You've heard of the man without a country and the rebel without a cause. Have you heard about the woman without a place to write?

Well, that's me. I have no place to write...nothing to write on. How's that, you say? Well, let me explain.

I'm listed as the publisher and editor. Supposedly that means I'm at the "top". But the top is pretty low around our organization, and it seems everyone else has a shot at the machines before I do.

When we installed the new Mac system a year or two ago the typesetter got a terminal, and the ad layout department got a terminal. I didn't get one...we couldn't afford it.

So, I moaned a little, but kept right on pecking away on my old Smith-Corona portable. Whenever I managed to find someone away from their terminal I scooted over and set my stories on it...usually to look up and find someone glaring at me saying "I NEED my machine". Cindy in particular was always saying "Leave Timothy ALONE". (Timothy being "her" machine's name, mind you.)

Which was fine until the typewriter packed it in and broke.

They can't fix it. I'm not kidding...it's been to the shop 6 times now, and they can't fix it!

But I didn't worry about it too much, because around Christmas I located a used Mac terminal and bought it.

I gloated. I crowed, I rubbed it in! At last a terminal of my own. No one to tell me they needed it. No more waiting my turn.

Finally, a machine at my beck and call. I should have known better.

Because the hard drive on that machine turned up faulty. No problem, just ship it back...it's under warranty. That is, until the shipping company lost it!

So here I am...no typewriter...it's in the shop, apparently unfixable. No terminal...the hard drive is lost and we're waiting on "tracers".

No chance at the other terminals...everyone is as possessive as ever.

I'm reduced to the old paper and pencil method...which is slow to say the least.

No one will take pity on me...they just laugh at my slow scribbling.

Sooner or later I'm gonna get that terminal in shape...and I'll write when I want to, what I want to...and I won't have to wait on anybody!

But, for now, I remain a frustrated writer without a place, or the equipment, to write with!

SATURDAY Is Prairiland FFA's BIG DAY!!

This Saturday, March 31, is Prairiland FFA's big day for fundraising, livestock judging and a host of other events.

One of the changes this year is that instead of having a stew cook off, there will be something unique, a barbeque cookoff. Anyone interested in donating a brisket for this first-time-ever event, may do so by contacting one of the Ag teachers.

The barbeque will be served later in the day, from 5 until 6:30 p.m. at a supper. Tickets will be $3.00, and can be purchased in advance from FFA members or may be purchased at the door.

The schedule for the day is as follows:

8 a.m. Market Animal Weigh-in
9 a.m. Livestock Judging begins
4 p.m. Barbeque Judging
4:30 p.m. Pig Wrestling
5-6:30 Barbeque Supper
6-7 p.m. Entertainment By FFA
..... Talent Team & Others
7 p.m. Fund Raising Auction

Everyone is invited to come out for the judging, the fantastically funny pig wrestling, the barbeque judging, supper, auction, entertainment or any portion of the above events!

It's always a fun day, and it's also the chapter's major fundraising event.

Ag teachers Buddy Freeman, Frankie Norwood and Bobby Winters say that they would like to ask once again for the tremendous support of the community, and to offer a big "Thank You" to all those who have helped, and have contributed items to the auction.

Still Time To Win An Easter Basket Deport Easter Egg Hunt Is April 7

Prize eggs will be hidden along with the regular eggs, and there are lots of toys and prizes to be given away.

The age groups will be infants to age 4, ages 5 to 7 and ages 8 to 10.

Everyone with children, grandchildren or knowing of a child who might enjoy the excitement and thrills of searching for hidden "treasure" is urged to bring that youngster or youngsters to the north end of Main Street in Deport for what has become a yearly event that is fun for young and old alike.

There's still time to make a $1 donation and receive a chance to win a beautiful easter basket too, so stop by City Drug Store and do so.

Commissioners Court Nixs Proposal On Constable

In Commissioner's Court Monday the Commissioner's nixed a proposal that City Councilman Eric Pearson had carried to them from Deport several weeks ago, in which the city had proposed supplementing Precinct One Constable Randy Boren's pay by about $300 per month in order to help with the cost of his patrols.

The Court said that the court had not been presented with an actual contract so "I think there is still some doubt as to exactly what we would be binding ourselves to. Although, of course, we would have input into the contract too."

Troy Owens, Pct. 1 Commissioner commented that he didn't think that it would really be something that would be good for the county to enter into, in his opinion.

Grand Jury Hands Down Misdemeanor Indictment

Lamar County Sheriff Gene Burns was indicted last week by the Grand Jury for a Class C misdemeanor charge resulting from charges filed by Pct. 1 Constable Randy Boren.

Boren had asked that charges of official misconduct be brought, but the Grand Jury reduced the charge to a lesser charge, which holds a maximum penalty of a $200 fine if a conviction occurred, according to County Attorney Tom Wells.

The case will be heard by Justice of the Peace Fred Nutt, and no definite date has been set for the proceedings.

Burns has said he would plead "not guilty" to the charges, which result from an incident alleged to have occurred in January of 1989.

Karen Hudson Receives National Recognition

The United States Achievement Academy announced today that Karen Hudson has been named a United States National Collegiate Award Winner in nursing. This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes less than 10% of all American college students.

Karen, who attends Paris Junior College, was nominated for this national award by Marcia Putman, an instructor at the school. She will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Collegiate Yearbook, published nationally.

The Academy selects USAA winners upon the exclusive recommendation of professors, coaches, counselors or other school sponsors and upon the standards of selection set forth by the Academy. Criteria for selection are a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability and recommendation for a professor or director.

Karen is the daughter of Billie Pirtle and the late Kenneth Pirtle of Bogata. The grandparents are Ora Pirtle and the late Jim Pirtle of Johtown and the late Sterlon and Bertha Landrum of Paris. She is married to Brad Hudson of Deport and they have two children, Brandon, age 8, and Kami, age 6.
