Trojans Lose to Daingerfield by Score of 27-12

By GERALD STANSELL.
Talco Trojans lost to the Daingerfield Tigers in their first conference game of the season, 27 to 12 Friday, Oct. 5.
Talco opened the game by kicking off to Daingerfield. The ball was kicked by Billy Ramey to the 40 yard line. Daingerfield kicked out on fourth down to the six yard line, where they recovered it. From here the Tigers went over for their first touchdown of the game. The extra point was successful.
The Trojans came back with a drive that was halted on the one yard line, with the help of a fumble. The Tigers kicked after no luck. Freddie Rodgers on the second play passed to J. M. Fussell for 30 yards. On the next play Freddie Rodgers went over. The extra point was unsuccessful.
After this both teams got the ball but neither side had much luck until Hill received a touchdown pass. The extra point was no good.
In the last minutes of the first half Freddie Rodgers passed 25 yards to J. M. Fussell. Martin from the 30 yard line, went over for the Trojans second touchdown. Try for extra point failed.
In the second half the Tigers took the ball and raced 45 yards for their third TD. The conversion was successful.
Opening the fourth quarter the Tigers completed a 30 yard pass and they drove to another touchdown. The extra point was good. After this the ball shifted back and forth, without further scoring.

Mrs. Lois Wright Dies Sunday of Pistol Wound

The body of Mrs. Lois Wright, 48, was found about 7:00 o'clock Sunday evening in her apartment at the rear of a beauty parlor which she operated in Talco. A verdict of suicide was returned.
According to officers, Mrs. Wright had been despondent and in ill health since the death of her husband, Ullman Wright, about a year ago. She left a note attesting to this fact.
Mrs. Wright was shot once in the left breast, just above the heart, by a bullet from a .32 caliber pistol, which was found beside the body. All indications were to the effect that she was shot sometime around noon, but her body was not found until several hours later.
The body was taken to Smith-Bates Funeral Home at Mt. Pleasant where it was held for the arrival of a funeral car from Sulphur Springs. Later it was taken to her former home in Saltillo.
Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Saltillo for Mrs. Wright. Rev. P. G. Hightower, assisted by Rev. R. E. Baucum of the Calvary Baptist Church and the pastor of the church in Saltillo, were in charge. Burial was at Weaver. A host of friends from Talco attended.

Deceased first married Holly Whitten, who passed away. Following his death she married Ullman Wright, who died a little over a year ago. She is survived by her father, Alvin Payne of Saltillo. She had operated a beauty shop in Talco since 1936.
The tragic death of Mrs. Lois Wright affected the people of Talco very much. She was loved and highly respected by all who knew her. Her life was filled with much sorrow and grief. She had buried a child, her mother and three husbands. But she kept her sorrow to herself, and there was no indication of what was on her mind when friends visited her Sunday morning shortly before her death. The entire community is saddened by her passing.

Big Cotton Crop Is Forecast
WASHINGTON, Oct. 8 — The Agriculture Department Monday estimated this year's cotton crop at 16,931,000 bales.
This is 360,000 bales less than the 17,291,000 bales forecast a month ago. It is sharply higher than last year's small crop of 10,012,000 bales and compares very favorably with the ten-year (1940-49) average of 12,303,000 bales.
The increase was recommended as a means of replenishing stocks which had dwindled to a low level under the preparedness program.
Supplementing the crop are 2.2 million bales from previous crops. The department said the indicated yield of cotton to the acre was 284.7 pounds compared with 269.2 pounds last year and 265.9 for the ten-year average.
Condition of the crop as of Oct. 1 was reported at 74 per cent of normal compared with 64 a year ago and 73 for the ten-year Oct. 1 average.
In an accompanying report, the census bureau said 5,467,911 bales had been ginned prior to Oct. 1. This compared with 2,711,959 ginned to the same date last year and 5,306,453 two years ago.

