Ft. Worth's loss is Snyder's gain as Dr. Don Newbury accepts the position of WTC president. -WTC photo

TCJC's Newbury accepts WTC post

Dr. Don Newbury, 43, of Ft. Worth has been chosen to replace Dr. Robert Clinton as president of Western Texas College. Dr. Newbury, who has served as director of communications for the Tarrant County Junior College District since 1967, will formally assume the responsibility April 1.

He will become WTC's second president, filling the vacancy left by Dr. Clinton, who accepted the position of executive director of the Texas Public Junior College Association in Austin.

The board of trustees unanimously voted to offer the position to Dr. Newbury after screening some 19 applicants. Dr. Newbury, who was present at the meeting, said he was excited about his new position and that he was "anxious to get back to West Texas."

Dr. Newbury is a Brown County native and graduate of Early High School near Brownwood. He attended Howard Payne University where he received his bachelor of arts degree with majors in business administration, education and journalism. He acquired his master's degree in journalism from the University of Texas at Austin in 1966. He was awarded a Ph.D. in higher education administration in 1973 from North Texas State University.

His appointment becomes effective April 1, when his contract expires with the TCJC district. He said he has arranged to be on campus two days per week until then.

"I want to get started," Dr. Newbury stated. "I'm ready to go to work on one of the most beautiful campuses I've ever seen."

He was introduced to the faculty Jan. 21 by Dr. Ben Brock, vice-president. "We now have a new slate for all of us here," Dr. Newbury said to the audience. "I would like to have your immediate support, and I want to earn your eventual confidence. I want you to know that I am joining you--you are not joining me."

Trustees okay new dorm and food fees

College trustees Jan. 12 formally accepted the new building housing four racquetball courts and approved an increase in room and board charges for 1981-82.

The racquetball courts were constructed as an adjoining facility to the pro shop and are operated by pro shop personnel. They are financed by users of the facilities.

Dormitory room charges will be increased from $235 to $295 per semester, while charges for meals on the five-days-per-week plan will increase from $360 to $390 per term. The new prices will be included in the 1981-82 college catalog, which is being revised.

The annual audit of college district funds was accepted as presented by Anderson and Anderson, CPAs. Buster and Larry Anderson said the district's financial records were in better shape than ever before.

The board approved a contract with Scurry County for collection of college district taxes for 1981 for a fee of .6 per cent. The county has collected the district's taxes under contract since WTC's inception.

Also approved was a contract with the law firm of Perue, Brandon, Blair, Shiever and Fielder of Amarillo for collection of delinquent taxes.

Dr. Robert Clinton, immediate past president of WTC, told the board that preliminary plans for an expansion of dorm facilities were completed, except for alternates on heating and air conditioning. The plans were submitted to the Coordinating Board in Austin late last month.

The college plans to add a wing to the dormitory complex, which will increase the capacity by 48 students. College officials believe that some 75 to 100 more students would have enrolled last fall if housing had been available.

Jerry Baird, Adult Vocational Education director, reported on continuing education-adult vocational education for the fall term.

AVE classes totaled 28 with an overall enrollment of 425, accounting for 1,067.5 classroom hours and 14,082.5 contact hours. There were 20 continuing education classes with a total enrollment of 338, accounting for 316 classroom hours and 4,030 contact hours.

Baird said there are indications that demands for training courses for oil industry-related firms may increase.

Blood drive set Tuesday

A blood drive sponsored by the Student Senate will be held Tuesday in the Student Center from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The drive is sponsored by the South Plains Blood Service which provides pamphlets answering questions about giving blood. The literature stresses that more blood is needed, but unless more people become donors those who need blood will not be able to get any.

Blood that is collected will be sent to the Lubbock Blood Bank for use in hospitals. This bank services area towns, including Snyder.

Last fall's drive here gave the blood service more blood than any other held on campus. According to Mickey Baird, activities director, people signed to donate, but others came and gave who had not registered.

"I hope that there is an even bigger turnout this semester. The need for blood is so important. If students and faculty take into consideration that they, too, might need blood someday and that it doesn't take that long to give, there would be quite a bit of blood donated that is needed," stated Lynda Cain, committee chairman.

1,220 enroll for spring

Spring enrollment reached 1,220 students, the second largest in WTC's history. In the spring, 1979 a total of 1,267 were enrolled, but last spring's figure was 1,132.

Dr. Duane Hood, dean of student services, said that he was "quite pleased" with this semester's figures.

