Only the fish is under control. All the rest of the pets at my place have run amuck.

The ducks are trying to nest...the dogs are just as determined to turn the eggs into their supper as the ducks are to turn them into ducklings.

The geese are looking for a place to build a nest and are consequently as cranky as a goose can get. Those of you who have ever associated with geese know just how noisy THAT can get.

The cows are calving. That means that they are spread out here and there and everywhere instead of bunching together in a nice, neat little herd. It also means that they are chasing the aforementioned dogs every time a canine tries to take a stroll through the pasture. Of course, if Thomas or I happen to be strolling too, the dogs use US to hide behind!

Then there are the birds. We have three purple martin houses. That is, the purple martins live in the houses...the houses aren't purple, they are white. But that's another story...anyway, martins are supposed to be living in these houses, and they are certainly trying.

Unfortunately, the starlings and sparrows are trying just as hard.

The subsequent arguments over housing rights are loud, long and many. I actually witnessed a martin locking his claws into a sparrow's throat the other day. They both plummeted to earth and I narrowly stopped them from becoming cat food. If those birds aren't cussing then I have never heard profanity!

And, of course, there are the cats. Dougal's tail is out of control. Dougal is a white cat. His tail is black, long, and as fluffy as a Persian's. It looks kind of strange since the rest of Dougal isn't that long haired! And this tail bothers him. He can be lying sound asleep when suddenly he jumps up and proceeds to engage in a battle with his own tail.

Grayson, on the other hand, has no tail at all...but is plagued by a big yellow tomcat who regularly and thoroughly whips him. Grayson lost his social standing as a tom cat years ago, and isn't much of a scrapper.

Lizzy the calico has decided to be mad at the work and walks around hissing at all of us if she doesn't get her way.

If we didn't keep a zoo spring-time madness couldn't afflict my pets. But, since we do keep a menagerie, I have to say that right now the fish is at the top of my list.

He is just swimming around his little bowl, not making noises, demanding anything or acting other than fish-like. As I said, only that fish is under control. I appreciate him!

Charges Filed In Accident

Criminal Negligent Homicide charges have been filed by the Texas Department of Public Safety on Lorine Eugene Twitty of 575 N.E. 12th St. in Paris, Texas in connection with the accident which occurred on Thursday, April 1st and claimed the life of Odell Harvey, according to DPS Spokesperson Christy Jordan.

According to the official report filed by DPS Trooper Tim Ray, Mr. Twitty was driving a 1986 Freightliner semi-tractor trailer gravel hauler leased to Red River Gravel Company.

Reports indicate that Twitty was travelling at approximately 65 miles per hour when the accident occurred. Both the semi and the 1971 Ford Pickup driven by T.G. (Mutt) Harvey were travelling northbound on Hwy.

271 just east of Pattonville when the accident occurred. Reports indicate that Mr. Harvey was driving slower than the posted speed limit.

The report states that Mr. Twitty looked in his rear view mirror, than looked back around just before the two vehicles collided.

The Harvey pickup was knocked off the roadway to the right. The cab was separated from the frame and struck a utility pole.

Odell Harvey, wife of T.G. Harvey and passenger in the vehicle was pronounced dead at the scene.

Mr. Harvey is reported to have a cracked neck and is listed in stable condition.

Mr. Twitty, Spokesperson Jordan said Wednesday morning, was arrested at a later date and charges were filed.

Petition Asking For Safety Measures

In response to the tragic accident which claimed the life of Odell Harvey and injured her husband, T.G. (Mutt) Harvey last Thursday, April 1st, a number of area citizens have placed petitions which they plan on sending to state legislators and officials. These petitions, Rev. Chief Warden says, plead for safety measures to include a blinking light at Pattonville and enforcement of speed limits on vehicles of ALL types travelling on Hwy. 271 in this area.

Petitions, Rev. Warden says, are available at Darden-Sparks, City Drug Store, Roach Oil, Lonesome Dove Cafe, A&R Short Stop and Quickie Superette.

Burglars Hit Two Local Businesses

What may have been a series of burglaries took place in the early morning hours of Monday, April 5th.

