

COMPLETED JUST IN TIME for the Miss Merry Christmas Pageant to be held Thursday night, December 3, is the new auditorium on the Knox

City campus. The entry is on the north side of the former elementary gymnasium.

Auditorium Completed

By BILLYE ANGLE

When area persons attend the upcoming Miss Merry Christmas pageant on Thursday, December 3, they will be the first audience in the newly remodeled auditorium of which Knox Citizens can be so proud!

It is hard to believe when one walks into the spacious auditorium that this same building was the first gymnasium for Knox City High School students to have, and since the building of the new gym, continued to be used for elementary students' needs.

The auditorium has been badly needed for many, many years, but when we see the beautiful, modern auditorium with its plush carpet, extended stage, automatic electric screen, slanting floor, and comfortable seats with padded seat and back, we know it was worth waiting for! Another thing, which most cannot believe, is that it is paid for - 100%. No voting a bond - no paying off! That is fantastic, and we know you all agree!

Another feature which we all will appreciate is the marvelous sound system with a 600 watt amplifier and speakers located throughout the vast auditorium whereby the sound will be the same no matter where one is seated.

And yet another thing most of us appreciate to the fullest - the heating and cooling system! Over the years, we have almost frozen to death sitting in the metal folding chairs until the big, noisy heaters would come on, relieving the chill to some extent but completely destroying all sound from the stage!

In recent years, the band concerts have been moved to the new gym where everyone just about smothered while listening to our children's bands perform. Also, it was hard to keep our mind on the concert with the west sun shining in through the windows.

So all in all - we can give a big thanks to the school administration for the foresight that went into this planning. The beautiful glass entry on the north along with the wooden shake trim adds to the other modern buildings on campus.

We're PROUD of this, and we know all of you will be, too. Join us there on December 3!

Lone Star Gas Co. Files Rate Increase

BENJAMIN, TEXAS November 20, 1981 - Lone Star Gas Co. Manager Lester Yates today filed an application for a rate increase which would raise the average residential customer's monthly bill in Benjamin about $3.03 in the winter and $3.03 in the summer.

Based on Lone Star's rate application, a residential customer who uses an average of eight thousand cubic feet of gas a month paid $30.74 for gas service in the winter. Under the requested rate, that same customer would pay $33.77.

Commercial gas customers' rates would also increase under the requested rate schedule.

"Our customers are accustomed to dependable natural gas service," says Yates. "This rate increase is necessary to continue a high performance level for other

Munday Man Is Killed Sunday Night

A Munday man, Terry Flores, whose age was not known, was shot to death Sunday night about 7:15 o'clock apparently by an illegal alien who leaped from a car shooting a .22 caliber weapon, according to chief sheriff's deputy Gene Nix.

Flores was killed by a single shot to the head as he walked through the parking lot of a Munday store.

Two men, both illegal aliens, are being held in Knox County jail pending formal murder charges, which were expected to be filed Monday.

The aliens were arrested by Haskell County sheriff deputies just north of Haskell, Nix said, and offered no resistance.

Nix said Flores had had a disagreement with the two men. "They had fought before," the deputy said, adding that "there were several eye witnesses" to the shooting.

Nutrition Center To Close Two Days

Mrs. Lillian Logan, Knox County Aging Services coordinator asked the News to remind readers that the Center will be closed Thanksgiving Day and also on Friday.

Meals will resume again on Monday, November 30.

Businesses To Close For Thanksgiving

Most of the business houses in Knox City will be closed Thursday, November 26, in observance of the Thanksgiving holiday.

Classes in the Knox City-O'Brien Schools will be dismissed both Thursday and Friday and will resume at the regular time Monday, November 30, officials said.

The Citizens State Bank, the Federal offices, and the U.S. Post Office will close Thursday, but will open for business as usual on Friday. State offices will close both Thursday and Friday as well as the County Courthouse in Benjamin.

The Knox County News will mail out papers on Tuesday even though the paper carries the Thursday deadline. This year, the News office will be closed both Thursday and Friday. Readers are reminded to be sure and report all their Thanksgiving holiday activities to the News office next Monday.

necessary expenses, such as maintaining and improving the local pipeline distribution system, which are vital to dependable service."

