PRICE DANIEL BECOMES NEW GOVERNOR OF TEXAS TUESDAY

Austin.—Price Daniel achieved his boyhood dream to be governor of Texas Tuesday with a fighting pledge to oppose "further federal encroachment" on state's rights.

The new governor criticized the Supreme Court, saying the 10th Amendment guaranteeing states' rights has "suffered from disuse and disregard at its hands."

Daniel, onetime newsboy, country editor, lawyer, state legislator, attorney general and U. S. senator, said his administration would "emphasize and fight for" that portion of the Constitution.

He made the promise in his inaugural address minutes after he swore to uphold both the state and federal constitutions. Daniel repeated the oath recited by Chief Justice J. E. Hickman of the state Supreme Court.

Daniel said there was no conflict between the state and federal constitutions except when there are "strained interpretations which cause one of the sovereigns to encroach upon the powers and rights of the other."

Uncle of Talco Lady is Dead

Mr. Austin, 76, a retired building contractor, died Wednesday about 11 p. m. at home after several years illness.

Survivors include his wife, Mary Georgia Austin and five sons, Sam and Billy Austin, both of Mt. Pleasant, Joe Austin of Shreveport, D. T. Austin Jr., Hogansville, Ga., and Jack Austin with the U. S. Army in Maryland; seven grandchildren, one great-grandchild and a sister, Mrs. Cora Rogers of California.

Services were under direction of Bro. J. O. Morman, pastor of First Baptist Church, with pallbearers nephews of Mrs. Austin,

Gaulden is New Commissioner

Glenn Gaulden, Talco druggist, is Talco's new City Commissioner. He was appointed by Mayor Jerry Jones, Commissioner A. G. Norwood concurring, to fill out the unexpired term of Renford Sikes, who moved to Paris.

He was sworn into office by City Attorney Bird Old at a recent meeting of the City Commission.

Daniel Accepts Shivers Appointee U. S. Senate

Austin.—Outgoing Gov. Allan Shivers appointed and new Gov. Price Daniel accepted Tuesday the choice of William A. Blakley, Dallas businessman, as the temporary United States Senator.

Shivers' action in the final two hours of his 7½ year administration ended a stalemate since September with Daniel over the effective date Daniel's resignation from the Senate.

Shivers left to Daniel the duty of ordering a special election to choose the person who will serve out the nearly two years remaining of the 6-year term to which he was elected in 1952.

The new Governor has 10 days in which to order an election within a period of 60 to 90 days.

Daniel's acceptance of Shivers' appointment of Blakley ended all speculation there might be a contest between the two over the right to name the temporary Senator. Daniel praised Blakley, a campaign supporter of his, as "an outstanding, capable and patriotic citizen."

He said he had been informed that Blakley "will vote with the Democrats in any fight to reorganize the Senate." That ended speculation, also, that the interim Texas Senator might team up with the Republicans.

Prompt Reports Get Publication

This newspaper has repeatedly requested that those who have news of interest to the public to turn in a report of it to our reporter not less than 24 hours after the event takes place.

We often receive news reports several days late, and we positively do not have time to set the type before our dead line. Be prompt with reports please, and this will insure publication and a better newspaper for everyone. Thank you.

Mrs. Ted Parham of Mt. Pleasant, sister of Mrs. Aubrey Harris, underwent surgery at a Mt. Pleasant hospital on Friday.

Worker Hurt in Fall From Pecan Tree

Pedro Valdez, farm worker on the H. L. Hess farm, was painfully injured about 1 o'clock Friday afternoon as the result of a fall from a pecan tree in the Ford orchard in Sulphur River bottoms. He was rushed to Mt. Pleasant Hospital and Clinic.

Examinations showed Valdez sustained a dislocated ankle and a chipped bone in the joint. Witnesses said the accident occurred when a limb in the tree broke.

Talco Folk Open Their Hearts And Homes

On Saturday night between 10:00 and 11:00 o'clock, out from Mt. Pleasant on Highway 67, Deputy Sheriff Grayson of Talco, stopped to investigate a parked car. He found a family of a man, his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis and five children inside the car. They were traveling to Richmond, Va., and the mother became ill. Mr. Grayson realizing how cold and disagreeable the family would spend the night, took the mother to the Titus County Memorial hospital, where a sixth child, a son, was born to her within five minutes after arriving at the hospital.

Mr. Grayson took the older children, three boys and two girls to his home at Talco, where they had warm baths and comfortable beds for the night. Townspeople hearing of the plight of the family, began offering assistance in the care of the children. By Tuesday noon the father had employment with John D. Wright, contractor, all the children were located in homes to be cared for until the mother is able to take over the responsibilities. Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Taylor are caring for a seven year old boy, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Orrin the 4 year old boy, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Burks have the 10 year old girl and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Swope are caring for the two year old boy and five year old girl.

