

Nichols Worth

By Nanalee Nichols

Have you noticed all the new spring clothing styles coming out? Both men's and women's fashions are in evidence, showing us what we are supposed to be wearing.

However, Thomas and I seem to have a little problem.

While straightening our closet (long overdue) the other day I realized that most of our outfits just don't fit the Haute Couture mode!

It seems that we have two or three fairly decent (though not necessarily the latest) outfits.

Then our wardrobes do a slide downhill from there.

There are the "everyday on ordinary workdays" outfits which are not new, but stainfree, unripped and fair looking.

Then we have those "Wear on Wednesdays when it's dirty, messy and chemicals at the paper will ruin them" clothes. These are in poor condition, bearing odd brownish splotches from splashing chemicals, black smears from newsprint ink, odd pale dots from pressure sensitive wax and generally don't look very handsome at all.

Then we get down to the larger portion of our clothing line.

That's the "these things may last through one more wearing to the pasture" assortment.

They look absolutely awful. They feature rips, worn through holes, large spots of disgusting looking stains, and may range in age from nearly new (but accident prone) to absolutely ancient.

Of course, these clothes are what one wears to do yard work, housework, feed cows, dogs, calves, ducks or whatever in. They are also dandy for carpentry projects, barn building or picking up trash on the side of the road.

Being the wielder of the paintbrush at our house I also have a winter and summer set of painting clothes. These are so covered with different shades of paint, spackle and primer that they look like a contemporary piece of artwork.

All in all at first glance our closet looks (and is) filled to overflowing.

The only thing is...most of the clothes aren't fit for public viewing!

Somehow I feel like this isn't too unusual. How about it folks...does your closet contain more frayed than fashion?

This is the story of Happy who was my dog. He was a people dog too, unless you were a child riding a bicycle and then he wasn't. For reasons unknown to us, he had great resentment of small folk peddling their way along our drive and was not loathe to address the matter immediately.

With some exceptions he slept in from my door until his years and arthritis made the cold weather too uncomfortable and, he then took up winter residence in the haybarn. He was the first to greet visitors because he thought they'd come to see him. Once when I was unable to move about much he and I spent hours on the porch. He didn't talk much but was a great listener, never critical, never bored. Would put his chin on my knee or in my hand and look straight into my eyes as if to say, "I love you." I loved him, too.

My sister said he reminded her of Templeton, the rat, in Charlotte's Web and he did have that certain twinkle in his eye. I may have resented the rat part but he never seemed to, being good natured and all.

Everyone who knows me realizes that I am a soft touch for animals in trouble and he surely was that when we found him. Front feet infected and covered with ticks was he. After some struggle, as he was quite large even the young, we put him in the truck seat and set off for the vet clinic. $60.00 later we had our feet on the mend and that was in 1987.

Most of the time we are feeding more dogs than we own, and, on occasion have accused Happy of inviting friends in for meals and a romp. He never denied it.

It's reported that when I was gone for a few days or for months on one occasion, Happy's face would become sad and remain so until I returned. He was grateful for being saved and never passed an opportunity to show it. If I worked one of the horses he sat and watched, (usually in the path). He was at the bedroom window mornings (weather permitting) and met me always in the drive when I returned home. He was my dog, and I was his person.

Happy died, December 14, 1992 with my hand on his head.

JUDY SCREWS, Country Cooking column editor, visits with some of the ladies of De-

Country Cooking

By Judy Screws

My visit to the Deport Nursing Home was a real treat. Instead of having one featured cook this week, we have six.

The residents who were kind enough to let me intrude on their time were Mrs. Lela Carrell, Mrs. Miriam Shannon, Mrs. Lillian Gamble, Mrs. Meldina Palmer, Mrs. Elizabeth Barnett and Mrs. Johnnie Warren.

Mrs. Carrell, who is from Fulbright, worked 14 years at Belk's in Paris. She lists some of her activities as sewing, crocheting and reading. Mrs. Carrell is a member of the Church of Christ and has one son and two grandchildren. Chocolate pies and pinto beans were two of the things she enjoyed cooking.

Mrs. Shannon is from Sylvan community. She enjoys playing the piano, piecing quilts and sewing. Mrs. Shannon has one daughter, one grandchild and two great-grandchildren. She is a former school teacher and attends the Methodist Church. Candy is one of her favorite things to make, and she is sharing a lime jello recipe with us.

Mrs. Johnnie Warren, a Baptist, lived at Milton until about 20 years ago. She then moved to Deport. She has always enjoyed fishing, playing the piano, quilting and crocheting. She recalls that she enjoyed cooking sweets more than other foods. Aunt Johnnie and Uncle Ross had no children, but she has an abundance of nieces and nephews. She is sharing her Date Nut Pie recipe with us.