Lone Star's last rate increase in Benjamin became effective June, 1980.

"Since that time, every business, including Lone Star, has experienced increased operating expenses," says Yates. "And, of course, unlike other businesses that can raise their prices as expenses go up, we must apply to the city council for a rate increase. No one likes rising prices, but any business must earn money to meet operating expenses and still achieve a reasonable profit. Even though our expenses have gone up, Lone Star still has one of the lowest average operating costs per customer when compared to any of the other major gas utilities in Texas."

SAM ANGLE

Ex-KC Man Retires From Santa Fe RR

Former Knox City resident Sam Angle of Slaton retired November 3 after 33 years, 11 months with Santa Fe Railroad.

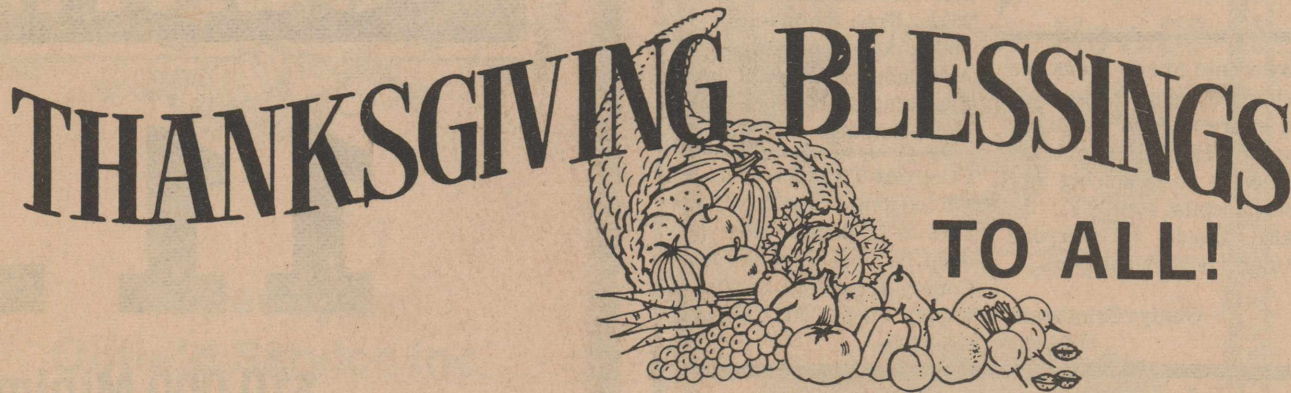

Sam, whose late parents were Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Angle, joined Santa Fe in 1947 as a brakeman, and in January 1948, began engine service. His runs for the most part were from Clovis to Amarillo to Sweetwater and during the past six years were from Slaton to Sweetwater.

A 1936 graduate of Knox City High School, Sam joined the U.S. Navy in June 1938 and was at Pearl Harbor on that fateful December 7, 1941. He served in the Pacific Theatre during all World War II on the USS Balch and later on the USS Porterfield. He was discharged in September 1945 as a Chief Water Tender.

Sam and his wife, the former Mary Vivian Davis, have three children, Mrs. Doyle (Judy) Plunkett, who is employed along with her husband by Merchants National Bank in Dallas; Gary Mike, who lives in Slaton with his wife Beth and is employed by an insurance firm in Lubbock; and Tracy, who lives with his parents in Slaton and is employed by Santa Fe as a brakeman.

The Angles are members of the First Baptist Church in Slaton. Sam plans to enjoy his hobbies of fishing and hunting, along with visiting friends and relatives.

Sam and Mary are visiting here this week with her mother, Mrs. Quincy Davis, and plan to spend Thanksgiving in Dallas with their daughter and her husband.

Even as we join family and friends in the traditional holiday feast, we should remember that this day has been set aside for us to do officially the very thing we should be doing every day of our lives: thanking God for our blessings. We have so many, regardless of our own situation, that we cannot begin to count them all; not only the tangible things we can see all around us, but also the invisible blessings, such as the misfortunes we have been spared.

