at Talco, Texas.

Dr. Stephen H. Grant, who was ordered to a hospital bed at Paris for a complete rest two weeks ago, was feeling much better when the editor went to see him on Monday evening. He ate his supper while the newspaper man was present and the entire was a bowl of squirrel stew. "My regards to friends and I hope to be home soon," was his statement when asked for a statement for publication.

It was the opinion of this editor and publicly expressed last June, that he thought the weatherman was on a high lonesome or something when he started delivering August weather in June. Now he has pulled another one that memory of the oldest old-timers does not recall. He delivered snow on Friday morning before any frost had formed this fall, and kicked the thermometer down to several degrees below freezing on Friday night. Smell of burning, dying vegetable life assailed the nostrils before 10 o'clock Friday night. There was a lot of cover-pulling and cold enough to be January or Febru-

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING

BURT LOCKHART
in Pittsburg Gazette

After making up your mind what to say it is sometimes best not to say it.

With taxes upped 12 per cent it looks like another good year for the aspirin family.

Football shouldn't have a monopoly of the cheer leaders. The world needs a few right now.

After studying both sides of a question it might be best to hear the truth before making a decision.

The rapid approach of Christmas should be a reminder to the kiddies that now is the time to be good.

Harding had his Teapot Dome, Truman his five percenters, mink coat, deep freezers and income tax collectors.

Do not expect the world to shed tears over your failure. It is too busy in the grandstand applauding the winners.

It may be best to enjoy life before you get your fortune. After you get it you won't have time to enjoy anything else.

If he were living today Theodore Roosevelt might revise his famous saying to—Speak softly and carry an atom bomb.

Not satisfied with a 90 billion dollar tax bill for 1951, President Truman throws out a cheerful hint for 1952. He will then call for another hike.

The big dance of the dollars on Uncle Sam is not only the fiddler, but the whole orchestra, and 153 million people are paying for the music.

The drought cut the honey crop in Texas 31 per cent. But the state still has a million other sweet little things walking around on two feet not affected by the weather.

any weather. There are some who wish the weatherman would get back on the beam and stay sober.

This editor has about come to the conclusion that he is going to vote against four of the Constitutional Amendments that will be submitted at the general election next Tuesday. He wanted to vote for the one authorizing more pension money for the old folk, but a rereading of it convinces him that its wording throws down the bars to any chisler who wants to come into the state and ask for a pension, and that in the long run taxes would be higher and deserving old folks' pensions reduced, rather than increased. The one he will support would permit farmers to form a district and to vote a tax up to 50 cents on the $100 valuation for establishment of fire protection districts.

Fine Arts Club Enjoys Coffee

Mrs. M. E. Jones and Mrs. Howard Johnson were hostesses for a coffee for members of the Fine Arts Club and their guests Thursday morning in Mrs. Jones' home.

Guests were served refreshments from a table covered with a pale green cloth and centered with a bouquet of red dahlias. A large arrangement of dahlias entirely covered the mantel, and smaller bouquets were used on various tables throughout the house.

Those attending the coffee were Mmes. Gerald Kempe, Geo. C. Edgerton, C. Norman Hunt Jr., J. H. Weatherall, Fred Coker, Chas. Collins, Odell Morrison, C. R. Sikes, B. H. Hazzard, Alfred Flanagan, A. C. Waddell, C. C. Bussell, Eva Jones and the hostesses.

UNITED EVANGELISM MISSION GREAT SUCCESS IN LOCAL CHURCH

One thousand and six people attended the eight United Evangelism services at the Methodist church last week, representing an average of 126 per service, many of the nights being hampered by bad weather.

Nothing hampered or daunted the spirits of the local Methodists in the revival or visitation efforts. An average of six to ten visitors each day made special contacts on behalf of the church following visitation instruction at the church directed by the pastor and Rev. Leslie Scott of Dickinson.

The pastor, John Dvorak, announced this week that as an immediate result of the mission there will be eleven additions to the church membership.