The proportion of part-time students to full-time students has increased from previous years, Dr. Hood said.

A new extension center opened in Hamlin. Classes are also being offered in Crosbyton, Sweetwater, Haskell and Colorado City.

Final count of students will be printed in the next issue.

Opinion

News sources treat public like children

Has the fog lifted, or are America's eyes blinded by the radiation from the tube? Can it be that Iran's American hostages (now labeled 'former hostages' by media hype) don't feel like or want to be heroes?

It begins to appear that some Americans are actually as gullible as scientific studies show. Individual thinking is required to bore through media propaganda to arrive at the idea that the victims of circumstance are not, in fact, heroes. They were simply in the wrong place at the wrong time. The media just overplays the story to sell advertising. This approach to reporting is contradictory to most journalistic theory, in that news services exist to make money... and the way to make bucks is to boost circulation or viewership. So newsmen run stories (or overrun them in this case) to accomplish the goal.

If one does not consciously consider these factors, it's easy to be misled by news redundancy and overemphasis. The propaganda sent out by both Iranian and U.S. news and governmental sources is so diverse and contradictory, a mind can be easily twisted. Perhaps the hostages themselves will be the only ones to ever really know how the 444 days were spent.

Since the hostages said they hoped that their ordeal helped to unify the American public, would it not be conceivable that the U.S. government should want to keep that feeling alive to help anesthetize ill feeling the country is experiencing? Would our governing body stoop so low as to convince (or force?) the captives to stir the coals of the public's hatred of Iran? One look back at our government leaders' known wrongdoings (not to mention the unknown ones) should put that question to a reasonable test.

Most likely, our nation will, in apathetic blindness, soon forget the American hostages that were held captive on foreign soil for over a year. Then, just as the media treated the ending of Watergate, the nation's news services will search for another topic to overplay. It seems reasonable that maybe, just maybe, the American people will treat differently the news that we, the media, try so hard to present objectively.

-J.D. Helm

Equal opportunities?

"Working 9 to 5"... Does this sound familiar? On radio stations throughout the country, Dolly Parton can be heard singing the theme song from the popular movie "9 to 5." The movie portrays three women working in the secretarial field. "Dora Lee," played by Parton, suffers sexual harassment from her boss. The movie depicts the role of women in careers and the feelings they share about the men who are their bosses.

The increase of women in careers is evidence of the changing patterns in the American lifestyle. The American family pattern is changing from the always-home mother, go-to-work father. With the rising cost of living, it is often necessary for women to have careers to help meet expenses.

According to the U.S. Department of Labor, the number of working women has tripled since just before World War II. With these changes, the question has arisen: "Are women treated fairly with the same opportunities as men?" The movie "9 to 5" depicts men as sometimes taking advantage of women simply because they are women. According to government figures, women still lag behind men in pay and position. The average woman worker earns only about three-fifths what a man earns, even when both are full-time, year-round employees. And her pay is less, on the average, even if she is a high school or college graduate.

Will women ever be given equal job opportunities and equal pay? Only with the realization of the changing role of women in careers, and an increased awareness of women's capabilities. As women prove they are as capable for most job requirements, the future can make working "9 to 5" an opportunity for the best qualified person, be it man or woman.

-Beth Pumphrey

Western Texan's strength comes from public's attitudes, needs

Although errors were evident in the final issue of the fall semester, Dec. 12, namely misidentification in a couple of pictures, and a debatable (but not yet proven wrong) point taken in an editorial, it is necessary that the staff make it clear that we try our best to present the news and comment on the news in a responsible manner.

It often is difficult to put out a product that satisfies each and every reader, particularly when questionable or erroneous (though not intentional) material is involved. We apologize. But the fact remains that the staff is small, most of us are full-time students, and a number hold down part-time (and some practically full-time) jobs while working on the paper.

We are a college paper and we are all learning. We learn from our mistakes and we are always the first to admit it.

We try to cover every aspect of college life and cover each equally. Sometimes information is vague or given incorrectly, and the staff works with what it has.

It isn't anyone's intention to mislead or start any scandal.

The paper is intended for the college and the staff works to put together an informative, entertaining product for the campus. Bear with us, but more than that, help us. We are only as strong as those who we serve.

Trashy words for litter bugs

The Alpha Study Club is starting an effort to restore the beauty to Snyder. This involves picking up the litter that is a blight to our community. The plan is not only to clean-up but to keep our city clean. In other words: DON'T LITTER!

