Board OK's Plans For Summer Work

After hearing a report indicating a healthy financial picture for the school system in 1962-63, Olton trustees made plans for repairs and improvements to the school plant at a regular meeting Tuesday night.

Superintendent Johnny Clark Jr. reviewed finances, reporting that the school system would end the fiscal year (Aug. 31) with modest surpluses in all funds.

Summer work approved included painting of the grandstands at the football field and the interior of the homemaking cottage.

Also scheduled is work on several of the teacherages and painting and repair to the junior high gym. Setting up a science lab at the junior high is also planned.

Some plumbing and interior brickwork are scheduled at the elementary school and more work will be done on landscaping at the high school.

Already completed is about $2,600 worth of paving on the school grounds.

Supt. Clark said he anticipated a balance of $9,589 in the local maintenance fund, $2,421 in the transportation fund, and $22,523 in the interest and sinking fund at the end of the fiscal year.

However, he pointed out that balances in both local maintenance and transportation funds could wind up somewhat lower, depending on costs incurred on some of the work planned this summer.

In other activity at the meeting, the board:

1. Accepted the resignation of one teacher and employed four others.
2. Heard a report on average daily attendance for the year.

Resignation of Mrs. Esther M. Graham, fifth grade teacher, was accepted.

Employed were Gene Riddle, junior high coach; Anita Jones, second grade; Jack Burkhalter, fifth grade; and Eleanor Freeman, Bohner.

Riddle coached at Gunter last year and is a graduate of East Texas State, Commerce. He will teach social studies in junior high and high school.

Mrs. Jones, a graduate of South Plains Junior College, Levelland, and Texas Tech, is originally from Whitharral and married an Olton boy, John Paul Jones.

Burkhalter has farming interests here and was county agent at Colorado City for seven years. He was used as a substitute teacher here occasionally last year.

Miss Freeman is now a student at Eastern New Mexico University, Portales.

Clark told the board that one second grade and two first grade

Buyers were here from as far as 600 miles away.

ORC Plans Golf Meet And Picnic

Fourth of July activities at ORC this year will include a Scotch-Foursome ending with a picnic on the grounds. The annual beauty contest will not be held.

This decision came out of an ORC board meeting Monday night.

One board member gave this explanation:

"After a full day's activities like we have planned, everyone would be pretty tired. The bathing beauty contest is fine, but it takes an awful lot of work. I feel that the program we have planned will be better."

Other action taken Monday night included a vote to the effect that non-members and delinquent members will be required to pay green fees for golfing.

The annual ORC golf tournament was set to begin July 1 and continue through July 8.

Doggett Suffers Accidental Gunshot Wound

Bennis Doggett was in Porter Clinic, Lubbock, early this week recovering from a gunshot wound in the leg.

Doggett was accidentally shot in the leg Saturday afternoon about 1 p.m. while he, his five-year-old son, Rickie, and Kenneth Harper were driving through a field looking at his crop.

It was reported that Doggett had been shooting rats and had placed the gun between his legs. The child pulled the trigger as Doggett was attempting to lift the gun and point it out the window.

Surgery was performed to remove the bullet from his knee cap. Doggett was expected to remain at Porter Clinic for about 10 days.

Council's Meeting Tuesday Is Awaited

Parking Question Unsolved

Olton's city council goes back into session Tuesday night, amid speculation among the general public as to what the future holds.

Residents have watched a controversy mushroom over the past two months, turning the council into a stalemate.

The issues:

1. A parallel parking proposal for 8th Street Main and G.
2. A movement to change city personnel.

The parallel parking idea and the move to revamp personnel at city hall were advanced by three new councilmen—G.H. Buchenau, Cecil Gallaway and Bob Gullett. The three were elected in April.

Holdover councilmen Bob Duncan and Fred Thompson and Mayor M.T. James Jr. opposed the ideas.

The controversy reached a peak last month when the mayor cast a vote to deadlock the parallel parking question. Although the personnel change issue was not included in the proposition voted on, it lurked in the background.

Since that time, the city has received an opinion from the Texas Municipal League. It states that the mayor has no vote in the city council unless there is a tie. He cannot vote to produce a tie.

Mayor James said at the time he voted that he thought he could legally vote on issues other than elections, provided he announced his intention to vote prior to the ballot being taken. He also said that he would withdraw his vote in the event it was found to be illegal.

As a result, the council deadlock appears untied.

And the 3-3 vote on the parking issue apparently is null and void.

The ordinance on which the vote was taken will not go into effect automatically, however.

City Attorney Andy Stroebel says the document wasn't signed by the mayor and that it is in an inactive status.

Stroebel said he thought the council would have to start anew on the issue, either by dropping it or voting on a new motion for adoption.

That's where the speculation enters the picture.

Some observers think the issue will be worked out by a compromise. Two suggestions have been talked:

1. That only one side of the street, the south side, be changed to parallel parking.
2. That only the west 75 feet of both sides of the street be set up for parallel parking.

Clayton Gets Nod For Representative

Springlake farmer Bill Clayton swept to a 1,000-vote victory over Dimmitt publisher B.M. Nelson Saturday to win Democratic nomination as state representative.

That race featured results in second primary balloting which also saw John Connolly of Fort Worth win over Don Yarborough of Houston in the race for Demo governor nominee.

