When the game started the Trojans got off to a flying start. Elton Belcher ran 10 yards for the first Trojan touchdown. Then later in the first quarter Queen City punted on 4th down and Belcher took it on the Bulldog 45 and ran all the way for the touchdown. Bud Hanks kicked the extra point.

Titus County Gets First Deer Quota For Re-Stocking

Titus and Morris counties, in areas that have signed up as part of what is formally known as the Snake Creek Wildlife Preserve recently were accorded first place in the annual deer stocking program carried out by the Game and Fish Commission of Texas. Approximately 67,000 acres have been incorporated in the reserve and deer are being planted in the area.

Two truck loads of South Texas deer were brought here by Game and Fish Commission representatives. One load of 25, including 21 bucks and four does, arrived Saturday and the animals were released in the White Lake district on White Oak Creek, about five miles north of Cooper's Chapel community.

Monday another truck load of deer, consisting of 16 bucks and 11 does, arrived and the animals were turned loose on White Oak Creek, several miles west of Highway 11, in Morris County.

All in all, the Commission said between 200 and 250 deer will be planted in the reserve this fall and winter. Another truckload is slated to arrive this week.

In view of the fact that bucks are more readily trapped in the early part of each season, most of the deer brought in so far are of that sex. However, as the season progresses, more does will be trapped and every effort will be made to balance the planted areas according to proper wildlife management practices.

Signs have been posted around the Snake Creek reserve. These signs indicate that deer have been stocked there and that it is unlawful for deer to be killed at any time during the next five years. It is not intended, though, Commission officials said, to restrict the area of other types of hunting. Before hunting is permissible on any enclosed lands, it is necessary the hunter has permission of the landowner.

The deer are being planted in the counties because the landowners wanted the deer sufficiently to group their lands in the reserve. This means most of them would not hesitate to "turn in" anyone caught shooting deer.

If the deer are left alone for the next five years, Commission officials continued, there is no reason why at the end of that period, the northern part of Titus and Morris counties will not have excellent hunting condition.

Texas' variable weather keeps one always wondering even if he does keep in touch with weather reports. Monday was real spring-like compared to Nov. 2, 1951, when the mercury dropped to a low of 30 degrees from around 90, bringing chilling winds and a trace of snow, followed by a killing frost and freeze.

Smelters Purchase Deport-Detroit Telephone Exchange

Formal announcement is made of the purchase by Guy and Martha Smelser of Bogata, of the Deport Telephone Exchange from the Southwestern States Telephone Co. That also includes the telephones at Fulbright, which are of the dial type.

The announcement does not say so, but they have also purchased the telephone exchange at Detroit, which was also owned and operated by Southwestern States.

Three weeks ago an article in this newspaper announced that the Bogata Telephone Co., owned and operated by Guy and Martha Smelser, had been incorporated for $75,000 and the name changed to Northeast Texas Telephone Co.

Negotiations for the purchase of the property have been underway for some time.

Last Friday deeds and bill of sales conveying the property and franchise in exchange for Smelser's cashier's check were exchanged, and the Smelters assumed ownership and management of the property on Nov. 1st.

An old style, hand-cranking, battery set is still used at Deport. Southwestern would not modernize the property, and the City Council would not permit an increase in rates until it did.

Smelser formerly owned the Talco Telephone Exchange before the oil boom in 1936, and attempted to buy it with Deport and Detroit, but Southwestern States would not sell.

The Smelters are experienced telephone people and have built a splendid modern exchange at Bogata, with about 400 subscribers.

Mr. Smelser has been a director of the Texas Telephone Association for four years. For one year he has served on the committee for aid to small companies in Texas for the Texas Telephone Ass'n, and was recently appointed by the United States Telephone Ass'n to serve on the Regional Committee for the aid to small companies for five states, Texas, Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Arkansas.

Paris-Hugo 271 Bridge Okayed By Oklahomans

HUGO, Okla.—The Oklahoma State Highway Commission has agreed to construction of a new bridge over Red River, on U. S. Highway 271, between Hugo and Paris.

The Oklahoma State Highway Commission agreed to the project if the Texas Highway Commission will pay half the cost, the total being estimated at between $600,000 and $700,000. It is understood that Texas is ready to meet this requirement.

Oklahoma would prepare plans and supervise the construction of the 912-foot bridge.

