Potpourri is made up of bits and pieces. Bits and pieces have come to my mind this week, but no one idea has worked its way to the forefront enough to be dominant.

So, I guess this column can be a potpourri of little thoughts this week.

It snowed...did anyone notice? Sure they did. And it was interesting to observe people's various reactions. Some folks were thrilled, others, hated the idea of snowfall. Didn't get enough to make the world a winter wonderland though, did we? Still, for those in favor of report says there could be some more coming.

What we do have plenty of right now is...Mud...anyone who lives even remotely in the country is all too familiar with mud these days. All the rainfall has turned the world into a mire.

Our winter landscape is bare and stark...and very wet. Cows have "blackleg". No, not the disease, but a coating of mud from slugging around in pastures that contain ground more like jelly than soil.

How's this for a cheery little thought...If you make one decision an hour each business day, you'll stick your neck out 1,960 times in 1992!

Now that amounts to a whole lot of chances to foul up, doesn't it! And, most people have to make more than one decision per hour, I think.

Oh well, the only way to keep from making a mistake is never to do anything.

A rather disturbing fact...the average age of the American Farmer is now 58. By the end of this century it is expected to be 65!

Did anyone notice the spectacular sunset Monday night? While deep, almost threatening clouds filled the sky the sun made a final effort and painted the horizon with hues of deepest amber, red and orange. It was truly spectacular.

How many of those "New Years Resolutions" have already been broken? They surely are difficult to keep aren't they?

How's all of this for "bits and pieces". My brain jumps around as if it had jumping beans inside!

Well, hopefully by next week it will have settled into a more creative frame of mind. For this week, that's all folks!

Citizens Raising Money For Video Camera To Go In Constable's Car

A number of donations have already been received, and several fundraisers have been scheduled towards the purchase of a special video recorder unit to go in the Pct. 1 Constable's vehicle.

This camera would become the property of whoever served as Pct. 1 Constable. Currently that office is held by Constable Randy Boren.

A series of community meetings and fundraisers will be announced in the near future to raise money for this camera, and to raise campaign funds for Boren, spokesman Reggie McDowd said.

The video camera is becoming more and more a useful and important tool as more and more law enforcement officers have them. In DWI, wrecks, family disturbances and other law enforcement areas the cameras are invaluable.

The camera can be installed in minutes, and runs of a 12 volt car system and plugs into the cigarette lighter. It does not interfere with communications or radar, and can be removed for interviewing people or filing an entire accident scene.

The law enforcement official can change the camera angle to point in almost any direction and it comes with a remote wireless microphone which can record sound up to 1,500 feet away from the vehicle.

One thing the camera is doing, according to DPS Captain David McEathron, is to increase the DWI conviction rate tremendously. It brings evidence right into the courtroom. According to McEathron, when DWI defendant's attorneys learn that the prosecution has an officer's video tape he quickly advises his client to plead guilty. This reduces court case backlogs.

The recordings eliminate situation where a law enforcement officer's word is against the defendant's.

The cameras are the result of Brazos County Attorney Jim Kuboviak. Back in 1988 he purchased two video cameras for four officers, two of them DPS troopers, for a pilot study in DWI prosecution. AETNA Insurance and Mothers Against Drunk Drivers (MADD) donated 50 cameras to DPS/TLE. The early camcorders were big, mounted behind the trooper's head and shoulders. Now they are much smaller, and mount on the dash board of the vehicle.

They cost about $1600.

More and more Highway Patrolmen have them now, and they serve to help in convictions, reduce court costs and also as a deterrent. Nation-wide several grim scenes of murder including the murder of a Nacogdoches constable, have been recorded on the cameras. They have tremendous impact in the courtroom.

Nation-wide law enforcement officials are installing these cameras as one of the biggest boons to patrolling ever.

The benefits to constables, county officials, or city police and citizens are obvious.

Paris city Police are budgeting the cameras and hope to have them soon.

The date for these community meetings will be announced in a later edition of the paper.

members.

Members were also informed that not all states have the same laws pertaining to this subject, and if a person had a living will in one state and moved to another a new will should be prepared.