West Texans Preston Smith and Waggoner Carr led in their races for lieutenant governor and attorney general, respectively. Joe Pool, Dallas, nudged Woodrow Wilson Bean, El Paso, in the congressman-at-large runoff.

Lamb County picked a winner in all races but one, choosing Yarborough over Connolly by 1370 to 1330.

The county gave Clayton a lead of 1885 to 779 in his race. Smith led Jimmy Turman, 2385 to 301, in Lamb, while Carr was ahead by 2204 to 483. Pool outdrew Bean by 1522 to 1021.

Olton voters favored Clayton by 314 to 72 and gave Yarborough 206 votes to Connolly's 174. The precinct wound up tied on the Pool-Bean race, 180 to 180.

Results showed Nelson cut into Clayton's lead only slightly in the runoff.

Final tabulations showed 4,120 votes for the Springlake farmer, compared with 2,973 for Nelson.

In the first primary Clayton received 4,436 while Nelson picked up 3,083. A third runner, Bill Miller, got 2,536.

Final results from all counties, with first primary votes in parenthesis, were:

BAILEY: Clayton 653, Nelson 217 (Clayton 661, Nelson 244, Miller 762).

PARMER: Clayton 600, Nelson 408 (Clayton 508, Nelson 410, Miller 579).

CASTRO: Clayton 478, Nelson 923 (Clayton 449, Nelson 957, Miller 140).

DEAF SMITH: Clayton 504, Nelson 646 (Clayton 721, Nelson 914, Miller 448).

LAMB: Clayton, 1,885, Nelson 779 (Clayton 2,097, Nelson 558, Miller 607).

Here are the results by precincts in Lamb County in the top two races:

The Party Rates Second

Now the primaries are over and voters and candidates alike will be looking forward to the general election in November. This will be the line-up in some of the races which will be of top interest to voters in the Olton area:

- GOVERNOR---John Connally vs. Jack Cox.
- LT. GOVERNOR---Preston Smith vs. Bill Hayes.
- STATE REPRESENTATIVE---Bill Clayton vs. Frank Ford Jr.
- COUNTY JUDGE---J.W. Davis vs. Ray Keeling.
- COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT---C. Roy Stevens vs. Mrs. Doris Eaton.
- CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE---Joe Pool vs. Desmond Barry.
- CONGRESSMAN, 19th DISTRICT---George Mahon vs. Dennis Taylor.
- STATE SENATOR---Andy Rogers vs. John Zahn.

The Enterprise has presented these candidates without mention of parties.

We would like you to know that we did this purposely.

We hope that voters will keep the welfare of Texas uppermost in their minds in November.

The party system, while it has a definite place in our political way of life, should not rate above the general well-being of our state.

For this reason, we hope that Democrats and Republicans alike will not stick completely to party lines in November. We do not think that either party offers a full slate of the best candidates for each post.

And we think for the best interest of Texas, voters should choose the best man available, regardless of party affiliation.

Quick Ideas For

That First Meal

JIFFY SWEET ROLLS

Having early morning meal trouble? Everyone says how important it is to eat breakfast, but the excuses for avoiding it are doubly numerous. "I just don't have time" is the one most frequently heard. Here are some recipes that can be fixed up in a jiffy and might be some help in that breakfast troublespot.

1 stick butter
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1/2 cup maple flavored syrup
2 packages of refrigerator cinnamon rolls
Set temperature control on warm and melt butter, add syrup, mix, add nuts. Place rolls in pan with cinnamon side of rolls up. Cover, close vent and bake for 15 minutes at 280 degrees. Turn out from pan so that nuts and syrup are on top. Ice immediately with icing that comes with the rolls.
If you make the rolls the night before, to warm the following morning wrap them in foil, place in the electric skillet and heat for 20 minutes at 220 degrees to 240 degrees. Start rolls and coffee at the same time so they will be ready at the same time.

ORANGE GLAZED FRENCH TOAST

2 eggs
2 tablespoons concentrated orange juice
1/4 teaspoon salt
8 slices bread
2 to 3 tablespoons oil
Beat eggs slightly in a shallow bowl. Stir in orange juice and salt. Dip bread slices one at a time into egg mixture. Coat each side well, but do not let bread get soggy. Place bread in hot skillet which has 2 or 3 tablespoons of melted oil. Brown over moderate heat, turn once with spatula. If you prefer baking this, place bread on a well greased baking sheet and brown in oven at 450 degrees for 8 to 10 minutes. Top with powdered sugar and a little fresh lemon juice sprinkled on top, or serve with powdered sugar and top with fried pineapple slices which have been fried along with the French toast.

COTTAGE CHEESE, SOUR CREAM OMELETTE

6 eggs
6 tablespoons milk or cream
3/4 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup to 1 cup cottage cheese
3 tablespoons margarine
1/2 cup sour cream
Beat eggs with a fork until slightly foamy. Add milk or cream, salt and pepper. Fold in cottage cheese. Melt margarine in skillet. Pour egg mixture into hot skillet. Don't over stir eggs. Over stirring causes grainy eggs. Serve hot, topped with sour cream.
Applesauce nut bread can be made the night before and warmed quickly in the morning.