We at The Knox County News express our gratitude for our wonderful customers who make our endeavors possible.

We wish for you and yours a happy and blessed Thanksgiving.

Part 2: Resource Trends

Editor's note: The U.S. Department of Agriculture has identified the critical soil and water resource problems of the nation, analyzed them, and proposed a national conservation program to address them. This is the second in a series of three articles that outlines the conservation problems, trends and analyses, and the proposed national program.)

Continuing present nationwide soil and water conservation trends would mean serious future conservation and farm production problems, according to a U.S.

Department of Agriculture (USDA) report.

The findings are based on an analysis of the condition and trends of the soil, water and related resources of the United States. The analysis was part of a report required by Congress in the Soil and Water Resources Conservation Act of 1977 (RCA), explains Carl Hutcherson, District Conservator for the Soil Conservation Service (SCS) at Knox City.

The analysis shows that the demand for food and fiber produced in the United States would increase while technological advances in agricultural production would decrease.

Without better technology to boost production, the demand to produce more food and fiber will mean that more acres of marginal land will be farmed. The result will be increased soil erosion rates and other resource problems.

If this happens, the productive capacity of American agriculture would decrease and production costs would increase.

The report says that these resource problems need to be addressed most quickly: Excessive erosion rates, upstream flood damages, groundwater depletion, and deteriorated water quality.

To project future conditions, the USDA analysts used a computer model to simulate the nation's agricultural productivity related to erosion. Although the model's results can't be taken as absolute indicators of what will happen, they do show the relative direction of American agriculture and the possible magnitude of future resource conditions and problems.

RCA Appraisal Part II, the second of three major RCA documents, contains the detailed analysis of the trends of this and condition of America's soil and water resource base. A copy of this and other RCA documents is available for reference use at SCS offices throughout the state.

A short leaflet summarizing the RCA findings and proposed conservation program is also available at these USDA offices. The leaflet contains a pre-addressed, postage-paid response form that may be used to send comments to the USDA. Responses should be mailed by January 15, 1982.

With energy costs zooming just any center pivot won't do.

The whole equation changes. The few hundred you can save buying a cheaper pivot can be eaten up in the first year by rising energy costs alone. That's why the right match-up of power, pipe sizes and pressures can make all the difference in the world.

At Valley, we have the latest technology. We'd like to talk to you and show you before you buy any center pivot. Because just any center pivot won't do, especially if rising energy costs are a concern.

STEAM SEAFOOD FOR COMPANY TREAT

A combination of succulent seafood and fresh vegetables, steamed in a "bag" of aluminum foil, provides the ingredients for a quick but elegant company meal. The flavors are reminiscent of the Creole cooking of Louisiana as is the "en papillote" method of cooking in a bag.

The recipe is from the collection of Chef Arthur DeCuir, restaurateur and consultant, currently associated with Champale, Inc., makers of the Champale line of malt liquors. And now with the introduction of Champale's new and elegantly designed bottle, the product is not only a superb wine alternative when cooking at home, but a delightful eye-pleaser at the table whenever guests are invited over for dinner.

STEAMED SEAFOOD IN A BAG (Serves 4)

- 4 medium sized shrimp, peeled and deveined
- 1/4 pound scallops
- 6 little neck clams, washed but kept in shells
- 6 ounces filet of red snapper
- 1 large piece of aluminum foil at least 14" long

- 2 ounces peanut oil
- 1/2 cup Extra Dry Sparkling Champale
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/8 teaspoon black pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon oregano

JULIENNE:

- 1 whole carrot, sliced
- 1 small head broccoli, sliced
- 1/2 of 1 head cauliflower
- 3 large mushrooms

Place oil into the foil and create a basket to hold the oil and the seafood and vegetables. Smooth oil all over the foil. Place the fish and seafood on the foil and add the vegetables. Season with the salt, pepper and oregano. Add a little lemon juice and the Champale. To create the bag, fold up all the sides above the ingredients. Roll the foil and pinch all openings very tightly so that nothing leaks out. Make sure it is tightly covered. Place the bag on flat pan and bake in 400 degree oven for 30 minutes. Serve from opened bag.

