Truck Route from Texarkana to Mt. Pleasant and Paris Will Handle Mail

A truck mail route has been established by the Postoffice Department between Texarkana, Mt. Pleasant and Paris which will handle the mail for and in between those towns, formerly served by the Cotton Belt and the Paris & Mt. Pleasant motor car.

Contract was awarded to O. R. McMillan of Linden. His truck will leave Texarkana railway postoffice terminal at 5 a. m.; reach Mt. Pleasant at 7:50; leave at 7:20 and arrive at Paris at 9 a. m.

It will leave Paris, southeast and northeast bound at 3:15 p. m.; arrive at Mt. Pleasant at 4:50 p. m.; leave Mt. Pleasant at 5:10 p. m. and arrive at Texarkana at 7:15 p. m.

McMillan was granted the job until June 30, 1955 and his salary will be $10,480 per year.

This schedule goes into effect Tuesday, June 16.

Schedule and instructions from H. W. Newbold, District Superintendent have gone out to postmasters at Paris, Pattonville, Depert, Bogata, Johntown, Talco and Mt. Pleasant; also at Cookville, Omaha, Naples, Bassett, Carbondale, Corley, Sims, Maud and Redwater.

Schedule is about the same as has been in effect with the mail handled by the Paris and Mt. Pleasant and the Cotton Belt, except a little earlier in the morning and a few minutes earlier in the evening.

Paris and Mt. Pleasant railroad has handled the mail between Paris and Mt. Pleasant since the line was constructed more than 40 years ago. Numerous attempts were made in years past by bus lines to take it over, but people along the line protested and supported their locally-built railroad.

For many years the railroad has used a small motor car to carry the mail and it also accommodated a few passengers, but the bus lines took most of the passenger traffic.

With installation of truck service, the jobs of hauling the mail between the depots and postoffices will be eliminated, and this savings is probably what prompted the P. O. Department to put the mail on a truck route. The truck will deliver and pick up mail at the various postoffices.

Five Workers Hurt In Oil Well Mishap At Talco Monday

Five oil field workers were injured in an oil well accident on the King Lease at Talco about 8 o'clock Monday night. The well was being cleaned out and sucker rods were being pulled preparatory to perforating the well casing. The five men were working on the derrick floor and a stack of rods broke their lashings and fell on them.

Neither of the five were critically hurt. Two of them live in Bogata, Hollis Mathena and H. W. Vickers. They are employed by the Cable Tool and Rotary Drilling Co. of Overton. Mathena was taken to the Grant Hospital in Deport and Vickers to his home in Bogata.

All of the men were more or less skinned and bruised and Mathena had an artery in his leg severed.

Glen O. Howard was treated at Taylor Hospital, Mt. Pleasant, and released. W. E. Moya and Paul Morgan, with the perforating company, were treated at Taylor Hospital, also, and were then taken to their homes in Tyler.

Titus County Community is Named Winner Sweepstake Award $500

COLLEGE STATION. — West New Hope community of Titus County was named winner of the sweepstake award of $500 in the 1953 Texas Community Pasture Improvement contest. The contest is sponsored jointly by Radio Station WFAA and the Dallas Morning News in cooperation with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in Extension districts 3, 4, 5, 8, and 9.

The purposes of the contest are to stimulate individual, family and community interest and effort toward a program of range and pasture improvement conducted through the cooperative leadership within the communities; to increase the quality and quantity of livestock forage and grazing; to promote better use of croplands through sod-crop systems and to promote wiser use of pastures and forests.

In addition to the sweepstake winner, the contest regulations provide for up to three cash prizes in each of the five eligible districts. First prize in each district is $250; second place draws $150, and third place winners receive a $100 cash award. District 5 winners are: First, Mabry, in Red River County; Macey in Lamar County and Marshall Springs in Titus County.

E. C. Martin, state agricultural leader for the Extension Service, reports that in addition to the five sweepstake entries, 50 communities in 23 counties participated in the contest. He adds that schedules are being planned for the presentation of the awards to the winning communities.