Armadillo Kwik Korner in Bogata was broken in to through the front doors. The owner of the store reports that they had some type of tool which pulled the core on the door lock and they broke into the safe. An undetermined amount of cash was taken. According to owner reports it seems that the burglars were only interested in cash as they did not take cigarettes, lottery tickets are anything but cash. Quickie Superette in Deport was broken into by twisting the lock off of the front door. According to reports from store owner M.C. Johnston, the burglars took about $95 in the money order bag, some money orders and receipts, about $85 in one dollar bills and rolled change, and another $50 or $60 in fishing license money. Two money bags are missing, one labeled fishing license. If these, or any of the receipts are found, they should be returned to the store as they would be a help in bookkeeping.

Johnston reports that a special lock has now been installed to prohibit entrance from being made in this manner again. The store's video camera had been picked up for repairs, and was not available at the time of the burglary, although it has been returned and is once more in operation.

The third business to be burglarized was in Reno Quick Stop, and apparently the burglars used much the same methods.

Chili Cookoff '93 "Gettin' Down In Deport!"

"Gettin' Down In Deport" is the motto above the dancing cotton boll and chili pepper on this year's Chili Cookoff Tee Shirts. And "Gettin' Down" is exactly what folks can do this weekend. The arrangements are made, the cooks are ready, the tee shirts are available and the ducks are champing at the bit for the race down the creek! Friday and Saturday April 9th and 10th will be the fourth annual Deport American Legion and Volunteer Fire Department's Chili Cookoff.

This year's cookoff is dedicated to Sammy Wilkerson who was one of the primary organizers of the original cookoff.

The first event will begin at 5:30 p.m. on Friday, April 9th, with chili, stew and beans with all the trimmings, tea or coffee, and dessert on sale at the Deport American Legion Hall. Price is $3. Carryout's are $3. Children under 6 will eat free. At 7:30 at the Deport Fire Station the auction will be held. Auctioneers will be selling pies and cakes, wood work, paintings, tools, jewelry and a wide variety of other items to the highest bidder.

Tee shirts will be available for $12 each, and there will be PLENTY of large sizes for everyone this year. Badges with the "Gettin' Down in Deport" logo are also available.

Saturday morning will begin with a FREE breakfast for all the cooks and for the community too. This will be at the Legion Hall from 6 until 9 a.m. Everyone is invited.

At 11 a.m. the Community Easter Egg Hunt will be at 11 a.m. All children are invited to come and hunt for prizes.

At present there are fourteen different booths lined up to sell things.

These booths feature handcrafted items, woodworking items, knife sharpening (bring your knives), knife sales, quilts, fishing equipment and garage sale items. There is still space available, and booth fee of $5 can be paid Saturday morning by going to the Deport Times office between 9 and 10 a.m. Call Nanalee Nichols at 652-4205 or 652-5823 for more information.

The Deport Ball League is planning to have thirteen or fourteen booths featuring games of skills and fun for prizes. This will provide youngsters with lots to do.

During the day the chili cooks will be at their chili cooking. Chili Appreciation Society International cooks will be competing for 1st through tenth places, and local cooks for 1st through 5th places. In addition, people may purchase a "tasting cup" and spoon, and crackers that afternoon and stroll around, sampling the different chilis. They will be asked to vote for the chili of their choice to win the "People's Choice" award. Don't forget to ask or look for the clock at each different chili cook's place to make sure that the chili is ready. They usually have the time posted when tasting can begin. Not all cooks have enough for tasting, but most do.

The concession stand will have barbecue, soft drinks, nachos and lots of things for sale all day long to satisfy any hunger pangs.

Raffle tickets will be on sale for a drawing to be held for a hand painted outdoor stove, barbecue smoker and a battery charger. One raffle ticket means three chances to win! This year's stove is in memory of Sammy Wilkerson and his blue ribbon chili and is painted with hills and trees, Sammy cooking chili and visiting with friends. The smoker is hand made by Eddy Sheppard and is a handsome item. The battery charger is something almost any household can use.

Duck race tickets are $5 and earn the winners $150, $75 and $25 respectively. The duck race is at 2 p.m. and the little brightly colored plastic ducks will race down the creek (aided by the fire hose).