EASY APPLESAUCE NUT BREAD

1 box gingerbread mix
1 can applesauce
1/2 cup nuts
Follow package directions for mixing gingerbread, substituting applesauce for water. All 1/2 cup of nuts. Bake in a greased floured loaf pan at 350 degrees for 35 minutes or according to package directions. To warm, wrap in foil with butter on each piece. Heat in electric skillet for 20 minutes at between 220 to 240 degrees.
Dishes baked in the oven can be cooking while you are doing something else. Try banana coconut rolls which take about 15 to 20 minutes to cook.

BANANA COCONUT ROLLS

4 bananas
2 tablespoons lemon or lime juice
1/2 cup flaked coconut
Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Peel and cut bananas crosswise into halves and place in greased baking dish. Brush thoroughly with lemon juice and sprinkle with coconut. Bake 15 to 20 minutes, until bananas are easily pierced with a fork. Serve with orange sauce which is made the night before. Good hot or cold. Serves 4.

ORANGE SAUCE

3 tablespoons sugar
Dash salt
1 tablespoon cornstarch
Dash of cinnamon
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 cup orange juice
Make this the day before and serve cold. Blend sugar, salt, cornstarch, orange rind and cinnamon in saucepan. Slowly add orange juice. Heat to boiling temperature and cook about 5 minutes or until thickened, stirring constantly. Makes 1 cup of sauce.

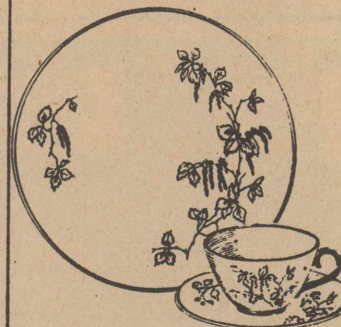

BREAKFAST BERRY DELIGHT

Another idea for a quick breakfast is to drink it. Many interesting and nutritious drinks such as breakfast berry delight can be made with an electric blender.
5 ounces (1/2 package) frozen raspberries
5 ounces (1/2 package) frozen strawberries
1/2 cup orange juice
1/2 cup pineapple juice
1/4 whole lemon (remove seeds)
Break berries apart or let thaw slightly. Add all ingredients to the blender. Blend until smooth. Serve in juice glasses. Yields 2 1/4 cups.

BEDFORD, IND., DAILY TIMES-MAIL: "The first symptom of inflation is a series of unbalanced national budgets. That has been the U.S. history ever since the end of the war, and the end is not in sight. President Kennedy forecast a surplus of $500 million for 1963. Right now it looks more like a deficit of several billion. This must be made up by government loans. That means more money must be pumped into circulation."

PEANUT INSECTS

A recent publication released by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station deals with insects which attack peanuts. The lesser cornstalk borer is listed as the major pest of peanuts in the State. Many other insects and their control are discussed. Copies of the publication, MP-550, "Peanut Insects in Texas," are available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas. Order by number and name.

WHITE, S.D., LEADER: "It is hard to understand how putting medical care in the Social Security setup will reduce local welfare expense to any extent as most of the people on welfare rolls are not eligible for social security. Thousands of people now paying premiums for health and accident insurance would have an added expense thrust upon them. Let's forget some of this having the government take care of us from birth to burial!"

Fewer Women In Labor Force Here

Married women in some parts of the country may be quitting their homes in droves to take jobs in industry, but such is not the case in Lamb County.

Locally, the percentage of working wives is below average, according to reports from the Department of Labor and data from the Department of Commerce, based on the recent census figures.

What has caused so many married women to enter the labor force? Bluntly, according to a Labor Department spokesman, they have done so for the same reason that men do—to support themselves and their dependents and "not for mink coats, convertibles or color TV."

Generally, it is noted, the lower the husband's income the more likely his wife is to get a job. There are others, of course, who take jobs because they have too much free time on their hands and are bored. They welcome the activity and added money.

The proportion of Lamb County's female population as a whole, single and married, that has entered the labor force is relatively small.

Locally, only 23.8 percent of them who are above the age of 14 hold outside jobs. This compares with 34.5 percent in the United States and 31.5 percent in the West South Central States.

The actual count shows a total of 1,732 in the labor force out of a female population over age 14 of 7,291.

What kind of work are the women doing? The reports indicate that they are to be found in almost every occupation. They are in business as owners and managers of establishments, they are in the professions, they are clerks and they are service workers. In fact, there are few fields of work left in which men have a monopoly.

In Lamb County, on contrast to the situation in many communities, only 22.2 percent of local jobs are filled by women. Elsewhere in the United States, women hold 32.7 percent of the jobs available, and, in the West South Central States,

TEMPE, ARIZ., DAILY NEWS: "If every taxpayer had to pay an equal share of the total national debt, it would come to $4,949, apiece, $107 more than at this time last year."

The official figures show that no less than 22 million women are at work today, twice as many as there were in 1940. The Labor Department believes that the number will go at least 13 million higher by 1970.

Does Ford Fairlane's "compact" price mean it's a compact car?

NO!!!

Rambler is a compact!
 The experts classify cars by wheelbase. Anything under 114-inch wheelbase is a compact. The biggest Rambler's wheelbase is only 108 inches!
Chevy II is a compact!
 Chevy II tries to sound like a middle-size car... but its wheelbase is only 110 inches!
Our Ford Fairlane is right between the compacts and the big cars — gives you compact price with big-car room and ride!
 Fairlane's wheelbase is a full 115.5 inches. From bumper to bumper, Fairlane measures 197.6 inches... 14.6 inches longer than Chevy II... 7.6 inches longer than the longest Rambler. Fairlane is as roomy inside as most of the cars on the road today... and rides more smoothly than most. Yet it's a foot shorter... easier to park than the big cars... less gas-wasting bulk. Come size it up!