Red River Gets Deep Smackover Wildcat Test

Another try for Smackover lime pay "outside" the Talco-Mexia fault system was on record Thursday for southeastern Red River County.

The exploration will be made by Seaboard Oil Company, Dallas, marking the re-entry of that firm into East Texas as a wild-catter.

Scheduled for 8,000, the test will be No. 1 Coline Development Company (Santa Fe R. R.), and it falls twelve miles northeast of Talco on what Seaboard calls its Southeast Clarksville prospect which it has covered with 11,000 acres of leases. Site also is six miles north of the Pewitt Ranch Paluxy sand field in Titus County and four miles south of a Smackover lime failure drilled several years ago by Texas Company.

The wildcat is spotted on a lease of 1,188.6 acres with drill-site marked 1,700 from the northerly north line and 467 from the northerly west line of the Ingenio Tejada survey. Gulf-Leeper Drilling Company, Ardmore, will cut the hole.

There has been considerable speculation about this test for two months. This newspaper has printed what it could learn about it six weeks ago, but that was very little.

Steel Production Gets Underway at Lone Star Plant in Morris County

A century-old industrial dream became a reality Wednesday when the Lone Star Steel Company began full-scale production of steel at Lone Star in Morris County.

In a brief ceremony officials of the company placed in operation the first of four giant open hearth furnaces. More than 200 tons of scrap steel, pig iron and limestone went into the furnace, emerging as 170 tons of high-grade ingot steel.

The ceremony originally had been scheduled for Saturday but was delayed because of mechanical difficulties.

Early reports of East Texas trail blazers in the industry will be recognized when several antique plowshares, horse shoes and other iron products of another generation were thrown into the furnace. Members of pioneer east Texas families took part in this phase of the program.

East Texas began the production of iron products from native ore as far back as the Civil War. In recent years an electric furnace has been in operation but the Lone Star's open hearth is said to be the first in the area.

Completion of the furnace climaxes an $87,000,000 expansion program launched more than two years ago. When all four furnaces are put into operation, which probably will be within the next ninety days, the production of steel goods will mount to more than half million tons annually.

The new furnace is capable of producing 220 tons from each charge but will be brought to that figure slowly as a part of a breaking-down process, according to W. R. Bond, vice-president in charge of operations.

After being placed in the furnace the charge is heated to a temperature of 3,000 degrees and held there for sixteen hours. Next it is drawn off and poured into ingot molds, each weighing 18,500 pounds.

The entire operation from start to finish is push-button controlled.

Though the Lone Star plant has been turning out pig iron for several years, the production of steel is expected to attract hundreds of fabrication plants to the area, which has an abundance of fuel and water.

President E. B. Germany has made the prediction that within the next generation Morris and surrounding counties will develop into an industrial area that will rival Birmingham, Ala.

Said An Army Nurse Of Her Experiences

I walked into my ward in England one night with a tray of medicine and immediately upon entering I could feel the tension. I noticed a chalk line down the middle of the ward. At that moment one of the boys spoke very sharply:

"If you are from the North, walk on the north, if from the South stay on the south side of that line."

I had to stop a moment and think, because I had to be on both sides of that line. All of a sudden I cheerily stated:

"Oh, I can walk on either side, because I'm a Texan, not from either place, I'm from Texas."

Everyone roared and once again the war was over between the North and South.

Increase Electric Capacity at Talco 125 Per Cent

Due to the continued load growth in the Talco area the Community Public Service Co. is building a new and modern substation on Highway 271 at the north city limits of Talco.

The present station of 600 KVA capacity is located 1/2 mile farther from town and does not have automatic equipment.

The new station will have 1350 KVA capacity with automatic oil circuit breaker and regulators. The regulators are automatic equipment that will keep constant voltage at all times on the primary system. Provision is being made in the station to add another circuit into town as the load condition demands it.