For a full selection of Chef DeCuir's recipes, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to: Recipes, P.O. Box "A" Carle Place, N.Y. 11514

Approval Given Tulsa District

A plan for reintroducing military construction into the Corps Tulsa, Seattle and Louisville Districts in Fiscal Year 1982 has been approved by Lt. Gen. J.K. Bratton, Chief of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

Bratton said this action will increase the number of divisions and districts with military construction experience to support mobilization, balance the workload to eliminate unmanageable peaks in the districts and provide a larger number of districts and divisions with both civil works and military programs experience which can then employ a full range of specialists.

The Tulsa District will assume responsibility for military installations in Oklahoma and Arkansas. These include five Air Force Bases, two Army posts, one Army ammunition plant and one Army arsenal. The Southwestern Division office in Dallas is developing plans for the transfer of military programs between the Tulsa and Fort Worth Districts.

Lt. Col. A. Clark Welch is deputy district engineer for military construction in the Tulsa District. He formerly was military assistant to the resident engineer in charge of the construction of Clayton Lake.

Cotton Prices Are Lower Last Week

Local cotton prices closed one to three cents per pound lower for the week ending November 20, according to B.B. Manly Jr. of the USDA Cotton Marketing Services of Abilene. Price declines were wider for the higher quality cotton. Grade 42, staple 32, cotton miking 35 to 49 sold as high as 51 cents per pound early in the week, but closed at 46½ to 48½ cents per pound. Lubbock Spot Quotations closed November 20 at $2.65 for grade 41, staple 34, mike 35 through 49; which was down 4.85 cents per pound from one week earlier. Demand was moderate to mostly light, with demand being lightest for staple 33 or longer. Trading was slow to moderate.

Cottonseed prices paid farmers were steady at 75 to 90 dollars per ton. Optimum weather allowed farmers to make good progress with cotton harvesting. About 80,000 cotton samples were classed last week; which brought the seasonal total to 223,000 samples classed.

The quality of recently classed cotton continued higher than early season receipts. During the past week about 76% of the samples classed were Light-spotted and about 22% were White grades. Grade 42 comprised 50%, grade 52 comprised 15%, grade 41 comprised 13%, and grade 32 accounted for 11% of the samples classed. Staple length was 44% staple 31, 34% staple 32, and 14% staple 30. Micronaire readings were 94% within the 35 to 49 range. Fiber strength averaged 22 grams per tex for the week and also for the season. About 9% of the samples classed were reduced in grade because of bark or grass content.

School Lunchroom Workers To Meet

A dinner meeting will be held for all school lunchroom workers, supervisors, and retired workers on Monday, November 30, at 7:00 p.m. in the Knox City School Cafeteria.

This group meets twice a year in different schools for fellowship.

Each school should notify Mrs. Ramona Helms at the Knox City School if they plan to attend this meeting.

When Mom Buys a Truck

Mothers buying trucks? It happens more often than you'd think, for mothers are the prime purchasers of toy trucks and cars, non-fad toy items that appeal to youngsters year in and year out. To help mom shop for a Christmas truck, experts who design the well-known Ertl toy vehicle line have these tips:

- Durable metal toys—either steel or die-cast—have a long play life and often can be passed from one child to another.
- Check for safe construction. Quality toys have rolled edges and smooth finishes that won't snag little fingers while stacks and other protruding accessories should be of flexible materials.
- Children value realism and a few manufacturers produce toys that are faithful copies of the real thing. Ertl trucks, tractors and cars, for example, are authentic replicas, designed from the maker's own blueprints.
- Toy vehicles should match the youngster's size and age. For pre-schoolers, 1/48th scale (an inch equals 4 feet) toy trucks are small enough for easy handling yet large enough to provide interesting operating features.

April's Advice

BY APRIL STAMPS
County Extension Agent

Does employment of a wife mean the family must eat TV dinners - or buy shelves full of fast-preparation equipment?

Most people seem to have these mistaken ideas.

It doesn't have to be that way. In fact, several consumer surveys show that there are really few differences in the way homemakers - employed and at-home - handle meal management.

