Let's Get A Life, New York!

Sometimes we watch a New York television station. Having satellite reception, where our news comes from can vary. Besides, it's rather interesting to see things in the Big Apple from their point of view instead of an outsider's.

Now, I know there are wonderful New Yorkers, but I also know that many New Yorkers have a tendency to believe that they are the center of the universe. That was definitely confirmed during a story on their evening news over the weekend.

The story was about a new area code being assigned to Manhattan. The reporter was interviewing Manhattan dweller after Manhattan dweller as they raved on about the "shame" of having to give up their "famous" 202 area code.

It seems that there is a prestige, an honor, an instant recognition that one lives in the elite portion of the city with that 202 area code. And, without those digits people won't be able to tell instantly that the person they are calling is a Manhattan dweller!

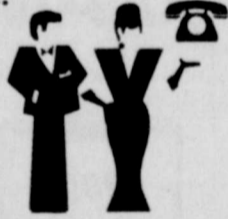

One man actually used these words "without getting a 202 area code people will be marked as newcomers. It would be terrible for them to feel ostracized!". They raved on about the humiliation.

Ostracized...over a stupid area code? Come on folks, get real.

Most of us have had to suffer through the problems inherent in having a new zip code. It is a pain, a problem, an annoyance.

But did any of you gentle readers ever feel that you were socially acceptable because it changed? Did any of you newcomers feel as if you didn't belong because you didn't get exactly the area code your neighbors had?

As I said at the beginning, come on New Yorkers, get a life. You have lots more problems to deal with than having a socially unacceptable area code!

Rankin added to Prairiland staff as Coach

Prairiland High School has welcomed Coach Lance Rankin to its staff as varsity girls basketball coach.

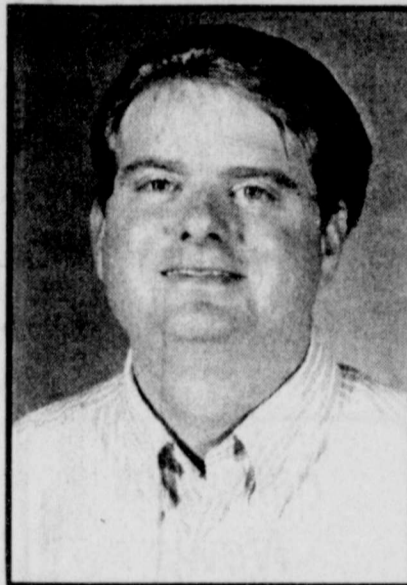

Coach Rankin, 28, comes to Prairiland after two years at Hubbard ISD. There he enjoyed working with the junior high and high school girls athletic programs as well as teaching English to seventh and eighth grade students. Rankin coached JV one year and junior high basketball two years. He also directed the track program for two years and was junior high Head Football Coach for one year. He served the softball program for one year as an assistant coach.

Coach Rankin grew up in Burleson and graduated from TCU in 1996 with a BS in Physical Education and a minor in English.

Rankin and his wife, Amy, have three cats and one dog.

"I am excited and cannot wait to get started," said Rankin. "From all that I have heard about the school and the ladies, we have the ingredients for a very successful year. I hope to be here for many years."

Rankin stresses that hard work and dedication will be the key to the success of the Lady Patriots basketball season.

Coach Lance Rankin

HELP!-Alligator attacks young man on local farm pond! But, don't get too excited. The alligator is the concrete one at the home of Thomas and Nanalee Nichols. In the past few weeks they have taken a great deal of teasing about having an alligator by their front pond. Cliff Adams of Deport decided to take the "gag" one step further, posing as if the five foot beast had lunged from the pool and captured him by the ankle. There were, of course, no injuries. The Nichols said that "we just can't get any respect. If we aren't being harassed about seeing wild bears we're being made fun of for having an alligator!"

<http://tpp.1starnet.com/>

This time of the year is one of my favorite times because of peaches. . . I just love peaches! As my husband and I peeled, sliced and prepared peaches for jelly on Sunday afternoon, he asked the question, "How were peaches preserved before Sure-Jell?"