W. D. Harris of Rt. Talco, has been admitted to a Paris hospital.

Ban Fishing by Electric Shocking

Oklahoma Game and Fish Commission has voted unanimously to outlaw "telephone" fishing or any taking of fish by means of shocking.
A number of Oklahoma sportsmen appeared before the Game Commission's meeting to urge passage of the no-telephoning law. They protested that many of Oklahoma's streams have been almost emptied of catfish during the past several weeks because Oklahoma had no law against the practice.
No specific penalty was provided in the action but upon conviction, the punishment will be fixed under the general penalty provisions of the Game and Fish Commission Code. In other words, they'll stick violators the limit.
Texans are reminded it's illegal in this state.

Harris of Corsicana, Mrs. Lester Morris, Odessa; two brothers, Math and Josh Berryhill of Oklahoma City; 12 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. R. C. Henderson, Dallas, with the army in Korea, returned home but did not get to Corsicana in time for the funeral.

September Rains Greatest for This Month Since 1913

Last month was the wettest September since 1913, but the 7.75 inches of rainfall recorded caused no streams to overflow and failed to fill a lot of farm pools that had gone dry. The parched earth absorbed this moisture, four inches more than normal for the period, almost as it fell, the run-off being light. As a result of this heavy rainfall, which, under normal conditions, might have been damaging, October arrived with pastures and meadows staging a swift comeback, fall gardens and other late crops putting on new growth and even cotton showing improvement.
September came up with a historic first in temperature. The 107 degrees registered on the first day of the month had never previously been exceeded on that day or any September day in the weather records.
Farmers, stockmen and gardeners are hoping for a late frost to give the maximum benefit of the excellent growing conditions now prevailing. Fall gardens are yielding many young vegetables and good eating to growers.
A cool wave moved in Saturday afternoon to lower temperature to about 50 degrees Sunday morning. Clear skies and a bright sun have raised the mercury in the daytime to the 80's. Nights remain cool with mercury dipping each night into the 50's.
Several farmers have been busy putting out fertilizer and sowing winter cover crops.

Murder Trial On Change of Venue Is Continued

The case of the State of Texas against George H. Allen, elderly resident of Franklin County charged with murder of a stepson-in-law, which was brought to the Titus County District Court on a change of venue and was called for trial Monday, was continued to January 28, 1952. The action resulted after two witnesses for the defense failed to appear.
One of the witnesses, Carvel Carroll, disappeared from a veterans hospital and failed to answer summons into court. Monday Judge Sam Williams fined him $100 and three days in jail, ordered a $1,000 recognisance bond forfeited and issued a writ of attachment against him.
Allen is charged with the February 7, 1951, killing of Jack Elliott, near Mt. Vernon. Elliott reportedly died after his throat was cut with a butcher knife.
Following the continuance of the Allen case, court was dismissed until next Monday morning, when criminal, misdemeanor and civil cases will be called on the docket.

TALCO FHA GIRLS ATTEND STATE FAIR

Saturday was the opening day of the State Fair in Dallas and twenty-five FHA girls from the Talco chapter came to the bus, still drowsy from Friday night's game, ready to leave at 6 o'clock. With them came combs, bobby pins, lipstick and hysterical giggles. Miss Rich, Miss Cox, Miss Smith and Wanda Rogers accompanied the girls. Mr. Watts drove the bus.
Around 10 o'clock the bus rolled into the fair grounds. There the girls spent a day of enjoyment with hot dogs, candy, apples, slinging rides, and 95,000 other FHA, FFA and 4-H Clubs. They left Dallas at 7:00 and got home at 11:00.—Jackie Winn, Reporter.

Record Yield of Corn Grown on Two Acres Land

What is probably a record growth of corn for two acres of land in Titus County has been reported by E. H. May, manager of John B. Stephens' farm southwest of Mt. Pleasant. The corn, weighed in at Traylor Gin, Mt. Pleasant, averaged 144½ bushels per acre.
Mr. May stated that No. 24 Funks seed were used to plant the two acres. Cultivation consisted of 500 pounds of 5-10-5 per acre, along with 300 pounds of nitrate of soda and 150 pounds of potash.
The corn, ground as feed, will be used to feed black Angus and other calves on the Stephens farm.—Mt. Pleasant Times.

Entered as Second Class Matter March 20, 1936, at the postoffice at Talco, Texas.

Old timers are predicting an early frost, basing it on the gathering of butterflies near water-holes and streams. Average date for killing frost in this area is Nov. 11. Two years ago the temperature dropped to 32 degrees on Nov. 1 and a white frost formed over northeast Texas.