Keith Cartwright, Oklahoma senator, had proposed earlier that the Oklahoma Highway Commission divert this state's share of the cost from an allocation for Bryan County improvements, but the commission decided to use funds from other sources.

Slow Rain Falls In This Section

Rainfall of 1.2 inches fell in the Talco area on Tuesday and Wednesday, according to The Times' rain gauge at the home of the reporter, Mrs. O. B. Hopwood.

The rain will be beneficial to pastures, grassland, and recently planted cover crops. Several farmers planted oats, vetch and other cover crops the past week and the moisture will bring up the seed.

Mrs. F. Williams Buried Sunday

Mrs. Sally Williams passed away at a Pittsburg hospital Saturday, Oct. 31 after several days illness. Funeral services were held at the Church of Christ at 2:30 Sunday afternoon by L. L. Gieger of Tyler, assisted by Jack White of Hallsville and Quinton Fannin of the Church of Christ here. Pallbearers were E. O. Frye, J. H. Hestand, Elton Tension, W. T. Lewis, A. L. Rodgers, and R. M. Lewis. Burial was made in Talco cemetery.

Mrs. Williams, who was Miss Sally Breckeen, was married to Frank Williams in Hunt County. They moved here from Commerce in 1904 and lived here except for a few years in Holly Springs, Ark.

Deceased, who was 77 years old, is survived by a son, Vernon Williams of East Mountain, two daughters, Mrs. Nora Williams of Talco and Mrs. Florine Miller of Big Sandy; eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Relatives attending the funeral from out of town were two nephews, Melvin Tapp and Bill Gentry and their families of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Ely Gentry of Tyler and Mrs. Roy Worthy and Miss June Worthy of Texarkana.

John Cook Buys Spencer-Harris Machine Shop

John Cook of Gladewater, has purchased the machine and welding shop of Spencer-Harris Machine and Tool Co in Talco and took charge of the business on November 1.

Cook is not a stranger to Talco folk. He worked for Spencer-Harris in the shop he now owns, before he went to Gladewater in 1942 and became foreman of Spencer-Harris shop there.

Besides, he married Rufene Prestidge, a Talco girl, and is just now bringing her back home, along with their two children, Diana Sue, 10, now a fifth grader and Jeanie Lou, who is 2.

They are quartered with the Prestidges until they can get possession of a house on the shop property.

The business will be known as the Cook Machine and Welding Co., and will be operated as in the past, Mr. Cook said.

Old friends are glad to welcome the Cooks back to Talco.

A host of friends from West Mountain, Big Sandy and Greggton, also attended.

Duck hunting season opens Friday, Nov. 6. So far we haven't had enough rain and cold weather to bring in many of the big birds.

Taxes took 29 cents out of every auto sales dollar in 1952, compared with 14 cents in 1939.
Just shows another instance of how the Roosevelt and Truman administration taxed us out of our hard-earned money. When this nation's financial system finally breaks down, it will be due to taxation.

Some sportsmen who read the new hunting laws for Red River and Titus Counties too hurriedly in this newspaper last week, and did not notice a semi-colon, concluded deer could not be hunted with a shot gun. They may be hunted with a shot gun, using buckshot, but its calibre must not be larger than ten gauge.

What to plant on cotton, corn and wheat land that is taken out of production for those crops in 1954 is going to present serious problem to farmers who will be affected by the acreage reduction.
One thing is certain—these acres must not be allowed to remain idle. They should be put into some kind of a cash crop.

WHAT PRICE FEDERAL AID? THE "HELPING HAND" SOON --

FEDERAL AID COSTLY

State and municipal officers will keep running to Washington for grants-in-aid as long as Federal spending dries up all the chief sources of revenue.

Congress and the Administration recognized this when they cut nearly $13,000,000,000 from the lame-duck Truman budget and set up a committee to allocate revenue sources to the various levels of government.

The next step must be to reduce Federal expenditures still further. Otherwise, as President Eisenhower said recently, "we are not going to have America as we have known it."

The hand the Federal government uses to dole out grants-in-aid soon becomes the mailed fist of centralized power.

Bulldogs Lose to New Boston 20-0

Bogata Bulldogs lost their game on Thursday night of last week to New Boston, 20 to 0.

Despite the one-sided score, it was a rousing good ball game, and the Bulldog fans have plenty of reason to be proud of their boys. The main trouble seemed to be a player named Willie Willis.

