

Drexel Lawson Gets Olton's First Bale Of Cotton

590-Pound Bale Ginned Wednesday

Drexel Lawson, who farms at Circle, rolled in with Olton's first bale of cotton for the 1961 season Wednesday afternoon—marking the second time in four years he has notched the first bale.

Lawson, who harvested the county's first bale in 1958, brought in this area's first cotton about 3:30 Wednesday at Olton Co-Op Gin.

The 590-pound bale was ginned from 2,400 pounds of seed cotton.

Lawson was presented a check for $315.50 by the gin, which paid 50 cents a pound for the bale and $50 a ton for 820 pounds of seed.

Olton Co-Op also gave free ginning and wrapping on the first bale.

First cotton for the area signaled the start of what may be Olton's finest crop year. Farmers have had ideal conditions most of the year, and their crops are "loaded."

The first bale was pulled from Paymaster 54-B cotton planted April 15. It was harvested in about two hours, from about 25 acres.

Lawson said he pre-watered and then irrigated the crop one time after planting.

He fertilized twice, both times prior to planting. He put down 100 pounds of anhydrous and later put on 138 pounds of 11-48-0.

In addition to the premium paid by Olton Co-Op Gin, Lawson will receive prizes of cash and merchandise from Olton Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture members for bringing in the first bale.

Lawson received 50 cents a pound for the bale, plus free ginning and wrapping. He'll also get cash and merchandise from Olton Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture members.

C-CA Letter Seeks Ideas On Hospital

Approximately 1,000 letters concerning the hospital project will be sent to area people this week, according to Dick Whiteley, manager.

The board of directors of the Olton Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture voted at a meeting Tuesday morning to work toward obtaining or building a hospital for Olton.

The letter asks these questions:

Do you think we need a hospital?
Do you think that it would be supported?
Would you support it?
What, in your opinion, would be the best way to finance it?

Cards will also be sent in the letters with these questions and space for comments.

AN EDITORIAL

The People Have A Right To Know

In closing its doors to The Enterprise Tuesday night, Olton's school board did more than ask a reporter to leave. The board at the same time turned the public away.

For when a newspaper is excluded from discussions of the public's business, the public's right to know is tossed to the winds.

Newspapers have no greater responsibility than their obligation to inform.

The Enterprise is unable to shoulder that responsibility fully this week. We missed three hours of a board meeting which lasted five hours.

We would like to make it clear where we stand on the matter of executive sessions—private meetings—held by boards elected by the people.

We believe this type of session should be outlawed. Before we get to the business of telling why we feel this way, a few other things should be made clear.

First, we have no axe to grind with the board or Supt. Clark. We are not "after" anyone. Indeed, we have high regard for the men who run our schools.

And it should be noted, in fairness to the board members, that they may legally hold an executive session when they feel the need for one.

Still, it is our firm belief that such closed meetings are not in the public interest—in fact, they represent a real danger to the people.

First of all, the board's discussion had to do with how the teacher pay raise would be handled at the local level.

The raise will be paid for partially by local taxes. We believe every taxpayer has a right to know the details of every board meeting, especially so when those details involve tax dollars.

Executive sessions are defended by some on the basis that the press usually is given a report on the results of such meetings.

This enables the newspaper to give its readers facts on final decisions made in such meetings, but it rules out any possibility of the newspaper letting the people know the full story of the session.

We believe the public has a right to know how the decision was reached and how the board members felt about it. It is only in this way that the people can judge what has taken place and vote intelligently at the next school board election.

When a public board holds a private meeting and then releases its "news" after that session, then the board is, in effect, editing the newspaper. The board is letting the reader know what it thinks the reader should know.

This is not a responsibility of the board. It is the newspaper's responsibility to determine what is news and what to print. It is a job we view with complete seriousness and dedication.

While we are not saying the present board has anything to hide, we believe that the power to hold executive sessions, in the wrong hands, could be used so that the public might learn only what its elected representatives want it to learn.

We cannot afford to let this happen, because we may not always be blessed, as we believe we are now, with honest men in public office.

This newspaper looks on closed meetings of public officials sort of like the man who has just learned he has cancer.

We want it cut out, because we know it can be dangerous.

Public, Newspaper Are Barred

Base salary for Olton classroom teachers has been set at $4,154—$140 above the new state minimum—with an additional $60 set aside for sick leave, Supt. Johnny Clark announced Wednesday.

