

TRUE SQUARE...

The grounds of the Lynn County Courthouse are once again truly a square, after the Main Street/Ave. J curve on the west side was taken out and the lawn area filled recently with soil. City officials will decide whether traffic will flow one-way or two-way around the square, once everything is finished. There's still a ways to go on the exterior landscaping, to prepare for the grand re-opening of the courthouse. Rededication ceremonies are slated for Saturday, July 20, for visiting dignitaries and citizens to tour the historically-restored building.

City to apply for $350,000 Downtown Revitalization Grant

by JUANELL JONES

Tahoka City Council and city officials met in regular session Monday night, approving an agreement with the South Plains Association of Governments for application/administration of a Downtown Revitalization Grant in the amount of $350,000. If awarded the grant, of which city officials are hopeful of receiving, the funds would be used for sprucing up the downtown square area with new lighting, sidewalks, striping for parking areas, curbing and waterline access for landscaping planters around the square. The City of Tahoka would provide matching funds or in-kind services in the amount of $75,000 if awarded the grant.

In other business, the council approved a request from the Tahoka Economic Development Corporation (TEDC) to hire a full-time director for economic development, with the TEDC Board to oversee the new position. The request was approved for a one-year contract within a salary guideline as presented by Board President Bill Schoemann. Currently, the TEDC Board is comprised of all volunteer members. The council also approved the appointment of Al Garrett (formerly the owner of Tahoka Donuts) to the TEDC Board, to fill a vacancy left by the resignation of Tim Pledger.

Schoemann also reported figures for replacing a covering over the playground area in the city park, with a metal covering instead of the canvass-type material which had previously covered the area. The park project would be paid for out of TEDC funds. He was instructed to pursue the project.

The council tabled action regarding a lease agreement for a

Commissioners have routine session here

Lynn County Commissioners met in routine session Monday morning at the Lynn County Judge's office, discussing employee insurance and other business.

The cost to the county for providing employee health insurance is going up about $14,000 for the upcoming year, according to information provided by Lynn County Treasurer Amy Schuknecht. She noted that the previous year the increase was approximately $30,000 for the employee insurance pool. Commissioners voted to adopt the Health and Employee Benefits Pool from TAC FY 2019-2020.

Commissioners briefly discussed a new subdivision that is being planned in the New Home area, but no action was required at this point. The Championship Subdivision will have 54 lots, and will include a new ag farm for New Home ISD. The subdivision is planned in an area west from FM 1730 down CR 13.

County Judge Mike Braddock gave an update to commissioners of the progress with the Lynn County Courthouse construction project, and noted that the Courthouse Rededication ceremonies will be held on Saturday, July 20, at 2 p.m. for area citizens and special guests. Tours of the historically-restored courthouse will be offered at that time.

Lynn County Sheriff Abraham Vega reported that his office responded to 10 fireworks calls in the county last week during the July 4th holiday. Monthly bills were approved, and county officials conducted a budget work session.

Three accidents, fireworks complaints reported last week

by JUANELL JONES

Three one-vehicle accidents occurred in Lynn County during the past week, and city and county law enforcement received several calls complaining of fireworks during the July 4th holiday time period.

A one-vehicle rollover occurred 3-4 miles south of Tahoka on US 87 at 1:44 pm. July 5, but no injuries were reported. A man reportedly was seen walking around the vehicle before DPS arrived on the scene. The vehicle was towed by a wrecker. No information was available on the identification of the driver or vehicle.

On July 6 at 1:50 p.m., a caller to the Lynn County Sheriff's Office reported seeing a beige colored pickup that had rolled over on CR Nora about 2.5 miles north of FM 211, but that no one was inside or near the vehicle. However, a dog had been left inside the car. DPS had the vehicle towed, and the dog was rescued from the vehicle.

At 11 p.m. July 7, a caller reported that he had fallen asleep behind the wheel on his way home to Lubbock and wrecked his vehicle about a quarter of a mile inside the county line on US 84. He requested EMS due to his airbags being deployed, and asked for a wrecker to tow his vehicle. Lubbock EMS was paged to the scene. No information was available on the identification of the driver or vehicle.

Deputies responded to several complains about fireworks in rural areas, mostly by property owners asking for those shooting fireworks to move to different locations further from their homes. Tahoka City Police responded to 10 calls complaining of fireworks within the city, which was illegal.

An assault was reported at 11:30 a.m. July 8, when a caller complained that he was punched by his father as they were working in a cotton field.

A male walked up to a rural home on FM 1317 and knocked on the door at 2:25 a.m. July 6, asking the woman that answered the door to call the Sheriff's Office. The male told the woman he had been walking since 11 p.m. when he left a party. A deputy arrested the male for public intoxication.

Deputies picked up a man walking in the middle of the road on FM 400 about a half mile north of Wilson at 7:12 a.m. July 2. The Sheriff's Office had received several calls about the man reported to be walking northbound in the middle of the road, and jumping out in front of vehicles as well. When the deputy located the man at FM 400 and CR 7, he was able to get him off the road and transported him to an address in Wilson.