Whether you're employed outside the home or not, these meal-planning ideas can help ensure nutritious family meals in the face of today's hurried lifestyle:

PLAN BEFORE YOU SHOP
Before you shop, make a long-range plan for meals.

This will mean considering several important factors: built-in nutritional balance, sticking to a budget you can live with, thinking about the "where" and "when" your family eats various meals, and makes allowances for special diets, such as low-calories ones.

Then to make the plan really workable, add some time-saving items and steps to your plan, and, finally be sure to think "Plan Ahead."

BUILD IN BALANCE
In planning meals and snacks for your family, you'll want to ensure that meals are balanced - that is, planned according to the family members' nutrient needs.

Use the Basic Food Groups in planning, and include the number of recommended servings for each member.

STICK WITH BUDGET
Stay within your budget. This is especially important in these inflationary times.

Consider the foods you have available, such as fresh vegetables from the garden or those you canned in the spring.

Check newspapers, television and several stores for advertised specials.

Make inventory of foods on hand based on your menu.

Plan to shop for a week or two at a time - not every other day. Frequent trips to the store waste time and cause impulse buying.

WHERE, WHEN OF MEALS
Efficient use of time is special to busy homemakers. Thinking about the "where" and the "when" of family meals - ahead of time - will make a big difference in meal efficiency.

Will all meals be eaten at home or "on the run?"

Will you do all the meal planning, or will some members eat away from home where you have no control over their selections for that meal?

If some eat away from home, make sure your plan helps "fill in the nutrition gaps" at the meals they do eat at home.

Also, make sure at-home meals help bring their "calorie count" back into the necessary range. Fewer calories at home will "even up" the score for family members who tend to eat too many away from home, for example.

SPECIAL DIETS

Special diets must be part of the meal plan, if they are necessary.

For example, if weight control is a problem for some family members, then menu plans should allow for this, in these cases, family members should be encouraged to select away-from-home meal items according to their special diets.

ADD A BIT OF 'EASY'

At this point in your plan, give yourself a "break". Consider the use of convenience foods in key places of your plan to save time.

If they cost more because of convenience features, choose them with care.

Some do not cost more, and these save both time and money. Some cake mixes, for example, do not cost more than "from scratch" baking. Also, consider creating some of your own "master mixes", such as pancake or cocoa mix.

Definitely consider making double batches of your family's favorite recipes so you can serve one fresh and freeze the rest of your own "homemade TV dinners."

PLAN FIXIN', SERVING

Plan ahead for meal preparation and serving, too.

For example, plan ahead for breakfast coffee - measure the ingredients the night before, and set the coffee pot up in "ready to start" fashion.

You could even set the table the night before and cover the whole layout with a cloth.

Learn to organize for a meal service - prepare as much ahead of time as possible, whether you're serving three people or 30. This can make a big difference in how easy and pleasant the meal is.

PLAN-AHEAD 'PROMISES'

No one can promise perfect meals, but planning ahead "almost" has some sure-fire promises.

Careful planning, knowing the nutrient needs of family members and the nutritional value of foods you buy - along with careful meal preparation and serving, can help ensure balanced meals and snacks for your family.

The better organized you become in this area, the more pleasant the whole process will be - and the more free time you'll have to enjoy your family and other activities.

In Board of Directors

Olney Savings Announces Changes

Olney--Olney Savings Association announced today three changes in its Board of Directors. C.V. "Bink" Morgan was named and honored as director emeritus, Don Terry was selected as board chairman and Lewis Farmer was added as a new member, according to president and chief executive officer Alan D. Myers Jr.

A formal resolution of appreciation was adopted to recognize the leadership of Morgan, who was formerly chairman of the board and resigned in April of 1981. Myers said, "We express our sincere love and appreciation to our dear friend for his ability to build goodwill, his unflinching willingness to work, his sound judgement and leadership. We wish Bink good health and the kind of happiness he has provided for all of us.

Morgan has served Olney Savings as a member of the board since December 1947 and chairman since January 15, 1969.