We want to solicit the help of all WTC students not only to be responsible for the campus, but for the streets and roads leading to the college. Litter bags will be supplied to all college students who have automobiles.

The kick-off date is February 14. Let's "Put the Sparkle back into our Sparkle City."

Sincerely,
Alpha Study Club
Mrs. Vera Holsinger,
President

Several museum activities held

A major foundation exhibit, trip to view an international show, new brownbag luncheons and 'Artist of the Month' are activities recently scheduled and sponsored by the Scurry County Museum on campus.

The American Expressionist Collection of the Sarah Campbell Blaffer Foundation of Houston is featured through Feb. 16. It includes paintings by artists who devised a new style of artistic expression in the late 1940's.

Both the original founders of the movement, known as 'abstract expressionism' (or "action painting"), and their younger followers are included. Represented are figures who were influenced by surrealism but considered transitional abstract painters.

The collection is on a three-year tour of Texas.

Several area residents joined museum personnel in traveling to Ft. Worth to view the Great Bronze Age exhibit Jan. 23-24. It will stay on display in the Kimball Art Museum through Feb. 18, then move to Los Angeles and Boston.

On loan to the United States by the People's Republic of China, the 105-piece show opens with the earliest-known Chinese bronze vessel and concludes with the terra cotta soldiers and horses excavated from the burial complex of the first Chinese emperor.

Mary Dulaney discussed oriental rugs during a brownbag luncheon Jan. 26. Another luncheon, Jan. 12, was keynoted by John Gibson, art instructor. His topic was abstract impressionism.

Brownbag luncheons were added to the museum's schedule in the fall and are planned the second and fourth Mondays of each month.

Also, the museum has announced that an 'Artist of the Month' will be named, beginning this month. In cooperation with the Snyder Palette Club, the program will be open to all Scurry County artists 21 and older.

Persons wishing to participate must submit four slides of their works to the museum. Selected by an out-of-town judge, the artist will be featured in a show opening the third Sunday of the month and continuing through the second week of the next month.

Each artist must include at least four paintings in the exhibit and will be limited to a maximum of 10. All work must be original, and no copies will be shown.

Computer class in progress

A computer programming class taught by Dr. Duane Hood, dean of student services, is in progress this semester. This is the first time in WTC's history for this type of class to be offered.

Twenty-three students are studying COBOL programming which stands for "Common," "Business," "Oriented," "Language." The class demand exceeded the number of spaces available, so Dr. Hood expects to offer the course again soon, probably this summer.

Students will complete three computer programs this spring, using the NCR8200 computer, the same computer operated by the college administration.

According to Dr. Hood, this course is helpful to students majoring in business administration, accounting and related subjects.

The Western Texan begins student typeset operation

The journalism department took a giant step in the right direction last fall when The Western Texan began typeset and paste-up operations on campus.

WTC purchased a Compugraphic Editwriter 7500 photo typesetter. The first two issues of the fall publication were set on a 7300 model, owned by Beverly Cross, secretary to the president and vice-president.

Cost of the machine is approximately $17,000, "but an educational institution can purchase a larger machine for about the same price that an individual can afford a smaller one," said Cross.

Although the department does not have exclusive rights to the machine, the paper is the single largest demand and a primary justification for its purchase. The machine is located in an office in the LRC.

The new 7500 provides access to type sizes from 6 to 72 points and eight type faces at once. "This machine allows us to be our own creative selves," said Cross. "Students learn processes right here that had to be done off-campus before."

The photo typesetter installation allows for the eventual purchase and installation of terminals in critical campus areas, namely, the journalism newsroom. This would enable students to set type from one location and process type in the typesetting office.

"With a small amount of printing knowledge of newspaper language, it's easy to catch on. The rest is pretty much trial and error until you figure out a system that works for you—until it (the paper) looks the way you want it to, considering the deadline and time elements," Cross said.

"It's very exciting that journalism students on the newspaper staff have access to an integral part of on-the-job training," said Dr. McBride, publications adviser.

Dinner honors Clintons; Gibson portrait featured

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Clinton were honored at a dinner Jan. 15 for more than a decade of service.

Dr. Clinton, who served as WTC president since it was founded, has left to become director of the Texas Public Community-Junior College Association in Austin.

Dr. Ben Brock, vice president, presided over the dinner, which featured remarks by board and faculty members, students, the Clintons' pastor and wives of board members.