Work on expansion of electric substation facilities in Talco, begun by Community Public Service Company early in April, is nearing completion.

The existing 600 kva. substation has been increased to 1350 kva., 22-12.5 kv., and a new six-pole structure is being built which will have a regulated bus bar and two 12.5 kv. distribution circuits. The enlargement of existing facilities is being done to provide for the expanding electrical needs of Talco, says Manager W. A. Thurman, Community's Talco manager.

Construction work has been carried on by a district line crew under Owen Hull, Division Engineer of Whitewright, Foreman J. Lee Smith of Bogata, assisted by part of the division line crew out of Leonard. Smith and Division Line Foreman Joe Richards have been supervising the work.

Thieves Enter Deport's First National Bank Early Sunday; Loot is Small

Thieves entered Deport's First National Bank about 2 o'clock Sunday morning but secured only a few cents in change, a small amount of stamps and other minor loot.

Sheriff Dan Bills said that investigation into the Sunday morning burglary was being continued. He, Chief Deputy Dean Fuller and FBI Agent Guy Leonard came to Deport early Sunday to check the break-in.

J. B. Griffin, cashier, discovered the burglary Sunday morning when he took the morning mail to the bank.

The burglars broke out a window on the south side of the bank with a two-by-four timber, cut the screen and entered the building. Investigating officers found that a small amount of stamps and change, some mechanical pencils, two letter openers and other small items were missing.

No attempt was made to enter the vault, but desks in the building were ransacked.

Nightwatchman Othor Pearson whose car was parked in front of the Hayes store, two blocks away, thought he heard glass crash, but could not locate the disturbance. He did not know about the robbery until he went to church Sunday.

A strange car occupied by two men was parked near the Grant Hospital about 2 o'clock. Since they did ring for admittance, Constable Pick Anderson was called. He made an investigation and talked to Nightwatchman Pearson, but could find nothing out of place.

Fingerprints were secured and officers are continuing their investigation. Many are of the opinion it was the work of amateurs, or it could have been the robbers known officers were about and did not start operations to enter the bank vault and safe.

Shuman Home Place Destroyed by Fire

A large five room house and contents on the Fred Shuman home place about a half mile southeast of Deport, were destroyed by fire Tuesday morning about 6:30. The house owned by Fred Shuman of Texarkana, was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McMikel and family. It is reported the blaze originated from an oil cook stove. Older members of the McMikel family had gone to the field to work, when the fire was discovered.

Raymond Nixon, who farms and nearby, turned in the alarm. Deport Volunteer Firemen answered the call but the structure had already fallen in when firemen arrived.

The loss on the building was partially covered by insurance. There was no insurance on the contents.

HOUSTON. — The Saturday Evening Post reported that Houston Oilman Hugh Roy Cullen gave the University of Houston "some $130,000,000 to $210,000,000," but Cullen announced he was "embarrassed" by the article and that the actual figure was only $25,000,000.

Cullen had never before disclosed his gifts to the university. Cullen prepared a statement saying he and Mrs. Cullen "want to correct this error." He said they were "very much embarrassed" upon reading it.

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING

BURT LOCKHART
in Pittsburg Gazette

If you see your fortune coming a long way off, enjoy it. It may not get here.

It is not until we look back at those "good old days" that we realize we are not as hardup as we think.

Nylon hose are being made with built-in garters. Our reader up the street is skeptical. He says he must be shown.

Those guys who figure on "taking it with them" should not overlook one important detail—a fire insurance policy.

"Economist: A man who tells you what to do with the money you would not have if you had followed his proposals."

Vacations have become so strenuous that only those who don't need them are the ones who can afford to take them.

You don't have to be an old-timer to remember when the local pastor preached against going to the post office on Sunday.

Total amount of money in circulation in this nation is thirty billion dollars. What a whale of a lot of buying, paying and promising it can do!

We have often been reminded that life begins at 40, but since a social security program was formulated most people have moved up the years to 65.