Tuesday evening calls from interested people were still coming to Mr. and Mrs. Grayson wanting to care for the children.

Waddell's Grocery Sale is Highly Successful

Waddell's Grocery and Market had a full page ad in last week's Talco Times, featuring Libby's and other foods.

"How did the sale go?" The Times man asked Mr. Waddell, when he called for copy for this week's ad.

"Sales were the largest of any two days within the eleven years history of the operation of our business in Talco," Alex replied.

The sale received no publicity except that appearing in The Talco Times. Yet some merchants do not believe it pays to advertise.

COMMISSION TELLS PRODUCERS TO END SALT WATER POLLUTION

The Texas Railroad Commission, after conducting a formal hearing in Mt. Pleasant three weeks ago, has issued a formal order to stop salt water pollution in the north part of Titus County.

According to a report from Austin, oil operators in the Talco and Pewitt fields were ordered Monday by the Commission to stop dumping salt water in surface streams in the area. The Commission said no oil production will be allowed after March 1 on any lease in Titus County which produces salt water unless that salt water is injected back into the earth.

The regulatory body found, as a result of its Mt. Pleasant hearing, that 10,000 to 15,000 barrels of salt water daily has been run into White Oak Creek and Sulphur River, both of which empty into the Texarkana Dam and Reservoir. The result has been, the order said, that fish have been killed and the water has been made unfit for livestock consumption.

The commission ordered the oil operators to inject back into underground reservoirs all salt water produced with oil. This should be done without polluting fresh water sands, the commission added.

Talco Native's Husband Dead

Relatives of the formerly Miss Edres Whatley, a native of Talco, received word of the death of her husband, Quinton Whitehead, in an accident near Dayton.

Whitehead, 38, driver for the Herrin Transport Co., was killed early Saturday when the truck he was driving crashed into the side of a Southern Pacific freight train at a rail crossing on the Beaumont Highway, U. S. 90 near Dayton.

He was dead on arrival at Dayton Hospital. The truck was demolished, one boxcar overturned and another derailed. Cause of the accident was unknown. Whitehead was driving a virtually new truck and had been driving for Herrin since May 1951 with a good safety record. He was on his way to Lake Charles with a load of freight.

Survivors include his wife, Edres Whatley Whitehead, two sons, Joel Dan and Quinton Eugene Whitehead, all of Houston, his father of Highlands and a brother in California.

New Wildcat For North Delta Co.

Leon Hays, Kilgore, is credited with planning a Paluxy sand test on a 1,250-acre block immediately northeast of Cooper.

F. M. Merrell and W. H. Ingelhart turned the land for a test to be started by May. Leases are in the Walter Converse, J. B. Anderson and J. B. Craig surveys with tentative location said to be in the southwest part of the latter survey.

Former Talco Man Dies at Vernon

W. T. Hestand, a former resident of Talco, died in a Vernon hospital Jan. 6, following a short illness. He was 83.

Funeral services were held in the Crockett Road Church of Christ in Palestine, Tuesday, Jan. 7 under the direction of C. F. Shirey of Sulphur Springs, and assisted by E. H. Witt of Palestine. Burial was in Guice-land cemetery.

Mr. Hestand, with his wife, moved to Talco in 1941. In 1955 he moved to Vernon and was a resident of that city until the time of his death. He was a member of the Vernon Church of Christ.

Survivors include his widow; one son, J. H. Hestand of Talco; four daughters, Mrs. Effie Gilbert of Slocum, Mrs. Wayne Caskey of Grapeland, Mrs. L. B. Johnson of Palestine, and Mrs. Marvin Caskey of Vernon; one brother, Albert Hestand of Long Beach, Calif., one sister, Mrs. A. A. Friday, Jan. 18, is Arbor Day in Texas. Plant trees and shrubs,

Arbor Day or not. Then take care of them. Plant pecan trees.
They are good shade trees and a finer monument to his memory than a fine pecan tree, some of which live as long as does man.

This editor had a new experience while he was in a Paris hospital two weeks ago. A nurse came quietly into his room about 5 o'clock the first morning, stopped about three feet from his bed, stood there for about two minutes and left. Her presence woke us up. The second morning the same thing happened.
This time we gave her a hearty "Good Morning, Nurse; yes, we are still in the land of the living."
But it made us realize that perhaps we were pretty sick; that deaths are very depressing to other patients in the hospital and that they get them out before patients begin to stir, and that we wouldn't want that nurse's job.