Parental Consent Needed For Child's Medical Care

It's a good idea to give written consent for necessary medical care if your child leaves home for a visit, or a camping trip, or if you plan to be away for any length of time.

For example, a summer camp nurse may bring a boy into a hospital with an acute case of appendicitis. But the doctor may well hesitate to go ahead and operate without the parent's consent.

Is the doctor arbitrary, and is such permission just a legal technicality? No, he is well within his rights, though he may give first aid—but only for emergency treatment where a child's health or life may be at stake. He is likely to put off follow-up care until he can reach the child's parents. A relative or baby-sitter generally cannot grant consent for a child's treatment.

Even an adult must request treatment and grant consent to medical care on his own before a doctor can give it to him. Children cannot do this. By going to your doctor you show your willingness and consent to accept his treatment. Your consent is assumed also when you ask for a house call by the doctor, or if as a result of an accident you come to a hospital for emergency treatment. If you are unconscious, the doctor may well give you emergency care, yet later he should get your consent to further treatment.

Minors cannot consent to medical treatment, and except in dire emergencies their parents or guardians must give it for them.

The consent should not be broadly or loosely phrased, but should be as specific as circumstances permit.

The principal reason for having the consent in writing is to avoid later misunderstandings. It is a protection both to the patient and physician.

HP Underground Water District Publishes Map

LUBBOCK—The High Plains Underground Water Conservation District has announced the publishing of a map which indicates the decline of the ground-water table in the southern High Plains for the 24-year period, 1938 to 1962.

The map is prepared in three colors, black, yellow and red. It uses the different colors to indicate various increments of decline.

A total of five increments are shown — 10-40 feet, 40-60 feet, 60-80 feet and more than 100 feet of decline since 1938.

W.L. (Bill) Broadhurst, chief hydrologist for the High Plains Water District made the decline computations revealed by the color map. His computations were based on water-level measurements made by the U.S. Geological Survey, the Texas Water Commission and the High Plains Water District.

According to Broadhurst, a decline map such as the one just published can be used along with other data to determine, within reasonable limits, the amount of ground water depleted from the reservoir and the approximate amount of water remaining in storage.

"Percentage wise," Broadhurst states, "as an average for the 13 counties in the High Plains Water District, something on the order of 20 per cent of the ground water available to pumps in 1938 has been depleted. The percent of depletion for the counties in the District is: Armstrong, 32 per cent; Bailey, 13 per cent; Castro, 19 per cent; Cochran, 20 per cent; Deaf Smith, 18 per cent; Floyd, 22 per cent; Hockley, 30 per cent; Lamb, 15 per cent; Lubbock, 44 per cent; Lynn, 38 per cent; Parmer, 12 per cent; Potter, 33 per cent; and Randall, 20 per cent.

The map has been reproduced in the Water District's non-advertising monthly newspaper, "The Cross Section" and mailed to those persons on the circulation list. For others, who do not receive "The Cross Section" but who would like a copy of the map, it will be made available free of charge upon request. Address may requests to: High Plains Water District, 1628 15th Street, Lubbock, Texas.

Guilty

of Self-Embezzlement?

It's a serious charge. But lots of us are guilty . . . although very few people cheat themselves intentionally. Yet that's just what we're doing when we fail to shop our home stores before we buy.

Often enough the deals are better at home, dollar for dollar. Always they're better when you consider that Trade Builds Communities . . . and that Trade is the sole source of prosperity for an area and for those who live within it. Even great natural resources benefit only a few people if that wealth gets away from the community's regular trade channels.

When we buy from those who buy from us . . . either our labor or our products . . . when we trade with the neighbors who help us to support our local social facilities . . . when we spend our money where Trade creates opportunities for us and our children . . . then we're getting full value for the money we work to earn.

Artificial Respiration Explained

The tragedy of the thousands of persons who drowned last summer is that many lives could have been saved if a rescuer or bystander had known how to apply artificial respiration.

The important things about

LET'S TELL A STORY--Students at Vacation Bible School at First Methodist Church listen to one of their favorite Bible stories, as told by their teacher, Mrs. Dan Gregory.

"DEEP AND WIDE"--The little ones sing it out loud and clear at the Vacation Bible School at the First Methodist Church. They are being directed by Mrs. Owen Norfleet.

artificial respiration are: Know how to do it; start applying it immediately after the victim has been removed from the water. Don't wait for an ambulance or for help to arrive. It probably will be too late.

The American Red Cross offers courses in life saving that include artificial respiration. But, even without formal training, most people could manage to give assistance to the rescued swimmer. There are two methods of artificial respiration currently being taught: Mouth-to-mouth, and back-pressure, arm-lift. Of the two, first aid experts usually agree that the mouth-to-mouth, or mouth-to-nose method is the most practical, the absence of special equipment.