Mrs. Gamble has a niece, Pat Clements of Blossom. She attends the Church of Christ, and enjoys crocheting and playing bingo. Making pies is also something she enjoys. At one time, Mrs. Gamble worked at a basket factory in Texarkana. She has also lived in Blossom.

Mrs. Palmer has lived in Wichita Falls and is a Baptist. Sewing is one of the ways she spends her time. Mrs. Palmer has a son, Kenneth, who lives in Bogata and has three grandchildren. At one time, she was a practical nurse. Mexican food and red beans are some of the things she enjoys cooking.

Mrs. Barnett's son, grandson and one of her great-grandsons are all named William K. Barnett. The other great-grandson is named Drue. One of the places Mrs. Barnett has lived is Paris and she has done everything from working at a lumber yard to leading a choir. A Methodist, Mrs. Barnett enjoys crochet, reading, singing and shelling pecans. She is sharing her Buttermilk Cake recipe with us.

Thanks so much to these ladies for making my day. I really enjoyed meeting the ones I didn't already know. I'd also like to thank Joni Kincaid, Activities Director, for her help and the Castleberry's, who are the owners and administrators, for their cooperation.

Talco Bogata Jr. High Boys Basketball Results

The Talco-Bogata Jr. High Rebels hosted Chisum Thursday, January 21 at Talco.

The 7th grade boys began the evening's action. Chisum had defeated the team in two previous games and the young Rebs came out with lots of hustle. Brian Giles had an excellent game for the Rebels, scoring 9 points, one of which was a three pointer. One Rebel and one Mustang were seated, due to a scuffle on court. The action hurt both teams as they lost post players. The Rebels were hurt again when they lost player Jody Nolen to foul trouble. With .07 seconds on the clock score 29-31, the Rebs fouled. The Mustangs didn't miss. Final 34-29 Chisum. High scorer for the Rebels was Michael Allen, followed by Brian Giles. Also scoring were Alan Hudson, Jody Gray, Jody Nolen and Jerid Guest.

The Talco-Bogata 8th grade took the court for no contest. The young Rebels simply dominated the Mustangs. Half-time score was 30-13 Rebels. The boys are undefeated in District play. The game was an easy win.

The 7th & 8th grade boys will host Honey Grove at Talco, February 1. This will be their toughest and maybe only competition this year. Everyone is encouraged to come out and support our young teams.

The 7th & 8th grade girls traveled to Chisum Thursday, January 21. Both teams were defeated. They will travel to Honey Grove February 1.

R.H.S Junior Varsity Girls And Boys Results

The Rivercrest Rebel and Lady Rebels traveled to Prairiland Tuesday, January 19. The Junior Varsity Lady Rebs began the evening's action. The Lady Rebs could not hold off the Lady Patriots' strong attack and were defeated. High scorer for R.H.S. was Norma Jasso. Also scoring were Jaime Swarts, Susie Moles, Amanda Savage and Heather Holland.

The J.V. Rebs gave the crowd an exciting game, coming from behind only to fall short. The Rebs began the game very sluggishly and every point made was hard for the team in the first half. The second half saw a better-played game for the Rebs, while the Patriots continued their controlled play. Jack Brown was high scorer for the Rebs with 18 points, 4 of which were 3 pointers. Jeremy Weatherall followed with 13 points. With 24 seconds left and the Rebs behind 1 point, a foul put the Patriots at the line. One of two was made. Rebs down 2 points with 5 seconds left on the clock, the Rebels Andy Speir went for the 3 pointer, but as luck would have it, the shot was a near miss. The final score was 67-64 Patriots. Also scoring for the Rebs were Andy Speir, Jeremy Loggins, Rodney Humphrey, John Davidson and A. J. Lee.

Varsity Girls

The Varsity Lady Rebels took the court to break the night's losing streak. The game was a cliff hanger for both teams. First quarter action ended 11-12 R.H.S., and ended at the half 22-25. Both teams were called down by officials for pushing, but a simple reprimand did not stop the game from looking more like football than basketball. The Lady Rebs held their own in the contest, but lost La Trisha Belcher and Chasity Hall to foul trouble. Ashley Ross and Kathy Hinsley came off the bench to help pull the game out. The girls did a good job controlling the Lady Patriots' Jan Scudder. High scorer for the Ladies was LaQuitta Norman with 14 points, 3 of which were 3 pointers, followed by La Trisha Belcher with 8 points. The last 45 seconds of the game determined the winner, Lady Rebs 46-43.

Also scoring were Chasity Hall, Konya Nickerson, Michelle Giles, Stacey Benfield, Karen Williams, Kathy Hinsley and Ashley Ross, who also made a 3 pointer.