The announcement came after a regular school board meeting Tuesday night at which the board went into executive session, barring the public and press.

In action at the open part of the session, the board voted to employ three new teachers, heard reports from school administrators, accepted resignations of two teachers and approved a letter which will be sent to persons owing delinquent taxes.

With all but the teacher pay raise item out of the way at Tuesday night's regular meeting, Supt. Clark asked that all persons attending leave except himself and the board members.

Clark explained that the pay raise question might involve "personalities" and that he and the board felt the matter should be resolved among themselves.

Enterprise Publisher Bill Turner told the board that he was against executive sessions on the basis that school business is public business, and should be reported first-hand to the public.

As Turner left the meeting, he was told he would get a report on the proceedings from Supt. Clark.

The following is the information released by Supt. Clark Wednesday from that portion of the meeting which was closed to the public and the press:

Classroom teacher salaries were set at $140 plus $60 sick leave above the new state base of $4,014. The previous average here was $204 plus $60 sick leave.

Money for sick leave is paid to substitute teachers if they are needed. If not, the money goes to the regular teacher.

The recent teacher pay raise approved by the state legislature increase the base pay of teachers by $810 per year. Clark said teachers other than those designated as class-

HEAD-ON COLLISION ON FM 594

Three Killed In Crash

A shattering head-on collision on FM 594 southwest of Halfway snapped the lives of a 19-year-old Olton woman, her young son and a Latin American farm worker Sunday night.

Killed in the crash were Mrs. J.W. Lee, her son Guy Rusty, 19 months, and Joe G. Rivera, 41, farm worker of near Cotton Center.

Critically injured was J.W. Lee, 26, who farms three miles east and three miles north of Olton.

He is being treated at Plainview Hospital and Clinic for head injuries and arm and leg fractures.

Last rites for Mrs. Lee and her son were held Tuesday afternoon at Hale Center First Methodist Church.

Final services for Rivera were conducted Wednesday at Olton Catholic Church.

The accident occurred about one-fourth mile south of FM 594's intersection with Highway 70 between Olton and Halfway.

The Lee family was on its way home after leaving the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Lee, in the Cotton Center community a few minutes before.

Lee was driving north and Rivera, who was alone, was headed south, investigating officer Carl Mullins of Plainview, reported.

Patrolman Mullins said the collision occurred on the east side of the pavement, with the impact coming at almost dead

First Baptist Revival Services Begin Sunday

Revival services at the First Baptist Church of Olton will begin Sunday morning with Dr. Floyd B. Thorn of Wichita, Kansas, as evangelist and Dr. Joe Trussell of Brownwood as music director.

Services will continue through Sunday Sept. 17, with weekday services scheduled at 10 a.m. and 7:45 p.m.

A native of Mountain Home, Ark., the Rev. Thorn served as pastor of the First Baptist Church of Wichita for 15 years, retiring a year ago. Previous pastorates were at McAlester, Okla.; Waco, and the Second Baptist Church, Houston.

Dr. Trussell, having participated in previous revivals at the Olton Church, will be a familiar figure in the evangelistic team. Renowned throughout Texas for over 30 years as an evangelistic singer, he is a graduate of Howard Payne College of Brownwood and Southwestern Seminary.

Mrs. Trussell will direct the children's choirs and serve as pianist for the services.

will assume the role of underdog here Friday night when they meet a reportedly strong McCamey Badger eleven.

"They have a bunch of boys back from last year," says Olton Coach Walter Bryan, "and they look like they'll be tough."

McCamey opened its season last week with a 23-6 victory over Ozona. Team leader Bill Clary, who scored the Badgers' only touchdown against Olton last year, had a hand in all three scores against Ozona.

Clary, the McCamey signal caller, passed for one touchdown and ran for two others last Friday night.

The Badgers have lost their big fullback from last year, Gary Don Howell, but Coach Bryan says they have another one "just about as good."

Olton won last year's ball game over McCamey 12-8, scoring the winning marker in the last two minutes of the ball game.

Coach Bryan said his charges showed up "about as well as we expected" against Petersburg last week.

"I thought the three boys who started for us last year—Robert Duncan, Johnny Schenck and Jimmy Lawson—did a good job for us."