In the mouth-to-mouth method, first clear the air passages by drawing the tongue forward with your fingers. Place the victim halfway between a face-up and side position, tilt the head well back to insure a clear air passageway. Take a deep breath, place your mouth over the victim's nose or mouth, and breathe into his lungs until you see the chest rise and feel the lungs expand. In mouth-to-mouth, pinch victim's nostrils shut while breathing into his lungs. Remove your mouth and let the victim exhale. Place your hand between the ribs and navel and apply slight pressure to expel all air. Repeat the cycle 15 times a minute. The manual method should be used if for any reason the mouth-to-mouth method cannot be used. Place the victim in a face-up position. Place something under the victim's shoulders to raise them and allow the head to drop backward. Grasp victim's arms at the wrists, crossing and pressing victim's wrists against the lower chest. Immediately pull arms upward, outward and backward as far as possible. Repeat 15 times per minute.

For either method, there are some basic rules. Start immediately. Check mouth for obstructions. Loosen clothing and keep the victim warm, but don't delay artificial respiration to do this. After the victim revives, be ready to resume respiration if necessary. Have someone call a physician. Don't stop and don't give up unless you're positive the victim is dead.

"Modern?" That's like when you've got Gas Air Conditioning!

"Modern" is a real hard word to explain. Like, fr instance, if you were talking about the "newest" in Summer comfort—the Sun Valley Gas air conditioner. It's the "most" in Summer comfort, because the air is the "coolest," and "cleanest" and stays that way when it's "hottest" outside. You might say it's the "economical"est," too, because it uses low-cost, dependable GAS. And no moving parts in the heating or cooling cycles make it the "maintenance free"est" of any unit on the market. So I guess you'd say "modern" ends everything with an "est," like the Sun Valley does.

KING-SIZED FILTER

Mama says it'll be all right for daddy to stay in the house to smoke his cigar now, thanks to Sun Valley's new twice-as-big filters.

BUDGET-SIZED ECONOMY

Mama says it's never too soon to learn the dollars and sense facts about utility bills. She says "constant efficiency" means it keeps you cool all the time, and doesn't cost any more when it gets hot.