NOT RIGHT ANSWER
Doctor: "What is a red corpuscle?"
Pharmacist's Mate: "A red corpuscle is a Russian non-commissioned officer."

WILKINSON

By DOROTHY M. BLALOCK
Mr. and Mrs. Morris Blalock and daughters visited Mr. and Mrs. Leo Blalock and children at Hooks, Sunday.

Mrs. A. T. Blalock is spending a few days with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Riddle and children in Dallas.

Miss Alva Nell Blalock visited Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Blalock at Maple Springs Sunday.

Mrs. Viola Griffin has been seriously ill in a Naples hospital.

Miss Dorothy Griffin spent Friday night in Naples.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hornbuckle of New Boston, visited Mr. and Mrs. Moody Belcher and Wanda Sunday.

Miss Wanda Lee McGee and Miss Marcia Lou Blalock visited in Red River County Sunday afternoon.

THANKS

I wish to thank publicly, not only the members of our own Methodist church, but all the very kind and cooperative people of Talco for the consideration shown during our week of the United Evangelistic Mission in the local church.

John Dvorak, Pastor, Methodist Church.

START WITH MONEY

He: "Sweetheart, I would go through anything for you."
She: "Fine, let's start with your bank account."

TALCO METHODISTS ATTEND COMMERCE MASS MEETING

A good representation of Talco Methodists attended the Sulphur Springs District mass meeting on Sunday, Nov. 4, at Commerce's ETSTC auditorium. Dr. Marvin Vance of First Methodist Church in Austin, addressed a crowd estimated at 1200.

Among those attending from Talco were: Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Worthington, Patsy and Gene; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Bowman, Mrs. J. E. Cox and Jo Ann, Helen Ruth Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Walker and Butch, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brown and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Riley, Charles and Susie Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Jack

NOT PREPARED

An advertising salesman got on board the Chief and took a roomette. He carried with him only a small grip, and the porter inquired of his other luggage. "I have none," said the man. "Why, I thought you were a salesman," said the porter. "That's right, I am. But I don't need a lot of luggage; I sell brains."

The porter scratched his head and finally said: "Well, you are the first traveling salesman that ever rode this train without samples."

Thompson and family, Mrs. Grady Traweck, Rev. John Dvorak, Mrs. Shelby Johnson, Shelby Gene and Virginia.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. E. Luttrell wish to thank their friends for their expressions of sympathy in the loss of their mother, Mrs. J. D. Allison in Paris last week.

1. WHY IS CANCER TREATMENT LIKE GARDENING?

Answer to Question No. 1:

1. The Sloan-Kettering Institute points out that, since cancer is like a terrible weed, the destruction of the disorderly growth of cancer cells follows gardening methods: pulling out the weeds (surgery); burning out the weeds (irradiation); altering the soil (changing body fluids by giving steroid hormones); killing the weed in the soil (giving treatment to kill cancer cells, yet leaving normal cells unharmed); exploding weeds with chemicals (use of chemicals which explode cancer cells). Every gardener knows weeds are easiest to destroy when they first appear. The same is true of cancer.

Answer to Question No. 2:

2. It used to be that pneumonia would keep you in the hospital for as long as five weeks. Now, because of modern drugs and techniques, many cases of pneumonia can be discharged from the hospital in five days. Although hospital costs have risen, because modern hospitals, adapted to high standards of medical care, are expensive to operate, this reduction in the length of hospital stay has actually lessened the expense of illness.

Answer to Question No. 3:

3. Authorities say 40 per cent of all days lost from work are due to colds. Assuming a $7 a day loss in earnings or productive capacity, colds cost $420,000,000 a year on this basis alone. In addition, they often lead to more expensive and more serious illnesses.

Mr. Wadlington is a graduate of Ada, Ok., High School, East Central College of Ada, and is now employed by a cotton firm in Dallas. He is the son of Wayne Wadlington and the late Mrs. Wadlington of Ada, Ok.

WAY TO AVOID TROUBLE

Editor Herb Saal had to correct his youthful reporter. "Never say that every member of the Fourth Ward Political Club takes graft."

