calmness.

Nights wee cool and quiet, except for crickets and an occasional shuffle of dominoes. Mornings were bright and sunny with armoas to make even the laziest person roll out of bed. My Grandmother was and still is, one of the best cooks I've ever known and loved. Her meals are looked forward to. My Grandfather can make a biscuit look so good, covered with butter and preserves or jam or sorghum or maybe just butter. The kitchen in that old house was a happy place with a florescent light fixture that took a few seconds to light up and then how full of light and love that kitchen could seem!

My favorite place was the front porch with it's swinging chair. I can hear even now the old chains creaking and groaning as I sat and swung and looked at the country around me. I watched morning hazes burn off and leave such a brightness that I felt I could see for miles. I watched fireflies flit around that porch, sometimes hitting the screen with a thwang that made me glad they couldn't reach me!

I walked the roads around that house with a curiousity that wouldn't quit. Sometimes the day would be silent and all of a sudden my footsteps would be heard and hundreds of birds would arise simultaneously, breaking the silence, with their wings. I always breathed better, deeper, feeling the air was clean and good and healthy.

The land and the house are so much a part of my memories as are the two people who brought love and happiness to every inch of it, my Grandmother and Grandfather. They are in a new home now but that old house will always shelter them in my dreams.

To me they are as much a part of that house as the paint and wallpaper and wood. These memories will never leave me, nor will the love I feel for that special house and my grandparents.

Every citizen should be a soldier. This was the case with the Greeks and Romans, and must be that of every free state. Thomas Jefferson

Patriots JV Lose To Clarksville Tigers

By Jeff Morrison Defense was the key to the game Thursday night when the Patriot JV hosted the Clarksville Blue Tigers. Both teams were held to practically no offense in the first quarter. Cary Borden made two touchdown saving tackles after long chases and also picked off a pass to keep the Tigers in check. The Pat defense stayed tough in the second quarter too, with Donnie Gentry, Wes Winters, P.G. Morrison an Jack Kindle making key drive-ending tackles.

Clarksville offense finally made something happen and Antwine Gill crashed in from the two yard line to give the Tigers a 6-0 lead with 53 seconds remaining nin the half.

The Pat offense still couldn't get on track in the early portion of the third quarter, but the defense continued to rise to the occasion time after time. Finally the Patriots found a little "O' as quarterback Martin Babb hit Borden on passes of 11 and 9 yards. Steven Johnson also worked hard to get points on the board with runs of 7 and 11 yards before breaking loose on a 39-yard jaunt to the Tigers three yard line. The Tiger defense got tough though, and stopped the Patriots cold and re-took possession of the ball.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY Sweet Pea

Patriot defense the offense had to resort to the pass as time was running out. Fate just wasn't for the Patriots on this night, Tiger defender

After another good stand by the Curtis Edwards ended all hope as he picked off a pass and took it in for six with little more than 3:00 to play to end all scoring at 12-0.