A highlight was the presentation of a portrait of Dr. Clinton which is hanging in the LRC. John Gibson, art instructor, was commissioned to do the painting by the board. The presentation was made by Edwin Parks, board president.

The program featured music and comments by Jane Womack, music instructor; Parks; Bill Wilson, board vice president; Dr. Gil Fleer, Faculty Association chairman; Darrell Collins, student body president pro tem; Rev. David Robertson, pastor of First United Methodist Church; Merrill Kayser, former social science faculty member; Nell Parks, wife of the board president, and Shirley Jones, wife of Bill Jones, a former board president.

Mrs. Parks presented Mrs. Clinton with an afghan, and Collins presented the Clintons with a set of pottery ware on behalf of the student body.

In response, Dr. and Mrs. Clinton expressed appreciation for the courtesies extended them by Snyderites.

"This is not the largest of the public junior colleges in Texas, by any means, but it is regarded as one of the very best," Dr. Clinton said. "I am glad I have had the opportunity to be associated with the people of Snyder and Scurry County."

Darrell Collins' "Tie a Yellow Ribbon" added flavor to the welcome back ceremonies.

Collins 'believes in music'

If you were around for the yellow ribbon ceremony downtown last week, you've heard his rendition of "Tie a Yellow Ribbon." If you've been around during a performance of the WTC Vocal Ensemble, you've heard his version of "You're the Biggest Part of Me." Because, wherever he goes, the voice of Darrell Collins stands out in a crowd.

A native of Snyder, Darrell is the last of four children, all of whom share his love of music. He attributes this fact to his mother, who he says always used to sing to them as children.

Darrell began singing at church with his brothers and sister at the age of two or three. Since then, this has expanded to include civic clubs, nursing homes and various events. He also plays the piano, a skill he picked up by ear at the age of seven.

"I could wake up at three in the morning singing," he comments, "and it doesn't matter what song, as long as the words and the music move me."

Surprisingly, though, Darrell does not plan to pursue a career in music. Instead, he is planning a career in teaching, one of the other loves of his life. He is currently majoring in history and hopes to teach it in the future.