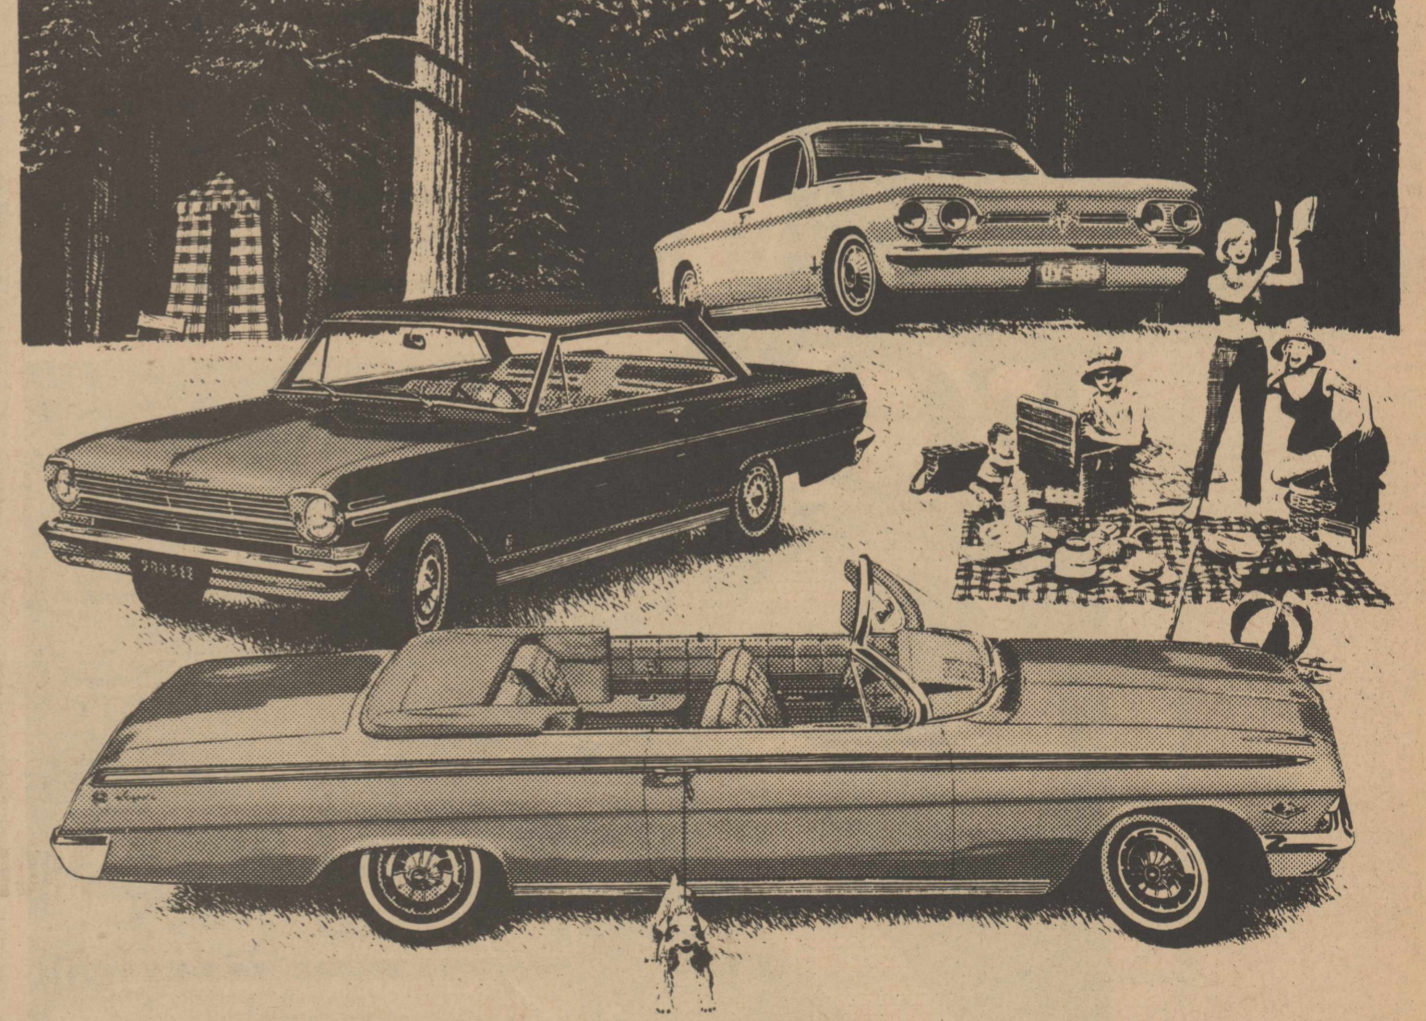

NO MOVING PARTS

Sun Valley works like a coffee percolator, and who ever heard of a percolator wearing out?

Plans Laid For Annual Flame Cultivation Tours

Initial plans in preparation for the third annual flame cultivation tours and demonstrations Aug. 10 at the High Plains Research Foundation were made recently by representatives of the Foundation, the Texas Butane Dealers Association and manufacturers of flame cultivation equipment.

A full day of activities were planned at the meeting. A press conference for agricultural editors and reporters was scheduled at the Foundation's new office building Friday morning. The tours to view the research results on various crops were scheduled 1:30 to 4 p.m. Exhibits and demonstrations of the latest equipment will be the last stop of the six scheduled tours.

A conference on weed control through flame and other results will conclude the afternoon program at Halfway. The group preparing for the tour included Ted J. Parks of Austin, public relations director for the Texas Butane Dealers Association; Fred Garrison, Plainview Garrison Oil Co., district director of the Texas Butane Dealers Association; Jodie Howard, Lubbock Western Tank & Steel and AFCCO; Bill Taylor, Jones Copeland, Bill Watson, B.T. Lusk, Gene Bumpus Co. and Gocher Mfg. Co.; Dr. Earl H. Collister, director, and C.H. Janeway, head of public relations of the High Plains Research Foundation.

Nation wide interest and attendance at the special flame cultivation day is indicated. The public is invited to attend the tours.

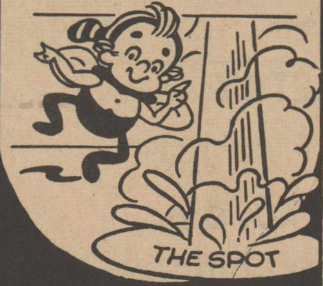

HAWLEY, MINN., HERALD: "J. Edgar Hoover is concerned with the leniency shown by judges towards the hardened, habitual criminals. Out of 167 criminals on the FBI's 10 most wanted fugitives bulletins since 1950, there are 140 who have received leniency. 'Suspended sentences, paroles and probations are meted out to murderers, rapists and depraved thugs as though there were merit badges,' Hoover says. 'Our legal machinery in some areas has long since departed from its primary purpose--the protection of society.'"

HAYWARD, WISC., RECORD: "United States House of Representative members defeated by five votes an attempt to cut off THEIR right to send unaddressed or 'junk mail' to voters at taxpayers' expense, to roll call vote being 197 to 192. Here is another example of how the 'untouchables' can fool the public with the old saying, 'Don't do as I do, do as I say.' It is not unlikely that they probably spent a good portion of the day expounding the theory of 'economy in government' and turned right around and passed this provision."

Plainview PCA Is Still The Largest In Nation

The Plainview Production Credit Association held its place in 1961 as the nation's largest, according to figures recently released by the Farm Credit Administration.

Serving as eight-county area of the High Plains, the Plainview association ranked first in three categories among nearly 500 associations serving the United States and Puerto Rico. The association led in total loan volume, net worth and amount of capital stock owned by association members. It also held high ranking in the nation in two other categories, loans outstanding on Dec. 31, 1961 and in accumulated earnings.

The association's 1961 loan volume totalled $37,205,000, highest in its history. Total net worth and reserves was $4,292,183, and capital stock, all member owned, totalled $2,792,370.

The agricultural credit organization had $12,833,000 in loans outstanding on Dec. 31, 1961, fourth highest in the nation and highest among 36 associations in Texas.

"We are gratified that our association earned this recognition among the nation's Production Credit Association," commented L.R. Durham of Plainview, association president. "The figures themselves are important only in the fact that they reflect our continuous effort to provide dependable and progressive agricultural credit to our stockholders."

The Plainview Production Credit Association, owned and operated in its entirety by more than 1,700 farmers and ranchers, provides agricultural credit in Farmer, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Bailey, Lamb, Hale and Floyd counties. Officers are operated in Plainview, Friona, Dimmitt, Tullia, Silverton, Muleshoe, Littlefield and Floydada.

