It isn't supposed to happen to those of us who don't have children!

What do they call it? "Empty Nest Syndrome" I think.

Oh, sure, we've known that many of our class mates children have graduated from high school several years ago. We've known that many of our class mates are now grandparents.

But, somehow, it just isn't the same.

Each year we open our graduation invitations and say, very casually "Gosh, it doesn't seem like they should be graduating from high school".

But this year was different. The envelope came, addressed to the two of us, and I opened it, sliding the North Lamar graduation invitation out.

It wasn't until I opened the invitation and saw, there in black and white the words "Jeffery Travis King" engraved that it hit me so hard.

Almost immediately I flashed back to the night that young man was born.

Walking up and down the road in Fulbright at 11:00 at night, flipping through the pages of a book to discover when we should go to the hospital, worrying and waiting I kept her company until Dicky got off work.

And, here we were, faced with the fact that the boy was graduating from high school.

Seventeen years, almost eighteen have passed since then...and it just doesn't seem possible.

How could this chubby little boy who used to love to swing his bare feet from the pickup tailgate have turned into the tall, slim young man who will graduate?

What happened to the baby whose first words were "Plop, plop, fizz fizz" from the Alka-Seltzer commercial?

Where did the kid we carried to air shows go to? What happened to the little boy who would argue with a fence post?

Gone, but not forgotten, his childhood is past.

And, while I'm aware that this feeling of time shock isn't at all original or unusual, I still never expected to have it hit us with such force.

So, we add our voices to all the others that cry "How did time go by so fast?"

It does though, doesn't it?

Country Cooking

By Gerrie Bankhead

The Country Cooking Column is coming to you this week from the dining room of Buck and Betty Ramsey of Bogata.

Being married since 1944 and spending 40 years as residents of Ft. Worth, they now live in Bogata. Buck retired from the City of Ft. Worth as a real estate appraiser, and Betty retired from the Ft. Worth ISD as secretary after 25 years. Both Buck and Betty are members of the Fulbright Church of Christ.

After moving to Bogata in 1986, they have enjoyed being nearer family members, although they miss their Ft. Worth friends. They have renewed old friendships and made new friends through church and community activities.

Betty's hobbies include sewing, cooking, gardening and yard work. They love trailer traveling, camping and fishing. Cypress Springs is their favorite camp site. They also enjoy traveling in Colorado and fishing on the coast.

Sewing crafts, appliquing T-shirts and occasionally sewing for herself are also Betty's hobbies. She loves to cook desserts most of all because that is what Buck likes best.

Betty has chosen a variety of recipes for us this week and we hope you enjoy them.

The Banana Pudding came from a friend in Ft. Worth about 15 years ago. The Cobbler recipe was used for years by Clyde Fortner and given to Betty by Exa Mae Gill about two months ago.

The Quick Light Bread recipe came from Christine Baker about a month ago. They enjoy it so much she keeps a container made up in the refrigerator all the time.

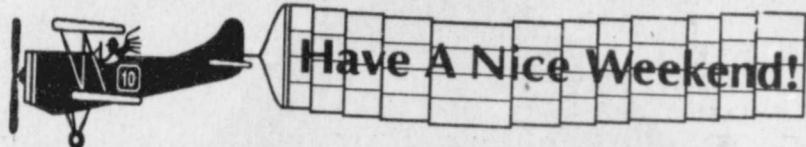

The Frozen Slaw recipe came from Eulalia Roach of Paris about a month ago. Betty says this is especially good for covered lunches, etc.

The Coconut-Pineapple pie came from an issue of Southern Living about 12 years ago.

The Cream Cheese Cake came from a Texarkana friend, Dean Grimmett, about three months ago.

If you have enjoyed the article, want to make a suggestion, or a request, write to Rt. 1, Box 56C, Deport, TX or call 652-6032.

We have had a request for Chocolate Chip Pie. If anyone has the recipe, please share it with our readers.

1/2 cup hot water
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup oil

Using the first cup of water, sprinkle yeast in water, take 1 tablespoon of sugar out of the 1/2 cup measurement and sprinkle on top of the yeast. Set aside.

In large bowl, mix the remaining 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup oil, tablespoon salt and the other cup of lukewarm water. Add yeast mixture and gradually add sifted flour. Pour on lightly floured board and knead well. Put in large greased bowl and let rise, punch down and pinch off rolls and put in a greased pan. Let rise 2-3 hours and bake. Keep the remainder of dough in sealed container in the refrigerator and use as needed.

Beat eggs until thick and lemon colored. Stir in next 5 ingredients, mixing well. Pour mixture into pastry shell. Bake at 350 for 50 minutes or until filling is set. Yield: 1 9" pie.

Banana Pudding

1 large pkg. Jello Instant Pudding Mix (mixed according to recipe on box)
1 can Eagle Brand milk
1-9 oz. container Cool Whip, folded into this mixture.

Layer with 6-7 bananas, layer vanilla wafers with the bananas. Save enough bananas and vanilla wafers to decorate top.