This editor wants to commend action of the committee of Dallas Chapter Sigma Delta Chi, which recommended to that body the naming of Lon Boynton of the Lamar County Echo as the "Texas Newspaper Man of the Year." This writer is a member of the Dallas Chapter; he did not serve on the committee, but he did supply a picture, wrote Boynton's biographical history and some of the editorial comment concerning him which Attorney General Price Daniel used in his speech when he presented Boynton the plaque. The story appeared in Saturday's Dallas News and is reproduced in this edition. We've known and enjoyed Lon Boynton's friendship for more than a quarter of a century and that of his father, the late George Boynton, before him. Both men, fearless country editors, put principles before parties and personalities, and never straddle the fence upon any public question. The honor was deservedly bestowed. It came as a complete surprise to Boynton, and we thought for a moment he was at a loss to make a response. Swallowing that lump in his throat, he gained control and came thru in his usual good form.

"WOLF CRIES" COST LIFE

Baltimore, Md. — When cries of "Help, help, I'm drowning," came from a group of swimmers in the Big Gunpowder Falls, near the Hartford-Baltimore county line, fishermen in the area dropped their rods and rushed to the swimmer's aid. They were greeted by laughter from the swimmers. However, a short time later, the cries for help came again and, this time, the fishermen refused to run. Several hours later, police recovered the body of Robert Bates, 29, negro, who drowned after his cries for assistance were unanswered.

The world is in such a mess we don't know what to make of it, so we are just trying to make it over.

The modern way: Never put off till tomorrow the fun you can have today.

It isn't how little you know that matters, just so the world doesn't find it out.

The government tax makers haven't overlooked anything. They are even taxing our patience.

Reports from the hospital reveal that nearly all young couples have heir-conditioned their homes.

There is so much to do, so much to see, and so much to learn in life that one must live in a hurry or else he will miss something.

England is buying a million tons of grain from Russia. Seems easy enough to get behind the Iron Curtain if you have a pocketful of money to spend.

Another reason why American money is going to foreign nations by the billions is because those nations did not follow the pay-as-you-go plan. Instead, they spent as they went, a plan this nation is now following.

Money, money, money. The love of it is the root of all government evil. Remember the Teapot Dome, the deep freezers, the five percenters and the mink coat? Now it's the RFC. The siren voice of the dollar means the downfall of many a listener.

Support Prices for Cover Crop Seed

Basic national support price for winter cover crop seeds planted this fall and harvested next year have been announced by the Department of Agriculture. The National rates are: for hairy vetch, 14.75 cents a pound; Singletary peas, 6 cents; crimson clover, 16.50; certified reseeded crimson clover, 19 cents.

Seed growers who wish to take advantage of the price support may get either farm or warehouse loans or purchase agreements, any time through December 31, 1952. The support rates for the 1952-crop are announced at this time in order to help farmers plan their fall plantings. The rates are those considered necessary to encourage farmers to plant acreages in line with the increased demand for these seeds.

National average price support rates for oats, barley, and grain sorghums to be harvested in 1952 were announced as: oats, 78 cents per bushel for Grade No. 3 or better; barley, $1.22 per bushel for Grade No. 2 or better; grain sorghums, $2.98 per cwt. for Grade No. 2 or better, with discounts for lower grades.

These prices are the equivalent of 80 per cent of the latest parity price as compared with a 1951 support level of 75 per cent of parity. Loans and purchase agreements will be available through the PMA county office from time of harvest through January 31, 1953.

TROUBLE AHEAD

"I just got out of prison this morning," a traveler told a man on the train. "It's going to be tough facing old friends." "I can sympathize with you," said the other. "I'm just getting home from Congress."

MUSIC IN THE HOME

The occasion was an amateur musicale. The kind-hearted hostess spied a lone-looking little man huddled in a corner of the room, and paused to make conversation.

"Tell me," she finally asked, "do you play any musical instruments?" "Not away from home," the little man replied. "How peculiar," remarked the hostess. "What instrument do you play at home?" "Second fiddle," he informed her.