Bryan said McCamey's 11 starters include 10 boys who played ball with the varsity last year.

Shoppers Patient As Penny Troubles Start

Abraham Lincoln was a prominent figure around town this week as the humble penny, which he adorns, became the center of attraction.

Amid confusion and disagreement, Olton was one of many towns to face the problems of the new sales tax law which went into effect last Friday.

Most local merchants agreed that the customers were being patient about the situation.

"My customers are doing fine," Mabel Bizzell at Bizzell's said this week, "but I'm having a fit."

"If we say tax, they usually pay it. However," she added, "the first day I had one woman look me in the eye and say she wasn't going to pay that tax. She didn't either!"

Next door at Kelley's Clothiers, Jeanne Maxey said: "Well, for me it's kinda monotonous, but maybe we'll catch on someday. People have been really nice. I guess we may as well take it in our stride. There's nothing we can do about it."

The attitude of many people seemed to be one of resignation.

"Our customers just accept what we say," Loraine Meyers at Cashway Food explained,

"because they can't understand all this stuff."

"Of course, we always give them the benefit of the doubt," she continued. "One peculiar thing is cocoa. Now if they're going to make candy, that's taxable. But if they're going to make cake or cookies, that's non-taxable. Are we supposed to ask every customer what they're going to cook?"

Mrs. Virgie Gray at Gray Grocery reported smooth sailing as did Bruce Hackler, assistant manager at Sherman Food.

"Tax? I'm just as confused

Bobby Turner Wins First Grid Contest

Bobby Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Turner, sailed past all other competition to win the Enterprise's football contest last week.

Bobby picked 11 of the 13 games in the contest correctly to shade several other contestants who guessed right on 10 of 13.

Placing second and third, respectively, were Eusevio Guevara, Jr. and D.W. Thomas, both with 10 of 13. Others who had 10 right guesses, but were close enough on the tiebreakers, were John Schenck Sr., C.A. Cox, and Vernon Nixon.

Turner wins $10, Guevara $6 and Thomas $4. Entries in the contest for this week, which appears in the Aug. 31 issue of the Enterprise, may be turned into any of the sponsoring merchants prior to 4 p.m. Friday.

GRAND OPENING in their new location has been set for Friday by the owners of K Department Store, Mr. and Mrs. K. Salman. The store is located next door to its former location. Door prizes will be given.

K Dept. Store's Formal Opening Set For Friday

K Department Store will have its formal opening in their new location, next door to the building they formerly occupied, tomorrow starting at 8 a.m.

Door prizes will be given to the first ten ladies in the store and three drawings will be held.

"We moved to get more space," Salman said this week. "This building is much larger. We feel we can serve our customers better here."

The Salmans moved to Olton in September, 1952 when they opened their store, then known as Two Brothers.

Salman bought out his brother, Frank Salman of Rochester, in 1953, thus becoming the sole owner of the store. The name of the store was changed to K Department the first of last year.

Local Farmers Predict Bumper Crop This Year

Most Olton farmers gave enthusiastic reports on their crops this week.

Glenn Peterson, who farms one mile east and one mile north, said he thought he might possibly get his first bale of cotton by Sept. 25. He said it was "really looking pretty."

So far Mr. Peterson's crops have received no damage, and he has sprayed very little for insects. He also commented that the cotton would probably be a better grade and of a higher quality than the cotton last year after the October hail.

He is still watering grain, but expects to start harvesting by Sept. 15.

Coy Carlisle, who farms seven miles north and three east also said his cotton was looking good. When asked if he thought the quality and price would be better than last year's, he said:

"I hope so."

Coy expects to start harvest about the first week in October.

Vance Estes, farming five miles north and five west, said "I think my crop's pretty, it is the best I've ever had."

So far this year he has received no damage. He said all he had to do was "plow and hoe". Estes said he was hopeful for a bumper crop as he was hauled out last year. He expects to start harvesting about the middle of October.

Emmett Harper, who farms three and one-half miles east of Olton, said that the crop this year was better than average. He reported few insects and said that the rains had helped the crops a lot. They are still watering grain.

KENNETH HOOPER

Tuesday night the condition of Kenneth Hooper was said to be some better. Terry Gail, his sister, said he had begun to open his eyes and show some signs of recognition.

