By Nanalee Nichols

Christmas is over. Most of us breathe a sigh of relief. As much as we love the season, we still had so much to do. Now it is done and it's easy to get "down in the dumps". After all the excitement, rushing around and family visiting it all comes to a screeching halt. We feel exhausted, let down and rather empty.

Here at our place of business we are left with wierd, incomplete feelings that something is wrong. Because of the mid-week holidays, both Christmas and New Years, we have to change up our publication and mailing schedule. Our readers don't care for this. We care for it even less.

Add in to this the annual newspaper sale winding down and it's hard not to feel stressed and depressed. We've burned more midnight oil than a refinery. We're tired. Don't get me wrong, I'm not complaining. It's nice too.

But sitting at my desk writing check for taxes, bills and postage I found myself getting lower and lower. Our biggest edition of the year was done.

Our year was ending. Our gift giving was through. More for distraction than anything else I found my mind wandering ahead to what day Christmas might fall on NEXT year.

With relief I noted that it would be a Friday...a wonderful boon that would keep us from having to juggle such a frantic schedule!

Since the calendar had '93 and '94 on it I looked at them too.

With delight I realized that it would be four years before we had to dread another mid-week publication.

And, with that simple thought I realized how useless our post-Christmas blues really are.

Without consciously knowing it my mind was placing faith in the next four years....just as it should.

In a flash all my worries about what the future might hold were gone.

My subconscious had prompted me to look ahead instead of simply worrying.

My subconscious knew best. It does no good to worry about the future. Work towards it... surely.

But the very things we usually spend time worrying about don't usually come true anyway so why bother!

So, I put my worries away in a mental "File 13" (the trash) and got on with doing my work.

It was so simple as soon as I gave a little thought to what looking ahead four years on the calendar meant!

Happy New Year, everyone.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

As another great year comes to a close, we'd like to extend our warm wishes and heartfelt thanks to all the good folks we've had the privilege to know and serve.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Backward Glances From 1953

By Nanalee Nichols

From Deport Times, Dec. 24, 1953

Deport Volunteer Firemen were enjoying their annual turkey dinner with families and invited guests when the fire siren sounded.

Putting fire fighting before food the volunteer rushed out to the scene of the fire, which was the Jeff Hancock Service Station at Bogata.

Work was to begin Dec. 28 on the Red River Bridge at Albion on Hwy. 37 North of Clarksville.

A new electric power line was in service from the junction of TPL south of Pattonville. Construction of a new FM road from Pattonville to Blossom would have necessitated moving the old line, so a new one was built and the old one will be torn down.

The first day of winter made its advent with a mist and cold air mass which sent temperatures into the 25 degree range.

It was mentioned that nature had done a really good job of decorating the lawn at the Presbyterian church in Deport. The pyracantha bushes in the front flower bed were loaded with bright red berries. Rev. Joe Everheart, pastor and great lover of flowers, had enhanced the colorful berries by adding a background of dark shrubs and putting out night time lights to highlight them.

Among those on the Deport High School Honor Roll:

Rep. L.P. Patterson Running For Reelection

Representative L.P. (Pete) Patterson, D-Brookston, announced he will run for reelection to the Texas House of Representatives. He is currently serving his eighth term. His current district is comprised of Delta, Fannin, Hopkins and Lamar counties.

Rep. Patterson is chairman of the Committee on Agriculture and Livestock. He is also a member of the legislature's Financial Institutions Committee and has been most visible and vocal legislative leader in protecting small business and consumer interests in the changing financial environment.

"I appreciate all your past support," Rep. Patterson said to the voters of his district, "and I would appreciate your continued support."

Patriots Pick Up Third Win Against Chisum, Fall To Bonham

By David Singleton

The Patriot boys found the going tough at Chisum Tuesday evening, but a persistent defense proved to be the key to a 39-33 Pat win.

Strong outside shooting by point guard Swede Ladd paced the Patriots to an 11-9 first quarter lead. Toby Dockray's 15 foot jumper and postman Cody Bowen's bank shot off the glass opened the lead to 15-11. But the Mustangs struck from the outside to regain the lead at the half, 21-19.

Chisum opened a 27-21 lead in the third before Justin Withers and Ladd combined for five points to close the third 29-26, Mustangs.

But the fourth quarter belonged to the Pats with Dockray hitting a trey, and Bowen scoring four inside to open a 37-31 lead with 1:50 left. The Mustangs could manage only two more points and the Patriots earned their third win of the season. Ladd led with 11 while Bowen and Dockray had 7 each.