McGonagill's 2nd Business Birthday

Mac McGonagill's Amlico station has completed its second business birthday in Talco and is using advertising space this week to thank customers and to invite new business.

A lot of things have happened to Mac within the short space of two years: He got married, went into business for himself, became the father of a nice little son he was carrying around on a baby tray by the time he was three weeks old, and then got himself bugged up in a car wreck—and the guy is still smiling, even if the wreck did cost him some upper front teeth.

Slight Decline In P. O. Receipts

Talco Postoffice showed a loss of slightly over 4% in receipts during 1956, when compared to the previous year of 1955, according to Postmaster Lenard R.
Miller.

Sales the past year, consisting mostly of stamps and postal cards, totaled $9,242.90. In 1955 sales totaled $9,639.17.

Talco folk should see to it that they buy all their stamps at the local postoffice. We want to maintain and never jeopardize our second class rating.

Texas has a new governor af-supported him since he ran for attorney general and are of the opinion he will make Texas a good executive. Allan Shivers

Dinner Honors Retiring Talco Postal Employees

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Jones was the scene of a joyful occasion on Saturday evening. At that time Mr. and Mrs. John D. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Miller, Mr. and Mrs.
F. A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. C.

A short time ago Mr. Gieger retired. He served more than forty years as rural carrier and on the last day of December, Mr.
Barber retired after serving as postmaster more than thirteen years.

The dinner table was laid with a gold damask cloth. The centerpiece was a floral arrangement of bronze and yellow mums and golden acacia. The serving table was beautifully set with a sterling silver coffee and tea service.

Mr. Barber and Mr. Gieger were each presented gifts as a small token of appreciation for their diligent service and friendship through the years.

Not only the party group, but also the citizens of Talco have wished for them many more years of abundant living in whatever hobby they pursue.

cyanide cartridges will be placed

Rev. Fields P-TA Meeting Speaker

Parent-Teachers Association met in regular session Thursday at 7 p. m. A short business session was held and room count was taken, with the sophomores and third grade winning for having the most parents present.
Rev. C. M. Fields, minister of Calvary Baptist Church, spoke on the State PTA theme for the month, "Linking Our School With Life." Several thoughts developed by Rev. Fields were that the parent must understand the problems of the teacher in her daily contact with the children. If a child cannot be managed at home, don't expect the teacher to make drastic changes in him. The parents and teachers must teach by example.
Converse with the pupil about his school life, but be extremely careful in criticizing the teacher in front of the child.
The president of the unit, William Baten, urges every one to attend the January 28th meeting when Mrs. Lindsey, the district president will speak.

Editor's note: Achin Alcorn, philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sulphur, seems about half serious this week, although you never can tell.
Dear Editor: I was talking to a bunch of my neighbors sitting around a stove in town yesterday afternoon and they were concerned over the high cost of living.
Furthermore, one of them said, he'd read the day before where kind of national economy we're living in requires prices to keep edging up a little, if they stopped they might start falling and that might bring on deflation and a depression, and that everybody might as well get set to see prices continue to go up a little each year from now on, maybe for the next 50 years at least.
This made everybody feel gloomy, except me. It wasn't news to me that the cost of living may continue to go up. It's been going up ever since I can remember.
The man who in his early days was making $90 a month and figured if he could just raise it to $200 he could get by comfortably, is now making say $400 a month and figuring if he could stretch it to $500 he could get by comfortably. The same applies regardless of the bracket you used to be in and are in now.
Anybody who hasn't discovered it costs more to get born, more to stay healthy, more to get educated, more to stay clothed, more to get entertained, more to stay in business, more to retire on, more to die on, more to get buried on, more to have your will executed and your property divided among children who will find it wasn't enough to put them where they wanted to be, just hasn't been around for the last 25 years.
Understand, I wouldn't want to go back to the old days where a man was considered well off if he didn't have to ride bareback an owned a new well rope, but the idea that you can find some way to hold your income up and your costs down, that you will be able to find somebody to sell you beans in a cellophane bag for the same price you could grow and store them yourself in a tow-sack in the old days, is hopeless. In other words, it's an uphill fight, but it always has been and always will be, except maybe in my case. I've done most of my fighting on level ground. You can rest better that way.

ALCORN NOT SURPRISED PRICES GOING UP; THEY ALWAYS HAVE

Yours faithfully, A. A.

Marvelous Indeed

The old Scots guide, just back from taking the new minister on a grouse shooting trip over the moors, sank warily into his chair before the fire.
"Here's a cup of tea for you, Angus," said his wife. "And is the new minister a good shot?"
The old fellow puffed his pipe a bit, then answered slowly, "Aye, old woman, a fine shot he is—but 'tis marvelous indeed how the Lord protects the birds when he's shooting."