Caprock Fertilizer Company
Box 1009
Littlefield, Texas

Gentlemen:

We would like to take this opportunity to express our thanks to your company for your interest in soil testing this year. Our laboratory has processed some 3,700 soil samples since last mid January and sent out reports with fertilizer recommendations.

Now that our lab is in permanent location at the new Agricultural Experiment Station we can better serve the agricultural public and we hope you will continue to call on us whenever you think we may be of assistance.

The time will soon be here to begin thinking about the fertilizer needs for the next wheat crop. If samples can be collected now, or as soon as possible, the reports can be returned in plenty of time for deciding definitely what kind and how much fertilizer will be needed.

We would like to point out that there is a wide variation in the phosphorus supplying ability of soils in the High Plains area and that a soil test offers the best means for detecting deficiencies and for predicting response from the addition of phosphates.

Result demonstrations conducted by farmers in cooperation with County Agricultural Agents in Hale and Parmer Counties showed 20 bu. wheat increases resulting from the use of 40 lbs. P₂O₅ on hard lands where the soil test showed the phosphorus to be extremely low. In these cases nitrogen was applied at relatively high and equal rates with P₂O₅ being the variable. Yields where no P₂O₅ was used were slightly over 40 bu.; where P₂O₅ was applied the yields were in excess of 60 bu.

We have revised the Information Sheet that must accompany soil samples and hope you will find it more convenient. The new forms enclosed bear our correct address and we urge you to obtain additional copies from your County Agent as required. Please destroy old copies on hand because the address shown is incorrect and will result in delay of receipt.

Again may we assure you of cooperation in our joint efforts to effect even more profitable and efficient use of fertilizer. You are cordially invited to visit our laboratory when you have an opportunity.

Sincerely yours,
James H. Valentine

STACKED AGAINST YOU

340 tons of dishes are stacked against you in a lifetime — and that's quite a pile. It takes 728 hours a year to do them by hand — and that's a monthful of 24-hour days. You haven't got a chance of cleaning them by hand as well as an electric dishwasher will do the job — and effort. Why all this drudgery when a penny and a half spent doing the job electrically each day removes all the misery. Dishwashers come in portable models that take no extra plumbing or wiring. So — don't be a dishwasher — buy one.

LUBBOCK AT ODESSA

Edd Workman Again Named World Champion Cowboy

Edd Workman, an Olton cowboy, who for three years has represented Lubbock Christian College, Lubbock, in intercollegiate rodeo competition, has been in Sacramento, Calif., this past week attending the California State Fair which is in conjunction with the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association event. It was from Aug. 30 through Sept. 4.

Edd went to California in an attempt to capture for the second year the World Champion Cowboy honor that he captured in the spring of 1960 and he succeeded. Edd Workman was again named all-around cowboy of the 1961 National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association. Workman swept the six-day rodeo at the California State Fair and got his title on the basis of his performance there and in other rodeos around the country.

Workman won a first place in bareback riding and a third in bulldogging. Sue Shurbert won a fourth in girl's barrel racing.

For three years, Edd, a 6 ft. 3 inch cowboy from Olton, has rarely brought home less than the top individual honor of Best-All-Around Cowboy. Since the prize for this distinction is usually a high-quality saddle, Edd has such a large collection that he has lost count. The faculty sponsor of the LCC Rodeo Club estimates the number of saddles won by Workman at 30.

Sue Shurbert, LCC rodeo queen and winner of several Best-Around Cowgirl honors at college rodeos, also competed in the Sacramento Rodeo.

Sue and Edd were named Best All-Around Cowgirl and Cowboy in the Southwestern region last year after competing in eight intercollegiate rodeos. The honor was announced after total season points were tallied.

EDD WORKMAN

In 1959 Edd created a sensation in the South Plains Rodeo circles by riding Mickey Mouse, a black Brahma bull that had successfully resisted 157 consecutive attempts to tame him.

Cowart Land Condemned For Possible Missile Site

James Cowart, who farms six miles north of Olton, reported to the Enterprise this week that he had received notice that part of his farm had been condemned by the U.S. Government for use by the Air Force as possible missile storage or firing site.

How many other local farmers, if any, had received similar notices was not known at press time.

The missile question first arose here in July when several local farmers were asked by the government for contracts for rights of entry in the event the proposed Minuteman Missile base was established in the Lubbock area.