One of the biggest hits of last year's cookoff was the bed race. At 2:30 p.m. nightshirt clad contestants (of questionable sanity) will race against other teams, with four people pushing and one riding the wheeled iron beds. It is absolutely hilarious. Entry fee is $5 per person. Sign up is that day.

Chili judging will be from 3 until 4 p.m.

This year's trophies will feature handtooled leather on black walnut plaques. Fire hydrants are given for fire department entries, and the showmanship awards are quite different this year.

All chili cooks are urged to enter. Fee is $15. A $5 entry fee will be charged for pinto bean entries.

All local cooks, CASI cooks and fire departments are urged to enter. Contact Don Denison at 652-2425 or Rick Poston 785--0929 for entry information.

Most of all everyone is urged to come out and help make this event a success. Funds raised will aid the Legion, the fire department and the ball leagues.

TEE SHIRTS-These custom designed, 1993 Chili Cookoff red, green, white and black tee shirts feature a dancing cotton boll and chili pepper and the motto "Gettin' Down In Deport". The colorful shirts are available in XXL, XL and L sizes and the cost will be $12 each. Dawne Darden and Sharon Francis display one of the shirts. (Staff Photo by Thomas Nichols)

Jone Clemmons in the kitchen of her Talco home. Jone is the Country Cooking featured cook this week (Staff Photo by Judy Screws)

Country Cooking

By Judy Screws

This week I visited in the lovely home of Jone and Jerry Clemmons of Talco. Jone is the cook I asked if I could feature this week, but when I asked her what she enjoyed cooking most, she said, "I don't like to cook." She quickly reassured me by telling me that she cooks all the time, and for many people. There are just other things she enjoys doing much more than cooking. I think I appreciated her honesty.

Jone is the Talco City Secretary and has been for about 15 years. Jerry is retired from TU Electric.

The Clemmons have two sons. Craig works at Kimberly Clark in Paris, and his wife Kristi is a teacher in Bogata. They have two daughters, Kayla, who is 4, and Keylee is 14 months old. Kyle Clemmons graduated from ETSU and works at Talco State Bank. His wife, Robin, is a dental assistant in Mt. Pleasant.

When I drove up, I noticed these odd looking chain link fences being finished in the front yard. I asked Jone what they were for. She laughed and said, "Come on in and I'll tell you." It seems that they, Jone and Jerry, are about to start raising Ostriches. They have been to seminars and studied for months so that they will know exactly what they are doing when they purchase these exotic birds. I plan to follow up on this at a later date.

After I learned that Jone doesn't like to cook, I asked her what she does enjoy. About that time, a puppy fell in the swimming pool. Jone said that besides playing with her grandchildren, she enjoys working in the yard more than anything. Jone kept on talking while she got a towel for the puppy, and told me that she had had the same experience the puppy had only at the time she was on a riding lawn mower. She wasn't injured. She was just sore and her pride suffered quite a bit.

The Clemmons family is active in the Calvary Baptist Church, where Jone is Church Treasurer.

Jone said that when she does cook, she does lots of grilling, especially briskets and chicken. Jerry is the chilli and stew cook in the family. He makes elk stew from their hunting trips to Colorado. Jone's recipes are a Fruit Salad that she got from her sister-in-law in New Mexico, Crockpot Beans, and her mother, Maggie Williams' Pineapple Pie. She doesn't like carrots, but knows she should serve them, so on the way back from one of their hunting trips, they stopped at a restaurant, where they were served carrots that she enjoyed, and she asked them for their recipe. She is also sharing that with us.

I really enjoyed my visit with Jone, and plan to go back when they get the ostrich business going.

Have a beautiful Easter.

A sincere and heartfelt "thank you" to our community and friends for the considerate ways you helped to ease our pain. The prayers, calls, visits, flowers and food you prepared strengthened our faith and was a memorable tribute to a loving wife, mother and grandmother.

A special thank you to Rev. Chief Warden of the Deport First Methodist Church, to Tim Brown, minister of the Deport First Baptist Church, and Chad Barnes of the Cunningham First Baptist Church for their continuous support and beautifully conducted services and special music and to Grant Funeral Home. The First Methodist Church also welcomed our family for a specially prepared lunch Sunday afternoon.
