THOMPSON BROS. IMPLEMENT CO.

They say that women are curious. Well, we're going to admit that we are curious, too. We got a hush, hush letter from a business associate this week. He said he would send along a package which is not to be opened until we receive a wire or letter from him.

Oh, how we wonder what is in that package. Oh, how we have gnashed our teeth, trying to guess what is in that package. If it weren't for some of the folks with whom we work, we might have peeked by this time.

So far we've visited the post office 49 times and run up a sizeable bill with the telephone company checking with Western Union for wires addressed to us.

But then we believe that women complain more than men do.

If you want to be denounced just start helping an old boy and let the plans slip. He'll believe to his dying day that you had it planned from the start.

Indian sign says we can expect a poorer crop yield than average. This bit of redman lore came from Elmer Thornton, pharmacist by profession and weatherman at heart. Elmer got up early Tuesday morning for a peek at the Indian sign.

We have a word of consolation, Elmer, the Commanche didn't know about Olton's underground water supply.

Add to the list of pleasant people the name of Mrs. Nettie Hall. Nettie is the wife of Insurance man Howard Hall. She is always smiling and her smile is spontaneous.

We once read about a bus patron, an old lady, who died and when they read her will she had left $68,000 to the driver of the bus she had ridden over a period of years. "Because he always smiled at me," was the reason she gave in her will.

If you don't feel good, SMILE. It may make a difference in how you feel. If you don't like someone, SMILE. It may make a difference in how you feel about each other. We'll have a better Olton if more people SMILE.

We once had the privilege of talking personally to Harold Stassen, the man whom President Ike has appointed to the newly created disarmament post. We conversed with Stassen some 15 minutes alone when he sought the Republican nomination to the Presidency in 1948.

And we'd bet that the Russians or anyone else doesn't fool that Minnesota boy.

One of the marks of success is being able to discuss a problem to the exclusion of all else and then forget it completely in a matter of seconds without disturbing the flow of your original line of thought.

Our advice to any youngster is that he acquire this talent if he does not already possess it. Without it you will never be able to rise above mediocrity.

Scouts Postpone Ruidosa Trip

THE FINISHED WORK OF CHRIST

Many times we hear people say that the sinner is saved by the "finished work of Christ."

It is true that he finished his work in many respects. His life on earth, his death for man's redemption, his resurrection, the establishment of his church, and the giving of the gospel through inspired apostles have all been finished.

CHRIST DID NOT FINISH MAN'S PART

This does not mean, however, that he did the part we are supposed to do to be saved. If so, since Christ died for all, then all would be saved regardless of what they do. The sinner would be saved without doing anything, even believing. So far as man is concerned salvation would be unconditional. The sinner is required to do the following to be saved: believe, Mk. 16:16; repent, Acts 2:38; Confess Christ, Acts 8:37; Rom. 10:9-10, and be baptized into Christ, Romans 6:3-5; Gal. 3:27; for the remission of sins, Acts 2:38; to be saved, Mk. 16:16; 1 Pt. 3:21, or to have sins washed away, Acts 22:16. When one has done this he must then live faithful unto death, Rev. 2:10.

Remember, while Christ finished his work in many respects, as above mentioned, he did not finish what we are supposed to do: believe and obey his terms of pardon. This is for the individual himself to do. Moreover, God and Christ are still doing some of their work. They are still making sinners free from sin when they obey from the heart his terms of pardon, Romans 6:17-18.