The control center would be at Reese Air Force Base, Lamb County, along with other counties in this area, would form a protective ring for the air base and the city of Lubbock.

Fred Scheafer, who farms six miles north and five west of Olton, and DeWayne Wilkes, who farms land adjacent to the Scheafer farm, were both contacted in July.

Cowart refused to sign the contract at that time.

"I don't mind releasing land to the government," he said this week, "but not my best farming land."

"They want 80 acres right in the middle of my field." "Of course, they can take it," he continued. "There's not much I can do about it and they won't actually use the whole 80 acres. They just want that much to test."

"They've already got it staked off," he added.

Cowart said he had been told seismograph tests and core borings would begin in the next few days.

The sites reportedly would contain about 12 missiles each and would be located about five miles apart.

HOME ON LEAVE

Kirk McAdams, son of Mr. and Mrs. L.H. McAdams, is home on leave. He is working in Denver, Colo., at the Nutrition Research Laboratory, Fitz-Simons General Hospital. He is doing this work as part of his active Army duty. Kirk will be at home for about another week, before he returns to Colorado to resume his duties there.

IN NEW MEXICO

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie LaFrance, Mr. and Mrs. O.B. LaFrance, Mrs. Sally Copeland and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hicks are in Truth or Consequences, N.M., this week.

In 1958 Edd's older brother Don Workman introduced LCC, then in its first year of operation, to intercollegiate rodeo competition, directing the formation of the campus Rodeo Club, which has been an active organization ever since. That year, Don, who is now studying agricultural economics at Texas A & M, won the World Champion title after winning Best All-Around Cowboy honors at several intercollegiate rodeos.

The Dog and His Bone

AESOP, the well-known fable teller, started that story about the little dog . . . who went trotting home one day with a nice bone. On the way he saw what looked like a much juicier one in the bright mirror of a water hole . . . but, in grabbing for it, he lost the bone he already had.

• There's a good moral for one and all in this little story. But the educational value of fables must be over-rated. Because this one has been around for 1300 years and people are still risking . . . and often losing . . . some of the good things they have by reaching for something that is more temptingly offered.

• Like some of us here in this community . . . who roam far and wide in a search for "better deals" and thereby seriously undermine the economic structure which supports our own businesses and jobs, our fine schools and churches, and all the other elements of our well-ordered American small town life.

• In this community . . . right now . . . we could be enjoying much greater prosperity, much finer social and civic facilities . . . if we had but kept in our local economic bloodstream all of the money we have put into the upkeep and upbuilding of larger cities in years past.

Mustangs Edge By Petersburg, 14-12

Olton's Mustangs got their 1961 season off on a winning note last Friday night at Petersburg, but only after a fired-up Buffalo team fumbled away a golden opportunity at the Olton three with a minute to play.

Mustang Quarterback Johnny Schenck pounced on a loose ball to ruin Petersburg's hopes and sew up a 14-12 victory for the Ponies.

It was about as close a ball game as anyone could ask in a season opener. Even the statistics were close, with both clubs picking up 15 first downs and Olton getting only a 211 to 199 edge on total yardage gained.

The breaks pretty well evened up, too, with both teams losing a fumble apiece.

Johnny Moses, playing fullback behind Charlie Burrus, the game's leading ground-gainer, scored the first Mustang touchdown in the second period.

Quarterback Schenck ran the extra points—two markers eventually made the difference.

James Loveless, playing at halfback, got the other Olton score in the fourth period, running over from the three.

The second score put Olton out in front, 14-6, with 11 minutes to play and Mustang fans breathed easier for a moment.

It was only for a moment, however, because a speedy halfback named Stanley Self ran an Olton punt back 31 yards for a touchdown and later went 70 yards with another punt return before he was downed deep in Olton territory.

Olton's defense proved equal to the task on several pressurized situations, with Captains Robert Duncan and Jimmie Lawson leading the way.

Other standouts on the defense for Olton were End Roy Moss and Burrus.

After the opening kick-off, the Mustangs moved to a first down at the Olton 45, but that was it. Halfback Gary Johnson punted 33 yards to the Petersburg 33 and the rest of the quarter belonged to the Buffaloes.

Petersburg drove the 67 yards in 17 plays, aided by two five-yard penalties against the Mustangs.