This week the Bulldogs journey to Talco to take on the Trojans.

Alcorn Has Plan to Solve the Plight Of Busted Cattlemen in This Country

Editor's note: Achin Alcorn, philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sulphur, has a bright idea this week on the cattle situation. There's a flaw in it somewhere, but we haven't got time to figure it out.

Dear Editor: Everybody these days is worrying about the price of cattle, it's sort of a depressing thing, not only on the cattlemen but on everybody else, as a non-cattlemen gets to think about what has happened to the cattlemen and he gets to figurin it could happen to him too and he starts clampin down on his spendin and before you know it business has begun to drag its feet.

Now I have been thinkin. There's not much anybody can do about the price of cattle, except deplore it, and cattlemen have already tried that and it doesn't help much.

On the other hand, lots of people have been figurin out how maybe the government can buy high feed and sell it cheap to the cattlemen, just to keep them in business, but to a man that's out of money, there just ain't no such thing as cheap feed. When you're broke, a bowl of chili is about as out of your reach as a steak.

Therefore, I have hit on a plan. Of course nobody wants the government to go any further in the hand-out business, no body is askin the government to buy up all the cattle and go in the ranchin business, and nobody has figured out how the latter can be avoided if price supports are established. Also, the government is already too far in on the money-loaning business.

Now my plan is to let the government go into the hay-loanin business. Instead of loanin me money to keep my cows alive this winter, why can't the government just loan me some hay?

After the government loans me the hay, I will know what to do with it, and after my cows make it through the winter, maybe enough of em will have passed on which, multiplied by the losses among all the other herds thru-out the country, plus the extra meat Sec. Benson wants everybody to eat this year, will bring the price of cattle back up to where it belongs.

Me and the rest of the cattlemen will then owe the government some hay. Just when we can pay it back is hard to say, but so long as the mortgage is against the hay only, the situation won't get out of hand, and I can't see why it wouldn't be just as well for the government to show a hay deficit as a dollar deficit.

The first year we have plenty of rain and everybody has more hay than he knows what to do with, we could pay the government back, and the government could then store the hay against the next drouth. I don't know how long it's keep, but I know it'll keep better than butter, and the government's been storin

Postmasters Have Little to Worry About Jobs

Washington—Postmasters afraid of losing their jobs haven't had much to worry about.

Earlier this year there was a rumor the Eisenhower administration would give hearty shakes to this political plum tree.

But the Eisenhower promise that civil service laws would not be abused has been observed.

Here is the picture to date: There are approximately 41,000 postmasters. The Eisenhower administration has fired 118 of them.

Of these, 43 were discharged for embezzlement. The others were let go for "good reason, other than political, in every case."

Unless Congress acts to change the 1938 law protecting postmasters in their jobs there is little likelihood many more changes will be made except for resignations or as the result of actual proof of malfeasance or misfeasance.

Four Sulphur Bluff Boy Scouts Get Eagle Awards

One of the highest awards available to Boy Scouts of America is the elevation to Eagle rank. And four boys at Sulphur Bluff school Thursday night claimed the honor during a Scout Court of Honor.

They are Wallace Emerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dood Emerson; Loyd Storey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Storey; Jerry Ben Hargraves, and Gerald Pat Neal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Neal. The boys are all of Troop 61, Sulphur Bluff.

Milburn (Catfish) Smith, head football coach at East Texas State Teachers College, made the presentation as a highlight of the program.

"The Scoutmaster who gives freely of his time and effort," Smith told the group, "certainly deserves full credit for his work."

Rev. John McClean gave the invocation followed by F. H.

Jones, assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 61, Sulphur Bluff, who served as master of ceremonies.

Scout Wallace Emerson entertained the group with the traditional Indian Hoop Dance accompanied by Joe Dan Kennedy of Sulphur Springs on the tom-tom.

History and record of the troop was told by Scoutmaster Jim Burns followed by Scout Executive Dick Carpenter who introduced Smith.

1,456 U. S. Employees Are Checked Out

Washington.—The White House says 1,465 federal employees were ousted for security reasons in the first four months of the new loyalty program, and estimated that the overall total of such dismissals will exceed 6,000.

The announcement said those already dismissed or forced to quit represent only about a fourth of the number expected to be weeded from the federal payroll when loyalty screening of government workers has been completed. The White House