Fred Conner of Plainview is acting general manager of the association. In addition to President Durham, other directors are Vice-President Henry Hayes, D.S. Anderson of Muleshoe, Grady Shepard of Hale Center and Don Garrison of Silverton.

The 36 Production Credit Associations, serving all 254 Texas counties, loaned nearly $400,000,000 in 1961. The nation's 500 PCAs had a loan volume of $2.9 billion, a record high for any single year.

HYBRID SORGHUM SEEDS FROM RICHARDSON SEED FARMS

POPULAR CERTIFIED HYBRID VARIETIES GROWN, STORED, & PROCESSED ON OUR CLEAN, WELL ISOLATED FARMS.

R.S. 610 (7078 x male-sterile combine Kafir) Texas 610 is a 7078 early hybrid. The large semi-dry head is very light red and medium soft in texture. Texas 610 which has shown good increases in yield over several varieties such as Redbine-60 and Martin, has proven to be one of the most popular varieties under all farming conditions.

TEXAS 660 (Caprock x male-sterile combine Kafir) Texas 660 is a medium-maturing hybrid. Texas 660 has made many outstanding yields under irrigation. Its uniform combine height and semi-dry head with the high yield potential has made it the most popular variety for irrigation.

TEXAS 601 (Tx 04-A Martin cross x male sterile combine Kafir) A good early maturing, dry-headed hybrid. This light red grain has shown good yield increases over Redbine-60 and earlier varieties.

R.S. 608 (7078 x MS Martin) A newer variety, probably the earliest of the Texas Hybrids—it has excellent combine characteristics. It produces Martin and matures a few days earlier. We recommend R.S. 608 especially for late planting on either irrigated or dry land.

Mahon Drafts Amendments To Farm Bill

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Representative George Mahon reports that he is drafting a series of amendments which he proposes to offer to the farm bill which is scheduled for consideration by the House at an early date. The Senate, on May 25th, passed a farm bill which provides for a mandatory control program on feed grains in the event two-thirds of the feed grain producers voting in a referendum favor such mandatory controls. The bill provides for a multiple-price system on wheat and has other provisions, none of which affect cotton. The most significant provisions in both the Senate and House versions of the bill are those affecting feed grains.

Mahon's amendments provide that cotton farmers would have the option of planting feed grain on cotton allotment land in the event the cotton is destroyed so late in the season that replanting is impractical. The amount of feed grain planted could not exceed the total of the cotton and feed grain allotments on the farm.

Another proposed amendment provides that the feed grain allotment of cotton farmers, who chose the Choice "B" route during the 1959-60 crop years, would not be reduced as a result of such action.

Mahon proposes to offer an amendment to raise the percentage of the national feed grain allotment set aside for new growers in order to provide more relief for farmers who have put new land to feed grain since 1960. The House version of the bill proposes to set aside a total of three percent of the national allotment for new growers, hardship cases, and other adjustments.

The House version of the bill provides that if two-thirds of the feed grain growers in a referendum do not vote for mandatory controls there will be no support program on feed grain in 1963 and thereafter. Mahon will propose that if quotas are voted down, a 50 percent-of-parity support loan shall be provided in order to give the producers a less drastic alternative to mandatory controls in the event farmers vote down the control program.

Under the pending bills feed grain allotments in 1963 would be based on planting during the 1959 and 1960 crop years.

Mahon stated that in his opinion West Texas feed grain farmers would prefer to continue in 1963 a feed grain program similar to the 1961 and 1962 programs. He believes the present program would be more acceptable to milo farmers than the proposed new program.

Mahon pointed out however, that there was mounting resentment against the payment of huge sums for the storage of surplus grain and that Members of Congress from non-farm areas tend to support the position of Secretary Freeman that if meaningful support loans are to be provided on feed grain crops an effective control program must be adopted.

The proposed legislation would establish for feed grains a control program in some respects similar to the control program which has been in effect for cotton for a number of years. A principal difference would be that for the next three years feed grain producers would be paid for acres diverted from feed grain.

The proposed feed grain program differs from the cotton program in this further respect. Under the feed grain proposal the Secretary could sell each year at market prices up to ten million tons of government-stored feed grain, the equivalent of roughly one-fifth of currently held government grain. Under the cotton program the Secretary can sell government-owned cotton on the domestic market at not less than 115 percent of the support level.

The present feed grain law which is the basis for the 1962 program expires this year and some kind of substitute legislation is anticipated.

Mahon stated that he needs and would welcome the advice and counsel of feed growers in regard to the proposed new farm legislation and in regard to the amendments which he proposes to offer. Copies of the proposed bill are available at offices of county agents and at the ASC offices.

Texas Fine Tourist Spot Healthwise

Have you ever thought of the advantages of spending your vacation this year traveling through your home state of Texas?

Travel in Texas not only provides the tourist with some of the nation's leading historical and scenic attractions but with a healthful atmosphere as well.

The climate is generally mild although there are extremes of heat and cold. But while these extremes can be uncomfortable they are usually of short duration.

Due to the state's great size and varied terrain, it has a wide range of temperature so that the tourist can virtually take his pick.

While Texas is growing industrially, the state is still practically free of atmospheric conditions that trouble the more heavily industrialized areas. The air is not completely free of pollutants, but Texas cities are generally not plagued with inversions, smog, and such.

There are many other advantages which, while not exclusive with Texas, certainly can be claimed as advantages. For example, there has not been a single case of smallpox in Texas in seven years.