Friday's action found the Patriots in Bonham to challenge the Warriors on their home court. But the Warriors opened a quick 9-0 lead, capitalizing on Patriot turnovers. Cody Bowen's three point play brought the Pat. to within six at 9-3. A Wes Rhoades' jumper and a trey by Justin Gordon pulled the Pats to 9-8. But Bonham countered and the quarter closed 19-11 Warriors.

Both teams traded buckets in the second quarter, and Bowen's rebound off the glass pulled the Pats to 29-20. Fine outside shooting by the Warriors, coupled with repeated foul calls on the Pats, opened a wide 42-26 Bonham advantage at the half.

The third quarter found the Patriots deep in foul trouble, and with 1:45 left, David Singleton fouled out. The Warriors were near perfect from the charity stripe, and the quarter ended 68-35, Bonham.

Back to back three pointers by Ladd and a deuce by sophomore Brock Blessingame brought the Pats to within 30 at 77-47. The lead proved to be too great, and Bonham posted an 81-49 win.

Lady Pats Fall To Lady Warriors, Win Over Chisum

By David Singleton

The Lady Patriots were defeated in overtime recently by the Idabel Lady Warriors, 47-46.

Jan Scudder and Laura Hays gave the Lady Pats a 6-0 jump on the Warriors before they hit a trey. The quarter ended 10-3.

Dana Monday took charge with four points to start another quarter. Then Mandy Babb and Scudder finished it off with a 25-7 score, Patriots.

The Lady Warriors came out fighting to get the score to 33 all. The Pats picked up fouls and the game was handed to Idabel for the first time, 37-35.

Scudder and Hays tied the game at 39, but Hays fouled out. This led to a Warrior lead 43-41. Then Scudder hit a jumper to tie the game and send it into extra minutes.

Both teams exchanged points, but the Warriors hit a last second shot to upset the Pats.

The Lady Pats took the game on Tuesday night against the Chisum Mustangs 62-50.

Melissa Miller started the game with a quick two points to tie the game. Then Jan Scudder and Laura Hayes gave the Pats a 10-2 lead but Chisum turned their play around and got within four.

In the second quarter, Scudder, Davonna Brumley and Dana Monday all hit to keep the Patriots lead at the halftime.

As play resumed, Scudder and Brumley again took charge, and boosted the Pats lead to 46-34.

Monday and Miller helped finish the game, increasing the score to 58-46 with little time left on the clock. The game ended 62-50.

Scudder led with 23; followed by Miller with 12 and Monday with 10.

TESTING, TESTING-Deport volunteer firemen tested the new dry fire hydrant installed at the home of Thomas and Nanalee Nichols. The hydrant is located in a pool and will provide nearly instant water in case of fire. A number of projects are underway to help get these hydrants installed in rural areas. It is to be hoped that the Texas Insurance Board will soon see fit to give an insurance rate discount to areas with these beneficial hydrants. Many states already are. (Staff Photo by Nanalee Nichols)

VERY OLD SCENE-this scene of Deport is fascinating. It is obviously taken before most of the present structures were built. Old timers say that the cotton on the wagons was for sale, and that it was the fall of the year. Anyone who could add anything such as an approximate year or identification of buildings or people is asked to phone us here at the times office at 652-4205. David Teague submitted this photograph.

Country Cooking

By Gerrie Bankhead

The Country Cooking article is coming to you this week from the dining room of Kathryn and Grady Wright. They have been married for 45 years and have lived the past 14 years in Deport and the previous 13 years in Blossom.

Grady and Kathryn have four children: Mike, wife Sharon and child, Dakota of Blossom; Pam Hunt and husband Ken and Brad, Bob and Troy of Deport; Kyle and wife Lisa, Jamie, Katie and Kandi of Deport; and Kent, wife Ann and Brandon of Pattonville. The Wrights attend the New Hope Baptist Church in Paris.

Kathryn's hobbies include growing plants, reading country magazines, playing 42 with family and friends, entertaining on special occasions and holidays and cooking. She loves to spend time with her grandchildren and her mother, who is in the Deport Nursing Home.

Kathryn's favorite things to cook are desserts.

As I stepped into her home, I could smell the fresh, baked desserts that had the air smelling or Christmas-time.

Kathryn said she doesn't have any traditional foods to prepare for Christmas, she likes to cook new recipes she collects during the year. She also enjoys baking and preparing for showers and dinners at the church.