Sparkling the drive were a couple of nifty runs by Halfback Troy Fox, the second of which went 10 yards down to the Olton 15. Fullback Don Peggrum got the touchdown five plays later from the one.

A pass try for the extra points went incomplete and Petersburg led, 6-0, with 13 seconds left in the first period.

The Mustangs turned around and controlled the ball all but four plays in the second quarter.

Led by the hard-running Burrus, who gained 85 yards in 19 trips for the night, the Mustangs rolled from their 27 after the kick-off to the Petersburg 10, a 38-yard boot.

Self, showing a hint of things to come, returned to the Buff 28 before he was stopped by Mustang Guard Gary Bizzell.

After two plays gained 18 yards, Petersburg ran into trouble. Quarterback Gary Loyd's pass was intercepted by Olton's Moss, with Roy getting back to the Petersburg 42 before he was downed.

From there it took the Mustangs only eight plays to score.

To start it off, Burrus got four, Loveless added a yard, George Jones got two more and then Burrus made it a first down at the 30.

After a penalty pushed the Mustangs back to the 35, Quarterback Schenck got off on the longest run from scrimmage of the night, carrying down to the 18. Burrus got four more to the 14.

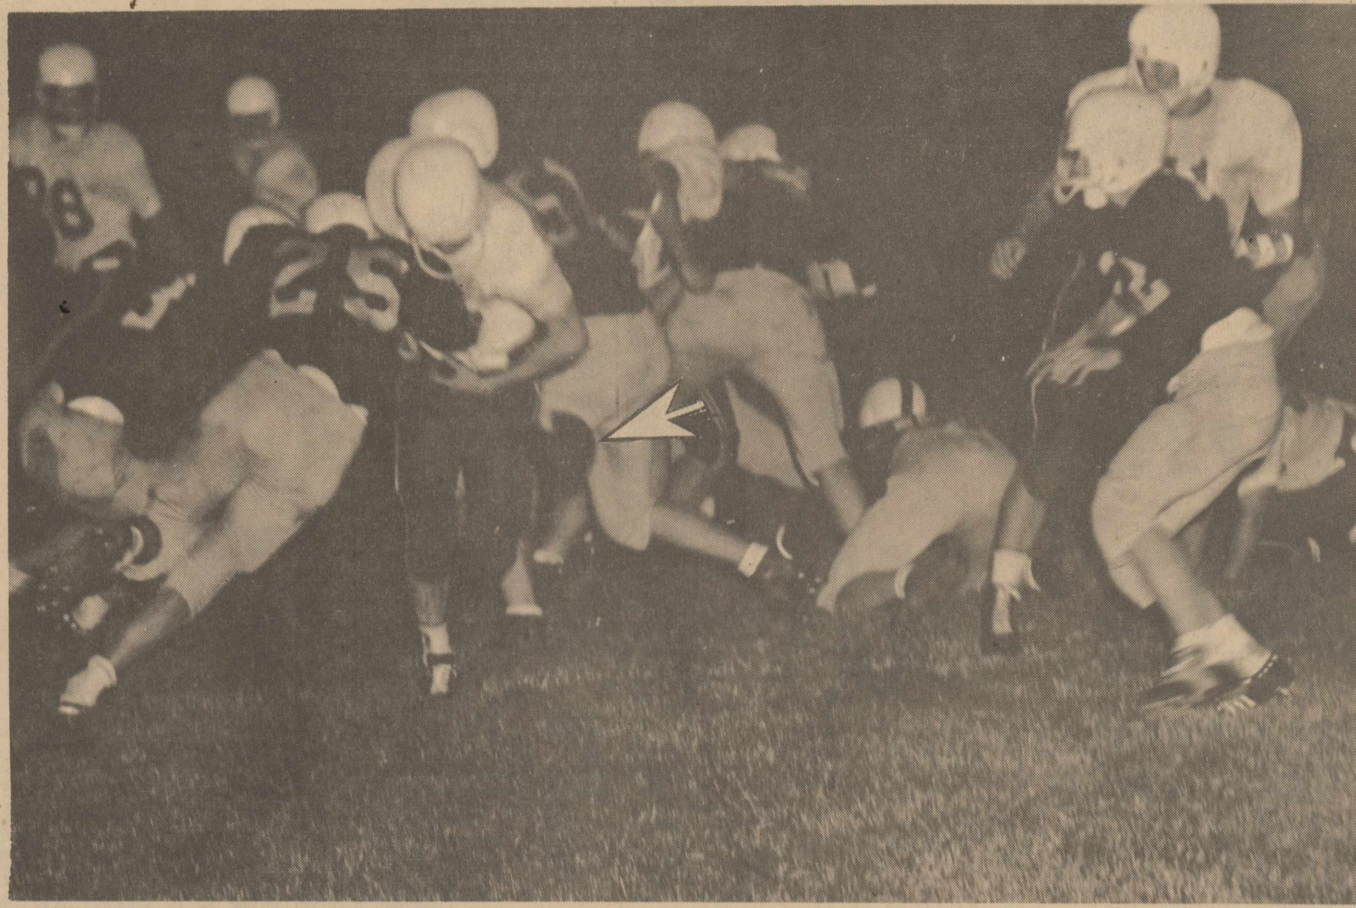

Moss came in and contributed a nifty 11-yard run to the three, then kept two more times to go in for the touchdown.

Burrus' kick for the extra point was no good, but Petersburg was guilty of a rules infraction, so the Mustangs got another chance. This time Schenck sneaked across for two points to give Olton the lead with 44 seconds left in the half.

The scoreless third quarter saw Petersburg threaten twice. After the second half kick-off, the Buffs used some nice running by Peggrum to move to the Olton 25, then took advantage of a 15-yard penalty against the Ponies to get to the Olton six.

There the Mustang defense rose up and stopped the march.

Olton started to move out of the hole, but a Mustang fumble at the 27 was recovered by Petersburg's Self.

THE ARROW points to the ball, which squirted out of the arms of Olton Halfback James Loveless just after he crossed the goal line for Olton's second touchdown last Friday night. A Petersburg tackle moved up to jar the ball loose from Loveless. The touchdown counted and put Olton in the lead, 14-6.

From there, Petersburg marched on down to the Olton 19 before the Mustang defense again rose to the occasion.

The Mustangs came roaring back with a touchdown march, driving the 81 yards in 17 plays.