Don Terry, the newly named chairman, has served on the Olney Savings board since January 17, 1962. He is an independent oil producer and farmer in Olney. And he also serves on the Hamilton Hospital board and the KayBee board, a local farm related corporation. He is a past Rotarian and was a former member of the board of directors of the Olney Industrial Foundation and the School Board.

Lewis Farmer is a former senior-vice president/lending for Olney Savings who now works as an independent oil producer. A graduate of the National Commercial Lending School, University of Oklahoma, 1973; and a graduate of Texas Tech in 1969, with a B.B.A. in finance, Farmer also has participated in many civic activities. He is a member of the Olney School Board and a former vice-president of the Olney Board of Commerce and Industry (1976); a past president of the Olney Rotary Club (1972) and past president of the Olney Community Chest (1976).

Myers commented, "We are very fortunate and proud to have such a high caliber board. Each member's distinction, dedication and high degree of ability enables us to serve our 30 communities and Olney Savings with wisdom, loyalty and boundless energy."

Olney Savings is a $300+ million savings and loan association in north and west Texas with offices in Olney, Seymour, Jacksboro, Bridgeport, Nocona, Weatherford, Azle, Graham, Archer City, Brownwood, Bowie, Wichita Falls, and Vernon. COOKING CORNER

A prize-winning pot roast recipe may help you dish up a great meal--and save money.

The recipe, Rubie Jamerson's Sunday Pot Roast, serves eight people and served to win Mrs. Jamerson $1000, a deluxe food freezer and a lifetime supply of aluminum foil. Those were the top prizes in The Reynolds Wrap Kitchens "The Way Mama Cooked It" contest.

POT ROAST

1 tbsp. vegetable oil
3-1/2 to 4 pounds beef chuck arm, blade or cross rib pot roast
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/4 cup chopped green pepper
1 clove crushed garlic
1 eight-ounce can tomato sauce
1 cup water
1 four-ounce can sliced mushrooms (drained)
1-1/2 tsp. salt
1 tsp. pepper
8 small potatoes (halved)
8 carrots (quartered)

Heat oil in Dutch oven on medium heat. Add beef and brown on all sides. Remove pot roast and place on plate or a sheet of aluminum foil. Saute onion, green pepper and garlic in Dutch oven until tender. Add tomato sauce and water and stir to blend. Return beef to pot. Add mushrooms, salt and pepper. Reduce to low heat, cover; simmer 2 hours. Add potatoes and carrots, cover and continue cooking for 30 minutes or until tender.

Other recipes from the contest, including Charleston Hop'n John, Red Beans & Rice, and Old Fashioned Pound Cake can be found in "The Way Mama Cooked It" cookbook. The latest in the series of consumer education cookbooks published by Reynolds Metals Company encourages recognition of traditional black cooking as part of our modern lifestyle.

STREAMS IN DESERT PLACES By OZELLE STEPHENS

"And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshiped God, saying Amen; Blessings, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen." (Rev. 7:11-12.)

Being Thankful unto God and praising Him should never cease. David says, "And my tongue shall speak of thy righteousness and of thy praise all the day long." (Ps. 35:28.) Again he said, "I will sing praises unto the Lord as long as I live; I will sing praises to my God while I have my being."

God wants and rewards our praise and thankfulness unto Him. In our hearts we are thankful for God's blessings for health, for salvation, for sound minds, and the joy of living - but have we told him so?

Home From Hospital

DPS Asks Drivers' Safety During Holiday

LUBBOCK--Major C. W. Bell, DPS Regional Commander, is asking drivers to be cautious during the Thanksgiving holidays.

"Thanksgiving is a time for us to rest and be grateful for many things. Each individual has his own feelings about Thanksgiving, but those drivers who practice good driving habits can be truly thankful that they are not involved in a traffic accident during the year," he said.

Major Bell pointed out that Texas is well on its way to a record number of traffic fatalities this year. "Last year 4,424 people were killed and 1981 is going to be another record year unless motorists take special precautions to protect themselves and others," he said.

