

Tourism Is Really Big Business In Texas

U.S. travelers spent a record $16 billion in Texas during 1985, a seven percent increase over 1984, another record year, the Texas Tourist Development Agency announced recently.

Statistics compiled by the U.S. Travel Data Center, Washington, D.C. for TTDA show once again that tourism is one of the state's top industries.

The 1985 figure "exceeds our projection for 1986, which is quite pleasing to the travel industry," said Larry Tod of Austin, TTDA executive director. He said the 1986 figures should be even higher due to the Sesquicentennial and favorable economic factors for travel.

"This increase indicates tourism added greatly to Texas' economy, including the state and local tax bases," Todd continued. "The indicators promise a bright future for the Texas tourist industry."

Out of state visitors in 1985 totaled 36.1 million, as compared with 37.6 million the previous year. TTDA has estimated that more than 40 million out of state visitors will come to the Lone Star State in 1986.

Total night visitors stayed in Texas in 1985 rose 3 percent over the previous year, from 168,040,000 to 172,700,000. The longer visitors stay in the state, the greater the tourist income, Todd noted.

The number of jobs generated by tourism in Texas increased 4.3 percent in 1985 to 278,099 as compared with a 2.9 percent increase in total state nonagricultural employment. Employees in these jobs earned more than $3.2 billion in wages, which also contributed to the state's economy.

Traveler spending brought in $477,227,000 in state taxes and $245,985,000 in local tax receipts. The state tax figure was approximately 4.1 percent of all state tax collections in 1985.

"Many people have the impression from movies and television that Texas is hot and arid, rocks and sand, and dusty with few trees," Todd said. "But those who come here learn about our beaches and forests and lakes and rivers and our varied climate. They learn one can, indeed have a big time in Texas."

That is the slogan TTDA will use to promote tourism through the end of 1986. Then the slogan will be "Another Big Time in Texas"

NICHOLS' WORTH

By: Nanalee Nichols

Halloween, it has its roots in antiquity, it's origins in superstition and it's modern form in trick or treating.

It is for many, a favorite holiday, evocative of evenings roaming town dressed in costumes which allow even children to become "someone else" for a time.

Perhaps it is so popular because there is nothing serious about it. There are no solemn moments in it!

Of course, such was not the case years ago, when the ancient Celts, or medieval peasant covered in their huts in abject terror of the spirits, haunts, evils and demons that they were convinced were out roaming around.

Once upon a time witches were "real", sorcerers had power, and "things that go bump in the night" were as terrifying as terrifying can possibly be.

But now Halloween is skeletons and ghosts, vampires and bats on doors, corn and pumpkins in front yards, and worlds of events for fun.

There are fall festivals, carnivals, community gatherings, church gatherings, contests, parties and displays.

When the weather is cool enough for fun, but not cold, when leaves are tumbling down, making a delightful scuffling noise under foot, then it's time for Halloween.

Although trick or treating in big towns is threatened by the wicked tricks of adults, in small towns it is still alive and well.

Little Rambos, ghosts, punks and goblins scamp from door to door, their parents secure in the knowledge of who their neighbors are.

Halloween is a holiday everyone not afraid to let their inhibitions loose can enjoy. Costume parties seem to be more popular than ever, and the opportunity for folks to get together and have fun is taken advantage of.

Halloween, it's this week, it's fun, so enjoy!

Patriots Fall To Paul Pewitt

By Thomas Nichols

There wasn't much solace for the Prairiland Patriots last Friday night at Patriot Stadium. The Paul Pewitt Brahms simply outlasted the Patriots, fourteen to zip.

The Brahms struck early in the first quarter. Daryl Turner for the Brahms rushed the Patriot line and zipped deep into Patriot territory before defensive back Benji Gooding wrapped him up and applied the brakes. The very next snap, Scott Turner claimed the ball and raced for the Patriot endzone. The point after was good and the Patriots trailed by seven.

The Patriots were forced to punt, after three downs, and the Pewitt Brahms claimed good field goal position at the Patriot 42-yard line.

The Patriot defense held. Brahman Tyrone Chism tried to run the pig to only be creamed by Wayne Couch and Jack Kindle. On second down, Chism tried again, and found Couch and Rusty Anderson waiting with the blockade. Unable to run, the Brahman's Robert Goodwin tried an air attack, to Daryl Turner, to only have Wayne Couch and Benji Gooding break the connection.

Just when things seemed to be going right for the Patriots, the Brahms recovered a Patriot fumble on their punt, and had first and goal inside the Patriot 10-yard line.