Egg Custard

By Kathryn Wright
4 slightly beaten eggs
2 1/2 cups milk, scalded
1 9" unbaked pastry shell
1/4 tsp. salt
1/2 cup sugar

Thoroughly mix eggs, sugar, salt and vanilla. Slowly stir in hot milk. At once, pour into unbaked pastry shell. Dash top with nutmeg. Bake in very hot oven, 475, for five minutes. Reduce heat to 425 and bake until custard sets.

Creamy Pralines

3 cups sugar
3/4 cup white Karo syrup
1 1/2 tsp. vanilla
2 1/2 cups pecans
1 1/2 cups homogenized milk
1 pinch soda
3/4 stick Parkay margarine or butter
Cook sugar, milk and soda and karo over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture reaches soft ball stage. Test in cold water, even if you use a candy thermometer and remove from heat as soon as a small amount forms a soft ball in cold water. After removing mixture from heat source, add vanilla and margarine or butter. Stir until candy begins to hold its shape, then stir in pecans and drop onto buttered cookie sheet. Cooking time is extremely important. Cook too long and mixture will be too hard—for too short a time and the candy will not hold its shape.

Crock Pot Mexican Dinner

2 lbs. ground meat
1 can cream of mushroom soup
1 can Ro-Tel tomatoes
tortilla chips or nacho chips
1 medium onion, chopped
1 can enchilada sauce
1 lb. American cheese, grated
Brown ground meat with chopped onion. Place in crock pot on low setting. Heat soup, tomatoes and enchilada sauce and add to crock pot, along with cheese. Let cook several hours or all day. About 20 minutes before serving, mix in desired amount of chips. This makes a complete meal when served with green salad.

Brown Sugar Delites

2 sticks margarine
1 tsp. baking soda
1/4 tsp. salt
6-12 oz. hocolate chips
2 large eggs
4 cups flour
1 tsp. vanilla
2 cups brown sugar, packed
1 cup nuts, chopped
Cream sugar and margarine together. Add eggs and vanilla and mix well. Add flour, soda and salt and mix well. Stir in nuts and chocolate chips. Form into small balls on lightly greased cookie sheet. Bake at 325 to 350 until lightly browned.

Cheese Cake

Crust and topping:
2 pkgs. from a box of graham crackers,

rolled fine
1/4 lb. margarine, melted
Mix together and line bottom of 9x13x2" pan with 1/2 of the mixture. Press down firmly.

Filling:
Chill one large can of pet milk in freezer until very cold. Beat to the consistency of whipped cream. Set aside.
Beat together:
8 oz. pkg. Philadelphia Cream Cheese
1 cup sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
Combine the cream cheese mixture with whipped milk. Set aside.
Mix on pkg. lemon jello in 1/2 cup boiling water and place in bowl of ice water to thicken. As soon as the mixture begins to thicken, beat it until foamy and add to cream cheese/whipped milk mixture. Pour mixture over graham cracker mixture in the pan. Top with remaining graham cracker mixture. Chill.

Easy Chocolate Ice Cream

1/2 gallon chocolate milk
1 can Eagle Brand milk
1-12 oz. carton Cool Whip
Pour in one gallon ice cream freezer and finish filling with homogenized milk. Freeze.

Lemon Bars

1 cup soft margarine
2 1/4 cups flour, divided
4 eggs, beaten
2 cups sugar
dash of salt
1/3 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup powdered sugar
1 tsp. baking powder
Combine margarine, 2 cups flour, 1/2 cup powdered sugar, blend until smooth. Press into greased 13x9x2 baking dish, forming 1/2" sides around the pan. Bake at 300 about 30 minutes or until lightly browned.

Combine beaten eggs, sugar and lemon juice and mix well. Add 1/4 cup flour, salt and baking powder. Beat well and pour over pastry. Bake at 300 for 30-40 minutes. Sprinkle with powdered sugar.
Buttermilk Cake
1 cup Crisco
3 cups flour
1 cup buttermilk
3 cups sugar
1/4 tsp. soda
1 tsp. vanilla
6 eggs
1/2 tsp. salt
Cream sugar and shortening. Separate eggs; add one egg yolk at a time to sugar and shortening, beating after each addition. Sift dry ingredients together. Add to first mixture alternately with buttermilk. Beat egg whites and fold in ast. Bake in greased and floured tube pan at 325 for about one hour and 10 minutes.

Bruce Linden of Lewisville and Bill Westbrook of Salt Lake City, Utah; a sister, Mrs. Belle Griffin of Deer Park and five grandchildren.