Lon Boynton is Honored by SDX Fraternity

LON BOYNTON

Lon Boynton of Paris, a third generation Texas editor, Friday night was named "Texas Newspaperman of the Year" by the Dallas professional chapter of Sigma Delta Chi.

He is the editor and publisher of the Lamar County Echo.

Atty. Gen. Price Daniel handed a plaque to Boynton at the journalism fraternity's dinner for visiting newspapermen at the Downtown Club. The newsmen were there to attend Press Day at the fair Saturday.

"He puts principles before parties and personalities," Daniel said in making the presentation to Boynton.

Daniel said it was fitting that Sigma Delta Chi was making its first annual "Texas Newspaperman of the Year" award during National Newspaper Week.

Courage in journalism is not confined to the national level, Daniel said.

"Quite often," he said, "it takes more courage for an editor of a small newspaper to take a firm stand on a controversial local issue, than it does for the editor of a large newspaper to criticize national or international policies."

Boynton's grandfather, C. M. Boynton, came to Texas from Kentucky in 1877 and purchased the Hamilton Herald. His father, George H. Boynton, succeeded the grandfather. Lon Boynton stood on a box to set type before he was ten years old.

When George H. Boynton sold the Hamilton Herald, after it had been in the family for forty years, Lon Boynton spent two years as business manager of the Comanche Chief and then bought the Walters (Okla.) Herald, which he published three years before buying the Lamar County Echo in 1925.

Boynton is a past president of the North and East Texas Press Association, Texas Editorial Association, Paris Rotary Club, Paris Country Club and is a member of

Livestock Prices Sharply Lower

By TED GOULDY

Livestock prices were sharply lower on stocker and feeder cattle, calves and lambs and medium and low grade slaughterer cattle, calves and sheep during the past week.

The break in cattle and calves pushed prices to the lowest point of the early fall market and the factors that brought about the declines in prices were several.

Feeder and stocker demand slowed down drastically at Northern and Western parts of the country. Many feedlots are reported already filled and larger supplies of cattle off summer range suitable for feedlot operations were available from Midwestern and Western and Northwestern areas.

Cold nights reported had results in some extensive sickness on the part of calves and young cattle shipped north in recent weeks. Near freezing temperatures at night in a big spread of the Midwestern country was blamed for the increase in sickness of the calves with pneumonia the big killer.

Continued dry conditions in Western Oklahoma, Kansas, Eastern New Mexico, as well as West and Northwestern parts of Texas, put a check on movement of cattle and calves to wheat field grazing and other pastures.

Wheat field purchase of cows came to a near standstill at Fort Worth this week and unless rains come soon to the winter wheat belt, this activity will stay largely dormant.

Some caution on the part of feeder buyers was believed traceable to the recent threatening gestures being made by the OPS in their current investigation of the livestock and meat trade.

Top grades of cattle and calves were less affected with only moderate declines chalked up in prices for the select quality offerings, but the common, plain and medium grades of both stockers and killing kinds were $1 to $2 and more lower.

Hog prices improved slightly around the market circle due to somewhat lower lighter supplies and better movement of pork at wholesale and retail levels.

The greatest stumbling block in the path of most men usually is not laziness or fear but a tight-skirted, low-necked, sultry-voiced, diamond-decked, perfumery-scented vamp called "tomorrow."

Childless Face 1-A Draft Tag

Draft boards started reclassifying 500,000 childless married men this week.

Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey said it is doubtful that as many as 200,000 will be classified 1A—eligible for service—in the immediate future, however.

Hershey said many registrants have become fathers during the past two years, but have failed to notify their local boards.

He said they should notify their boards immediately.

It was estimated that actual induction of married nonfathers probably will not get under way until January.

Hershey said also that a childless married man should notify his draft board as soon as possible in the event his wife becomes pregnant. The registrant must submit a physician's certificate in such a case. Any such notice of pregnancy must be submitted before the date that the local board issues an order to report for induction.

When a registrant is deferred on the basis of a certificate of pregnancy and his wife later loses the child the registrant is required by law to report that information to his local board, Hershey said.

Meanwhile, the Army announced Friday plans to release by Dec. 20 from active duty all World War II enlisted men who were called up involuntarily from the reserves.