Frozen Slaw

1 medium head cabbage
1 tsp. salt

Chop cabbage and sprinkle salt over cabbage and let stand for 1 hour. Squeeze out juice from cabbage and add:
3 ribs chopped celery
1/2 cup chopped green pepper

Mix together:
1/2 cup water
2 cups sugar
1 cup white vinegar
1 tsp. celery seed
1 tsp. mustard seed

Bring to boil for one minute and let cool. Pour over cabbage and freeze.

This salad will be crisp and fresh when defrosted. Serves 6-8.

Cobbler

Filling:
1 can apples or other fruit
1 cup sugar
3/4 cup water
cinnamon as desired

Junior Cotillion Program Beginning

Plans are underway for local participation in the Northeast Texas Junior Cotillion program, according to founder and director, Leslie Morton Copeland.

Mrs. Copeland says all area young people need to participate in social graces classes and sessions in party dancing before enrolling in high school since it can help prepare them for upcoming social activities.

The sessions, for fifth and sixth graders next fall, are to be held locally at the First United Methodist Church in Bogata and are scheduled to begin June 15 through June 24 at 2 p.m.

The course consists of 12 hours of sessions in social graces such as table manners, thank you notes, vocabulary, and covers dance steps in two step, three step, waltz and fun popular dances. Mrs. Copeland is currently completing work on her Master's degree in Health and Physical Education, and adds that the class is designed to be informative yet fun for the participants.

"It is structured, but not like regular school...otherwise how could we have kept over 1500 kids interested?" Mrs. Copeland said.

For information, call Ann Dodd at 632-5436 or Ginger Foster at 632-5270. There is a fee for the course.

Pats Suffer Heartbreaker To Queen City Bulldogs

By David Singleton
 The Prairiland Patriots came home heartbroken from Texarkana after a 1-0 loss to the Queen City Bulldogs for the bi-district title. The Bulldogs pulled it out in the bottom of the seventh with a game-ending homerun.

Lefty Mark Farris pitched a great game for the Patriots, giving up only two hits. Queen City matched the Pats' strong pitching by giving only one hit, by one hit, by James Freelen in the first inning.

Freelen, batting second, lined a single to right field, but only a few pitches later was thrown out stealing second.

Farris went to the mound and pitched a three-up, three-down inning, earning three strike outs. In the second inning, the Pats failed to put a runner on base, but the Bulldogs did manage with a walk. Later the runner was stranded when the fourth batter fled out to end the inning.

Patrick Williams reached first base by way of a mishandled grounder to shortstop. David Singleton hit a sharp grounder to second, allowing the Bulldogs to turn a double play. Farris grounded out afterwards to end the inning.

The Patriots escaped the bottom of the third with two strike outs and a fly out.

In the fourth, the Pats walked the bases loaded, but they could not push a man across before the top of the inning was over.

Again the Patriots stopped the Bulldogs with a strike out and two fly outs to advance to the fifth. The Pats almost scored when Chad Whitley hit a hot grounder to shortstop, creating a fielder's choice. The bases were loaded and the ball was mishandled and thrown to second but Freelen was called out at second, ending the top of the fifth.

Farris gave up a double, his first hit allowed, but catcher Chad Whitley gunned down the Bulldog trying to steal third.

The sixth inning was over quickly as the Pats struck out twice and grounded out. Farris rapidly retaliated by striking out the side.

The Bulldog pitching remained strong and the Patriots grounded out and struck out twice in the three up, three out inning. With confidence, the Patriots hit the field for the bottom of the seventh. Farris threw three strikes in a row for his tenth strike out of the game, but the second man he faced crushed a homerun over the centerfield wall.

The Patriots finished a fine year as District 13-3A Co-Champions.

In Memory of Jo Bryant
With Love From Everybody

The Mother's Watch
She never closed her eyes in sleep until we were all in bed; On party nights till we came home she often sat and read. We, little thought about it then, we were young and gay. How much the Mother worried when we children were away. We only knew she never slept when we went out at night. And that she waited just to know that we'd come home all right. Why, sometimes, when we'd stayed away till one or two or three, It seemed to us that Mother heard the turning of the key. For always when we stepped inside she'd call and we'd reply. But we were all too young back then to understand just why. Until the last one had returned she always kept a light. For Mother couldn't sleep until she'd kissed us all goodnight. She had to know that we were safe before she went to rest; She seemed to fear the world might harm the ones she loved best. And once she said "when you are grown to women and to men, Perhaps I'll sleep the whole night through, I may be different then."

And so it seemed that night and day we knew a Mother's care... That always when we got back home we'd find her waiting for us there. Then came the night that we were called to gather round her bed. The children all are with you now, the kindly doctor said. And in her eyes there gleamed again the old time tender light. That told she had been waiting just to know we were all right. She smiled the old familiar smile, and prayed to God to keep Us safe from harm throughout the years, and then she went to sleep.