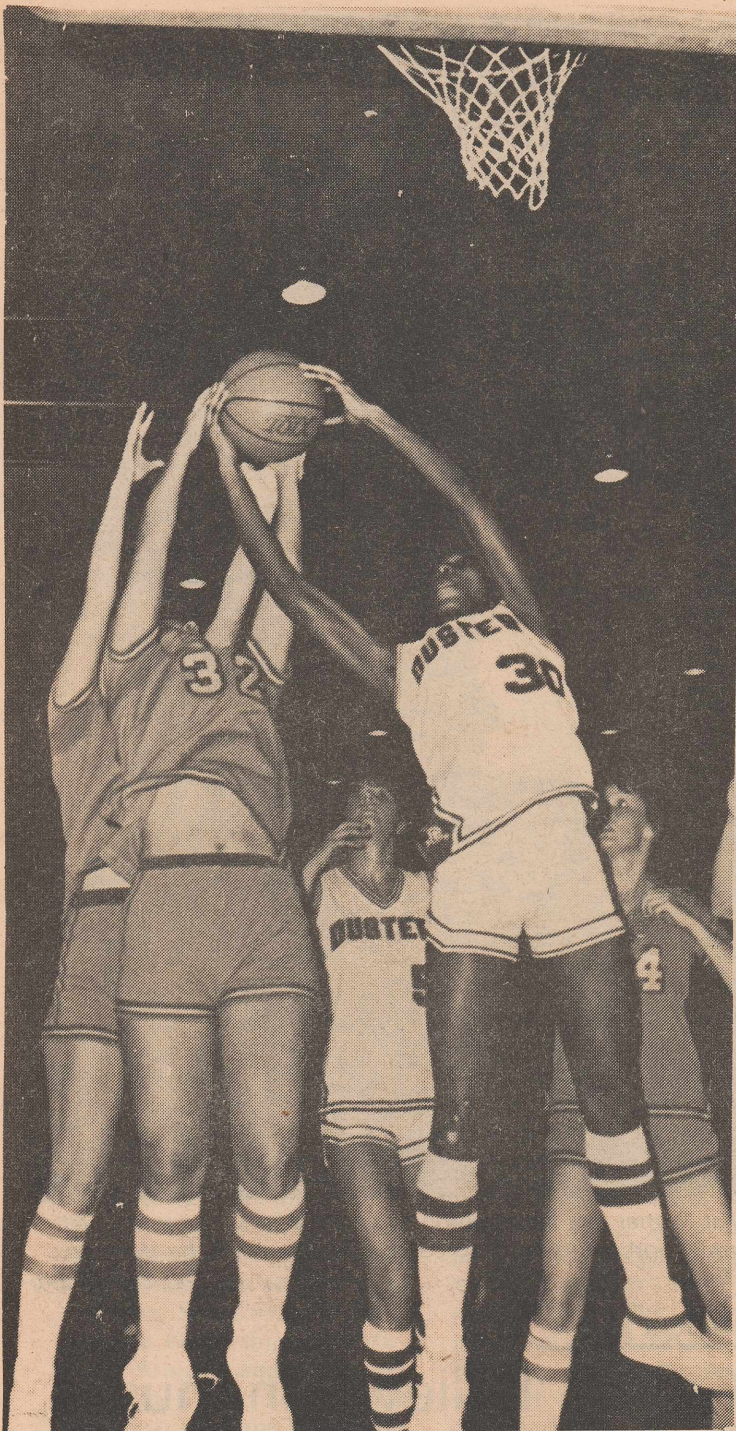

"I've always had this dream of having a desk right in the middle of a classroom," he explains, "but never really sitting in it because I'd be so busy teaching."

As for Darrell the person, his philosophy of caring is very evident in his sunny personality. "I guess I'm thought of as bold," he says, "but I like to talk and I think it's dumb to want to know something and not ask."

Besides singing and playing the piano, Darrell also likes reading, especially non-fiction and mysteries. He does admit to some dislikes, however, among them cats, which he says give him an eerie feeling.

After leaving WTC, Darrell plans to finish his degree at Angelo State, then work on his master's. And who knows? Maybe someday he'll return to WTC with a new theme song... "Welcome Back Collins!"

Dusters third in tournament

WTC's Dusters won third place in the Northern Oklahoma Tourney in Tonkawa, Okla. the first weekend in January. They defeated Garland Community College of Hot Springs, Ark. 77-67, lost to Moberly, Mo. in the second round 77-55 and defeated Amarillo College 71-70 the last day.

Shari Teal played outstanding basketball, scoring 34 points and setting WJCAC and Northern Oklahoma tourney records for most rebounds with 28. She also blocked 5 shots. All of these accomplishments were in the first-round game against Garland.

Cindy Maddox and Linda Holubec were also in double figures with 16 and 11, respectively. Holubec also pulled down 9 rebounds.

WTC out-rebounded Garland 55 to 33 and had 16 assists, 16 steals and 8 blocked shots.

In second-round play against Moberly, 10-0 on the season, WTC took a tough loss, 77-55.

Teal pumped in 19 points, Holubec added 11 and Maddox was also in double figures with 10. Stella Bickley scored 2, Kathy Rodolph 2, Valerie Wells 6, Joy Guyton 2, Jenni Anderson 1 and Lori Watson 2.

The team shot 33 per cent from the field, hitting 19 of 58 field goals. In the final game of the tournament, the girls rallied from a 14-point deficit to beat conference rival Amarillo 71-70. The Dusters were behind 35-28 at halftime.

In the second half, WTC scored 12 straight points to cut Amarillo's lead down to 2. With 19 seconds left Amarillo's Marcy Dale went to the line and made 2 free throws to put the Lady

