"You can't judge a book by its cover" - Who ever authored that cliché probably had no idea just how true that was in today's world!

At a bookstore not long ago I was struck by the trend in book covers, be they paperbacks or hardcovers with a paper jacket.

For some reason book cover designers have decided that there is only one way to sell a book, and that's by decorating it with semi-nude bodies in fairly amazing settings.

It's to the point where a book on alphabetizing a library has an almost naked woman on it holding up library labels!

Romance novels seem to have begun the trend. No matter how mild they may be romantically, they feature gorgeous young women and handsome men practically tearing each other's clothing off...whether it's with a background of a burning city, a pirate ship or whatever.

The other day I bought a book at a bazaar, reading only the spine of the book on the shelf. "Creed for the Third Millennium" was the title. When I got it home the cover sported this picture of a couple in front of an advancing glacier, clutching each other passionately. "A story of betrayal and passion in the face of impending world disaster" screamed the blurb on the back.

Well, I began to read the book in spite of this rather tacky cover. And discovered that this is perhaps the most boring book, bar none, that I've ever read.

As far as a "Couple" is concerned...there just aren't any. And world disaster...well, there is plenty of that, but it's even a boring disaster! A new ice age, the world cooling down, and in only a few hundred years humanity will really begin to suffer. Add to that a world over-population which has resulted in laws limiting every family to one child only and while you have an interesting idea...it's a pretty boring book!

I tend to shy away from books that have too lurid a cover, but learned long ago that if I only read books plain covers I'd run out of reading material pretty fast.

The question is, though...why do they DO this? Why is it necessary to put these strange pairs of people on the cover of books, especially when it has absolutely nothing to do with the story?

Do they think that it is the only way they can sell their book?

Personally, I'd just as soon have no pictures at all!

Oh, well, just another method of marketing, a strategy which we all fall victim to...and can't do much about.

Every Day Thanksgiving Day

By Dan Flournoy

Thanksgiving is a legal holiday, set aside in our country for the purpose of reflecting on our blessings and to give thanks to God. While this is good, we often wonder about our attitude toward God the rest of the year. Is it possible that we often forget God's blessings and take them for granted?

God warned ancient Israel before they entered the land of promise, that they should not take His blessings for granted: "when thou shalt have eaten and be full; then beware lest thou forget the Lord." (Deuteronomy 6:11, 12).

How easy it is for us to forget the source of our prosperity. We push the dishes aside after a sumptuous Thanksgiving meal, stretch out in front of the TV and watch the game with little thought to Him who has made our lives so comfortable. Again, Scripture reminds us, "But thou shalt remember the Lord they God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth..." (Deuteronomy 8:18).

A few years ago a young man from Sri Lanka (a little island off the tip of India) visited our country. He was asked what he thought of America before his arrival. His face beamed with a broad smile as he said with a British accent, "Oh America! Everything instant and kingsize!". then he was asked, "Now that you have been here for a while, what do you think of America?" His smile faded as he shook his head, "Americans no appreciate!" wa his sad reply.

We should not wait for a legal holiday to express our gratitude to the blessed Giver.

Use this Thanksgiving to remember the blessing we are so abundantly showered with...and use it as a starting point to try every day to give thanks for what we have.

Suspects Apprehended In Possible "Scam" Operation

An elderly Cunningham couple might have been the victim of a "scam" Monday, if it had not been for the intercession of neighbors.

According to reports, three men appeared at their door and handed them a bill for $300 for "adjusting lightning rods". They called a neighbor, who warned them not to pay the bill. The neighbor called the Lamar County Sheriff's department and then dispatched some Cunningham men to the couple's home.

The men who had presented them with the bill drove off, however, they were intercepted by Lamar County law enforcement officials.

The incident is currently under investigation, and people are warned to be very sure what they may be purchasing, or paying for before giving money to anyone they do not know as it is reported that a number of "scams" are currently underway.

Local Sales Tax Figures Released

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Friday that sales taxes collected in July, August and September of this year of this year showed a steady increase over last year's collections.

"These rebates are in line with our projections and show healthy economic growth in Texas," Bullock said.

The Comptroller's office today sent $140 million in sales tax rebate checks to cities and counties throughout Texas.

Payments to cities totaled $128 million for an 8% increase over last year's total payments at this time.

Blossom received $2,846.97 for a 4.22% decrease over last year's payment.

Deport received $2,455.65 for a 6.08% decrease over the payment in 1989.

Paris received $313,317.78 for a 12.55% increase.

Bogata received $4,313.89 for a

2.64% decrease while Clarksville received $24,895.512 for a 2.30% increase.

Detroit received $2,214.92 for a 10.40% increase over last year's payment.

Mt. Pleasant received $127,193.23 for a 3.76% increase over last year's payment.

Talco received $2,922.10 for a 10.03% decrease.