Bearers were Hobert Loven, Gordon Isbell, Marlin Foster, Charles Langston, Duane Glover and Johnny Dawson.

Deport Nursing Home News

The kindergarten classes of Mrs. Freeman and Mrs. Watson from Deport Elementary visited the home on December 19. They sang Jingle Bells, Up On The Housetop and many more Christmas favorites. The residents really enjoyed the show and appreciate the children coming.

Thursday afternoon, all the local churches along with many friends and volunteers joined together for a combination birthday and Christmas party. Leading with the entertainment was the House of Prayer. Lela Kinslow and Carolyn Nichols performed several beautiful songs, accompanied on the piano by Lorenda Stogsdill. A children's trio composed of Mathew Nichols, Blake Stogsdill and Kyle Kinslow serenaded the group with Jingle Bell's and other Christmas songs. Ladies and gentlemen from every church brought a large variety of cakes, fruit and candy and served the residents. When everyone was full and happy, Susie Kelsey delivered the devotional.

Denise Isbell visited her great-grandmother, Rosa Holley, Saturday afternoon.

Waylon Wolf of Clarksville visited Mrs. Geneva Loveless.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Roach, Beth and Sheyanne of Milton visited Mrs. Johnnie Warren on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C.D. Patterson of Dallas visited Mrs. Bertie Foster, also Ruth Cheatham visited this past week.

Burrell Kincaid, Pat Talley, Mary Johnson and Lorene Kilgore visited

Lilly Mae and Betty Gardner. Jeannie Burns and Edith Fuller visited Elizabeth Barnett last week. Welcome to Frankie Archibald, a new resident here at the home. We wish John Sawyer and David Geer a speedy recovery. Visiting Mrs. Grace McHam the past week were Ruby Jones, Cathy Pavagear, Casey Mitchell, Paula Gunn, Howard Higdon, Vada Mae Hoover and Maxine Foster.

3 good reasons to buy a high efficiency heat pump now

- Comfort
- Year-round savings
- Up to a $275 rebate

If you need a new central heating and cooling system, consider choosing the year-round comfort and energy savings of a heat pump.

Only a heat pump can heat and cool your home efficiently.

As an added incentive to buy a heat pump, Texas-New Mexico Power Company will pay you a rebate of $275 for purchasing a heat pump with a Seasonal Energy Efficiency Ratio (SEER) greater than 12.0. Smaller rebates, starting at $200 for heat pumps with a 10.5 SEER, are also available.

Rebates are also available for high efficiency central air conditioning units.

For more information, call or visit your local TNP office.

Familiar Faces

By Nanalee Nichols

Marilyn Glover is most often seen behind the counter at City Drug Store in Deport. She's a third generation pharmacist, and shares duties at the pharmacy with her dad, Duane.

Her grandfather Curtis is retired from the same business, and her brother, David, is a pharmacist in the Dallas area!

Also in the medical profession is sister, Betsy, a registered nurse.

Marilyn also serves as the "head honcho" at the variety store, which is connected to the Drug Store. She is a savvy gal about the needs of local people, and saves many a mile of travel for locals who can buy their fencing, plumbing and carpentry supplies from the variety store instead of having to drive to a larger town.

As well as that type of thing the variety store stocks robes and gowns, kitchen ware, dishes, stationary and a grand variety of other items! Marilyn keeps a close eye on local buying patterns and makes sure it's stocked with what people need.

As well as being a familiar face as a businesswoman, she serves in another, more unusual capacity.

Marilyn is the Deport Volunteer Fire Department's first and only female member. Like her father, she is a devoted member of the department, and seldom misses a call.

As if this wasn't enough to keep her busy, she tends to a herd of cattle. A small flock of sheep also occupy some of her time "just for fun" she grins.

All in all Marilyn Glover is another one of Deport's busy, well-rounded women who enjoy what they do.

FAMILIAR FACE-Marilyn Glover is a familiar face in Deport. As one of the two pharmacists, she is seen by many...as

Deport's only female fire fighter, she is well known also. (Staff Photo by Nanalee Nichols)

Deport Locals

of Temple; David and Kay Slaton of Waco and his children, Jamie and Amber Slaton of Lake Creek; and Johnny and Kathy Holt, Chris and Renea of Milton. Her mother, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Anderson of Post Oak also attended.

Mrs. Francis Franklin, her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Canard (Delores) Norwood of Katy and their children, Rickey and Pam Norwood and Hailey of Cunningham and Teresa and John Mowery of Dimple celebrated Christmas at her home Monday night.