"But they all do." "Yes, I know," said the editor, "but lets avoid trouble. Say that every member of the club, with one exception, takes graft. Then no member of the club will feel personally offended."

TARGET FOR TODAY

A small group of neighborhood children had built a fort. All but one, a rather antisocial little boy, had various military titles appropriate for the fort's defenders.

"And what's Dickie supposed to be?" asked the mother in whose yard the fort had been built.

Her 7-year-old son responded instantly, "Oh, he's our target."

IMMORALITY HAS A SOURCE, SAYS SENATOR HARRY BYRD

No one will deny that we are in a national crisis, perhaps of magnitude and duration such as we have never before experienced. General Eisenhower estimated the present emergency may go on for 20 to 30 years. We are faced, therefore, with the necessity for unprecedented long range defense expenditures.

In one breath the President seemed to realize this, when, on January 15, he told Congress that "the government must practice rigid economy in its nondefense activities." Yet a week later he submitted his budget increasing domestic-civilian spending to its highest level. Surprising as it may seem in view of the international situation, Congress was asked to approve adoption of vast subsidy schemes for federalizing health, farming, food, housing, etc.

Shortcutting the Constitution
Our great freedom heritage is the Constitution of the United States. And we have every reason to consider the American system of free enterprise as the world's greatest deterrent to world conflict. Our productive system is a more dependable guardian of peace than the United Nations ever will be. It is the only force in the world that Russia recognizes and fears. It is a creature of democracy. Neither democracy nor our free enterprise system can survive in insolvency.

In recent years there have been give-away programs on top of give-away programs, by which the government has been taking money from people, giving them back less than it took, and in the process making them think they are getting something for nothing. Through these programs we have gradually centralized power in a gigantic sprawling bureaucracy which is just too big to audit. This centralization of power in Washington is still increasing. The President is constantly asking for more and more power to be taken from the states, from the localities and from the source of all power—the people.

Immorality Breeding Grounds
Actually it is difficult to determine whether these continual attacks on our constitutional institutions and fiscal responsibility have bred immorality in high places or whether the immorality in high places has brought about the attacks upon our institutions. But in any event, the moral situation in Washington has grown so bad that James A. Farley, one of the most honorable of men, recently summed it up by saying: "We are told that if the act of a public official is not illegal, it is necessarily proper and always excusable."

It is unnecessary to go through all the revelations of the RFC investigations; the five-percenters investigation; the situation in which the army officer said he was "just one who got caught;" the patronage peddling in Mississippi; the revelations of the Crime Committee and the tie-ups between government activities and the underworld, etc.

A code of political ethics has been proposed. But if the time has come in America when we must pass a law and appoint a commission to establish a code of ethics to tell public servants they should be honest, to tell public servants they should be loyal to

Tips for Killing Fishy Odors

Fish sometimes loses its popularity in the home because the odor remains in the kitchen long after it has been eaten. Frances Reasonover, food and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, has these tips for conquering that fishy odor:

Rinse hands in cold water before touching the fish. Afterwards wash hands with hot water and salt. Soap won't do the job, the specialist warns.

Fishy odors can be removed from frying pans and dishes by soaking them in hot water and salt. Apply no soap until the salt has had a chance to do its work.

When fish is stored in the refrigerator, be sure that it is wrapped in a plastic bag or other airtight material, so that the fish odor will not penetrate other foods.

their government, to tell public servants they should not barter public trust for greedy personal profit—if the time has come when Congress has to set up a commission to rewrite the Ten Commandments with special applications to political opportunists, then the basic virtues of our form of government have been crucified. In the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia, there is an old saying: "You can't measure a snake until it's dead."

Grade A Dairying Is Year Around Pay-off Business

An expanding Grade A dairy program throughout this area is being talked by many as a partial solution to high-cost cotton production.

Lamar Creamery Company in Paris, a long-time champion of the dairy industry, is encouraging a new swing to dairying by cooperating with interested dairy farmers in getting set up for the year-around pay-off business.

Creamery officials, in pointing out recent increases in the buying price of grade A milk, state that their fall production program permits only 50 new Grade A contracts.