Air conditioning is getting a lot of attention in the advertising columns of the papers, but you have to turn to the birth column if you want to find out how many homes are being heir conditioned.

Little businesses are seldom investigated. It is when they grow up and become prosperous and useful that efforts are made to destroy them and question their integrity.

The coronation cost England
$4,500,000. What it cost the people individually is another item.
What it cost Americans who saw the coronation is still another fantastic item—some fifty million dollars.

South Korea is displeased with the U. N., England is dissatisfied with a little of everything. China is disgruntled and ditto Russia.
It seems to be unanimous that nobody is pleased with anything.
It looks like a motion to adjourn is now in order.

During her mother's party at home, little daughter listened carefully to remarks made by the weight-conscious women guests.
Reporting to her little friends the next day, she observed, "I guess all women either put on fat, take it off, or rearrange it."

Alcorn Claims He Has Proof the South Won Civil War and He's Satisfied

Editor's note: Achin Alcorn, pholosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sulphur, has an odd idea this week, which we publish without comment. May be a few Yankees living around here.

Dear Editor: All my life I've heard it said the Yankees have more stamina than the Southerners, more drive, more get-up about em, if you want something done, give it to a hard-drivin Northerner, don't turn it over to a drawlin slow-movin Southerner, and while this never has bothered me, in fact, it suits me fine. I recognize the wheels of industry and commerce and literature have got to keep turnin and if the Yankees want the job I'm perfectly willin, never did see a wheel that had a place on it to fit my shoulder, but there are some Southerners who don't like it.

They resent it. They argue about it. They get up before daylight to prove they've got as much energy as anybody. Now while it never has affected me that

They were, Mona and Cheryl Hawkins, Anita, Danny and Jackie Dodd, Nelda and Linda Dodd and Mrs. D. A. Baxter of Johtown, Betty Marie Gill, Sharon Reynolds, Sue Arnold and Mrs. Johnny Gill of Bogata and Nancy Wood of Rugby.

Mary Ann Vaughan accompanied, I figure energy is something you don't have to prove, it's like money, you spend it recklessly to prove you got it and you wind up without any, personally I've always conserved my energy, feelin that energy still inside me was better than energy used up goin up one row and down another, but as I say, while this claim of Northern superiority in this field of endeavor never has bothered me, it has a lot of Southerners.

I believe though I have run on to some evidence that will win the argument for the South.

I noticed in an article in a magazine the other day which I borrowed from a barber shop in town where I was visitin for social purposes, not professional, where there are now six survivors of the Civil War still livin.

And here's the overwhelming fact that ought to end the argument from now on: Out of those six survivors, five of em are Confederates! The South had the stamina to out-survive the North five to one. In fact, you might say, from sheer numerical strength, in the final analysis the South won the war.

This is such a satisfying conclusion, such devastatin proof the South has more energy and stay-in-power than the North, that as far as I'm concerned that ends the argument and I intend to rest on my laurels from now on. The South can rise again if it wants to, but as for me, personally, I'll continue settin.

Yours faithfully, A. A.

Trenton Bank Vault Blasted and $250 Missing

Two safe-crackers went to a lot of trouble to collect only $250 when they blew the door off the vault of the First National Bank at Trenton in Fannin County around 3 a. m. Monday.

The safe-crackers set off four charges of explosives to blow open the vault door, then snatched up the silver from the change box in the vault. The fourth and largest blast started a fire in filing cabinets near the vault and blew out the large plate-glass window in the front of the bank building.

After hearing the first three blasts, Trenton citizens had called Constable Wade Morris at Leonard. He arrived in time to take three shots at the fleeing robbers with a pistol but missed.

The robbers did not bother two safes in the bank which contained a large amount of money in bills.

Shaddix-Jones Nuptials Saturday

Miss Dorothy Shaddix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shaddix of Daingerfield, became the bride of Jerry Jones of Talco, in a double ring ceremony at the home of Rev. J. W. Reeder of Hughes Springs at 6:30 p. m. Saturday, with Rev. Reeder the officiating minister.