On July 1, a caller from the 1600 block of 14th Street in Wilson reported that a dog was nipping at children in Wilson and wanted to file a complaint.

A phone scam was reported on July 2 from a rural resident who said her mother had received a phone call from someone claiming to be with the Social Security office. She was told that her social security number had been used in a money laundering scam and was given a case number and phone number to call back. The woman hung up on the caller and reported the call online to the Social Security office.

A resident on CR F reported that a male in a tractor hauling a sand fighter had knocked over his mailbox, just after noon on July 4.

A caller at 9:47 p.m. July 4 reported a large brush fire behind a barn on CR 11, and the New Home Fire Dept. was paged out. However, a deputy ascertained that the owner was doing a control burn and had barriers around the fire so it would not spread, and the NHVFD call was cancelled.

Lynn County Jail held 45 inmates during the past week, including 18 from Lynn County and 27 held for Ector County. Local charges included one for public intoxication, one for driving while intoxicated, one for driving with license invalid with previous conviction/suspension, one for evading arrest with vehicle, one for possession of marijuana, and one for no MVI certificate.

A look back at ... Woodwork

(Reprinted from the past)

Dalton Wood

SOME REALLY low-life scumbag has broken into my home and stolen my Allsup's coffee mug. Although it is irreplaceable, it is of little real value, so it's puzzling to me that this would be the only thing they stole (well, I am missing a flashlight from my bedside table, but it may show up somewhere).

So why would anyone come into our house and steal a plastic coffee mug, when the house is loaded with more valuable stuff, some of which might bring as much as $15 at a pawn shop? I don't understand it, but I do miss my Allsup's cup, and here's why:

On the side of the cup, which I bought about 20 years ago, are the words "Refills 25 cents" below the Allsup's emblem. Two or three times a month, I get the cup out of the cabinet, go by Allsup's and buy a cup of coffee for 25 cents, because when I first bought it, I was guaranteed that I could always get it refilled for a quarter, no matter how long I kept it. A clerk at Allsup's once told me they still see a few of those cups, and mine was in the best shape of any they had seen.

I would fill my cup, plunk down my quarter, plus two cents tax, and some guy standing there buying the same amount of coffee in a throwaway cup would pay 69 cents, staring at me with envy. One of those cup-coveters must have followed me home or to the office. That's where I usually finished drinking, washed out my cup, tossed it into my car and took it home and put it back up in the cabinet.

But about a month ago I couldn't find it. Not at home, not at the office, not in my car. My wife says I probably set it down someplace and walked off from it. But of course I would never do a thing like that.

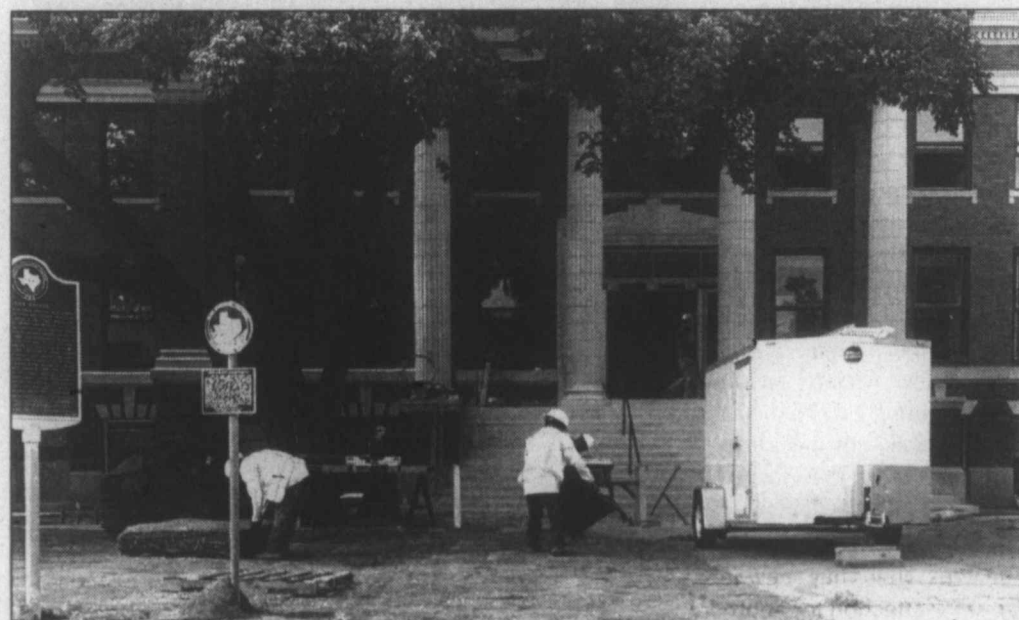

So it has been a bad month financially. About the same time I was notified that my city taxes are going way up, I discovered my coffee cup missing and now will have to pay 69 cents at Allsup's. They will not sell me a cup which can be refilled for a quarter.