Since dairying is going strong in Hopkins, Franklin and Delta counties in Texas and Choctaw, McCurtain and Pushmataha counties in Oklahoma, officials are hoping that as many as possible of the 50 contracts will be made in Lamar County.

The officials urge farmers to increase their herds because the outlook for dairy profits have never been better.

"You help yourself when you encourage your neighbor to go into Grade A milk production," officials say, adding that area volume lowers cost of moving milk to market where low-volume scattered milk production increases costs.

HALLOWEEN SOCIAL AT METHODIST CHURCH

During the week of United Evangelism in the local Methodist church, Wednesday night occasioned the celebration of "All Saint's Eve" or Halloween, with a party for the youth following the regular church service.

Fifty young people and many parents celebrated "spook and Goblin night" by witnessing the "Thing," playing games and digesting refreshments. Larry Meredith, pastor of the Pattonville Ct., entertained the youth with several Gary Moore renditions which proved highly entertaining.

The party was under direction of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kempe, ably assisted by Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cain, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brown, Mrs. Grady Trawick, Mrs. A. E. Foster and Mrs. J. E. Cox as youth sponsors.

VERY TRUE

A minister walked into the office of a newspaper in Rocky Mount, N. C., and said: "Mister Editor, they is 43 of my congregation which subscribe fo' yo' paper. Do that entitle me to have a church notice in yo' Sunday issue?"

"Sit down and write," said the editor.

"I thank you, sir." And this is the notice the minister wrote: "Mount Memorial Baptist Church, the Rev. John Walker, pastor. Preaching morning and evening. In the promulgation of the gospel, three books are necessary. The Bible, the hymnbook, and the pocketbook. Come tomorrow and bring all three."

SOUND REASONING

It was just after the honeymoon and the bride had prepared her first home-cooked meal for her beloved. A few moments after he started to eat, the young man started to shudder and finally he said:

"Darling, I don't like to criticize your first meal, but the meat isn't cooked and neither are the vegetables."

"I know and I can't understand it," replied the bride. "I followed the directions in the cookbook, too. The recipes were for four people and as there are just two of us, I measured out half of everything and cooked it half the time it said."

ONE "PULL-OVER"

"Hey, you. Pull over," the traffic cop shouted.

The lady complied and next day the judge fined her $25. She was quite upset, not wishing her husband, who kept an eagle eye on her checkbook, to learn of the incident. Then struck by a thought, she penned on the check stub: "One pull-over, $25."

STICKING TO GRAMMAR

Father: "Did you notice that pile of wood as you came in?"

Son: "Yes, sir, I seen it."

Father: "Mind your grammar. You should say you saw it."

Son: "Yes, sir, I saw the scene, and I seen the saw. You saw me see it, but you ain't seen me saw it."

DEFINITION OF POISE

Poise is the quality which enables you to buy a new pair of shoes without seeming to be aware of the hole in your sock.

NEEDS FINISHING

"Your daughter has considerable natural talent for reciting, Mrs. Smith."

"Yes, all she needs now is a course in electrocution to finish her off."

HUSBANDS AND WIVES

"John, let's don't let people on the train know we've been married less than an hour."

"Okay, you read a book and I'll talk to the blonde in Section 13."

Texan Gives Eyes To Blind Center

It might be interesting to cotton growers who have their cotton ginned at plants using the Hardwick-Etter cleaner to know that Joe Etter, 80, of the firm which makes the machine, died recently at Sherman.

He willed his eyes to the Bank of Sight Restoration in New York. They were removed immediately following his death by a Sherman surgeon, packed in cracked ice, cushioned by sponges and sent by air express to New York.

Etter must have been a man seeking to provide everything life had to offer. He did a good job in building the cotton cleaner and then gave his eyes, when he was thru with them, that some blind person might see.

FRIEND IN NEED

Ira was greatly worried about his rapidly thinning hair. "Looks as if I'm sure goin' to be bald before long," he said to the barber in a mournful voice. "Can't you suggest something to keep it in?"

