Senate Election is Set For April 2; Gov. Daniel Asks Support of Press

Austin.—Gov. Price Daniel has ordered a special Senate election April 2 and Ralph W. Yarborough, whom Daniel defeated for Governor, has announced as a candidate.

Daniel said April 2 coincided with the date for city elections in about 130 cities.

"This will enable many cities which are holding elections any way and the counties in which they are located, to save a considerable amount of money. Almost half of the voters in Texas now use voting machines."

He noted it would be an added convenience to voters for both elections to be at the same time.

Daniel's office said the high man in the election would be the winner. If the Legislature passed a law calling for a runoff, the Governor's spokesman said "it would then become a legal question."

Yarborough, an Austin attorney who has narrowed his losing gap in each of his four statewide races, became the fifth major contender for the Senate seat temporarily held by William A. Blakely of Dallas.

In the forthcoming Senate race, however, Yarborough will not be alone. James P. Hart of Austin, former justice of the Texas Supreme Court, is one of the five principal candidates who have announced so far.

Conservative Democrats also face the race with candidates who will divide their votes, together with a lone Republican.

Conservative Democrats announced so far include Congressman-at-Large Martin Dies of Lufkin, and Searcy Bracewell of Houston.

Thad T. Hutcheson of Houston is the lone Republican candidate.

WHAT KIND OF SCISSORS USED

The only way The Kaufman Herald knows how to compete with other agencies which depend upon advertising for their existence is to provide for the community the best newspaper we possibly can.

We are confident that no other medium of advertising in this section is so inexpensive and effective as newspaper advertising. We believe the service offered by a home newspaper can not be duplicated. For example, have you ever tried clipping out the report of YOUR wedding as told on radio and pasting it in your scrap book?—The Kaufman Herald.

Gov. Daniel Asks Support of Press Next Two Years

Austin. — Gov. Price Daniel urged a group of Texas newspaper executives Saturday to get behind his administration's program for the next two years.

The new Governor urged particularly that newspapers support his proposals for a law enforcement commission, a greatly expanded water conservation program, a revised traffic safety program and more money for teachers and schools.

Daniel told the winter meeting of the Texas Press Association that newspapers could do more to assure a successful administration in the next two years than any other group outside the government.

"I believe in the power of the press and the power of the pen," he said.

He promised to continue his efforts to make public all phases of governmental administration. "There's still too much of the people's business being conducted behind closed doors. You've got to give people information about government before the people are able to intelligently govern themselves."

Daniel said he had always been a champion of "the right to know."

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD, Texas Press Association

Austin. — Gov. Price Daniel has lined up an impressive array of goals for himself and fellow officials during the next two years.

His message to the Legislature detailed 25 points. He labeled four as "emergencies."

Getting top priority were (1) water conservation (he suggested doubling the proposed $100,000,000 bond program, (2) additional highway patrolmen and other safety measures, (3) laws to facilitate right of way buying for highways and (4) a crime commission to guard against official misconduct, curb lobbying, etc.

Governor Daniel also recommended pay raises for teachers and state employees, local decisions on school segregation, increased old age pensions, abolition of dual banking-insurance operations, more money for insurance law enforcement, improved penal statutes for insurance and security controls, use of state funds for advertising and upping workmen's compensation benefits.

He said he favors a $5,000,000 prison building program, a paid adult parole system, laws to curb juvenile crime, revision of the state constitution, a continued state office building program (including an archives building), improved narcotics laws, study of the needs of the handicapped, election law changes and long-range study of the state tax structure.

Legislative comment following the talk was favorable.

Enactment of the total program would almost certainly require more revenue than the state has in sight. Daniel made no flat promise against new levies, except for sales and personal income taxes.

His budget message, to come later, will detail costs with suggestions for new revenue, if necessary.

WELL-HEELED COWHAND — Texas' new temporary U. S. Senator, William Blakely, personifies the Southwestern success story.

He began his career as an Oklahoma wrangler, went on to become a Dallas lawyer, CPA and top-bracket financier. His millions are spread among tremendous real estate and oil holdings, three insurance companies and a controlling interest in Braniff Airways.

His first whirl at politics seems destined for success too. He is a friend, not only of outgoing Gov. Shivers, who made the 11th hour appointment, but also of new Gov. Price Daniel, Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson and President Eisenhower.

Blakely said he will vote with Democrats in the Senate, not upsetting the party's perilous 48-47 majority. Nor will he seek election.

SENATE LEADERS — Key chairmanships in the Texas Senate are in the hands of Sens. William S. Fly of Victoria and Wardlaw Lane of Center.

Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey assigned Fly to the finance committee, Lane to state affairs. Sen. Geo. Parkhouse of Dallas, who headed the interim Water Resources Committee, will be water and conservation chairman.

STEAKLEY SWORN IN — First executive appointment approved by the Senate was Austin Attorney Zollie Steakley, Gov. Daniel's choice for Secretary of State. Steakley's swearing-in by Chief Justice John E. Hickman followed within 24 hours. It was the new streamlined oath authorized by one of last November's constitutional amendments.