"Many of these deaths could have been avoided if people would stay sober, drive at reasonable speeds and use their seat belts," Bell said. "Putting on a seat belt only takes a few seconds, but that simple act can add years to one's life," he emphasized.

DPS statistics show that last year, about 1200 lives would have been saved if all drivers and their passengers would have clicked their seat belts on. "It's better to be safe than sorry," Bell concluded.

During last year's Thanksgiving holiday period, 63 persons were killed in traffic accidents in Texas. The DPS regional commander said that the Operation Motorcade traffic death count is not conducted during Thanksgiving, but that doesn't mean that drivers should be less cautious. Bell said DPS Troopers would be active during the holiday trying to cut down on needless traffic fatalities.

Prettier Than Ever - The Face Of Fashion '82

What's in fashion now is a look of luxurious fullness—big, wrappy coats, dresses that swirl about you, swooping capes, scarves and shawls. All very pretty, but it can be pretty overwhelming. You risk getting lost in all that fashion—unless you balance it with a new fashion makeup so your face becomes the pretty focus of all the excitement. The makeup experts at Cover Girl - with their gleaming new collection of eye, cheek and lip products - will help you achieve the soft, radiant glow that is the beautiful face of fashion '82. Here's how:

Begin with a fresh, glowing complexion. Easier than it sounds with Cover Girl Liquid Make-Up to give skin a soft, velvety finish and provide the right "background" for the colors to come.

Next, "kiss" cheeks with a gentle glow of color. Try a whispery shade of blush such as Mauve Mist in new Cream-On Blush. It's as much glow as color, just enough to enhance your face with a soft halo of light. Don't stop with cheeks; use the sponge-on applicator to trace a flattering glow along the hairline, along the outer curve of the ears, just at the tip of your chin. It's a young, pretty way to glow.

PERSONAL & FAMILY relationships

Family and I
by William A. Miller

No matter what your age, one of the toughest problems of life is figuring out who you are. Another tough problem about life is determining what you want to become when you grow up.

As if that weren't enough, you still have to go through the struggle of deciding how realistic is your perception and how reasonable are your hopes, dreams, and expectations.

There is so much testing that needs to be done. So much to be learned. So many questions to be answered. So much to be discovered. So much feedback to be received.

One bright note though: If you have the good fortune of living in a healthy home and family you can find a lot of help in working on these chores. Because home can be a safe and supportive place. The family can be an accepting and supportive group. Here you can honestly hear your strengths and weaknesses without feeling flattered or put down. Here you can hear criticism without feeling coerced. Here you can test out the accuracy of your self-perception and the reasonableness of your hopes and dreams.

The family is for stretching imaginations, for giving feedback, for reflecting views, for sharing experiences, for challenging short-sightedness, and for discouraging sheer fantasy. The family is for visions—visions of who you are as well as who you can become.

Dr. Miller is a counselor associated with The American Lutheran Church.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING

Great-Tasting Garnish For Turkey

Food decorations that just look pretty on the platter are "out." Serve something with your holiday turkey that doesn't get pushed aside like a piece of parsley. Raisin Stuffing in Orange Cups is as tasty as it is good-looking.

The taste is in the cornbread or chicken flavor stuffing mix that's in the hollowed-out orange halves. Because the mix has a vegetable/seasoning packet that is separate from the crumbs, it does not need to be cooked in the bird for flavor. That makes this side dish quick, as well as eye-appealing. Choose walnuts, pecans, almonds or peanuts for extra crunch.

RAISIN STUFFING IN ORANGE CUPS

- 3 medium oranges
- 1 package (6 oz.) Stove Top cornbread or chicken flavor stuffing mix
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1/4 cup raisins
- 1/4 cup chopped nuts

Cut oranges in half, using an apple corer for scalloped edge or small sharp knife for zigzag edge. Remove orange sections and reserve. Squeeze the juice from the membrane and add water to make 1-1/2 cups. Prepare stuffing mix as directed on package, using measured liquid, adding sugar with the vegetable/seasoning packet, and adding raisins, nuts and orange sections with stuffing crumbs. Spoon mixture into orange cups. Serve with roast turkey, if desired. Makes 6 servings.