This time it was Schenck who did much of the ground gaining. Rolling along behind the fine blocking of Center Duncan, Schenck carried four straight times and picked up 22 yards out to the Olton 41.

Burrus carried twice for 10 more yards and a first down at the Petersburg 47.

A fumble, recovered by Gary Johnson, and a penalty stalled the march, but Schenck came along with a nine-yard run to the Petersburg 43. Burrus got the first down with eight more yards to the 35.

Then Schenck went at it again, plowing straight up the middle behind Duncan. He got 15 yards in two carries for a first down at the 20.

Schenck and Burrus alternated carrying the ball down to the 11 for a new series to start the fourth period.

Then the little quarterback added three, Burrus got five and Loveless carried for the score.

Loveless fumbled on the carry, with Moss recovering, but the Mustang Halfback had crossed the goal line before he lost the ball.

The extra point try was no good and the Mustangs led, 14-6, with 11 minutes to play.

Petersburg came back strong, using a 14-yard sprint by Fox and a 13-yard run by Peggrum to move to the Olton 30. Self picked up eight more and Peggrum got down to the Mustang 12 before a penalty threw a kink into the drive.

Olton took over at the 14, but the Buffs drove the Ponies back to the four-yard line and Johnson punted.

Self gathered in the pigskin at the Olton 31 and raced down the right sideline for the second Buff touchdown. That made it 14-12 with five minutes left in the game.

The Olton line rose up to stop the Buff's try for two extra points.

A few moments later, Self took in Olton's fourth punt of the night and raced 70 yards—from his own 14 to the Olton 16.

Petersburg got a new series of downs at the Olton six. The of downs at the Olton six. Then Peggrum added three more yards and the clock showed only a minute to play.

On the next play, a handoff to Self from Quarterback Loyd was shaken up by the middle of the Olton line and the ball squirted loose. Schenck recovered for the Mustangs and Olton ran out the clock.

O.J. Lee, who farms two miles east of town, got the year's first load of grain sorghum in the Olton area with DeKalb C-45.

O.J. delivered the first load about 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 29. Moisture was 14.61 per cent, considered good for that early in the season.

He harvested 8,000 pounds of DeKalb C-45 from an acre and a half. O.J. expects his yield to top 5,000 pounds.