The Air Force will release its enlisted men ordered to active duty from the volunteer reserve after twelve months. Service for naval enlisted reservists in this category is now about twelve months and for the Marines about fourteen months.

Army and Air Force officers in this category, however, will generally be required to serve the maximum seventeen months allowed under the present law.

There are now 75,696 units of Cub Scouts and Explorers in the Boy Scouts of America.

Alcorn Favors Plan Making Weeds And Vines Available for Consumption

Editor's note: Achin Alcorn, philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sulphur, is still looking for the easy way out, his letter this week reveals.

Dear Editor: It is always a pleasure to me to find scientists catchin up with us common folk. Yesterday I was plannin on burnin a wasp nest down as a sort of birthday present for my wife, the nest was right at the back door and while me and the wasps ain't never bothered each other, live and let live is our policy, they sort of made her nervous and so I agreed to the undertakin and had a newspaper rolled up with end flared ready to put a match to it when I noticed an article and got to readin it and walked off and sat down by the barn, I can get that wasp nest next year or the year after, there'll be other birthdays comin up.

What the article said was that a Nobel prize-winning scientist, Sir Robert Robinson of Oxford University, England, was workin on an idea to increase the world's food supply by utilizin second class vegetation not now fit for human consumption.

I have been agitatatin for this for years, contendin A. & M. College could render a real service to humanity if it would perfect a breed of cows that could live on my weeds and thistles, instead of spendin so much time workin on me to grow the kind of grass my cows happen to have a taste for.

But if they've got a Nobel prize-winner workin on this problem, we may get somewhere, and I will be happy to offer my farm out here as a sort of laboratory. I've got more second class vegetation unfit for human consumption out here than Sir Robert ever dreamed of.

If he can work out a menu includin say Johnson grass green salad, salted cockleburrs, mashed gourds surrounded with china berries and garnished with tyevines, baked sunflower heads, goat weed relish, pickled mesquite beans and a few other items, topped off with ice cream made from bluejohn, I can turn my farm into a beehive of production for the hungry world, without liftin a hand.

Yours faithfully, A. A.

THE HONEST YOUNGSTER

Little Bobby attended his friend's birthday party, and was offered a second piece of cake. He looked longingly at it, but refused with a polite "No thank you."

"Oh, Bobby," coaxed the hostess, "everybody is going to have another piece and you must too."

"Well," replied Bobby, weighing in, "Mother told me one serving was enough, but probably if she knew how small the pieces are she would think it was all right."

IT'S A FACT

A snail travels at the rate of .000363005 miles per hour.

The Federal debt, rising from a little more than $16,000,000,000 in 1931 to $260,000,000,000 in 1951, has increased at a rate that would average nearly $1,400,000 an hour for the last 20 years.

Our Bank Says "Help Yourself"

People around here need lots of small change these days — what with candy, gum, cigarette and soft drink machines... pay phones... and those penny sales taxes.

Used to put a strain on our bank. Changing money took up a lot of time. Then the Chief Teller Happy Wilson, read about another bank using a "help yourself" change system. The directors decided to see if it would work here.

They set out some big shallow bowls full of nickels, dimes and pennies with a sign saying "MAKE YOUR OWN CHANGE." Works fine, too. At the end of the day the totals are never more than a couple of cents under—or over—the right amount.

From where I sit, folks everywhere are pretty much alike, although they may seem different. Farmers and city folks, Republicans and Democrats, those who enjoy a glass of beer occasionally and those who prefer something else—we all usually try to live up to the trust others have in us.

OPEN-AIR LIFE

A reporter, interviewing a 95-year-old fellow, asked him how he accounted for his good health.

"Well," replied the man, "when my wife and I were married, we made a pact that if at any time she was annoyed with me, she would retire to the kitchen, and if I was annoyed with her, I would go into the garden. As a result of this arrangement, I have lived an open-air life."

Melbourne, Australia.—Poultry breeder Fred Haymes is no longer wakened by his roosters crowing before dawn.

After studying what he calls "fowl psychology," he built the perches high against the roof of his chicken houses. He noticed roosters stretch their necks before crowing.

"Now when they want to crow they bump their heads against the roof and change their minds," he said.