Lady Luck looked down on the Patriots, however, and a procedure penalty on the Pewitt Brahms moved the ball from the Patriot 2-yard line out to the seven. The next play, the Patriot line backed Tyrone Chism up for yet another yard loss. The next play, the Brahms fumbled their snap and Patriot Giovanni Scarnano scooped up the ball on the Patriot 5-yard line.

The Patriots looked impressive. Wade Sparks danced for a Patriot first down. Steven Johnson picked up eight yards. Craig Ladd carried for the first down. Johnson picked up another first down. Quarterback Jeff Fendley picked up a first and ten.

The rampant Patriots marched all the way to the Pewitt 7-yard line. There disaster struck. The Patriots fumbled. The Brahms recovered and the best drive of the game for the Patriots was ended.

The two teams played stalemate through the second quarter and at half time, the Patriots trailed by seven points.

The third quarter was a replay of the second quarter and the score was still seven to zip for the Brahms.

The fourth quarter was different. The final score came early, though. Brahman Tyrone Chism invaded the Patriot goal line for the final six points. The point after was good, and the Patriots trailed by 14 points with 11:14 left to play in the game.

Stalemate struck again, and consumed the remaining eleven plus minutes. When time had expired, the Patriots had to swallow shut-out number three in as many games.

This Friday night, the Patriots finish their home season against the Clarksville Tigers. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Defensive Players of the Week named were Rusty Anderson, Eric Foster and P. G. Morrison, while Jeff War General.

These two brothers have many descendants in the area, and they, as well as other interested persons, are invited to attend these two meetings.

Dr. Stephen H. Grant, who was a well-known physician in this area, was a grandson of Stephen Grant.

Slaton, Morris, Sparks And Mitchell Claim This Weeks Money

Second place went to Jeff Morrison of Blossom, who missed three games and said Paul Pewitt would win 20-13. Both Austin Sparks of Pattonville and Mark Mitchell of Deport missed Not winning any money, Reba Mitchell missed four games and said Paul Pewitt would win 30-24. Reba is from Deport.

Fendley was selected as Offensive Player of the Week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kent Wright were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Wright Friday night.

in and around Deport!

It was almost as if I were there. With your vast selection of words, your vivid description of the "little beauties" of the town, you should be a poetess. Maybe you are. You are an artist with words.

Thank you for making Saturday my day! We receive the Deport Times in our mailbox each Saturday morning and I look forward to it, eagerly.

Sincerely,
Hazel K. Ham

LOCKED UP-Susan Roach and Ann Allen were slammed into the calaboose last Friday by Reggie McDowra. The two were charged by Buddy Malone with

"stork stealing" and were among several local folks to have the law come and get them. Prairiland principal Gary Ballard was arrested, but had someone to make ball for him almost immediately. The whole thing was in good fun and to raise money for rewards at the Lamar County Crime Stoppers organization. (Staff Photo)

TRAIL RIDE-Perfect fall weather and a lazy Sunday afternoon made a great combination for a trail ride, as these Deport horsemen and horsewomen met near the Travis Talley home south of Deport and had a leisurely trail ride. (Staff Photo)

Dear Mrs. Nichols,
For almost a year now I have been reading and enjoying your column "Nichol's Worth". My husband, J.B. Ham, was given the Deport Times as a Christmas gift by his brother and wife, Ernest and Nanie Bell Ham. My husband grew up in that area and knows many of the people mentioned in the paper.

I especially enjoyed the last week's column. You did an excellent job of "painting" a picture (with words) with your description of the scenery interest on your savings?

PAYING HIGHER
service costs at banks?

LOSING
local control over banking?

SACRIFICING
service to the big banks' benefit?

YOU WILL HEAR A LOT FROM THE SO-CALLED CONVENIENCE BANKERS ABOUT PROPOSITION FOUR BUT YOU PROBABLY WILL NOT HEAR THIS:

The big banks of Texas hope to create a bank monopoly at your expense. Proposition Four has disguised branch banking as "full service banking". Whatever they call it - Branch Banking is a bad idea for Texas, and Texans will end up footing the bill for the big Texas bank holding companies to get bigger.

You especially don't want this to happen now since the Texas Legislature just passed a law permitting the large banks of New York City to purchase some or all of the large Texas bank holding companies. Not only can this legally happen now, but is almost certain to take place in the immediate future.

For all these years, Texans have never wanted or allowed the big banks of New York City to own and control the Texas Banking Industry. We are sure that this position by the people of Texas still has never changed.

Protect Your Interests And Your Pocketbook On Nov. 4.