Miss Shaddix chose for her wedding a gown of blush pink iced taffeta. She wore a shoulder bouquet of white orchids, and her halo hat was appliqued with lace flowers.

Her matron of honor was her twin sister, Mrs. Galen Johnson of Daingerfield. Her dress was of mint-green iced taffeta, and her flowers were white carnations.

Mr. Jones' attendant was Bud Welborn of Talco. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Galen Johnson of Daingerfield.

Miss Onita Walker cut the three tiered wedding cake. Forty guests called at the reception.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Jones of Talco. He was graduated from Texas Christian University, and is vice president and cashier of the Talco State Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones will be at home in Talco, following a wedding trip to New Orleans. They will have an apartment at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Kelley until their new home near the school building is completed.

Grant Hospital Under New Management

Misses Wilma and Robbie Nell Stansell, nurses at the Stephen H. Grant Hospital in Deport for the past several months, will assume management of the hospital on June 15, according to Dr. Jack A. King.

Dr. King, physician and surgeon, will still be associated with the hospital, and continue to maintain an office there. The hospital has been operated by Dr. King since he came to Deport nearly two years ago.

Quinnon Davis, who has been laboratory technician for several months, has leased the laboratory and will continue to operate it.

WHY WORK?

The famous psychologist had finished his lecture and was answering questions. One meek little member of the audience asked, "Did you say that a good poker player could hold down any sort of executive job?"

"That's right. Does it raise a question in your mind?"

"Yes," came the reply. "What would a good poker player want with a job?"

WISE GIs

The commanding general of a line division in Korea was inspecting one sunny afternoon when three sniper bullets from a nearby hill whizzed over his head. Jumping into a bunker that was occupied by a sergeant, he barked, "Locate that sniper!"

"We know exactly where he is," the sergeant replied calmly.

"Why the devil don't you shoot him then?" demanded the general.

"Sir, that fellow has been sniping at this hill for weeks now and hasn't hit anybody yet. We're afraid if we kill him, they might replace him with someone that can shoot."

FISH TALE

A friend of ours returned from a fishing trip and gave an enthusiastic report of a favorite spot he'd found.

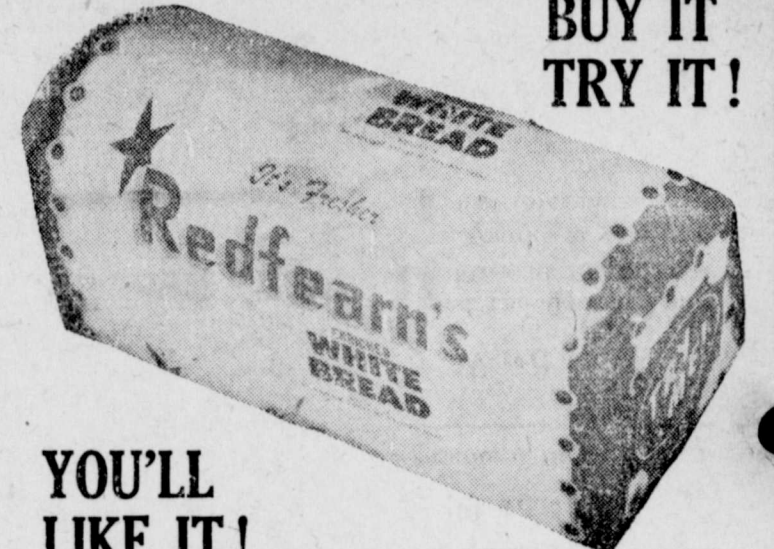

"I caught a lot of big ones," he boasted, "ten inches, 12 inches—"

"Twelve inches!" I interrupted. "That isn't a big fish!"

"Between the eyes?" he snapped.

People didn't waste money in the old days the way they do now. There wasn't any to waste.

Nobody wants the government workers fired, but they do want something done about the chafers.