Quipped Governor Daniel, a spectator: "I'm glad they left out that part about never fighting a duel, because I've almost had to do so of that recently."

"BILL" BOARD — With the legislative session well underway, hundreds of bills have flooded the hoppers. Some of the more significant would:

1. Transfer one per cent of the permanent fund (now $340,000,000) to the available school fund. By Rep. Louis Dugas of Orange.
2. Create a separate Securities Commission which would combine operations now performed by the securities divisions in the Secretary of State's office and Insurance Commission. By Rep. Barefoot Sanders of Dallas.
3. Empower cities to tax agricultural land they annex at a lower rate than other property. By Rep. Richard C. White of El Paso.
4. Give the Railroad Commission power to regulate rural telephone rates. By Rep. Jack Welch of Marlin.
5. Control interest rates on small loans. One bill, by Rep. Ed Sheridan of San Antonio, would prohibit interest of more than 10 per cent a year. Another by Rep. Tony Koriath of Sherman would limit interest to three per cent a month.
6. Prohibit sale or use of fireworks except in displays authorized by the fire marshal. By Rep. Gordon Forsyth of Corpus Christi.
7. Abolish absentee voting. By Rep. B. H. Dewey Jr. of Bryan.
8. Provide for automatic congressional re-districting every 10 years if Legislature fails to do so. By Dewey.
9. Provide a four-year term for governor with a two-term limit. By Rep. Dixon W. Holman of Fort Worth.
10. Require school board candidates to run for places to prevent election of a member by a minority vote. By Rep. Ben Ferrel of Tyler.

Truth may be stranger than fiction, but it isn't nearly so marketable.

FELLOW DEMOCRATS

Voters in the big cities are PAYING THEIR POLL TAXES, AS MOST OF THEM HAVE CITY ELECTIONS that they are interested in! Houston's receipts already exceed those of 1956.

Rural and small town Poll Taxes are lagging badly, and it appears that VOTING MAY BE LIGHT in the Democratic STRONGHOLDS. The special election for U. S. Senator has been called for the same day that many large cities are holding their city elections. Voting in the cities will be HEAVY.

If we are to elect a Democrat for U. S. Senator, you MUST Pay Your Poll Tax, and urge your friends to do so.

USES OF FRIED CHICKEN DOUBLES IN 10 YEARS

Washington. — An Agriculture Department survey of homemakers showed that fried chicken is an overwhelming favorite in American homes.

The department said consumption of this form of poultry meat has almost doubled since 1950, while the per capita consumption of all chickens has risen only about three pounds (15 per cent) during the corresponding period.

"Well, precious," said the fond mother to her little son. "what did they teach you on your first day in school?"

"Not much, mummy," replied little Bobby. "I've got to go back tomorrow."

Alcorn Warns Washington Not To Look to Him to Balance Budget

Editor's note: Achin Alcorn, philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sulphur, has gotten word of the national budget, his letter this week indicates.

Dear Editor: The other night during that cold spell, after I'd gotten my chores done, well, they weren't actually done according to some standards but they were by mine, which is to say I just let em slide, I was sitting by the fire reading the news from Washington in a copy of a newspaper I'd found earlier in the day on the road near my house where it'd blown off the radiator of a car where somebody tied it to keep his block from busting, and I got interested in President Eisenhower's budget for this year.

As I understand it, he says we'll have to spend more money but won't have to raise taxes. He says it will take about 72 billion dollars to run the government for the next twelve months, which is an increase of about 3 billion over what it took last year, and while I'll admit it doesn't make much difference to me, I don't know the difference between 69 billion and 72 billion anyway, they lost me way back there, I did notice that Ike's advisors were telling him that the increase wouldn't throw the government in the red, even without a tax increase, because they were figuring there'd be more money coming in this year because of more income tax payments because of higher incomes, and thus the budget will stay balanced.

Well, now, I'll tell you, I sure hope Ike ain't basing his plans for a balanced budget on any increased earnings on my part. I don't believe I can swing it. I'd sure like to help him out, but if the United States government is counting on me increasing my income in 1957 to balance the budget, they better re-figure the whole thing.

If the Washington experts are counting on me to keep em out of the red, my advice is to stop counting their chickens before their eggs are hatched. In fact, they'd better check up on the eggs too. My hens haven't been laying much. Understand, I'd like to help balance the budget, be proud to, but any spending program in Washington which is based on the assumption I'm gonna make more money in 1957 than I did in 1956, just ain't being realistic. I'd like to help Ike balance his budget all right, but I haven't ever gotten around to balancing my own yet.

Yours faithfully, A. A.

Detroit Woman Hurt in Accident

Mrs. Wayland Kennedy, the former Miss Wanda Castleman, received severe back injuries, besides deep cuts on the head, arm and leg, and bruises all over the body when her car went out of control and turned over several times, throwing her to the pavement.

The accident happened on F. M. road south of Detroit just east of the C. R. Allen place as she was driving north alone in the car. No one saw the wreck and the cause was not determined. When neighbors who heard the crash and a car occupied by colored people reached the scene she was lying on one side of the road and the car was on the other. The car was demolished. —Detroit News-Herald.