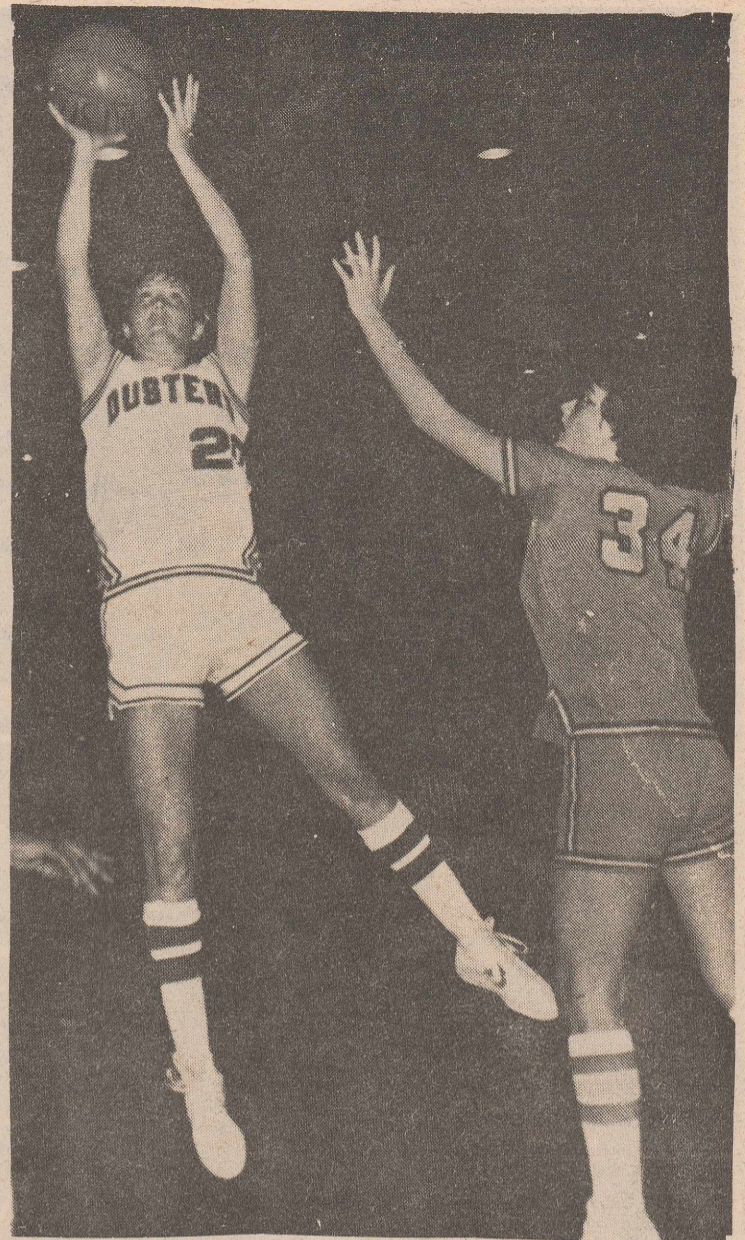

Badgers ahead by one point,

The Dusters came right back with scoring, utilizing passing from Bickley to Maddox to Holubec who "swished" a 20-foot jumper to put WTC ahead 71-69 with 12 seconds left.

The pressure was on Amarillo as they put up an outside shot that was rebounded by WTC's Wells before an Amarillo player took it out of her hands and put up a shot that was blocked by Teal as the buzzer sounded.

Holubec was high point with 22 and had 9 rebounds. Teal, who was named to the all-tournament team, had 11 points and 8 rebounds. Maddox scored 10, Guyton had 8, Bickley had 7 points, 3 steals, 9 assists and 2 blocked shots, Anderson had 1 point and Watson had 2 points.

Felines surge past South Plains, 76-57

The Dusters got closer to a WJCAC championship with a recent victory over South Plains 76-57. The Dusters were 5-2 in conference and had a 19-5 overall season record.

Western Texas controlled the ball most of the first half to take a 38-34 halftime lead.

In the second half, WTC came out of the locker room hot. Shari Teal scored 14 points in 6½ minutes. After trading some baskets, WTC hit 7 straight points and led 47-36. The Dusters easily commanded the game. WTC led 67-46 with 7:19 left to play and never lost the lead again.

Teal was high point for the Dusters with 27 points. She was 11 of 16 from the field, almost 69 percent.

Linda Holubec scored 16, Cindy Maddox 10, Valerie Wells 6 and Cindy Goltl 5.

Teal was tops for the team in rebounding with 11 and freshman Wells had 10. Holubec and Jackie Briggs had 6 rebounds each.

Stella Bickley had seven assists and Holubec notched 5.

Whatta way to win again!

Coach Joe Cushing's Dusters wrapped up their 1980 season with a forfeit victory over the Rangerettes of Ranger Junior College. The fact is Ranger players had already left for the Christmas holidays and there was no one for the Dusters to play.

The game had been scheduled earlier and Ranger apparently left it off their own schedule so WTC accepted it as a forfeit.

Six hours of travel was not what the Dusters had in mind, but the victory left the girls' record at 14-3 going into the holidays.

Westerners third in Classic

The Westerners took third place in the annual ABC Classic Tournament played in Big Spring early in January. They crushed Sul Ross' junior varsity 112-49 after losing a tough first-round game to Midland 97-77.