Merchants collect the state and local sales taxes and sent them to the Comptroller's office with their tax returns. The state keeps its share and sends cities and counties the local portion of the sales tax each month.

All local sales must be approved by area voters and may be used for any legal city or county expenses. Most areas put the money in their General Fund and use it for operations like fire fighting, maintaining roads and law enforcement.

Social Security Notes

Change made in Medicare claims process. If you have Medicare medical insurance, you should know about an important change in the way your claims will be handled.

Starting September 1, your medical insurance claim must be prepared and submitted by the service provider, the doctor, laboratory, medical supply company or other party providing the service.

In the past, you had to submit Form 1490S unless your doctor or service provider accepted assignment. But now, the doctor or other service provider must send in your claim even if they don't accept assignment.

Country Cooking

By Gerrie Bankhead

"Country Cooking" comes from Nell Wolf, all the way from Milton, Texas.

George and Nell Wolf moved to this area from Garland in 1970. They have three children, Lyn, Cindy and David. They have three grandchildren, Sherrie, Stephanie and Joseph. Nell previously worked at Red River Haven Nursing Home, Deport Nursing Home, Deport Elementary School cafeteria and owned and operated Nell's Place Cafe in Deport.

Nell has totally changed careers now, she babysits her grandchildren. While George works at Bogata Propane Company, she enjoys going to garage sales, watching TV, cooking and listening to the Oak Ridge Boys. She also enjoys needle crafts and crocheting.

As you walk on Nell's front porch, you are surrounded by all the holiday crafts she has crocheted. She makes them and gives them away to friends and family.

Nell loves to cook and carry goodies to friends all over the area, especially the Deport Bank. She says the men and women there will eat anything.

Nell inherited her mother's cookbooks and recipes after her death in 1983. Some of the books date back to 1945 and some of them sold for as little as $.25. Nell loves to collect recipes and a great number of them have torn edges, are brown with age, and like some of mine, are stained with memories of long hours of labor. I thought I had a good collection of cookbooks and recipes, but the longer I visited with Nell, the more she brought out. Two of the recipes she decided to share with you were her mothers, the Pumpkin Cake and the Crystal Cake. She prepared these dishes and carried them to Deport Nursing Home for the cake walk a couple of weeks ago.

You will be reading a lot of recipes from Nell in the future because she has a lot of helpful hints, plus she's noted for her outrageous mexican food. We hope you enjoy them.

This week I received a letter and recipes from Vicki Couch Ballard of Paris and I want to share two bread recipes she sent, Broccoli Cornbread and Italian Hero Loaf. She says they are beautiful and easy to make and fun.

If you have a recipe to share, send a copy to me, also if you have a feature suggestion, call 652-6032 or write Rt. 1, Box 67A, Deport, TX 75435.

Italian Hero Loaf

3 1/4 cups flour, divided
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 package of Rapid Rise Yeast
1 cup hot water (125 to 130 degrees)
1 tablespoon softened butter
8 oz. sliced cooked ham
4 oz. sliced Provolone cheese
4 oz. sliced salami
1/2 cup drained pitted ripe olives
1 egg white, beaten
Creamy Italian dressing (optional)

Set aside 1 cup of flour. In food processor, combine flour, sugar, salt and yeast. Stir in hot water and margarine. Mix in only enough reserved flour to make soft dough. Knead dough for approximately 4 minutes after mixed. On a greased cookie sheet, roll dough into 14x10 inch rectangle. Layer ham, cheese and salami over center third of dough length. Make cuts from filling to dough edge at 1 inch intervals along sides of filling--cover. Place large shallow pan on counter, half full with boiling water. Place baking sheet over pan; let dough rise for 15 minutes. Brush loaf with egg whites. Bake at 400 for 25 minutes or till golden brown. Cool slightly-serve warm with Italian dressing, if desired. (From Vicki Ballard)

Travel Tips

By Marlene Pendleton, Certified Travel Counselor

In trying to keep the public updated on the latest fares and specials I have rewritten this article twice!

The airlines latest special as of this writing, is a Companion fare (not offered to all destinations) which allows a second person to go free when their itinerary is the same as their Companion.

This is a seven day advance purchase ticket and requires a Saturday night stay.

It must be booked and ticketed by November 30 and travel must be completed by February 28, 1991.

Call your travel agent for details and restrictions.

Also, with the new tax package Congress has just passed the tax on airline tickets will increase two percent. When you are given a price for an airline ticket it includes and eight percent government tax. This will be increased to ten percent December 1st.

Any tickets written before December 1st for travel after the 1st will be eight per cent. Any tickets written after the first will be ten per cent.

TEISHA BRIANA DANIELS celebrated her fourth birthday at Jungle Jim's in Dallas. Teisha and friends ate pizza and a giant cookie decorated with safari animals. After eating and opening gifts, the children rode kiddie amusement rides and played games. Teisha is the granddaughter of Rev. and Mrs. Billy Daniels of Joliet and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Daniels of Rowlett.