Weather Preventing Trail Street Repairs

The Deport City Council discussed and budgeted repairs to Trail Street at their regular meeting Monday night. However, repairs cannot begin until better weather.

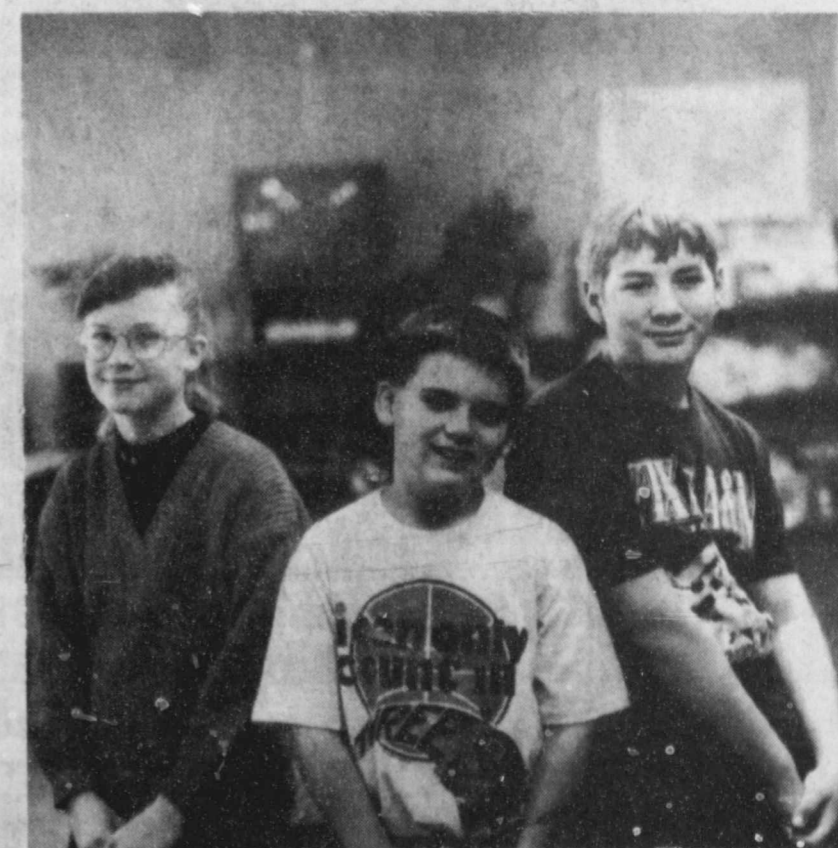

The council also accepted an official Job Description, and decided that businesses and places with cafeterias would be informed about Sewer Ordinance 1982-005 concerning grease traps. This ordinance, the council decided, will be enforced in the future.

The council held a discussion concerning the complaints that are still being received about stray dogs. Numerous dogs are untagged, and allowed to roam the streets freely.

McClanahan and Holmes was selected to do the 1991 audit.

Speed Detector To Be Used

The Texas Department of Public Safety soon will be using a hand-held laser speed detector in its traffic law enforcement efforts.

The laser devices cannot be picked up by conventional radar detectors and will make a significant impact on efforts to slow down Texas drivers.

The laser, which weighs four pounds and is similar in appearance to hand-held radar units commonly used by law enforcement, was donated to the DPS by GEICO Insurance Co. The device transmits a narrow beam of infrared light instead of the microwave beam used by traditional radar units.

Girl Scout Cookie Sale Continues

Girl Scouts will continue taking orders for Girl Scout cookies through January 24, with delivery dates set for February 21 through March 5.

A new cookie, the Praline Royale, is making its debut this year. "This cookie is soft and chewy with a melt in your mouth praline middle," said Kristie Mills, volunteer council coordinator for the sale.

Other varieties include the old favorites, Caramel DeLites, Thin Mints, Peanut Butter Sandwiches, Shortbread, Lemon Pastry Cremes and Peanut Butter Patties. The seven varieties will again be offered at $2.25 per box.

Each Girl Scout will be selling cookies to help raise funds for activities such as camping, council wide events, and badge workshops, said Mills. Proceeds of the annual cookie sale help individual members and the local council meet their goals.