I don't drink a lot of coffee any more, though. There was a time several years ago when guys with names like City Manager Carl and Bike Buddy Elmer used to come by and invite me to go for coffee with them. Both of them stopped doing that a long time ago. Maybe I should have paid for the coffee once in awhile.

Anyway, I'm offering a $1 reward for the return of my Allsup's cup, beige with brown stains. I could make that back in a couple of months on the difference in the price of a cup.

SLATON – The Slaton Police Department is encouraging the public to keep an eye on their license plates.

Sgt. Steve Dekraker said there have been at least six reports to the department about someone taking license plates off the back of cars. He added there have been "dozens more" in Lubbock.

He said if people have found their plate missing, to call the police department and report it, where it will be filed as stolen. Drivers will then need to go and register for new plates.

Grant will help SO buy two vans

LAMESA – The Dawson County Sheriff Office plans to use funds from a USDA grant to help purchase two vans for use in the transporting of inmates between the local jail and out-of-county jails where they are housed.

County Treasurer Terri Stahl told the Dawson County Commissioners Court that a 45-55 grant, totaling $69,400, had been awarded to the county by the USDA. Out of that total, she said, the county would be responsible for $31,300 and the USDA would give the county $38,100.

Those funds will be used to purchase one eight-passenger van and one 15-passenger van, Stahl said, for the sheriff's office so it will not have to put so many miles on patrol vehicles in the transporting of inmates.

Close to 300 cyclists expected in Lamesa July 20 for MS ride

LAMESA – With sign ups already ahead of last year, the 30th Annual Bike MS: Cactus and Crude Ride is expected to bring close to 300 cyclists to Lamesa for an overnight stay later this month.

"Last year at this time, we had 225 cyclists signed up. We already have 262 signed up and that is more than last year's total of 249 the day of the ride," Terri Stahl told the Press-Reporter the last week of June.

"We're looking to have 280 to 290 cyclists this year." Stahl is organizing local plans for the event as she has the last four years.

Almost 300 cyclists will be setting out to raise $425,000 toward a world free of MS by riding up to 150 miles over two days.

Over one-half of that goal – $216,690.85 – has been raised by Friday, according to the National MS Society website.

new Caterpillar backhoe for the city, pending further information.

A motion to remove a 20 mph sign in the 1600 block of North 2nd Street was approved unanimously, as the speed limit sign was only posted for one direction of traffic.

Some discussion was held on regulating traffic flow around the courthouse square, with consideration of one-way or two-way traffic, but no action was taken on this issue. Mayor John Baker asked council members to spend some time considering the issue and to offer their input to City Administrator Jerry Webster within the week.

Tahoka Police Chief Jeff Parker reported on his department's activities, noting that police responded to 125 calls during the month of June, including 15 animal calls, 12 for reckless driving, 9 EMS, and 8 welfare concern calls; and police vehicles had a collective total of 3,265 miles driven during patrols.

Other departmental reports were given, for the animal shelter, public utilities, and code enforcement.

Mayor Baker led the meeting, with council members Ray Box, Ronny Jolly, Ryan Curry and Shiloh Braddock present, as well as City Administrator Jerry Webster and other city officials. Councilmen Johnny Rosas was not present for the meeting.

SUMMER TIPS FOR KIDS

"Wear some Cool Shades"

Don't forget your child's eyes when you are out and about. Look for kids' sunglasses that block 99 to 100 percent of UVA and UVB rays. You don't need to spend a lot on kid sunglasses—research has shown that inexpensive sunglasses that are labeled as protective for UVA and UVB are effective in blocking the sun's harmful rays.

An alternative to DEET-containing repellents are natural insect repellents; however, parents should keep in mind that "natural" doesn't always mean "safe." Talk to your pediatrician about which insect repellent is right for your family.

Wear long sleeve shirts and long pants when going outside, particularly at dusk when mosquitoes are more likely to be present.

Never leave stagnant pools of water around the house. Pools of water can serve as breeding grounds for mosquitoes.

Avoid using scented soaps or perfumes on your child. And do not allow your child to walk around carrying sweetened beverages, such as fruit juices. These sweet, strong scents can attract bees and wasps and increase your child's risk of being stung.

"Where Christ Serves People"

Guided
I will lead the blind by a road they do not know, by paths they have not known I will guide them. I will turn the darkness before them into light, the rough places into level ground. These are the things I will do, and I will not forsake them.
~Isaiah 42:16 NRSV

When you feel that you have lost your way, and your feet can't feel the path beneath you, God promises that he will lead you forward. Even if you can't see what lies ahead, and though the road feels rocky and unsure, God will guide you. The path that seemed impassable will become smooth and the way that seemed impossible will become straightforward. God promises that he will do this for you and more, because he loves you and his is a love that never fails or forsakes.

Dear God, thank you for your promise to guide me no matter how impossible the way seems.