When you read the recipe below, you will see that more sugar is used and it takes a lot more time than five minutes to prepare it and has to be stirred almost constantly to keep it from sticking.

Also, did you know that peaches came to us from China, not Georgia, over 4,000 years ago! The trees were spread throughout Europe by the Romans. Spanish explorers brought the peach to the Americas as early as the 1500's and the English colonists also brought peaches in the 1600's. The United States is the world's leading producer of peaches. Many peach trees are planted in commercial orchards and some are cultivated in gardens as ornamentals.

Georgia is not even the leading peach-growing state, California is with over 30,938,000 bushels annually. South Carolina is second with 7,396,000 bushels. Pennsylvania is third with 2,604,000 bushels annually. Georgia is fourth with 2,500,000 bushels and New Jersey harvests 1,510,000 bushels.

Peaches ripen from early summer to fall with some as late as October. Perhaps the best-known peach is the Elberta. They are freestone which means they can be cut from the seed with ease. Other well-known varieties are J.H. Hale and Golden Jubilee. Some clingstone varieties are Fortuna, Paloro, Johnson, Guame and Sims.

Did you know that nectarines are similar to peaches and not really an orange? They are essentially alike, except for the skin and the trees are identical.

The following recipes are some on peaches and came from an old recipe book entitled, "Timely Tasteful Tales from the Red River Valley 1800-1986". We hope you enjoy them and we will see you in the kitchen!

Peach Pickles-not anything better than spicy, pickled peaches...delicious!

Easy Peach Cobbler-this recipe makes it's own crust!

Golden Peach Cobbler-this one can be used with store-bought crust or make your own!

Old-Fashioned Peach Preserves-here's that recipe that takes the place of Sure-Jell!

Peach Cobbler-another recipe for this old-time favorite!

Peach Honey-this is delicious over ice cream, cakes, etc.!

Peach Recipes

Peach Pickles
freestone peaches
cloves
sugar
vinegar
Use freestone peaches not fully ripe. They are just as good as clingstones and far easier to eat. Peel fruit and stick three to four cloves in each one. To ten pounds of fruit, use five pounds of sugar and one quart of vinegar. Cook together until straw can be stuck in fruit. Remove peaches and cook syrup until thick or heat syrup and pour over fruit for three consecutive days.

Easy Peach Cobbler
1 cup flour
1 cup sugar
1 cup milk
3 teaspoons baking soda
1 stick oleo
2 cups prepared peaches
Combine all ingredients except oleo and peaches. Place mixture in dish and pour melted oleo over batter. Pour peaches over this and bake in 350 degree oven for 45 minutes.

Golden Peach Cobbler
4 cups prepared peaches
1 cup peach marmalade
2 pie crust
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1/2 cup sugar
2 tablespoons white Karo syrup
2 teaspoons brandy extract
Peel and slice peaches. Combine cornstarch, marmalade, sugar, syrup and mix well. Add brandy extract. Roll out crust thicker than usual. Cut into one inch strips. Turn peach slices into 1-1/2 quart shallow baking dish. Pour peach mixture over fruit and top with lattice of pastry strips. Bake at 450 degrees for 30 minutes.

Old-Fashioned Peach Preserves
9 cups sliced peaches
3/4 cups water
6 cups sugar
Stir peaches and water slowly until they boil; then stir constantly. Add sugar and cook faster. Cook liquid away; about 30-45 minutes; then set off and test. Pour into shallow dish pan for 24 hours. If not cooked enough, place back on stove and cook more. After setting overnight, you can tell how stiff preserves will be. They will soak up some of the liquid overnight. They can be cold packed with paraffin or heated up and sealed with lids.

Peach Cobbler
1/2 stick butter
16 ounce can peaches
1/2 cup sugar
1 cup self-rising flour
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup milk
1/4 cup evaporated milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
Melt butter in baking dish. Warm peaches and 1/2 cup sugar. Combine flour, 1/2 cup sugar, milks and vanilla. Pour flour mixture in baking dish. Add peaches. Let rise. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes.

Peach Honey
6-7 cups sliced peaches
5 cups sugar
Blend in blender. Cook 5 minutes at a rolling boil. Refrigerate.