The barber looked a bit puzzled. "Well, now, I don't know that it makes any difference," he said soothingly, "but if you feel you want something fancy, I'll give you this here hand-painted matchbox to put it in."

SOD IN HIS WAY

"Faith," declared Mike, "tis an unthankful country this is, now. Here we Irish have done so much for the United States and b'jabs they've named only one state after an Irishman!"

His faithful friend, Pat, raised his red eyebrows. "I didn't know there was such a state, Mike!"

"Sure and have ye never heard o' that western state, O'Regon?"

Talco Happenings Ten Years Ago

Week of November 7, 1941
First frost of the season blanketed this area on Nov. 1.

Titus County sent 13 selectees to the army Nov. 17. They were James William Johnson, Clifton J. Denny, Claud James Cawthorn, William Hugh Lee, Herbert Harvey Landrum, Johnnie Elton Browning, Steven Woodrow Hale, Marvin Robertson, Robert Wade Roach, Albert G. Ruchington, Howard Leftwich, William Arthur Burton Jr. and Delbert Alexandra.

Carl Sikes and Miss Nadine Potts had married in Talco on Nov. 1.

The mother of B. E. and D. O. Dunagan had been buried at West Mountain, near Gilmer.

School doors at Talco were to be closed Nov. 27 and 28 for Thanksgiving.

Bennie Ruth, 5 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Carrell of Hitchcock, had died in an automobile collision.

A daughter had been born to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Stoker of Joliet on Nov. 2.

Miss Pauline Riley of Talco, had been one of the 20 outstanding students at ETSTC.

Miss Delores Later had entertained her Sunday School class with a Hallowe'en party. Present were Bob Later, Laurel Goodloe, Murry Foster, Billie Rae Dickerson, Buster Hart, Marlin Trimble, Clifford Jones, Miller Nickols, Donald Long, Vera Henderson, Shirley Henderson, Frank Lindsey, Genevieve Welborn, Venita Neeley, Kenneth Sikes, J. L. Lemay, Oleta Nicewarmer, Mary Ruth Smith, Myrel Sockwell and the hostess, Delores Later.

Cynthia Marie Hoffpaur had given a birthday party. Those present were Glenda Wright, Johnnie Rollins, Sherrill Sweden, Guy Dean Wright, Mable Brown, Clara Ruth Hoffpaur, Eddie Griggs, Gail Ray Reeves and the hostess.

A party had been enjoyed in the home of Lela Jane Van Winkle. Present were Bob Carlisle, Jitter Smith, Tommy McClellan, Gale Rae Reeves, Eddie Griggs, Glenda Wright, Sherrill Sweden, Cynthia Hoffpaur, Martha Jo Chapman, Joyce Ann Richardson, Jean Warren, Joan Fentress and the hostess.

Contract had been let for the grading and drainage of 2.6 miles of Highway 271 between Bogata and Joliet.

Mrs. G. A. Alridge, 71, had died at Joliet.

Shipments of asphalt from the Talco Asphalt & Refining Co.'s plant at Mt. Pleasant totaled 12,500 carloads that year.

Drilling had been resumed at the Doyle Bros. & Barr oil test well near Birdstown. Drill was down to 1800 feet.

Bennie Ruth, five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Carrell of Hitchcock, formerly of Hagansport, had died of injuries in a car wreck. Burial was at Hagansport.

PLAYING IT SAFE

Pat was thought to be dying. A friend at the bedside asked:

"Have you made peace with God and denounced the devil?"

"I've made peace with God," Pat answered, "but I'm in no position to antagonize anybody."

CALVARY BTU SOCIAL TUESDAY NIGHT

A social for the intermediate and young people's Training Union of the Calvary Baptist Church was held Tuesday night at the educational building of the church. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Davis and Chas. Hawkins are sponsors of the groups. The evening was spent playing games and singing.

STUMPED

The Atlanta Citizen Journal tells of the old pilot of a sight-seeing river boat who likes to show off before his admiring passengers.