J.V. Boys - Varsity Girls Friday Night Results

On Friday, January 22, the Rivercrest Junior Varsity boys, Varsity girls, and Varsity boys hosted Chisum. The J.V. boys began slowly, ending the first quarter 12-11 Rebels. By halftime the Rebs were kicking, 32-23. Rebs Andy Speir had an outstanding night on the court, netting 3-3 pointers and finishing as high scorer for the team with 18 points. Jeremy Weatherall followed with 17 points. Final Rebels 71 - Mustangs 53. Also scoring were Jack Brown, Stephen Thomas, Rodney Humphrey and John Davidson.

The Varsity Lady Rebels began their game on a roll. The quick hands of La Trisha Belcher, La Quitta Norman, Konya Nickerson and Kathy Hinsley saw the Lady Mustangs run ragged just trying to make it down court. Half-time score was 34-15 Lady Rebs. Michelle Giles had a good night for the team, scoring from her post position and popping her free shots. Jenny Bond and Shaunda Jones came off the bench to have a good game for the team. Karen Williams also pulled down rebounds well for the Ladies.

The Lady Mustangs were just no match for the Lady Rebs. High scorer was Michelle Giles, followed by Kathy Hinsley. Also scoring were Konya Nickerson, LaQuitta Norman, La Trisha Belcher, Ashley Ross, Stacey Benfield, Karen Williams and Shaunda Jones. Final was 67-31 R.H.S.

Rebels Blast Mustangs 98-39

The Rivercrest Rebels ran and pressed their way to a convincing victory against the Chisum Mustangs Friday night at Rebel gym. Visitors were never in the game as the Rebels came out very intense and stayed that way. Ten Rebels were in the scoring column as their depth produced good results. The Rebels bench outscored Chisum's 28-11 which was a big factor in the game. The Rebels led 20-12 after one quarter, however, the Rebels outscored Chisum 36-7 during the second quarter to take a big 56-19 half-time lead. The Rebels coasted throughout the second half. The district 17-AA win made the Rebels 3-0 in district play with very important games coming up this week. Tuesday the Rebels were to journey to Wolfe City to play the ever tough Wolves. Friday night they will entertain the Cooper Bulldogs. Friday night's game against Chisum was a very exciting game and the local fans showed their appreciation by continuously applauding the Rebels for their fine play. Eddie Williams' slam dunk during the second quarter really woke up the crowd. The Rebels and Lady Rebels both played before a packed home side.

Coach Wood's comments, "We played very hard Friday. We were unhappy with our performance at Prairiland and we know we could play a lot better. We know that Prairiland has a very good team and they played hard! They had a lot to do with the way we played. They had all our defenses and offenses memorized and executed their game plan extremely well.

Against Chisum we shot well and our bench is getting stronger. We have some players that are getting better every game. They want our team to be successful. I'm so pleased that we have a very close knot group of young men. They are making individual sacrifices to make our team better. Each player seems to be putting our team play first which is very important. We have 7 tough district games left and we must play well each game if we are to win."

NOTICE
It is extremely difficult to keep up-to-date rosters on the numerous basketball teams. Uniform changes, failures at six weeks and the fact that many times numbers aren't clearly identifiable has resulted in wrong names being assigned to players occasionally. In an effort to avoid this we are not currently using names.

Beware Mail Fraud

The Postal Inspection Service is warning consumers today not to fall prey to a nationwide mail order scam that is encouraging the underpayment of first-class postage. Promoters of the mail order scam are selling an information package at a cost ranging from $5 to $100 that describes how to mail first-class letters for 2¢, rather than the current rate of 29¢. The scheme is designed to bilk the postal customer out of their money using inaccurate and out-of-date information, says Inspector in Charge D. C. Strader.

The information packages cite Title 39, United States Code, Section 4253, as a legal basis for the 2¢ first-class rate. Inspector Strader advises that this section was eliminated in August 1970 under the Postal Reorganization Act. The current first-class rate is 29¢ for the first ounce or fraction of an ounce.

Unfortunately, some letters bearing only a 2¢ stamp have been delivered without collection of the deficient postage, and that has given credence to the claims made by the promoters of this fraudulent scheme.

This is because most mail is processed through automated equipment, and not because it is legal to mail at the 2¢ rate. Postal inspectors investigating this scheme have filed administrative and criminal complaints against the promoters. It is our goal to protect the Postal Service from loss of revenue and to stop this fraudulent promotion, says Inspector Strader.

Postal employees have been alerted to the scam and are being instructed to check first-class mail for appropriate postage. Any mail carrying less than 29¢ will be delivered with a charge for the amount due as required by postal regulations.

Inspector Strader advises postal customers not to fall victim to this illegal scam. The penalty for mail fraud is a fine of not more than $250,000.00 or imprisonment for not more than five years, or both. Postal customers who receive this package are asked to forward all the material to their local postmaster or to the Postal Inspector in Charge, Fort Worth Division, P. O. Box 162929, Fort Worth, TX 76161-2929.