In addition, she said, this sale offers young girls valuable communication and sales experience, and an opportunity to develop their self-confidence. Before selling cookies, the girls practice safety procedures and discuss sales techniques. It also helps them learn about money management, budgeting, goal setting and planning; all valuable business skills that can be useful to them in later life.

If you are not contacted by a Girl Scout for your order, phone the local cookie chairman, Irene Bryant at 982-6176 or call the council office in Paris at 784-0803.

Post 3990 Auxiliary Meets

The Ladies Auxiliary to Post 3990 of Reno met January 7 with Laverne Williams presiding. Thirty-two members attended.

Nursing home chairpersons gave reports on the activities held during the month at seven nursing homes the auxiliary sponsors. At Christmas, 800 Christmas stockings were filled with fruit and given to patients during the annual Christmas party. The yearly Christmas at the Post 3990 was Deember 19 with approximately 75 members' children enjoying the party with Santa Claus giving each a gift. Twenty-three Christmas baskets were filled with turkey and the trimmings and given to the needy. Twelve of these were given to Veterans and their families. Some of the baskets had gifts for children if that family had children.

The Ladies Auxiliary to Post 3990 sponsors an annual Christmas party at the Bonham Va hospital. Four hundred canteen books were purchased and gave to each veteran. They use the books to purchase items they may need at the store on the grounds at the hospital. The next Bonham trip will be January 20 and volunteers will leave the K-Mart parking lot at 6 p.m.

Twenty-one life memberships to the VFW National Home in Eaton Rapids, MI were given to members of the Ladies Auxiliary and to some of the ladies' spouses. National Home takes care of children whose parents were veterans and are deceased. Through donations from the Auxiliaries from over the US it is made possible for them to receive an education and all their needs are taken care of by National Home.

JoAnn Faulkner gave a report on Legislation concerning the Veteran Hospitals. These Hospitals were set up for the veteran and now President Bush is wanting the needy non-veteran to get care at these facilities. At present the veteran is not getting the care they need due to the number of eligible veterans already using the care facility. The families of the veteran cannot get care of any of the VA hospitals. We are asking all members to write President Bush about our concerns.

Pat Friday, RN from St. Joseph's Hospital will give a presentation on mammograms and how to check yourself on December 17 at 7:30 p.m. at the Post home. All members are urged to attend.

The next meeting will be January 21 at 8 p.m.

Lady Pats Take Lady Buffaloes, 45-40

By David Singleton

Starting the game, the Lady Buffs jumped the gun with a 6-1 lead over the Lady Patriots. Jan Scudder and Melissa Miller helped the Patriots to within one point before Hugo doubled their score. The Pats again found themselves one point behind at the quarter end.

In the second quarter, Dana Monday and Scudder teamed to pass the Lady Buffs. The score was 20-18 at the halftime, in favor of the Lady Pats.

As play resumed, the Buffs took the lead 24-20 with six minutes still left in the quarter. This gave the Pats a chance to get organized and head a charge to take a crucial lead, 31-26. Miller and Katie Mowery added to the total and the scoreboard read 45-40 at the game-ending buzzer.

Dana Monday contributed 15 for the Lady Pats while Scudder made ten.

The Lady Patriots met Rains in their first game of District play, and came away with a loss.

Dana Monday and Katie Mowery put the Pats in the driver's seat with the score at 5-2. Rains started slow, but showed up before the quarter ended. Monday and Jan Scudder boosted the Pats score but the Rains Wildcats led 14-11 at the end of the quarter.

The Lady Wildcats dominated the second quarter, with the Pats only scoring eight points before halftime. The Cats led 27-19.

In the third quarter, Monday and Laura Hays scored to cut Rains' 10 point lead in half. Scudder, Davonna Brumley and Georjeana Oats contributed but it left the score 33-31. The Lady Pats couldn't control the jumpers the Wildcats were hitting in the point, and the game ended with Rains on top 55-47.

Patriots Take DeKalb, Lose To McKinney

By David Singleton

The Prairiland Varsity boys came away with a nail-biter at DeKalb last Monday night. Toby Dockray and Swede Ladd combined to give the Pats a 5-0 lead. But the DeKalb Bears tied the score at 7-7. Wesley Rhoades converted one at the charity stripe to give the Patriots a 12-9 first quarter lead.