He planted his C-45 on May 5, putting down six pounds of seed to the acre on 40-inch rows. He watered the crop one time and cultivated once.

room teachers received "similar adjustments."

During the first two hours of Tuesday night's meeting—the part of the session staffed by the Enterprise—the following action was taken.

1. Resignations of Willis Hedges and Mrs. Joye Hedges were accepted. Hedges taught junior high and Mrs. Hedges was a second grade teacher.

2. Three new teachers were employed, including Wandie Hutson, who was hired to replace Hedges. Hutson, who taught the past two years at Idalou, will have 6th, 7th and 8th grade physical education and junior high social studies.

The other new teachers, Mr. and Mrs. James Steptee, were employed to teach at Bohner. Steptee is a beginning teacher, while his wife has six years teaching experience, most of that at Post.

3. Reports were heard from the three school principals and the curriculum coordinator. Here are summaries of their reports:

Fred Gordon, elementary school—600 students enrolled, up 61 from last year, with 21 teachers in the building. Transient students are coming earlier, because of an earlier cotton harvest. Textbook shortage in 5th grade, which has 120 students, but more have been requisitioned.

E.J. McKnight, junior high—277 students enrolled, including 93 in the sixth grade, 99 in the seventh and 83 in the eighth. Started out year with a few less students than last year. School off to very smooth start. Efficiency of moving students from class to class improved by addition of 128 lockers. Joe Turner, high school—232 enrolled, 11 more than at beginning of school last year. Sixteen teachers in building. Total enrollment, counting Bohner pupils, is more than 1,200.

Elmer Moore, curriculum coordinator—Morale of both students and teachers seems high, and a lot of work is being done. Also textbook custodian, Moore said the school is now charged with 14,937 textbooks, more than 10 per student, making supplementary books available for most students.

4. Also getting approval of the board was a letter which will go to the people who owe delinquent taxes.

The letter points out that the schools are in a financial strain at the beginning of the 1961-62 school year and that, to secure additional revenue, the school system has two alternatives.

One would be to raise taxes, the other to collect delinquent taxes.

"Expressing a desire to be fair with all taxpayers and not wishing to increase taxes, the board decided in favor of collecting delinquent taxes," the letter states.

"Before proceeding with legal procedures in the collection of these taxes, all taxpayers are being advised of delinquent accounts and will be given an opportunity to make payment."

The letter, which will include a statement, closes: "... it will be necessary to proceed with the proper procedure of collection if settlement is not made in a reasonable period of time."

center of the fronts of the two autos.

The officer said the fact that the Rivera auto was in the wrong lane and Lee's car was almost off the pavement led investigators to the assumption that Lee saw the oncoming car and attempted to avoid a collision.

The Lee car overturned in a ditch, pinning the bodies of Mrs. Lee and her son under the vehicle. Lee was pinned in the wreckage for a few minutes before the car was turned up on its wheels.

A Levelland man, Archie Phillips, came up on the wreckage about 9 p.m. and reported the accident. Officers estimated it was from half to three-quarters of an hour after the accident before it was discovered.

Mrs. Lee was born in Foard County. She and Lee were married in Hale Center. She was a member of the Hale Center Baptist Church.

Survivors include her husband, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Dawson, Olton; a brother, J.D. Dawson, Hale Center; grandparents, Mrs. Augusta Rowden, Lubbock; and Aldred Rowden, Lubbock; and a step-grandmother, Mrs. Nimie Dawson, Wichita Falls.

Rivera's wife is listed among his survivors.

as everybody else," Ray Culwell at Olton Drug reported. "Our customers aren't complaining. They're just confused. I think it would have been much better if everything had been taxed."

A number of others concurred with this opinion.

Alisse Johnson at Smith & Struve reported no trouble but wished "it all had been taxed."

Both Parsons Furniture and Thomas Furniture reported little trouble with customers on the new tax as did Mozell Trotter at Whittington's Inc.

"I do think it's unfair," Mrs. Trotter suggested, "for them to put a tax on baby diapers and ingredients for baby formulas. After all, that's a baby's outer clothing and his food."

K Salman at K Dept. Store brought up one local problem. "It's hard to make the Mexican people understand," he pointed out. "I lost one sale today because of that."

All in all, most merchants feel it's a medicine we have to take but they'd feel a lot better about it if they knew the exact dosage.