"Yes," he was saying one day to a crowd aboard, "I've been a pilot on this river boat so long that I know where every stump is." Just then the boat struck a stump which shook it from stem to stern. "There," he continued, "that's one of them now."

A POOR STENOGRAPHER

It had been one of the boss's bad days, and in the last few minutes his secretary brought him a letter for his signature. He signed the letter, but not until he had the stenographer put it back in the typewriter and add: "P. S. Please excuse errors. Dictated to a poor stenographer."

After he had left the office, the gal took the letter from the envelope, and added: "P. S. No. 2: The reason I am poor is because he pays me only $25 a week."

Alcorn Sees No Danger This Country Going Under from Over-Spending

Editor's note: Achin Alcorn, philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sulphur turns his thoughts to economics this week and we don't mind saying he knows as much about that field as any other.

Dear Editor: I was out here yesterday wonderin why I didn't fix up things around this place a little snuggler earlier in the fall before it got cold, I remember tellin myself there wasn't any use shiverin through another winter, windows on the north side of the house at least could be weather-stripped, but while I'm convinced when it's cold the job ought to be done, when the norther plays out and things warm up, the necessity seems to dwindle away, and while I was sittin by the fire last night I noticed an article in a newspaper stickin out of the kindlin box and since I wanted to warm myself a little better anyway I moved over close enough to pick it up and read where some of the experts in Washington are afraid this country may spend itself to death.

Accordin to them, this country may push itself into economic ruin by over-spendin, and one Senator says "the Russians prefer to defeat us by forcin us to spend ourselves to destruction."

Personally, I don't believe it can be done. We've tried it. The American people have had too many years of rugged experience in over-spendin, to ever go under from that cause. Over-spendin is what gives most people their drive to keep ahead of the installments, is what makes business hum. If all the complainin over Washington over-spendin was limited to the folks who don't over-spend themselves, things would be fairly quiet.

Our whole economy is based on the assumption more people are gonna buy cars and radios and television sets and washin machines than can afford em. If the average man, which includes me, waited until he could afford a car, the number of unemployed fillin station attendants, automobile mechanics, gasoline dealers, new car dealers, used car dealers, etc., would put such a strain on the relief rolls Congress would never get through appropriatin enough money to stem the tide.

If you ask me, we're experts at over-spendin, and if Russia or anybody else is sittin back waitin for us to go under from that cause, they've got a long sit ahead of em. If there was ever a country which has mastered the art of spendin more than you make, this is it. I don't know how it's done, but I'm sure in favor of it myself. Renew my subscription to your paper and I'll pay you when I get around to it.

Yours faithfully, A. A.

Read and Help Curb Hunting Tragedies Afield

Austin. — The seasons are set, bag limits established and prospects call for pretty fair hunting for most of Texas. But the routine will not be completed until the "forms" are distributed. The "forms" go to the game wardens to cover casualty reports.

On the theory that stressing the grim side in advance might save sordid details later, the Chief Clerk explained a potent section or two in the "forms."

This one implies the more common causes of hunting casualties: Intentional discharge of firearm.

Victim moved into line of fire without warning.

Victim covered by excited shooter swinging on game.

Victim unseen by shooter.

Victim mistaken for game.

Shooter stumbled or fell.

Trigger caught in brush.

Clubbing game or cover.

Removing weapon from boat or vehicle.

Crossing fence.

Didn't know it was loaded.