In first-round play, Midland shot better than 50 per cent from the field to take a 58-45 halftime lead. The Westerners came back in the second half, firing off 10 straight points to cut the margin to 58-55. They stayed with the Chaparrels until late in the game as Midland used their bench

For the Westerners, Ceaser Scott led with 21 points, Chuck North had 16, Troy Stevenson 11, Keith Denis 9, Dwayne Dickey 6, Darren Lee 6, Donald Warren 6 and Brian Baker 2.

WTC held Sul Ross to only 25 points during the first half. At one time during the period, WTC scored 14 straight points. They took a commanding 47-17 lead into the locker room at halftime.

The second half was much like the first. WTC out scored Sul Ross 13-2 at one point and 28-8 at the halfway mark of the second period.

The team was led by all tournament selections North with 29 and Scott with 25. Lee and Denis, also in double figures, scored 19 each, Dickey and Clarence Cephas 7 each, Stevenson 2, Charles Gholson 6, Warren 2 and Baker 4.

Buzzer shot beats WTC

South Plains guard Scott Terrill hit a jump shot as the buzzer sounded to defeat the WTC Westerners 60-59 in the Coliseum Jan. 29. The Westerners dropped to 4-6 in conference play and 13-8 on the season.

During the first half, South Plains maintained a slight lead until sophomore Chuck North's basket at the end of the period put WTC ahead 32-31.

In the second half, WTC came back to lead 59-58 with 16 seconds left. With 5 seconds left in the game, WTC's Ceaser Scott won a tip but the ball fell into Terrill's hands, and he got off the winning shot before the buzzer.

Darren Lee paced the Westerners with 17 points. Keith Denis bucketed 14 points and Scott scored 11. Charles Gholson scored 2, Troy Stevenson 6, Brett Smith 3, Brian Baker 2, and North 4.

CC budget proposed

AUSTIN - Gov. Bill Clements told state community college officials Jan. 26 that his proposed budget calls for a 41 per cent increase in state spending to meet the growing needs of the state's 61 public two-year colleges, but it is lower than the budget recommendations submitted by the Legislative Budget Board.

The LBB suggested a $722.7 million general revenue appropriation for public community colleges in the 1982-83 biennium. That figure is $27.2 million more than Clements' recommendation.

More than 80 community college representatives heard Clements' remarks and his announcement that he has appointed former Gov. Preston Smith to the College Coordinating Board, subject to Senate confirmation.

However, it was not all good news for the college officials.

Clements said an increasing state population combined with decreasing oil and gas production leaves Texas with some hard choices, reduce services provided by the government, increase taxes, or improve productivity and efficiency.

Clements said he has been working to improve the efficiency of state government. He pointed to his slashing of 532 full-time equivalent employees as the first reduction in state bureaucracy growth in 35 years.

The package for the 67th Legislature includes:

- * Adoption of full formula funding as approved by the Coordinating Board and the Texas Education Agency.

- * Funding for state-required insurance for all community college districts.

- * Statutory provisions to simplify the enlarging of community college districts.

- * A Coordinating Board appropriation for reimbursement to colleges for loss of tuition due to tuition exemptions mandated by the legislature.

New racquetball courts opened

WTC's physical education facilities took a step forward with the opening of new racquetball courts Jan. 21. The four courts for racquetball or handball use, a lounge, and men's and women's lockers and showers cost about $237,000.

Athletic Director Bob O'Day expects the courts to pay for themselves soon. He points out that close to $30,000 was spent on the walls, floor and lighting in the courts. "The floors are maple and the walls are made from the latest material being used for such purposes," O'Day said.

Five racquetball classes are being taught in the new facilities. All equipment needed for handball and racquetball is available in the pro shop.

Hours are 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. weekdays and 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. weekends and holidays. Price for students weekdays is $3 per person per hour and $4 per person per hour weekends. Non-student rates are a dollar higher.

The racquetball committee is composed of O'Day, facility manager; Dr. Duane Hood and Lee Burke, WTC representatives, and Dalton Walton and Rylene Stoker, community representatives.

Initial dues for membership in the WTC Racquetball and Golf Association are $100, with annual dues of $200. The annual fee for each dependent of a member is $100. Annual fees may be paid at $20 per month for members and $10 per month for each dependent. Members are also entitled to use the golf course and fish in the college pond.