While there is still some typhoid fever, its danger is remote if tourists use reasonable judgment in their eating and drinking habits. Typhus is virtually nonexistent, and the danger of contracting malaria, formerly a serious hazard, is also insignificant.

Travelers dining in approved restaurants, coffee shops, and cafeterias are served food prepared under sanitary conditions. All food handling establishments are regularly inspected in areas served by full time health departments and food handling personnel in most areas voluntarily attend training courses in food handling sanitation.

Tourists who wish to fill their thermos jugs or procure drinking water for other purposes may do so from any one of Texas 375 approved city water systems. They may swim in any one of many municipal or community pools which are inspected by sanitarians of local health units.

Finally for those who prefer to rough it in comfort, Texas has well protected camping areas in state and national parks where a high degree of sanitary protection has been provided without eliminating the satisfying aspect of living next to nature.

A Texas vacation is a healthy vacation.

(A weekly feature from the Division of Public Health Education, Texas State Dept. of Health.)

"You complain that you have had to support your wife's family?" the court questioned the man seeking a divorce.

"Yes, your honor."

"How much of a family has she?"

"Four children, your honor."

"Who is their father?"

"I am, your honor."

It's Time To Go Mad ---Gastronomically!

The season of gastronomic madness is upon us. Summer brings with it, along with sunburn and overexercise, a nuttiness which emanates from women's magazines and women's pages in the newspapers. We refer to the "delicious summertime treats."

These things break out like heat rash. You know—"Tuna Surprise," "Tomato Treat," and that old reliable, "Quick Casserole for 16."

Recipe editors are satisfied all the rest of the year with fried chicken and roasts, but let the thermometer outside get up near baking heat, and they go into a frenzy of inventiveness.

Wives fall for these ulcer-irritating concoctions. No telling how many husbands are laid away by them.

Already we have seen recipes for grape-flavored toplaoca and melon balls Alaska, advertised to "pick up the most jaded summertime appetite." You couldn't whet most appetites with toplaoca even if you flavored it with bourbon.

Some of these recipes would have been good back in the old days before air conditioning and deep freezers. Mother used to stir up things and try to freeze them in the refrigerator ice trays. Her favorite was peanut butter ice-cream with cornflakes. It never froze, but she tried. A cold supper consisting of tuna fish salad and peanut butter ice-cream sort of hit the spot when heat waves bounded from wall to wall. Today, however, when you suffer from air conditioned chills all summer long, cold soup and sandwiches just won't fetch it.

One current woman's magazine is pushing spring pink desserts. Somehow we always associated spring with green, but they do it up pink. You might try these—"Pink Rhubarb Sherbet" and "Ruby Rhubarb Mold with Custard."

Salad luncheons flourish like Johnson grass in the lawn. Starting off with this exhortation "May is the merriest month and a lovely time, we think, to charm friends with salad luncheons. . . ." the editors go on to describe horrors that can be stomached only by the stronger sex. Example: "Clam Broth with Yogurt and Basil." Really! And for a salad luncheon!

A little later in the summer we have picnics and patoto salad, the only rival to the neutron bomb. Silently and devastatingly, patoto salad goes on, year after year, more deadly than coronaries. Here is our favorite:

MADAME GUILLOTINE'S POTATO SALAD WITH MERCIFUL DRESSING
 6 large boiled potatoes
 3 pickles, chopped
 Onions and pimiento, chopped
 Mayonnaise
 1 ounce prussic acid (kills eight)

When hubby comes home from a tough July day at the air conditioned office (temperature 68 degrees) through heavy traffic (car temperature 66 degrees) to the cool haven of the old home (temperature 65 degrees), here is a dainty treat to relax him.

MOTHER MACHREE'S SALMON SURPRISE
 1 can salmon
 1 can smoked cocktail oysters
 1 quart milk
 1 cup vinegar

Place ingredients in pressure cooker and boil for 30 minutes. Cook in the quick freeze and, when hubby arrives, drop in frozen melon balls and serve. This will surprise him. It would even surprise the salmon.

LIBERAL, KANS. SOUTH-WEST DAILY TIMES: "The nation's farmers overwhelmingly oppose tighter government controls, if a poll of readers of the nation's largest farm magazine is any indication. Only four per cent of over 50,000 Farm Journal readers who sent in ballots voted in favor of compulsory quotas advocated in the farm program being pushed by the present Administration."

NEW HAVEN, MO., LEADER: "The final victory for the Communists in many lands was made possible in internal subversion and by the artificial and coldblooded creation of intolerable economic conditions within the borders of those unfortunate lands. How did the Communist agents create these intolerable economic conditions? By creating inflation. A typical example can be found in Hungary. . . . EGG SHELLS
Changes in feeding and management practices are required to keep egg shells thick and strong during the summer months, reports Dr. J.H. Quisenberry, head of the Department of Poultry Science, Texas A&M College.

Mr. J.—"My dear, this book is marvelous! Stupendous! When I read a book like this, it makes me think how lowly, how insignificant is man."
Mrs. J.—"A woman doesn't have to wade through four hundred pages to discover that!"

"I disapprove of all brutal sports, prize-fighting, angling."
"Good heavens, how can you mention those two sports in the same breath?"
"Why not? Isn't it the object of both pugilist and angler to land a hook in the jaw?"