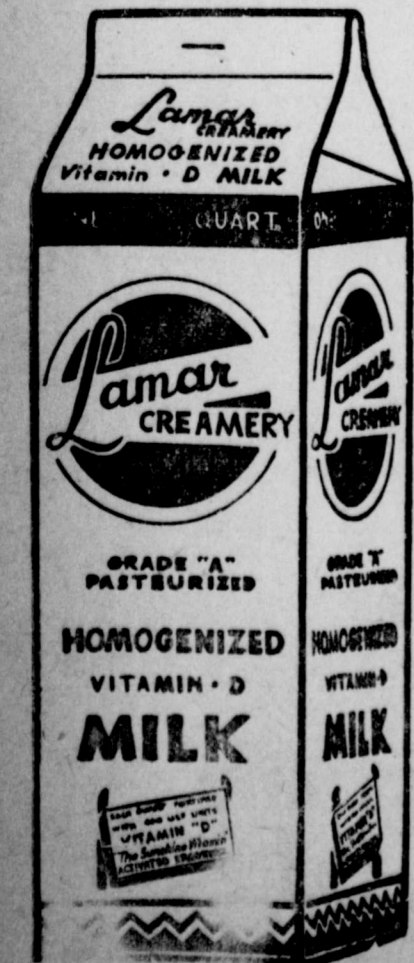

The Chief Clerk suggested sportsmen study these main causes of hunting accidents, become more safety conscious and help curb tragedies afield.

NO BUY-GOOD BYE

"How did the audience receive your campaign speech when you told them you had never bought a vote?" the campaign chairman asked the candidate for governor. "A few cheered, but the majority seemed to lose interest," he replied.

FAIR PLAY

The boat was sinking and Joe rushed to Jeb with an extra life preserver. "Not for me," announced Jeb, pushing it to one side. "I've been paying life insurance for years. Now it's the company's turn."

Duck and Goose Season Opens at Noon, Friday

Texas waterfowl season, according to the Game and Fish Commission's digest of laws, runs from noon on Nov. 9 to one hour before sunset on Dec. 28, a period of 50 days. Shooting hours are one-half hour before sunrise to one hour before sunset.

Bag limit is five geese, five ducks. Possession limit is five geese, 10 ducks. You may not have more than one wood duck in possession at any time.

Baiting and live decoys are prohibited. You may not use a shotgun larger than 10 gauge and the gun must be permanently plugged so as not to hold more than three shells. You need a Federal Duck Stamp, $2, if you're over 16 and a resident's hunting license, $2.15, if you hunt outside your home county.

A SURE SHOT

Two deer hunters in the southern woods had got their deer, but were so completely lost they despaired of ever finding their way out of the wilderness. Finally, one of them exclaimed: "I've got it. All we have to do is shoot an extra deer."

"How will that help?" weeped his despairing companion.

"It's simple," the other replied, "we just shoot a deer illegally and a game warden will walk through the bushes inside of two minutes."

Leaflet Available New Motor Law

Austin. — Texas motorists are urged by Public Safety Director Homer Garrison Jr., to apply to any gasoline service station for a copy of the state's official leaflet about the new Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Law, which becomes effective on Jan. 1.

"This leaflet was prepared," Director Garrison said, "to give automobile owners and operators the information they should have about this law before it goes into effect. It can be read in five minutes. I hope, of course, that all motorists will really study the facts that are set forth in the leaflet and will keep it in their car for future reference in case they have an accident and are confused about what to do."

"Any motorist can obtain one or several merely for the asking. It may save them a lot of trouble, expense and inconvenience."

Miss Eleanor Vaughan spent Wednesday night with Miss June Gullion of Bogata.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hawkins visited Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ward at Bogata Sunday.

SHORTHAND — ADVERTISER

Max Schling, a New York florist, ran a whole advertisement in shorthand in the New York Times. Many a business man cut it out and handed it to his secretary to translate. The ad asked secretaries to think of Schling when the boss wanted flowers for his wife.

Bud "Talks Turkey" — Long Distance

Some people chuckled when Sonny Fisher rented a home recording machine to record the noise his flock of turkeys make.

"I sent the recording to a buyer for a super-market chain," Sonny said. "I told them 'My turkeys speak for themselves—listen to this record!' They not only took my birds, but bought the record!"

"Why did they want the record?" I asked him. "Very simple," he says. "They're going to play it over the loud speakers in their stores—and then an announcer on another record reminds the customers that turkeys are plentiful and a good buy."

From where I sit, it's not always smart to make fun of someone just because he does things a little differently. I think a glass of beer is the most refreshing beverage there is. You — or Sonny — may prefer something else. But who's to decide one's right and the other's wrong? Let's stay "on record" that everyone's entitled to his own tastes and opinion.