The Bears came back fast in the second, and they opened a three point lead at 17-14. Both teams traded buckets and Rhoades and Justin Withers combined for four to take the Pats to the lockers leading 27-26.

The third quarter saw the lead change four times, and the stanza ended 42 all.

Ladd opened the final quarter with seven straight points, but the Bears fought back and took the lead with 1:30 left, 56-55. But four free throws in the final minute by postmen Cody Bowen and David Singleton sealed the victory at 59-58. Swede Ladd led the Patriots with 16, while Singleton contributed 14 and Bowen had 11.

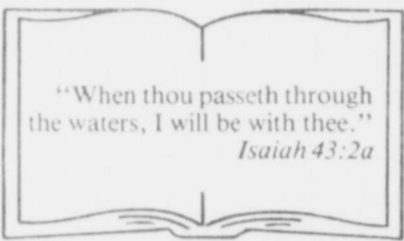

On Friday night, the Pats faced a tough 4A powerhouse in the McKinney Lions.

Wes Rhoades opened the game with a banker off the glass. The lead changed four times before McKinney went up by four at 15-11.

The second quarter found the Pats pulling to within two at 15-13, but the home team would never again be close. The Lions scored inside to open a 42-26 halftime lead.

Justin Gordon's three pointer brought the Patriots to within 13 at 42-29, but the Lions were off to the races and eventually won 79-43. Wes Rhoades led the Patriots with a strong 14, followed by Ladd, Singleton and Gordon with 7 each.

Young Farmer Endowment Program Explained

By Paul D. Payne
The Texas Young Farmer Endowment Program is still weeks away from being in its final form, however, the initial rules have been approved by the Texas Agricultural Finance Authority, and they have been published in the Texas Register. During this 30-day comment program, individuals may make written comments.
The program is not designed to assist existing full time operators, and in fact, an applicant cannot have generated more than 15% of their adjusted gross income from farming or ranching in any of the previous four years. If this definition of an eligible applicant remains in the final program, then the vast majority of the individuals who have had questions on this program in the county would not be eligible.

As the program now stands, there will be two application periods each year. Application deadline for the first period would be the first Monday in October and the second would be the first Monday in April.
Let me emphasize that the above comments are "proposed" and not final. It could very well be that some of these could be changed as a result of the present comment period.

Old Books Provide Unique Hobby

By Thomas Nichols
 Marlin Foster of Deport has a rather unique hobby. He collects old books. Marlin has over fifty books, some of which date back to before 1900!

Marlin's collection included Bibles, McGuffey's First Reader (very rare), a Buck Rodgers Comic Book, a Tractor drawing by J.G. Brook which was patented in 1913, a Watkins Almanac from 1913, and a Rawleigh's Almanac.

Cookbooks and medical guides, a History of the United States which was published in 1827 (has that ever changed) Blueback Spelling Book and many more.

The books are fascinating, provide a look backwards in time to what life was like in earlier days.

One of the most interesting items in his collection is a report card and record book from the old Lone Oak school, dated 1913-14.

The school description was "a wood building valued at $500 and furniture valued at $100 and a budget of $70 per month or $428 for a term, consisting of 119 days."

Classes offered were: Agriculture, two boys and eight girls; Algebra, one girl; Arithmetic, all; Civics, none; Composition, one girl; Drawing, all; Geography, eight boys, twenty girls; Geography Physical one girl; Grammar, three boys and nine girls; Texas History, three boys and five girls; U.S. History, three boys and eleven girls; Language Lessons, five boys, five girls; Nature Study, Physiology, two boys, six girls; All students were taking Reading, Spelling and Writing.

Marlin also has in his possession button hooks, boot hooks and various other old artifacts.

Most of these things came from old houses or sales.

Marlin is always willing to share these old books with people, showing off the various articles with pride.

He and his wife, Billie Mac have recently moved to a new home in Deport, and the books, along with the other mementoes of by-gone days, were carefully packed to make the journey, and as he comes across new items, Marlin will be adding them to his library from the past.