Births

Matthew Neal Haynes is welcomed by his parents, John and Mikel Haynes and brother, Micah Travis, on Sunday, November 11. He weighed 9 lbs. 14 oz. Grandparents are Mike and Mollie Williams of Bogata and Lisa and Clyde Mayfield of Clarksville. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. M.E. Roach and Mrs. Pauline Williams of Bogata and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weinart of Germany.

V.F.W. Auxiliary Meets

The regular meeting met on November 6 with 30 members and one junior girl present.

Mary Cross, JoAnn Faulkner, Natalie Raye, Opal Miller, Katie Armstrong, Margie Washburn and Nadine Ammons are chairpersons for entertainment at seven nursing homes in Paris, Clarksville and Detroit areas. All the nursing homes are visited once a month. These dedicated ladies are always at the nursing homes to make the clients lives a little better. Thanks ladies.

The Ladies Auxiliary sponsored a Halloween party for over 140 children and at least 100 were fingerprinted by the sheriff's department. Costume judging was great and games and prizes were also enjoyed by the kids. A cake walk at the Halloween party raised $173 for cancer aide and research.

The auxiliary sponsored an auction on November 10 to raise money for cancer aide and research. Donations from businesses and auxiliary members made it a huge success as $2,600 was raised. Part of the money will go to Lamar County and the rest will go to the state cancer aide and research programs. Thanks to all who made it successful.

On December 8, the foundation for Prevention of Blindness will be at the Medical Shop on Lamar Avenue for three hours.

The ladies have been asked to bring canned goods for the Thanksgiving baskets to the next meeting on November 20 at 8 p.m.

PJC Announces Continuing Education Classes

Classes in cardiopulmonary resuscitation, defensive driving, and desktop publishing will be offered the week of November 19 through the continuing education department at Paris Junior College.

A CPR course D will be held from 6 to 10 p.m. Monday and Wednesday, November 19 and 21. The instructor is Linda Kennedy and the cost is $20.

PC Pagemaker Level II will be taught from 6 to 9 p.m. beginning Thursday, November 29 and will continue three sessions on Tuesday and Thursday nights through December 11 for $65.00.

Two defensive driving courses will be taught from 6 to 10 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 19 and 20 and from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 1. The course costs $25.00.

For more information, call 784-9445 or 9447.

Rebel Sports Report

Rebel Basketball Season Opens

The Rivercrest Rebels opened their 2A basketball season at home Friday, November 16 against the Winnsboro Red Raiders.

The JV Lady Rebels took the court first and newcomer Marian Green led the scoring. The team had difficulty offensively, as nothing seemed to fall for them. The Red Raiders won the game 70-21.

The Lady Rebels varsity team was fidgety in the first quarter and junior Patches Raines kept the ladies close to the Red Raiders with free throws. They had several turnovers and seventeen fouls in the first half. Three of the Lady Rebels were in double digits with Patches Raines 13, Katy Ross 12 and B.J. Thompson, 10.

Second period of play belonged to the Red Raiders when they took control and scored 13 unanswered points. The Raiders emerged victoriously 70-56.

Coach Wake Wood's Rebels took the court with the opening lead, but failed to score in several minutes, ending the first quarter with the much larger Red Raiders, 19-6.

The second quarter of play was dominated by the Rebels, which pulled back within six points of the Raiders. Coach Wood substituted frequently, but the quickness of the Red Raiders offensive squad seemed to catch the Rebels offguard.

Rivercrest had a total of 24 turnovers and Galen Logan was the only Rebel who finished the night in double figures for 11 points.

The Rebels and Lady Rebels teams will travel to Prairiland on November 23 to play at 3 p.m.

The First Rewards of Energy Fitness.

30% SAVINGS*

For more information, ask your builder about Good Cents or call Texas-New Mexico Power Company.

You'll have the rewards of a Good Cents home from the first day: monthly energy use for heating and cooling that is at least 30% lower*, and the Good Cents Certificate of Energy Fitness. The certificate shows there is added value built in to your Good Cents home. If you decide to move, it is a valuable sales tool. There's another reward you'll feel every day - the comfort of a home that is Energy Fit. Energy Fitness means all systems working in perfect harmony: high efficiency heating/cooling systems, well-insulated walls, attics and doors, and specially designed windows. And that's why owning a Good Cents home is such a rewarding experience.

WE CAN ALL FIND GOOD REASONS TO GIVE OUR THANKS

Though fortune seems to pass you by,
There's something that you can't deny:
At times we all have things go wrong,
But manage still to get along.
If you can somehow pay each bill,
And no one at your house is ill,
And if your children get good grades
And don't indulge in escapades,
And if you have just one good friend,
In case misfortune should descend,
Then you have blessings by the score,
Of things you should be thankful for.
Your House of Worship will convey
This message for Thanksgiving Day,
So let us all, with one accord,
Extend our thanks unto the Lord.
